(3) The commissioner may suspend the license of an insurer or an advisory organization that fails to comply with any order within the time set by the order or extension granted by the commissioner. The commissioner may not suspend a license for failure to comply with an order until the time prescribed for appeal from the order has expired or, if appealed, until the order has been affirmed. The commissioner may determine the period of a suspension, which remains in effect for the period unless modified or rescinded or until the order upon which the suspension is based is modified, rescinded, or reversed.

(4) Unless a consent decree has been entered, a penalty may not be imposed nor may a license be suspended or revoked unless the commissioner, following a hearing, issues a written order with findings of fact. The hearing must be held at least 10 days after written notice to the person or organization specifying the alleged violation.

(5) A party aggrieved by an order or decision of the commissioner may, within 30 days after receiving the commissioner's notice, make a written request for a hearing.

History: En. Sec. 17, Ch. 186, L. 1995; amd. Sec. 147, Ch. 42, L. 1997.

33-16-1036. Appeals from commissioner. (1) An order, decision, or act of the commissioner under this part may be appealed to district court upon petition of a person aggrieved.

(2) A petition for review must be filed within 60 days from notice of the order, decision, or act. The commencement of the proceeding does not affect enforcement or validity of the commissioner's action unless the court determines, after notice to the commissioner, that a stay of enforcement until further direction of the court will not injure the interests of the public.

Agency generally, Title 28, ch. 10.

Part 1
General Provisions

33-17-101. Scope of chapter. (1) The purpose of this chapter is to govern the qualifications and procedures for licensing insurance producers.

(2) Except as provided in subsection (3), this chapter applies to all stock, mutual, and reciprocal insurers and to all kinds of insurance and annuities.

(3) Except as provided in 33-17-401 and 33-17-408(2), this chapter does not apply to surplus lines producers.

33-17-102. Definitions. As used in this title, the following definitions apply:

(1) (a) "Adjuster" means a person who, on behalf of the insurer, for compensation as an independent contractor or as the employee of an independent contractor or for a fee or commission investigates and negotiates the settlement of claims arising under insurance contracts or otherwise acts on behalf of the insurer.

(b) The term does not include a:

(i) licensed attorney who is qualified to practice law in this state;

(ii) salaried employee of an insurer or of a managing general agent;

(iii) licensed insurance producer who adjusts or assists in adjustment of losses arising under policies issued by the insurer;

(iv) licensed third-party administrator who adjusts or assists in adjustment of losses arising under policies issued by the insurer; or

(v) claims examiner as defined in 39-71-116.

(2) "Adjuster license" means a document issued by the commissioner that authorizes a person to act as an adjuster.

(3) (a) "Administrator" means a person who collects charges or premiums from residents of this state in connection with life, disability, property, or casualty insurance or annuities or who adjusts or settles claims on these coverages.

(b) The term does not include:

(i) an employer on behalf of its employees or on behalf of the employees of one or more subsidiaries of affiliated corporations of the employer;

(ii) a union on behalf of its members;

(iii) (A) an insurer that is either authorized in this state or acting as an insurer with respect to a policy lawfully issued and delivered by the insurer in and pursuant to the laws of a state in which the insurer is authorized to transact insurance; or

(B) a health service corporation as defined in 33-30-101;

(iv) a life, disability, property, or casualty insurance producer who is licensed in this state and whose activities are limited exclusively to the sale of insurance;

(v) a creditor on behalf of its debtors with respect to insurance covering a debt between the creditor and its debtors;

(vi) a trust established in conformity with 29 U.S.C. 186 or the trustees, agents, and employees of the trust;

(vii) a trust exempt from taxation under section 501(a) of the Internal Revenue Code or the trustees and employees of the trust;

(viii) a custodian acting pursuant to a custodian account that meets the requirements of section 401(f) of the Internal Revenue Code or the agents and employees of the custodian;

(ix) a bank, credit union, or other financial institution that is subject to supervision or examination by federal or state banking authorities;

(x) a company that issues credit cards and that advances for and collects premiums or charges from the company's credit card holders who have authorized the company to do so, if the company does not adjust or settle claims;

(xi) a person who adjusts or settles claims in the normal course of the person's practice or employment as an attorney and who does not collect charges or premiums in connection with life or disability insurance or annuities; or

(xii) a person appointed as a managing general agent in this state whose activities are limited exclusively to those described in 33-2-1501(10) and Title 33, chapter 2, part 16.

(4) "Administrator license" means a document issued by the commissioner that authorizes a person to act as an administrator.

(5) (a) "Business entity" means a corporation, association, partnership, limited liability company, limited liability partnership, or other legal entity.

(b) The term does not include an individual.

(6) "Consultant" means an individual who for a fee examines, appraises, reviews, evaluates, makes recommendations, or gives advice regarding an insurance policy, annuity, or pension contract, plan, or program.

(7) "Consultant license" means a document issued by the commissioner that authorizes an individual to act as an insurance consultant.

(8) "Individual" means a natural person.

(9) "Insurance producer", except as provided in 33-17-103, means a person required to be licensed under the laws of this state to sell, solicit, or negotiate insurance.

(10) "Lapse" means the expiration of the license for failure to renew by the biennial renewal date.

(11) "License" means a document issued by the commissioner that authorizes a person to act as an insurance producer for the lines of authority specified in the document. The license itself does not create actual, apparent, or inherent authority in the holder to represent or commit an insurer to a binding agreement.

(12) "Limited line credit insurance" includes credit life insurance, credit disability insurance, credit property insurance, credit unemployment insurance, involuntary unemployment insurance, mortgage life insurance, mortgage guaranty insurance, mortgage disability insurance, gap insurance, and any other form of insurance offered in connection with an extension of credit that is limited to partially or wholly extinguishing the credit obligation and that the commissioner determines should be designated as a form of limited line credit insurance.

(13) "Limited line credit insurance producer" means a person who sells, solicits, or negotiates one or more forms of limited line credit insurance coverage to individuals through a master, corporate, group, or individual policy.

(14) "Limited lines insurance" means those lines of insurance that the commissioner finds necessary to recognize for the purposes of complying with 33-17-401(3).

(15) "Limited lines producer" means a person authorized by the commissioner to sell, solicit, or negotiate limited lines insurance.

(16) "Lines of authority" means any kind of insurance as defined in Title 33.

(17) "Negotiate" means the act of conferring directly with or offering advice directly to a purchaser or prospective purchaser of a particular contract of insurance concerning any of the substantive benefits, terms, or conditions of the contract if the person engaged in negotiation either sells insurance or obtains insurance from insurers for purchasers.

(18) "Person" means an individual or a business entity.

(19) "Public adjuster" means an adjuster employed by and representing the interests of the insured.

(20) "Sell" means to exchange a contract of insurance by any means, for money or the equivalent, on behalf of an insurance company.

(21) "Solicit" means attempting to sell insurance or asking or urging a person to apply for a particular kind of insurance.

(22) "Suspend" means to bar the use of a person's license for a period of time.

(23) "Uniform application" means the national association of insurance commissioners' uniform application for resident and nonresident insurance producer licensing.

(24) "Uniform business entity application" means the national association of insurance commissioners uniform business entity application for resident and nonresident business entities.

Compiler's Comments

2005 Amendments — Composite Section: Chapter 140 in definition of adjuster inserted (b)(v) excluding claims examiner as defined under Workers' Compensation Act from the definition; and made minor changes in style. Amendment effective March 30, 2005.

Chapter 469 in definition of consultant at beginning after "means" substituted "an individual" for "a person", after "evaluates" inserted "makes recommendations, or gives advice regarding", and at end after "program" deleted "or who makes recommendations or gives advice on an insurance policy, annuity, or pension contract, plan, or program"; in definition of consultant license after "authorizes" substituted "an individual" for "a person"; and made minor changes in style. Amendment effective October 1, 2005.

33-17-103. Exemptions from definition of insurance producer. The definition of insurance producer does not include:

(1) an individual who is a regularly salaried officer or employee of an insurer and who is engaged in the performance of usual and customary executive, administrative, or clerical duties and whose duties do not include the negotiation, sale, or solicitation of insurance;

(2) an individual who is a salaried employee in the office of an insurance producer and who devotes the individual's full time to clerical and administrative services, including the incidental taking of insurance applications and receipt of premiums in the office of the individual's employer, if the individual does not receive any commissions on the applications and the individual's compensation is not varied by the volume of applications or premiums the individual takes or receives;

(3) a person who secures and furnishes information for the purpose of group life insurance, group property and casualty insurance, group annuities, or group or blanket accident and disability insurance or for the purpose of enrolling individuals under those plans, issuing certificates under those plans, or otherwise assisting in administering those plans if a commission is not paid for the service;

(4) an employer, the employer's officers or employees, or the trustees of an employee trust plan, to the extent that the employer, officers, employees, or trustees are engaged in the administration or operation of a program of employee benefits for their own employees or the employees of their subsidiaries or affiliates if the program involves the use of insurance issued by an insurer and the employer, officers, employees, or trustees are not compensated in any manner, directly or indirectly, by the insurer issuing the contracts;

(5) a person who is:

(a) an employee of an insurer or of an organization employed by an insurer, which insurer or organization is engaged in the inspection, rating, or classification of insurance risks or in the supervision of the training of insurance producers; and

(b) not individually engaged in the selling, solicitation, or negotiation of insurance policies and contracts;

(6) an attorney advising a client on general insurance matters, provided the attorney does not sell, solicit, or negotiate insurance;

(7) a salaried full-time employee who counsels or advises the employer or the subsidiaries or affiliates of the employer about the life insurance or annuities if the employee does not sell or solicit insurance or receive a commission or fee;

(8) a person whose activities in this state are limited to advertising without the intent to solicit insurance in this state through communications in printed publications or other forms of electronic mass media whose distribution is not limited to residents of this state if the person does not sell, solicit, or negotiate insurance contracts with respect to risks located in this state; or

(9) a person who is not a resident of this state who sells, solicits, or negotiates a contract of insurance for commercial property and casualty risks with respect to an insured with risks located in more than one state that are insured under the contract if the person is licensed in the state where the insured maintains its principal place of business and the contract insures risks located in that state.

33-17-210. Centralized producer license registry — rules. (1) The commissioner may participate, in whole or in part, with the national association of insurance commissioners, or any affiliates or subsidiaries that the national association of insurance commissioners oversees, in a centralized producer license registry in which insurance producer licenses and appointments may be centrally or simultaneously effected for all states that participate in the registry and that require an insurance producer license.

(2) If the commissioner finds that participation in the centralized producer license registry is in the public interest, the commissioner may adopt by rule any uniform standards and procedures necessary to participate in the registry, including the central collection of all fees for licenses or appointments that are processed through the registry.

History: En. Sec. 1, Ch. 106, L. 2001.

33-17-211. General qualifications — application for license. (1) An individual applying for a license shall apply in a form approved by the commissioner and declare under penalty of refusal, suspension, or revocation of the license that statements made in the application are true, correct, and complete to the best of the individual's knowledge and belief. Before approving the application, the commissioner shall verify that the individual:

(a) is 18 years of age or older;

(b) has not committed an act that is a ground for refusal, suspension, or revocation as set forth in 33-17-1001;

(c) has paid the license fees stated in 33-2-708;

(d) has successfully passed the examinations for each kind of insurance for which the individual has applied within 12 months of application;

(e) is a resident of this state or of another state that grants similar privileges to residents of this state. Licenses issued based upon Montana state residency terminate if the licensee relocates to another state.

(f) is competent, trustworthy, and of good reputation;

(g) has experience or training or otherwise is qualified in the kind or kinds of insurance for which the applicant applies to be licensed and is reasonably familiar with the provisions of this code that govern the applicant's operations as an insurance producer;

(h) if applying for a license as to life or disability insurance:

(i) is not a funeral director, undertaker, or mortician operating in this or any other state;

(ii) is not an officer, employee, or representative of a funeral director, undertaker, or mortician operating in this or any other state; or

(iii) does not hold an interest in or benefit from a business of a funeral director, undertaker, or mortician operating in this or any other state; and

(i) has completed a background examination pursuant to 33-17-220.

(2) A resident or nonresident business entity acting as an insurance producer is required to obtain an insurance producer's license. Application must be made in a form approved by the commissioner. To approve the application, the commissioner shall verify that:

(a) the business entity has paid the appropriate fee; and

(b) the business entity has designated an individual licensed insurance producer who is responsible for the business entity's compliance with the insurance laws of this state.

(3) A person acting as an insurance producer shall obtain a license. A person shall apply for a license in a form approved by the commissioner. Before approving the application, the commissioner shall verify that:

(a) the person meets the requirements listed in subsection (1);

(b) the person has paid the licensing fees stated in 33-2-708 for each individual licensed in conjunction with the person's license. A licensed person shall promptly notify the commissioner of each change relating to an individual listed in the license.

(c) the person has designated a licensed officer to be responsible for the person's compliance with the insurance laws and rules of this state;

(d) each member and employee of a partnership and each officer, director, stockholder, or employee of a corporation who is acting as an insurance producer in this state has obtained a license;

(e) (i) if the person is a partnership or corporation, the transaction of insurance business is within the purposes stated in the partnership agreement or the articles of incorporation; and

(ii) if the person is a corporation, the secretary of state has issued a certificate of existence or authority under 35-1-1312 or filed articles of incorporation under 35-1-220.

(4) The commissioner may license as a resident insurance producer an association of licensed Montana insurance producers, whether or not incorporated, formed and existing substantially for purposes other than insurance. The license must be used solely for the purpose of enabling the association to place, as a resident insurance producer, insurance of the properties, interests, and risks of the state of Montana and of other public agencies, bodies, and institutions and to receive the customary commission for the placement. The president and secretary of the association shall apply for the license in the name of the association, and the commissioner shall issue the license to the association in the association's name alone. The fee for the license is the same as that required by 33-2-708(1)(a). The commissioner may, after a hearing with notice to the association, revoke the license if the commissioner finds that continuation of the license is not in the public interest or that a ground listed in 33-17-1001 exists.

(5) An insurance producer using an assumed business name shall register the name with the commissioner before using the name.

2005 Amendment: Chapter 469 in (1) near beginning of first sentence after "apply" substituted "in a form approved" for "on a form specified"; in (2) in second sentence after "made" substituted "in a form approved by the commissioner" for "using the uniform business entity application"; in (3) in second sentence after "license" substituted "in a form approved" for "on a form specified"; and made minor changes in style. Amendment effective October 1, 2005.

33-17-212. Examination required — exceptions — fees. (1) Except as provided in subsection (6), an individual applying for a license is required to pass a written examination. The examination must test the knowledge of the individual concerning each kind of insurance listed in subsection (5) for which application is made, the duties and responsibilities of an insurance producer, and the insurance laws and rules of this state. The examination must be developed and conducted under rules adopted by the commissioner.

(2) The commissioner may conduct the examination or make arrangements, including contracting with an outside testing service, for administering the examination. The commissioner may arrange for the testing service to recover the cost of the examination from the applicant.

(3) An individual who fails to appear for the examination as scheduled or fails to pass the examination may reapply for an examination and shall remit all forms before being rescheduled for another examination.

(4) If the applicant is a partnership or corporation, each individual who is to be named in the license as having authority to act for the applicant in its insurance transactions under the license shall meet the qualifications as provided in this section.

(5) Examination of an applicant for a license must cover all of the kinds of insurance for which the applicant has applied to be licensed, as constituted by any one or more of the following classifications:

(a) life insurance;

(b) disability insurance;

(c) property insurance. For the purposes of this provision, property insurance includes marine insurance.

(d) casualty insurance;

(e) surety insurance;

(f) limited lines credit insurance;

(g) title insurance.

(6) This section does not apply to and an examination is not required of:

(a) an individual lawfully licensed as an insurance producer as to the kind or kinds of insurance to be transacted as of or immediately prior to January 1, 1961, and who continues to be licensed;

(b) an applicant for a license covering the same kind or kinds of insurance as to which the applicant was licensed in this state, other than under a temporary license, within the 12 months immediately preceding the date of application unless the commissioner has suspended, revoked, or terminated the previous license;

(c) an applicant for a license as a nonresident insurance producer;

(d) transportation ticket agents of common carriers applying for a license to solicit and sell only:

(i) accident insurance ticket policies; or

(ii) insurance of personal effects while being carried as baggage on a common carrier, as incidental to their duties as transportation ticket agents;

(e) an association applying for a license under 33-17-211; or

(f) an individual who, within 90 days of cancellation of a license issued by the state of the individual's residence, files with the commissioner a current letter of clearance certifying that the individual has passed an examination and held an insurance license in good standing in the individual's state of licensure, except that the individual shall take an examination pertaining to this state's law and each kind of insurance for which the individual has applied for a license and that is not covered under the license held in the other state.

(7) (a) Subject to the provisions of subsection (7)(b), an individual who applies for a nonresident insurance producer license in this state and who was previously licensed for the same lines of authority in another state may not be required to complete any prelicensing education or examination.

(b) The exemption in subsection (7)(a) is available only if the individual is currently licensed in the other state or the individual's application is received within 90 days of the cancellation of the individual's previous license and if the other state issues a certification that, at the time of the cancellation, the individual was in good standing in that state or the state's database records, maintained by the national association of insurance commissioners or any of the association's affiliates or subsidiaries that the association oversees, indicate that the insurance producer is or was licensed in good standing for the lines of authority requested.

33-17-214. Issuance of license — insurance producer lines of authority — license data — lapse of license — change of address. (1) A person who has met the requirements of 33-17-211 and 33-17-212 must be issued a license, unless that person has been denied a license pursuant to 33-17-1001.

(2) An insurance producer may receive a license qualifying the insurance producer in one or more of the following lines of authority:

(a) life insurance coverage on human lives, including benefits of endowment and annuities, and the coverage may include benefits in the event of death or dismemberment by accident and benefits for disability income;

(b) accident and health or sickness insurance coverage providing for sickness, bodily injury, or accidental death, and the coverage may provide benefits for disability income;

(c) property insurance coverage for the direct or consequential loss or damage to property of every kind;

(d) casualty insurance coverage against legal liability, including liability for death, injury, or disability or damage to real or personal property;

(e) variable life and variable annuity products insurance coverage provided under variable life insurance contracts and variable annuities;

(f) personal lines of property and casualty insurance coverage sold to individuals and families for primarily noncommercial purposes;

(g) limited line credit insurance; or

(h) any other line of insurance permitted under Title 33.

(3) The license must state the name and address of the licensee, personal identification number, date of issuance, general conditions relative to expiration or termination, kind of insurance covered, and other information that the commissioner considers necessary.

(4) The license of a partnership, corporation, or association must also state the name of each individual authorized to exercise the license powers.

(5) Each license remains in effect, unless it is suspended, revoked, or terminated or the license lapses.

(6) A person shall inform the commissioner in writing of a change of address within 30 days of the change.

33-17-216. Temporary insurance producer license. (1) The commissioner may issue a temporary license to or with respect to an individual qualified for the temporary license only as to age, residence, and trustworthiness and without requiring the individual to take an examination, in the following cases:

(a) to the surviving spouse or next of kin or to the administrator or executor, or the employee of the administrator or executor, of a licensed insurance producer upon the insurance producer's death;

(b) to the spouse, next of kin, employee, or legal guardian of a licensed insurance producer disabled by injury or physical or mental illness;

(c) to an employee of a partnership, or officer or employee of a corporation, licensed as an insurance producer, upon the death or disability of an individual designated in the license to exercise the powers of an insurance producer;

(d) to the designee of a licensed insurance producer entering upon active service in the armed forces of the United States of America;

(e) in any other circumstance in which the commissioner finds that the public interest will best be served by issuing a temporary license.

(2) The temporary license must be issued upon application filed with the commissioner in the form and containing the information as the commissioner may reasonably require.

(3) The temporary license must be for a period of not over 90 days, subject to extension at the commissioner's discretion for an additional period of not more than 90 days, except that a temporary license issued pursuant to subsection (1)(a) may be continued until the executor or administrator disposes of the insurance business, but not to exceed a period of 15 months. A temporary license issued to the next of kin under subsection (1)(a) may not be extended for an additional term after the appointment and qualification of the administrator or executor.

33-17-217. Limitations and rights under temporary license. (1) The commissioner may not issue more than one temporary license, to or with respect to the same individual to be licensed, within any 12-month period.

(2) The temporary license may cover the same kinds of insurance for which the insurance producer being replaced was licensed.

(3) As to a temporary insurance producer's license issued on account of the death or disability of an insurance producer, the licensee may represent all of the insurers last represented by the deceased or disabled insurance producer, but the licensee may not be licensed for an additional kind of insurance under the temporary license.

(4) A temporary licensee has the same license powers and duties as under a permanent license.

33-17-219. Inactive status — insurance producers serving in armed forces. (1) The commissioner may place an insurance producer on inactive status if the insurance producer enters active service in the armed forces of the United States.

(2) An insurance producer may not transact the business of insurance while on inactive status.

(3) The commissioner shall waive the continuing education requirements in 33-17-1205 and the fee in 33-2-708 while an insurance producer is on inactive status.

(4) In order to be placed on inactive status, an insurance producer shall notify the commissioner when called to active service.

(5) In order to be taken off inactive status, an insurance producer shall notify the commissioner when discharged from active service.

History: En. Sec. 1, Ch. 427, L. 2003.

33-17-220. Licensing background examination — entity registry criteria. (1) (a) Each applicant shall obtain a complete background examination. The applicant or insurer shall pay the cost of the background examination. The background examination report must provide information to confirm:

(i) the applicant's:

(A) identity;

(B) current address;

(C) professional license certification; and

(D) military service; and

(ii) (A) existing or ongoing criminal investigations and court records relating to the applicant; and

(B) regulatory agencies' disciplinary actions concerning the applicant.

(b) The background examination is confidential and may not be held as part of the licensee's public file.

(2) For the purpose of obtaining a state and a federal criminal records check pursuant to subsection (1), the commissioner may require a person applying for a license to submit a full set of fingerprints to the commissioner. The commissioner shall submit the fingerprints to the Montana department of justice. The Montana department of justice may exchange this fingerprint data with the federal bureau of investigation.

(3) The commissioner may require fingerprints to be collected and remitted in an electronic format to facilitate periodic resubmission of fingerprints.

(4) The commissioner may contract for the collection, transmission, and retention of fingerprints and may agree to a reasonable fee charged by a contractor for these services. If the commissioner contracts for services, the fee for collecting, transmitting, and retaining of fingerprints must be paid directly to the contractor by the applicant or insurer.

(5) The commissioner is authorized to receive criminal history record information in lieu of the Montana department of justice relating to fingerprints submitted to the federal bureau of investigation.

(6) The commissioner may adopt rules to further implement this section, including but not limited to rules on the length of time that a background examination is valid and rules for the electronic filing of fingerprints.

33-17-231. Appointment of insurance producers — continuation and termination. (1) Each insurer appointing an insurance producer in this state shall file with the commissioner the appointment, specifying the kinds of insurance to be transacted by the insurance producer for the insurer. The appointment may be electronically filed pursuant to rules adopted by the commissioner.

(2) Each appointment remains in effect until the insurance producer's license is revoked or otherwise terminated unless written notice of earlier termination of the appointment is filed with the commissioner by the insurer or the insurance producer. The written notice may be electronically filed pursuant to rules adopted by the commissioner. Termination of the insurer's authority in Montana also terminates the appointment.

(3) Subject to the insurance producer's contract rights, an insurer may terminate an insurance producer's appointment at any time. The insurer shall promptly give written notice of the termination to the commissioner and to the insurance producer. The commissioner may require reasonable proof that the insurer has given notice to the insurance producer.

(4) As part of the notice of termination given the commissioner, the insurer shall file with the commissioner a statement of the facts relative to the termination and the cause of termination. Any information or statement contained in the notice of termination is not admissible as evidence in any action or proceeding against the insurer or any representative of the insurer by or on behalf of any person affected by the termination.

33-17-232. Rights of insurance producer following termination of appointment. (1) Following termination of any such agency appointment as to property, casualty, or surety insurance and subject to the terms of any agreement between the insurance producer and the insurer, the insurance producer may continue to service and receive from the insurer commissions or other compensation relative to business written by him for the insurer during the existence of the appointment.

(2) This section does not apply as to insurance producers of direct writing insurers or insurance producers or insurers between whom the relationship of employer and employee exists.

33-17-233 through 33-17-235 reserved.

33-17-236. Appointments of insurance producers by insurers. (1) An insurance producer may not claim to be a representative of or an authorized or appointed insurance producer of or use another term implying a contractual relationship with a particular insurer unless the insurance producer is an appointed insurance producer of that insurer pursuant to this section. This does not prevent an insurance producer from obtaining and presenting a quotation from an insurer with whom the producer is not appointed. If the insurer consents, the insurer may bind coverage on a risk in accordance with 33-15-411 prior to the execution of an agency contract and policy issuance.

(2) The insurer shall, not later than 15 days from the date on which the agency contract is executed with a licensed insurance producer, file with the insurance department a written notice of appointment on a form prescribed by the insurance department. The notice may be electronically filed pursuant to rules adopted by the commissioner.

(3) Upon receipt of the notice of appointment, the insurance department shall verify that the licensed insurance producer is eligible for appointment. If the licensed insurance producer is determined to be ineligible for appointment, the insurance department shall notify the insurer of the determination.

(4) An appointment is effective on the earlier of the date of the executed agency contract or the date on which the insurer files the notice of appointment with the insurance department, unless the appointment is disapproved by the insurance department. A disapproved appointment is void on the date the department provides notification to the insurer.

(5) The appointment is perpetual until canceled by the insurer.

History: En. Sec. 5, Ch. 713, L. 1989; amd. Sec. 3, Ch. 6, Sp. L. November 1993; amd. Sec. 32, Ch. 472, L. 1999.

33-17-237. Notification of violation or appointment termination. (1) Upon the termination of an appointed insurance producer by an insurer, the insurer shall notify the insurance department within 30 days in the manner prescribed by the insurance department, which may include electronic filing.

(2) If the reason for the termination is any of the causes listed in 33-17-1001 or 33-25-301, the insurer shall immediately notify the insurance department of the reason.

(3) Whenever an insurance company or an employee or representative of the company has reasonable cause to believe that a person has violated 33-17-1001 or 33-25-301, it is the duty of that entity, upon acquiring the knowledge, to notify the insurance department and provide the insurance department with a complete statement of all relevant facts and circumstances.

(4) The insurer, employee, or representative shall, upon request of the insurance department, provide information, documents and records, or other data pertaining to the alleged violation or termination that may be used by the insurance department in any action taken pursuant to Title 33, chapter 17, part 10.

(5) Any information, documents, records, or other data provided pursuant to this section is privileged, and there is no liability on the part of nor may a cause of action of any nature arise against the insurance department, the insurance company, or an authorized representative of either so long as the privileged information is furnished in good faith.

History: En. Sec. 6, Ch. 713, L. 1989; amd. Sec. 21, Ch. 451, L. 1993; amd. Sec. 4, Ch. 6, Sp. L. November 1993.

33-17-301. Adjuster license — qualifications — catastrophe adjustments — public adjuster. (1) An individual may not act as or purport to be an adjuster in this state unless licensed as an adjuster under this chapter. An individual shall apply to the commissioner for an adjuster license in a form approved by the commissioner. The commissioner shall issue the adjuster license to individuals qualified to be licensed as an adjuster.

(2) To be licensed as an adjuster, the applicant:

(a) must be an individual 18 years of age or more;

(b) must be a resident of Montana or resident of another state that will permit residents of Montana regularly to act as adjusters in the other state;

(c) shall pass an adjuster licensing examination as prescribed by the commissioner and pay the fee pursuant to 33-2-708;

(d) must be trustworthy and of good character and reputation; and

(e) must have and shall maintain in this state an office accessible to the public and shall keep in the office for not less than 5 years the usual and customary records pertaining to transactions under the license. This provision does not prohibit maintenance of the office in the home of the licensee.

(3) A partnership or corporation, whether or not organized under the laws of this state, may be licensed as an adjuster if each individual who is to exercise the adjuster license powers is separately licensed or is named in the partnership or corporation adjuster license and is qualified for an individual adjuster license.

(4) An adjuster license or qualifications are not required for an adjuster who is sent into this state by and on behalf of an insurer or adjusting partnership or corporation for the purpose of investigating or making adjustments of a particular loss under an insurance policy or for the adjustment of a series of losses resulting from a catastrophe common to all losses.

(5) An adjuster license continues in force until lapsed, suspended, revoked, or terminated. The licensee shall renew the license by the biennial renewal date and pay the appropriate fee or the license will lapse. The biennial fee is established pursuant to 33-2-708.

(6) The commissioner may adopt rules providing for the examination, licensure, bonding, and regulation of public adjusters.

33-17-401. Nonresident insurance producer — license. (1) A nonresident person, unless denied licensure pursuant to 33-17-1001, must be granted a license if:

(a) the person is currently licensed as a resident and is in good standing in the person's home state;

(b) the person has submitted the proper request for licensure and has paid the fees required by 33-2-708;

(c) the person has submitted or transmitted to the commissioner the application for licensure that the person submitted to the person's home state or a completed application in a form approved by the commissioner; and

(d) the person's home state awards nonresident insurance producer licenses to residents of this state on the same basis.

(2) A person licensed as a surplus lines producer in that person's home state must receive a nonresident surplus lines producer license upon meeting the requirements of subsection (1). Except for subsection (1), this section does not amend or supersede any provision of the surplus lines insurance law established in Title 33, chapter 2, part 3.

(3) A person licensed as a limited line credit insurance producer or other type of limited lines producer in that person's home state must receive a nonresident limited lines producer license upon meeting the requirements of subsection (1), granting the same scope of authority as granted under the license issued by the producer's home state. For the purposes of this subsection, limited lines insurance is any authority granted by a nonresident's home state that restricts the authority of the licensee to less than the total authority prescribed in the associated major lines pursuant to 33-17-214(2)(a) through (2)(e).

(4) If a nonresident insurance producer's state of residence suspends, revokes, or terminates the insurance producer's insurance license in that state, the insurance producer's Montana nonresident license automatically terminates. The nonresident insurance producer shall notify the commissioner that the insurance producer's state of residence has suspended, revoked, or terminated the insurance producer's insurance license in that state.

33-17-403. Repealed. Sec. 68, Ch. 713, L. 1989.

History: En. Sec. 3, Ch. 44, L. 1969; R.C.M. 1947, 40-3335.

33-17-405. Service of process — commissioner as agent. The commissioner shall act as a nonresident person's agent upon whom process in a legal proceeding against the nonresident person may be served. Service of process on the commissioner has the same legal force and validity as personal service of process upon the nonresident person. The commissioner shall, within 3 working days after receiving process, forward by certified mail, to the nonresident person's address of record, a copy of the process.

History: En. Sec. 5, Ch. 44, L. 1969; R.C.M. 1947, 40-3337; amd. Sec. 31, Ch. 713, L. 1989; amd. Sec. 51, Ch. 379, L. 1995.

Cross-References

Service of process, Rule 4D, M.R.Civ.P. (see Title 25, ch. 20).

33-17-406. Nonresident insurance producer subject to insurance code. A nonresident insurance producer is subject to the provisions of the Montana Insurance Code as though a resident of this state, unless otherwise provided.

History: En. Sec. 6, Ch. 44, L. 1969; R.C.M. 1947, 40-3338; amd. Sec. 32, Ch. 713, L. 1989.

33-17-407. Nonresident insurance producer to pay taxes — annual report required. (1) A nonresident insurance producer is subject to personal income, business income, or corporate license taxes for all income earned on insurance policies issued to cover subjects or risks residing, located, or to be performed in Montana and written within the boundaries of this state.

(2) A nonresident insurance producer shall file annually a Montana income tax return as required in Title 15.

Cross-References

33-17-408. Reciprocity — nonresident insurance producer licensing and continuing education. (1) The commissioner shall waive any requirements, except for the requirements of 33-17-401, for a nonresident applicant for an insurance producer's license who has a valid license from the applicant's home state if the applicant's home state awards nonresident licenses to residents of this state on the same basis.

(2) A nonresident insurance producer's satisfaction of the insurance producer's home state's continuing education requirements for licensed insurance producers constitutes satisfaction of this state's continuing education requirements if the nonresident insurance producer's home state recognizes the satisfactions of its continuing education requirements imposed upon insurance producers from this state on the same basis.

History: En. Sec. 8, Ch. 106, L. 2001.

33-17-409. Status of nonresident insurance producers — biennial renewal of license — payment of fees. A nonresident insurance producer's license continues in force until lapsed, suspended, revoked, or terminated. The license lapses if the licensee fails to remit a biennial renewal fee.

33-17-410 reserved.

33-17-411. Penalty. A nonresident insurance producer who violates a condition of his Montana license or a provision of this part is subject to a fine by the commissioner of up to $50,000 for each violation and may, at the discretion of the commissioner, have his Montana nonresident license revoked or suspended for a period of up to 5 years.

History: En. Sec. 5, Ch. 395, L. 1983; amd. Sec. 34, Ch. 713, L. 1989.

Compiler's Comments

2005 Amendment: Chapter 469 in (1)(a) after "application" substituted "in a form approved by the commissioner" for "on forms the commissioner prescribes". Amendment effective October 1, 2005.

33-17-504. Issuing license — limitations. The commissioner may issue a consultant license to an individual who has complied with the requirements of this chapter with respect to either life insurance, meaning all of those kinds of insurance authorized in 33-1-207, 33-1-208, 33-20-1001, 33-21-103, 33-22-501, and 33-22-601, or general insurance, meaning all of those kinds of insurance authorized in 33-1-206, 33-1-207, 33-1-209 through 33-1-212, 33-1-214 through 33-1-219, and 33-1-221 through 33-1-229, as specified in the license.

33-17-505. Qualification examination. (1) In order to determine the competency of an applicant for a consultant license, the commissioner shall require the applicant to pass an examination.

(2) The commissioner may conduct the examination or make arrangements, including contracting with an outside testing service, for administering the examination and collecting the fees required by 33-17-503. The commissioner may arrange for the testing service to recover its cost of the examination from the applicant.

33-17-506. Grounds for refusal to issue license. The commissioner may refuse to issue a consultant license if, in his judgment, the applicant is not trustworthy and competent to act as a consultant, has given cause for revocation or suspension of a license, or has failed to comply with any prerequisite for the issuance of a license.

History: En. 40-3344 by Sec. 6, Ch. 144, L. 1975; R.C.M. 1947, 40-3344(part); amd. Sec. 39, Ch. 713, L. 1989.

33-17-507. Revocation. The commissioner may revoke or suspend a consultant license for a specified period after giving notice and conducting a hearing. To revoke or suspend a license, the commissioner shall determine that the licensee:

(1) has violated any provision of or any obligation imposed by the insurance law or has violated any law in the course of dealing as an insurance consultant;

(2) has made a material misstatement in application for a consultant license;

(3) has been guilty of fraudulent or dishonest practices; or

(4) has demonstrated incompetency or untrustworthiness to act as an insurance consultant.

33-17-508 through 33-17-510 reserved.

33-17-511. Consideration for services only on written memorandum. A person licensed as an insurance consultant under this part may not receive a fee for examining, appraising, reviewing, or evaluating an insurance policy, bond, annuity or pension or profit-sharing contract, plan, or program or for making recommendations or giving advice with regard to any of the above unless the compensation is based upon a written memorandum that includes the insurance consultant's Montana insurance license number and is signed by the party to be charged and specifying or clearly defining the amount or extent of the compensation. An insurance consultant shall retain a copy of every memorandum or contract for not less than 3 years after those services have been fully performed.

33-17-512. Limitation on type of consideration. A licensed insurance consultant may not receive a commission, service fee, brokerage fee, or other valuable consideration for the sale or service of a line of insurance, annuity, security, or pension trust if the consultant has received compensation from the client for consulting services on the same line of insurance, annuity, security, or pension trust sold or serviced within the preceding 12 months.

History: En. 40-3346 by Sec. 8, Ch. 144, L. 1975; R.C.M. 1947, 40-3346; amd. Sec. 42, Ch. 713, L. 1989; amd. Sec. 1, Ch. 215, L. 1993.

33-17-513. Restrictions on insurers recommended by licensee. A person licensed as an insurance consultant under this part may not recommend or encourage the purchase of insurance, annuities, or securities from an authorized insurer in which he or any member of his immediate family holds an executive position or holds a substantial interest.

Licenses — discrimination in issuance prohibited, 49-3-204.

33-17-601. Repealed. Sec. 68, Ch. 713, L. 1989.

History: En. Sec. 1, Ch. 343, L. 1979; amd. Sec. 10, Ch. 409, L. 1987.

33-17-602. Written agreement required. (1) A person may not act as an administrator without a written agreement between the person and the insurer. The written agreement must be retained as part of the official records of both the administrator and the insurer for the duration of the agreement and for 5 years thereafter. The written agreement must contain provisions that include the requirements of 33-17-612 through 33-17-617 insofar as these requirements relate to the functions performed by the administrator.

(2) The agreement must contain a provision with respect to the underwriting or other standards pertaining to the business underwritten by the insurer.

(3) Whenever a policy is issued to a trustee, a copy of the trust agreement and any amendments to it must be furnished to the insurer by the administrator and be retained as part of the official records of both the administrator and the insurer for the duration of the policy and for 5 years thereafter.

33-17-603. Certificate of registration. (1) Except as provided in 33-17-604, a person may not act as or represent to the public that the person is an administrator in this state unless the person holds a certificate of registration as an administrator.

(2) An application for a certificate of registration must be accompanied by a fee of $100. The commissioner shall issue the certificate unless the commissioner finds that the applicant is not competent, trustworthy, financially responsible, or of good personal and business reputation or that the applicant has had a previous application for a license denied for cause within 5 years.

(3) A certificate of registration must be renewed each year by the administrator paying a continuation fee of $100 on or before July 1. Upon payment, the certificate continues in force unless suspended, revoked, or otherwise terminated. The commissioner shall deposit the fee with the state treasurer to be credited to the general fund.

(4) A certificate of registration may be suspended or revoked if, after notice and hearing, the commissioner finds that the administrator has violated any of the requirements of this part or that the administrator is not competent, trustworthy, financially responsible, or of good personal and business reputation.

(5) Unless a certification requirement is waived, a person who acts as an administrator without a certificate of registration is subject to a fine of not less than $500 or more than $1,500.

33-17-604. Waiver of certification requirements. The commissioner may waive the requirements of 33-17-603 for any person or class of persons. The factors taken into account in granting a waiver include but are not limited to:

(1) whether the person acting as an administrator is primarily in a business other than that of administrator;

(2) whether the financial strength and history of the organization indicates stability in its continuity of doing business;

(3) whether the regular duties being performed as an administrator are such that the covered persons are not likely to be injured by a waiver of the requirements.

33-17-605. Repealed. Sec. 19, Ch. 409, L. 1987.

History: En. Sec. 10, Ch. 343, L. 1979.

33-17-606 through 33-17-610 reserved.

33-17-611. Maintenance of information. For the duration of the agreement required by 33-17-602 and for 5 years thereafter, each administrator shall maintain at its principal administrative office adequate books and records of all transactions between the administrator, insurers, and insured persons. These books and records must be maintained in accordance with prudent standards of insurance recordkeeping. The commissioner shall have access to these books and records for examination, audit, or inspection. Any trade secrets contained in the books and records, including but not limited to the identity and addresses of policyholders and certificate holders, are confidential, except that the commissioner may use the information in any proceedings instituted against the administrator. The insurer retains the right to continuing access to those books and records of the administrator sufficient to permit the insurer to fulfill all of its contractual obligations to insured persons, subject to any restrictions in the written agreement between the insurer and the administrator.

History: En. Sec. 3, Ch. 343, L. 1979; amd. Sec. 47, Ch. 713, L. 1989.

33-17-612. Approval of advertising. An administrator may use only such advertising pertaining to the business underwritten by an insurer as is approved by the insurer in advance of its use.

History: En. Sec. 4, Ch. 343, L. 1979.

33-17-613. Collection of charges and premiums. (1) All insurance charges or premiums collected by an administrator on behalf of or for an insurer and return premiums received from the insurer are held by the administrator in a fiduciary capacity. These funds must be immediately remitted to the person entitled to them or must be deposited promptly in a fiduciary bank account established and maintained by the administrator. If deposited charges or premiums were collected on behalf of or for more than one insurer, the administrator shall require the bank in which the fiduciary account is maintained to keep records clearly recording the deposits in and withdrawals from the account on behalf of or for each insurer. The administrator shall promptly obtain and keep copies of all these records and, upon request of an insurer, shall furnish the insurer with copies of the records pertaining to deposits and withdrawals on behalf of or for the insurer.

(2) The administrator may not pay a claim by withdrawals from the fiduciary account. Withdrawals from the fiduciary account must be made, as provided in the written agreement between the administrator and the insurer, for:

(a) remittance to an insurer entitled to the remittance;

(b) deposit in an account maintained in the name of the insurer;

(c) transfer to and deposit in a claims paying account, with claims to be paid as provided in 33-17-615;

(d) payment to a group policyholder for remittance to the insurer entitled to the payment;

(e) payment to the administrator of its commission, fees, or charges; or

(f) remittance of return premiums to the person entitled to the premium.

History: En. Sec. 5, Ch. 343, L. 1979; amd. Sec. 48, Ch. 713, L. 1989.

Duties of trustees, Title 72, ch. 34, part 1.

33-17-614. Treatment of payments. Whenever an insurer utilizes the services of an administrator under the terms of a written contract as required in 33-17-602, the payment to the administrator of any premiums or charges for insurance by or on behalf of the insured is considered to be received by the insurer and the payment of return premiums or claims by the insurer to the administrator is not considered payment to the insured or claimant until the payments are received by the insured or claimant. This section does not limit any right of the insurer against the administrator resulting from the administrator's failure to make payments to the insurer, insureds, or claimants.

History: En. Sec. 6, Ch. 343, L. 1979.

33-17-615. Payment of claims. All claims paid by the administrator from funds collected on behalf of the insurer shall be paid only on drafts of and as authorized by such insurer.

History: En. Sec. 7, Ch. 343, L. 1979.

33-17-616. Delivery of documents. Any policies, certificates, booklets, termination notices, or other written communications delivered by the insurer to the administrator for delivery to its policyholders shall be delivered by the administrator promptly after receipt of instructions from the insurer to do so.

History: En. Sec. 8, Ch. 343, L. 1979.

33-17-617. Claim adjustment and settlement. With respect to any policies where an administrator adjusts or settles claims, the compensation to the administrator with regard to the policies shall in no way be contingent on claim experience. This section does not prevent the compensation of an administrator from being based on premiums or charges collected or number of claims paid or processed.

History: En. Sec. 9, Ch. 343, L. 1979.

33-17-618. Insured persons to be notified of availability of administrator. Whenever the services of an administrator are utilized, the administrator shall provide a written notice, approved by the insurer, to insured individuals, advising them of the identity of and relationship between the administrator, the policyholder, and the insurer. Whenever an administrator collects funds, the administrator shall identify and state, separately in writing, to the person paying to the administrator any charge or premium for insurance coverage the amount of such charge or premium specified by the insurer for the insurance coverage.

Parts 7 through 9 reserved

Part 10
Revocation, Suspension, and Penalties

33-17-1001. Suspension, revocation, or refusal of license. (1) The commissioner may suspend, revoke, refuse to renew, or refuse to issue an insurance producer's license, adjuster license, or consultant license, may levy a civil penalty in accordance with 33-1-317, or may choose any combination of actions when an insurance producer, adjuster, consultant, or applicant for those licenses has:

(a) engaged or is about to engage in an act or practice for which issuance of the license could have been refused;

(b) obtained or attempted to obtain a license through misrepresentation or fraud, including but not limited to providing incorrect, misleading, incomplete, or materially untrue information in the license application or in the continuing education affidavit;

(c) violated or failed to comply with a provision of this code or has violated a rule, subpoena, or order of the commissioner or of the commissioner of any other state;

(d) improperly withheld, misappropriated, or converted to the licensee's or applicant's own use money or property belonging to policyholders, insurers, beneficiaries, or others and received in conduct of business under the license;

(e) been convicted of a felony;

(f) in the conduct of the affairs under the license, used fraudulent, coercive, or dishonest practices or the licensee or applicant is incompetent, untrustworthy, financially irresponsible, or a source of injury and loss to the public;

(g) misrepresented the terms of an actual or proposed insurance contract or application for insurance;

(h) been found guilty of an unfair trade practice or fraud prohibited by Title 33, chapter 18;

(i) had a similar license suspended or revoked in any other state;

(j) forged another's name to an application for insurance or to any document related to an insurance transaction;

(k) cheated on an examination for a license; or

(l) knowingly accepted insurance business from a person who is not licensed.

(2) The license of a partnership or corporation may be suspended, revoked, refused, or denied if a reason listed in subsection (1) applies to an individual designated in the license to exercise its powers.

(3) The commissioner retains the authority to enforce the provisions of and impose any penalty or remedy authorized by the insurance code against any person who is under investigation for or charged with a violation of the insurance code even if the person's license or registration has been surrendered or has lapsed.

History: En. Sec. 173, Ch. 286, L. 1959; R.C.M. 1947, 40-3329; amd. Sec. 6, Ch. 395, L. 1983; amd. Sec. 12, Ch. 409, L. 1987; amd. Sec. 28, Ch. 537, L. 1987; amd. Sec. 49, Ch. 713, L. 1989; amd. 33-17-1002. Procedure following suspension or revocation. (1) Upon suspension, revocation, or refusal of a license, the commissioner shall notify the licensee or applicant by mail addressed to the licensee or applicant at the last-known address contained in the records of the commissioner. Notice is effectuated when mailed.

(2) The commissioner may reissue a license that has lapsed if the insurance producer has paid the lapsed license reinstatement fee pursuant to 33-2-708 and has filed certification of completion of continuing education requirements for the preceding biennium within 1 year of the lapse occurring.

(3) The commissioner may not again issue a license under this code to a person whose license has been revoked until after expiration of 1 year and until the person again qualifies for a license in accordance with this code. If the commissioner revokes a person's license, the commissioner may refuse to issue a license to the person for up to 5 years after the revocation. A person whose license has been revoked twice is not again eligible for any license under this code.

(4) If the license of a partnership or corporation is suspended or revoked, a member of the partnership or officer or director of the corporation may not be licensed or be designated in a license to exercise its powers during the period of the suspension or revocation unless the commissioner determines upon substantial evidence that the member, officer, or director was not personally at fault and did not acquiesce in the matter on account of which the license was suspended or revoked.

33-17-1003. Return of license. (1) All licenses issued under this chapter, although issued and delivered to the licensee insurance producer or adjuster are at all times the property of the state of Montana. Upon any expiration, termination, suspension, or revocation of the license, the licensee or other person having possession or custody of the license shall immediately deliver it to the commissioner either by personal delivery or by mail.

(2) As to any license lost, stolen, or destroyed while in the possession of a licensee or person, the commissioner may accept in lieu of return of the license the affidavit of the licensee or person responsible for or involved in the safekeeping of the license, concerning the facts of the loss, theft, or destruction.

33-17-1004. Acting as insurance producer or adjuster without license — penalty. (1) In addition to the requirements and penalties described in 33-17-201 and 33-17-411, a person who, in this state, acts as an insurance producer or adjuster without having authority to do so by virtue of a license issued and in force pursuant to this chapter is subject to the provisions of 33-1-317 and 33-1-318 and may be subject to conviction of a crime.

(2) A person convicted under this section shall, for a first conviction, be fined $500 or imprisoned in the county jail for 90 days, or both. For a second conviction, the person shall be fined an amount not to exceed $1,000 or incarcerated for a term not to exceed 1 year, or both. For a third or subsequent conviction, the person shall be fined an amount not to exceed $5,000 or incarcerated for a term not to exceed 2 years, or both.

33-17-1005. Restrictions on acting as legal guardian of insured or policyholder. (1) Except as otherwise approved by the commissioner or court order, an insurance producer may not act as a legal guardian of an insured or policyholder if the insurance producer conducts insurance business with the insured or policyholder when the insurance business includes but is not limited to the solicitation, offer, sale, or replacement of insurance or a contract.

(2) This section does not apply to immediate family members.

History: En. Sec. 1, Ch. 493, L. 2003.

Part 11
Conduct of Business by Insurance Producers

33-17-1101. Place of business — display of license — records. (1) A resident insurance producer shall maintain a place or places of business in this state accessible to the public. A nonresident insurance producer may maintain a place or places of business in this state. An insurance producer's place or places of business must be a place in which transactions are conducted under the insurance producer's license. The street address or addresses of the place or places of business must appear upon the license. This section does not prohibit the maintenance of a place of business in a licensee's place of residence.

(2) The license must be conspicuously displayed in a place of business at the street address shown on the license in a part of the place of business customarily open to the public.

(3) The insurance producer shall keep at a place of business complete records pertaining to transactions under the license for a period of at least 3 years after completion of the respective transactions, except that a title insurance producer, as defined in 33-25-105, shall retain records as provided in 33-25-214 and 33-25-216.

33-17-1102. Reporting and accounting for premiums — misappropriation. (1) All insurance premiums or return premiums received by an insurance producer must be held in a separate trust account. The insurance producer shall at all times act in a fiduciary capacity and shall, in the applicable regular course of business, account for and pay the insurance premiums or return premiums the insurance producer receives to the insured, insurer, or insurance producer entitled to them. Except for a title insurance producer as defined in 33-25-105, an insurance producer may deposit and commingle in the same separate deposit all funds belonging to others so long as the amount of the deposit held for each respective person is reasonably ascertainable from the records and accounts of the licensee.

(2) Any insurance producer not lawfully entitled to the funds may not divert or appropriate the funds or any portion of the funds to the insurance producer's own use.

(3) An insurance producer who purposely or knowingly diverts or misappropriates insurance premiums commits theft pursuant to 45-6-301.

Cross-References

33-17-1103. Accepting and paying commissions, fees, or consideration — restriction. (1) An insurer or insurance producer may not pay, directly or indirectly, a commission, service fee, brokerage fee, or other valuable consideration to a person for services as an insurance producer unless the person performing the service holds a valid license with regard to the kind or kinds of insurance for which the service was rendered at the time the service was performed. A person not properly licensed in accordance with this chapter at the time the person performs the service as an insurance producer may not accept a commission, service fee, brokerage fee, or other valuable consideration for the service. This section does not prevent payment or receipt of renewal or other deferred commissions to or by a person entitled to receive the payment under this section.

(2) An insurance producer may not directly or indirectly share the insurance producer's commissions or other compensation received or to be received by the insurance producer on account of a transaction under the insurance producer's license with any person not also licensed under this chapter as to the same kind or kinds of insurance involved in the transactions. This provision does not affect payment of the regular salaries due employees of the licensee, the distribution in regular course of business of compensation and profits among members or stockholders if the licensee is a partnership or corporation, or use of funds for family or personal purposes.

(3) This section does not apply to those transactions with surplus lines insurance producers that are lawful under 33-2-306.

Insurance Producer and Consultant Continuing Education Act

33-17-1201. Short title. This part may be cited as the "Insurance Producer, Adjuster, and Consultant Continuing Education Act".

History: En. Sec. 1, Ch. 622, L. 1993; amd. Sec. 1, Ch. 38, L. 2005.

Compiler's Comments

2005 Amendment: Chapter 38 after "Producer" inserted "Adjuster"; and made minor changes in style. Amendment effective October 1, 2005.

33-17-1202. Purpose. The purposes of this part are to:

(1) protect insurance consumers and dedicated insurance producers, adjusters, and consultants by requiring continuing education for insurance producers, adjusters, and consultants;

(2) better educate insurance producers, adjusters, and consultants about changes in insurance law, products, ethical conduct as an insurance producer, adjuster, or consultant, marketing, and management; and

(3) provide standards for the qualification of instructors, courses, and materials.

History: En. Sec. 2, Ch. 622, L. 1993; amd. Sec. 2, Ch. 38, L. 2005.

Compiler's Comments

2005 Amendment: Chapter 38 in four places inserted reference to adjuster; and made minor changes in style. Amendment effective October 1, 2005.

33-17-1203. Continuing education — basic requirements — exceptions. (1) Unless exempt under subsection (3):

(a) an individual licensed to act as an insurance producer, adjuster, or consultant other than an individual licensed for limited lines credit insurance shall, during each 24-month period, complete at least 24 credit hours of approved continuing education;

(b) an individual licensed to act as an insurance producer only for limited lines credit insurance shall, during each biennium, complete 5 credit hours of approved continuing education in the areas of insurance law, ethics, or limited lines credit insurance;

(c) an individual licensed as an insurance producer, adjuster, or consultant shall, during each biennium, complete at least 1 credit hour of approved continuing education on changes in Montana insurance statutes and administrative rules.

(2) The commissioner may, for good cause, grant an extension of time, not to exceed 1 year, during which the requirements imposed by subsection (1) may be completed.

(3) The minimum continuing education requirements do not apply to:

(a) an individual holding a temporary license issued under 33-17-216; or

(b) an insurance producer, adjuster, or consultant otherwise exempted by the commissioner.

Compiler's Comments

2005 Amendments — Composite Section: Chapter 38 in (1)(a), (1)(c), (2) (amendment rendered void by Ch. 469 amendment), and (3)(b) near beginning after "producer" inserted "adjuster"; and made minor changes in style. Amendment effective October 1, 2005.

Chapter 469 throughout section in five places substituted "an individual" for "a person"; deleted former (2) that read: "(2) If a person licensed as an insurance producer or consultant completes more credit hours of approved continuing education in a biennium than the minimum required in subsection (1), the excess credit hours may be carried forward and applied to the continuing education requirements of the next biennium"; and made minor changes in style. Amendment effective October 1, 2005.

33-17-1204. Review and approval of continuing education courses by commissioner — advisory council. (1) The commissioner shall, after review by and at the recommendations of the advisory council established under subsection (2), approve only those continuing education courses, lectures, seminars, and instructional programs that the commissioner determines would improve the product knowledge, management, ethics, or marketing capability of the licensee. Course content, instructors, material, instructional format, and the sponsoring organization must be approved and periodically reviewed by the commissioner. The fee for approval of a course, lecture, seminar, or instructional program is listed in 33-2-708(2). The commissioner shall also determine the number of credit hours to be awarded for completion of an approved continuing education activity.

(2) The commissioner shall appoint an advisory council, pursuant to 2-15-122, consisting of at least one representative of the independent insurance agents of Montana, one representative of the Montana association of insurance and financial advisors, one representative of the professional insurance agents of Montana, one representative of the Montana state adjusters association, one title insurance producer, two public members who are not directly employed by the insurance industry, one insurance producer or consultant not affiliated with any of the three listed organizations, and a nonvoting presiding officer from the department who will be appointed by the commissioner as a representative of the department. The members of the council shall serve a term of 2 years, except that the initial term of the representative from each organization is 3 years. The commissioner shall consult with the council in formulating rules and standards for the approval of continuing education activities and prior to approving specific education activities. The provisions of 2-15-122(9) and (10) do not apply to this council.

(3) In conducting periodic review of course content, instructors, material, instructional format, or a sponsoring organization, the commissioner may exercise any investigative power of the commissioner provided for in 33-1-311 or 33-1-315.

(4) If after review or investigation the commissioner determines an approved continuing education activity is not being operated in compliance with the standards established under this section, the commissioner may revoke approval, place the activity under probationary approval, or issue a cease and desist order under 33-1-318.

Compiler's Comments

2005 Amendment: Chapter 38 in (2) near middle of first sentence after "agents of Montana" inserted "one representative of the Montana state adjusters association". Amendment effective October 1, 2005.

33-17-1205. Compliance — failure to comply — rulemaking authority. (1) Each individual subject to the requirements of 33-17-1203 shall file biennially in a format supplied by the commissioner certification as to the approved courses, lectures, seminars, and instructional programs successfully completed by that individual during the preceding biennium.

(2) If an individual fails to comply with this section, the individual's license lapses. An individual with a lapsed license may not conduct insurance business under another person's license, including a business entity license affiliation.

(3) In the continuing education affidavit, an insurance producer or adjuster shall report to the commissioner the final disposition of any administrative action or the final disposition of any criminal action taken against the insurance producer or adjuster in another jurisdiction or by another governmental agency in this state. As used in this subsection, "final disposition of any criminal action" means a plea agreement or sentence and judgment.

(4) Each person providing approved courses, lectures, seminars, and instructional programs, including insurance company education programs, shall file annually with the commissioner an alphabetical list of the names and addresses of all individuals who have successfully completed an approved continuing education activity during the preceding calendar year.

(5) The commissioner may, following the process provided for in 33-1-314, withdraw approval of all courses, lectures, seminars, and instructional programs of any person that fails to comply with subsection (4). The commissioner may, after having conducted a hearing pursuant to 33-1-701, impose a fine upon a person that has failed to comply with subsection (4). The fine may not exceed the penalty permitted by 33-1-317.

(6) The commissioner may adopt rules establishing the requirements for biennial filing and reporting of continuing education credits.

2005 Amendments — Composite Section: Chapter 38 in (3) in two places after "producer" inserted "or adjuster". Amendment effective October 1, 2005.

Chapter 469 throughout section in five places substituted reference to individual for reference to person; in (2) inserted second sentence providing that an individual with a lapsed license may not conduct insurance business under another person's license; and made minor changes in style. Amendment effective October 1, 2005.

33-17-1206. Rulemaking authority. The commissioner may adopt rules to implement this part.

History: En. Sec. 6, Ch. 622, L. 1993.

33-17-1207. Funding for continuing education program. All continuing education filing fees collected by the commissioner and fees paid to the commissioner for the review of initial applications for approval of continuing education courses or the periodic review of these courses must be turned over promptly to the state treasurer who shall place the money in the state special revenue fund to the credit of the state auditor's office to be used for the continuing education program. The funds allocated by this section to the state special revenue fund may be used only to defray the expenses of the state auditor's office in discharging its duties as prescribed by this part, subject to the applicable laws relating to the appropriation of state funds and to the deposit and expenditure of state money. The state auditor is responsible for the proper expenditure of this money as provided by law.

Part 15
Rental Vehicle Insurance

33-17-1501. Definitions. As used in this part, the following definitions apply:

(1) "Customer service representative" means an employee of a rental vehicle entity.

(2) "Present rental vehicle insurance information" means to present the option to acquire rental vehicle insurance to a renter.

(3) "Rental agreement" means a written agreement setting forth the terms and conditions governing the use of a vehicle that is provided by a rental vehicle entity for the rental or lease of a rental vehicle for a period of not more than 90 days.

(4) "Rental vehicle" means a motor vehicle that is designated as:

(a) a private passenger motor vehicle, including an automobile, a passenger van, a minivan, or a sport utility vehicle; or

(b) a cargo vehicle, including a cargo van, a pickup truck, or a truck with a gross weight of less than 26,000 pounds that does not require the operator to possess a commercial driver's license.

(5) "Rental vehicle entity" means an entity in the business of providing rental vehicles to the public under a rental agreement.

(6) "Rental vehicle insurance" means insurance that a renter purchases from a rental vehicle entity as part of the rental agreement in conjunction with the use of a rental vehicle.

(7) "Renter" means a person who obtains the use of a rental vehicle from a rental vehicle entity under the terms of a rental agreement.

History: En. Sec. 1, Ch. 409, L. 2003.

33-17-1502. Rental vehicle entity license — customer service representative requirements — recordkeeping. (1) A rental vehicle entity may obtain an insurance license as a business entity.

(2) A rental vehicle entity shall designate an individual licensed insurance producer who is responsible for the rental vehicle entity's compliance with the insurance laws of this state.

(3) A rental vehicle entity or customer service representative may not present rental vehicle insurance information to renters unless the rental vehicle entity is licensed and the customer service representative has been trained as required under 33-17-1503.

(4) A customer service representative may present rental vehicle insurance information only on behalf of a rental vehicle entity.

(5) A rental vehicle entity shall supervise a customer service representative who provides rental vehicle insurance under the provisions of this part.

(6) A rental vehicle entity shall submit to the commissioner an annual report listing each customer service representative presenting rental vehicle insurance information to the public.

History: En. Sec. 2, Ch. 409, L. 2003; amd. Sec. 20, Ch. 469, L. 2005.

Compiler's Comments

2005 Amendment: Chapter 469 inserted (2) requiring that a rental vehicle entity designate an individual licensed insurance producer who is responsible for the rental vehicle entity's compliance with the insurance laws of this state; inserted (6) requiring that a rental vehicle entity submit to the commissioner an annual report listing each customer service representative presenting rental vehicle insurance information to the public; and made minor changes in style. Amendment effective October 1, 2005.

33-17-1503. Training of customer service representative. (1) A rental vehicle entity shall provide a training program for each customer service representative prior to allowing that customer service representative to present rental vehicle insurance information to renters.

(2) The rental vehicle entity shall present the training program to the commissioner for approval.

(3) The training may be in an electronic or video format and must cover the following areas:

(a) rental vehicle insurance;

(b) specific instruction that information may not be presented either by statement or conduct, express or implied, that would lead the renter to believe:

(i) that the purchase of rental vehicle insurance is required to rent a vehicle;

(ii) that the renter does not have a personal automobile insurance policy in place that provides coverage; or

(iii) that the customer service representative is qualified to evaluate the adequacy of the renter's existing insurance coverage.

(4) The training and education program must be submitted for review and approval pursuant to 33-17-1204 and 33-17-1205.

History: En. Sec. 3, Ch. 409, L. 2003.

33-17-1504. Rental vehicle entity requirements. A rental vehicle entity may not solicit, negotiate, or sell rental vehicle insurance unless:

(1) at every location where rental vehicle agreements are executed, the rental vehicle entity prominently displays and makes readily available written material to each renter who may purchase rental vehicle insurance that:

(a) summarizes the material terms, exclusions, limitations, and conditions of coverage offered to renters, including the identity of the insurer;

(b) describes the process for filing claims in the event that the renter elects to purchase the coverage, including a toll-free telephone number to report a claim;

(c) provides the rental vehicle entity's name, address, telephone number, and business entity license number, as well as the commissioner's consumer hotline telephone number;

(d) informs the renter that the rental vehicle entity may provide a duplication of coverage already provided by a renter's automobile insurance policy;

(e) informs the renter that the purchase by the renter of the rental vehicle insurance is not required in order to rent a vehicle; and

(f) informs the renter that neither the rental vehicle entity nor the customer service representative is qualified to evaluate the adequacy of the renter's existing insurance coverage.

(2) Evidence of the rental vehicle insurance coverage must be stated in the rental agreement.

(3) The cost of the rental vehicle insurance must be separately itemized in the rental agreement, unless preselection of coverage is made in a master, corporate, or group agreement.

History: En. Sec. 4, Ch. 409, L. 2003.

33-17-1505. Recordkeeping and trust fund requirements. (1) A rental vehicle entity shall keep records of insurance transactions pursuant to 33-17-1101.

(2) The commissioner may not require a rental vehicle entity to hold rental vehicle insurance premium in a separate trust account pursuant to 33-17-1102 if the premium for rental vehicle insurance is itemized as part of the rental agreement.

History: En. Sec. 5, Ch. 409, L. 2003.

Part 1
General Provisions

33-18-101. Purposes. The purpose of this chapter is to regulate trade practices in the business of insurance in accordance with the intent of congress as expressed in Public Law 79-15 (the McCarran-Ferguson Act, 15 U.S.C. 1011 through 1015), which was approved March 9, 1945, by defining or providing for determination of all such practices in this state which constitute unfair methods of competition or unfair or deceptive acts or practices and by prohibiting the trade practices so defined or determined.

History: En. Sec. 203, Ch. 286, L. 1959; amd. Sec. 6, Ch. 320, L. 1977; R.C.M. 1947, 40-3501.

33-18-102. Unfair methods or deceptive practices prohibited — refusal to renew. (1) No person shall engage in this state in any trade practice which is defined in this chapter as or determined pursuant to this chapter to be an unfair method of competition or an unfair or deceptive act or practice in the business of insurance.

(2) Nothing in this chapter shall be construed to prevent an insurer owned or controlled by an association or organization, including a mutual insurer formed to provide insurance to the members of an association or organization, from refusing to renew a casualty or liability policy for nonpayment of dues to the association or organization if payment of dues is a condition for obtaining or continuing such insurance.

Part 2
Insurer's Relations With Insured and Claimant

33-18-201. Unfair claim settlement practices prohibited. No person may, with such frequency as to indicate a general business practice, do any of the following:

(1) misrepresent pertinent facts or insurance policy provisions relating to coverages at issue;

(2) fail to acknowledge and act reasonably promptly upon communications with respect to claims arising under insurance policies;

(3) fail to adopt and implement reasonable standards for the prompt investigation of claims arising under insurance policies;

(4) refuse to pay claims without conducting a reasonable investigation based upon all available information;

(5) fail to affirm or deny coverage of claims within a reasonable time after proof of loss statements have been completed;

(6) neglect to attempt in good faith to effectuate prompt, fair, and equitable settlements of claims in which liability has become reasonably clear;

(7) compel insureds to institute litigation to recover amounts due under an insurance policy by offering substantially less than the amounts ultimately recovered in actions brought by such insureds;

(8) attempt to settle a claim for less than the amount to which a reasonable man would have believed he was entitled by reference to written or printed advertising material accompanying or made part of an application;

(9) attempt to settle claims on the basis of an application which was altered without notice to or knowledge or consent of the insured;

(10) make claims payments to insureds or beneficiaries not accompanied by statements setting forth the coverage under which the payments are being made;

(11) make known to insureds or claimants a policy of appealing from arbitration awards in favor of insureds or claimants for the purpose of compelling them to accept settlements or compromises less than the amount awarded in arbitration;

(12) delay the investigation or payment of claims by requiring an insured, claimant, or physician of either to submit a preliminary claim report and then requiring the subsequent submission of formal proof of loss forms, both of which submissions contain substantially the same information;

(13) fail to promptly settle claims, if liability has become reasonably clear, under one portion of the insurance policy coverage in order to influence settlements under other portions of the insurance policy coverage; or

(14) fail to promptly provide a reasonable explanation of the basis in the insurance policy in relation to the facts or applicable law for denial of a claim or for the offer of a compromise settlement.

History: En. 40-3502.1 by Sec. 1, Ch. 320, L. 1977; R.C.M. 1947, 40-3502.1.

33-18-202. Misrepresentation and false advertising of policies prohibited. No person shall make, issue, circulate, or cause to be made, issued, or circulated any estimate, illustration, circular, sales presentation, omission, comparison, or statement which:

(1) misrepresents the benefits, advantages, conditions, or terms of any insurance policy;

(2) misrepresents the dividends or share of the surplus to be received on any insurance policy;

(3) makes any false or misleading statement as to the dividends or share of surplus previously paid on any insurance policy;

(4) is misleading or is a misrepresentation as to the financial condition of any person or as to the legal reserve system upon which any life insurer operates;

(5) uses any name or title of any insurance policy or class of insurance policies misrepresenting the true nature thereof;

(6) is a misrepresentation for the purpose of effecting a pledge or assignment of or effecting a loan against any insurance policy; or

(7) misrepresents any insurance policy as being shares of stock.

History: En. Sec. 207, Ch. 286, L. 1959; R.C.M. 1947, 40-3505.

33-18-205. Filing or publishing false financial statements or making false entries prohibited. (1) No person shall file with any supervisory or other public official or make, publish, disseminate, circulate, or deliver to any person or place before the public or cause, directly or indirectly, to be made, published, disseminated, circulated, delivered to any person, or placed before the public any false statement of financial condition of an insurer with intent to deceive.

(2) No person shall make any false entry in any book, report, or statement of any insurer with intent to deceive any agent or examiner lawfully appointed to examine into its condition or into any of its affairs or any public official to whom such insurer is required by law to report or who has authority by law to examine into its condition or into any of its affairs or, with like intent, willfully omit to make a true entry of any material fact pertaining to the business of such insurer in any book, report, or statement of such insurer. Any person who aids or abets in any such violation of this section shall be punishable upon conviction by a fine of $1,000 or by imprisonment in the county jail for 6 months or both such fine and imprisonment.

History: En. Sec. 208, Ch. 286, L. 1959; amd. Sec. 1, Ch. 29, L. 1967; R.C.M. 1947, 40-3506.

33-18-206. Unfair discrimination prohibited — life insurance, annuities, and disability insurance. (1) No person shall make or permit any unfair discrimination between individuals of the same class and equal expectation of life in the rates charged for any contract of life insurance or of life annuity or in the dividends or other benefits payable thereon or in any other of the terms and conditions of such contract.

(2) No person shall make or permit any unfair discrimination between individuals of the same class and of essentially the same hazard in the amount of premium, policy fees, or rates charged for any policy or contract of disability insurance or in the benefits payable thereunder or in any of the terms or conditions of such contract or in any other manner whatever.

(3) An insurer may not refuse to consider an application for life or disability insurance on the basis of a genetic condition, developmental delay, or developmental disability.

(4) The rejection of an application or the determining of rates, terms, or conditions of a life or disability insurance contract on the basis of genetic condition, developmental delay, or developmental disability constitutes unfair discrimination unless the applicant's medical condition and history and either claims experience or actuarial projections establish that substantial differences in claims are likely to result from the genetic condition, developmental delay, or developmental disability.

(5) As used in this section, the following definitions apply:

(a) "Developmental delay" means a delay of at least 1 ½ standard deviations from the norm.

(b) "Developmental disability" means the singular of developmental disabilities as defined in 53-20-202.

(c) "Genetic condition" means a specific chromosomal or single-gene genetic condition.

History: En. Sec. 211, Ch. 286, L. 1959; R.C.M. 1947, 40-3509; amd. Sec. 1, Ch. 318, L. 1991.

33-18-207. Preferred rates to fictitious groups prohibited — approval of preferred group rates and forms. (1) No insurer, whether an authorized insurer or an unauthorized insurer, shall make available through any rating plan or form, property, casualty, or surety insurance to any firm, corporation, or association of individuals, any preferred rate or premium based upon any fictitious group of such firm, corporation, or association of individuals.

(2) No form or plan of insurance covering any group or combination of persons or risks shall be written or delivered within or outside this state to cover persons or risks in this state at any preferred rate or on any form other than as offered to persons not in such group or combination and to the public generally unless such form, plan of insurance, and the rates or premiums to be charged therefor have been submitted to and approved by the commissioner as being not unfairly discriminatory and as not otherwise being in conflict with subsection (1) above or with any provision of parts 1 through 4 of chapter 16 to the extent that parts 1 through 4 are, by their terms, applicable thereto.

(3) This section does not apply to life insurance, disability insurance, workers' compensation insurance written for industry or business associations, or annuity contracts. However, workers' compensation group insurance rates are subject to all applicable provisions of chapter 16, part 10.

History: En. Sec. 222, Ch. 286, L. 1959; amd. Sec. 1, Ch. 292, L. 1977; R.C.M. 1947, 40-3520.

33-18-208. Contract to contain agreements — rebates prohibited — life, disability, and annuity contracts. Except as otherwise expressly provided by law, no person shall knowingly:

(1) permit or offer to make or make any contract of life insurance, life annuity, or disability insurance or agreement as to such contract other than as plainly expressed in the contract issued thereon;

(2) pay or allow or give or offer to pay, allow, or give, directly or indirectly, as inducement to such insurance or annuity any rebate of premiums payable on the contract or any special favor or advantage in the dividends or other benefits thereon or any paid employment or contract for services of any kind or any valuable consideration or inducement whatever not specified in the contract;

(3) directly or indirectly give or sell or purchase or offer or agree to give, sell, purchase, or allow as inducement to such insurance or annuity or in connection therewith and whether or not to be specified in the policy or contract, any agreement of any form or nature promising returns and profits or any stocks, bonds, or other securities or interest present or contingent therein or as measured thereby of any insurance company or other corporation, association, or partnership or any dividends or profits accrued or to accrue thereon; or

(4) offer, promise, or give anything of value whatsoever not specified in the contract.

History: En. Sec. 212, Ch. 286, L. 1959; R.C.M. 1947, 40-3510.

33-18-209. Exceptions to discrimination and rebates provision. Nothing in 33-18-206 and 33-18-208 shall be construed as including within the definition of discrimination or rebates any of the following practices:

(1) in the case of any contract of life insurance or life annuity, paying bonuses to policyholders or otherwise abating their premiums in whole or in part out of surplus accumulated from nonparticipating insurance, provided that any such bonuses or abatement of premiums shall be fair and equitable to policyholders and for the best interests of the insurer;

(2) in the case of life insurance policies issued on the industrial debit, preauthorized check, bank draft, or similar plans, making allowance to policyholders who have continuously for a specified period made premium payments directly to an office of the insurer or by preauthorized check, bank draft, or similar plans, in an amount which fairly represents the saving in collection expense;

(3) readjustment of the rate of premium for a group insurance policy based on the loss or expense experience thereunder, at the end of the first or any subsequent policy year of insurance thereunder, which may be made retroactive only for such policy year;

(4) reduction of premium rate for policies of large amount but not exceeding savings in issuance and administration expenses reasonably attributable to such policies as compared with policies of similar plan issued in smaller amounts;

(5) issuing life or disability insurance policies on a salary savings or payroll deduction plan at reduced rate reasonably commensurate with the savings made by the use of such plan.

History: En. Sec. 213, Ch. 286, L. 1959; R.C.M. 1947, 40-3511.

33-18-210. Unfair discrimination and rebates prohibited — property, casualty, and surety insurances. (1) A title, property, casualty, or surety insurer or an employee, representative, or insurance producer of an insurer may not, as an inducement to purchase insurance or after insurance has been effected, pay, allow, or give or offer to pay, allow, or give, directly or indirectly, a:

(a) rebate, discount, abatement, credit, or reduction of the premium named in the insurance policy;

(b) special favor or advantage in the dividends or other benefits to accrue on the policy; or

(c) valuable consideration or inducement not specified in the policy, except to the extent provided for in an applicable filing with the commissioner as provided by law.

(2) An insured named in a policy or an employee of the insured may not knowingly receive or accept, directly or indirectly, a:

(a) rebate, discount, abatement, credit, or reduction of premium;

(b) special favor or advantage; or

(c) valuable consideration or inducement.

(3) An insurer may not make or permit unfair discrimination in the premium or rates charged for insurance, in the dividends or other benefits payable on insurance, or in any other of the terms and conditions of the insurance either between insureds or property having like insuring or risk characteristics or between insureds because of race, color, creed, religion, or national origin.

(4) This section may not be construed as prohibiting the payment of commissions or other compensation to licensed insurance producers or as prohibiting an insurer from allowing or returning lawful dividends, savings, or unabsorbed premium deposits to its participating policyholders, members, or subscribers.

(5) An insurer may not make or permit unfair discrimination between individuals or risks of the same class and of essentially the same hazards by refusing to issue, refusing to renew, canceling, or limiting the amount of insurance coverage on a property or casualty risk because of the geographic location of the risk, unless:

(a) the refusal, cancellation, or limitation is for a business purpose that is not a mere pretext for unfair discrimination; or

(b) the refusal, cancellation, or limitation is required by law or regulatory mandate.

(6) An insurer may not make or permit unfair discrimination between individuals or risks of the same class and of essentially the same hazards by refusing to issue, refusing to renew, canceling, or limiting the amount of insurance coverage on a residential property risk or on the personal property contained in the residential property, because of the age of the residential property, unless:

(a) the refusal, cancellation, or limitation is for a business purpose that is not a mere pretext for unfair discrimination; or

(b) the refusal, cancellation, or limitation is required by law or regulatory mandate.

(7) An insurer may not refuse to insure, refuse to continue to insure, or limit the amount of coverage available to an individual because of the sex or marital status of the individual. However, an insurer may take marital status into account for the purpose of defining persons eligible for dependents' benefits.

(8) An insurer may not terminate or modify coverage or refuse to issue or refuse to renew a property or casualty policy or contract of insurance solely because the applicant or insured or any employee of either is mentally or physically impaired. However, this subsection does not apply to accident and health insurance sold by a casualty insurer, and this subsection may not be interpreted to modify any other provision of law relating to the termination, modification, issuance, or renewal of any insurance policy or contract.

(9) An insurer may not refuse to insure, refuse to continue to insure, charge higher rates, or limit the amount of coverage available to an individual based solely on adverse information contained in a driving record that is 3 years old or older. However, an insurer may provide discounts to an insured based on favorable aspects of an insured's claims history that is 3 years old or older.

(10) An insurer may not charge points or surcharge a private passenger motor vehicle policy because of a claim submitted under the insured's policy if the insured was not at fault.

Compiler's Comments

2005 Amendment: Chapter 363 deleted former (11) that read: "(11) (a) For the purposes of this subsection (11), "credit history" means that portion of a credit report or background report that addresses the applicant's or insured's debt payment history or lack of history but does not include public information including convictions, lawsuits, bankruptcies, or similar public information.

(b) An insurer writing automobile or homeowner insurance may not refuse to insure, refuse to continue to insure, charge higher rates, or limit the scope or amount of coverage or benefits available to an individual based solely on the insurer's knowledge of the individual's credit history unless:

(i) the insurer possesses substantial documentation that credit history is significantly correlated with the types of risks insured or to be insured;

(ii) the insurer sends written communication to the individual disclosing that the insurance coverage was declined, not renewed, or limited in scope or amount of coverage or benefits because of credit information relating to the applicant or the insured; and

(iii) upon subsequent request of the individual, mailed within 10 days of receipt of the denial, nonrenewal, or limitation, the insurer provides the individual with a copy of the credit report at issue or the name and address of a third party from whom the individual may obtain a copy of the credit report, within 10 days of receipt of the request.

(c) The provisions of this subsection (11) are not intended to conflict with any disclosure provisions of state law or the federal Truth in Lending Act applicable to lending institutions, credit bureaus, or other credit service organizations that maintain or distribute credit histories on insurance applicants or policyholders"; and made minor changes in style. Amendment effective October 1, 2005.

Applicability: Section 15, Ch. 363, L. 2005, provided: "[This act] applies to personal insurance policies written to be effective or renewed on or after October 1, 2005."

33-18-211. Stock operations and advisory board contracts. No person shall issue or deliver or permit its insurance producers, officers, or employees to issue or deliver agency company stock or other capital stock or benefit certificates or shares in any common-law corporation or any advisory board contract or other similar contract of any kind promising returns and profits as an inducement to insurance.

History: En. Sec. 215, Ch. 286, L. 1959; R.C.M. 1947, 40-3513; amd. Sec. 1, Ch. 713, L. 1989.

33-18-212. Illegal dealing in premiums — improper charges for insurance. (1) A person may not willfully collect any sum as a premium or charge for insurance that is not then provided or is not in due course to be provided, subject to acceptance of the risk by the insurer, by an insurance policy issued by an insurer as authorized by this code.

(2) A person may not willfully collect as a premium or charge for insurance any sum in excess of or less than the premium or charge applicable to the insurance and, as specified in the policy, in accordance with the applicable classifications and rates filed with or approved by the commissioner; or in cases in which classifications, premiums, or rates are not required by this code to be filed or approved, the premiums and charges may not be in excess of or less than those specified in the policy and as fixed by the insurer. This provision may not prohibit the charging and collection, by surplus lines insurance producers licensed under chapter 2, part 3, of the amount of applicable state and federal taxes in addition to the premium required by the insurer. This provision may not prohibit the charging and collection, by a life insurer, of amounts actually to be expended for medical examination of an applicant for life insurance or for reinstatement of a life insurance policy.

(3) Each violation of this section is punishable under 33-1-104.

33-18-213. Extension of credit to policyholder. Notwithstanding any other provision of law, an insurance producer, as defined in 33-17-102, may extend credit to a policyholder in connection with the issuance or servicing of any policy procured or negotiated by the insurance producer, but any credit so extended must satisfy one of the following requirements:

(1) if credit is extended to a policyholder for not more than 30 days from the date the premium is due and the credit is not evidenced by a written instrument, no interest may be charged; or

(2) if credit is extended to a policyholder for more than 30 days from the date the premium is due and the credit is not evidenced by a written instrument, interest may be charged for credit extended after 30 days at a rate not more than 1 1/2% a month on the unpaid balance; or

(3) if the extension of credit to a policyholder is evidenced by a written instrument signed by the policyholder, any interest charged for such credit shall be clearly stated in the instrument and may not exceed the legal rate of interest authorized in 31-1-107.

33-18-214. Unfair referral as unfair trade practice. A referral made in violation of 33-22-1518 is an unfair trade practice under this chapter.

History: En. Sec. 3, Ch. 357, L. 1995.

33-18-215. Postclaim underwriting prohibited — condition. An insurer, health service corporation, or health maintenance organization may not place an elimination rider on or rescind coverage provided by a disability policy, certificate, or subscriber contract after a policy, certificate, or contract has been issued unless the insured has made a material misrepresentation or fraudulent misstatement on the application or has failed to pay the premium when due.

History: En. Sec. 1, Ch. 53, L. 1997.

33-18-216. Unfair discrimination against victims of abuse prohibited. (1) An insurer, health maintenance organization, or health service corporation may not unfairly discriminate against a victim of abuse.

(2) For purposes of this section, "abuse" means the occurrence between family members, current or former household members, or intimate partners of one or more of the following:

(a) purposely, knowingly, or recklessly subjecting another person, including a minor child, to bodily injury, severe emotional distress, psychological trauma, sexual assault, or sexual intercourse without consent;

(b) subjecting another person, including a minor child, to false imprisonment or unlawful restraint or confinement.

(3) For purposes of this section, "abuse" includes purposely or knowingly engaging in a course of conduct toward a family member, current or former household member, or intimate partner that constitutes stalking in violation of 45-5-220.

(4) The following acts, when based on the insured's status as a victim of abuse, are prohibited as unfairly discriminatory:

(a) denying, refusing to issue, renew, or reissue, canceling, or otherwise terminating an insurance policy, certificate of coverage delivered or issued for delivery in Montana, subscriber contract, or health care services agreement;

(b) restricting or excluding coverage under an insurance policy or certificate delivered or issued for delivery in Montana;

(c) adding a premium differential to any insurance policy or certificate delivered or issued for delivery in Montana on the basis that the applicant or insured has been the victim of abuse; or

(d) excluding or limiting coverage for losses or denying a claim.

(5) Upon written request of the insured or an applicant, an insurer that takes an underwriting action that adversely affects a victim of abuse on the basis of a medical condition or property or casualty risk that the insurer knows is related to abuse shall explain to the insured or applicant in writing the reason for the insurer's action.

(6) (a) This section does not prohibit an insurer from underwriting, classifying risk, or administering a contract of insurance as otherwise allowed by law based on property or casualty risk or medical information that the insurer knows is related to abuse as long as the insurer underwrites, classifies risk, or administers the contract of insurance on the basis of the applicant's or insured's property or casualty risk or medical condition and not on the applicant's or insured's status as a victim of abuse.

(b) This section does not prohibit or otherwise limit an insurer's ability to elicit information from or about an applicant or insured as otherwise provided by law.

(7) This section may not be construed to alter or modify any conditions, exclusions, or limitations clearly stated in an insurance policy or certificate delivered or issued for delivery in Montana that are not otherwise inconsistent with the provisions of subsection (4).

(8) An insurer may not be held civilly or criminally liable for the death of or physical injury to an insured that is related to acts of abuse resulting from any action taken in a good faith effort to comply with the requirements of this section.

History: En. Sec. 1, Ch. 304, L. 1997.

33-18-217 through 33-18-220 reserved.

33-18-221. Designation of specific repair shops prohibited — lists allowed. (1) An insurance company, including its producers and adjusters, that issues or renews a policy of insurance in this state covering, in whole or part, a motor vehicle may not:

(a) require that a person insured under the policy use a particular company or location for providing automobile glass replacement, glass repair services, or glass products insured in whole or part by the policy; or

(b) engage in any act or practice of intimidation, coercion, or threat for or against an insured person to use a particular company or location to provide automobile glass replacement, glass repair services, or glass products insured, in whole or in part, under the terms of an insurance policy.

(2) (a) An insurance company may provide an insured with a list that includes the names of particular companies or locations providing automobile glass replacement, glass repair services, or glass products if some of the listed companies or locations are reasonably close and convenient to the insured. The insurance company may restrict the list to those companies or locations that meet reasonable standards of quality, service, and safety.

(b) The insured may use a nonlisted company or location at the insured's sole discretion, and subject to the provisions of subsections (2)(c) and (3), the insurance company will fully and promptly pay for the cost of automobile glass replacement, glass repair services, or glass products provided, less any deductible under the terms of the policy.

(c) If the insured does not use a list as provided in subsection (2)(a), the insurer may require the insured to obtain not more than three competitive bids to establish the cost of automobile glass replacement, glass repair services, or glass products provided.

(3) This section does not require an insurer to pay more for automobile glass replacement, glass repair services, or glass products than the lowest prevailing market price as defined in 33-18-222.

(4) Notwithstanding the provisions of subsections (1) through (3), an insurance company may agree to pay the full cost of glass replacement or repair.

33-18-222. Lowest prevailing market price. For purposes of 33-18-221 and 33-18-223, "lowest prevailing market price" means the lowest market price in a local area. The lowest prevailing market price may not be less than cost as provided in 30-14-209.

33-18-223. Prohibited activities — glass broker defined. (1) It is unlawful for an insurance company, individually or with others, to directly or indirectly:

(a) establish an agreement with any person to act as a glass broker for the insurance company under which the glass broker sets a price that must be met by a glass repair shop as a condition for doing glass replacement or glass repair work for the insurance company;

(b) establish an agreement with a glass broker that requires a glass repair shop to bill through that glass broker as a condition of doing glass replacement or glass repair work; or

(c) establish a price that must be met by a glass repair shop as a condition for doing glass replacement or glass repair work that is below the lowest prevailing market price as provided in 33-18-222.

(2) As used in this section, "glass broker" means an automobile glass company that acts as a third-party agent for the insurer whenever the glass broker enters into agreements with other automobile glass dealers to perform glass replacement or glass repair work.

33-18-224. Designation of specific automobile body repair businesses prohibited. (1) An insurance company, including its producers and adjusters, that issues or renews a policy of insurance in this state covering, in whole or in part, a motor vehicle may not:

(a) require that a person insured under the policy use a particular automobile body repair business or location; or

(b) engage in any act or practice that intimidates, coerces, or threatens an insured person or that provides an incentive or inducement for an insured person to use a particular automobile body repair business or location.

(2) (a) Except as provided in subsection (2)(b), if an insurance company has direct repair programs with automobile body repair businesses or locations, the insurance company may not limit the number of automobile body repair businesses or locations with whom it maintains direct repair programs.

(b) An insurance company may limit the number of automobile body repair businesses or locations participating in the insurance company's direct repair program to those automobile body repair businesses or locations that comply with the provisions of subsection (2)(c). An insurance company is not required to establish a direct repair program in a particular market area in which the insurance company's number of policyholders does not support establishing a direct repair program with any automobile body repair business or location.

(c) Upon request, the insurance company shall provide, without prejudice or bias, the insured person with a list that includes all automobile body repair businesses or locations that are reasonably close or convenient to the insured person and willing to provide services and that meet the insurance company's criteria regarding whether the automobile body repair business or location:

(i) possesses the equipment necessary to undertake repairs;

(ii) undertakes training of management and technical personnel with respect to repair information and the claims process;

(iii) agrees to perform quality repairs at the prevailing competitive market price and that meet reasonable industry repair standards;

(iv) agrees to warrant the quality of work, including refinishing, in writing to the insured person, for a period of not less than 1 year from the date of repair;

(v) agrees to inspection of its repairs and services by the insurance company and agrees that the insurance company may terminate the direct repair program with the automobile body repair business or location if the repairs and services are below the standards of quality required by the insurance company; and

(vi) if requested, agrees to execute an agreement with the insurance company that may contain additional criteria that are not designed to unfairly limit the number of automobile body repair businesses or locations with whom the insurance company maintains direct repair programs. The additional criteria may include criteria determined to be necessary by the insurance company and designed to ensure that the automobile body repair business or location has the necessary estimating systems and programs and equipment to communicate electronically with the insurance company and that the automobile body repair business or location has taken steps to ensure the privacy of the insurance company and the insured person.

(d) If the insured person requests the list provided for in subsection (2)(c), the insurance company shall inform the insured person that the insured person may use an automobile body repair business or location at the sole discretion of the insured person.

(3) For the purposes of this section, an incentive or inducement does not include:

(a) providing an insured person with the list provided for in subsection (2)(c); or

(b) referring to a warranty issued by an automobile body repair business or location.

(4) The insured may use an automobile body repair business or location at the insured's sole discretion, and the insurance company shall pay for the reasonable and necessary cost of the automobile body repair services for covered damages, less any deductible under the terms of the policy. This section does not require an insurer to pay more for automobile body repair services than the lowest prevailing market price, as defined in 33-18-222.

(5) If the insured person uses an automobile body repair business or location that is not on a list provided for in subsection (2)(c), the insurance company may not be held liable for any repair work performed by the automobile body repair business or location chosen by the insured person.

(6) It is unlawful for an automobile body repair business or location to charge or agree to charge an insured customer more than an uninsured customer for any automobile body repair service.

(7) An insurance company that contracts with an independent adjuster may not be held liable for the independent adjuster's failure to comply with the terms of this section.

(8) For purposes of this section, "automobile body repair business or location" does not include a business or location that exclusively provides automobile glass replacement, glass repair services, or glass products.

2005 Amendment: Chapter 407 in (1)(a) and (1)(b) after "automobile" inserted "body"; substituted (2) and (3) prohibiting insurance companies with direct repair programs from limiting the number of businesses with whom the company maintains direct repair programs for former (2) that read: "(2) For the purposes of this section, an incentive or inducement does not include:

(a) providing an insured person or a customer with a list of all established automobile repair businesses or locations reasonably close to the insured person or customer that offer a warranty for the automobile repair services provided by the businesses or locations;

(b) providing an insured person or a customer with a list of particular body shops meeting reasonable standards of quality, service, and safety when the list is requested by the insured person or customer; or

(c) referring to a warranty issued by an automobile repair business or location"; in (4) near beginning after "use" substituted "an automobile body repair" for "a"; deleted former (4) that read: "(4) If the insured person uses an automobile repair business or location not on a list provided under subsection (2)(a) or (2)(b), the insurance company may not be held liable for any repair work performed by the automobile repair business or location that the insured person chooses to use"; inserted (5) providing that an insurance company is not liable if an insured uses an automobile body repair business that is not on a list; in (6) in two places after "automobile" and in (8) after first "automobile" inserted "body"; and made minor changes in style. 33-18-225. Designation of specific car rental business prohibited. (1) An insurance company, including its producers and adjusters, that issues or renews a policy of insurance in this state covering, in whole or in part, a motor vehicle may not:

(a) require that a person, whether or not insured by the insurance company, for whom the insurance company is obligated to provide a car rental while the person's own car is being repaired use a particular car rental business; or

(b) engage in any act or practice that intimidates, coerces, or threatens a person to use a particular car rental business.

(2) (a) An insurance company that is subject to the provisions of this section and that provides for direct payment to any one or more car rental businesses in this state must provide for direct payment to any car rental business selected by a person described in subsection (1)(a).

(b) For the purposes of this section, "direct payment" means a method by which an insurance company makes a direct payment on behalf of an insured or a third party either through electronic means or by check to a car rental business.

(c) The insurance company may approve the daily rate to be paid by the insurance company based on the car classification.

(d) The insurance company is not obligated to pay more to the car rental business than is provided in the insured's policy limits pursuant to 33-23-203.

(3) This section does not require an insurer to pay more for a comparable car rental than the lowest price negotiated between a car rental business and the insurer.

(4) This section does not prohibit an insurer, its producers, or its adjusters from providing to a customer the name of a car rental business with which arrangements may have been made to provide car rental services as long as the ultimate choice is left to the person described in subsection (1)(a).

33-18-231. State administrative process to provide timely payment of medical benefits — definitions. In 33-18-231 through 33-18-235 the following definitions apply:

(1) "Claim documentation" means standard claims forms or other documentation routinely accepted by insurers as proof of loss.

(2) "Insurer" means any insurer as that term is defined by this title, including any fraternal benefit society, hospital service nonprofit corporation, health service corporation, nonprofit medical service corporation, nonprofit health care corporation, health maintenance organization, self-insurer, or third-party administrator or any other public or private, profit or nonprofit, governmental or nongovernmental individual, group, or organization that sells or offers for sale insurance policies, subscriber contracts, certificates, or agreements by which the offerer promises to pay medical benefits in any form in this state.

(3) "Proof of loss" means any claim documentation received by an insurer upon which payment of claims is requested.

History: En. Sec. 1, Ch. 300, L. 1983; amd. Sec. 1, Ch. 378, L. 2003.

33-18-232. Time for payment of claims. (1) An insurer shall pay or deny a claim within 30 days after receipt of a proof of loss unless the insurer makes a reasonable request for additional information or documents in order to evaluate the claim. If an insurer makes a reasonable request for additional information or documents, the insurer shall pay or deny the claim within 60 days of receiving the proof of loss unless the insurer has notified the insured, the insured's assignee, or the claimant of the reasons for failure to pay the claim in full or unless the insurer has a reasonable belief that insurance fraud has been committed and the insurer has reported the possible insurance fraud to the commissioner. This section does not eliminate an insurer's right to conduct a thorough investigation of all the facts necessary to determine payment of a claim.

claims payment. Interest is payable under this subsection only if the amount of interest due on a claim exceeds $5.

(3) A private cause of action under 33-18-201 or 33-18-242 may not be based on the compliance or noncompliance with the requirements of this section and evidence of compliance or noncompliance with this section is not admissible in any private action based on 33-18-201 or 33-18-242.

(a) use due diligence in processing all claims;

(b) pay claims in a timely manner;

(c) provide proper notice, when required, with respect to the reasons for the insurer's failure to make claim payments when due;

(d) pay, without just cause, proper claims arising under coverage provided by its policies, whether the claims are in favor of an insured, in favor of a third person with respect to the liability of an insured to the third person, or in favor of any other person entitled to the benefits of a policy; or

(e) pay interest pursuant to 33-18-232(2).

(2) If an insurer can demonstrate that it has consistently paid 90% of the total dollar amount outstanding in claims to each claimant within 20 working days and all of the amount within 30 working days of receipt of claims during the 6-month period immediately preceding the hearing date, the insurer is not subject to the fine described in subsection (1).

(2) In an action under this section, a plaintiff is not required to prove that the violations were of such frequency as to indicate a general business practice.

(3) An insured who has suffered damages as a result of the handling of an insurance claim may bring an action against the insurer for breach of the insurance contract, for fraud, or pursuant to this section, but not under any other theory or cause of action. An insured may not bring an action for bad faith in connection with the handling of an insurance claim.

(4) In an action under this section, the court or jury may award such damages as were proximately caused by the violation of subsection (1), (4), (5), (6), (9), or (13) of 33-18-201. Exemplary damages may also be assessed in accordance with 27-1-221.

(5) An insurer may not be held liable under this section if the insurer had a reasonable basis in law or in fact for contesting the claim or the amount of the claim, whichever is in issue.

(6) (a) An insured may file an action under this section, together with any other cause of action the insured has against the insurer. Actions may be bifurcated for trial where justice so requires.

(b) A third-party claimant may not file an action under this section until after the underlying claim has been settled or a judgment entered in favor of the claimant on the underlying claim.

(7) The period prescribed for commencement of an action under this section is:

(a) for an insured, within 2 years from the date of the violation of 33-18-201; and

(b) for a third-party claimant, within 1 year from the date of the settlement of or the entry of judgment on the underlying claim.

(8) As used in this section, an insurer includes a person, firm, or corporation utilizing self-insurance to pay claims made against them.

Insurers — Noninsurance-Related Prohibitions

33-18-301. Prohibited relations with mortuaries. (1) A life insurer and its board of directors, officers, employees, or representatives may not own, manage, supervise, operate, or maintain any mortuary, funeral, or undertaking establishment in Montana.

(2) A life insurer may not contract or agree with any funeral director, mortuary, or undertaker that the funeral director, undertaker, or mortuary shall conduct the funeral or be named beneficiary of any person insured by the insurer. This subsection does not prohibit a life insurer from making insurance, designated as funeral insurance, available.

(3) A funeral insurance policy and any solicitation material for the policy must clearly indicate that:

(a) the policy is a life insurance product;

(b) the applicant may designate the beneficiary if there is an appropriate and insurable interest;

(c) the beneficiary may use the proceeds for any purpose; and

(d) any attempt by the insurer or its representative to have the insured designate a specific beneficiary, including but not limited to a funeral director, mortuary, or undertaker, constitutes a violation of this section punishable as a misdemeanor pursuant to subsection (4).

(4) Each violation of this section constitutes a misdemeanor punishable by a fine of not more than $1,000 or by imprisonment for not more than 6 months, or both.

Either a county attorney or the attorney general may prosecute the person" for "a crime under 45-6-301, and a county attorney may initiate criminal proceedings against him"; inserted (2)(b) defining person; and made minor changes in style. Amendment effective October 1, 2005.

Part 5
Miscellaneous Prohibitions

33-18-501. Lenders — restrictions on solicitation, rejection, charges, and disclosure — favoring insurance producer prohibited. (1) No person may require as a condition precedent to the lending of money or extension of credit or any renewal thereof that the person to whom such money or credit is extended or whose obligation a creditor is to acquire or finance negotiate any contract of insurance or renewal thereof through a particular insurer or group of insurers or insurance producer or group of insurance producers.

(2) No person who lends money or extends credit may:

(a) solicit insurance for the protection of real property, after a person indicates interest in securing a first-mortgage credit extension, until such person has received a commitment in writing from the lender as to a loan or credit extension;

(b) unreasonably reject a contract of insurance furnished by the borrower for the protection of the property securing the credit or lien. A rejection is not unreasonable if it is based on reasonable standards, uniformly applied, relating to the extent of coverage required and the financial soundness and the services of an insurer. Such standards may not discriminate against any particular type of insurer or call for rejection of an insurance contract because the contract contains coverage in addition to that required by the credit transaction.

(c) require that any borrower, mortgagor, purchaser, insurer, or insurance producer pay a separate charge in connection with the handling of any contract of insurance required as security for a loan on real estate or pay a separate charge to substitute the insurance policy of one insurer for that of another. This subsection (2)(c) does not include the interest which may be charged on premium loans or premium advancements in accordance with the terms of the loan or credit document.

(d) use or disclose information relative to a contract of insurance which is required by the credit transaction:

(i) for the purpose of replacing such insurance; and

(ii) without the prior written consent of the borrower;

(e) require any procedures or conditions of licensed insurance producers or insurers not customarily required of those insurance producers or insurers affiliated or in any way connected with the person who lends money or extends credit.

(3) Each person who lends money or extends credit and who solicits insurance on real and personal property subject to subsection (2) of this section must explain to the borrower in writing that the insurance related to such credit extension may be purchased from an insurer or insurance producer of the borrower's choice, subject only to the lender's right to reject a given insurer or insurance producer as provided in subsection (2)(b). Compliance with disclosures as to insurance required by truth-in-lending laws or comparable state laws shall be compliance with this subsection.

(4) The commissioner may examine and investigate those insurance-related activities of any person which may be in violation of this section. Any affected person may submit to the commissioner a complaint or material pertinent to the enforcement of this section.

(5) Nothing herein prevents a person who lends money or extends credit from placing insurance on real or personal property in the event the mortgagor, borrower, or purchaser has failed to provide required insurance in accordance with the terms of the loan or credit document.

(6) Nothing contained in this section applies to credit life or credit accident and health insurance.

Montana Use of Credit Information in Personal Insurance

Part Compiler's Comments

Effective Date: This part is effective October 1, 2005.

Applicability: Section 15, Ch. 363, L. 2005, provided: "[This act] applies to personal insurance policies written to be effective or renewed on or after October 1, 2005."

33-18-601. Short title. This part may be cited as the "Montana Use of Credit Information in Personal Insurance Act".

History: En. Sec. 1, Ch. 363, L. 2005.

33-18-602. Purpose. The purpose of this part is to regulate the use of credit information for personal insurance so that consumers are afforded certain protections with respect to the use of credit information.

History: En. Sec. 2, Ch. 363, L. 2005.

33-18-603. Scope. This part applies to personal insurance and not to commercial insurance. For purposes of this part, "personal insurance" means private passenger automobile, home owners, motorcycle, mobile home owners, and noncommercial dwelling fire insurance policies and boat, personal watercraft, snowmobile, and recreational vehicle policies. These policies must be individually underwritten for personal, family, or household use. Other types of insurance may not be included as personal insurance for the purpose of this part.

History: En. Sec. 3, Ch. 363, L. 2005.

33-18-604. Definitions. For the purposes of this part, the following definitions apply:

(1) "Adverse action" means, in regard to the terms of coverage or amount of coverage of any insurance, existing or applied for, in connection with the underwriting of personal insurance, any of the following:

(a) denial, nonrenewal, or cancellation of coverage;

(b) an increase in any charge for coverage;

(c) failure to give an otherwise available credit-related discount; or

(d) a reduction or any other adverse or unfavorable change in the terms of coverage or the amount of coverage.

(2) "Affiliate" means a company that controls, is controlled by, or is under common control with another company.

(3) "Applicant" means an individual who has applied to be covered by a personal insurance policy with an insurer.

(4) "Consumer" means an insured whose credit information is used or whose insurance score is calculated in the underwriting or rating of a personal insurance policy or of an applicant for a personal insurance policy.

(5) "Consumer reporting agency" means any entity that, for monetary fees or dues or on a cooperative nonprofit basis, regularly engages in whole or in part in the practice of assembling or evaluating consumer credit information or other information on consumers for the purpose of furnishing consumer reports to third parties.

(6) "Credit information" means any credit-related information derived from a credit report, found on a credit report itself, or provided on an application for personal insurance. Information that is not credit-related may not be considered credit information regardless of whether it is contained in a credit report or in an application or is used to calculate an insurance score.

(7) "Credit report" means any written, oral, or other communication of information by a consumer reporting agency bearing on a consumer's creditworthiness, credit standing, or credit capacity that is used or expected to be used or collected in whole or in part for the purpose of serving as a factor to determine personal insurance premiums, eligibility for coverage, or tier placement.

(8) "Insurance score" means a number or rating that is derived from an algorithm, computer application, model, or other process that is based in whole or in part on credit information for the purposes of predicting the future insurance loss exposure of an individual applicant or insured.

History: En. Sec. 4, Ch. 363, L. 2005.

33-18-605. Use of credit information. (1) An insurer authorized to do business in this state that uses credit information to underwrite or rate risks may not:

(a) use an insurance score that is calculated using income, gender, address, zip code, ethnic group, religion, marital status, or nationality of the consumer as a factor;

(b) deny, cancel, or not renew a policy of personal insurance on the basis of credit information without consideration of any other applicable underwriting factor independent of credit information and not expressly prohibited by subsection (1)(a);

(c) base an insured's renewal rates for personal insurance upon credit information without consideration of any other applicable factor independent of credit information;

(d) take an adverse action against a consumer because the consumer does not have a credit card account without consideration of any other applicable factor independent of credit information;

(e) consider an absence of credit information or an inability to calculate an insurance score in underwriting or rating personal insurance unless the insurer does one of the following:

(i) treats the consumer as otherwise approved by the commissioner if the insurer presents information that the absence or inability relates to the risk for the insurer;

(ii) treats the consumer as if the consumer had neutral credit information, as defined by the insurer; or

(iii) excludes the use of credit information as a factor and uses only other underwriting criteria;

(f) take an adverse action against a consumer based on credit information unless an insurer obtains and uses a credit report issued or an insurance score calculated within 90 days from the date that the policy is first written or renewal is issued;

(g) use credit information unless not later than every 36 months following the last time that the insurer obtained current credit information for the insured, the insurer recalculates the insurance score or obtains an updated credit report. Regardless of the requirements of this subsection (1)(g):

(i) at annual renewal, upon the request of a consumer or the consumer's agent, the insurer shall reunderwrite and rerate the policy based upon a current credit report or insurance score. An insurer need not recalculate the insurance score or obtain the updated credit report of a consumer more frequently than once in a 12-month period.

(ii) the insurer has the discretion to obtain current credit information upon any renewal before the 36 months provided for in subsection (1)(g), if consistent with its underwriting guidelines;

(iii) an insurer may but does not have to obtain current credit information for an insured, despite the requirements of subsection (1)(g)(i), if one of the following applies:

(A) the insurer is treating the consumer as otherwise approved by the commissioner;

(B) the insured is in the most favorably priced tier of the insurer within a group of affiliated insurers;

(C) credit was not used for underwriting or rating the insured when the policy was initially written;

(D) the insurer reevaluates the insured beginning not later than 36 months after inception and at similar succeeding times based upon other underwriting or rating factors, excluding credit information.

(h) use a credit score that treats any of the following as a negative factor for the purpose of underwriting or rating a policy of personal insurance:

(i) credit inquiries not initiated by the consumer or inquiries requested by the consumer for the consumer's own credit information;

(ii) inquiries relating to insurance coverage, if so identified on a consumer's credit report;

(iii) collection accounts with a medical industry code, if so identified on the consumer's credit report;

(iv) multiple-lender inquiries, if coded by the consumer reporting agency on the consumer's credit report as being from the home mortgage industry and made within 30 days of one another, unless only one inquiry is considered;

(v) multiple-lender inquiries, if coded by the consumer reporting agency on the consumer's credit report as being from the automobile lending industry and made within 30 days of one another, unless only one inquiry is considered;

(vi) the number of credit inquiries;

(vii) the consumer's use of a particular type of credit card, charge card, or debit card or the number of credit cards obtained by a consumer;

(viii) a loan if information from the credit report makes it evident that the loan is for the purchase of an automobile or a personal residence. However, an insurer may consider the bill payment history of any loan, the total number of loans, or both.

(ix) the consumer's total available line of credit or total debt. However, an insurer may consider:

(A) the consumer's bill payment history on the debt; or

(B) the total amount of outstanding debt if the outstanding debt exceeds the total line of credit.

(2) (a) An insurer shall, on written request from an applicant or an insured, provide reasonable underwriting or rating exceptions for a consumer whose credit report has been directly affected by an extraordinary event.

(b) An insurer may require reasonable written and independently verifiable documentation of the event and the effect of the event on the consumer's credit before granting an exception. An insurer is not required to consider repeated extraordinary events or extraordinary events the insurer reconsidered previously.

(c) An insurer may also consider granting an exception to a consumer for an extraordinary event not listed in this section.

(d) An insurer may not be considered to be out of compliance with its filed rules and rates as a result of granting an exception pursuant to this subsection (2).

(e) As used in this subsection (2), "extraordinary event" means:

(i) expenses related to a catastrophic injury or illness;

(ii) temporary loss of employment;

(iii) death of an immediate family member; or

(iv) theft of identity pursuant to 45-6-332.

History: En. Sec. 5, Ch. 363, L. 2005.

33-18-606. Dispute resolution and error correction. If it is determined through the dispute resolution process set forth in the federal Fair Credit Reporting Act, 15 U.S.C. 1681i(a)(5), that the credit information of a current insured was incorrect or incomplete and if the insurer receives notice of that determination from either the consumer reporting agency or the insured, the insurer shall reunderwrite and rerate the consumer within 30 days of receiving the notice. After reunderwriting or rerating the insured, the insurer shall make any adjustments necessary consistent with its underwriting and rating guidelines. If an insurer determines that the insured has overpaid the premium, the insurer shall refund to the insured the amount of overpayment calculated back to the shorter of either the last 12 months of coverage or the actual policy period.

History: En. Sec. 6, Ch. 363, L. 2005.

33-18-607. Initial notification. (1) If an insurer writing personal insurance uses credit information in underwriting or rating a consumer, the insurer or its agent shall disclose, either on the insurance application or at the time that the insurance application is taken, that it may obtain credit information in connection with the application. The disclosure must be either written or provided to an applicant in the same medium as the application for insurance. The insurer does not have to provide the disclosure statement required under this section to any insured on a renewal policy if the consumer has previously been provided a disclosure statement.

(2) Use of the following disclosure statement constitutes compliance with this section: "In connection with this application for insurance, we may review your credit report or obtain or use a credit-based insurance score based on the information contained in that credit report. We may use a third party in connection with the development of your insurance score."

History: En. Sec. 7, Ch. 363, L. 2005.

33-18-608. Adverse action notification. If an insurer takes an adverse action based upon credit information, the insurer shall:

(1) provide notification to the consumer that an adverse action has been taken, in accordance with the requirements of the federal Fair Credit Reporting Act, 15 U.S.C. 1681m(a); and

(2) provide notification to the consumer explaining the reason for the adverse action. The reasons must be provided in sufficiently clear and specific language so that a person can identify the basis for the insurer's decision to take an adverse action. The notification must include a description of up to four factors that were the primary influences of the adverse action. The use of generalized terms, such as "poor credit history", "poor credit rating", or "poor insurance score", does not meet the explanation requirements of this subsection. Standardized credit explanations provided by consumer reporting agencies or other third-party vendors are considered to comply with this section.

History: En. Sec. 8, Ch. 363, L. 2005.

33-18-609. Filing. (1) Insurers that use insurance scores to underwrite and rate risks shall file their scoring models or other scoring processes with the commissioner. A third party may file scoring models on behalf of insurers.

(2) A filing relating to credit information is considered a trade secret under the laws of this state.

History: En. Sec. 9, Ch. 363, L. 2005.

33-18-610. Indemnification. An insurer shall indemnify, defend, and hold insurance producers harmless from and against all liability, fees, and costs arising out of or relating to the actions, errors, or omissions of an insurance producer that obtains or uses credit information or insurance scores for an insurer if the insurance producer follows the instructions of or procedures established by the insurer and complies with any applicable law or regulation. This section may not be construed to provide a consumer or other insured with a cause of action that does not exist in the absence of this section.

History: En. Sec. 10, Ch. 363, L. 2005.

33-18-611. Sale of policy term information by consumer reporting agency. (1) A consumer reporting agency may not provide or sell data or lists that include any information that in whole or in part was submitted in conjunction with an insurance inquiry about a consumer's credit information or a request for a credit report or insurance score. This information includes but is not limited to the expiration dates of an insurance policy or any other information that may identify time periods during which a consumer's insurance may expire and the terms and conditions of the consumer's insurance coverage.

(2) The restrictions provided in subsection (1) do not apply to data or lists that the consumer reporting agency supplies to the insurance producer from whom information was received, the insurer on whose behalf the insurance producer acted, or the insurer's affiliates or holding companies.

(3) This section may not be construed to restrict any insurer from being able to obtain a claims history report or a motor vehicle report.

History: En. Sec. 11, Ch. 363, L. 2005.

Part 9
Restrictions on Use of Genetic Information

33-18-901. Definitions. Unless the context indicates otherwise, the following definitions apply to this part:

(1) "Genetic information" means, unless otherwise provided by Public Law 104-191, information derived from genetic testing or medical evaluation to determine the presence or absence of variations or mutations, including carrier status, in an individual's genetic material or genes that are scientifically or medically believed to cause a disease, disorder, or syndrome or are associated with a statistically increased risk of developing a disease, disorder, or syndrome that is asymptomatic at the time of testing.

(2) "Genetic testing" or "genetic test" means a test used to diagnose a presymptomatic genetic factor, including analysis of human deoxyribonucleic acid or ribonucleic acid, chromosomes, proteins, or metabolites. The term does not include a routine physical examination or a chemical, blood, or urine analysis, unless conducted or analyzed purposefully or knowingly to obtain genetic information, or a family history.

(3) "Genetic trait" means any medically or scientifically identified genetic factor, known or presumed to be present in the individual or a biological relative but not presently associated with any manifestations of the disorder in the individual, that could cause a disorder or be statistically associated with an increased risk of development of a disorder.

(4) "Group policy" includes:

(a) the group insurance program authorized by Title 2, chapter 18, part 7;

(b) the state employee group insurance program required by Title 2, chapter 18, part 8; and

(c) a self-funded multiple employer welfare arrangement that is not regulated pursuant to the Employee Retirement Income Security Act of 1974, 29 U.S.C. 1001, et seq.

History: En. Sec. 3, Ch. 334, L. 1999.

33-18-902. Requirement for genetic testing — limitations. (1) An insurer, health service corporation, health maintenance organization, fraternal benefit society, or other issuer of an individual or group policy or certificate of insurance may not require an individual to obtain a genetic test unless the test is otherwise required by law for reasons including but not limited to the following:

(a) to establish parentage;

(b) to determine the presence of metabolic disorders in a newborn by testing conducted pursuant to newborn screening and protocols;

(c) in connection with a criminal investigation or prosecution; or

(d) for remains identification.

(2) This section does not apply to transactions of life, disability income, or long-term care insurance.

History: En. Sec. 4, Ch. 334, L. 1999.

33-18-903. Discrimination on basis of genetic traits prohibited. (1) Unless otherwise required by law, an insurer, health service corporation, health maintenance organization, fraternal benefit society, or other issuer of an individual or group policy or certificate of insurance may not, on the basis of a person's genetic traits:

(a) fail or refuse to accept an application for a policy or certificate of insurance;

(b) fail or refuse to issue a policy or certificate of insurance to an applicant;

(c) cancel a policy or certificate of insurance;

(d) refuse to renew a policy or certificate of insurance;

(e) charge a higher rate or premium for a policy or certificate of insurance; or

(f) offer or provide different terms, conditions, or benefits or place a limitation on coverage under a policy or certificate of insurance.

(2) An insurer, health service corporation, health maintenance organization, fraternal benefit society, or other issuer of an individual or group policy or certificate of insurance may not underwrite or condition coverage on the basis of:

(a) a requirement or agreement that the individual undergo genetic testing; or

(b) genetic information about a member of the individual's family.

(3) Discrimination may not be made in the fees or commissions of agents or brokers for writing or renewing an individual or group policy of insurance on the basis of an individual's genetic traits.

(4) This section does not apply to transactions of life, disability income, or long-term care insurance.

(5) This section does not prohibit an insurer, health service corporation, health maintenance organization, fraternal benefit society, or other issuer of an individual or group policy or certificate of insurance from discriminating as otherwise allowed by law on the basis of other factors unrelated to genetic traits.

History: En. Sec. 5, Ch. 334, L. 1999.

33-18-904. Seeking genetic information for nontherapeutic purposes prohibited. (1) An insurer, health service corporation, health maintenance organization, fraternal benefit society, or other issuer of an individual or group policy or certificate of insurance may not seek genetic information about an individual for a purpose that is:

(a) unrelated to assessing or managing the individual's current health;

(b) inappropriate in an asymptomatic individual; or

(c) unrelated to research in which a subject is not personally identifiable.

(2) This section does not apply to transactions of life, disability income, or long-term care insurance.

History: En. Sec. 6, Ch. 334, L. 1999.

Part 10
Enforcement

33-18-1001. Complaint handling — record. (1) An insurer shall maintain a complete record of all the complaints which it has received since the date of its last examination under 33-1-401. This record shall indicate the total number of complaints, their classification by line of insurance, the nature of each complaint, the disposition of the complaints, and the time it took to process each complaint.

(2) For purposes of this section, "complaint" means any written communication primarily expressing a grievance.

History: En. 40-3502.2 by Sec. 2, Ch. 320, L. 1977; R.C.M. 1947, 40-3502.2.

33-18-1002. Power of commissioner to examine insurers. The commissioner may examine and investigate the affairs of every person engaged in the business of insurance in this state in order to determine whether such person has been or is engaged in any unfair method of competition or in any unfair or deceptive act or practice prohibited by this chapter.

History: En. 40-3502.3 by Sec. 3, Ch. 320, L. 1977; R.C.M. 1947, 40-3502.3.

33-18-1003. Undefined unfair practices — procedures for determining and restraining. (1) If the commissioner believes that any person engaged in the insurance business is engaging in this state in any method of competition or in any act or practice in the conduct of such business which is not defined in this chapter but that such method of competition is unfair or that such act or practice is unfair or deceptive and that a proceeding by him in respect thereto would be in the public interest, he shall, after a hearing of which notice of the hearing and of the charges against him are given such person, make a written report of his findings of fact relative to such charges and serve a copy thereof upon such person and any intervenor at the hearing.

(2) If such report charges a violation of this chapter and if such method of competition, act, or practice has not been discontinued, the commissioner may, through the attorney general of this state, at any time after the service of such report cause an action to be instituted to enjoin and restrain such person from engaging in such method, act, or practice. In such action the court may grant a restraining order or injunction upon such terms as may be just, but the people of this state shall not be required to give security before the issuance of any such order or injunction. If a stenographic record of the proceedings in the hearing before the commissioner was made, a certified transcript thereof, including all evidence taken and the report and findings, shall be received in evidence in such action.

(3) If the commissioner's report made under subsection (1) above or order on hearing made under 33-18-1004 does not charge a violation of this chapter, then any intervenor in the proceedings may appeal therefrom within the time and in the manner provided in this code for appeals from the commissioner generally.

History: En. Sec. 217, Ch. 286, L. 1959; R.C.M. 1947, 40-3515.

33-18-1004. Desist orders for prohibited practices. (1) If, after a hearing thereon of which notice of such hearing and of the charges against him were given such person, the commissioner finds that any person in this state has engaged or is engaging in any act or practice defined in or prohibited under this chapter, the commissioner shall order such person to desist from such acts or practices.

(2) Such desist order shall become final upon expiration of the time allowed for appeals from the commissioner's orders if no such appeal is taken or, in event of such an appeal, upon final decision of the court if the court affirms the commissioner's order or dismisses the appeal. An intervenor in such hearing shall have the right to appeal as provided in 33-18-1003(3).

(3) In event of such an appeal, to the extent that the commissioner's order is affirmed, the court shall issue its own order commanding obedience to the terms of the commissioner's order.

(4) No order of the commissioner pursuant to this section or order of court to enforce it shall in any way relieve or absolve any person affected by such order from any other liability, penalty, or forfeiture under law.

(5) This section shall not be deemed to affect or prevent the imposition of any penalty provided by this code or by other law for violation of any other provision of this chapter, whether or not any such hearing is called or held or such desist order issued.

History: En. Sec. 216, Ch. 286, L. 1959; amd. Sec. 7, Ch. 320, L. 1977; R.C.M. 1947, 40-3514.

33-18-1005. Penalty for violation of cease and desist orders. (1) Any person who violates a cease and desist order issued pursuant to 33-18-1004 is subject to a civil penalty not to exceed $1,000. Each day of violation constitutes a separate violation. The total penalty may not exceed a $10,000 aggregate. The department may institute and maintain in the name of the state any enforcement proceedings hereunder. Upon request of the department, the attorney general or the county attorney of the county in which the violation occurred shall petition the district court to impose, assess, and recover the civil penalty.

(2) An action under subsection (1) of this section is not a bar to enforcement of this chapter or rules or orders made under it by injunction or other appropriate remedies.

(3) Moneys collected hereunder shall be deposited in the state general fund.

Part 1
General Provisions

33-19-101. Short title. This chapter may be cited as the "Insurance Information and Privacy Protection Act".

History: En. Sec. 1, Ch. 580, L. 1981.

33-19-102. Purpose. The purpose of this chapter is to establish standards for the collection, use, and disclosure of information gathered in connection with insurance transactions by insurance institutions, insurance producers, or insurance-support organizations; to maintain a balance between the need for information by those conducting the business of insurance and the public's need for fairness in insurance information practices, including the need to minimize intrusiveness; to establish a regulatory mechanism to enable natural persons to ascertain what information is being or has been collected about them in connection with insurance transactions and to have access to that information for the purpose of verifying or disputing its accuracy; to limit the disclosure of information collected in connection with insurance transactions; and to enable insurance applicants and policyholders to obtain the reasons for any adverse underwriting decision. The purpose of this chapter is also to provide privacy protection consistent with federal regulations governing the privacy of medical records when this chapter is consistent with those federal regulations. In those instances in which this chapter and the federal privacy regulations are inconsistent and this chapter provides privacy protection beyond that offered by the federal regulations, the purpose of this chapter is to provide that additional privacy protection.

33-19-103. Scope. (1) The obligations imposed by this chapter apply to those insurance institutions, insurance producers, or insurance-support organizations that, on or after July 1, 1982:

(a) in the case of life, health, or disability insurance:

(i) collect, receive, or maintain information in connection with insurance transactions that pertains to natural persons who are residents of this state; or

(ii) engage in insurance transactions with applicants, individuals, or policyholders who are residents of this state; and

(b) in the case of property or casualty insurance:

(i) collect, receive, or maintain information in connection with insurance transactions involving policies, contracts, or certificates of insurance delivered, issued for delivery, or renewed in this state; or

(ii) engage in insurance transactions involving policies, contracts, or certificates of insurance delivered, issued for delivery, or renewed in this state.

(2) The rights granted by this chapter extend to:

(a) in the case of life, health, or disability insurance, the following persons who are residents of this state:

(i) natural persons who are the subject of information collected, received, or maintained in connection with insurance transactions; and

(ii) applicants, individuals, or policyholders who engage in or seek to engage in insurance transactions; and

(b) in the case of property or casualty insurance, the following persons:

(i) natural persons who are the subject of information collected, received, or maintained in connection with insurance transactions involving policies, contracts, or certificates of insurance delivered, issued for delivery, or renewed in this state; and

(ii) applicants, individuals, or policyholders who engage in or seek to engage in insurance transactions involving policies, contracts, or certificates of insurance delivered, issued for delivery, or renewed in this state.

(3) For the purposes of this section, a person is considered a resident of this state if the person's last-known mailing address, as shown in the records of the insurance institution, insurance producer, or insurance-support organization, is located in this state.

(4) This chapter does not apply to information collected from the public records of a governmental authority and maintained by an insurance institution or its representatives for the purpose of insuring the title to real property located in this state.

33-19-104. Definitions. As used in this chapter, the following definitions apply:

(1) (a) "Adverse underwriting decision" means any of the following actions with respect to insurance transactions involving insurance coverage that are individually underwritten:

(i) a declination of insurance coverage;

(ii) a termination of insurance coverage;

(iii) failure of an insurance producer to apply for insurance coverage with a specific insurance institution that the insurance producer represents and that is requested by an applicant;

(iv) in the case of a property or casualty insurance coverage:

(A) placement by an insurance institution or insurance producer of a risk with a residual market mechanism, an unauthorized insurer, or an insurance institution that specializes in substandard risks; or

(B) the charging of a higher rate on the basis of information that differs from that which the applicant or policyholder furnished;

(v) in the case of a life, health, or disability insurance coverage, an offer to insure at higher than standard rates.

(b) The following actions are not adverse underwriting decisions, but the insurance institution or insurance producer responsible for their occurrence shall nevertheless provide the applicant or policyholder with the specific reason or reasons for their occurrence:

(i) the termination of an individual policy form on a class or statewide basis;

(ii) a declination of insurance coverage solely because the coverage is not available on a class or statewide basis; or

(iii) the rescission of a policy.

(2) "Affiliate" or "affiliated" means a person who directly, or indirectly through one or more intermediaries, controls, is controlled by, or is under common control with another person.

(3) "Applicant" means a person who seeks to contract for insurance coverage other than a person seeking group insurance that is not individually underwritten.

(4) "Consumer report" means any written, oral, or other communication of information bearing on a natural person's credit worthiness, credit standing, credit capacity, character, general reputation, personal characteristics, or mode of living that is used or expected to be used in connection with an insurance transaction.

(5) "Consumer reporting agency" means a person who:

(a) regularly engages, in whole or in part, in the practice of assembling or preparing consumer reports for a monetary fee;

(b) obtains information primarily from sources other than insurance institutions; and

(c) furnishes consumer reports to other persons.

(6) "Control", including the terms "controlled by" or "under common control with", means the possession, direct or indirect, of the power to direct or cause the direction of the management and policies of a person, whether through the ownership of voting securities, by contract other than a commercial contract for goods or nonmanagement services, or otherwise, unless the power is the result of an official position with or corporate office held by the person.

(7) "Declination of insurance coverage" means a denial, in whole or in part, by an insurance institution or insurance producer of requested insurance coverage.

(8) "Individual" means a natural person who:

(a) regarding property or casualty insurance, is a past, present, or proposed named insured or certificate holder;

(b) regarding life, health, or disability insurance, is a past, present, or proposed principal insured or certificate holder;

(c) is a past, present, or proposed policyowner;

(d) is a past or present applicant;

(e) is a past or present claimant; or

(f) derived, derives, or is proposed to derive insurance coverage under an insurance policy or certificate subject to this chapter.

(9) "Institutional source" means a person or governmental entity that provides information about an individual to an insurance producer, insurance institution, or insurance-support organization, other than:

(a) an insurance producer;

(b) the individual who is the subject of the information; or

(c) a natural person acting in a personal capacity rather than a business or professional capacity.

(10) "Insurance function" means claims administration, claims adjustment and management, fraud investigation, fraud prevention, underwriting, loss control, ratemaking functions, reinsurance, risk management, case management, disease management, quality assessment, quality improvement, provider credentialing verification, utilization review, peer review activities, subrogation, grievance procedures, insurance transactions, internal administration of compliance and policyholder service functions, and technical, administrative, or professional services related to the provision of the functions described in this subsection.

(11) (a) "Insurance institution" means a corporation, association, partnership, reciprocal exchange, interinsurer, Lloyd's insurer, fraternal benefit society, or other person engaged in the business of insurance, including health maintenance organizations, and health service corporations as defined in 33-30-101.

(b) Insurance institution does not include insurance producers or insurance-support organizations.

(12) "Insurance producer" means an insurance producer as defined in 33-17-102 and 33-30-311.

(13) (a) "Insurance-support organization" means a person who assembles or collects information about natural persons for the purpose of providing the information to an insurance institution or insurance producer for insurance transactions, including:

(i) the furnishing of consumer reports or investigative consumer reports to an insurance institution or insurance producer for use in connection with an insurance transaction; or

(ii) the collection of personal information from insurance institutions, insurance producers, or other insurance-support organizations for the purpose of detecting or preventing fraud, material misrepresentation, or material nondisclosure in connection with insurance underwriting or insurance claim activity.

(b) The following persons are not insurance-support organizations for purposes of this chapter: insurance producers, government institutions, medical care institutions, and medical professionals.

(14) "Insurance transaction" means a transaction involving insurance primarily for personal, family, or household needs, rather than for business or professional needs, that entails:

(a) the determination of an individual's eligibility for an insurance coverage, benefit, or payment; or

(b) the servicing of an insurance application, policy, contract, or certificate.

(15) "Investigative consumer report" means a consumer report or portion of a consumer report containing information about a natural person's character, general reputation, personal characteristics, or mode of living obtained through personal interviews with the person's neighbors, friends, associates, acquaintances, or others who may have knowledge concerning this type of information.

(16) "Licensee" means:

(a) an insurance institution, insurance producer, or other person who is licensed or required to be licensed, authorized or required to be authorized, or registered or required to be registered pursuant to this title; or

(b) a surplus lines insurer.

(17) "Medical care institution" means a facility or institution that is licensed to provide health care services to natural persons, including but not limited to health maintenance organizations, home health agencies, hospitals, medical clinics, public health agencies, rehabilitation agencies, and skilled nursing facilities.

(18) "Medical professional" means a person who is licensed or certified to provide health care services to natural persons, including but not limited to a chiropractor, clinical dietitian, clinical psychologist, dentist, nurse, occupational therapist, optometrist, pharmacist, physical therapist, physician, podiatrist, psychiatric social worker, or speech-language pathologist.

(19) "Medical record information" means personal information that:

(a) relates to an individual's physical or mental condition, medical history, medical claims history, or medical treatment; and

(b) is obtained from a medical professional or medical care institution, from the individual, or from the individual's spouse, parent, or legal guardian.

(20) "Person" means a natural person, corporation, association, partnership, or other legal entity.

(21) "Personal information" means any individually identifiable information gathered in connection with an insurance transaction from which judgments can be made about an individual's character, habits, avocations, finances, occupation, general reputation, credit, health, or any other personal characteristics. Personal information includes an individual's name and address and medical record information but does not include privileged information.

(22) "Policyholder" means a person who:

(a) in the case of individual property or casualty insurance, is a present named insured;

(b) in the case of individual life, health, or disability insurance, is a present policyowner; or

(c) in the case of group insurance that is individually underwritten, is a present group certificate holder.

(23) "Pretext interview" means an interview during which a person, in an attempt to obtain information about a natural person, performs one or more of the following acts:

(a) pretends to be someone else;

(b) pretends to represent a person not in fact being represented;

(c) misrepresents the true purpose of the interview; or

(d) refuses to provide identification upon request.

(24) "Privileged information" means any individually identifiable information that:

(a) relates to a civil or criminal proceeding involving an individual; and

(b) is collected in connection with or in reasonable anticipation of a claim for insurance benefits or civil or criminal proceeding involving an individual. Information otherwise meeting the requirements of privileged information under this subsection is considered personal information under this chapter if it is disclosed in violation of 33-19-306.

(25) "Residual market mechanism" means an association, organization, or other entity defined or described in 61-6-144.

(26) "Separate, written authorization" means an individual's written authorization that is:

(a) obtained by the recipient of personal or privileged information that has been disclosed to the recipient pursuant to 33-19-306(10), (11), (14), (15), and (17); and

(b) separate from any written authorization obtained by the disclosing insurance institution, insurance producer, or insurance-support organization.

(27) "Termination of insurance coverage" or "termination of an insurance policy" means either a cancellation or nonrenewal of an insurance policy, in whole or in part, for any reason other than the failure to pay a premium as required by the policy.

(28) "Unauthorized insurer" means an insurance institution that has not been granted a certificate of authority by the commissioner to transact the business of insurance in this state.

33-19-105. Exemption based on federal standards for privacy of individually identifiable health information — notice to commissioner required — rules. (1) The obligations imposed under this chapter do not apply to a licensee that is a covered entity under the provisions of federal regulations that are part of the federal Health Insurance Portability and Accountability Act of 1996 (HIPAA), 45 CFR, parts 160 and 164, standards for privacy of individually identifiable health information as to any use or disclosure of personal information that is covered under the HIPAA privacy regulations, except for the following provisions:

(a) A notice of insurance information practices described as a notice of privacy practices for protected health information under HIPAA privacy regulations must be delivered annually, as provided for in 33-19-202(1).

(b) To the extent that an insurer collects, discloses, or uses personal information that is not covered under the HIPAA notice of privacy practices, a separate Montana specific notice must be delivered pursuant to the provisions of 33-19-202.

(c) A disclosure authorization remains valid for a period that does not exceed 24 months, as provided for in 33-19-206(2).

(d) The reasons for an adverse underwriting decision must be specified, as provided for in 33-19-303.

(e) Disclosure of underwriting information is required, as provided for in 33-19-308.

(2) The commissioner may adopt rules regarding the exceptions from the exemption provisions described in subsection (1), including additional exceptions that embody substantive provisions of this chapter but would not be preempted by HIPAA privacy regulations.

(3) If a licensee considers itself exempt from a provision of this chapter for the reason provided in subsection (1), the licensee shall give written notice to the commissioner of that exemption and a brief statement describing why the licensee is a HIPAA-covered entity.

(4) A licensee may claim an exemption only for those lines of business that are subject to HIPAA privacy regulations. All other lines of business are subject to this chapter.

(5) A third-party administrator that is a party to a valid business associate agreement required by HIPAA privacy regulations is exempt from the provisions of this chapter, but only as to the scope of that particular agreement. Any activity of the third-party administrator that falls outside of the scope of that agreement is subject to the provisions of this chapter.

(6) The commissioner retains the authority to conduct complete market conduct examinations of the licensee as to the privacy policies and practices that are subject to state privacy laws.

(7) Beginning July 1, 2007:

(a) if a licensee is subject to and in compliance with a federal regulation that is part of the federal health insurance portability and accountability privacy regulations, 45 CFR, parts 160 and 164, and the federal regulation with which the licensee complies is inconsistent with a provision of this chapter and not less protective of consumer privacy, the licensee is exempt from compliance with the inconsistent provision of this chapter;

(b) if a licensee considers itself exempt from a provision of this chapter for the reason provided in subsection (7)(a), the licensee shall give written notice to the commissioner of that exemption, unless the requirements of this subsection (7) are preempted by HIPAA privacy regulations. The notice must include a statement of the reason for the claimed exemption.

Compiler's Comments

2005 Amendment: Chapter 469 in (1) at beginning deleted "Beginning on April 17, 2003"; in (7) after "July 1" substituted "2007" for "2005"; and made minor changes in style. Amendment effective July 1, 2005.

33-19-106. Rulemaking authorized. The commissioner may adopt rules to carry out the provisions of this chapter.

History: En. Sec. 4, Ch. 341, L. 2001.

Part 2
Information Gathering

33-19-201. Pretext interviews prohibited — exception. (1) Except as provided in subsection (2), an insurance institution, insurance producer, or insurance-support organization may not use or authorize the use of pretext interviews to obtain information in connection with an insurance transaction.

(2) A pretext interview may be undertaken to obtain information from a person or institution that does not have a generally or statutorily recognized privileged relationship with the person about whom the information relates for the purpose of investigating a claim when based upon specific information available for review by the commissioner that there is a reasonable basis for suspecting criminal activity, fraud, material misrepresentation, or material nondisclosure in connection with the claim.

33-19-202. Notice of insurance information practices — delivery of notice. A licensee shall provide a clear and conspicuous notice of information practices that accurately reflects its privacy policies and practices to individuals about whom personal information is collected and disclosed by the licensee in connection with insurance transactions as follows:

(1) (a) Except as provided in subsection (2), in the case of a policyholder or certificate holder, a notice must be delivered by an insurance institution:

(i) in the case of policies issued after July 1, 2001, no later than at the time of the delivery of the insurance policy or certificate, unless the notice delivered to the policyholder or certificate holder pursuant to subsection (5)(a) when the policyholder or certificate holder was an applicant is still accurate;

(ii) at least annually, the 12-month period for which may be defined by the insurance institution and must be used consistently. The notice to certificate holders required in this subsection (1)(a)(ii) is not required if the insurance institution has not had any communication, including receiving a claim, from a certificate holder since the initial or last annual notice provided to the certificate holder.

(iii) in the case of a policy renewed after July 1, 2001, no later than the policy renewal date, except that notice is not required in connection with a policy renewal if a notice meeting the requirements of this section has been given within the previous 12 months.

(b) When a policyholder or certificate holder obtains a new insurance product or service or when a policy is reinstated and any notices already provided are no longer accurate with respect to the new product, service, or reinstatement, a new or revised and accurate notice must be delivered to the policyholder or certificate holder no later than the time that the product or service is provided by the licensee or at the time of reinstatement.

(2) (a) An insurance institution is not required to meet the requirements of this section with respect to certificate holders until the insurance institution has personally identifiable information regarding the certificate holder.

(b) Until the notice requirements of subsection (1) are met, a third-party administrator or other agent or representative of an insurance institution may not disclose personal information, except as allowed in 33-19-306(2).

(3) The notice required in subsection (1) must be in writing and must state:

(a) the categories of personal information that may be collected from persons other than the individual or individuals covered;

(b) if a licensee discloses personal or privileged information to a third party without an authorization pursuant to an exception in 33-19-306 or 33-19-307, a separate description of the categories of information and the categories of third parties to whom the licensee discloses personal information;

(c) the categories of personal information about a former policyholder or certificate holder that the licensee discloses pursuant to 33-19-306 and 33-19-307 and the categories of persons to whom the disclosure may be made;

(d) any disclosure that the licensee makes pursuant to section 603(d)(2)(A)(iii) of the Fair Credit Reporting Act, 15 U.S.C. 1681, et seq.; and

(e) the licensee's policies and practices with respect to protecting the confidentiality and security of personal and privileged information.

(4) The following information must be contained in the initial notice delivered at the time of application and in any subsequent annual notice if the policy renews periodically:

(a) a description of the rights established under 33-19-301 and 33-19-302 and the manner in which those rights may be exercised;

(b) that information obtained from a report prepared by an insurance-support organization may be retained by the insurance-support organization and disclosed to other persons if the licensee collects or uses information from or discloses personal information to an insurance-support organization; and

(c) that an individual is entitled to receive, upon written request to the licensee, a record of any subsequent disclosures of medical record information, as described in 33-19-301, made by the licensee pursuant to 33-19-306 and 33-19-307.

(5) In the case of individuals who are not policyholders or certificate holders:

(a) except as provided in subsection (8), in the case of an applicant, an insurance institution shall provide a notice as described in subsection (3) when the applicant submits an application;

(b) for all other individuals, a notice must be given when a licensee seeks an authorization pursuant to 33-19-306(2) to make a disclosure that is not allowed by a disclosure exception provided for in 33-19-306(3) through (24) or 33-19-307. A notice given pursuant to this subsection (5)(b) may be in an abbreviated form and must state that:

(i) personal information may be collected from persons other than the individual or individuals proposed for coverage;

(ii) the information as well as other personal or privileged information subsequently collected by the insurance institution or insurance producer may in certain circumstances be disclosed to third parties without authorization;

(iii) a right of access and correction exists with respect to all personal information collected; and

(iv) the notice prescribed in subsection (3) must be furnished upon request. The abbreviated notice provided for in this subsection (5)(b) must explain a reasonable means by which an individual may obtain that notice.

(6) The obligations imposed by this section upon a licensee may be satisfied:

(a) by another licensee authorized to act on its behalf;

(b) by sending a notice to the primary policyholder of an individual policy or to the primary certificate holder.

(7) A licensee shall provide a notice required by this section so that an intended recipient can reasonably be expected to receive actual notice in writing or, if the intended recipient agrees, electronically, as follows:

(a) by hand-delivering a printed copy of the notice to the intended recipient;

(b) by mailing a printed copy of the notice to the last-known address of the individual separately or in a policy, billing, or other written communication; or

(c) for an individual who has agreed to conduct transactions electronically, as provided in applicable law, by posting the notice on the electronic site and requiring the individual to acknowledge receipt of the notice as a necessary step to obtaining a particular insurance product or service.

(8) An insurance institution may provide the notice required in subsection (5)(a) telephonically if an application is submitted by telephone. A telephone notice under this subsection may be in abbreviated form as provided for in subsections (5)(b)(i) through (5)(b)(iv).

(9) A licensee may satisfy the notice requirements in this section through the use of combined or separate notices. If more than one notice form is used, the licensee shall refer the individual to state specific notice forms that may be used. Any national notice form must give individuals clear and conspicuous notice that when state law is more protective of individuals than federal privacy law, the licensee will protect information in accordance with state law.

33-19-205. Investigative consumer reports. (1) An insurance institution, insurance producer, or insurance-support organization may not prepare or request an investigative consumer report about an individual in connection with an insurance transaction involving an application for insurance, a policy renewal, a policy reinstatement, or a change in insurance benefits unless the insurance institution or insurance producer informs the individual:

(a) that he may request to be interviewed in connection with the preparation of the investigative consumer report; and

(b) that upon a request pursuant to 33-19-301, he is entitled to receive a copy of the investigative consumer report.

(2) If an investigative consumer report is to be prepared by an insurance institution or insurance producer, the insurance institution or insurance producer shall institute reasonable procedures to conduct a personal interview requested by an individual.

(3) If an investigative consumer report is to be prepared by an insurance-support organization, the insurance institution or insurance producer desiring such report shall inform the insurance-support organization whether a personal interview has been requested by the individual. The insurance-support organization shall institute reasonable procedures to conduct such interview, if requested.

33-19-206. Disclosure authorizations — content — conditions prohibited. If a disclosure authorization is required by this chapter, the following requirements apply:

(1) A valid authorization to disclose personal information must be in written form, or in electronic form as provided by applicable law, and must contain the following:

(a) the identity of the individual who is the subject of the personal information;

(b) a description of the types of personal information to be disclosed;

(c) a description of the entity or type of entity to which the licensee discloses personal information, the purpose of the disclosure, and how the information will be used;

(d) the signature of the individual who is the subject of the personal information or the individual who may by law allow the disclosure and the date on which the authorization is signed; and

(e) notice of the length of time for which the authorization is valid, notice that the individual may revoke the authorization at any time, and notice of the procedure for revocation.

(2) An authorization remains valid for a period stated in the authorization that does not exceed 24 contiguous months.

(3) An individual who is the subject of personal information and has signed an authorization may revoke the authorization at any time.

(4) A licensee shall retain the original authorization or a copy of it in the record of the individual who is the subject of personal information.

(5) A licensee may not condition enrollment, coverage, benefits, or rates on an individual's signing of a disclosure authorization unless the disclosure sought through the authorization is necessary for the licensee to perform an insurance function.

Part 3
Disclosure of Information

Part Cross-References

Right of privacy, Art. II, sec. 10, Mont. Const.

33-19-301. Access to recorded personal information. (1) If an individual, after proper identification, submits a written request to an insurance institution, insurance producer, or insurance-support organization for access to recorded personal information about the individual that is reasonably described by the individual and reasonably locatable and retrievable by the insurance institution, insurance producer, or insurance-support organization, the insurance institution, insurance producer, or insurance-support organization shall, within 30 business days from the date that the request is received:

(a) inform the individual of the nature and substance of the recorded personal information in writing, by telephone, or by other oral communication, whichever the insurance institution, insurance producer, or insurance-support organization prefers;

(b) permit the individual to see and copy, in person, the recorded personal information pertaining to the individual or to obtain a copy of the recorded personal information by mail, whichever the individual prefers. If the recorded personal information is in coded form, an accurate translation in plain language must be provided in writing.

(c) except for the tracking of disclosures of medical record information that must be recorded and disclosed under subsection (2), disclose to the individual the identity, if recorded, of those persons to whom the insurance institution, insurance producer, or insurance-support organization has disclosed the personal information within 2 years prior to the request and, if the identity is not recorded, the names of those insurance institutions, insurance producers, insurance-support organizations, or other persons to whom the information is normally disclosed; and

(d) provide the individual with a summary of the procedures that the individual may use to request correction, amendment, or deletion of recorded personal information.

(2) (a) If an individual, after proper identification, submits a written request to a licensee for a record of disclosures of medical record information, the licensee shall provide to the individual a record of all disclosures of medical record information made by the licensee pursuant to 33-19-306(8), (9), other than disclosures made to law enforcement authorities, (10)(b), (12)(a)(iii), (13), (14), only as to medical record information that has not been deidentified, (15), (21), only as to medical record information that has not been deidentified, or (22) or 33-19-307. The record of those disclosures must include:

(i) the name, address, and institutional affiliation, if any, of each person receiving or examining the medical information during the preceding 2 years;

(ii) the date of the receipt or examination; and

(iii) to the extent practicable, a description of the information disclosed.

(b) If an individual submits a written request to a licensee for a record of disclosures of medical record information and the licensee may have made medical record information disclosures pursuant to 33-19-306(4)(b), (5), (11), (12)(a)(i), (12)(a)(ii), (12)(b), (16), (18), or (19), the licensee shall provide the individual with a description of the types of medical record information that the licensee may disclose under those exceptions, along with a general description of the usual recipients of that information. Individual tracking of each disclosure of medical record information is not required.

(3) Personal information provided pursuant to subsection (1) must identify the source of the information if the source is an institutional source.

(4) Medical record information supplied by a medical care institution or medical professional and requested under subsection (1), together with the identity of the medical professional or medical care institution that provided the information, must be supplied either directly to the individual or to a medical professional designated by the individual and licensed to provide medical care with respect to the condition to which the information relates, whichever the insurance institution, insurance producer, or insurance-support organization prefers. If it elects to disclose the information to a medical professional designated by the individual, the insurance institution, insurance producer, or insurance-support organization shall notify the individual, at the time of the disclosure, that it has provided the information to the medical professional. The medical professional may review and interpret the information and, at the request of the affected individual, shall consult with the affected individual.

(5) Except for personal information provided under 33-19-303, an insurance institution, insurance producer, or insurance-support organization may charge a reasonable fee to cover the costs incurred in providing a copy of recorded personal information to individuals.

(6) The obligations imposed by this section upon an insurance institution or insurance producer may be satisfied by another insurance institution or insurance producer authorized to act on its behalf. With respect to the copying and disclosure of recorded personal information pursuant to a request under subsection (1), an insurance institution, insurance producer, or insurance-support organization may make arrangements with an insurance-support organization or a consumer reporting agency to copy and disclose recorded personal information on its behalf.

(7) The rights granted to individuals in this section extend to all natural persons to the extent information about them is collected, maintained, and disclosed by an insurance institution, insurance producer, or insurance-support organization in connection with an insurance transaction. The rights granted to all natural persons by this subsection do not extend to information about them that relates to and is collected in connection with or in reasonable anticipation of a claim or civil or criminal proceeding involving them, except for the tracking of medical record information as provided for in subsection (2).

(8) For the purposes of this section, the term "insurance-support organization" does not include "consumer reporting agency".

History: En. Sec. 10, Ch. 580, L. 1981; amd. Sec. 1, Ch. 713, L. 1989; amd. Sec. 4, Ch. 385, L. 2003.

33-19-302. Correction, amendment, or deletion of recorded personal information. (1) Within 30 business days from the date of receipt of a written request from an individual to correct, amend, or delete any recorded personal information in its possession about the individual, an insurance institution, insurance producer, or insurance-support organization shall either:

(a) correct, amend, or delete the portion of the recorded personal information in dispute; or

(b) notify the individual of:

(i) its refusal to make the correction, amendment, or deletion;

(ii) the reasons for the refusal; and

(iii) the individual's right to file a statement as provided in subsection (3).

(2) If the insurance institution, insurance producer, or insurance-support organization corrects, amends, or deletes recorded personal information in accordance with subsection (1)(a), the insurance institution, insurance producer, or insurance-support organization shall notify the individual in writing about the action that it has taken and furnish the correction, amendment, or fact of deletion to:

(a) any person specifically designated by the individual who may have, within the preceding 2 years, received recorded personal information about the individual;

(b) any insurance-support organization whose primary source of personal information is insurance institutions if the insurance-support organization has systematically received recorded personal information from the insurance institution within the preceding 7 years, but the correction, amendment, or fact of deletion need not be furnished if the insurance-support organization no longer maintains recorded personal information about the individual; and

(c) any insurance-support organization that furnished the personal information that has been corrected, amended, or deleted.

(3) Whenever an individual disagrees with an insurance institution's, insurance producer's, or insurance-support organization's refusal to correct, amend, or delete recorded personal information, the individual may file with the insurance institution, insurance producer, or insurance-support organization:

(a) a concise statement setting forth what the individual thinks is the correct, relevant, or fair information; and

(b) a concise statement of the reasons why the individual disagrees with the insurance institution's, insurance producer's, or insurance-support organization's refusal to correct, amend, or delete recorded personal information.

(4) If an individual files either statement described in subsection (3), the insurance institution, insurance producer, or insurance-support organization shall:

(a) file the statement with the disputed personal information and provide a means by which anyone reviewing the disputed personal information will be made aware of the individual's statement and have access to it;

(b) in any subsequent disclosure by the insurance institution, insurance producer, or insurance-support organization of the recorded personal information that is the subject of disagreement, clearly identify the matter in dispute and provide the individual's statement along with the recorded personal information being disclosed; and

(c) furnish the statement to the persons in the manner specified in subsection (2).

(5) The commissioner may review a refusal by an insurance institution, insurance producer, or insurance-support organization to correct, amend, or delete recorded personal information in order to determine if the information is correct. The commissioner may order the insurance institution, insurance producer, or insurance-support organization to correct, amend, or delete information that the commissioner determines is erroneous in an individual's recorded information file.

(6) The rights granted individuals by this section extend to all natural persons to the extent information about them is collected and maintained by an insurance institution, insurance producer, or insurance-support organization in connection with an insurance transaction. The rights granted to natural persons by this subsection do not extend to information about them that relates to and is collected in connection with or in reasonable anticipation of a claim or civil or criminal proceeding involving them.

(7) For the purposes of this section, the term "insurance-support organization" does not include a consumer reporting agency.

33-19-303. Reasons for adverse underwriting decisions. (1) If an adverse underwriting decision is made, the insurance institution or insurance producer responsible for the decision shall:

(a) either provide the applicant, policyholder, or individual proposed for coverage with the specific reason or reasons for the adverse underwriting decision in writing or advise the person that upon written request, the person may receive the specific reason or reasons in writing; and

(b) provide the applicant, policyholder, or individual proposed for coverage with a summary of the rights established under subsection (2) and 33-19-301 and 33-19-302.

(2) If a written request is received within 90 business days from the date of the mailing of notice or other communication of an adverse underwriting decision to an applicant, policyholder, or individual proposed for coverage, the insurance institution or insurance producer shall within 21 business days from the date of receipt of the written request furnish the person:

(a) the specific reason or reasons for the adverse underwriting decision, in writing, if the information was not initially furnished in writing pursuant to subsection (1)(a);

(b) the specific items of personal and privileged information that support those reasons; however:

(i) the insurance institution or insurance producer is not required to furnish specific items of privileged information if it has a reasonable suspicion, based upon specific information available for review by the commissioner, that the applicant, policyholder, or individual proposed for coverage has engaged in criminal activity, fraud, material misrepresentation, or material nondisclosure; and

(ii) specific items of medical record information supplied by a medical care institution or medical professional must be disclosed either directly to the individual about whom the information relates or to a medical professional designated by the individual and licensed to provide medical care with respect to the condition to which the information relates, whichever the insurance institution or insurance producer prefers; and

(c) the names and addresses of the institutional sources that supplied the specific items of information pursuant to subsection (2)(b), except that the identity of any medical professional or medical care institution must be disclosed either directly to the individual or to the designated medical professional, whichever the insurance institution or insurance producer prefers.

(3) The obligations imposed by this section upon an insurance institution or insurance producer may be satisfied by another insurance institution or insurance producer that is authorized to act on its behalf.

(4) When an adverse underwriting decision results solely from an oral request or inquiry, the explanation of reasons and summary of rights required by subsection (1) may be given orally but must be made in writing at the request of the applicant, policyholder, or individual.

33-19-304. Information concerning previous adverse underwriting decisions. An insurance institution, insurance producer, or insurance-support organization may not seek information in connection with an insurance transaction concerning:

(1) any previous adverse underwriting decision experienced by an individual unless the inquiry also requests the reasons for any previous adverse underwriting decision and the individual is advised of the source of the information; or

(2) any previous insurance coverage obtained by an individual through a residual market mechanism unless the inquiry also requests the reasons why insurance coverage was previously obtained through a residual market mechanism and the individual is advised of the source of information.

33-19-305. Previous adverse underwriting decisions. An insurance institution or insurance producer may not base an adverse underwriting decision in whole or in part:

(1) on the fact of a previous adverse underwriting decision or on the fact that an individual previously obtained insurance coverage through a residual market mechanism, but an insurance institution or insurance producer may base an adverse underwriting decision on further information obtained from an insurance institution or insurance producer responsible for a previous adverse underwriting decision;

(2) on personal information received from an insurance-support organization whose primary source of information is insurance institutions, but an insurance institution or insurance producer may base an adverse underwriting decision on further personal information obtained as the result of information received from such insurance-support organization.

History: En. Sec. 14, Ch. 580, L. 1981; amd. Sec. 1, Ch. 713, L. 1989.

33-19-306. Disclosure limitations and conditions. (1) Except as provided in this section, a licensee may not disclose personal or privileged information about an individual collected or received in connection with an insurance transaction.

(2) Disclosure may be made with the written authorization of the individual. The authorization must be in the form provided in 33-19-206.

(3) Disclosure limited to that which is reasonably necessary may be made to a person to enable the person to provide information to the disclosing licensee for the purpose of detecting or preventing criminal activity, fraud, material misrepresentation, or material nondisclosure in connection with an insurance transaction. A person to whom information is disclosed pursuant to this subsection shall agree in writing not to further disclose the information, but this requirement for an agreement does not prevent disclosure of information that is necessary to obtain further information for the purposes set forth in this subsection.

(4) (a) Disclosure may be made between licensees if the information disclosed is limited to that which is reasonably necessary:

(i) to detect or prevent criminal activity, fraud, material misrepresentation, or material nondisclosure in connection with insurance transactions; or

(ii) for either the disclosing or receiving licensee to perform its insurance function.

(b) A licensee receiving information pursuant to this subsection (4) may not further disclose the information unless otherwise permitted by this section.

(5) Disclosure may be made to a medical care institution, a medical professional, or the individual to whom the information pertains if that information is reasonably necessary for the following purposes:

(a) verifying insurance coverage or benefits;

(b) informing an individual of a medical problem of which the individual may not be aware;

(c) conducting an operations or services audit; or

(d) determining the reasonableness or necessity of medical services.

(6) Disclosure:

(a) may be made to an insurance regulatory authority;

(b) must be made as required by law; and

(c) must be or may be made to the commissioner as required or permitted by law.

(7) Disclosure may be made by a licensee or an insurance-support organization to a law enforcement or other government authority or to an insurance regulatory agency:

(a) to protect the interests of a licensee in preventing, investigating, or prosecuting the perpetration of fraud upon a licensee; or

(b) if the licensee or insurance-support organization reasonably believes that illegal activities have been conducted by the individual.

(8) Disclosure that is limited to that which is reasonably necessary may be made as otherwise permitted or required by law.

(9) Disclosure that is limited to that which is reasonably necessary may be made in response to a facially valid administrative or judicial order, including a search warrant or subpoena.

(10) (a) Except as provided in subsection (10)(b), disclosure that is limited to that which is reasonably necessary may be made for the purpose of conducting actuarial or research studies if:

(i) an individual is not identified in any actuarial or research report;

(ii) materials allowing the individual to be identified are returned or destroyed as soon as they are no longer needed; and

(iii) the actuarial or research organization agrees not to further disclose the information without the individual's separate, written authorization.

(b) Disclosure of information may be made for:

(i) health research that is subject to the approval of an institutional review board and the requirements of federal law and regulations governing biomedical research; or

(ii) epidemiological or drug therapy outcomes research that requires information that has been made anonymous to protect the identity of the patient through coding or encryption.

(11) Disclosure may be made to a party or a representative of a party to a proposed sale, transfer, merger, or consolidation of all or part of the business of the licensee or insurance-support organization if:

(a) prior to the consummation of the sale, transfer, merger, or consolidation only information is disclosed that is reasonably necessary to enable the recipient to make business decisions about the purchase, transfer, merger, or consolidation; and

(b) the recipient agrees not to further disclose the information without the individual's separate, written authorization.

(12) (a) Disclosure that is limited to that which is reasonably necessary may be made to a licensee's affiliate as follows:

(i) to allow use of the information in connection with an audit of the licensee;

(ii) to enable a licensee to perform an insurance function; or

(iii) as allowed by 33-19-307.

(b) A licensee disclosing pursuant to this section must have a written agreement with the affiliate that the affiliate will not use or further disclose information received except to carry out the purposes set forth in subsection (12)(a) and that if further disclosure is necessary to meet those purposes, the disclosure will be made only to the licensee or to a person who agrees in writing to be bound by the same prohibition on use and disclosure. A disclosure allowed by 33-19-307 is governed by that section.

(13) Disclosure that is limited to that which is reasonably necessary may be made to an insurance-support organization to perform insurance-support services for the licensee. The insurance-support organization may redisclose the information to the extent necessary to provide its services to its member or subscriber licensees and other insurance-support organizations or as otherwise permitted by law, but not for a marketing purpose.

(14) Disclosure may be made to a group policyholder for the purpose of reporting claims experience or conducting an audit of the licensee's operations or services if the information disclosed is reasonably necessary for the group policyholder to conduct the review or audit and the group policyholder agrees not to further disclose the information without the individual's separate, written authorization. Medical record information disclosed pursuant to this subsection must be edited to prevent the identification of the applicant, policyholder, or certificate holder. Employer audits that are required by the Employee Retirement Income Security Act of 1974, 29 U.S.C. 1001, et seq., as amended, are not subject to the provisions of this subsection.

(15) Disclosure that is limited to that which is reasonably necessary may be made to a professional peer review organization for the purpose of reviewing the service or conduct of a medical care institution or medical professional if the professional peer review organization agrees not to further disclose the information without the individual's separate, written authorization.

(16) Disclosure that is limited to that which is reasonably necessary may be made to a governmental authority as required by federal or state law or for the purpose of determining the individual's eligibility for health benefits for which the governmental authority may be liable.

(17) Disclosure that is limited to that which is reasonably necessary may be made to a certificate holder or policyholder for the purpose of providing information regarding the status of an insurance transaction. Disclosure pursuant to this subsection may not be made to a group policyholder without a separate, written authorization from the individual.

(18) Disclosure may be made to a person contractually engaged to provide services to enable a licensee to perform an insurance function, or to perform an insurance function on behalf of a licensee, if the person agrees in writing that the person will not use or further disclose information obtained or developed pursuant to the engagement except to carry out the limited purpose of the engagement and that if further disclosure is necessary to perform the insurance function, that disclosure will be made only to the licensee or to a person who agrees in writing to be bound by the same prohibitions on use and disclosure.

(19) If a licensee has to disclose personal or privileged information in order to perform an insurance function and disclosure is not permitted under another exception in this section, disclosure may be made to a person other than a licensee if the disclosure is limited to that which is reasonably necessary to enable the person to perform services or an insurance function for the disclosing licensee and if the person is notified by the licensee that the person is prohibited from:

(a) using the information other than to carry out the limited purpose for which the information is disclosed; and

(b) disclosing the information other than to the licensee and as allowed in subsection (3).

(20) Disclosure may be made to a lienholder, mortgagee, assignee, lessor, or other person shown on the records of an insurance institution or insurance producer as having a legal interest in a policy of insurance if:

(a) medical record information is not disclosed; and

(b) the information disclosed is limited to that which is reasonably necessary to permit the person with a legal interest in the policy to protect that person's interests in that policy.

(21) Disclosure may be made to provide information to insurance rate advisory organizations, guaranty funds or agencies, agencies that are rating a licensee, persons that are assessing the licensee's compliance with industry standards, and the licensee's attorneys, accountants, and auditors if the disclosure is limited to that which is reasonably necessary to enable the person or entity to perform services or an insurance function for the disclosing licensee and if the person or entity is notified by the licensee that the person or entity is prohibited from using the information, other than to carry out the limited purpose for which the information is disclosed.

(22) Notwithstanding any other provision of this chapter, disclosure for a marketing purpose may be made only as allowed by 33-19-307.

(23) Nothing in this section may be construed to prevent the disclosure of personal information that is otherwise discoverable pursuant to the Montana Rules of Civil Procedure.

(24) The commissioner may adopt rules creating additional exceptions to disclosure restrictions for the purpose of allowing a licensee or insurance-support organization to carry out a necessary insurance function. The commissioner shall adopt rules establishing the methods that must be used by licensees to prevent identification as described in subsection (14).

33-19-307. Personal information used for marketing purposes — restrictions. (1) Except as permitted in this section, a licensee may not use or disclose personal information for a marketing purpose. For the purposes of this section, an insurance producer who describes to the producer's clients products or services available through the producer is not engaged in marketing.

(2) A licensee may use or disclose to another licensee personal information that is reasonably necessary to enable the licensee to market insurance products or services. A licensee may use or disclose to another licensee personal information, excluding medical record information, that is reasonably necessary to enable the licensee to market financial products and services. A licensee that receives personal information under this section from a disclosing licensee may not further disclose the information or use the information for any purpose other than marketing insurance and financial products and services.

(3) A licensee may disclose personal information that is reasonably necessary to enable an affiliate that is not a licensee to market insurance products and services. A licensee may disclose to an affiliate that is not a licensee personal information, excluding medical record information, that is reasonably necessary to enable the affiliate to market financial products and services. Disclosures under this subsection may be made only with a written agreement with the affiliate that the affiliate will not further disclose the information and will use it only for marketing insurance or financial products and services.

(4) A licensee may disclose personal information that is reasonably necessary to enable a person contractually engaged to provide services for or on behalf of the licensee to market insurance or financial products or services if the person agrees in writing that the person will not use or further disclose information obtained or developed pursuant to the engagement except to carry out the limited purpose of the engagement. A licensee shall adopt and maintain policies and procedures reasonably designed to ensure that third parties with whom the licensee contracts under this subsection comply with the requirements of this section.

(5) A licensee may use or disclose personal information for purposes other than those specified in subsections (2) through (4) only with an individual's written authorization as described in 33-19-306(2). In addition to meeting the requirements of 33-19-206, the authorization must:

(a) clearly and conspicuously state that the disclosed information is intended to be used for marketing purposes;

(b) specify each entity or type of entity to which the licensee intends to disclose the information;

(c) specify what information the licensee intends to disclose; and

(d) specify the type of marketing that the individual might receive pursuant to the disclosure.

History: En. Sec. 8, Ch. 341, L. 2001; amd. Sec. 6, Ch. 385, L. 2003.

33-19-308. Disclosure of underwriting information. (1) An insurance institution or insurance-support organization shall, within 30 days of receiving a written request from an entity listed in subsection (2) that it provides coverage for, disclose to that entity the following information that the entity specifically requests about the entity's coverage:

(a) total premiums collected from the entity for the policy year; and

(b) total losses paid out with respect to the entity for the policy year.

(2) Any of the following entities may request information about the entity's coverage pursuant to this section:

(a) an association having a group health insurance program for its members;

(b) a group purchasing cooperative;

(c) a group health plan that is a multiple employer welfare arrangement;

(d) a self-insured group; and

(e) a business that provides group health insurance for its employees, except that a business with between 2 and 50 employees is not subject to the provisions of this section.

(3) Information disclosed pursuant to this section may not include any personal information pertaining to an individual covered by a group plan that has been obtained or administered by an entity listed in subsection (2).

(4) Information that is obtainable pursuant to the provisions of this section may not be requested more than once during any calendar year.

(5) An association provided for in subsection (2)(a) must be provided with reasonable information by its insurance institution or insurance support organization to enable the association to receive a bid or quote for coverage from other insurance entities.

33-19-321. (Effective March 1, 2006) Computer security breach. (1) Any licensee or insurance-support organization that conducts business in Montana and that owns or licenses computerized data that includes personal information shall provide notice of any breach of the security of the system following discovery or notice of the breach of the security of the system to any individual whose unencrypted personal information was or is reasonably believed to have been acquired by an unauthorized person. The notice must be made without unreasonable delay, consistent with the legitimate needs of law enforcement, as provided in subsection (3), or consistent with any measures necessary to determine the scope of the breach and restore the reasonable integrity of the data system.

(2) Any person to whom personal information is disclosed in order for the person to perform an insurance function pursuant to this part that maintains computerized data that includes personal information shall notify the licensee or insurance-support organization of any breach of the security of the system in which the data is maintained immediately following discovery of the breach of the security of the system if the personal information was or is reasonably believed to have been acquired by an unauthorized person.

(3) The notice required by this section may be delayed if a law enforcement agency determines that the notice will impede a criminal investigation and requests a delay of notice. The notice required by this section must be made after the law enforcement agency determines that the notice will not compromise the investigation.

(4) Licensees, insurance-support organizations, and persons to whom personal information is disclosed pursuant to this part shall develop and maintain an information security policy for the safeguarding of personal information and security breach notice procedures that provide expedient notice to individuals as provided in subsection (1).

(5) For purposes of this section, the following definitions apply:

(a) "Breach of the security of the system" means unauthorized acquisition of computerized data that compromises the security, confidentiality, or integrity of personal information maintained by a licensee, insurance-support organization, or person to whom information is disclosed pursuant to this part. Acquisition of personal information by a licensee, insurance-support organization, or employee or agent of a person as authorized pursuant to this part is not a breach of the security of the system.

(b) (i) "Personal information" means an individual's first name or first initial and last name in combination with any one or more of the following data elements, when the name and the data elements are not encrypted:

(A) social security number;

(B) driver's license number or state identification number;

(C) account number or credit or debit card number, in combination with any required security code, access code, or password that would permit access to an individual's financial account.

(ii) Personal information does not include publicly available information that is lawfully made available to the general public from federal, state, or local government records.

Part 4
Enforcement

33-19-401. Power of the commissioner. (1) The commissioner has the power to examine and investigate the affairs of every insurance institution or insurance producer doing business in this state to determine whether the insurance institution or insurance producer has been or is engaged in any conduct in violation of this chapter.

(2) The commissioner has the power to examine and investigate the affairs of every insurance-support organization acting on behalf of an insurance institution or insurance producer that either transacts business in this state or transacts business outside this state which has an effect on a person residing in this state in order to determine whether such insurance-support organization has been or is engaged in any conduct in violation of this chapter.

History: En. Sec. 17, Ch. 580, L. 1981; amd. Sec. 1, Ch. 713, L. 1989.

33-19-403. Service of process — insurance-support organizations. For the purpose of this chapter, an insurance-support organization transacting business outside this state that has an effect on a person residing in this state is considered to have appointed the commissioner to accept service of process on its behalf. The commissioner shall mail a copy of the notice by registered mail to the insurance-support organization at its last known principal place of business. The return postcard receipt for such mailing is sufficient proof that the same was properly mailed by the commissioner.

History: En. Sec. 18, Ch. 580, L. 1981.

33-19-407. Individual remedies. (1) If any insurance institution, insurance producer, or insurance-support organization fails to comply with 33-19-301, 33-19-302, or 33-19-303 with respect to the rights granted under those sections, any person whose rights are violated may apply to the district court of this state or any other court of competent jurisdiction for appropriate equitable relief.

(2) An insurance institution, insurance producer, or insurance-support organization that discloses information in violation of 33-19-306 or 33-19-307 is liable for damages sustained by the individual to whom the information relates. However, an individual is not entitled to a monetary award that exceeds the actual damages sustained by the individual as a result of a violation of 33-19-306 or 33-19-307.

(3) In an action brought pursuant to this section, the court may award the cost of the action and reasonable attorney fees to the prevailing party.

(4) An action under this section must be brought within 2 years from the date the alleged violation is or should have been discovered.

(5) Except as specifically provided in this section, there is no remedy or recovery available to individuals, in law or in equity, for occurrences constituting a violation of any provision of this chapter.

33-19-408. Immunity. A cause of action or claim for relief in the nature of defamation, invasion of privacy, or negligence does not arise against any person for disclosing personal or privileged information in accordance with this chapter, nor does such a cause of action or claim for relief arise against any person for furnishing personal or privileged information to an insurance institution, insurance producer, or insurance-support organization. However, this section does not provide immunity for disclosing or furnishing false information with malice or willful intent to injure any person.

33-19-409. Obtaining information under false pretenses. Any person who knowingly and willfully obtains information about an individual from an insurance institution, insurance producer, or insurance-support organization under false pretenses shall be fined not more than $10,000 or imprisoned for not more than 1 year, or both.

History: En. Sec. 24, Ch. 580, L. 1981; amd. Sec. 1, Ch. 713, L. 1989.

33-20-102. Industrial life insurance defined. For the purposes of this code, industrial life insurance is that form of life insurance written under policies of face amount of $2,000 or less bearing the words "industrial policy" imprinted on the face thereof as part of the descriptive matter and under which premiums are payable monthly or more often.

History: En. Sec. 296, Ch. 286, L. 1959; amd. Sec. 1, Ch. 30, L. 1969; R.C.M. 1947, 40-3802.

33-20-103. Standard provisions required — exceptions. (1) A policy of life insurance, other than group and pure endowments with or without return of premiums or of premiums and interest, may not be delivered or issued for delivery in this state unless it contains in substance all of the applicable provisions as required by 33-20-104 through 33-20-108, 33-20-110 through 33-20-116, and 33-20-131.

(2) This section does not apply to annuity contracts or to any provision of a life insurance policy, or contract supplemental to an annuity contract or life insurance policy, relating to disability benefits or to additional benefits in the event of death by accident or accidental means. However, the provisions of 33-20-114 do apply to annuity contracts.

(3) Any provision or portions of a provision not applicable to single premium or term policies may not to that extent be incorporated in single premium or term policies.

History: En. Sec. 297, Ch. 286, L. 1959; R.C.M. 1947, 40-3803; amd. Sec. 83, Ch. 370, L. 1987; amd. Sec. 25, Ch. 380, L. 2003.

33-20-104. Grace period. There shall be a provision that a grace period of 30 days or, at the option of the insurer, of 1 month of not less than 30 days or of 4 weeks in the case of industrial life insurance policies, the premiums for which are payable more frequently than monthly, shall be allowed within which the payment of any premium after the first may be made, during which period of grace the policy shall continue in full force; but if a claim arises under the policy during such period of grace, the amount of any premium due or overdue may be deducted from the policy proceeds.

33-20-105. Incontestability. (1) There must be a provision that the policy, exclusive of provisions relating to disability benefits or to additional benefits in the event of death by accident or accidental means, is incontestable, except for nonpayment of premiums, after the policy has been in force during the lifetime of the insured for a period of 2 years from the policy date of issue.

(2) (a) Life insurance coverage issued as the result of an exchange or a conversion of existing life insurance coverage with the same insurer or its subsidiaries is incontestable, except for nonpayment of premiums, under the following conditions:

(i) the person who is covered is alive; and

(ii) the policy that is being exchanged or converted has been in effect for 2 years from the date of issue.

(b) This subsection (2) does not apply to any amount of insurance provided by the new policy that exceeds the coverage amount that was exchanged or converted.

History: En. Sec. 299, Ch. 286, L. 1959; R.C.M. 1947, 40-3805; amd. Sec. 26, Ch. 380, L. 2003; amd. Sec. 23, Ch. 469, L. 2005.

Compiler's Comments

2005 Amendment: Chapter 469 substituted (2)(a) and (2)(b) concerning life insurance coverage issued as result of an exchange or conversion for former (2) that read: "(2) A policy issued in connection with an exchange or a conversion is incontestable from the time of issue"; and made minor changes in style. Amendment effective October 1, 2005.

33-20-106. Entire contract. There shall be a provision that the policy, or the policy and the application therefor if a copy of such application is endorsed upon or attached to the policy when issued, shall constitute the entire contract between the parties and, if the application is so made a part of the policy, that all statements contained in the application shall, in the absence of fraud, be deemed representations and not warranties.

33-20-107. Misstatement of age. There shall be a provision that if the age of the insured or of any other person whose age is considered in determining the premium has been misstated, any amount payable or benefit accruing under the policy shall be such as the premium would have purchased at the correct age or ages.

History: En. Sec. 301, Ch. 286, L. 1959; R.C.M. 1947, 40-3807.

33-20-108. Dividends. (1) There shall be a provision in participating policies that, beginning not later than the end of the third policy year, the insurer shall annually ascertain and apportion the divisible surplus, if any, that will accrue on the policy anniversary or other dividend date specified in the policy, provided the policy is in force and all premiums to that date are paid.

(2) Except as hereinafter provided, any dividend becoming payable shall at the option of the party entitled to elect such option be either:

(a) payable in cash; or

(b) applied to any one of such other dividend options as may be provided by the policy.

(3) If any such other dividend options are provided, the policy shall further state which option shall be automatically effective if such party shall not have elected some other option. If the policy specifies a period within which such other dividend option may be elected, such period shall be not less than 30 days following the date on which such dividend is due and payable.

(4) The annually apportioned dividend shall be deemed to be payable in cash within the meaning of subsection (2)(a) above even though the policy provides that payment of such dividend is to be deferred for a specified period, provided such period does not exceed 6 years from the date of apportionment and that interest will be added to such dividend at a specified rate.

(5) If a participating policy provides that the benefit under any paid-up nonforfeiture provision is to be participating, it may provide that any divisible surplus becoming payable or apportioned while the insurance is in force under such nonforfeiture provision shall be applied in the manner set forth in the policy.

(6) In participating industrial life insurance policies, in lieu of the provision required in subsections (1) through (5) above, there shall be a provision that, beginning not later than the end of the fifth policy year, the policy shall participate annually in the divisible surplus, if any, in the manner set forth in the policy.

33-20-112. Reinstatement. There shall be a provision that the policy will be reinstated at any time within 3 years, or 2 years in the case of industrial life insurance policies, from the date of premium default upon written application therefor, the production of evidence of insurability satisfactory to the insurer, the payment of all premiums in arrears, and the payment or reinstatement of any other indebtedness to the insurer upon the policy, with interest on all premiums in arrears at a rate not exceeding 6% per annum compounded annually and with interest on any indebtedness at a rate as provided in 33-20-132 through 33-20-136, unless:

(1) the policy has been surrendered for its cash surrender value;

(2) its cash surrender value has been exhausted; or

(3) the paid-up term insurance, if any, has expired.

History: En. Sec. 306, Ch. 286, L. 1959; R.C.M. 1947, 40-3812; amd. Sec. 7, Ch. 191, L. 1985.

33-20-114. Payment of claims — interest. (1) There must be a provision, which may be made by endorsement, that when a claim is made upon the death of the insured, settlement must be made upon receipt of proof of death and, at the insurer's option, surrender of the policy or proof of the interest of the claimant, or both.

(2) There must be a provision, which may be made by endorsement, that settlement must be made within 60 days of receipt of proof of death and that if settlement is made after the first 30 days, the settlement must include interest from the 30th day until settlement. Interest must be paid at the discount rate on 90-day commercial paper in effect at the federal reserve bank in the ninth federal reserve district at the time of proof of death or at the rate stated in the policy, whichever is greater. The settlement period and interest provisions of this subsection apply to all claims upon deaths filed with an insurer, regardless of whether those provisions are included in the policy.

33-20-115. Beneficiary — industrial policies. (1) An industrial life insurance policy shall have the name of the beneficiary designated thereon with a reservation of the right to designate or change the beneficiary after the issuance of the policy.

(2) The policy may also provide that no designation or change of beneficiary shall be binding on the insurer until endorsed on the policy by the insurer and that the insurer may refuse to endorse the name of any proposed beneficiary who does not appear to the insurer to have an insurable interest in the life of the insured.

(3) The policy may also provide that if the beneficiary designated in the policy does not make a claim under the policy or does not surrender the policy with due proof of death within the period stated in the policy, which shall not be less than 30 days after the death of the insured, or if the beneficiary is the estate of the insured or is a minor or dies before the insured or is not legally competent to give a valid release, then the insurer may make any payment thereunder to the personal representative of the insured or to any relative of the insured by blood or legal adoption or connection by marriage or to any person appearing to the insurer to be equitably entitled thereto by reason of having been named beneficiary or by reason of having incurred expense for the maintenance, medical attention, or burial of the insured.

(4) The policy may also include a similar provision applicable to any other payment due under the policy.

(5) The provisions of 33-20-114(2) shall be incorporated into an industrial life insurance policy and are applicable as set out in that subsection.

33-20-117. Nonforfeiture rights — policies issued before operative date. (1) This section shall apply only to policies of life insurance issued prior to the operative date of 33-20-213.

(2) In event of default in payment of any premium due on any policy, provided not less than three full years' premiums shall have been paid, there shall be secured to the insured, without action on his part, either paid-up or extended insurance as specified in the policy, the net value of which shall be at least equal to the entire net reserve held by the insurer of such policy, less 2 ½% of the amount insured by the policy and dividend additions, if any, and less any outstanding indebtedness to the insurer on the policy at time of default. There shall be secured to the insured the right to surrender the policy to the insurer at its home office within 1 month after date of default for cash value otherwise available for the purchase of the paid-up or extended insurance as aforesaid.

33-20-118. Contestability — excluded or restricted coverage. A clause in any policy of life insurance providing that such policy shall be incontestable after a specified period shall preclude only a contest of the validity of the policy and shall not preclude the assertion at any time of defenses based upon provisions in the policy which exclude or restrict coverage, whether or not such restrictions or exclusions are excepted in such clause.

33-20-119. Incontestability — limitation on liability after reinstatement of life insurance or annuity. (1) A reinstated policy of life insurance or annuity contract may be contested on account of fraud or misrepresentation of facts material to the reinstatement only for the same period following reinstatement and with the same conditions and exceptions as the policy provides with respect to contestability after original issuance.

(2) When any life insurance policy or annuity contract is reinstated, such reinstated policy or contract may exclude or restrict liability to the same extent that such liability might have been or was excluded or restricted when the policy or contract was originally issued, and such exclusion or restriction shall be effective from the date of reinstatement.

History: En. Sec. 322, Ch. 286, L. 1959; R.C.M. 1947, 40-3828.

33-20-120. Policy settlements — holding proceeds — indebtedness deducted from proceeds. (1) Any life insurer shall have the power to hold under agreement the proceeds of any policy issued by it, upon such terms and restrictions as to revocation by the policyholder and control by beneficiaries and with such exemptions from the claims of creditors of beneficiaries other than the policyholder as set forth in the policy or as agreed to in writing by the insurer and the policyholder. Upon maturity of a policy, in the event the policyholder has made no such agreement, the insurer shall have the power to hold the proceeds of the policy under an agreement with the beneficiaries. The insurer shall not be required to segregate the funds so held but may hold them as part of its general assets.

(2) In determining the amount due under any life insurance policy heretofore or hereafter issued, deduction may be made of:

(a) any unpaid premiums or installments thereof for the current policy year due under the terms of the policy; and

(b) the amount of principal and accrued interest of any policy loan or other indebtedness against the policy then remaining unpaid.

History: En. Secs. 323, 324, Ch. 286, L. 1959; R.C.M. 1947, 40-3829, 40-3830.

33-20-121. Prohibited provisions — limitations on liability. (1) A policy of life insurance may not be delivered or issued for delivery in this state if it contains a provision:

(a) for a period shorter than that provided by statute within which an action at law or in equity may be commenced on the policy; or

(b) that excludes or restricts liability for death caused in a certain specified manner or occurring while the insured has a specified status, except that a policy may contain provisions excluding or restricting coverage as specified in the policy in the event of death:

(i) as a result, directly or indirectly, of war, declared or undeclared, or of action by military forces or of an act or hazard of war or action or of service in the military, naval, or air forces or in civilian forces auxiliary to those military forces or from any cause while a member of military, naval, or air forces of a country at war, declared or undeclared, or of a country engaged in military action;

(ii) as a result of aviation, air travel, or flight;

(iii) as a result of a specified hazardous occupation or occupations;

(iv) while the insured is a resident outside the continental United States and Canada; or

(v) within 2 years from the date of issue of the policy as a result of suicide. If a life insurance policy contains a dependent rider, the dependent coverage may be continued upon payment of the premium for the dependent rider.

(2) A policy that contains an exclusion or restriction pursuant to subsection (1) must also provide that in the event of death under the circumstances to which the exclusion or restriction is applicable, the insurer will pay an amount not less than a reserve determined according to the commissioner's reserve valuation method on the basis of the mortality table and interest rate specified in the policy for the calculation of nonforfeiture benefits or, if the policy does not provide for nonforfeiture benefits, computed according to a mortality table and interest rate determined by the insurer and specified in the policy or by any other method more favorable to the policyholder, with adjustment for indebtedness or dividend credit.

(3) This section does not apply to industrial life insurance, group life insurance, disability insurance, reinsurance, or annuities or to a provision in a life insurance policy relating to disability benefits or to additional benefits in the event of death by accident or accidental means.

(4) This section does not prohibit a provision that in the opinion of the commissioner is more favorable to the policyholder than a provision permitted by this section.

33-20-122. Prohibited provisions — industrial life insurance. No policy of industrial life insurance shall contain any of the following provisions:

(1) a provision by which the insurer may deny liability under the policy for the reason that the insured has previously obtained other insurance from the same insurer;

(2) a provision giving the insurer the right to declare the policy void because the insured has had any disease or ailment, whether specified or not, or because the insured has received institutional, hospital, medical, or surgical treatment or attention, except a provision which gives the insurer the right to declare the policy void if the insured has, within 2 years prior to the issuance of the policy, received institutional, hospital, medical, or surgical treatment or attention and if the insured or claimant under the policy fails to show that the condition occasioning such treatment or attention was not of a serious nature or was not material to the risk;

(3) a provision giving the insurer the right to declare the policy void because the insured has been rejected for insurance, unless such right be conditioned upon a showing by the insurer that knowledge of such rejection would have led to a refusal by the insurer to make such contract.

33-20-123. Prohibited policy plans — life insurance policies or annuity contracts. (1) No insurer shall issue for delivery or deliver in this state any life insurance policy or annuity contract issued under any plan for the segregation of policyholders into mathematical groups and providing benefits for a surviving policyholder of a group arising out of the death of another policyholder of such group or under any other similar plan.

(2) No insurer shall issue for delivery or deliver in this state any life insurance policy or annuity contract providing benefits or values for surviving or continuing policyholders contingent upon the lapse or termination of the policies of other policyholders, whether by death or otherwise. This provision shall not be deemed to prohibit the payment or allowance of regular annual dividends or “savings” under participating forms of policies or contracts or prohibit the annual distribution to policyholders or beneficiaries of sums representing in part gains to the insurer from lapses, surrenders, or mortality either in general or as resulting from particular classifications of policies.

33-20-127. Life insurance policy with long-term care provision or accelerated benefits provision — summary required. At the time of policy delivery, a summary must be delivered to the insured for an individual life insurance policy that provides long-term care benefits or accelerated benefits within the policy or by rider. In the case of direct response solicitations, the insurer shall deliver the summary upon the applicant’s request but no later than the time of policy delivery. In addition to complying with all applicable requirements, the summary must also include:

(1) an explanation of how the long-term care benefits or accelerated benefits interact with other components of the policy, including deductions from death benefits;

(2) an illustration of the amount of benefits, the length of benefits, and the guaranteed lifetime benefits, if any, for each covered person;

(3) any exclusions, reductions, and limitations of long-term care benefits and accelerated benefits; and

(4) if applicable to the policy type:

(a) a disclosure of the effects of exercising other rights under the policy;
(b) a disclosure of guaranties related to long-term care costs of insurance charges; and
(c) current and projected maximum lifetime benefits.

History: En. Sec. 3, Ch. 152, L. 1991; amd. Sec. 24, Ch. 451, L. 1993.

33-20-128. Life insurance policy paying long-term benefits — monthly report. When a long-term care benefit, funded through a life insurance vehicle by the acceleration of the death benefit, is in benefit payment status, a monthly report must be provided to the policyholder. The report must include the following information for the month for which the report is issued:

(1) the amount of long-term care benefits paid out during the month;

(2) an explanation of any changes in the policy, including without limitation death benefits or cash values, resulting from long-term care benefits having been paid out; and

(3) the amount of long-term care benefits existing or remaining.

33-20-131. Policy loan or certificate loan. (1) Subject to the provisions of 33-20-101(2) and except as provided in 33-20-132 through 33-20-136, there must be a provision that after 3 full years' premiums have been paid and after the policy or certificate has a cash surrender value and while a premium is not in default beyond the grace period for payment, the insurer will advance, on proper assignment or pledge of the policy or certificate and on the sole security of the policy or certificate, at a specified rate of interest not exceeding 6% a year, an amount equal to or, at the option of the party entitled to the loan, less than the loan value of the policy or certificate. The commissioner may authorize a rate of interest in excess of 6%, but not in excess of 8% a year (or 7.4% if payable annually in advance), for policies or certificates issued on or after January 1, 1980, if the insurer provides adequate written certification that the holders of the policies will benefit fully from the increased earnings of the insurer resulting from the use of an interest rate in excess of the 6% per annum, such as from higher interest income to the company on policy or certificate loans, higher investment yield resulting from a reduction in policy or certificate loans because of the higher policy or certificate loan interest rate, and any additional income to the company resulting from the use of the higher interest rate in any manner. These benefits to the policyholder must be reflected through higher dividends, lower premiums, or both. The loan value of the policy must be at least equal to the cash surrender value at the end of the then current policy or certificate year, provided that the insurer may deduct, either from the loan value or from the proceeds of the loan, any existing indebtedness not already deducted in determining the cash surrender value (including interest then accrued but not due), an unpaid balance of the premium for the current policy or certificate year, and interest on the loan to the end of the current policy or certificate year unless the policyowner by written notice to the insurer elects to defer payment of interest until it has accrued. The policy or certificate may also provide that if interest on indebtedness is not paid when due, it must be added to the existing indebtedness and must bear interest at the same rate, and that if and when the total indebtedness on the policy or certificate, including interest due or accrued, equals or exceeds the amount of its loan value, the policy or certificate terminates and is void. The policy or certificate must reserve to the insurer the right to defer the granting of a loan, other than for the payment of a premium to the insurer, for 6 months after application for the loan. The policy or certificate, at the insurer's option, may provide for an automatic premium loan, subject to an election of the party entitled to elect.

(2) This section does not apply to term policies or to term insurance benefits provided by rider or supplemental policy provisions or to industrial life insurance policies.

33-20-132. Variable policy loan interest rates — purpose. The purpose of 33-20-132 through 33-20-136 is to permit and set guidelines for life insurers to include in life insurance policies issued after October 1, 1985, a provision for periodic adjustment of policy loan interest rates.

History: En. Sec. 1, Ch. 191, L. 1985.

33-20-133. Variable interest rates — exclusions from application. The provisions of 33-20-132 through 33-20-136 do not apply to:

(1) term policies;

(2) term insurance benefits provided by rider or supplemental policy provisions; or

(3) industrial life insurance policies except as provided in 33-20-112.

History: En. Sec. 2, Ch. 191, L. 1985.

33-20-134. Variable interest rates — published monthly average defined. For purposes of 33-20-132 through 33-20-136, the "published monthly average" means:

(1) Moody's corporate bond yield average—monthly average corporates, as published by Moody's investors service, incorporated; or

(2) in the event that Moody's corporate bond yield average—monthly average corporates is no longer published, a substantially similar average, established by rule of the commissioner.

History: En. Sec. 3, Ch. 191, L. 1985.

Adoption and publication of rules, Title 2, ch. 4, part 3.

33-20-135. Variable interest rates on policy loans. (1) (a) Life insurance policies issued on or after October 1, 1985, may have a provision permitting policy loan interest rates as follows:

(i) a maximum interest rate of not more than 8% a year; or

(ii) an adjustable maximum interest rate established from time to time by the life insurer as permitted by 33-20-132 through 33-20-136.

(b) A life insurer is not permitted to issue policies containing variable rates of interest on policy loans under subsection (1)(a)(ii) unless the insurer also makes available policies, which may or may not be on the same plan of insurance, with fixed rates of interest on policy loans under subsection (1)(a)(i).

(2) The rate of interest charged on a policy loan made under subsection (1)(a)(ii) may not exceed the greater of:

(a) the published monthly average for the calendar month ending 2 months before the date on which the rate is determined; or

(b) the rate used to compute the cash surrender values under the policy during the applicable period plus 1% a year.

(3) If the maximum rate of interest is determined pursuant to subsection (1)(a)(ii), the policy must contain a provision setting forth the frequency at which the rate is to be determined for that policy.

(4) The maximum rate for each policy must be determined at regular intervals that must occur at least once every 12 months, but may not occur more frequently than once in any 3-month period. At the intervals specified in the policy, the rate being charged:

(a) may be increased whenever an increase as determined under subsection (2) would increase the rate by 0.5% or more a year;

(b) must be reduced whenever a reduction as determined under subsection (2) would decrease the rate by 0.5% or more a year.

(5) The life insurer shall:

(a) notify the policyholder of the initial rate of interest on the loan at the time a cash loan is made;

(b) notify the policyholder, with respect to premium loans, of the initial rate of interest on the loan as soon as practical after making the initial loan. Notice does not have to be given to the policyholder when a further premium loan is added, except as provided in subsection (5)(c).

(c) send reasonable advance notice of any increase in the rate to policyholders with loans; and

(d) include in the notices required by this subsection (5) the substance of subsection (1) and the frequency of rate determinations as provided in subsection (3).

(6) The policy may provide that if interest on any indebtedness is not paid when due, the interest will be added to the existing indebtedness and will bear interest at the same rate as the indebtedness.

(7) The loan value of the policy must be determined in accordance with the provisions of 33-20-131, but no policy may be terminated in a policy year solely as a result of a change in the interest rate during that policy year. The life insurer shall maintain coverage during that policy year until the time at which the policy would otherwise have terminated if there had been no interest rate change during that policy year.

(8) The substance of the pertinent provisions of subsections (1) and (3) must be set forth in the policies to which they apply.

(9) For purposes of this section, the following definitions apply:

(a) "Policy" includes certificates issued by a fraternal benefit society and annuity contracts that provide for policy loans.

(b) "Policy loan" includes any premium loan made under a policy used to pay one or more premiums that were not paid to the life insurer as they became due. The rate of interest on policy loans permitted under this section includes the interest rate charged on reinstatement of policy loans for the period during and after the lapse of a policy.

(c) "Policyholder" includes the owner of the policy or the person designated to pay premiums as shown on the records of the life insurer.

(10) No other provision of law applies to policy loan interest rates unless it is made specifically applicable to such rates.

History: En. Sec. 4, Ch. 191, L. 1985.

33-20-136. Variable interest rates — applicability to policies issued before October 1985. The provisions of 33-20-132 through 33-20-135 do not apply to any insurance contract issued before October 1, 1985, unless the policyholder agrees in writing to the applicability of such provisions.

History: En. Sec. 5, Ch. 191, L. 1985.

33-20-137 through 33-20-140 reserved.

33-20-141. Notice required for cancellation. No insurer may cancel a life insurance policy or annuity for nonpayment of premiums until the insurer has mailed or delivered to the named insured and policyowner, where they are not the same, at the last-known post office address shown in the records of the company one written notice of cancellation in addition to any billing statement, stating the date the cancellation will become effective, which may not be less than 30 days after the date of mailing or delivery of the notice. Said 30 days shall run concurrently with the grace period required by 33-20-104.

History: En. Sec. 1, Ch. 723, L. 1985.

33-20-142. Contents of notice — proof — limitation on recovery — exemptions. (1) (a) The notice of cancellation shall state:

(i) the amount of the premium, installment, or interest due on such policy;

(ii) the place where it must be paid; and

(iii) the name and address of the person or company to which the premium is payable.

(b) The notice must also state that unless the premium or other sums are paid to the company or its insurance producer, the policy will lapse or be forfeited, except as to any nonforfeiture options provided for by a life insurance policy.

(2) "Policyowner", as used in this section, means the owner of the policy or any other person designated as the person to receive premium notices, as shown by the records of the insurance company.

(3) The affidavit of any responsible officer, clerk, or insurance producer of the insurance company authorized to mail the notice that it is the standard practice of the company to mail to policyowners the notice required by this section is prima facie evidence that the notice has been duly given.

(4) No action may be maintained to recover under a lapsed or forfeited policy on the ground that the insurance company failed to comply with this section unless the action is instituted within 2 years from the due date upon which default was made in paying the premium, installment, or interest for which lapse or forfeiture is claimed.

(5) Section 33-20-141 does not apply to:

(a) group or group-type policies;

(b) industrial life or industrial disability policies; or

(c) policies upon which premiums are payable monthly or at more frequent intervals.

33-20-143 through 33-20-149 reserved.

33-20-150. Life insurance policy and sales illustrations — annuity disclosure — rules. (1) (a) The commissioner shall adopt rules providing for and regulating life insurance policy illustrations, annuity disclosure, and sales illustrations that are marketed, issued, or issued for delivery to Montana residents.

(b) The rules must specify any types of life insurance or annuities that are exempt from the provisions of the rules.

(2) The rules must be designed to:

(a) protect life insurance and annuity consumers;

(b) foster consumer education;

(c) improve consumers' ability to understand the basic features of life insurance policies and annuities; and

(d) improve consumers' ability to select the most appropriate plan of life insurance or annuity.

(3) Rules that are adopted by the commissioner may not go beyond the scope of, or contain material differences from, the national association of insurance commissioners' life insurance illustrations, annuity disclosure, and sales model regulations.

(4) After the effective date of rules that are adopted pursuant to this section, a group or individual life insurance policy, certificate, or annuity may not be marketed, issued, or issued for delivery to a Montana resident unless the policy, certificate, or annuity conforms to the rules that are adopted pursuant to this section.

Part 2
Standard Nonforfeiture Law
Life Insurance

Part Cross-References

Nonforfeiture rights — applicable to policies issued prior to operative date, 33-20-117.

33-20-201. Short title. This part shall be known as the "Standard Nonforfeiture Law for Life Insurance".

33-20-202. Nonforfeiture provisions. (1) In the case of policies issued on or after the operative date of this part as defined in 33-20-213, no policy of life insurance, except as set forth in 33-20-212, shall be delivered or issued for delivery in this state unless it shall contain in substance the following provisions or corresponding provisions which in the opinion of the commissioner are at least as favorable to the defaulting or surrendering policyholder as are the minimum requirements specified in this section and are essentially in compliance with 33-20-210:

(a) that in the event of default in any premium payment after premiums have been paid for at least 1 full year, the insurer will grant, upon proper request not later than 60 days after the due date of the premium in default, a paid-up nonforfeiture benefit on a plan stipulated in the policy, effective as of such due date, of such amount as may be specified in this part. In lieu of such stipulated paid-up nonforfeiture benefit, the company may substitute, upon proper request not later than 60 days after the due date of the premium in default, an actuarially equivalent alternative paid-up nonforfeiture benefit that provides a greater amount or longer period of death benefits or, if applicable, a greater amount or earlier payment of endowment benefits.

(b) that upon surrender of the policy within 60 days after the due date of any premium payment in default after premiums have been paid for at least 3 full years in the case of ordinary insurance and 5 full years in the case of industrial insurance, the insurer will pay, in lieu of any paid-up nonforfeiture benefit, a cash surrender value of such amount as may be specified in this part;

(c) that a specified paid-up nonforfeiture benefit shall become effective as specified in the policy unless the person entitled to make such election elects another available option not later than 60 days after the due date of the premium in default;

(d) that if the policy shall have become paid up by completion of all premium payments or if it is continued under any paid-up nonforfeiture benefit which became effective on or after the third policy anniversary in the case of ordinary insurance or the fifth policy anniversary in the case of industrial insurance, the insurer will pay, upon surrender of the policy within 30 days after any policy anniversary, a cash surrender value of such amount as may be specified in this part;

(e) for a policy that has on a basis guaranteed in the policy unscheduled changes in benefits or premiums or that provides an option for changes in benefits or premiums other than a change to a new policy, a statement of the mortality table, interest rate, and method used in calculating cash surrender values and the paid-up nonforfeiture benefits available under the policy. For each other policy a statement of the mortality table and interest rate used in calculating the cash surrender values and the paid-up nonforfeiture benefits available under the policy, together with a table showing the cash surrender value, if any, and paid-up nonforfeiture benefit, if any, available under the policy on each policy anniversary, either during the first 20 policy years or during the term of the policy, whichever is shorter, such values and benefits to be calculated upon the assumption that there are no dividends or paid-up additions credited to the policy and that there is no indebtedness to the insurer on the policy.

(f) a statement that the cash surrender values and the paid-up nonforfeiture benefits available under the policy are not less than the minimum values and benefits required by or pursuant to the insurance law of this state;

(g) an explanation of the manner in which the cash surrender values and the paid-up nonforfeiture benefits are altered by the existence of any paid-up additions credited to the policy or any indebtedness to the insurer on the policy;

(h) if a detailed statement of the method of computation of the values and benefits shown in the policy is not stated therein, a statement that such method of computation has been filed with the insurance supervisory official of the state in which the policy is delivered; and

(i) a statement of the method to be used in calculating the cash surrender value and paid-up nonforfeiture benefit available under the policy on any policy anniversary beyond the last anniversary for which such values and benefits are consecutively shown in the policy.

(2) Any of the provisions or portions thereof set forth in subsections (1)(a) through (1)(i) which are not applicable by reason of the plan of insurance may, to the extent inapplicable, be omitted from the policy. The insurer shall reserve the right to defer the payment of any cash surrender value for a period of 6 months after demand therefor with surrender of the policy.

33-20-203. Cash surrender value — paid-up nonforfeiture benefit — life. (1) Except as provided in subsection (2), any cash surrender value available under the policy in the event of default in the premium payment due on any policy anniversary, whether or not required by 33-20-202, shall be an amount not less than the excess, if any, of the present value on such anniversary of the future guaranteed benefits which would have been provided for by the policy, including any existing paid-up additions, if there had been no default, over the sum of:

(a) the then present value of the adjusted premiums as defined in 33-20-204 through 33-20-208 corresponding to premiums which would have fallen due on and after such anniversary; and

(b) the amount of any indebtedness to the insurer on account of or secured by the policy.

(2) For any policy issued on or after the operative date of 33-20-208 that provides supplemental life insurance or annuity benefits at the option of the insured and for an identifiable additional premium by rider or supplemental policy provision, the cash surrender value referred to in subsection (1) is an amount not less than the sum of the cash surrender value as defined in subsection (1) for an otherwise similar policy issued at the same age without such rider or supplemental policy provision and the cash surrender value as defined in subsection (1) for a policy that provides only the benefits otherwise provided by such rider or supplemental policy provision.

(3) Any cash surrender value available within 30 days after any policy anniversary under any policy paid up by completion of all premium payments or any policy continued under any paid-up nonforfeiture benefits, whether or not required by 33-20-202, shall be an amount not less than the present value, on such anniversary, of the future guaranteed benefits provided for by the policy, including any existing paid-up additions, decreased by any indebtedness to the insurer on account of or secured by the policy.

(4) Any paid-up nonforfeiture benefit available under the policy in the event of default in the premium payment due on any policy anniversary shall be such that its present value as of such anniversary shall be at least equal to the cash surrender value then provided for by the policy or, if none is provided for, that cash surrender value which would have been required by this part in the absence of the conditions that premiums shall have been paid for at least a specified period.

(5) For any family policy issued on or after the operative date of 33-20-208 that defines a primary insured and provides term insurance on the life of the spouse of the primary insured expiring before the spouse reaches 71 years of age, the cash surrender value referred to in subsection (1) is an amount not less than the sum of the cash surrender value as defined in subsection (1) for an otherwise similar policy issued at the same age without such term insurance on the life of the spouse and the cash surrender value as defined in subsection (1) for a policy that provides only the benefits otherwise provided by such term insurance on the life of the spouse.

33-20-204. Adjusted premium. (1) This section does not apply to policies issued on or after the operative date of 33-20-208.

(2) (a) Except as provided in subsection (3), the adjusted premiums for any policy shall be calculated on an annual basis and shall be such uniform percentage of the respective premiums specified in the policy for each policy year, excluding extra premiums on a substandard policy, that the present value, at the date of issue of the policy, of all such adjusted premiums shall be equal to the sum of:

(i) the then present value of the future guaranteed benefits provided for by the policy;

(ii) 2% of the amount of the insurance if the insurance be uniform in amount or of the equivalent uniform amount, as hereinafter defined, if the amount of insurance varies with the duration of the policy;

(iii) 40% of the adjusted premium for the first policy year;

(iv) 25% of either the adjusted premium for the first policy year or the adjusted premium for a whole life policy of the same uniform or equivalent uniform amount with uniform premiums for the whole of life issued at the same age for the same amount of insurance, whichever is less.

(b) In applying the percentages specified in subsections (iii) and (iv) above, no adjusted premiums shall be deemed to exceed 4% of the amount of insurance or uniform amount equivalent thereto.

(c) Whenever the plan or term of a policy has been changed, either by request of the insured or automatically in accordance with the provisions of the policy, the date of inception of the changed policy for the purposes of determining a nonforfeiture benefit or cash surrender value shall be the date as of which the age of the insured is determined for the purposes of the changed policy. The date of issue of a policy for the purposes of this subsection shall be the date as of which the rated age of the insured is determined.

(d) (i) In the case of a policy providing an amount of insurance varying with the duration of the policy, the equivalent uniform amount thereof for the purpose of the preceding subsections (a) and (b) shall be deemed to be the uniform amount of insurance provided by an otherwise similar policy, containing the same endowment benefit or benefits, if any, issued at the same age and for the same term, the amount of which does not vary with duration and the benefits under which have the same present value at the date of issue as the benefits under the policy.

(ii) In the case of a policy for a varying amount of insurance issued on the life of a child under age 10, the equivalent uniform amount may be computed as though the amount of insurance provided by the policy prior to the attainment of age 10 were the amount provided by such policy at age 10.

(3) (a) The adjusted premiums for any policy providing term insurance benefits by rider or supplemental policy provision shall be equal to (i) the adjusted premiums for an otherwise similar policy issued at the same age without such term insurance benefits, increased, during the period for which premiums for such term insurance benefits are payable, by (ii) the adjusted premiums for such term insurance.

(b) The foregoing items (a)(i) and (a)(ii) being calculated separately and as specified in subsection (2) except that, for the purposes of (ii), (iii), and (iv) of subsection (2), the amount of insurance or equivalent uniform amount of insurance used in the calculation of the adjusted premiums referred to in (a)(ii) of this subsection shall be equal to the excess of the corresponding amount determined for the entire policy over the amount used in the calculation of the adjusted premiums in (a)(i) of this subsection.

33-20-205. Calculation — mortality table — rates of interest. Except as otherwise provided in 33-20-206 and 33-20-207:

(1) All adjusted premiums and present values referred to in this part shall for all policies of ordinary insurance be calculated on the basis of the commissioner's 1941 standard ordinary mortality table.

(2) For any category of ordinary insurance issued on female risks, adjusted premiums and present values may be calculated, at the option of the insurer with approval of the commissioner, according to an age younger than the actual age of the insured, and such calculations for all policies of industrial insurance shall be made on the basis of the 1941 standard industrial mortality table.

(3) All calculations shall be made on the basis of the rate of interest, not exceeding 3 $^1{}_2$% per annum, specified in the policy for calculating cash surrender values and paid-up nonforfeiture benefits.

(4) In calculating the present value of any paid-up term insurance with accompanying pure endowment, if any, offered as a nonforfeiture benefit, the rates of mortality assumed may be not more than 130% of the rates of mortality according to such applicable table.

(5) For insurance issued on a substandard basis, the calculation of any such adjusted premiums and present values may be based on such other table of mortality as may be specified by the insurer and approved by the commissioner.

History: En. Sec. 325, Ch. 286, L. 1959; amd. Sec. 1, Ch. 65, L. 1961; amd. Sec. 1, Ch. 42, L. 1965; amd. Sec. 2, Ch. 341, L. 1973; R.C.M. 1947, 40-3831(8).

33-20-206. Mortality tables — policies issued after operative date. (1) This section does not apply to ordinary policies issued on or after the operative date of 33-20-208.

(2) In the case of ordinary policies issued on or after the operative date of this section as defined herein, all adjusted premiums and present values referred to in this part shall be calculated on the basis of the commissioner's 1958 standard ordinary mortality table and the rate of interest specified in the policy for calculating cash surrender values and paid-up nonforfeiture benefits, provided that:

(a) such rate of interest shall not exceed 3 $^1{}_2$% per annum, except that a rate of interest not exceeding 4% per annum may be used for policies issued on or after March 17, 1973, and prior to July 1, 1979, and a rate of interest not exceeding 5 $^1{}_2$% a year may be used for policies issued on or after July 1, 1979;

(b) for any category of ordinary insurance issued on female risks, adjusted premiums and present values may be calculated according to an age not more than 6 years younger than the actual age of the insured;

(c) in calculating the present value of any paid-up term insurance with accompanying pure endowment, if any, offered as a nonforfeiture benefit, the rates of mortality assumed may be not more than those shown in the commissioner's 1958 extended term insurance table;

(d) for insurance issued on a substandard basis, the calculation of any such adjusted premiums and present values may be based on such other table of mortality as may be specified by the company and approved by the commissioner.

(3) After July 1, 1961, any insurer may file with the commissioner a written notice of its election to comply with the provisions of this section after a specified date before January 1, 1966. After the filing of such notice, then upon such specified date (which shall be the operative date of this section for such insurer), this section shall become operative with respect to the ordinary policies thereafter issued by such insurer. If an insurer makes no such election, the operative date of this section for such insurer shall be January 1, 1966.

33-20-207. Industrial policies — mortality tables. (1) This section does not apply to industrial policies issued on or after the operative date of 33-20-208.

(2) In the case of industrial policies issued on or after the operative date of this section as defined herein, all adjusted premiums and present values referred to in this part shall be calculated on the basis of commissioner's 1961 standard industrial mortality table and the rate of interest specified in the policy for calculating cash surrender values and paid-up nonforfeiture benefits provided that:

(a) such rate of interest shall not exceed 3 ½% per annum except that a rate of interest not exceeding 4% per annum may be used for policies issued on or after March 17, 1973, and prior to July 1, 1979, and a rate of interest not exceeding 5 ½% a year may be used for policies issued on or after July 1, 1979;

(b) in calculating the present value of any paid-up term insurance with accompanying pure endowment, if any, offered as a nonforfeiture benefit, the rates of mortality assumed may be not more than those shown in the commissioner's 1961 industrial extended term insurance table;

(c) for insurance issued on a substandard basis the calculations of any such adjusted premiums and present values may be based on such other table of mortality as may be specified by the company and approved by the commissioner.

(3) After February 22, 1965, any insurer may file with the commissioner a written notice of its election to comply with the provisions of this section after a specified date before January 1, 1968. After the filing of such notice, then upon such specified date (which shall be the operative date of this section for such insurer), this section shall become operative with respect to the industrial policies thereafter issued by such insurer. If an insurer makes no such election, the operative date of this section for such insurer shall be January 1, 1968.

33-20-208. Mortality tables — interest rate adjusted premiums. (1) (a) This section applies to all policies issued on or after the operative date of this section. Except as provided in subsection (7), the adjusted premiums for any policy are calculated on an annual basis and must be such a uniform percentage of the respective premiums specified in the policy for each policy year, excluding amounts payable as extra premiums to cover impairments, special hazards, and any uniform annual contract charge or policy fee specified in the policy in a statement of the method to be used in calculating the cash surrender values and paid-up nonforfeiture benefits, that the present value, at the date of issue of the policy, of all adjusted premiums is equal to the sum of:

(i) the then present value of the future guaranteed benefits provided for by the policy;

(ii) 1% of either the amount of insurance, if the insurance is uniform in amount, or the average amount of insurance at the beginning of each of the first 10 policy years; and

(iii) 125% of the nonforfeiture net level premium as provided in subsection (2). No nonforfeiture net level premium is considered to exceed 4% of either the amount of insurance, if the insurance is uniform in amount, or the average amount of insurance at the beginning of each of the first 10 policy years.

(b) The date of issue of a policy for the purpose of this subsection is the date as of which the rated age of the insured is determined.

(2) The nonforfeiture net level premium is equal to the present value, at the date of issue of the policy, of the guaranteed benefits provided for by the policy divided by the present value, at the date of issue of the policy, of an annuity of one per annum payable on the date of issue of the policy and on each anniversary of such policy on which a premium falls due.

(3) For policies that have on a basis guaranteed in the policy unscheduled changes in benefits or premiums or that provide an option for changes in benefits or premiums other than a change to a new policy, the adjusted premiums and present values are initially calculated on the assumption that future benefits and premiums do not change from those stipulated at the date of issue of the policy. At the time of any such change in the benefits or premiums, the future adjusted premiums, nonforfeiture net level premiums, and present values must be recalculated on the assumption that future benefits and premiums do not change from those stipulated by the policy immediately after the change.

(4) Except as otherwise provided in subsection (7), the recalculated future adjusted premiums for any such policy shall be such uniform percentage of the respective future premiums specified in the policy for each policy year, excluding amounts payable as extra premiums to cover impairments, special hazards, and any uniform annual contract charge or policy fee specified in the policy in a statement of the method to be used in calculating the cash surrender values and paid-up nonforfeiture benefits, that the present value, at the time of change to the newly defined benefits or premiums, of all such future adjusted premiums shall be equal to the excess of:

(a) the sum of:

(i) the then present value of the then future guaranteed benefits provided for by the policy; and

(ii) the additional expense allowance, if any; over

(b) the then cash surrender value, if any, or present value of any paid-up nonforfeiture benefit under the policy.

(5) The additional expense allowance, at the time of the change to the newly defined benefits or premiums, is the sum of:

(a) 1% of the excess, if positive, of the average amount of insurance at the beginning of each of the first 10 policy years subsequent to the change, over the average amount of insurance prior to the change at the beginning of each of the first 10 policy years subsequent to the time of the most recent previous change or, if there has been no previous change, the date of issue of the policy; and

(b) 125% of the increase, if positive, in the nonforfeiture net level premium.

(6) The recalculated nonforfeiture net level premium is equal to the result obtained by dividing the product of subsection (a) by the product of subsection (b):

(a) (i) the nonforfeiture net level premium applicable prior to the change multiplied by the present value of an annuity of one per annum payable on each anniversary of the policy on or subsequent to the date of the change on which a premium would have fallen due had the change not occurred; and

(ii) the present value of the increase in future guaranteed benefits provided for by the policy;

(b) the present value of an annuity of one per annum payable on each anniversary of the policy on or subsequent to the date of change on which a premium falls due.

(7) Notwithstanding any other provisions of this section for a policy issued on a substandard basis that provides reduced graded amounts of insurance so that, in each policy year, such policy has the same tabular mortality cost as an otherwise similar policy issued on the standard basis that provides higher uniform amounts of insurance, adjusted premiums and present values for such substandard policy may be calculated as if it were issued to provide such higher uniform amounts of insurance on the standard basis.

(8) Except as provided below, all adjusted premiums and present values referred to in this part are for policies of ordinary insurance calculated on the basis of the commissioner's 1980 standard ordinary mortality table or, at the election of the insurer for any one or more specified plans of life insurance, the commissioner's 1980 standard ordinary mortality table with 10-year select mortality factors. All adjusted premiums and present values for policies of industrial insurance are calculated on the basis of the commissioner's 1961 standard industrial mortality

table. All adjusted premiums and present values for all policies issued in a particular calendar year are calculated on the basis of a rate of interest not exceeding the nonforfeiture interest rate as provided in this subsection for policies issued in that calendar year; with the following exceptions and conditions:

(a) At the option of the insurer, calculations for all policies issued in a particular calendar year may be made on the basis of a rate of interest not exceeding the nonforfeiture interest rate, as provided in this subsection for policies issued in the immediately preceding calendar year.

(b) Under any paid-up nonforfeiture benefit, including any paid-up dividend additions, any cash surrender value available, whether or not required by 33-20-202, is calculated on the basis of the mortality table and rate of interest used in determining the amount of such paid-up nonforfeiture benefit and paid-up dividend additions, if any.

(c) An insurer may calculate the amount of any guaranteed paid-up nonforfeiture benefit, including any paid-up additions under the policy, on the basis of an interest rate no lower than that specified in the policy for calculating cash surrender values.

(d) In calculating the present value of any paid-up term insurance with accompanying pure endowment, if any, offered as a nonforfeiture benefit, the rates of mortality assumed may be not more than those shown in the commissioner's 1980 extended term insurance table for policies of ordinary insurance and not more than the commissioner's 1961 industrial extended term insurance table for policies of industrial insurance.

(e) For insurance issued on a substandard basis, the calculation of any such adjusted premiums and present values may be based on appropriate modifications of the tables set forth in this subsection (8).

(f) Any ordinary mortality tables adopted after 1980 by the national association of insurance commissioners that are approved by the commissioner by rule for use in determining the minimum nonforfeiture standard may be substituted for the commissioner's 1980 standard ordinary mortality table with or without 10-year select mortality factors or for the commissioner's 1980 extended term insurance table.

(g) Any industrial mortality tables adopted after 1980 by the national association of insurance commissioners that are approved by the commissioner by rule for use in determining the minimum nonforfeiture standard may be substituted for the commissioner's 1961 standard industrial mortality table or the commissioner's 1961 industrial extended term insurance table.

(9) The nonforfeiture interest rate per annum for any policy issued in a particular calendar year must be equal to 125% of the calendar year statutory valuation interest rate for such policy as defined in the standard valuation law, Title 33, chapter 2, part 5, rounded to the nearer 1/4 of 1%.

(10) Notwithstanding any other provision in this code to the contrary, any refiling of nonforfeiture values or their methods of computation for any previously approved policy form that involves only a change in the interest rate or mortality table used to compute nonforfeiture values does not require refiling of any other provisions of that policy form.

(11) After October 1, 1983, any insurer may file with the commissioner a written notice of its election to comply with the provisions of this section after a specified date, before January 1, 1989, which is the operative date of this section for such insurer. If an insurer makes no such election, the operative date of this section for such insurer is January 1, 1989.

History: En. Sec. 6, Ch. 498, L. 1983.

33-20-209. Determination of nonforfeiture values for special plans. For a plan of life insurance that provides for future premium determination the amounts of which are to be determined by the insurer based on then estimates of future experience or for a plan of life insurance that is of such a nature that minimum values cannot be determined by the methods described in 33-20-204 through 33-20-208:

(1) the commissioner must be satisfied that the benefits provided under the plan are substantially as favorable to policyholders and insureds as the minimum benefits otherwise required by 33-20-204 through 33-20-208;

(2) the commissioner must be satisfied that the benefits and the pattern of premiums of that plan are not such as to mislead prospective policyholders or insureds; and

(3) the cash surrender values and paid-up nonforfeiture benefits provided by such plan may not be less than the minimum values and benefits required for the plan computed by a method consistent with the principles of this part, as determined by rules promulgated by the commissioner.

33-20-210. Additional rules for calculating cash surrender values. (1) This section, in addition to all other applicable sections of this chapter, applies to all policies issued on or after January 1, 1987. Any cash surrender value available under the policy upon default in a premium payment due on any policy anniversary is an amount that does not differ by more than 2/10 of 1% of either the amount of insurance, if the insurance is uniform in amount, or the average amount of insurance at the beginning of each of the first 10 policy years subtracted from the sum of:

(a) the greater of zero and the basic cash value specified in subsection (2); and

(b) the present value of any existing paid-up additions less the amount of any indebtedness to the insurer under the policy.

(2) The basic cash value is equal to the present value, on such anniversary, of the future guaranteed benefits that would have been provided for by the policy, excluding any existing paid-up additions and before deduction of any indebtedness to the insurer, if there had been no default less the then present value of the nonforfeiture factors, as provided in subsection (3), corresponding to premiums that would have fallen due on and after such anniversary date. However, the effects on the basic cash value of supplemental life insurance or annuity benefits or of family coverage, as described in 33-20-203 or 33-20-204, whichever is applicable, are the same as the effects specified in 33-20-203 or 33-20-204, whichever is applicable, on the cash surrender values defined in that section.

(3) The nonforfeiture factor for each policy year is an amount equal to a percentage of the adjusted premium for the policy year, as defined in 33-20-204 or 33-20-208, whichever is applicable. Except as is required by subsection (4), the percentage:

(a) must be the same percentage for each policy year between the second policy anniversary date and the later of the fifth policy anniversary date and the first policy anniversary date at which there is available under the policy a cash surrender value in an amount, before including any paid-up additions and before deducting any indebtedness, of at least 2/10 of 1% of either the amount of insurance, if the insurance is uniform in amount, or the average amount of insurance at the beginning of each of the first 10 policy years; and

(b) must be such that no percentage after the later of the two policy anniversary dates specified in subsection (3)(a) applies to less than 5 consecutive policy years.

(4) No basic cash value may be less than the value that would be obtained if the adjusted premiums for the policy, as provided in 33-20-204 or 33-20-208, whichever is applicable, were substituted for the nonforfeiture factors in the calculation of the basic cash value.

(5) Adjusted premiums and present values referred to in this section must, for a particular policy, be calculated on the same mortality and interest bases as are used in demonstrating the policy's compliance with the other sections of this part. The cash surrender values referred to in this section include any endowment benefits provided for by the policy.

(6) A cash surrender value available other than upon default in a premium payment due on a policy anniversary date and the amount of any paid-up nonforfeiture benefit available under the policy in the event of default in a premium payment are determined consistently with provisions specified for determining the analogous minimum amounts in 33-20-202 through 33-20-204, 33-20-208, and 33-20-211. The amounts of any cash surrender values and of any paid-up nonforfeiture benefits granted in connection with additional benefits such as those listed in 33-20-211(4) must conform with the principles of this section.

History: En. Sec. 9, Ch. 498, L. 1983.

33-20-211. Calculation of values — other requisites. (1) Any cash surrender value and any paid-up nonforfeiture benefit available under the policy in the event of default in a premium payment due at any time other than on the policy anniversary shall be calculated with allowance for the lapse of time and the payment of fractional premiums beyond the last preceding policy anniversary.

(2) All values referred to in 33-20-203 through 33-20-208 may be calculated upon the assumption that any death benefit is payable at the end of the policy year of death.

(3) The net value of any paid-up additions, other than paid-up term additions, shall be not less than the amounts used to provide such additions.

(4) Notwithstanding the provisions of subsections (1) and (3) of 33-20-203, additional benefits payable under the following circumstances shall be disregarded in ascertaining cash surrender values and nonforfeiture benefits required by this part, and no such additional benefits shall be required to be included in any paid-up nonforfeiture benefits:

(a) in the event of death or dismemberment by accident or accidental means;

(b) in the event of total and permanent disability;

(c) as reversionary annuity or deferred reversionary annuity benefits;

(d) as term insurance benefits provided by a rider or supplemental policy provision to which, if issued as a separate policy, this part would not apply;

(e) as term insurance on the life of a child or on the lives of children provided in a policy on the life of a parent of the child, if such term insurance expires before the child's age is 26, is uniform in amount after the child's age is 1, and has not become paid up by reason of the death of a parent of the child; and

(f) as other policy benefits additional to life insurance and endowment benefits and premiums for all such additional benefits.

33-20-212. Exceptions. (1) This part does not apply to:

(a) reinsurance;

(b) group insurance;

(c) a pure endowment;

(d) an annuity or reversionary annuity contract;

(e) a term policy of uniform amount that provides no guaranteed nonforfeiture or endowment benefits, or renewal thereof, of 20 years or less expiring before age 71 for which uniform premiums are payable during the entire term of the policy;

(f) a term policy of decreasing amount that provides no guaranteed nonforfeiture or endowment benefits, on which each adjusted premium, calculated as specified in 33-20-204 through 33-20-208, is less than the adjusted premiums so calculated on a term policy of uniform amount, or renewal thereof, which provides no guaranteed nonforfeiture or endowment benefits, issued at the same age and for the same initial amount of insurance and for a term of 20 years or less expiring before age 71, for which uniform premiums are payable during the entire term of the policy;

(g) a policy which provides no guaranteed nonforfeiture or endowment benefits for which the cash surrender value, if any, or present value of any paid-up nonforfeiture benefit at the beginning of any policy year, calculated as specified in 33-20-203 through 33-20-208, does not exceed 2.5% of the amount of insurance at the beginning of the same policy year;

(h) a policy that is delivered outside this state through an insurance producer or other representative of the insurer issuing the policy.

(2) For purposes of subsection (1), the age at expiry for a joint term life insurance policy is the age at expiry of the oldest life.

33-20-213. Operative date. After July 1, 1945, any insurer could have filed with the state auditor a written notice of its election to comply with the provisions of this part, except 33-20-206 and 33-20-207, after a specified date before January 1, 1948, with respect to the policies specified in the notice. After the filing of such notice, then upon such specified date (which shall be the operative date for such insurer with respect to such policies), this part, except 33-20-206 and 33-20-207, shall have become operative with respect to the policies specified in such notice thereafter issued by such insurer. As to all of its policies and contracts with respect to which an insurer makes no such election, the operative date of this part, except 33-20-206 and 33-20-207, with respect to such policies and contracts for such insurer is January 1, 1948.

Annuity Contract Provisions

33-20-301. Standard provisions — annuity and pure endowment contracts. (1) No annuity or pure endowment contract, other than reversionary annuities, survivorship annuities, or group annuities and except as stated herein, shall be delivered or issued for delivery in this state unless it contains in substance each of the provisions specified in 33-20-302 through 33-20-307. Any of such provisions not applicable to single premium annuities or single premium pure endowment contracts shall not, to that extent, be incorporated therein.

(2) This section shall not apply to contracts for deferred annuities included in or upon the lives of beneficiaries under life insurance policies.

History: En. Sec. 312, Ch. 286, L. 1959; R.C.M. 1947, 40-3818.

33-20-302. Grace period. In an annuity or pure endowment contract, other than a reversionary, survivorship, or group annuity, there shall be a provision that there shall be a period of grace of 1 month, but not less than 30 days, within which any stipulated payment to the insurer falling due after the first may be made, subject at the option of the insurer to an interest charge thereon at a rate to be specified in the contract but not exceeding 6% per annum for the number of days of grace elapsing before such payment, during which period of grace the contract shall continue in full force; but in case a claim arises under the contract on account of death prior to expiration of the period of grace before the overdue payment to the insurer or the deferred payments of the current contract year, if any, are made, the amount of such payments, with interest on any overdue payments, may be deducted from any amount payable under the contract in settlement.

33-20-305. Misstatement of age. In an annuity or pure endowment contract, other than a reversionary, survivorship, or group annuity, there shall be a provision that if the age of the person or persons upon whose life or lives the contract is made, or of any of them, has been misstated, the amount payable or benefits accruing under the contract shall be such as the stipulated payment or payments to the insurer would have purchased according to the correct age and that if the insurer shall make or has made any overpayment or overpayments on account of any such misstatement, the amount thereof, with interest at the rate to be specified in the contract but not exceeding 6% per annum, may be charged against the current or next succeeding payment or payments to be made by the insurer under the contract.

33-20-306. Dividends. If an annuity or pure endowment contract, other than a reversionary, survivorship, or group annuity, is participating, there shall be a provision that the insurer shall annually ascertain and apportion any divisible surplus accruing on the contract.

History: En. Sec. 317, Ch. 286, L. 1959; R.C.M. 1947, 40-3823.

33-20-307. Reinstatement. In an annuity or pure endowment contract, other than a reversionary, survivorship, or group annuity, there shall be a provision that the contract may be reinstated at any time within 1 year from the default in making stipulated payments to the insurer, unless the cash surrender value had been paid, but all overdue stipulated payments and any indebtedness to the insurer on the contract shall be paid or reinstated with interest thereon at a rate to be specified in the contract but not exceeding 6% per annum payable annually. In cases where applicable the insurer may also include a requirement of evidence of insurability satisfactory to the insurer.

33-20-308. Annuity information. The commissioner shall promulgate rules prescribing information that must be delivered to prospective annuitants at the time of sale. The rules must address the following:

(1) the manner of delivery of the information;
(2) when the information must be delivered;
(3) by whom the information is to be delivered; and
(4) the contents of the information, including:
(a) the type of annuity being sold; and
(b) the settlement options available under the annuity contract.

Part 4
Reversionary Annuity Contract Provisions

33-20-401. Standard provisions. (1) Except as stated herein, no contract for a reversionary annuity shall be delivered or issued for delivery in this state unless it contains in substance each of the following provisions:

(a) Any such reversionary annuity contract shall contain the provisions specified in 33-20-302 through 33-20-306, except that under 33-20-302 the insurer may at its option provide for an equitable reduction of the amount of the annuity payments in settlement of an overdue payment in lieu of providing for deduction of such payments from an amount payable upon settlement under the contract.

(b) In such reversionary annuity contracts there shall be a provision that the contract may be reinstated at any time within 3 years from the date of default in making stipulated payments to the insurer, upon production of evidence of insurability satisfactory to the insurer and upon condition that all overdue payments and any indebtedness to the insurer on account of the contract be paid or, within the limits permitted by the then cash values of the contract, reinstated, with interest as to both payments and indebtedness at a rate to be specified in the contract but not exceeding 6% per annum compounded annually.

(2) This section shall not apply to group annuities or to annuities included in life insurance policies, and any of such provisions not applicable to single premium annuities shall not to that extent be incorporated therein.

Standard Nonforfeiture Law
Individual Deferred Annuities

33-20-501. Short title. This part shall be known as the "Standard Nonforfeiture Law for Individual Deferred Annuities".

History: En. Sec. 8, Ch. 346, L. 1979.

33-20-502. Application. This part does not apply to any reinsurance, group annuity purchased under a retirement plan, or plan of deferred compensation established or maintained by an employer (including a partnership or sole proprietorship) or by an employee organization, or by both, other than a plan providing individual retirement accounts or individual retirement annuities under section 408 of the Internal Revenue Code, as now or hereafter amended, premium deposit fund, variable annuity, investment annuity, immediate annuity, any deferred annuity contract after annuity payments have commenced, or reversionary annuity or to any contract which is delivered outside this state through an insurance producer or other representative of the company issuing the contract.

History: En. Sec. 9, Ch. 346, L. 1979; amd. Sec. 1, Ch. 713, L. 1989.

33-20-503. Nonforfeiture provisions. In the case of contracts issued on or after the operative date of this part as defined in 33-20-513, no contract of annuity except as stated in 33-20-502 shall be delivered or issued for delivery in this state unless it contains in substance the following provisions or corresponding provisions which in the opinion of the commissioner are at least as favorable to the contract holder, upon cessation of payment of considerations under the contract:

(1) that upon cessation of payment of considerations under a contract the company will grant a paid-up annuity benefit on a plan stipulated in the contract of such value as is specified in 33-20-506 through 33-20-509 and 33-20-511;

(2) that if a contract provides for a lump-sum settlement at maturity or at any other time, than upon surrender of the contract at or prior to the commencement of any annuity payments, the company will pay in lieu of any paid-up annuity benefit a cash surrender benefit of such amount as is specified in 33-20-506, 33-20-507, 33-20-509, and 33-20-511. The company shall reserve the right to defer the payment of such cash surrender benefit for a period of 6 months after demand therefor with surrender of the contract.

(3) a statement of the mortality table, if any, and interest rates used in calculating any minimum paid-up annuity, cash surrender, or death benefits that are guaranteed under the contract, together with sufficient information to determine the amounts of such benefits;

(4) a statement that any paid-up annuity, cash surrender, or death benefits that may be available under the contract are not less than the minimum benefits required by any statute of the state in which the contract is delivered and an explanation of the manner in which such benefits are altered by the existence of any additional amounts credited by the company to the contract, any indebtedness to the company on the contract, or any prior withdrawals from or partial surrenders of the contract.

History: En. Sec. 10, Ch. 346, L. 1979.

33-20-504. Exception. Notwithstanding the requirements of 33-20-503, any deferred annuity contract may provide that if no consideration has been received under a contract for a period of 2 full years and the portion of the paid-up annuity benefit at maturity on the plan stipulated in the contract arising from consideration paid prior to such period would be less than $20 monthly, the company may at its option terminate such contract by payment in cash of the then present value of such portion of the paid-up annuity benefit, calculated on the basis of the mortality table, if any, and interest rate specified in the contract for determining the paid-up annuity benefit, and by such payment shall be relieved of any further obligation under such contract.

History: En. Sec. 11, Ch. 346, L. 1979.

33-20-505. Minimum nonforfeiture amounts. (1) The minimum values as specified in 33-20-506 through 33-20-509 and 33-20-511 of any paid-up annuity, cash surrender, or death benefits available under an annuity contract must be based upon minimum nonforfeiture amounts, as defined in this section.

(2) (a) The minimum nonforfeiture amount at any time at or prior to the commencement of any annuity payments must be equal to an accumulation up to that time at rates of interest as indicated in subsection (3)(a) of the net considerations, as described in subsection (2)(b), paid prior to that time, decreased by the sum of:

(i) any prior withdrawals from or partial surrenders of the contract accumulated at rates of interest as indicated in subsection (3)(a);

(ii) an annual contract charge of $50 accumulated at rates of interest as indicated in subsection (3)(a);

(iii) any premium tax paid by the company for the contract accumulated at rates of interest as indicated in subsection (3)(a); and

(iv) the amount of any indebtedness to the company on the contract, including interest due and accrued.

(b) The net consideration for a given contract year used to define the minimum nonforfeiture amount must be an amount equal to 87.5% of the corresponding gross considerations credited to the contract during that contract year.

(3) (a) (i) The interest rate used in determining minimum nonforfeiture amounts must be an annual rate of interest determined as the lesser of 3% a year or the amount calculated under subsection (3)(a)(ii), which must be specified in the contract if the interest rate will be reset.

(ii) The interest rate may be the 5-year constant maturity treasury rate reported by the federal reserve board as of a date or an average over a period, rounded to the nearest 1/20th of 1%, specified in the contract no longer than 15 months prior to the contract issue date or redetermination date under subsection (3)(a)(iii) and reduced by 125 basis points whenever the resulting interest rate is not less than 1%.

(iii) The interest rate under subsection (3)(a)(ii) must apply for an initial period and may be redetermined for additional periods. The redetermination date, basis, and period, if any, must be stated in the contract. The basis is the date or the average over a specified period that produces the value of the 5-year constant maturity treasury rate to be used at each redetermination date.

(b) During the period or term that a contract provides substantive participation in an equity indexed benefit, the contract may increase the reduction described in subsection (3)(a)(ii) by up to an additional 100 basis points to reflect the value of the equity index benefit. The present value at the contract issue date, and at each redetermination date, of the additional reduction may not exceed the market value of the benefit. The commissioner may require a demonstration that the present value of the additional reduction does not exceed the market value of the benefit. The commissioner may disallow or limit the additional reduction if the commissioner considers the demonstration unacceptable.

(4) The commissioner may adopt rules to implement the provisions of subsection (3)(b) and to provide for further adjustments to the calculation of minimum nonforfeiture amounts for contracts that provide substantive participation in an equity index benefit and for other contracts for which the commissioner determines that adjustments are justified.

Compiler's Comments

2005 Amendment: Chapter 66 in (2)(a) at beginning deleted "With respect to contracts providing for flexible considerations" and near middle after "time at" substituted "rates of interest as indicated in subsection (3)(a) of the net considerations, as described in subsection (2)(b)" for "a rate of interest of 3% a year of percentages of the net considerations (as hereinafter defined)"; in (2)(a)(i) at end substituted "rates of interest as indicated in subsection (3)(a)" for "a rate of interest of 3% a year"; inserted (2)(a)(ii) providing that an annual contract charge be figured into the total decrease; inserted (2)(a)(iii) providing that any premium tax paid by the company be figured into the total decrease; in (2)(a)(iv) at end after "accrued" deleted "and increased by existing additional amounts credited by the company to the contract"; in (2)(b) near beginning after second "amount" substituted "equal to 87.5% of" for "not less than zero and shall be equal to" and at end after "year" deleted remainder of (2)(b) that read: "less an annual contract charge of $30 and less a collection charge of $1.25 per consideration credited to the contract during that contract year. The percentages of net consideration shall be 65% of the net consideration for the first contract year and 87 1/2% of the net consideration for the second and later contract years. Notwithstanding the provisions of the preceding sentence, the percentage shall be 65% of the portion of the total net consideration for any renewal contract year which exceeds by not more than two times the sum of those portions of the net consideration in all prior contract years for which the percentage was 65%"; substituted (3) and (4) regarding calculation of the interest rate used in determining minimum nonforfeiture amounts for former (3) and (4) that read: "(3) With respect to contracts providing for fixed schedule consideration, minimum nonforfeiture amounts shall be calculated on the assumption that consideration is paid annually in advance and shall be defined as for contracts with flexible payments of consideration which are paid annually with two exceptions:

(a) The portion of the net consideration for the first contract year to be accumulated shall be the sum of 65% of the net consideration for the first contract year plus 22 1/2% of the excess of the net consideration for the first contract year over the lesser of the net considerations for the second and third contract years.

(b) The annual contract charge shall be the lesser of $30 or 10% of the gross annual consideration.

(4) With respect to contracts providing for a single consideration, minimum nonforfeiture amounts shall be defined as for contracts with flexible payments of consideration except that the percentage of net consideration used to determine the minimum nonforfeiture amount shall be equal to 90% and the net consideration shall be the gross consideration less a contract charge of $75"; and made minor changes in style. Amendment effective July 1, 2005.

Effective Date —Applicability: Section 3, Ch. 66, L. 2005, provided: "[This act] is effective July 1, 2005, and applies to an annuity contract that is entered into or renewed on or after July 1, 2005."

33-20-506. Present value to equal minimum nonforfeiture amount. Any paid-up annuity benefit available under a contract shall be such that its present value on the date annuity payments are to commence is at least equal to the minimum nonforfeiture amount on that date. Such present value shall be computed using the mortality table, if any, and the interest rate specified in the contract for determining the minimum paid-up annuity benefits guaranteed in the contract.

History: En. Sec. 13, Ch. 346, L. 1979.

33-20-507. Cash surrender benefits. For contracts which provide cash surrender benefits, such cash surrender benefits available prior to maturity shall not be less than the present value as of the date of surrender of that portion of the maturity value of the paid-up annuity benefit which would be provided under the contract at maturity arising from considerations paid prior to the time of cash surrender reduced by the amount appropriate to reflect any prior withdrawals from or partial surrenders of the contract, such present value being calculated on the basis of an interest rate not more than 1% higher than the interest rate specified in the contract for accumulating the net considerations to determine such maturity value, decreased by the amount of any indebtedness to the company on the contract, including interest due and accrued, and increased by any existing additional amounts credited by the company to the contract. No cash surrender benefit may be less than the minimum nonforfeiture amount at that time. The death benefit under such contracts shall be at least equal to the cash surrender benefit.

History: En. Sec. 14, Ch. 346, L. 1979.

33-20-508. Paid-up annuity benefits. For contracts which do not provide cash surrender benefits, the present value of any paid-up annuity benefit available as a nonforfeiture option at any time prior to maturity may not be less than the present value of that portion of the maturity value of the paid-up annuity benefit provided under the contract arising from considerations paid prior to the time the contract is surrendered in exchange for or changed to a deferred paid-up annuity, such present value being calculated for the period prior to the maturity date on the basis of the interest rate specified in the contract for accumulating the net considerations to determine such maturity value and increased by any existing additional amounts credited by the company to the contract. For contracts which do not provide any death benefits prior to the commencement of any annuity payments, such present values shall be calculated on the basis of such interest rate and the mortality table specified in the contract for determining the maturity value of the paid-up annuity benefit. However, the present value of a paid-up annuity benefit may not be less than the minimum nonforfeiture amount at that time.

History: En. Sec. 15, Ch. 346, L. 1979.

33-20-509. Maturity date. For the purpose of determining the benefits calculated under 33-20-507 and 33-20-508, in the case of annuity contracts under which an election may be made to have annuity payments commence at optional maturity dates, the maturity date is the latest date for which election is permitted by the contract but may not be later than the anniversary of the contract next following the annuitant's 70th birthday or the 10th anniversary of the contract, whichever is later.

History: En. Sec. 16, Ch. 346, L. 1979.

33-20-510. Statement of noninclusion of certain death benefits. Any contract which does not provide cash surrender benefits or does not provide death benefits at least equal to the minimum nonforfeiture amount prior to the commencement of any annuity payments shall include a statement in a prominent place in the contract that such benefits are not provided.

History: En. Sec. 17, Ch. 346, L. 1979.

33-20-511. Adjusted benefit. Any paid-up annuity, cash surrender, or death benefits available at any time other than on the contract anniversary under any contract with fixed scheduled consideration shall be calculated with allowance for the lapse of time and the payment of any scheduled consideration beyond the beginning of the contract year in which cessation of payment of consideration under the contract occurs.

History: En. Sec. 18, Ch. 346, L. 1979.

33-20-512. Calculation of benefits — special benefits excluded. For any contract which provides, within the same contract by rider or supplemental contract provision, both annuity benefits and life insurance benefits that are in excess of the greater of cash surrender benefits or a return of the gross consideration paid with interest, the minimum nonforfeiture benefits shall be equal to the sum of the minimum nonforfeiture benefits for the annuity portion and the minimum nonforfeiture benefits, if any, for the life insurance portion computed as if each portion were a separate contract. Notwithstanding the provisions of 33-20-506 through 33-20-509 and 33-20-511, additional benefits payable in the event of total and permanent disability or as reversionary annuity or deferred reversionary annuity benefits or as other policy benefits additional to life insurance, endowment, and annuity benefits, and considerations for all such additional benefits shall be disregarded in ascertaining the minimum nonforfeiture amounts, paid-up annuity, cash surrender, and death benefits that may be required by this section. The inclusion of such additional benefits shall not be required in any paid-up benefits, unless such additional benefits separately would require minimum nonforfeiture amount paid-up annuity, cash surrender, and death benefits.

History: En. Sec. 19, Ch. 346, L. 1979.

33-20-513. Operative date. After July 1, 1979, any company may file with the commissioner a written notice of its election to comply with the provisions of this section after a specified date before July 1, 1981. After the filing of such notice, then upon such specified date, which shall be the operative date of this section for such company, this section shall become operative with respect to annuity contracts thereafter issued by such company. If a company makes no such election, the operative date of this section for such company shall be July 1, 1981.

33-20-603. Separate accounts for life insurance or annuities. (1) Subject to the provisions of subsection (2), a life insurer may establish one or more separate accounts and may allocate to those accounts the amounts necessary to provide for life insurance or annuities and benefits incidental to the life insurance or annuities, payable in fixed or variable amounts, or both. The amounts allocated to the accounts may include without limitation proceeds applied under optional modes of settlement or under dividend options.

(2) Separate accounts for life insurance or annuities established under the provisions of subsection (1) are subject to the following:

(a) The income, gains, and losses, realized or unrealized, from assets allocated to a separate account must be credited to or charged against the account, without regard to other income, gains, or losses of the insurer.

(b) Except as provided for reserves for guaranteed benefits and funds in subsection (2)(c):

(i) amounts allocated to a separate account and accumulations on the separate account may be invested and reinvested in any class of investment authorized under chapter 12 if limitations under 33-12-208 or 33-12-308 on investments in stocks are not applicable;

(ii) the investments in the separate account or accounts may not be considered in applying the investment limitations otherwise applicable to the investments of the insurer.

(c) Except with the approval of the commissioner and under conditions relating to investments and other prescribed matters that recognize the guaranteed nature of the benefits provided, reserves for benefits guaranteed as to amount and duration and for funds guaranteed as to principal amount or stated rate of interest may not be maintained in a separate account.

(d) Unless otherwise approved by the commissioner, assets allocated to a separate account must be valued at their market value on the date of valuation or, if there is no readily available market, as provided under the terms of the contract or the rules or other written agreement applicable to that separate account; however, unless otherwise approved by the commissioner, the portion, if any, of the assets of that separate account equal to the insurer's reserve liability with regard to the guaranteed benefits and funds referred to in subsection (2)(c) must be valued in accordance with the laws and rules otherwise applicable to the insurer's assets.

(e) Amounts allocated to a separate account in the exercise of the power granted by this part must be owned by the insurer, and the insurer may not be or hold itself out to be a trustee with respect to those amounts. If and to the extent provided under applicable contracts, that portion of the assets of a separate account equal to the reserves and other contract liabilities with respect to the account are not chargeable with liabilities arising out of any other business the insurer may conduct.

(f) (i) A sale, exchange, or other transfer of assets may not be made by an insurer between any of its separate accounts or between any other investment account and one or more of its separate accounts unless:

(A) in case of a transfer into a separate account, the transfer is made solely to establish the account or to support the operation of the contracts with respect to the separate account to which the transfer is made; or

(B) the transfer, whether into or from a separate account, is made by a transfer of cash or by a transfer of securities having a readily determinable market value and the transfer of securities is approved by the commissioner.

(ii) The commissioner may approve other transfers among these accounts if, in the commissioner's opinion, transfers would not be inequitable.

(g) To the extent an insurer considers it necessary to comply with any applicable federal or state laws, the insurer, with respect to any separate account, including without limitation any separate account that is a management investment company or a unit investment trust account, may provide, for persons having an interest in the account, appropriate voting and other rights and special procedures for the conduct of the business of that account, including without limitation special rights and procedures relating to investment policy, investment advisory services, selection of independent public accountants, and selection of a committee, the members of which need not be otherwise affiliated with the insurer, to manage the business of that account.

33-20-604. Contract to contain statement of essential features. A contract providing benefits payable in variable amounts delivered or issued for delivery in this state must contain a statement of the essential features of the procedures to be followed by the insurer in determining the dollar amount of the variable benefits. A contract under which the benefits vary to reflect investment experience, including a group contract and a certificate evidencing the variable benefits issued thereunder, must state that the dollar amount will vary and must contain on its first page a statement to the effect that the benefits thereunder are on a variable basis.

History: En. Sec. 3, Ch. 112, L. 1989.

Cross-References

Insurance contracts — generally, Title 33, ch. 15.

33-20-605. Requirements for doing business. (1) No insurer may deliver or issue for delivery within this state a variable contract unless the insurer is authorized to transact life insurance or annuity business in this state and the commissioner is satisfied that its condition or method of operation in connection with the issuance of variable contracts will not render its operation hazardous to the public or its policyholders in this state. In making such a determination, the commissioner must consider, among other things:

(a) the history and financial condition of the insurer;

(b) the character, responsibility, and fitness of the officers and directors of the insurer; and

(c) the laws and regulations under which the insurer is authorized in the state of domicile to issue variable contracts. For this purpose, the state of entry of an alien insurer is its place of domicile.

(2) The commissioner may consider an insurer to have met the provisions of this section if:

(a) the insurer is a subsidiary of an authorized life insurer or is affiliated with an authorized life insurer through common management or ownership; and

(b) either it, the parent, or the affiliated insurer meets the requirements of this section.

History: En. Sec. 4, Ch. 112, L. 1989.

33-20-606. Variable contracts to meet insurance contract requirements. (1) Except for 33-15-321 through 33-15-329, 33-20-302, and 33-20-307 for variable annuity contracts and 33-20-104, 33-20-111, 33-20-112, and 33-20-201 through 33-20-213 for variable life insurance policies and as otherwise provided in this part, all pertinent provisions of Title 33 and other laws relating to insurance apply to separate accounts and their related policies and contracts.

(2) Any individual variable life insurance contract or any individual variable annuity contract delivered or issued for delivery in this state must contain grace and reinstatement provisions appropriate to the contract. Any individual variable life insurance contract must contain nonforfeiture provisions appropriate to such a contract.

(3) An insurer shall file with the commissioner a copy of a final prospectus, dated and effective, before it issues or delivers an individual variable life insurance contract or an individual variable annuity contract in this state.

(4) The reserve liability for any variable contract must be established in accordance with actuarial procedures that recognize the variable nature of benefits provided and mortality guarantees.

History: En. Sec. 6, Ch. 112, L. 1989.

Part 7
Charitable Gift Annuities

33-20-701. Definitions. In this part, the following definitions apply:

(1) "Charitable gift annuity" means a transfer of cash or other property by a donor to a charitable organization in return for an annuity payable over one or two lives, for the duration of that life or those lives, under which the actuarial value of the annuity is less than the value of the cash or other property transferred and the difference in value constitutes a charitable deduction for federal tax purposes.

(2) "Charitable organization" means an entity described by:

(a) section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, 26 U.S.C. 501(c)(3); or

(b) section 170(c) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, 26 U.S.C. 170(c).

(3) (a) "Qualified charitable gift annuity" means a charitable gift annuity, described by section 501(m)(5) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, 26 U.S.C. 501(m)(5), section 514(c)(5) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, 26 U.S.C. 514(c)(5), section 1011(b) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, 26 U.S.C. 1011(b), and the implementing regulations, that is issued by a charitable organization that, on the date of the annuity agreement:

(i) has a minimum of $300,000 net worth or has a minimum of $100,000 in unrestricted cash, cash equivalents, or publicly traded securities, exclusive of the assets funding the annuity agreement;

(ii) has been in continuous operation for at least 3 years or is a successor or affiliate of a charitable organization that has been in continuous operation for at least 3 years; and

(iii) maintains a separate annuity fund with at least one-half the value of the initial amount transferred for outstanding annuities.

(b) If the charitable organization cannot meet the requirements of subsections (3)(a)(i) through (3)(a)(iii), the issuance of a qualified charitable gift annuity by a charitable organization must be commercially insured by a licensed insurance company that is qualified to do business in Montana.

History: En. Sec. 1, Ch. 482, L. 2003.

33-20-702. Charitable gift annuity not insurance. (1) The issuance of a qualified charitable gift annuity does not constitute engaging in the business of insurance in this state.

(2) A charitable gift annuity issued before April 24, 2003, is a qualified charitable gift annuity for purposes of this part, and the issuance of that charitable gift annuity does not constitute engaging in the business of insurance in this state.

History: En. Sec. 2, Ch. 482, L. 2003.

33-20-703. Notice to donor. (1) When entering into an agreement for a qualified charitable gift annuity, the charitable organization shall disclose to the donor, in writing, in the annuity agreement, that a qualified charitable gift annuity is not insurance under the laws of this state and is not subject to regulation by the commissioner or protected by an insurance guaranty association.

(2) The notice provisions required by this section must be in a separate paragraph in print size that is not smaller than that employed in the annuity agreement generally.

History: En. Sec. 3, Ch. 482, L. 2003.

33-20-704. Notice to commissioner. (1) A charitable organization that issues or intends to issue qualified charitable gift annuities shall notify the commissioner in writing prior to the date of entering into the organization's first qualified charitable gift annuity agreement and shall notify the commissioner on March 1 of each year in which the charitable organization issues or intends to issue qualified charitable gift annuities. The notice must:

(a) be signed by an officer or director of the organization;

(b) identify the organization;

(c) certify that:

(i) the organization is a charitable organization; and

(ii) the annuities issued by the organization are qualified charitable gift annuities.

(2) The organization is not required to submit additional information except:

(a) within 30 days of receipt of a written request, to provide the commissioner with financial documents verifying information that was provided to the commissioner in the notice; or

(b) to enable the commissioner to determine appropriate penalties that may be applicable under 33-20-705.

History: En. Sec. 4, Ch. 482, L. 2003; amd. Sec. 24, Ch. 469, L. 2005.

Compiler's Comments

2005 Amendment: Chapter 469 in (1) near beginning after "issues" inserted "or intends to issue", after "writing" substituted "prior to the date of entering" for "within 90 days after April 24, 2003, or the date on which it enters", and near end after "issues" inserted "or intends to issue". Amendment effective October 1, 2005.

33-20-705. Failure to provide required notice. The failure of a charitable organization to comply with the notice requirements imposed under 33-20-703 and 33-20-704 does not prevent a charitable gift annuity that otherwise meets the requirements of this part from constituting a qualified charitable gift annuity. The commissioner may enforce performance of the requirements of 33-20-703 and 33-20-704 by sending a letter by certified mail, return receipt requested, demanding that the charitable organization comply with the requirements of 33-20-703 and 33-20-704. The commissioner may fine the charitable organization in an amount not to exceed $1,000 for each qualified charitable gift annuity agreement issued until the time that the charitable organization complies with 33-20-703 and 33-20-704.

History: En. Sec. 5, Ch. 482, L. 2003.

Parts 8 and 9 reserved

Part 10
General Requirements for Group Life

33-20-1001. Group contracts required to meet group requirements. (1) No life insurance policy shall be delivered in this state insuring the lives of more than one individual unless to one of the groups as provided for in 33-20-1101 through 33-20-1106 and unless in compliance with the other applicable provisions of parts 10 through 12 of this chapter.

(2) Subsection (1) above shall not apply to life insurance policies insuring only individuals:

(a) related by blood, marriage, or legal adoption;

(b) having a common interest through ownership of a business enterprise or a substantial legal interest or equity therein and who are actively engaged in the management thereof; or

(c) otherwise having an insurable interest in each other's lives.

History: En. Sec. 328, Ch. 286, L. 1959; R.C.M. 1947, 40-3901; amd. Sec. 151, Ch. 575, L. 1981.

33-20-1002. Employee life insurance defined. "Employee life insurance" is that plan of life insurance, other than salary savings life insurance or pension trust insurance and annuities, under which individual policies are issued to the employees of any employer and where such policies are issued on the lives of not less than five employees at date of issue. Premiums for such policies shall be paid by the employer or the trustee of a fund established by the employer either wholly from the employer's funds or funds contributed by him or partly from such funds and partly from funds contributed by the insured employees.

History: En. Sec. 349, Ch. 286, L. 1959; R.C.M. 1947, 40-3922.

33-20-1003. Violations. Violations of parts 10 through 12 of this chapter are subject to the penalties provided by 33-1-104.

History: En. Sec. 350, Ch. 286, L. 1959; R.C.M. 1947, 40-3923.

Part 11
Groups and Group Requirements

Part Cross-References

Group disability insurance — same group eligible, 33-22-501.

Physicians' liens — exemptions, 71-3-1118.

33-20-1101. Employee groups. (1) Subject to the requirements in subsections (2) through (5), the lives of a group of individuals may be insured under a policy issued to an employer or to the trustees of a fund established by an employer to insure employees of the employer for the benefit of persons other than the employer. The employer or trustees must be considered the policyholder.

(2) (a) The employees eligible for insurance under the policy must be all of the employees of the employer or all of any class or classes of the employer determined by conditions pertaining to their employment. The policy may provide that the term "employees" includes:

(i) the employees of one or more subsidiary corporations and the employees, individual proprietors, and partners of one or more affiliated corporations, proprietors, or partnerships if the business of the employer and of the employer's affiliated corporations, proprietors, or partnerships is under common control;

(ii) the individual proprietor or partners if the employer is an individual proprietor or a partnership; or

(iii) retired employees.

(b) A director of a corporate employer is not eligible for insurance under the policy unless the director is otherwise eligible as a bona fide employee of the corporation by performing services other than the usual duties of a director.

(c) An individual proprietor or partner is not eligible for insurance under the policy unless the individual proprietor or partner is actively engaged in and devotes a substantial part of working hours to the conduct of the business of the proprietor or partnership.

(3) The premium for the policy must be paid by the policyholder, either wholly from the employer's funds or funds contributed by the employer or partly from the employer's funds and from funds contributed by the insured employees. A policy may not be issued if the entire premium is to be derived from funds contributed by the insured employees. A policy on which part of the premium is to be derived from funds contributed by the insured employees may be placed in force only if at least 75% of the then eligible employees, excluding any as to whom evidence of individual insurability is not satisfactory to the insurer, elect to make the required contribution. A policy on which no part of the premium is to be derived from funds contributed by the insured employees must insure all eligible employees or all except any as to whom evidence of individual insurability is not satisfactory to the insurer.

(4) The policy must cover at least two employees at date of issue.

(5) The amount of insurance under the policy must be based upon a plan precluding individual selection either by the employees or by the employer or trustees.

Compiler's Comments

2005 Amendment: Chapter 469 in (1) at beginning of first sentence inserted "Subject to the requirements in subsections (2) through (5)", near middle after "employer" deleted "which employer or trustees shall be deemed the policyholder", and at end after "employer" deleted "subject to the following requirements" and inserted second sentence requiring that the employer or trustees be considered the policyholder; in (2)(c) near end after "part of" substituted "working hours" for "his time"; in (4) after "least" substituted "two" for "10"; and made minor changes in style. Amendment effective October 1, 2005.

33-20-1102. Labor union groups. The lives of a group of individuals may be insured under a policy issued to a labor union, which shall be deemed the policyholder, to insure members of such union for the benefit of persons other than the union or any of its officials, representatives, or agents, subject to the following requirements:

(1) The members eligible for insurance under the policy shall be all of the members of the union or all of any class or classes thereof determined by conditions pertaining to their employment or to membership in the union, or both.

(2) The premium for the policy shall be paid by the policyholder, either wholly from the union's funds or partly from such funds and partly from funds contributed by the insured members specifically for their insurance. No policy may be issued on which the entire premium is to be derived from funds contributed by the insured members specifically for their insurance. A policy on which part of the premium is to be derived from funds contributed by the insured members specifically for their insurance may be placed in force only if at least 75% of the then eligible members, excluding any as to whom evidence of individual insurability is not satisfactory to the insurer, elect to make the required contributions. A policy on which no part of the premium is to be derived from funds contributed by the insured members specifically for their insurance must insure all eligible members or all except any as to whom evidence of individual insurability is not satisfactory to the insurer.

(3) The policy must cover at least 25 members at date of issue.

(4) The amounts of insurance under the policy must be based upon some plan precluding individual selection either by the members or by the union.

History: En. Sec. 330, Ch. 286, L. 1959; R.C.M. 1947, 40-3903.

33-20-1103. Employer and labor union combinations — trustee groups. The lives of a group of individuals may be insured under a policy issued to the trustees of a fund established by two or more employers or by one or more labor unions or by one or more employers and one or more labor unions, which trustees shall be deemed the policyholder, to insure employees of the employers or members of the unions for the benefit of persons other than the employers or the unions, subject to the following requirements:

(1) The persons eligible for insurance shall be all of the employees of the employers or all of the members of the unions or all of any class or classes thereof determined by conditions pertaining to their employment or to membership in the unions, or to both. The policy may provide that the term "employees" shall include retired employees and the individual proprietor or partners if an employer is an individual proprietor or a partnership. No director of a corporate employer shall be eligible for insurance under the policy unless such person is otherwise eligible as a bona fide employee of the corporation by performing services other than usual duties of a director. No individual proprietor or partner shall be eligible for insurance under the policy unless he is actively engaged in and devotes a substantial part of his time to the conduct of the business of the proprietor or partnership. The policy may provide that the term "employees" shall include the trustees or their employees, or both, if their duties are principally connected with such trusteeship.

(2) The premium for the policy shall be paid by the trustees wholly from funds contributed by the employer or employers of the insured persons or by the union or unions, or by both, or partly from such funds and partly from funds contributed by the insured persons. No policy may be issued on which the entire premium is to be derived from funds contributed by the insured persons specifically for their insurance. A policy on which part of the premium is to be derived from funds contributed by the insured persons specifically for their insurance may be placed in force only if at least 75% of the then eligible persons, excluding any as to whom evidence of individual insurability is not satisfactory to the insurer, elect to make the required contributions. A policy on which no part of the premium is to be derived from funds contributed by the insured persons specifically for their insurance must insure all eligible persons or all except any as to whom evidence of individual insurability is not satisfactory to the insurer.

(3) The policy must cover at date of issue at least 100 persons and not less than an average of 5 persons per employer unit; and if the fund is established by the members of an association of employers the policy may be issued if:

(a) either:

(i) the participating employers constitute at date of issue at least 60% of those employer members whose employees are not already covered for group life insurance; or

(ii) the total number of persons covered at date of issue exceeds 600; and

(b) the policy shall not require that, if a participating employer discontinues membership in the association, the insurance of his employees shall cease solely by reason of such discontinuance.

(4) The amounts of insurance under the policy must be based upon some plan precluding individual selection either by the insured persons or by the policyholder, employers, or unions.

History: En. Sec. 331, Ch. 286, L. 1959; R.C.M. 1947, 40-3904.

33-20-1104. Public employee groups. The lives of a group of individuals may be insured under a policy issued to an incorporated city, town, or village or an association or league of cities, towns, or villages, an independent school district, state college or university, any association of state employees, and any association of state, county, and city, town, or village employees and any combination of state, county, or city, town, or village employees and any department of the state or county government, which employer or association shall be deemed the policyholder, to insure the employees of any such incorporated city, town, or village, of any such independent school district, of any such state college and university, or of any such department of the state or county government or members of any association of state, county, or city, town, or village employees, for the benefit of persons other than the policyholder, subject to the following requirements:

(1) The employees eligible for insurance under the policy shall be all of the employees of the employer or all of any class or classes thereof determined by conditions pertaining to their employment. The policy may provide that the term "employees" shall include retired employees. A policy issued to insure the employees of a public body may provide that the term "employees" shall include elected or appointed officials.

(2) The premium for the policy shall be paid by the policyholder wholly from funds contributed by it as employer or partly from such funds and partly from funds contributed by the insured employees or wholly from funds contributed by the insured employees, except that:

(a) the employer may deduct from the employees' salaries the required contributions for the premiums when authorized in writing by the respective employees so to do; and

(b) the premium for the policy may be paid by the policyholder wholly or partly from funds contributed by any incorporated city, town, or village policyholder when authorized by the charter of such city, town, or village or as otherwise authorized by law.

(3) Such policy may be placed in force only if at least 75% of the eligible employees, excluding any as to whom evidence of individual insurability is not satisfactory to the insurer, elect to make the required premium contributions and become insured thereunder.

(4) The policy must cover at least 10 employees at date of issue.

History: En. Sec. 332, Ch. 286, L. 1959; R.C.M. 1947, 40-3905.

33-20-1105. Debtor groups. The lives of a group of individuals may be insured under a policy issued to a creditor, who shall be deemed the policyholder, to insure the debtors of the creditor, subject to the following requirements:

(1) The debtors eligible for insurance under the policy shall be all of the debtors of the creditor or all of any class or classes thereof determined by conditions pertaining to the indebtedness or the purchase giving rise to the indebtedness. The policy may provide that the term "debtors" shall include the debtors of one or more subsidiary corporations and the debtors of one or more affiliated corporations, proprietors, or partnerships if the business of the policyholder and of such affiliated corporations, proprietors, or partnerships is under common control.

(2) The premium for the policy shall be paid by the policyholder, either from the creditor's funds or from charges collected from the insured debtors, or from both. A policy on which part or all of the premium is to be derived from the collection from the insured debtors of identifiable charges not required of uninsured debtors shall not include, in the class or classes of debtors eligible for insurance, debtors under obligations outstanding at its date of issue without evidence of individual insurability unless at least 75% of the then eligible debtors elect to pay the required charges. A policy on which no part of the premium is to be derived from the collection of such identifiable charges must insure all eligible debtors or all except any as to whom evidence of individual insurability is not satisfactory to the insurer.

(3) The policy may be issued only if the group of eligible debtors is then receiving new entrants at the rate of at least 100 persons yearly or may reasonably be expected to receive at least 100 new entrants during the first policy year and only if the policy reserves to the insurer the right to require evidence of individual insurability if less than 75% of the new entrants become insured. The policy may exclude from the classes eligible for insurance classes of debtors determined by age.

(4) The amount of insurance on the life of any debtor shall at no time exceed the amount owed by him to the creditor.

(5) The insurance shall be payable to the policyholder. Each payment shall reduce or extinguish the unpaid indebtedness of the debtor to the extent of such payment.

History: En. Sec. 333, Ch. 286, L. 1959; amd. Sec. 1, Ch. 132, L. 1965; R.C.M. 1947, 40-3906; amd. Sec. 1, Ch. 617, L. 1985.

33-20-1106. Credit union groups. The lives of a group of individuals may be insured under a policy issued to a credit union organized pursuant to the laws of the state of Montana or the Federal Credit Union Act, which shall be deemed the policyholder, to insure eligible members for amounts of insurance not in excess of the share balance of each member, based upon some plan which will preclude individual selection, for the benefit of someone other than the credit union or its officials and subject to the following requirements:

(1) The members eligible for insurance under the policy shall be all the members of the credit union who meet standard physical requirement conditions of the insurer or all of any class or classes thereof determined by conditions pertaining to their age or to membership in the credit union or both.

(2) The premiums for the policy shall be paid by the policyholder, either wholly from the credit union's funds or partly from such funds and partly from funds contributed by the insured members specifically for their insurance. No policy may be issued on which the entire premium is to be derived from funds contributed by the insured members specifically for their insurance. A policy on which part of the premium is to be derived from funds contributed by the insured members specifically for their insurance may be placed only if at least 75% of the then eligible members, excluding any as to whom evidence of individual insurability is not satisfactory to the insured, elect to make the required contribution. A policy on which no part of the premium is to be derived from funds contributed by the insured members specifically for their insurance must insure all eligible members or all except any as to whom evidence of individual insurability is not satisfactory to the insurer.

(3) The policy must cover at least 25 members at the date of issue.

33-20-1111. Dependents of employee and labor union groups — coverage. Any group life policy issued under 33-20-1101, 33-20-1102, or 33-20-1103 may be extended to insure the employees or members against loss due to the death of their spouses and minor children, or any class or classes thereof, subject to the following requirements:

(1) The premium for the insurance shall be paid by the policyholder, either from the employer's or union's funds or funds contributed by the employer or union or from funds contributed by the insured employees or members, or from both. If any part of the premium is to be derived from funds contributed by the insured employees or members, the insurance with respect to spouses and children may be placed in force only if at least 75% of the then eligible employees or members, excluding any as to whose family members evidence of insurability is not satisfactory to the insurer, elect to make the required contribution. If no part of the premium is to be derived from funds contributed by the employees or members, all eligible employees or members, excluding any as to whose family members evidence of insurability is not satisfactory to the insurer, must be insured with respect to their spouses and children.

(2) The amounts of insurance must be based upon some plan precluding individual selection either by the employees or members or by the policyholder, employer, or union.

(3) Upon termination of the insurance with respect to the members of the family of any employee or member by reason of the employee's or member's termination of employment, termination of membership in the class or classes eligible for coverage under the policy, or death, the spouse is entitled to have issued by the insurer, without evidence of insurability, an individual policy of life insurance, without disability or other supplementary benefits, providing application for the individual policy shall be made, and the first premium paid to the insurer, within 31 days after such termination, subject to the requirements of subsections (1)(a), (1)(b), and (1)(c) of 33-20-1209. If the group policy terminates or is amended so as to terminate the insurance of any class of employees or members and the employee or member is entitled to have issued an individual policy under 33-20-1210, the spouse is also entitled to have issued by the insurer an individual policy, subject to the conditions and limitations provided above. If the spouse dies within the period during which he would have been entitled to have an individual policy issued in accordance with this provision, the amount of life insurance which he would have been entitled to have issued under such individual policy shall be payable as a claim under the group policy, whether or not application for the individual policy or the payment of the first premium therefor has been made.

(4) Notwithstanding 33-20-1208, only one certificate need be issued for delivery to an insured person if a statement concerning any dependent's coverage is included in such certificate.

33-20-1201. Provisions required in group contracts. A policy of group life insurance or a certificate may not be delivered in this state unless it contains in substance the provisions set forth in this part or provisions that in the opinion of the commissioner are more favorable to the persons insured or at least as favorable to the persons insured and more favorable to the policyholder. A provision may be omitted from a certificate if the commissioner has determined that the provision is not appropriate in a certificate. However:

(1) 33-20-1207 through 33-20-1211 do not apply to policies issued to a creditor to insure debtors of the creditor;

(2) the standard provisions required for individual life insurance policies do not apply to group life insurance policies; and

(3) if the group life insurance policy is on a plan of insurance other than the term plan, it must contain a nonforfeiture provision or provisions that in the opinion of the commissioner is or are equitable to the insured persons and to the policyholder. However, this subsection may not be construed to require that group life insurance policies contain the same nonforfeiture provisions as are required for individual life insurance policies.

History: En. Sec. 341, Ch. 286, L. 1959; R.C.M. 1947, 40-3914; amd. Sec. 31, Ch. 380, L. 2003.

33-20-1206. Misstatement of age. The group life insurance policy and certificate must contain a provision specifying an equitable adjustment of premiums or of benefits or of both to be made in the event the age of a person insured has been misstated. The provision must contain a clear statement of the method of adjustment to be used.

History: En. Sec. 342, Ch. 286, L. 1959; R.C.M. 1947, 40-3915; amd. Sec. 32, Ch. 380, L. 2003.

33-20-1207. Payment of benefits. (1) The group life insurance policy and certificate must contain a provision that any benefits becoming due by reason of the death of the person insured are payable to the beneficiary designated by the person insured, subject to the provisions of the policy. In the event there is not a designated beneficiary with regard to all or some of the benefits, then those benefits must be considered a part of the intestate estate, pursuant to 72-2-111. In addition, the insurer may pay a benefit amount not exceeding $500 to any person appearing to the insurer to be equitably entitled to that amount by reason of having incurred funeral or other expenses incident to the last illness or death of the person insured.

(2) The provisions of 33-20-114(2) must be incorporated into the group life insurance policy and certificate and are applicable as set out in that subsection.

History: En. Sec. 343, Ch. 286, L. 1959; R.C.M. 1947, 40-3916; amd. Sec. 3, Ch. 469, L. 1985; amd. Sec. 33, Ch. 380, L. 2003.

33-20-1208. Certificate. The group life insurance policy shall contain a provision that the insurer will issue to the policyholder for delivery to each person insured an individual certificate setting forth a statement as to the insurance protection to which he is entitled, to whom the insurance benefits are payable, and the rights and conditions set forth in 33-20-1209 through 33-20-1211.

History: En. Sec. 344, Ch. 286, L. 1959; R.C.M. 1947, 40-3917.

33-20-1209. Conversion on termination of eligibility. (1) The group life insurance policy or certificate must contain a provision that if the insurance or any portion of it on a person covered under the policy ceases because of termination of employment or of membership in the class or classes eligible for coverage under the policy, the person is entitled to have issued to the person by the insurer, without evidence of insurability, an individual policy of life insurance if the application for the individual policy is made and the first premium is paid to the insurer within 31 days after termination and provided that:

(a) the individual policy must, at the option of the person, be on any one of the forms, including but not limited to term insurance, if the group policy provides for term insurance, then customarily issued by the insurer at the age and for the amount applied for, and must offer benefits at least equal to those under the group coverage;

(b) the individual policy must, at the option of the insured, be in an amount not in excess of the amount of life insurance that ceases because of the termination, less the amount of any life insurance for which the person is insured under any other group policy within 31 days after the termination, provided that any amount of insurance that has matured on or before the date of the termination as an endowment payable to the person insured, whether in one sum or in installments or in the form of an annuity, may not, for the purposes of this provision, be included in the amount that is considered to cease because of the termination; and

(c) the premium on the individual policy is the insurer's then customary rate applicable to the form and amount of the individual policy, to the class of risk that the person belongs, and to the person's age attained on the effective date of the individual policy.

(2) A group insurer may meet the requirements of this section by contracting with another insurer to issue conversion policies as described in subsection (1). The conversion carrier must be authorized to act as an insurer in this state and shall submit the conversion policies to the commissioner.

(3) With the consent of the employer, a person covered under a group life insurance policy issued to an employer or to the trustees of a fund established by an employer under 33-20-1101 may continue the person's coverage under the group policy during the person's employment even if there has been a reduction of the person's regular work schedule to less than the minimum number of hours required for eligibility for membership. The premium charged for the continued coverage must be equal to that charged other members of the group. The person's coverage under the group will cease if the person subsequently becomes eligible for coverage under another group policy because of employment elsewhere.

33-20-1210. Conversion on termination of policy or certificate. (1) The group life insurance policy or certificate must contain a provision that if the group policy or certificate terminates or is amended to terminate the insurance of any class of insured persons, every person insured under the group policy or certificate at the date of the termination whose insurance terminates and who has been insured for at least 3 years prior to the termination date is entitled to have issued to the person by the insurer an individual policy of life insurance, subject to the same conditions and limitations that are provided by 33-20-1209, except that the group policy or certificate may provide that the amount of the individual policy may not exceed the smaller of:

(a) the amount of the person's life insurance protection ceasing because of the termination or amendment of the group policy or certificate, less the amount of any life insurance for which the person is or becomes eligible under any group policy issued or reinstated by the same or another insurer within 31 days after the termination; or

(b) $10,000.

(2) A group insurer may meet the requirements of this section by contracting with another insurer to issue conversion policies as described in subsection (1). The conversion carrier must be authorized to act as an insurer in this state and shall submit the conversion policies to the commissioner.

33-20-1212. Notice as to conversion right. If an individual insured under a group life insurance policy or certificate delivered in this state becomes entitled under the terms of the policy or certificate to have an individual policy of life insurance issued to the individual without evidence of insurability, subject to making an application and payment of the first premium within the period specified in the policy and if an individual is not given notice of the existence of the right at least 15 days prior to the expiration date of the period, then the individual must have an additional period to exercise the right, but this section may not be construed to continue any insurance beyond the period provided in the policy. The additional period expires 15 days after the individual is given the notice, but an additional period may not extend beyond 60 days after the expiration date of the period provided in the policy. Written notice presented to the individual or mailed by the policyholder to the last-known address of the individual or mailed by the insurer to the last-known address of the individual as furnished by the policyholder constitutes notice for the purpose of this section.

Viatical Settlements

33-20-1301. Short title. This part may be cited as the "Viatical Settlement Act".

History: En. Sec. 1, Ch. 298, L. 1997.

33-20-1302. Definitions. As used in this part, unless the context requires otherwise, the following definitions apply:

(1) "Financing entity" means an underwriter, placement agent, lender, or any entity, other than a nonaccredited investor, that has a direct ownership in a policy or certificate that is the subject of a viatical settlement contract, whose sole activity related to the transaction is the provision of funds to effect the viatical settlement contract, and who has an agreement in writing with one or more licensed viatical settlement providers.

(2) "Related provider trust" means a trust established by a licensed viatical settlement provider or a financing entity for the sole purpose of holding the ownership or beneficial interest in purchased policies in connection with a financing transaction. The trust must have a written agreement with the viatical settlement provider under which the licensed viatical settlement provider is responsible for ensuring compliance with all statutory and regulatory requirements and under which the trust agrees to make all records and files related to viatical settlement transactions available to the commissioner.

(3) "Special purpose entity" means a corporation, partnership, trust, limited liability company, or other similar entity formed solely to provide, either directly or indirectly, access to institutional capital markets for a financing entity or licensed viatical settlement provider.

(4) (a) "Viatical settlement broker" means an individual who, for a fee, commission, or other consideration:

(i) offers or advertises the availability of viatical settlement contracts;

(ii) introduces holders of life insurance policies or certificates insuring the lives of individuals with a terminal illness or condition to viatical settlement providers; or

(iii) offers or attempts to negotiate viatical settlement contracts between the policyholders or certificate holders and one or more viatical settlement providers.

(b) Viatical settlement broker does not mean an attorney, accountant, or financial planner retained to represent the policyholder or certificate holder unless compensation paid to the attorney, accountant, or consultant is paid by the viatical settlement provider.

(5) (a) "Viatical settlement contract" means a written agreement establishing the terms under which compensation or anything of value will be paid, when the compensation or value is less than the expected death benefit of the insurance policy or certificate, in return for the viator's assignment, transfer, sale, devise, or bequest of the death benefit or ownership of any portion of the insurance policy or certificate of insurance.

(b) The term includes:

(i) a contract for a loan or other financing transaction with a viator secured primarily by an individual or group life insurance policy, other than a loan by a life insurance company pursuant to the terms of the life insurance contract, or a loan secured by the cash value of a policy; or

(ii) an agreement with a viator to transfer ownership or change the beneficiary designation at a later date regardless of the date that compensation is paid to the viator.

(c) The term does not mean a written agreement entered into between a viator and a person having an insurable interest in the viator's life.

(6) (a) "Viatical settlement provider" means a person who solicits, enters into, or negotiates viatical settlement contracts or offers to enter into or negotiate viatical settlement contracts.

(b) Viatical settlement provider does not mean:

(i) a bank, savings bank, savings and loan association, credit union, or other licensed lending institution that takes an assignment of a life insurance policy only as collateral for a loan;

(ii) an insurer issuing a life insurance policy providing accelerated benefits pursuant to 33-20-127 or pursuant to the laws of the state to which the policy was subject when issued;

(iii) an individual who enters into a single agreement in a calendar year for the transfer of life insurance policies for any value less than the expected death benefit; or

(iv) any corporation, partnership, or partner that purchases a life insurance contract of an employee or retiree of the corporation or of a partner. The settlement made on any contract exempt under this section must be reasonable and subject to the standards imposed on licensees under 33-20-1304.

(7) (a) "Viatical settlement purchase agreement" means a contract or agreement entered into by a viatical settlement purchaser with a viatical settlement provider to purchase a life insurance policy or an interest in a life insurance policy for the purpose of deriving an economic benefit.

(b) A viatical settlement purchase agreement does not include a viatical settlement contract.

(8) (a) "Viatical settlement purchaser" means a person who, for the purpose of deriving an economic benefit:

(i) gives consideration for a life insurance policy or an interest in the death benefits of a life insurance policy; or

(ii) owns, acquires, or is entitled to a beneficial interest in a trust that owns a viatical settlement contract or that is the beneficiary of a life insurance policy that has been or will be the subject of a viatical settlement contract.

(b) A viatical settlement purchaser does not include a licensed viatical settlement provider, a licensed viatical settlement broker, a qualified institutional buyer as defined in 17 CFR 230.144A, a financing entity, a special purpose entity, or a related provider trust.

(9) (a) "Viator" means the owner of a life insurance policy or the certificate holder under a group policy who enters or seeks to enter into a viatical settlement contract.

(b) The term does not include a licensed viatical settlement provider, a licensed viatical settlement broker, a qualified institutional buyer as defined in 17 CFR 230.144A, a financing entity, a special purpose entity, or a related provider trust.

History: En. Sec. 2, Ch. 298, L. 1997; amd. Sec. 2, Ch. 295, L. 2001; amd. Sec. 7, Ch. 493, L. 2003.

33-20-1303. License requirements. (1) A person may not act as or purport to be a viatical settlement provider unless licensed as a viatical settlement provider under this part.

(2) (a) Except as provided in subsection (2)(b) and (2)(c), a person may not broker, solicit, or negotiate viatical settlement contracts between a viator and one or more viatical settlement providers or otherwise act on behalf of a viator without first having obtained a license as a viatical settlement broker from the commissioner. An applicant for a viatical settlement broker's license shall:

(i) attend required viatical settlement broker training and pass a viatical settlement broker examination designated by the commissioner by rule; and

(ii) pay a fee for an original viatical settlement broker's license pursuant to 33-2-708. The fees for license renewal and lapsed license reinstatement for a viatical settlement broker's license are as provided in 33-2-708.

(b) A resident or nonresident insurance producer must be considered to meet the licensing requirements of a viatical settlement broker and must be permitted to operate as a viatical settlement broker if the insurance producer is licensed as an insurance producer with a life insurance line of authority in this state or in the insurance producer's home state and has been licensed for at least 1 year. In addition:

(i) not later than 30 days from the first day of operating as a viatical settlement broker, the insurance producer shall notify the commissioner, on a form or in a manner prescribed by the commissioner, that the insurance producer is acting as a viatical settlement broker and shall pay a fee pursuant to 33-2-708(1)(b)(viii). The notification must include an acknowledgment by the insurance producer that the insurance producer will operate as a viatical settlement broker in accordance with this part.

(ii) regardless of the manner in which the insurance producer is compensated, the insurance producer must be considered to represent only the viator and owes a fiduciary duty to the viator to act according to the viator's instructions and in the best interests of the viator.

(c) If requested by the commissioner, a life insurance producer acting as a viatical settlement broker under this subsection (2) who has previously complied with subsection (2)(b)(i) shall report to the commissioner when renewing a resident or nonresident life insurance producer's license regarding the life insurance producer's intent to continue to act as a viatical settlement broker. The statement regarding an intent to continue acting as a viatical settlement broker must be made on the life insurance producer's license renewal form. A person who makes a statement pursuant to this subsection (2)(c) may not be charged an additional fee.

(d) The provisions of subsections (2)(a) and (2)(b) do not prohibit a person licensed as an attorney, certified public accountant, or certified financial planner who is accredited by a nationally recognized accreditation agency, who is retained to represent the viator, and whose compensation is not paid directly or indirectly by the viatical settlement provider from negotiating viatical settlement contracts without having to obtain a license as a viatical settlement broker.

(3) Regardless of the manner in which a viatical settlement broker or insurance producer is compensated, the viatical settlement broker or insurance producer must be considered to represent only the viator and the viatical settlement broker or insurance producer owes a fiduciary duty to the viator to act according to the viator's instructions and in the best interests of the viator.

(4) (a) In order to obtain a license to transact business as a viatical settlement provider or as a viatical settlement broker, if required to obtain a viatical settlement broker's license under the provisions of subsection (2)(a), an applicant shall apply for the license in a form approved by the commissioner and shall pay the fee required for the application.

(b) The commissioner may request biographical, organizational, locational, financial, employment, and other information on the application form that the commissioner determines to be relevant to the evaluation of applications and to the granting of the license. The commissioner may require a statement of the business plan or plan of operation of the applicant. The commissioner shall require an applicant for a viatical settlement provider license to file with the application for the commissioner's approval a copy of the viatical settlement contract that the applicant intends to use in business under the license.

(c) If an applicant is a corporation, the corporation must be:

(i) incorporated or organized under the laws of this state; or

(ii) a foreign corporation authorized to transact business in this state.

(d) If the applicant is a partnership, the partnership must be organized under the laws of this state.

(5) (a) An individual licensed as a viatical settlement broker must meet the continuing education requirements in 33-17-1203.

(b) The hours of continuing education required under subsection (4)(a) must be in the subjects of life insurance, viaticals, or ethics.

(c) For an individual licensed as a viatical settlement broker, the 24-month period for meeting the continuing education requirements must correlate with the broker's license renewal period.

(d) The viatical settlement broker's license of an individual who fails to comply with this continuing education requirement and who has not been granted an extension of time to comply in accordance with 33-17-1203(3) must be terminated and promptly surrendered to the commissioner.

History: En. Sec. 3, Ch. 298, L. 1997; amd. Sec. 2, Ch. 552, L. 2005.

Compiler's Comments

2005 Amendment: Chapter 552 in (1) in two places after "provider" deleted "or viatical settlement broker"; inserted (2) requiring viatical settlement broker license; inserted (3) imposing fiduciary duty on brokers and producers to act in best interests of viator; in (4)(a) after "broker" inserted reference to requirements of subsection (2)(a) and after "license" substituted "in a form approved" for "on forms prescribed"; inserted (5) relating to continuing education requirements for viatical settlement brokers; and made minor changes in style. Amendment effective October 1, 2005.

33-20-1304. Issuance of license. (1) The commissioner may issue a license to the applicant if the commissioner determines that the applicant:

(a) has satisfied all of the requirements for the license for which an application is made;

(b) has not engaged in conduct that would authorize the commissioner to refuse to issue a license under this part; and

(c) is financially responsible and has a good business reputation.

(2) The commissioner may issue a license to a nonresident applicant only if the nonresident applicant files with the commissioner in writing an appointment of the commissioner to be the agent of the applicant upon whom all legal process in any action or proceeding against the applicant may be served. In the appointment, the applicant shall agree that any lawful process against the applicant that is served upon the commissioner is of the same legal force and validity as if served upon the applicant and that the authority will continue in force as long as any liability remains outstanding in this state. An appointment under this subsection becomes effective on the date that the commissioner issues the license to the applicant.

(3) If the commissioner denies an application, the commissioner shall inform the applicant and state the grounds for the denial.

(4) An individual may act as a viatical settlement provider or viatical settlement broker under the authority of the license of a firm or of a corporate viatical settlement provider whether or not the individual holds a license as a viatical settlement provider if:

(a) the individual is a member or employee of the firm or is an employee, officer, or director of the corporation; and

(b) the individual is designated by the firm or corporation on its license application or on a form that amends or supplements the application as being authorized to act as a viatical settlement provider under the authority of the license.

History: En. Sec. 4, Ch. 298, L. 1997.

33-20-1305. Expiration of license. (1) A license issued under this part expires on its expiration date unless it is renewed on or before its expiration date.

(2) Unless the commissioner designates another date, a license expires on the last day of the month in which the second anniversary of the initial issuance date of the license occurs and on the last day of the month of the second anniversary following each renewal.

History: En. Sec. 5, Ch. 298, L. 1997.

33-20-1306. Notification by licensee of material change affecting qualification for license. A licensee shall immediately notify the commissioner of any material change in ownership or control or in any other matter affecting the qualification of the licensee for the license in this state, including keeping the commissioner informed about personnel and address changes.

History: En. Sec. 6, Ch. 298, L. 1997.

33-20-1307. Suspension — revocation — refusal to issue or renew license. (1) The commissioner may suspend, revoke, refuse to issue, or refuse to renew a license if the commissioner determines that the licensee or applicant for a license is untrustworthy or incompetent to act as a licensee or is guilty of one or more of the following:

(a) dishonesty, fraud, or gross negligence in the conduct of business as a licensee;

(b) a pattern of unreasonable payments to policyholders or certificate holders;

(c) falsification of an application for the license or renewal of the license or misrepresentation or engagement in any other dishonest act in relation to the application;

(d) conduct resulting in a conviction of a felony under the laws of any state or of the United States;

(e) conviction of any crime, an essential element of which is dishonesty or fraud, under the laws of any state or of the United States;

(f) refusal to renew or cancellation, revocation, or suspension of authority to transact insurance or business as a viatical settlement provider, viatical settlement broker, or similar entity in another state;

(g) failure to pay a civil penalty imposed by final order of the commissioner or to carry out terms of probation set by the commissioner;

(h) refusal by a licensee to be examined or to produce accounts, records, or files for examination, refusal by any officers or employees to give information with respect to the affairs of the licensee, or refusal to perform any other legal obligation as to the examination, when required by the commissioner;

(i) affiliation with or under the same general management or interlocking directorate or ownership as another viatical settlement provider, viatical settlement broker, or insurer, any of which unlawfully transacts business in this state;

(j) failure at any time to meet any qualification for which issuance of the license could have been refused had the failure then existed and been known to the commissioner; or

(k) violation of any rule or order of the commissioner or any provision of Montana law.

(2) The commissioner may suspend or refuse to renew a license immediately and without hearing if the commissioner determines that one or both of the following circumstances exist:

(a) the licensee is insolvent;

(b) the financial condition or business practices of the licensee otherwise pose an imminent threat to the public health, safety, or welfare of the residents of this state.

(3) The commissioner may refuse to issue a license in the name of any firm, partnership, or corporation if the commissioner believes that any officer, employee, stockholder, or partner who may materially influence the conduct of the applicant does not meet the standards of this section.

(4) A viatical settlement provider or viatical settlement broker holding a license that has not been renewed or that has been revoked shall surrender the license to the commissioner at the commissioner's request.

(5) The commissioner may take any other administrative action authorized under Montana law in addition to or in lieu of the actions authorized under this part.

History: En. Sec. 7, Ch. 298, L. 1997.

33-20-1308. Terms of contract. (1) A viatical settlement contract must be in writing. A viatical settlement provider shall establish in the contract the terms under which the viatical settlement provider will pay compensation or anything of value in return for the policyholder's or certificate holder's assignment, transfer, sale, devise, or bequest of the death benefit or ownership of the insurance policy or certificate to the viatical settlement provider.

(2) A viatical settlement provider may not use a viatical settlement contract in this state unless the viatical settlement provider has filed the contract form with the commissioner and the commissioner has approved the contract form according to the provisions set forth in 33-1-501. The commissioner shall disapprove a viatical settlement contract form if, in the commissioner's judgment, the contract or any provision of the contract is unreasonable, contrary to the interests of the public, or otherwise misleading or unfair to the policyholder or certificate holder.

(3) Each viatical settlement contract entered into in this state must contain a provision enabling the policyholder or certificate holder to rescind the contract not later than the 30th day after the date on which the contract is executed by all parties or not later than the 15th day after the policyholder or certificate holder receives the viatical settlement proceeds, whichever is the longer period. In order to rescind a contract, a policyholder or certificate holder who has received the proceeds shall return them to the viatical settlement provider.

History: En. Sec. 8, Ch. 298, L. 1997.

33-20-1309. Annual report by provider. Unless the commissioner grants a time extension, a viatical settlement provider shall file a report for the preceding calendar year with the commissioner on or before March 1 of each year. The report must be in the form and must contain the information that the commissioner prescribes. The report must be verified as follows:

(1) if the viatical settlement provider is a corporation, by at least two principal officers of the viatical settlement provider;

(2) if the viatical settlement provider is a partnership, by two partners; or

(3) if the viatical settlement provider is not a corporation or a partnership, by the provider's owner and manager.

History: En. Sec. 9, Ch. 298, L. 1997.

33-20-1310. Examination of business and practices of licensee or applicant — maintenance of business records. (1) The commissioner may examine the business and practices of any licensee or applicant for a license when the commissioner determines an examination to be necessary. The commissioner may order a licensee or applicant to produce any records, books, files, or other information reasonably necessary to ascertain whether the licensee or applicant is acting or has acted in violation of the law or contrary to the interests of the public. The licensee or applicant shall pay the expenses incurred in conducting an examination.

(2) A viatical settlement provider shall maintain records of all transactions of viatical settlement contracts of the viatical settlement provider and shall make the records available to the commissioner for inspection during reasonable business hours. The records must be maintained for a period of not less than 5 years from the date of their creation.

(3) The commissioner may at any time require a licensee to fully disclose the identity of all stockholders, partners, officers, and employees.

(4) The names of and individual identification data for all policyholders and certificate holders who have entered viatical settlement contracts with viatical settlement providers are confidential and may not be disclosed except in cases in which the commissioner determines that the merits of public disclosure exceed the demands of individual privacy.

History: En. Sec. 10, Ch. 298, L. 1997; amd. Sec. 10, Ch. 416, L. 1999.

33-20-1311. Disclosure of information to policyholder. A viatical settlement provider shall disclose the information specified in this section to the policyholder or certificate holder entering the viatical settlement contract prior to the date on which the viatical settlement contract is signed by all parties. The disclosure must be in the form approved by the commissioner. The information must include the following:

(1) possible alternatives to viatical settlement contracts for persons with terminal illnesses or conditions, including but not limited to accelerated benefits offered by the issuer of the life insurance policy;

(2) the fact that some or all of the proceeds of the viatical settlement may be taxable and that assistance should be sought from a personal tax adviser. Viatical settlement brokers, viatical settlement providers, or their respective employees or agents may not act as personal tax advisers for purposes of this disclosure requirement.

(3) the fact that the viatical settlement could be subject to the claims of creditors;

(4) the fact that receipt of a viatical settlement may adversely affect the recipient's eligibility for medicaid or other government benefits or entitlement and that advice should be obtained from the appropriate agencies;

(5) the right of a policyholder or certificate holder to rescind a viatical settlement contract as provided in 33-20-1308. The disclosure must state the deadlines for rescission and the return of proceeds received.

(6) the date by which the funds will be available to the policyholder or certificate holder and the source of the funds; and

(7) the fact that the viatical settlement contract is void if the viatical settlement provider or viatical settlement broker fails to tender payment of the proceeds as provided in the viatical settlement contract.

History: En. Sec. 11, Ch. 298, L. 1997; amd. Sec. 3, Ch. 295, L. 2001.

33-20-1312. Conditions precedent to entering into viatical settlement contract. (1) Before a viatical settlement provider enters into a viatical settlement contract with a policyholder or certificate holder who has a terminal illness or condition, the viatical settlement provider shall first obtain the following:

(a) a written statement from an attending physician that the policyholder or certificate holder is of sound mind and not under constraint or undue influence; and

(b) a witnessed document in which the policyholder or certificate holder:

(i) consents to the viatical settlement contract;

(ii) acknowledges that the illness or condition is terminal;

(iii) represents that the policyholder or certificate holder has a full and complete understanding of the viatical settlement contract;

(iv) confirms that the policyholder or certificate holder has a full and complete understanding of the benefits of the life insurance policy;

(v) releases the medical records of the policyholder or certificate holder relating to the terminal illness or condition; and

(vi) acknowledges that the policyholder or certificate holder has entered into the viatical settlement contract freely and voluntarily.

(2) A viatical settlement provider may enter a viatical settlement contract only after the individual whose life would be the subject of the viatical settlement contract is determined to have a terminal illness or condition, as follows:

(a) if the individual is the policyholder or certificate holder, an attending physician of the policyholder or certificate holder shall make the determination; or

(b) if the individual is a person other than the policyholder or certificate holder, an attending physician of the individual or of the policyholder or certificate holder shall make the determination.

(3) For purposes of this section, "attending physician" means a medical doctor, a doctor of osteopathy, or a naturopathic physician licensed in this state, who is primarily responsible for the treatment or a portion of treatment of the individual whose life would be the subject of the viatical settlement contract.

History: En. Sec. 12, Ch. 298, L. 1997.

33-20-1313. Requirements for entering into viatical settlement contract — prohibitions on finder's fee — solicitations — discrimination — false or misleading advertising or solicitation — misuse of confidential information. (1) A person may not enter into a viatical settlement contract within a 2-year period from the date of issuance of an insurance policy or certificate unless the person certifies to the viatical settlement provider that one or more of the following conditions have been met within the 2-year period:

(a) (i) the policy or certificate was issued upon the person's exercise of conversion rights arising out of a group or individual policy or certificate and the total of the time covered under the conversion policy or certificate plus the time covered by the policy or certificate prior to the conversion equal at least 24 months; and

(ii) the time covered under a group policy or certificate was calculated without regard to any change in insurance carriers if the coverage was continuous and under the same group sponsorship; or

(b) the person submits independent evidence to the viatical settlement provider that one or more of the following conditions have been met within the 2-year period:

(i) the person is terminally ill or chronically ill; or

(ii) the person has disposed of the person's ownership interest in a closely held corporation pursuant to the terms of a buyout agreement or similar agreement that was in effect at the time that the insurance policy or certificate was issued.

(2) Copies of the certification and independent evidence required under subsection (1) must be submitted by the viatical settlement provider to the insurer when the viatical settlement provider submits a request to the insurer for verification of coverage. The copies must be accompanied by a letter of attestation from the viatical settlement provider that the copies are true and correct copies of the documents received by the viatical settlement provider.

(3) A licensee may not pay or offer to pay a finder's fee, commission, or other compensation to a person described in this subsection (3) in connection with a policy insuring the life of an individual with a terminal illness or condition. The prohibition under this subsection (3) applies with respect to payments or offers of payment to:

(a) the physician, attorney, or accountant of the policyholder, the certificate holder, or the insured individual;

(b) any person other than a physician, attorney, or accountant described in subsection (3)(a) who provides medical, legal, or financial planning services to the policyholder, to the certificate holder, or to the insured individual when the individual is other than the policyholder or certificate holder; or

(c) any person other than one described in subsection (3)(a) or (3)(b) who acts as an agent of the policyholder, certificate holder, or insured individual.

(4) A licensee may not solicit an investor who could influence the treatment of the illness or condition of the individual whose life would be the subject of a viatical settlement contract.

(5) All information solicited or obtained from a policyholder or certificate holder by a licensee is subject to the confidentiality requirements set forth in Title 33, chapter 19. For purposes of this subsection, a licensee must be considered an insurance-support organization as defined in 33-19-104.

(6) A licensee may not discriminate in the making of a viatical settlement contract on the basis of race, age, sex, national origin, creed, religion, occupation, marital or family status, or sexual orientation and may not discriminate between persons who have dependents and persons who do not have dependents.

(7) A person licensed pursuant to 33-20-1304 may not engage in any false or misleading advertising, solicitation, or practice as described in 33-18-203.

(8) A person licensed pursuant to 33-20-1304 may not sell another product of insurance to the contract holder unless approval is obtained from the commissioner.

History: En. Sec. 13, Ch. 298, L. 1997; amd. Sec. 3, Ch. 552, L. 2005.

Compiler's Comments

2005 Amendment: Chapter 552 inserted (1) establishing conditions for entering into viatical settlement contracts; inserted (2) relating to requirements for copies of certification and independent evidence; and made minor changes in style. Amendment effective October 1, 2005.

33-20-1314. Payment to escrow or trust account — lump-sum payment. (1) Immediately upon receipt of documents from the policyholder or certificate holder effecting the transfer of the insurance policy or certificate, the viatical settlement provider shall pay the proceeds of the settlement to an escrow or trust account managed by a trustee or escrow agent in a bank approved by the commissioner, pending acknowledgment of the transfer by the issuer of the life insurance policy. The trustee or escrow agent shall transfer the proceeds due to the policyholder or certificate holder immediately upon receipt of acknowledgment of the transfer from the insurer.

(2) A viatical settlement provider shall make payment of the proceeds of a viatical settlement contract in a lump sum except as provided in this subsection. A viatical settlement provider may not retain any portion of the proceeds. A viatical settlement provider may make installment payments only if the viatical settlement provider has purchased an annuity issued by an authorized insurer or a similar financial instrument issued by a financial institution authorized to engage in the business of a financial institution in this state.

(3) Failure by the viatical settlement provider to tender the viatical settlement by the date disclosed to the policyholder or certificate holder renders the contract void.

History: En. Sec. 14, Ch. 298, L. 1997.

33-20-1315. Rules — standards — bond. The commissioner may, in accordance with the provisions of 33-1-313, adopt rules for the purpose of carrying out this part. In addition, the commissioner:

(1) may establish standards for evaluating reasonableness of payments under viatical settlement contracts for insured persons who are terminally ill or chronically ill. The authority includes but is not limited to regulation of discount rates used to determine the amount paid in exchange for assignment, transfer, sale, devise, or bequest of a benefit under a life insurance policy. For the purpose of the standards, the commissioner shall consider payments made in regional and national viatical settlement markets to the extent that this information is available, as well as model standards developed by the national association of insurance commissioners. When the insured is not terminally ill or chronically ill, the commissioner may not establish standards for evaluating the reasonableness of payments, except that a viatical settlement provider shall pay an amount greater than the greater of the cash surrender value or the accelerated death benefit then available.

(2) shall require a bond or other mechanism for financial accountability of viatical settlement providers and viatical settlement brokers; and

(3) shall adopt rules to establish:

(a) trade practice standards for the purpose of regulating advertising and solicitation of viatical settlement contracts;

(b) fees that are commensurate with fees charged pursuant to 33-2-708; and

(c) the continuing education program provided for in 33-20-1303(4).

Compiler's Comments

2005 Amendment: Chapter 552 in (1) inserted last sentence relating to viatical settlement providers' payments to insured who is not terminally or chronically ill; inserted (3)(c) relating to continuing education program; deleted former (4) that read: "(4) shall require viatical settlement providers or viatical settlement brokers to pay an amount greater than the cash surrender value or accelerated death benefit if the insured is not terminally ill or chronically ill"; and made minor changes in style. Amendment effective October 1, 2005.

33-20-1316. Service of process. (1) For viatical settlement providers, the provisions of Title 33, chapter 1, part 6, apply.

(2) For viatical settlement brokers, the provisions of 33-17-405 apply.

History: En. Sec. 6, Ch. 227, L. 2001.

33-20-1317. Disclosure of information to viatical settlement purchasers. (1) A viatical settlement provider shall disclose the information specified in this section to a viatical settlement purchaser prior to the date on which the parties sign the viatical settlement purchase agreement.

(2) The viatical settlement purchaser shall date and sign the information disclosure. The viatical settlement provider shall provide a copy of the information disclosure to the viatical settlement purchaser.

(3) The information disclosure must include the following:

(a) that the viatical settlement purchaser will not receive payment until the insured dies;

(b) that the actual annual rate of return on a viatical settlement purchase agreement is dependent upon an accurate projection of the insured's life expectancy and the actual date of the insured's death and that an annual guaranteed rate of return is not determinable;

(c) that the viatical insurance contract is not a liquid purchase since it is impossible to predict the exact timing of its maturity, that the funds are probably not available until the death of the insured, and that there is not an established secondary market for the resale of viatical settlement products by the viatical settlement purchaser;

(d) that the viatical settlement purchaser may lose all benefits or may receive substantially reduced benefits if the insurer goes out of business during the term of the viatical settlement investment;

(e) (i) that the viatical settlement purchaser is responsible for payment of the insurance premium or other costs related to the policy, if required by the terms of the viatical purchase agreement, and that these payments may reduce the viatical settlement purchaser's return and may continue beyond the insured's projected life expectancy; and

(ii) if a party other than the viatical settlement purchaser is responsible for the payment, that the name of that party must also be disclosed;

(f) the amount of the premium that a purchaser is required to pay, if applicable;

(g) that the viatical settlement purchaser may be responsible for payment of the insurance premium or other costs related to the policy if the insured returns to health;

(h) the amount of any fees or other expenses to be charged to the viatical settlement purchaser;

(i) whether or not the viatical settlement purchaser is entitled to a refund of all or part of the investment under the viatical settlement purchase agreement if the policy is later determined to be void;

(j) that group policies:

(i) may contain limitations on conversion rights;

(ii) may require additional premiums to be paid if the group policy is converted; and

(iii) may be terminated and replaced by another group policy, with benefits under the new policy that may be substantially less than those in the original coverage;

(k) for group policies, the name of the party responsible for the payment of any additional premiums;

(l) that there are risks associated with policy contestability, including the risk that the viatical settlement purchaser may not have a claim or may have only a partial claim to death benefits if the insurer rescinds the policy within the contestability period;

(m) whether or not the viatical settlement purchaser will be the beneficiary or owner of the policy and, if the viatical settlement purchaser is the beneficiary, the special risks associated with beneficiary status, including the risk that the beneficiary may be changed;

(n) a description of:

(i) the experience and qualifications of the person who has determined the life expectancy of the insured, such as in-house staff, independent physicians, or specialty firms that weigh medical and actuarial data;

(ii) the information on which the projection of life expectancy is based; and

(iii) the relationship of the person who has made the determination of life expectancy to the viatical settlement provider, if any;

(o) all of the life expectancies obtained in the process of determining the price paid to the policyholder or certificate holder;

(p) a description and amount of any loan or other encumbrance against or in connection with the policy; and

(q) that the viatical settlement purchaser is encouraged to consult with an attorney, accountant, or financial planner who is not affiliated with the viatical settlement broker or viatical settlement provider prior to purchase.

Part 14
Structured Settlement Protection

Part Compiler's Comments

Effective Date: This part is effective October 1, 2005.

Applicability: Section 13, Ch. 351, L. 2005, provided: "[This act] applies to any transfer of structured settlement payment rights under a transfer agreement executed on or after October 1, 2005."

33-20-1401. Short title. This part may be cited as the "Structured Settlement Protection Act".

History: En. Sec. 1, Ch. 351, L. 2005.

33-20-1402. Definitions. As used in this part, unless the context requires otherwise, the following definitions apply:

(1) "Annuity issuer" means an insurer that has issued a contract to fund periodic payments under a structured settlement.

(2) "Consideration" has the meaning provided in 28-2-801.

(3) "Dependent" means a payee's spouse, a minor child of the payee, or any person for whom the payee is legally obligated to provide support, including spousal maintenance.

(4) "Discounted present value" means the present value of future payments determined by discounting the future payments to the present using the most recently published applicable federal rate for determining the present value of an annuity, as issued by the United States internal revenue service.

(5) "Gross advance amount" means the sum payable to the payee or to the payee's account as consideration for a transfer of a structured settlement payment right before any reduction for a transfer expense or any other deduction is made from the sum.

(6) "Independent professional advice" means advice of an attorney, a certified public accountant, an actuary, or any licensed professional adviser.

(7) "Interested party" means, with respect to a structured settlement, the payee, any beneficiary irrevocably designated under the annuity contract to receive a payment after the payee's death, the annuity issuer, the structured settlement obligor, or any other party that has a continuing right or obligation under the structured settlement.

(8) "Net advance amount" means the gross advance amount minus the aggregate amount of the actual and estimated transfer expenses required to be disclosed under 33-20-1403(5).

(9) "Payee" means an individual who is receiving tax-free payments under a structured settlement and proposes to make a transfer of the payment rights.

(10) "Periodic payment" includes both a recurring payment and any scheduled future lump-sum payments.

(11) "Qualified assignment agreement" means an agreement providing for a qualified assignment, as defined for federal tax purposes, of the liability to make periodic payments under a structured settlement.

(12) "Responsible administrative authority" means, with respect to a structured settlement, any government authority vested by law with exclusive jurisdiction over the settled claim resolved by the structured settlement.

(13) "Settled claim" means the original tort claim.

(14) "Structured settlement" means an arrangement for periodic payment of damages for personal injuries or sickness established by settlement or judgment in resolution of a tort claim.

(15) "Structured settlement agreement" means the written agreement, judgment, stipulation, or release embodying the terms of a structured settlement.

(16) "Structured settlement obligor" means, with respect to a structured settlement, the party that has the continuing obligation to make periodic payments to the payee under a structured settlement agreement or a qualified assignment agreement.

(17) "Structured settlement payment right" means the right to receive periodic payments under a structured settlement, whether from the structured settlement obligor or the annuity issuer, when:

(a) (i) the payee is domiciled in this state; or

(ii) the domicile or principal place of business of the structured settlement obligor or the annuity issuer is located in this state;

(b) a court or responsible administrative authority in this state approved the structured settlement agreement; or

(c) the structured settlement agreement is expressly governed by the laws of this state.

(18) "Terms of the structured settlement" means, with respect to a structured settlement, the terms of the structured settlement agreement, the annuity contract, a qualified assignment agreement, or any order or other approval of a court or responsible administrative authority or other government authority that authorized or approved the structured settlement.

(19) (a) "Transfer" means a sale, assignment, pledge, hypothecation, or other alienation or encumbrance of a structured settlement payment right made by a payee for consideration.

(b) The term does not include the creation or perfection of a security interest in a structured settlement payment right under a blanket security agreement entered into with an insured depository institution in the absence of any action:

(i) to redirect the structured settlement payment to the insured depository institution or its agent or successor in interest; or

(ii) to otherwise enforce the blanket security interest against the structured settlement payment right.

(20) "Transfer agreement" means the agreement providing for a transfer of a structured settlement payment right.

(21) (a) "Transfer expenses" means all expenses of a transfer that are:

(i) required under the transfer agreement to be paid by the payee; or

(ii) deducted from the gross advance amount, including without limitation any court filing fee, attorney fee, escrow fee, lien recordation fee, judgment and lien search fee, finder's fee, commission, and other payments to a broker or other intermediary.

(b) Transfer expenses do not include a payee's preexisting obligations that are payable on the payee's account from the proceeds of a transfer.

(22) "Transferee" means a party acquiring or proposing to acquire a structured settlement payment right through a transfer.

History: En. Sec. 2, Ch. 351, L. 2005.

33-20-1403. Disclosure to payee. No less than 3 days prior to the date on which a payee signs a transfer agreement, the transferee shall provide to the payee a written disclosure statement separate from the transfer agreement that sets forth in bold type no smaller than 14 points:

(1) the amounts and the due dates of the structured settlement payment to be transferred;

(2) the aggregate amount of the amounts in subsection (1);

(3) the discounted present value of the payments to be transferred, which must be identified as:

(a) the calculation of the present value of the transferred structured settlement payment under federal standards for valuing annuities; and

(b) the amount of the applicable federal rate used in calculating the discounted present value;

(4) the gross advance amount;

(5) an itemized list of all applicable transfer expenses, other than attorney fees and related disbursements, based on the transferee's best estimate of the amount of fees and disbursements payable in connection with the transferee's application for approval of the transfer;

(6) the net advance amount;

(7) the amount of any penalty or liquidated damages payable by the payee in the event of a breach of the transfer agreement by the payee; and

(8) a statement that the payee has the right to cancel the transfer agreement without penalty or further obligation no later than the third business day after the date on which the payee signs the agreement.

History: En. Sec. 3, Ch. 351, L. 2005.

33-20-1404. Transfer of structured settlement payment right — conditions. A direct or indirect transfer of a structured settlement payment right is not effective and a structured settlement obligor or annuity issuer is not required to make a payment directly or indirectly to a transferee of a structured settlement payment right unless a final court order or order of a responsible administrative authority has approved the transfer in advance based on written findings by the court or responsible administrative authority that:

(1) the transfer is in the best interest of the payee, taking into account the welfare and support of the payee's dependents, if any;

(2) the payee has been advised in writing by the transferee to seek independent professional advice regarding the transfer and either has received independent professional advice or knowingly waived independent professional advice in writing; and

(3) the transfer does not contravene any applicable statute or the order of any court or other government authority.

History: En. Sec. 4, Ch. 351, L. 2005.

33-20-1405. Obligations after transfer. After the transfer of a structured settlement payment right pursuant to this part:

(1) the structured settlement obligor and the annuity issuer are discharged and released from liability for the transferred payments to all parties except to the transferee;

(2) the transferee is liable to the structured settlement obligor and the annuity issuer:

(a) if the transfer contravenes the terms of the structured settlement for any tax incurred by the structured settlement obligor or annuity issuer as a consequence of the transfer; and

(b) for any other liability or cost, including reasonable costs and attorney fees, arising:

(i) from compliance by the structured settlement obligor and annuity issuer with the order of the court or responsible administrative authority; or

(ii) as a consequence of the transferee's failure to comply with this part; and

(3) neither the structured settlement obligor nor the annuity issuer may be required to divide a periodic payment between a payee and a transferee or assignee or between two or more transferees or assignees.

History: En. Sec. 5, Ch. 351, L. 2005.

33-20-1406. Additional transfers. After the transfer of a structured settlement payment right pursuant to this part, any further transfer by the payee is subject to all of the requirements of this part.

History: En. Sec. 6, Ch. 351, L. 2005.

33-20-1407. Jurisdiction — notice. (1) A transferee may apply under this part for approval of a transfer of a structured settlement payment right:

(a) in the county in which the payee resides;

(b) in the county in which the structured settlement obligor or the annuity issuer maintains a principal place of business; or

(c) in any court or before any responsible administrative authority that approved the structured settlement agreement.

(2) Not less than 20 days prior to a scheduled hearing on an application for approval of a transfer of a structured settlement payment right under 33-20-1404, the transferee shall file with the court or responsible administrative authority and serve on all interested parties a notice of the proposed transfer and the application for an authorized transfer. The notice must include the following:

(a) a copy of the transferee's application;

(b) a copy of the transfer agreement;

(c) a copy of the disclosure statement required under 33-20-1403;

(d) a listing of each of the payee's dependents, if any, together with the age of each dependent;

(e) notification that any interested party is entitled to support, oppose, or otherwise respond to the transferee's application either in person or by counsel by submitting written comments to the court or responsible administrative authority or by participating in the hearing; and

(f) notification of the time and the place of the hearing and notification of the manner in which and the time by which written responses to the application must be filed. The filing deadline may not be less than 15 days after the transferee's notice has been served.

History: En. Sec. 7, Ch. 351, L. 2005.

33-20-1408. Waiver not allowed. A payee may not waive the provisions of this part.

History: En. Sec. 8, Ch. 351, L. 2005.

33-20-1409. Disputes — entry of judgment. (1) A transfer agreement entered into on or after October 1, 2005, by a payee who resides in this state must provide that disputes under the transfer agreement, including a claim that the payee has breached the agreement, must be determined in this state under the laws of this state.

(2) A transfer agreement may not authorize the transferee or any other party to confess judgment or consent to entry of judgment against the payee.

History: En. Sec. 9, Ch. 351, L. 2005.

33-20-1410. Contingent payment conditions. A transfer of a structured settlement payment right may not extend to a payment that is contingent upon the life of a payee unless prior to the date on which the payee signs the transfer agreement the transferee has established and agreed to maintain procedures reasonably satisfactory to the annuity issuer and the structured settlement obligor for:

(1) periodically confirming the payee's survival; and

(2) giving the annuity issuer and the structured settlement obligor prompt written notice upon the payee's death.

History: En. Sec. 10, Ch. 351, L. 2005.

33-20-1411. Responsibility for compliance — liability. (1) Compliance with the requirements in 33-20-1403 and fulfillment of the conditions in 33-20-1404 are the sole responsibility of the transferee in any transfer of a structured settlement payment right. Neither the structured settlement obligor nor the annuity issuer bears responsibility for or liability arising from noncompliance with 33-20-1403 or failure to fulfill the conditions of 33-20-1404.

(2) A payee who proposes to make a transfer of a structured settlement payment right may not incur a penalty, forfeit an application fee or other payment, or otherwise incur any liability to the proposed transferee or any assignee based on a failure of a transfer agreement to satisfy the conditions of this part.

History: En. Sec. 11, Ch. 351, L. 2005.

33-20-1412. Construction. This part may not be construed to authorize a transfer of a structured settlement payment right in contravention of any law or to imply that any transfer under a transfer agreement entered into prior to October 1, 2005, is valid or invalid.

History: En. Sec. 12, Ch. 351, L. 2005.

Part 1
General Provisions

33-21-101. Short title. This chapter may be cited as "The Model Act for the Regulation of Credit Life Insurance and Credit Disability Insurance".

History: En. Sec. 393, Ch. 286, L. 1959; R.C.M. 1947, 40-4202.

33-21-102. Purpose and scope. (1) The purpose of this chapter is to promote the public welfare by regulating credit life insurance and credit disability insurance. Nothing in this chapter is intended to prohibit or discourage reasonable competition. The provisions of this chapter shall be liberally construed.

(2) Except as provided in subsection (3), this chapter applies to each policy, certificate of insurance, notice of proposed insurance, binder, endorsement, and rider of life insurance and disability insurance delivered or issued for delivery in Montana in connection with loans or other credit transactions for personal, family, or household purposes.

(3) This chapter does not apply to life insurance or disability insurance delivered or issued for delivery in connection with:

(a) a loan or other credit transaction of more than 15 years' duration;

(b) a credit transaction that is:

(i) secured by a first mortgage or deed of trust; and

(ii) made to finance the purchase of real property or the construction of a dwelling thereon or to refinance a prior credit transaction made for that purpose; or

(c) a credit transaction that is an isolated transaction on the part of the insurer and that is not related to an agreement or a plan for insuring debtors of the creditor.

Cross-References

33-21-103. Definitions. As used in this chapter, the following definitions apply:

(1) "Credit disability insurance" means insurance on a debtor or joint debtors to provide indemnity for payments becoming due on a specific loan or other credit transaction while the debtor or either of the joint debtors is disabled as defined in the policy.

(2) "Credit life insurance" means insurance on the life of a debtor or the lives of joint debtors pursuant to or in connection with a specific loan or other credit transaction.

(3) "Credit transaction" means a transaction by the terms of which, at a future date:

(a) repayment of money loaned is made;

(b) a loan commitment is made; or

(c) payment for goods, services, or property sold or leased is made.

(4) "Creditor" means:

(a) a lender of money or vendor or lessor of goods, services, property, rights, or privileges, for which payment is arranged through a credit transaction;

(b) any successor to the right, title, or interest of a lender, vendor, or lessor;

(c) an affiliate, associate, or subsidiary of a lender, vendor, or lessor;

(d) a director, officer, or employee of a lender, vendor, or lessor; or

(e) any other person in any way associated with a lender, vendor, or lessor.

(5) "Debtor" means a borrower of money or a purchaser or lessee of goods, services, property, rights, or privileges for which payment is arranged through a credit transaction.

(6) "Indebtedness" means the total amount payable by a debtor to a creditor in connection with a loan or other credit transaction.

(7) "Open-end credit" means credit extended by a creditor under an agreement in which:

(a) the creditor reasonably contemplates repeated transactions;

(b) the creditor imposes a finance charge from time to time on an outstanding unpaid balance; and

(c) the amount of credit that may be extended to the debtor during the term of the agreement (up to any limit set by the creditor) is generally made available to the extent that any outstanding balance is repaid.

33-21-104. Existing insurance — choice of insurer. When credit life insurance or credit disability insurance is required as additional security for an indebtedness, the debtor, upon request to the creditor, has the option of furnishing the required amount of insurance through existing policies of insurance owned or controlled by him or of procuring and furnishing the required coverage through an insurer authorized to transact insurance within Montana.

History: En. Sec. 405, Ch. 286, L. 1959; R.C.M. 1947, 40-4214; amd. Sec. 4, Ch. 156, L. 1989.

Cross-References

Retail installment sales — choice of insurer provided, 31-1-233.

33-21-105. Claims. (1) A claim must be promptly reported to the insurer or its designated claim representative, and the insurer shall maintain adequate claim files. A claim must be settled as soon as possible and in accordance with the terms of the insurance contract.

(2) A claim must be paid either by draft drawn upon the insurer or by check of the insurer to the order of the claimant to whom payment of the claim is due pursuant to the policy provisions or upon direction of the claimant to one specified.

(3) No plan or arrangement may be used whereby a person, partnership, or corporation other than the insurer or its designated claim representative is authorized to settle or adjust claims. The creditor may not be designated as claim representative for the insurer in adjusting claims, except that a group policyholder may, by arrangement with the group insurer, draw drafts or checks in payment of claims due to the group policyholder subject to audit and review by the insurer.

History: En. Sec. 404, Ch. 286, L. 1959; R.C.M. 1947, 40-4213; amd. Sec. 5, Ch. 156, L. 1989.

33-21-106 through 33-21-110 reserved.

33-21-111. Rules — enforcement of chapter. The commissioner may, after notice and hearing, issue such rules as he deems appropriate for the supervision of this chapter. Whenever the commissioner finds that there has been a violation of this chapter or any rules issued pursuant thereto and after written notice thereof and hearing given to the insurer or other person authorized or licensed by the commissioner, he shall set forth the details of his findings together with an order for compliance by a specified date. Such order shall be binding on the insurer and other person authorized or licensed by the commissioner on the date specified unless sooner withdrawn by the commissioner or a stay thereof has been ordered by a court of competent jurisdiction.

33-21-112. Judicial review. Any party to the proceeding affected by an order of the commissioner shall be entitled to judicial review by following the procedure set forth in 33-1-711.

History: En. Sec. 407, Ch. 286, L. 1959; R.C.M. 1947, 40-4216.

33-21-113. Penalties. In addition to any penalty provided by law, a person who violates an order of the commissioner after it has become final and while the order is in effect shall, upon proof thereof to the satisfaction of the court, forfeit and pay to the state of Montana a sum not to exceed $250 which may be recovered in a civil action, except that if the violation is found to be willful, the amount of the penalty is a sum not to exceed $1,000. The commissioner, in his discretion, may revoke or suspend the license or certificate of authority of the person, partnership, or corporation guilty of such violation. The order for suspension or revocation is subject to judicial review as provided in 33-1-711.

History: En. Sec. 408, Ch. 286, L. 1959; R.C.M. 1947, 40-4217; amd. Sec. 6, Ch. 156, L. 1989.

33-21-201. Form of issuance. An insurer may deliver or issue for delivery credit life insurance and credit disability insurance only in the following forms:

(1) individual policies of life insurance issued to debtors on a term plan;

(2) individual policies of disability insurance issued to debtors on a term plan or disability benefit provisions in individual policies of credit life insurance;

(3) group policies of life insurance issued to creditors providing insurance on the lives of debtors on a term plan;

(4) group policies of disability insurance issued to creditors on a term plan insuring debtors or disability provisions in group credit life insurance policies to provide disability coverage;

(5) joint policies of life insurance issued to debtors providing insurance jointly on the lives of joint debtors on a term plan; or

(6) joint policies of disability insurance issued to debtors on a term plan insuring joint debtors or disability provisions in joint credit life insurance policies to provide disability coverage.

33-21-202. Amount. (1) The initial amount of credit life insurance may not exceed the total amount repayable under the contract of indebtedness. If an indebtedness is repayable in substantially equal installments, the amount of credit life insurance may not exceed the scheduled or actual amount of unpaid indebtedness on the date of death, whichever is greater. The amount of credit life insurance written in connection with:

(a) a credit transaction repayable over a term in excess of 63 months or, at the option of the insurer, for a shorter term may not exceed the actual amount of unpaid indebtedness on the date of death, excluding any:

(i) unearned interest or finance charges; and

(ii) delinquency or extension exceeding 4 months;

(b) an open-end credit agreement having a credit limit exceeding $10,000 may not exceed the plan's credit limit;

(c) an agricultural loan commitment not exceeding 1 year may not exceed the amount of the loan commitment on a nondecreasing or level term plan; and

(d) an education loan commitment may be for the amount of the portion of the commitment that has not been advanced by the creditor.

(2) The amount of periodic indemnity payable by credit disability insurance in the event of disability, as defined in the policy, may not exceed:

(a) the aggregate of the periodic scheduled unpaid installments of indebtedness; and

(b) the original indebtedness divided by the number of periodic installments.

(3) A group or individual credit disability insurance policy or a certificate that provides coverage for credit card indebtedness must provide a disability benefit during each credit card billing cycle throughout the term of coverage that, subject to any specified dollar amount limit defined in the policy or certificate, may not be less than the sum of the following amounts payable in the billing cycle and based on the insured balance on the date that an insured disability commences:

(a) the greater of:

(i) the minimum payment required by the creditor for the billing cycle, less any past-due payments and accelerated payments required for the overlimit usage of the credit card; or

(ii) the finance charge calculated pursuant to the credit card contract;

(b) all premiums charged for credit disability insurance coverage; and

(c) all other charges related to the insured balance as of the date the insured disability commences that are incurred in the billing cycle as a result of the insurer's delay in processing a claim payment.

History: En. Sec. 397, Ch. 286, L. 1959; amd. Sec. 2, Ch. 323, L. 1974; R.C.M. 1947, 40-4206; amd. Sec. 8, Ch. 156, L. 1989; amd. Sec. 1, Ch. 530, L. 1997.

Cross-References

Unfair trade practice — failure to promptly pay, 33-18-201.

33-21-203. Term. (1) The term of any credit life insurance or credit disability insurance commences, subject to acceptance by the insurer, on the date on which the debtor becomes obligated to the creditor. However, if a group policy provides coverage with respect to existing obligations, the insurance on a debtor with respect to the indebtedness commences on the effective date of the policy.

(2) When evidence of insurability is required and the evidence is furnished more than 30 days after the date on which the debtor becomes obligated to the creditor, the term of the insurance may commence on the date the insurer determines the evidence is satisfactory. In that event, the insurer shall make an appropriate refund or adjustment of any charge to the debtor for insurance.

(3) The term of the insurance may not extend more than 15 days beyond the scheduled maturity date of the indebtedness except when extended without additional cost to the debtor, but the term of the insurance may be less than the term of the credit transaction to provide modified or partial coverage or extend beyond the maturity date to provide coverage consistent with 33-21-202(1)(a).

(4) If the indebtedness is discharged due to renewal or refinancing prior to the scheduled maturity date, the insurance in force must be terminated before any new insurance may be issued in connection with the renewed or refinanced indebtedness. In all cases of termination prior to scheduled maturity, a refund must be paid or credited as provided in 33-21-206.

History: En. Sec. 398, Ch. 286, L. 1959; R.C.M. 1947, 40-4207; amd. Sec. 9, Ch. 156, L. 1989.

33-21-204. Policy or certificate delivered — time of delivery — provisions. (1) All credit life insurance and credit disability insurance sold must be evidenced by an individual policy or, in the case of group insurance, by a certificate of insurance, which individual policy or group certificate of insurance must be delivered to the debtor at the time the indebtedness is incurred except as hereinafter provided.

(2) If the individual policy or group certificate of insurance is not delivered to the debtor at the time the indebtedness is incurred, a copy of the application for the policy or a notice of proposed insurance, signed by the debtor and setting forth the name and home office address of the insurer, the name of each debtor, the premium or amount of payment, if any, by the debtor separately in connection with credit life insurance and credit disability insurance coverage, the amount, term, and a brief description of the coverage provided or to be provided, must be delivered to the debtor at the time such indebtedness is incurred. The copy of the application for or notice of proposed insurance must also refer exclusively to insurance coverage and must be separate and apart from the loan, sale, or other credit statement of account, instrument, or agreement unless the information required by this section is prominently set forth therein. Upon approval by the insurer of the application for insurance or acceptance of the insurance by the insurer and within 30 days of the date upon which the indebtedness is incurred, the insurer shall deliver the individual policy or group certificate of insurance to the debtor. The application or notice of proposed insurance must state that, upon acceptance by the insurer, the insurance becomes effective as of the date the indebtedness is incurred. If the named insurer does not accept the risk, the debtor must receive a policy or certificate of insurance setting forth the name and home office address of the substituted insurer and the amount of the premium to be charged. If the amount of premium is less than that set forth in the notice of proposed insurance, the insurer shall make an appropriate refund.

(3) Each individual policy or group certificate of credit life insurance and credit disability insurance must, in addition to other requirements of law, set forth the name and home office address of the insurer, the name of each debtor or, in the case of a group certificate of insurance, the identity by name or otherwise of the debtor, the rate or amount of payment, if any, by the debtor separately in connection with credit life insurance and credit disability insurance, a description of the coverages, including the amount and term thereof and any exceptions, limitations, or restrictions, and must state that the benefits must be paid to the creditor to reduce or extinguish the unpaid indebtedness and, wherever the amount of insurance may exceed the unpaid indebtedness, that any such excess must be payable to a beneficiary, other than the creditor, named by the debtor or to his estate. If the term of the insurance is less than the term of the loan, that fact must be stated on the face of the individual policy or group certificate in not less than 10-point boldface type.

(4) For the purposes of subsections (1) and (2), an individual policy or group certificate of insurance delivered in connection with an open-end credit agreement is considered to be delivered at the time the indebtedness is incurred if delivery occurs on or before the date the indebtedness is incurred.

History: En. Secs. 399, 400, Ch. 286, L. 1959; R.C.M. 1947, 40-4208, 40-4209; amd. Sec. 10, Ch. 156, L. 1989.

33-21-205. Filing, approval, and withdrawal of forms and rates — disapproval. (1) With respect to credit life insurance or credit disability insurance:

(a) a policy, certificate of insurance, notice of proposed insurance, application for insurance, binder, endorsement, or rider may not be delivered or issued for delivery in Montana unless it has been filed with and approved by the commissioner, in accordance with 33-1-501, and the regulatory official of the state in which it is issued; and

(b) a schedule of premium rates pertaining to a policy, certificate of insurance, notice of proposed insurance, application for insurance, binder, endorsement, or rider may not be used in Montana unless it has been filed with the commissioner.

(2) With respect to credit life insurance or credit disability insurance and in accordance with 33-1-501, the commissioner may disapprove a policy, certificate of insurance, notice of proposed insurance, application for insurance, binder, endorsement, or rider:

(a) for a reason listed in 33-1-502;

(b) if the table of premium rates charged or to be charged appears by reasonable assumptions to be excessive in relation to benefits; or

(c) if it contains provisions that are unjust, unfair, inequitable, misleading, deceptive, or encourage misrepresentation of the insurance.

(3) If the commissioner notifies the insurer that a form is disapproved, it is unlawful for the insurer to issue or use the form.

(4) An insurer may not issue or use a form after the commissioner withdraws approval of the form pursuant to 33-1-501. An order or final determination of the commissioner under this section is subject to judicial review.

History: En. Sec. 401, Ch. 286, L. 1959; R.C.M. 1947, 40-4210; amd. Sec. 11, Ch. 156, L. 1989.

33-21-206. Premiums and refunds. (1) Each insurer issuing credit life insurance or credit disability insurance shall file with the commissioner its schedules of premium rates for use in connection with such insurance. Any insurer may revise the schedules from time to time and shall file the revised schedules with the commissioner. No insurer may issue any credit life insurance policy or credit disability insurance policy for which the premium rate exceeds that determined by the schedules of such insurer as then on file with the commissioner. The commissioner may require the filing of the schedule of premium rates for use in connection with and as a part of the specific policy filings as provided by 33-21-205.

(2) Each individual policy, group certificate of insurance, or notice of proposed insurance of credit life insurance and credit disability insurance must provide that, if the insurance is terminated before the scheduled maturity date of the indebtedness, any refund of premium or amount paid by the debtor for insurance must be paid or credited promptly to the person entitled thereto; provided, however, that the commissioner shall prescribe a minimum refund and no refund which would be less than such minimum need be made. The formula to be used in computing refunds must be filed with and approved by the commissioner.

(3) If a creditor requires a debtor to make a payment in connection with credit life insurance or credit disability insurance and an individual policy or group certificate of insurance is not issued, the creditor shall immediately give written notice to the debtor and shall promptly make an appropriate credit to the account.

(4) The amount charged to a debtor for any credit life insurance or credit disability insurance may not exceed the premiums charged by the insurer, as computed at the time the charge to the debtor is determined.

(5) Nothing in this chapter may be construed to authorize any payments for insurance prohibited under a statute, or rule thereunder, governing credit transactions.

33-21-207. Issuance of policies. Each policy, certificate of insurance, or notice of proposed insurance of credit life insurance and credit disability insurance must be delivered or issued for delivery in Montana only by an insurer authorized to transact insurance in Montana and must, except as provided in 33-17-103, be issued only through a licensed insurance producer.

33-22-107. Premium increase restriction — exception — notice of rate increase and policy changes. (1) An insurer or a health service corporation that issues or renews a policy, certificate, or membership contract covering a resident of this state may not increase a premium in an individual's or an individual's group disability insurance policy more frequently than once during a 12-month period unless failure to increase the premium more frequently than once during the 12-month period would:

(a) place the insurer in violation of the laws of this state; or

(b) cause the financial impairment of the insurer to the extent that further transaction of insurance by the insurer injures or is hazardous to its policyholders or to the public.

(2) Subsection (1) does not apply to a premium increase necessitated by a state or federal law, court decision, or rule adopted by an agency of competent jurisdiction of the state or federal government.

(3) (a) Every health insurance issuer delivering or issuing for delivery group or individual health insurance coverage shall give a group policyholder at least 60 days' advance notice and an individual policyholder at least 45 days' advance notice of a change in rates or a change in terms or benefits.

(b) A notice given under this subsection (3) must be delivered in the following manner:

(i) it must be mailed to the policyholder's last-known address as shown by the records of the insurer; and

(ii) if a health insurance issuer bills any certificate holder directly at the certificate holder's home address for premiums, the notice must be mailed by the health insurer directly to each certificate holder's last-known home address.

(c) If the health insurance issuer fails to provide the notice required by this subsection (3), the coverage must remain in effect at the existing rate with the existing benefits until the full notice period has expired or until the effective date of the replacement coverage obtained by the insured, whichever occurs first.

33-22-108 reserved.

33-22-109. Riders. (1) Except for group health insurance coverage provided by a group health plan or a health insurance issuer, a policy of disability insurance may contain a provision that excludes coverage for specific conditions through the use of elimination riders for conditions for which medical advice, diagnosis, care, or treatment was recommended by or received from a provider of health care services within 3 years preceding the effective date of coverage of an insured person. The provisions of 33-22-110 do not apply to elimination riders. An insured person may apply to the insurer for removal or modification of a rider, and the insurer shall respond to the application within 60 days of receipt.

(2) An insurer may not, except upon agreement by the insured, retroactively impose an elimination rider on an existing policy, certificate, or contract.

History: En. Sec. 2, Ch. 522, L. 1995; amd. Sec. 4, Ch. 416, L. 1997.

33-22-110. Preexisting conditions. (1) Except as provided in 33-22-246 and 33-22-514, a policy or certificate of disability insurance may not exclude coverage for a condition for which medical advice or treatment was recommended by or received from a provider of health care services unless the condition occurred within 5 years preceding the effective date of coverage of an insured person. The condition may only be excluded for a maximum of 12 months.

(2) An insurer may use an application form designed to elicit the complete health history of an applicant and, on the basis of the answers on that application, perform underwriting in accordance with the insurer's established underwriting standards.

(3) A policy of disability income insurance may not exclude coverage for a condition for which medical advice or treatment was recommended by or received from a provider of health care services unless the condition occurred within 5 years preceding the effective date of coverage of an insured person. An exclusion may not apply to a disability commencing more than 12 months from the effective date of coverage of an insured person.

33-22-111. Policies and certificates to provide for freedom of choice of practitioners — professional practice not enlarged. (1) All policies or certificates of disability insurance, including individual, group, and blanket policies or certificates, must provide that the insured has full freedom of choice in the selection of any licensed physician, physician assistant, dentist, osteopath, chiropractor, optometrist, podiatrist, psychologist, licensed social worker, licensed professional counselor, acupuncturist, naturopathic physician, physical therapist, or advanced practice registered nurse as specifically listed in 37-8-202 for treatment of any illness or injury within the scope and limitations of the person's practice. Whenever the policies or certificates insure against the expense of drugs, the insured has full freedom of choice in the selection of any licensed and registered pharmacist.

(2) This section may not be construed as enlarging the scope and limitations of practice of any of the licensed professions enumerated in subsection (1). This section may not be construed as amending, altering, or repealing any statutes relating to the licensing or use of hospitals.

33-22-112. Disability insurance coverage of services of state institutions — provision void — rate of payment. (1) From and after February 14, 1973, it shall be unlawful for any insurance company issuing disability insurance policies in Montana to exclude from coverage in a disability insurance policy services rendered the insured while a resident in a Montana state institution, provided the services to the insured would be covered by the disability insurance policy if rendered to him outside a Montana state institution.

(2) A disability insurance policy is considered issued in Montana if the insured purchasing the disability insurance policy is, at the time of the purchase, residing in the state of Montana.

(3) If the exclusion prohibited by this section should appear in a disability insurance policy issued in Montana after February 14, 1973, the provision is void and the disability insurance policy will be considered to cover services rendered the insured in a Montana state institution if the services would have been covered if rendered to an insured outside of a Montana state institution.

(4) Payment for services rendered in a Montana state institution shall be to the same extent and at the same rates, according to the provisions of the disability policy, which would be paid for the services if rendered outside a Montana state institution.

33-22-121. Notice required for cancellation or refusal to renew. (1) An insurer may not cancel or refuse to renew a disability insurance policy until the insurer has mailed or delivered to the named insured and to the policyowner, if they are not the same, at the last-known post office address shown in the records of the company, one written notice in addition to any billing statement, stating the date the cancellation or refusal to renew will become effective, which may not be less than:

(a) 30 days after the date of mailing or delivery of the notice of cancellation for nonpayment of premiums or a material misrepresentation contained in the application; or

(b) 90 days after the date of mailing or delivery of the notice of cancellation or refusal to renew for any reason other than nonpayment of premiums or a material misrepresentation contained in the application.

(2) The notice requirements in subsection (1) run concurrently with any grace period required by 33-22-206.

History: En. Sec. 3, Ch. 723, L. 1985; amd. Sec. 1, Ch. 191, L. 1989.

33-22-122. Contents of notice — proof — limitation on recovery — exemptions. (1) (a) The notice of cancellation must state:

(i) the amount of the premium, installment, or interest due on the policy;

(ii) the place where it must be paid; and

(iii) the name and address of the person or company to which the premium is payable.

(b) The notice must also state that unless the premium or other sums are paid to the company or its insurance producer, the policy will lapse or be forfeited.

(2) "Policyowner", as used in this section, means the owner of the policy or any other person designated as the person to receive premium notices, as shown by the records of the insurance company.

(3) The affidavit of any responsible officer, clerk, or insurance producer of the insurance company authorized to mail the notice that it is the standard practice of the company to mail to policyowners the notice required by this section is prima facie evidence that the notice has been duly given.

(4) An action may not be maintained to recover under a lapsed or forfeited policy on the ground that the insurance company failed to comply with this section unless the action is instituted within 2 years from the due date upon which default was made in paying the premium, installment, or interest for which lapse or forfeiture is claimed.

(5) Section 33-22-121 does not apply to:

(a) group or group-type policies; or

(b) industrial life or industrial disability policies.

33-22-123 and 33-22-124 reserved.

33-22-125. Independent chiropractic physical examination or review of records. (1) If a patient's attending health care professional is a licensed chiropractor, the following provisions govern the conduct of a utilization review of the health care services rendered to the patient by the chiropractor:

(a) If an independent physical examination is required by the insurer, it must be conducted by a chiropractor engaged in the practice of chiropractic in Montana.

(b) If a review of the patient's or the chiropractor's records is required by the insurer in the course of an appeal or a redetermination of an adverse determination of medical necessity or appropriateness made pursuant to an insurer's review, the review must be conducted by a person trained in the field of chiropractic. During an appeal or redetermination, the patient may, at his expense, request an independent review of the patient's or the chiropractor's records by a chiropractor engaged in the practice of chiropractic in Montana and may require that review to be considered by the insurer in reaching its decision. If the initial adverse determination of medical necessity or appropriateness is reversed, the insurer shall bear the expense of the independent review.

(2) Nothing in this section prevents a health care insurer from requesting additional medical review of a patient's condition or treatment by another chiropractor or medical provider.

(3) The provisions of this section do not apply to routine claim administration or determination by an insurer.

(4) As used in this section, "health care insurer" means:

(a) an insurer who provides disability insurance as defined in 33-1-207;

(b) a health service corporation as defined in 33-30-101;

(c) a health maintenance organization as defined in 33-31-102;

(d) a fraternal benefit society as defined in 33-7-108;

(e) an administrator as defined in 33-17-102; and

(f) any other entity regulated by the commissioner that provides health care coverage.

History: En. Sec. 1, Ch. 727, L. 1991.

33-22-126 through 33-22-128 reserved.

33-22-129. Coverage for outpatient self-management training and education for treatment of diabetes — limited benefit for medically necessary equipment and supplies. (1) Each group disability policy, certificate of insurance, and membership contract that is delivered, issued for delivery, renewed, extended, or modified in this state must provide coverage for outpatient self-management training and education for the treatment of diabetes. Any education must be provided by a licensed health care professional with expertise in diabetes.

(2) (a) Coverage must include a $250 benefit for a person each year for medically necessary and prescribed outpatient self-management training and education for the treatment of diabetes.

(b) Nothing in subsection (2)(a) prohibits an insurer from providing a greater benefit.

(3) Each group disability policy, certificate of insurance, and membership contract that is delivered, issued for delivery, renewed, extended, or modified in this state must provide coverage for diabetic equipment and supplies that is limited to insulin, syringes, injection aids, devises for self-monitoring of glucose levels (including those for the visually impaired), test strips, visual reading and urine test strips, one insulin pump for each warranty period, accessories to insulin pumps, one prescriptive oral agent for controlling blood sugar levels for each class of drug approved by the United States food and drug administration, and glucagon emergency kits.

(4) Annual copayment and deductible provisions are subject to the same terms and conditions applicable to all other covered benefits within a given policy.

(5) This section does not apply to disability income, hospital indemnity, medicare supplement, accident-only, vision, dental, specific disease, or long-term care policies.

(6) (a) This section does not apply to the state employee group insurance program, the university employee group insurance program, or any employee group insurance program of a city, town, county, school district, or other political subdivision of this state that on January 1, 2002, provides substantially equivalent or greater coverage for outpatient self-management training and education for the treatment of diabetes and certain diabetic equipment and supplies provided for in subsection (3).

(b) The state employee group insurance program, the university employee group insurance program, or any employee group insurance program of a city, town, county, school district, or other political subdivision of this state that reduces or discontinues substantially equivalent or greater coverage after January 1, 2002, is subject to the provisions of this section.

History: En. Sec. 1, Ch. 450, L. 2001.

33-22-130. Coverage for adopted children from time of placement — preexisting conditions. (1) Each group and individual disability policy, certificate of insurance, or membership contract that is delivered, issued for delivery, renewed, extended, or modified in this state must provide coverage for an adopted child of the insured or subscriber to the same extent as for natural children of the insured or subscriber.

(2) The coverage required by this section must be effective from the date of placement for the purpose of adoption and must continue unless the placement is disrupted prior to legal adoption and the child is removed from placement. Coverage at the time of placement must include the necessary care and treatment of medical conditions existing prior to the date of placement and may not impose a preexisting condition exclusion.

(3) As used in this section, "placement" means the transfer of physical custody of a child who is legally free for adoption to a person who intends to adopt the child.

33-22-131. Coverage for treatment of inborn errors of metabolism. (1) Each group or individual medical expense disability policy, certificate of insurance, and membership contract that is delivered, issued for delivery, renewed, extended, or modified in this state must provide coverage for the treatment of inborn errors of metabolism that involve amino acid, carbohydrate, and fat metabolism and for which medically standard methods of diagnosis, treatment, and monitoring exist.

(2) Coverage must include expenses of diagnosing, monitoring, and controlling the disorders by nutritional and medical assessment, including but not limited to clinical services, biochemical analysis, medical supplies, prescription drugs, corrective lenses for conditions related to the inborn error of metabolism, nutritional management, and medical foods used in treatment to compensate for the metabolic abnormality and to maintain adequate nutritional status.

(3) For purposes of this section:

(a) "medical foods" means nutritional substances in any form that are:

(i) formulated to be consumed or administered enterally under supervision of a physician;

(ii) specifically processed or formulated to be distinct in one or more nutrients present in natural food;

(iii) intended for the medical and nutritional management of patients with limited capacity to metabolize ordinary foodstuffs or certain nutrients contained in ordinary foodstuffs or who have other specific nutrient requirements as established by medical evaluation; and

(iv) essential to optimize growth, health, and metabolic homeostasis;

(b) "treatment" means licensed professional medical services under the supervision of a physician.

(4) These services are subject to the terms of the applicable group or individual disability policy, certificate, or membership contract that establishes durational limits, dollar limits, deductibles, and copayment provisions as long as the terms are not less favorable than for physical illness generally.

(5) This section does not apply to disability income, hospital indemnity, medicare supplement, accident-only, vision, dental, or specified disease policies.

History: En. Sec. 1, Ch. 80, L. 1989; amd. Sec. 28, Ch. 451, L. 1993; amd. Sec. 56, Ch. 379, L. 1995; amd. Sec. 2, Ch. 434, L. 1999.

33-22-132. Coverage for mammography examinations. (1) Each group or individual medical expense, cancer, and blanket disability policy, certificate of insurance, and membership contract that is delivered, issued for delivery, renewed, extended, or modified in this state must provide minimum mammography examination coverage.

(2) For the purpose of this section, "minimum mammography examination" means:

(a) one baseline mammogram for a woman who is 35 years of age or older and under 40 years of age;

(b) a mammogram every 2 years for any woman who is 40 years of age or older and under 50 years of age or more frequently if recommended by the woman's physician; and

(c) a mammogram each year for a woman who is 50 years of age or older.

(3) A minimum $70 payment or the actual charge if the charge is less than $70 must be made for each mammography examination performed before the application of the terms of the applicable group or individual disability policy, certificate of insurance, or membership contract that establish durational limits, deductibles, and copayment provisions as long as the terms are not less favorable than for physical illness generally.

(4) This section does not apply to disability income, hospital indemnity, medicare supplement, accident-only, vision, dental, or specified disease policies.

33-22-133. Coverage for minimum hospital stay following childbirth. (1) For the purposes of this section, "attending health care provider" means a person licensed under Title 37 who is responsible for providing obstetrical and pediatric care to a mother and newborn infant.

(2) Each group or individual policy, certificate of disability insurance, subscriber contract, membership contract, or health care services agreement that provides coverage for maternity services, including benefits for childbirth, must provide coverage for at least 48 hours of inpatient hospital care following a vaginal delivery and at least 96 hours of inpatient hospital care following delivery by cesarean section for a mother and newborn infant in a health care facility as defined in 50-5-101.

(3) A decision to shorten the length of inpatient stay to less than that provided under subsection (2) must be made by the attending health care provider and the mother. A health benefit plan, as defined in 33-22-1803, may not terminate the service of an attending health care provider or penalize or otherwise provide financial disincentives to an attending health care provider in response to orders by the attending health care provider for care consistent with the provisions of this section.

(4) A health benefit plan that provides coverage for postdelivery care that is provided to a mother and newborn infant in the home may not be required to provide coverage of inpatient care under subsection (2) unless the inpatient care is determined to be medically necessary by the attending health care provider.

(5) A health benefit plan, as defined in 33-22-243, must provide written notice, in a manner consistent with the provisions of this chapter, to all enrollees, insureds, or subscribers regarding the coverage required by this section.

History: En. Sec. 1, Ch. 183, L. 1997.

33-22-134. Postmastectomy care. Each group and individual disability policy, certificate of insurance, or membership contract that is delivered, issued for delivery, renewed, extended, or modified in this state must provide coverage for hospital inpatient care for a period of time as is determined by the attending physician and, in the case of a health maintenance organization, also the primary care physician, in consultation with the patient, to be medically necessary following a mastectomy, a lumpectomy, or a lymph node dissection for the treatment of breast cancer. This section also applies to the state employee group insurance program, the university system employee group insurance program, any employee group insurance program of a city, town, county, school district, or other political subdivision of the state, and any self-funded multiple employer welfare arrangement that is not regulated by the Employee Retirement Income Security Act of 1974.

History: En. Sec. 1, Ch. 410, L. 1997.

33-22-135. Coverage for reconstructive breast surgery after mastectomy. (1) Each group and individual disability policy, certificate of insurance, or membership contract that is delivered, issued for delivery, renewed, extended, or modified in this state must provide coverage for reconstructive breast surgery resulting from a mastectomy that resulted from breast cancer.

(2) Each group and individual disability policy, certificate of insurance, or membership contract that is delivered, issued for delivery, renewed, extended, or modified in this state must provide coverage for all stages of one reconstructive breast surgery on the nondiseased breast to establish symmetry with the diseased breast after definitive reconstructive breast surgery on the diseased breast has been performed.

(3) For the purposes of this section:

(a) "mastectomy" means the surgical removal of all or part of a breast as a result of breast cancer;

(b) "reconstructive breast surgery" means surgery performed as a result of a mastectomy to reestablish symmetry between the breasts. The term includes augmentation mammoplasty, reduction mammoplasty, and mastopexy.

(4) Benefits for reconstructive breast surgery include but are not limited to the costs of prostheses and, under any contract providing outpatient x-ray or radiation therapy, benefits for outpatient chemotherapy following surgical procedures in connection with the treatment of breast cancer that must be included as a part of the outpatient x-ray or radiation therapy benefit.

History: En. Sec. 2, Ch. 410, L. 1997.

33-22-136. Insurance for spouse and dependents of deceased peace officer, game warden, or firefighter. (1) Any insurer, health service corporation, or health maintenance organization issuing group disability coverage to the spouse or dependents of a peace officer as defined in 45-2-101, a game warden as defined in 19-8-101, a firefighter as defined in 19-13-104, or a volunteer firefighter as defined in 19-17-102 shall renew the coverage of the spouse or dependents if the peace officer, game warden, firefighter, or volunteer firefighter dies within the course and scope of employment. This section also applies to a state employee group insurance program, a university system group insurance program, an employee group insurance program of a city, town, county, school district, or other political subdivision of the state, and any self-funded multiple employer welfare arrangement not regulated by the Employee Retirement

Income Security Act of 1974 that provides coverage for a peace officer, game warden, firefighter, or volunteer firefighter. Except as provided in subsection (2), the continuation of the coverage is at the option of the spouse or dependents. Renewals of coverage under this section must provide for the same level of benefits as are available to other members of the group. Premiums charged to a spouse or dependent under this section must be the same as premiums charged to other similarly situated members of the group. Dependent special enrollment must be allowed under the terms of 33-22-523(2) and (3). The provisions of this subsection are applicable to a spouse or dependent who is insured under a COBRA continuation provision.

(2) A disability insurance issuer subject to the provisions of subsection (1) may discontinue or not renew the coverage of a spouse or dependent only if:

(a) the spouse or dependent has failed to pay premiums or contributions in accordance with the terms of the disability insurance coverage or if the disability insurer has not received timely premium payments;

(b) the spouse or dependent has performed an act or practice that constitutes fraud or has made an intentional misrepresentation of a material fact under the terms of the coverage; or

(c) the disability insurance issuer is ceasing to offer coverage in the group disability market in accordance with applicable state law.

(2) "Church plan" has the meaning given the term by 29 U.S.C. 1002(33).

(3) "COBRA continuation provision" means:

(a) section 4980B of the Internal Revenue Code, 26 U.S.C. 4980B, other than subsection (f)(1) of that section as that subsection relates to pediatric vaccines;

(b) Title I, subtitle B, part 6, excluding section 609, of the Employee Retirement Income Security Act of 1974, 29 U.S.C. 1001, et seq.; or

(c) Title XXII of the Public Health Service Act, 42 U.S.C. 300dd, et seq.

(4) (a) "Creditable coverage" means coverage of the individual under any of the following:

(i) a group health plan;

(ii) health insurance coverage;

(iii) Title XVIII, part A or B, of the Social Security Act, 42 U.S.C. 1395c through 1395i-4 or 42 U.S.C. 1395j through 1395w-4;

(iv) Title XIX of the Social Security Act, 42 U.S.C. 1396a through 1396u, other than coverage consisting solely of a benefit under section 1928, 42 U.S.C. 1396s;

(v) Title 10, chapter 55, United States Code;

(vi) a medical care program of the Indian health service or of a tribal organization;

(vii) the Montana comprehensive health association provided for in 33-22-1503;

(viii) a health plan offered under Title 5, chapter 89, of the United States Code;

(ix) a public health plan;

(x) a health benefit plan under section 5(e) of the Peace Corps Act, 22 U.S.C. 2504(e);

(xi) a high-risk pool in any state.

(b) Creditable coverage does not include coverage consisting solely of coverage of excepted benefits.

(5) "Elimination rider" means a provision attached to a policy that excludes coverage for a specific condition that would otherwise be covered under the policy.

(6) "Enrollment date" means, with respect to an individual covered under a group health plan or health insurance coverage, the date of enrollment of the individual in the plan or coverage or, if earlier, the first day of the waiting period for enrollment.

(7) "Excepted benefits" means:

(a) coverage only for accident or disability income insurance, or both;

(b) coverage issued as a supplement to liability insurance;

(c) liability insurance, including general liability insurance and automobile liability insurance;

(d) workers' compensation or similar insurance;

(e) automobile medical payment insurance;

(f) credit-only insurance;

(g) coverage for onsite medical clinics;

(h) other similar insurance coverage under which benefits for medical care are secondary or incidental to other insurance benefits, as approved by the commissioner;

(i) if offered separately, any of the following:

(i) limited-scope dental or vision benefits;

(ii) benefits for long-term care, nursing home care, home health care, community-based care, or any combination of these types of care; or

(iii) other similar, limited benefits as approved by the commissioner;

(j) if offered as independent, noncoordinated benefits, any of the following:

(i) coverage only for a specified disease or illness; or

(ii) hospital indemnity or other fixed indemnity insurance;

(k) if offered as a separate insurance policy:

(i) medicare supplement coverage;

(ii) coverage supplemental to the coverage provided under Title 10, chapter 55, of the United States Code; and

(iii) similar supplemental coverage provided under a group health plan.

(8) "Federally defined eligible individual" means an individual:

(a) for whom, as of the date on which the individual seeks coverage in the group market or individual market or under an association portability plan, as defined in 33-22-1501, the aggregate of the periods of creditable coverage is 18 months or more;

(b) whose most recent prior creditable coverage was under a group health plan, governmental plan, church plan, or health insurance coverage offered in connection with any of those plans;

(c) who is not eligible for coverage under:

(i) a group health plan;

(ii) Title XVIII, part A or B, of the Social Security Act, 42 U.S.C. 1395c through 1395i-4 or 42 U.S.C. 1395j through 1395w-4; or

(iii) a state plan under Title XIX of the Social Security Act, 42 U.S.C. 1396a through 1396u, or a successor program;

(d) who does not have other health insurance coverage;

(e) for whom the most recent coverage within the period of aggregate creditable coverage was not terminated for factors relating to nonpayment of premiums or fraud;

(f) who, if offered the option of continuation coverage under a COBRA continuation provision or under a similar state program, elected that coverage; and

(g) who has exhausted continuation coverage under the COBRA continuation provision or program described in subsection (8)(f) if the individual elected the continuation coverage described in subsection (8)(f).

(9) "Group health insurance coverage" means health insurance coverage offered in connection with a group health plan or health insurance coverage offered to an eligible group as described in 33-22-501.

(10) "Group health plan" means an employee welfare benefit plan, as defined in 29 U.S.C. 1002(1), to the extent that the plan provides medical care and items and services paid for as medical care to employees or their dependents, directly or through insurance, reimbursement, or otherwise.

(11) "Health insurance coverage" means benefits consisting of medical care, including items and services paid for as medical care, that are provided directly, through insurance, reimbursement, or otherwise, under a policy, certificate, membership contract, or health care services agreement offered by a health insurance issuer.

(12) "Health insurance issuer" means an insurer, a health service corporation, or a health maintenance organization.

(13) "Individual health insurance coverage" means health insurance coverage offered to individuals in the individual market, but does not include short-term limited duration insurance.

(14) "Individual market" means the market for health insurance coverage offered to individuals other than in connection with group health insurance coverage.

(15) "Large employer" means, in connection with a group health plan, with respect to a calendar year and a plan year, an employer who employed an average of at least 51 employees on business days during the preceding calendar year and who employs at least two employees on the first day of the plan year.

(16) "Large group market" means the health insurance market under which individuals obtain health insurance coverage directly or through any arrangement on behalf of themselves and their dependents through a group health plan or group health insurance coverage issued to a large employer.

(17) "Late enrollee" means an eligible employee or dependent, other than a special enrollee under 33-22-523, who requests enrollment in a group health plan following the initial enrollment period during which the individual was entitled to enroll under the terms of the group health plan if the initial enrollment period was a period of at least 30 days. However, an eligible employee or dependent is not considered a late enrollee if a court has ordered that coverage be provided for a spouse, minor, or dependent child under a covered employee's health benefit plan and a request for enrollment is made within 30 days after issuance of the court order.

(18) "Medical care" means:

(a) the diagnosis, cure, mitigation, treatment, or prevention of disease or amounts paid for the purpose of affecting any structure or function of the body;

(b) transportation primarily for and essential to medical care referred to in subsection (18)(a); or

(c) insurance covering medical care referred to in subsections (18)(a) and (18)(b).

(19) "Network plan" means health insurance coverage offered by a health insurance issuer under which the financing and delivery of medical care, including items and services paid for as medical care, are provided, in whole or in part, through a defined set of providers under contract with the issuer.

(20) "Plan sponsor" has the meaning provided under section 3(16)(B) of the Employee Retirement Income Security Act of 1974, 29 U.S.C. 1002(16)(B).

(21) "Preexisting condition exclusion" means, with respect to coverage, a limitation or exclusion of benefits relating to a condition based on presence of a condition before the enrollment date coverage, whether or not any medical advice, diagnosis, care, or treatment was recommended or received before the enrollment date.

(22) "Small group market" means the health insurance market under which individuals obtain health insurance coverage directly or through an arrangement, on behalf of themselves and their dependents, through a group health plan or group health insurance coverage maintained by a small employer as defined in 33-22-1803.

(23) "Waiting period" means, with respect to a group health plan and an individual who is a potential participant or beneficiary in the group health plan, the period that must pass with respect to the individual before the individual is eligible to be covered for benefits under the terms of the group health plan.

33-22-141. Crediting previous coverage. (1) (a) A period of creditable coverage may not be counted, with respect to enrollment of an individual under a group health plan, if there was a 63-day break in coverage.

(b) The 63-day period provided for in subsection (1)(a) must be counted from the date that the certificate of creditable coverage was issued to the individual.

(2) The time that an individual is in a waiting period for coverage under a group health plan or for group health insurance coverage or is in an affiliation period, as defined in 33-31-102, may not be considered in determining the continuous period under subsection (1).

(3) Except as provided in subsection (4), for the purposes of applying 33-22-514, a group health plan or a health insurance issuer offering group health insurance coverage shall count a period of creditable coverage without regard to the specific benefits coverage during the period.

(4) (a) A group health plan or a health insurance issuer offering group health insurance may elect to apply the provisions of 33-22-514 based on coverage of benefits within each of several classes or categories of benefits specified in regulations implementing Public Law 104-191, rather than as provided under subsection (3). If electing to apply the provisions of 33-22-514 pursuant to this subsection (4), a group health plan or a health insurance issuer shall:

(i) make the election on a uniform basis for all participants and beneficiaries; and

(ii) count a period of creditable coverage with respect to any class or category of benefits if any level of benefits is covered within the class or category.

(b) In the case of an election under this subsection (4), a group health plan shall:

(i) prominently state in a disclosure statement concerning the group health plan to each enrollee at the time of enrollment that the group health plan has made an election; and

(ii) include a description of the effect of the election in the statement.

(c) In the case of an election under this subsection (4), a health insurance issuer shall:

(i) prominently state in a disclosure statement concerning the health insurance coverage to each employer at the time of the offer or sale of the health insurance coverage that the health insurance issuer has made an election; and

(ii) include a description of the effect of the election in the statement.

(5) Periods of creditable coverage with respect to an individual must be established through presentation of certifications described in 33-22-142 or in such other manner as may be specified in regulations implementing Public Law 104-191.

History: En. Sec. 34, Ch. 416, L. 1997; amd. Sec. 4, Ch. 384, L. 2003.

33-22-142. Certification of creditable coverage. (1) A group health plan and a health insurance issuer offering group health insurance coverage shall issue the certification described in subsection (3):

(a) within 10 days after an individual ceases to be covered under the group health plan or otherwise becomes covered under a COBRA continuation provision;

(b) not later than 10 days after cancellation for nonpayment of premium is effective pursuant to the provisions of 33-22-530 or after termination of coverage for any other reason;

(c) in the case of an individual becoming covered under a COBRA continuation provision, at the time that the individual ceases to be covered under a COBRA continuation provision; and

(d) at the request on behalf of an individual made not later than 24 months after the date of termination of the coverage described in subsection (1)(a) or (1)(c), whichever is later.

(2) The certification pursuant to subsection (1)(a) may be provided, to the extent practicable, at a time consistent with notices required under any applicable COBRA continuation provision.

(3) Certification is the written:

(a) certification of the period of creditable coverage of the individual under a group health plan and the coverage under the COBRA continuation provision;

(b) certification of the waiting period, if any, and affiliation period, as defined in 33-31-102, if applicable, imposed with respect to the individual for any coverage under a group health plan;

(c) certification of the date of issuance of the certificate specified on the form; and

(d) notification to the individual of:

(i) the individual's option to apply to the Montana comprehensive health association, provided for in 33-22-1503, for an association portability plan, as defined in 33-22-1501, within 63 days of issuance of a certificate of creditable coverage;

(ii) the individual's conversion rights;

(iii) the availability of COBRA continuation coverage;

(iv) the telephone number and address of the Montana comprehensive health association; and

(v) other notification as determined necessary and in the form prescribed by rule by the commissioner.

(4) To the extent that medical care under a group health plan consists of group health insurance coverage, a group health plan satisfies the certification requirement of this section if the health insurance issuer offering the coverage provides the certification in accordance with this section.

(5) In the case of an election described in 33-22-141 by a group health plan or health insurance issuer, if the group health plan or health insurance issuer enrolls an individual for coverage under the group health plan and the individual provides a certification of coverage of the individual, the entity that issued the certification shall upon request of the group health plan or health insurance issuer promptly disclose information on coverage of classes and categories of health benefits available under the certified coverage. The entity may charge the requesting group health plan or health insurance issuer the reasonable cost of disclosing the information.

(6) This section applies to health insurance coverage offered by a health insurance issuer in the individual market in the same manner as it applies to health insurance coverage offered by a health insurance issuer in connection with a group health plan in the group market.

33-22-150. (Effective January 1, 2006) Reciprocal limitations on claim filing and claim audits — time limit for reimbursements or offsets — exceptions. (1) Except as provided in subsection (3), (4), or (5), if a health insurance issuer limits the time in which a health care provider or other person is required to submit a claim for payment, the health insurance issuer has the same time limit following payment of the claim to perform any review or audit for reconsidering the validity of the claim and requesting reimbursement for payment of an invalid claim or overpayment of a claim.

(2) Except as provided in subsection (3), (4), or (5), if a health insurance issuer does not limit the time in which a health care provider or other person is required to submit a claim for payment, a health insurance issuer may not request reimbursement or offset another claim payment for reimbursement of an invalid claim or overpayment of a claim more than 12 months after the payment of an invalid or overpaid claim.

(3) Regardless of the period allowed by a health insurance issuer for submission of claims for payment, a health insurance issuer may perform a review or audit to reconsider the validity of a claim and may request reimbursement for an invalid or overpaid claim within 12 months from the date upon which the health insurance issuer received notice of a determination, adjustment, or agreement regarding the amount payable with respect to a claim by:

(a) medicare;

(b) a workers' compensation insurer;

(c) another health insurance issuer or group health plan;

(d) a liable or potentially liable third party; or

(e) a foreign health insurance issuer under an agreement among plans operating in different states when the agreement provides for payment by the Montana health insurance issuer as host plan to Montana providers for services provided to an individual under a plan issued outside of the state of Montana.

(4) (a) The time limitations on the health insurance issuer in subsections (1) and (2) do not commence running until the time specified in subsection (4)(b) if a health insurance issuer pays a claim in which the health insurance issuer:

(i) suspects the health care provider or claimant of insurance fraud related to the claim; and

(ii) has reported evidence of fraud related to the claim to the commissioner pursuant to 33-1-1205.

(b) The time limitation commences running on the date that the commissioner determines that insufficient evidence of fraud exists.

(5) The time limitations on the health insurance issuer in subsections (1) and (2) do not commence running until the health insurance issuer has actual knowledge of an invalid claim, claim overpayment, or other incorrect payment if the health insurance issuer has paid a claim incorrectly because of an error, misstatement, misrepresentation, omission, or concealment, other than insurance fraud, by the health care provider or other person. Regardless of the date upon which the health insurance issuer obtains actual knowledge of an invalid claim, claim overpayment, or other incorrect payment, this subsection does not permit the health insurance issuer to request reimbursement or to offset another claim payment for reimbursement of the claim more than 24 months after payment of the claim.

Approval of forms by Commissioner, Title 33, ch. 1, part 5.

Life and disability insurance policy language simplification, 33-15-321 through 33-15-329.

33-22-201. Format and content. An individual policy of disability insurance may not be delivered or issued for delivery to any person in this state unless it otherwise complies with this code and complies with the following:

(1) The entire money and other considerations for the policy must be expressed in the policy.

(2) The time when the insurance takes effect and terminates must be expressed in the policy.

(3) The policy may insure only one person, except that a policy may insure, originally or by subsequent amendment, upon the application of an adult member of a family who is the policyholder, any two or more eligible members of that family, including husband, wife, dependent children or any children under a specified age that may not exceed 25 years, and any other person dependent upon the policyholder.

(4) The style, arrangement, and overall appearance of the policy may not give undue prominence to any portion of the text, and every printed portion of the text of the policy and of any endorsements or attached papers must be plainly printed in lightfaced type of a style in general use, the size of which must be uniform and not less than 10 point with a lowercase, unspaced alphabet length not less than 120 point.

(5) The "text" must include all printed matter except the name and address of the insurer, name or title of the policy, the brief description, if any, and captions and subcaptions.

(6) The exceptions and reductions of indemnity must be set forth in the policy and, other than those contained in 33-22-204 through 33-22-215 and 33-22-221 through 33-22-231, must be printed, at the insurer's option, either included with the benefit provision to which they apply or under an appropriate caption such as "Exceptions" or "Exceptions and Reductions", except that if an exception or reduction specifically applies only to a particular benefit of the policy, a statement of the exception or reduction must be included with the benefit provision to which it applies.

(7) The policy may not contain a provision purporting to make any portion of the charter, rules, constitution, or bylaws of the insurer a part of the policy unless the portion is set forth in full in the policy, except in the case of the incorporation of or reference to a statement of rates or classification of risks or short-rate table filed with the commissioner.

33-22-202. Required provisions — captions — omissions — substitutions — order. (1) Except as provided in subsection (2), each policy delivered or issued for delivery to any person in this state must contain the provisions specified in 33-22-204 through 33-22-215, as those provisions appear, except that the insurer may, at its option, substitute for one or more of the provisions corresponding provisions of different wording approved by the commissioner and not less favorable in any respect to the insured or the beneficiary. Each provision must be preceded by the applicable caption shown or, at the option of the insurer, by the appropriate individual or group captions or subcaptions as the commissioner may approve.

(2) If any provision is in whole or in part inapplicable to or inconsistent with the coverage provided by a particular form of policy, the insurer, with the approval of the commissioner, shall omit from the policy any inapplicable provision or part of a provision and shall modify any inconsistent provision or part of a provision in a manner as to make the provision as contained in the policy consistent with the coverage provided by the policy.

(3) The provisions that are the subject of 33-22-204 through 33-22-215 and 33-22-221 through 33-22-232 or any corresponding provisions which are used in accordance with the cited sections must be printed in the consecutive order of the provisions in the sections or, at the option of the insurer, any provision may appear as a unit in any part of the policy with other provisions to which it may be logically related, provided that the resulting policy is not in whole or in part unintelligible, uncertain, ambiguous, abstruse, or likely to mislead a person to whom the policy is offered, delivered, or issued.

33-22-203. Requirement of other jurisdictions — statutes — violation. (1) Any policy of a foreign or alien insurer, when delivered or issued for delivery to any person in this state, may contain any provision which is not less favorable to the insured or the beneficiary than the provisions of parts 1 through 4 of this chapter and which is prescribed or required by the law of the state or country under which the insurer is organized.

(2) Any policy of a domestic insurer may, when issued for delivery in any other state or country, contain any provision permitted or required by the laws of such other state or country.

(3) No policy provision which is not subject to parts 1 through 4 of this chapter shall make a policy, or any portion thereof, less favorable in any respect to the insured or the beneficiary than the provisions thereof which are subject to this chapter.

(4) A policy delivered or issued for delivery to any person in this state in violation of parts 1 through 4 of this chapter shall be held valid but shall be construed as provided in parts 1 through 4 of this chapter. When any provision in a policy subject to parts 1 through 4 of this chapter is in conflict with any provision of parts 1 through 4 of this chapter, the rights, duties, and obligations of the insurer, the insured, and the beneficiary shall be governed by the provisions of parts 1 through 4 of this chapter.

"Time Limit on Certain Defenses: (1) After 2 years from the date of issue of this policy no misstatements, except fraudulent misstatements, made by the applicant in the application for such policy shall be used to void the policy or to deny a claim for loss incurred or disability (as defined in the policy) commencing after the expiration of such 2-year period.

(2) No claim for loss incurred or disability (as defined in the policy) commencing after 2 years from the date of issue of this policy shall be reduced or denied on the ground that a disease or physical condition not excluded from coverage by name or specific description effective on the date of loss had existed prior to the effective date of coverage of this policy."

(2) Policy provision (1) of subsection (1) shall not be so construed as to affect any legal requirement for avoidance of a policy or denial of a claim during such initial 2-year period or to limit the application of 33-22-222 through 33-22-226 in the event of misstatement with respect to age or occupation or other insurance.

(3) A policy which the insured has the right to continue in force subject to its terms by the timely payment of premium until at least age 50 or, in the case of a policy issued after age 44, for at least 5 years from its date of issue, may contain in lieu of policy provision (1) of subsection (1) the following provision (from which the clause in parentheses may be omitted at the insurer's option) under the caption "Incontestable":

"After this policy has been in force for a period of 2 years during the lifetime of the insured (excluding any period during which the insured is disabled), it shall become incontestable as to the statements contained in the application."

33-22-206. Grace period. (1) There shall be a provision as follows:

"Grace Period: A grace period of .... (insert a number not less than 7 for weekly premium policies, 10 for monthly premium policies, and 31 for all other policies) days will be granted for the payment of each premium falling due after the first premium, during which grace period the policy shall continue in force."

(2) A policy in which the insurer reserves the right to refuse renewal shall have, at the beginning of the above provision:

"Unless not less than 30 days prior to the premium due date the insurer has delivered to the insured or has mailed to his last address as shown by the records of the insurer written notice of its intention not to renew this policy beyond the period for which the premium has been accepted."

33-22-207. Reinstatement. (1) There shall be a provision as follows:

"Reinstatement: If any renewal premium be not paid within the time granted the insured for payment, a subsequent acceptance of premium by the insurer or by any insurance producer duly authorized by the insurer to accept such premium, without requiring in connection therewith an application for reinstatement, shall reinstate the policy; provided, however, that if the insurer or such insurance producer requires an application for reinstatement and issues a conditional receipt for the premium tendered, the policy will be reinstated upon approval of such application by the insurer or, lacking such approval, upon the 45th day following the date of such conditional receipt unless the insurer has previously notified the insured in writing of its disapproval of such application. The reinstated policy shall cover only loss resulting from such accidental injury as may be sustained after the date of reinstatement and loss due to such sickness as may begin more than 10 days after such date. In all other respects the insured and insurer shall have the same rights thereunder as they had under the policy immediately before the due date of the defaulted premium, subject to any provisions endorsed hereon or attached hereto in connection with the reinstatement. Any premium accepted in connection with a reinstatement shall be applied to a period for which premium has not been previously paid, but not to any period more than 60 days prior to the date of reinstatement."

(2) The last sentence of the above provision may be omitted from any policy which the insured has the right to continue in force subject to its terms by the timely payment of premiums:

(a) until at least age 50; or

(b) in the case of a policy issued after age 44, for at least 5 years from its date of issue.

History: En. Sec. 357, Ch. 286, L. 1959; R.C.M. 1947, 40-4007; amd. Sec. 1, Ch. 713, L. 1989.

33-22-208. Notice of claim. (1) There shall be a provision as follows:

"Notice of Claim: Written notice of claim must be given to the insurer within 6 months after the occurrence or commencement of any loss covered by the policy or as soon thereafter as is reasonably possible. Notice given by or on behalf of the insured or the beneficiary to the insurer at .... (insert the location of such office as the insurer may designate for the purpose) or to any authorized insurance producer of the insurer, with information sufficient to identify the insured, shall be deemed notice to the insurer."

(2) In a policy providing a loss-of-time benefit which may be payable for at least 2 years, an insurer may at its option insert the following between the first and second sentences of the above provision:

"Subject to the qualifications set forth below, if the insured suffers loss of time on account of disability for which indemnity may be payable for at least 2 years, he shall, at least once in every 6 months after having given notice of the claim, give to the insurer notice of continuance of the disability, except in the event of legal incapacity. The period of 6 months following any filing of proof by the insured or any payment by the insurer on account of such claim or any denial of liability in whole or in part by the insurer shall be excluded in applying this provision. Delay in the giving of such notice shall not impair the insured's right to any indemnity which would otherwise have accrued during the period of 6 months preceding the date on which such notice is actually given."

33-22-209. Claim forms. There shall be a provision as follows:

"Claim Forms: The insurer, upon receipt of a notice of claim, will furnish to the claimant such forms as are usually furnished by it for filing proofs of loss. If such forms are not furnished within 15 days after the giving of such notice, the claimant shall be deemed to have complied with the requirements of this policy as to proof of loss upon submitting, within the time fixed in the policy for filing proofs of loss, written proof covering the occurrence, the character, and the extent of the loss for which claim is made."

History: En. Sec. 359, Ch. 286, L. 1959; R.C.M. 1947, 40-4009.

33-22-210. Proofs of loss. There shall be a provision as follows:

"Proofs of Loss: Written proof of loss must be furnished to the insurer at its said office in case of claim for loss for which this policy provides any periodic payment contingent upon continuing loss within 90 days after the termination of the period for which the insurer is liable and in case of claim for any other loss within 90 days after the date of such loss. Failure to furnish such proof within the time required shall not invalidate or reduce any claim if it was not reasonably possible to give proof within such time, provided such proof is furnished as soon as reasonably possible and in no event, except in the absence of legal capacity, later than 1 year from the time proof is otherwise required."

33-22-211. Time of payment of claims. There shall be a provision as follows:

"Time of Payment of Claims: Indemnities payable under this policy for any loss other than loss for which this policy provides any periodic payment will be paid immediately upon receipt of due written proof of such loss. Subject to due written proof of loss, all accrued indemnities for loss for which this policy provides periodic payment will be paid .... (insert period for payment which must not be less frequently than monthly), and any balance remaining unpaid upon the termination of liability will be paid immediately upon receipt of due written proof."

33-22-212. Payment of claims. (1) There shall be a provision as follows:

"Payment of Claims: Indemnity for loss of life will be payable in accordance with the beneficiary designation and the provisions respecting such payment which may be prescribed herein and effective at the time of payment. If no such designation or provision is then effective, such indemnity shall be payable to the estate of the insured. Any other accrued indemnities unpaid at the insured's death may, at the option of the insurer, be paid either to such beneficiary or to such estate. All other indemnities will be payable to the insured."

(2) The following provisions, or either of them, may be included with the foregoing provision at the option of the insurer:

"If any indemnity of this policy shall be payable to the estate of the insured or to an insured or beneficiary who is a minor or otherwise not competent to give a valid release, the insurer may pay such indemnity, up to an amount not exceeding $.... (insert an amount which shall not exceed $1,000), to any relative by blood or connection by marriage of the insured or beneficiary who is deemed by the insurer to be equitably entitled thereto. Any payment made by the insurer in good faith pursuant to this provision shall fully discharge the insurer to the extent of such payment.

Subject to any written direction of the insured in the application or otherwise, all or a portion of any indemnities provided by this policy on account of hospital, nursing, medical, or surgical services may, at the insurer's option and unless the insured requests otherwise in writing not later than the time of filing proof of such loss, be paid directly to the hospital or person rendering such services; but it is not required that the service be rendered by a particular hospital or person."

No such action shall be brought after the expiration of 3 years after the written proof of loss is required to be furnished."

History: En. Sec. 364, Ch. 286, L. 1959; R.C.M. 1947, 40-4014.

33-22-215. Change of beneficiary. (1) There shall be a provision as follows:

"Change of Beneficiary: Unless the insured makes an irrevocable designation of beneficiary, the right to change a beneficiary is reserved to the insured and the consent of the beneficiary or beneficiaries shall not be requisite to surrender or assignment of this policy or to any change of beneficiary or beneficiaries or to any other changes in this policy."

(2) The first clause of this provision, relating to the irrevocable designation of beneficiary, may be omitted at the insurer's option.

33-22-222. Change of occupation. There may be a provision as follows:

"Change of Occupation: If the insured be injured or contract sickness after having changed his occupation to one classified by the insurer as more hazardous than that stated in this policy or while doing for compensation anything pertaining to an occupation so classified, the insurer will pay only such portion of the indemnities provided in this policy as the premium paid would have purchased at the rates and within the limits fixed by the insurer for such more hazardous occupation. If the insured changes his occupation to one classified by the insurer as less hazardous than that stated in this policy, the insurer, upon receipt of proof of such change of occupation, will reduce the premium rate accordingly and will return the excess pro rata unearned premium from the date of change of occupation or from the policy anniversary date immediately preceding receipt of such proof, whichever is the more recent. In applying this provision, the classification of occupational risk and the premium rates shall be such as have been last filed by the insurer prior to the occurrence of the loss for which the insurer is liable or prior to date of proof of change in occupation with the state official having supervision of insurance in the state where the insured resided at the time this policy was issued; but if such filing was not required, then the classification of occupational risk and the premium rates shall be those last made effective by the insurer in such state prior to the occurrence of the loss or prior to the date of proof of change in occupation."

History: En. Sec. 367, Ch. 286, L. 1959; R.C.M. 1947, 40-4017.

33-22-223. Misstatement of age. There may be a provision as follows:

"Misstatement of Age: If the age of the insured has been misstated, all amounts payable under this policy shall be such as the premium paid would have purchased at the correct age."

History: En. Sec. 368, Ch. 286, L. 1959; R.C.M. 1947, 40-4018.

33-22-224. Other insurance in this insurer. (1) There may be a provision as follows:

"Other Insurance in This Insurer: If an accident or sickness or accident and sickness policy or policies previously issued by the insurer to the insured be in force concurrently herewith, making the aggregate indemnity for .... (insert type of coverage or coverages) in excess of $.... (insert maximum limit of indemnity or indemnities), the excess insurance shall be void and all premiums paid for such excess shall be returned to the insured or to his estate."

(2) Or, in lieu thereof:

"Insurance effective at any one time on the insured under a like policy or policies in this insurer is limited to the one such policy elected by the insured, his beneficiary, or his estate, as the case may be, and the insurer will return all premiums paid for all other such policies."

History: En. Sec. 369, Ch. 286, L. 1959; R.C.M. 1947, 40-4019.

33-22-225. Insurance with other insurers — provision of service or expense incurred basis. (1) There may be a provision as follows:

"Insurance with Other Insurers: If there be other valid coverage, not with this insurer, providing benefits for the same loss on a provision of service basis or on an expense incurred basis and of which this insurer has not been given written notice prior to the occurrence or commencement of loss, the only liability under any expense incurred coverage of this policy shall be for such proportion of the loss as the amount which would otherwise have been payable hereunder plus the total of the like amounts under all such other valid coverages for the same loss of which this insurer had notice bears to the total like amounts under all valid coverages for such loss and for the return of such portion of the premiums paid as shall exceed the pro rata portion for the amount so determined. For the purpose of applying this provision when other coverage is on a provision of service basis, the 'like amount' of such other coverage shall be taken as the amount which the services rendered would have cost in the absence of such coverage."

(2) If the foregoing policy provision is included in a policy which also contains the policy provision set out in 33-22-226, there shall be added to the caption of the foregoing provision the phrase "—Expense Incurred Benefits". The insurer may, at its option, include in this provision a definition of "other valid coverage", approved as to form by the commissioner, which definition shall be limited in subject matter to coverage provided by organizations subject to regulation by insurance law or by insurance authorities of this or any other state of the United States or any province of Canada and by hospital or medical service organizations and to any other coverage the inclusion of which may be approved by the commissioner. In the absence of such definition such term shall not include group insurance, automobile medical payments insurance, or coverage provided by hospital or medical service organizations or by union welfare plans or employer or employee benefit organizations. For the purpose of applying the foregoing policy provision with respect to any insured, any amount of benefit provided for such insured pursuant to any compulsory benefit statute, including any workers' compensation or employer's liability statute, whether provided by a governmental agency or otherwise shall in all cases be deemed to be "other valid coverage" of which the insurer has had notice. In applying the foregoing policy provision no third-party liability coverage shall be included as "other valid coverage".

33-22-226. Insurance with other insurers — other benefits. (1) There may be a provision as follows:

"Insurance with Other Insurers: If there be other valid coverage, not with this insurer, providing benefits for the same loss on other than an expense incurred basis and of which this insurer has not been given written notice prior to the occurrence or commencement of loss, the only liability for such benefits under this policy shall be for such proportion of the indemnities otherwise provided hereunder for such loss as the like indemnities of which the insurer had notice (including the indemnities under this policy) bear to the total amount of all like indemnities for such loss and for the return of such portion of the premium paid as shall exceed the pro rata portion for the indemnities thus determined."

(2) If the foregoing policy provision is included in a policy which also contains the policy provision set out in 33-22-225, there shall be added to the caption of the foregoing provision the phrase "—Other Benefits". The insurer may, at its option, include in this provision a definition of "other valid coverage", approved as to form by the commissioner, which definition shall be limited in subject matter to coverage provided by organizations subject to regulation by insurance law or by insurance authorities of this or any other state of the United States or any province of Canada and to any other coverage the inclusion of which may be approved by the commissioner. In the absence of such definition such term shall not include group insurance or benefits provided by union welfare plans or by employer or employee benefit organizations. For the purpose of applying the foregoing policy provision with respect to any insured, any amount of benefit provided for such insured pursuant to any compulsory benefit statute, including any workers' compensation or employer's liability statute, whether provided by a governmental agency or otherwise shall in all cases be deemed to be "other valid coverage" of which the insurer has had notice. In applying the foregoing policy provision no third-party liability coverage shall be included as "other valid coverage".

33-22-227. Relation of earnings to insurance. (1) There may be a provision as follows:

"Relation of Earnings to Insurance: If the total monthly amount of loss-of-time benefits promised for the same loss under all valid loss-of-time coverage upon the insured, whether payable on a weekly or monthly basis, shall exceed the monthly earnings of the insured at the time disability commenced or his average monthly earnings for the period of 2 years immediately preceding a disability for which claim is made, whichever is the greater, the insurer will be liable only for such proportionate amount of such benefits under this policy as the amount of such monthly earnings or such average monthly earnings of the insured bears to the total amount of monthly benefits for the same loss under all such coverage upon the insured at the time such disability commences and for the return of such part of the premiums paid during such 2 years as shall exceed the pro rata amount of the premiums for the benefits actually paid hereunder; but this shall not operate to reduce the total monthly amount of benefits payable under all such coverage upon the insured below the sum of $200 or the sum of the monthly benefits specified in such coverages, whichever is the lesser, nor shall it operate to reduce benefits other than those payable for loss of time."

(2) The foregoing policy provision may be inserted only in a policy which the insured has the right to continue in force subject to its terms by the timely payment of premiums until at least age 50, or in the case of a policy issued after age 44, for at least 5 years from its date of issue. The insurer may, at its option, include in this provision a definition of "valid loss of time coverage", approved as to form by the commissioner, which definition shall be limited in subject matter to coverage provided by governmental agencies or by organizations subject to regulation by insurance law or by insurance authorities of this or any other state of the United States or any province of Canada or to any other coverage the inclusion of which may be approved by the commissioner or any combination of such coverages. In the absence of such definition such term shall not include any coverage provided for such insured pursuant to any compulsory benefit statute, including any workers' compensation or employer's liability statute, or benefits provided by union welfare plans or by employer or employee benefit organizations.

33-22-229. Conformity with state statutes. There must be a provision or the equivalent thereto as follows:

"Conformity with Montana statutes: The provisions of this policy conform to the minimum requirements of Montana law and control over any conflicting statutes of any state in which the insured resides on or after the effective date of this policy."

History: En. Sec. 374, Ch. 286, L. 1959; R.C.M. 1947, 40-4024; amd. Sec. 10, Ch. 518, L. 1983; amd. Sec. 33, Ch. 798, L. 1991.

33-22-230. Illegal occupation. There may be a provision as follows:

"Illegal Occupation: The insurer shall not be liable for any loss to which a contributing cause was the insured's commission of or attempt to commit a felony or to which a contributing cause was the insured's being engaged in an illegal occupation."

History: En. Sec. 375, Ch. 286, L. 1959; R.C.M. 1947, 40-4025.

33-22-241. Definitions. As used in 33-22-242 and 33-22-243, unless the context indicates otherwise, the following definitions apply:

(1) "Block of business" means an individual disability insurance policy certificate or contract filed and approved by the commissioner pursuant to 33-1-501 and written and sold by a health care insurer to a defined set of individuals. All individuals covered by the policy or contract are considered to be within the block of business.

(2) "Health care insurer" means a disability insurer, a health service corporation, a health maintenance organization, or a fraternal benefit society.

(3) (a) "Individual health benefit plan" means any hospital or medical expense policy or certificate, subscriber contract, or contract of insurance provided by a prepaid hospital or medical service plan or health maintenance organization subscriber contract and issued for delivery to an individual.

(b) Individual health benefit plan does not include a self-funded group health plan; a self-funded multiemployer group health plan; a group conversion plan; an insured group health plan; accident-only, specified disease, short-term hospital or medical, hospital confinement indemnity, credit, dental, vision, medicare supplement, long-term care, or disability income insurance; coverage issued as a supplement to liability insurance; workers' compensation or similar insurance; or automobile medical payment insurance.

(4) "Qualifying previous coverage" means benefits or coverage provided under:

(a) medicare or medicaid;

(b) group health insurance or a health benefit plan that provides benefits similar to or exceeding benefits provided under the plan being applied for; or

(c) an individual health benefit plan, including coverage issued by a health maintenance organization, a prepaid hospital or medical care plan, or a fraternal benefit society, that provides benefits similar to or exceeding the plan being applied for.

History: En. Sec. 1, Ch. 527, L. 1995.

33-22-242. Waiver of preexisting condition exclusion — exclusion prohibited. (1) A health care insurer shall waive any time period applicable to a preexisting condition exclusion or limitation period with respect to particular services in an individual health benefit plan for the period of time that an individual was previously covered by qualifying previous coverage that provided benefits with respect to those services, if the qualifying previous coverage was continuous to a date not more than 30 days prior to the date of application for new coverage.

(2) A health care insurer that offers individual health insurance coverage to a federally defined eligible individual may not impose a preexisting condition exclusion with respect to that coverage.

History: En. Sec. 2, Ch. 527, L. 1995; amd. Sec. 7, Ch. 416, L. 1997.

33-22-243. Premium increases to be distributed proportionately. (1) A health care insurer may increase the health benefit plan charges for an individual policy, certificate, or contract previously issued by that insurer because of a change in the attained age of the insured. Increases in premium, certificate, or contract charges for individual policies, certificates, or contracts previously issued by that insurer, based on factors other than attained age, must be distributed proportionately across the block of business as defined in 33-22-241.

(2) As used in this section, the following definitions apply:

(a) (i) "Health benefit plan" means a hospital or medical policy or certificate providing for physical and mental health care issued by an insurance company, a fraternal benefit society, or a health service corporation or issued under a health maintenance organization subscriber contract.

(ii) Health benefit plan does not include:

(A) accident-only, credit, dental, vision, specified disease, medicare supplement, long-term care, or disability income insurance;

(B) coverage issued as a supplement to liability insurance, workers' compensation insurance, or similar insurance; or

(C) automobile medical payment insurance.

(b) "Health care insurer" or "insurer" means a disability insurer, a health service corporation, a health maintenance organization, or a fraternal benefit society.

(3) The provisions of Title 33, chapter 1, parts 3 and 7, apply to this section.

History: En. Sec. 3, Ch. 527, L. 1995.

33-22-244. Disclosure standards — individual policy. (1) In order to provide for full and fair disclosure in the sale of disability insurance, an individual disability insurance policy may not be delivered or issued for delivery in this state unless an outline of coverage is filed with and approved by the insurance commissioner in accordance with 33-1-501 and is delivered to the applicant at the time the application is made.

(2) The outline of coverage must include:

(a) a general description of the principal benefits and coverages provided by the policy;

(b) a general description of the insured's financial responsibility under the policy, including, if applicable, the amount of the deductible, the amount or percentage of copayment, and the maximum annual out-of-pocket expenses to be paid by the insured;

(c) a statement of the maximum lifetime benefit available under the policy;

(d) a statement of the estimated periodic premium to be paid by the insured;

(e) a general description of the factors or case characteristics that the insurer may consider in establishing or changing the premiums and, if applicable, in determining the insurability of the applicant;

(f) a prominently displayed statement of the insured's responsibility for payment of billed charges beyond those charges reimbursed by the insurer when the insured uses health care services from a health care provider who is outside a network of health care providers used by the insurer; and

(g) a general description of the trend of premium increases or decreases for comparable policies issued by the insurer during the preceding 5 years, if the trend data is available.

(3) The outline of coverage may include any other information that the insurer considers relevant to the applicant's selection of an appropriate individual disability policy.

(4) An insurer or producer shall provide to an individual, upon request, an outline of coverage for any health benefit product marketed to the general public. The outline of coverage provided under this subsection may exclude the statement of the estimated periodic premium to be paid by the insured.

History: En. Sec. 5, Ch. 527, L. 1995; amd. Sec. 2, Ch. 336, L. 2001.

33-22-245. Uniform health benefit plan — individual. (1) Each insurer or health service corporation delivering or issuing for delivery in this state a health benefit plan, as defined in 33-22-243, to an individual shall make available a uniform health benefit plan providing the benefits and services required in subsection (2).

(2) The uniform health benefit plan must:

(a) provide coverage for the services and articles required by 33-22-1521(2);

(b) pay 50% of the covered expenses in excess of an annual deductible that may not exceed $1,000 per person or $2,000 per family;

(c) include a limitation of $5,000 per person or $7,500 per family on the total annual out-of-pocket expenses for services covered; and

(d) be subject to a maximum lifetime benefit of $1 million.

(3) Except as provided in this section, a health insurance issuer may exclude any category of licensed health care practitioner and any benefit or coverage for health care services otherwise required by law or rule from an individual uniform health benefit plan delivered or issued for delivery in this state.

History: En. Sec. 8, Ch. 527, L. 1995; amd. Sec. 1, Ch. 504, L. 1997.

33-22-246. Preexisting conditions relating to individual market. (1) Except as provided in subsection (2), a health insurance issuer offering individual health insurance coverage may not exclude coverage for a preexisting condition unless:

(a) medical advice, diagnosis, care, or treatment was recommended to or received by the participant or beneficiary within the 3 years preceding the effective date of coverage; and

(b) coverage for the condition is excluded for not more than 12 months.

(2) A health insurance issuer offering health insurance coverage may not impose a preexisting condition exclusion on a federally defined eligible individual because of a preexisting condition.

History: En. Sec. 37, Ch. 416, L. 1997.

Cross-References

33-22-247. Guaranteed renewability of individual health insurance coverage. (1) Except as provided in this section, a health insurance issuer that provides individual health insurance coverage to an individual shall renew or continue the coverage in force at the option of the individual.

(2) A health insurance issuer may nonrenew or discontinue health insurance coverage of an individual in the individual market only if:

(a) the individual has failed to pay premiums or contributions in accordance with the terms of the health insurance coverage or if the health insurance issuer has not received timely premium payments;

(b) the individual has performed an act or practice that constitutes fraud or has made an intentional misrepresentation of a material fact under the terms of the coverage;

(c) the health insurance issuer is ceasing to offer coverage in the individual market in accordance with this section and applicable state law;

(d) in the case of a health insurance issuer that offers health insurance coverage in the individual market through a network plan, the individual no longer lives, resides, or works in the service area of the health insurance issuer or in an area for which the health insurance issuer is authorized to do business, but only if the coverage is terminated under this subsection (2)(d) uniformly without regard to any health status-related factor of covered individuals; or

(e) in the case of health insurance coverage that is made available in the individual market only through one or more bona fide associations, as defined in 33-22-1803, the membership of the individual in the bona fide association ceases, but only if the coverage is terminated under this subsection (2)(e) uniformly without regard to any health status-related factor of a covered individual.

(3) A health insurance issuer may not discontinue offering a particular type of individual health insurance coverage offered in the individual market unless in accordance with applicable state law and unless:

(a) the health insurance issuer gives notice to each covered individual provided coverage of this type in the individual market of the discontinuation at least 90 days prior to the date of the discontinuation of the coverage;

(b) the health insurance issuer offers to each individual in the individual market provided coverage of this type the option to purchase any other individual health coverage currently being offered by the health insurance issuer to individuals in the individual market; and

(c) in exercising the option to discontinue coverage of this type and in offering the option of coverage under subsection (3)(b), the health insurance issuer acts uniformly, without regard to the claims experience of individuals or any health status-related factor of individuals who may become eligible for the coverage.

(4) (a) A health insurance issuer may not discontinue offering all health insurance coverage in the individual market unless in accordance with applicable state law and unless:

(i) the health insurance issuer provides notice of discontinuation to the commissioner and each covered individual at least 180 days prior to the date of the discontinuation of coverage; and

(ii) all health insurance issued or delivered for issuance in Montana in the individual market is discontinued and coverage under the health insurance coverage in the individual market is not renewed.

(b) In the case of a discontinuation under subsection (4)(a) in the individual market, the health insurance issuer may not provide for the issuance of any health insurance coverage in the individual market during the 5-year period beginning on the date of the discontinuation of the last health insurance coverage not renewed.

(5) A health insurance issuer may modify upon renewal health insurance coverage for a policy form offered to individuals in the individual market if the modification is consistent with applicable state law and effective on a uniform basis among all individuals with that policy form.

(6) In the case of health insurance coverage that is made available by a health insurance issuer in the individual market to individuals only through one or more bona fide associations, references to "individual" under this section include a reference to the bona fide association of which the individual is a member.

33-22-262. (Temporary) Limited coverage individual health benefit plan or managed care plan — demonstration project — criteria — rulemaking. (1) The commissioner of insurance may approve a 12-month demonstration project that allows a health insurance issuer to offer a limited coverage individual health benefit plan or managed care plan. The criteria for approval of a 12-month demonstration project include but are not limited to the following:

(a) the plan must include significant outpatient services and may not consist of inpatient benefits only;

(b) the plan may be offered only to residents of Montana who have been uninsured for 90 days or longer, except that at the discretion of the health insurance issuer, the plan may be offered to residents of Montana if the applicant:

(i) lost eligibility for a health plan because of age; or

(ii) lost coverage under a federally funded health insurance program, such as medicare, medicaid, or the Montana children's health insurance program, because of age or failure to meet financial guidelines; and

(c) the commissioner may adopt rules that describe additional criteria to be used to determine approval of demonstration projects. Additional criteria must relate to the purpose as stated in 33-22-261(2).

(2) The health benefit plan or managed care plan must specify the health services that are included and must specifically list the health services that will be limited or not be covered from the partial list of state-required coverage in subsection (3). The limitations and exclusions of the plan must be prominently displayed on the application and on the outline of coverage required by 33-22-244.

(3) Subject to subsection (4), if specifically listed as a limitation or an exclusion of coverage in the proposal, a demonstration project may limit or exclude the following health services from its health benefit plan or managed care plan:

(a) coverage of a newborn, as provided in 33-22-301, 33-30-1001, and 33-31-301(3)(e), which may be subject only to the same extent of the limitations and exclusions contained in the parent's policy;

(b) coverage for severe mental illness, as provided in 33-22-706;

(c) coverage for mental health services, as provided in 33-31-301(3)(g)(i);

(d) benefits for emergency services, as provided in 33-36-201 and 33-36-205;

(e) coverage for certain basic health care services described in 33-31-102(2)(b) and (2)(h)(v);

(f) services provided by a specific category of licensed health care practitioner to be provided to the covered person for a health-related condition in a health benefit plan or managed care plan, including services described in 33-22-125 and 33-30-1017;

(g) coverage for diabetic education, treatment, services, and supplies, as provided in 33-22-129; or

(h) coverage for treatment of inborn errors of metabolism, as provided in 33-22-131.

(4) All health benefit plan and managed care plan demonstration projects are subject to the following provisions:

(a) the requirement that any plan that covers physical illness generally must cover severe mental illness in a way that is no less favorable than that level provided for other physical illness generally as required by federal law;

(b) the prohibition against discrimination in 49-2-309;

(c) except as provided in subsection (3)(d), the provisions in Title 33, chapter 36, regarding network adequacy and quality assurance; and

(d) all other applicable provisions of Title 33, except those listed in subsection (3).

(5) Upon a renewal request and approval by the insurance commissioner, a demonstration project may be renewed for additional 12-month increments for a maximum total of 5 years. (Terminates June 30, 2009—sec. 14, Ch. 325, L. 2003.)

Compiler's Comments

2005 Amendment: Chapter 174 in (1)(b) after "longer" inserted exception clause allowing plan to be offered to residents of Montana under certain conditions; inserted (1)(b)(i) and (1)(b)(ii) allowing plan to be offered to Montana resident applicant if applicant lost eligibility for health plan because of age or if applicant lost coverage under federally funded health insurance program because of age or failure to meet financial guidelines; inserted (3)(g) allowing demonstration project to limit or exclude coverage for diabetic education, treatment, services, and supplies; inserted (3)(h) allowing demonstration project to limit or exclude coverage for treatment of inborn errors of metabolism; and made minor changes in style. Amendment April 8, 2005.

Applicability: Section 3, Ch. 174, L. 2005, provided: "[This act] applies to limited coverage individual health benefit plans and limited coverage managed care plans issued, renewed, or amended after [the effective date of this act]." Effective April 8, 2005.

33-22-263. (Temporary) Requirements of demonstration project. Any health insurance issuer that participates in the demonstration project must:

(1) collect health risk assessment information at enrollment and reenrollment, which must be collected without reference to an individual, must allow individuals to remain anonymous, and must be reported to the commissioner only in the aggregate; and

(2) collect information on any uncompensated care that was received by the covered person directly related to the exclusion of benefits under 33-22-262. (Terminates June 30, 2009—sec. 14, Ch. 325, L. 2003.)

Part 3
Requirements for Certain Individual Coverages

33-22-301. (Temporary) Coverage of newborn under disability policy. (1) Except as provided in 33-22-262, each policy of disability insurance or certificate issued must contain a provision granting immediate accident and sickness coverage, from and after the moment of birth, to each newborn infant of any insured.

(2) The coverage for newborn infants must be the same as provided by the policy for the other covered persons. However, for newborn infants there may not be waiting or elimination periods. A deductible or reduction in benefits applicable to the coverage for newborn infants is not permissible unless it conforms and is consistent with the deductible or reduction in benefits applicable to all other covered persons.

(3) Except as provided in 33-22-262, a policy or certificate of insurance may not be issued or amended in this state if it contains any disclaimer, waiver, or other limitation of coverage relative to the accident and sickness coverage or insurability of newborn infants of an insured from and after the moment of birth.

(4) The policy or contract may require notification of the birth of a child and payment of a required premium or subscription fee to be furnished to the insurer or nonprofit or indemnity corporation within 31 days of the birth in order to have the coverage extend beyond 31 days. (Terminates June 30, 2009—sec. 14, Ch. 325, L. 2003.)

33-22-301. (Effective July 1, 2009) Coverage of newborn under disability policy. (1) Each policy of disability insurance or certificate issued must contain a provision granting immediate accident and sickness coverage, from and after the moment of birth, to each newborn infant of any insured.

(2) The coverage for newborn infants must be the same as provided by the policy for the other covered persons. However, that for newborn infants there may not be waiting or elimination periods. A deductible or reduction in benefits applicable to the coverage for newborn infants is not permissible unless it conforms and is consistent with the deductible or reduction in benefits applicable to all other covered persons.

(3) A policy or certificate of insurance may not be issued or amended in this state if it contains any disclaimer, waiver, or other limitation of coverage relative to the accident and sickness coverage or insurability of newborn infants of an insured from and after the moment of birth.

(4) The policy or contract may require notification of the birth of a child and payment of a required premium or subscription fee to be furnished to the insurer or nonprofit or indemnity corporation within 31 days of the birth in order to have the coverage extend beyond 31 days.

33-22-302. Age limits — effect on coverage. If any such policy contains a provision establishing, as an age limit or otherwise, a date after which the coverage provided by the policy will not be effective and if such date falls within a period for which premium is accepted by the insurer or if the insurer accepts a premium after such date, the coverage provided by the policy will continue in force subject to any right of cancellation until the end of the period for which premium has been accepted. In the event the age of the insured has been misstated and if, according to the correct age of the insured, the coverage provided by the policy would not have become effective or would have ceased prior to the acceptance of such premium or premiums, then the liability of the insurer shall be limited to the refund, upon request, of all premiums paid for the period not covered by the policy.

33-22-303. Coverage for well-child care. (1) Each medical expense policy of disability insurance or certificate issued under the policy that is delivered, issued for delivery, renewed, extended, or modified in this state by a disability insurer and that provides coverage for a family member of the insured or subscriber must provide coverage for well-child care for children from the moment of birth through 2 years of age. Benefits provided under this coverage are exempt from any deductible provision that may be in force in the policy or certificate issued under the policy.

(2) Coverage for well-child care under subsection (1) must include:

(a) a history, physical examination, developmental assessment, anticipatory guidance, and laboratory tests, according to the schedule of visits adopted under the early and periodic screening, diagnosis, and treatment services program provided for in 53-6-101; and

(b) routine immunizations according to the schedule for immunizations recommended by the immunization practices advisory committee of the U.S. department of health and human services.

(3) Minimum benefits may be limited to one visit payable to one provider for all of the services provided at each visit cited in this section.

(4) This section does not apply to disability income, specified disease, accident-only, medicare supplement, or hospital indemnity policies.

(5) For purposes of this section:

(a) "well-child care" means the services described in subsection (2) and delivered by a physician or a health care professional supervised by a physician; and

(b) "developmental assessment" and "anticipatory guidance" mean the services described in the Guidelines for Health Supervision II, published by the American academy of pediatrics.

(6) When a policy of disability insurance or a certificate issued under the policy provides coverage or benefits to a resident of this state, it is considered to be delivered in this state within the meaning of this section, whether the insurer that issued or delivered the policy or certificate is located inside or outside of this state.

33-22-304. Continuation of coverage for individuals with disabilities — individual contracts. (1) An individual hospital or medical expense insurance policy or hospital or medical service plan contract delivered or issued for delivery in this state that provides that coverage of a dependent child terminates upon attainment of the limiting age for dependent children specified in the policy or contract must also provide in substance that attainment of the limiting age may not operate to terminate the coverage of the child while the child is and continues to be both incapable of self-sustaining employment by reason of mental retardation or physical disability and chiefly dependent upon the policyholder or subscriber for support and maintenance. Proof of retardation or the disability and dependency must be furnished to the insurer or hospital or medical service plan corporation by the policyholder or subscriber within 31 days of the child's attainment of the limiting age and subsequently as may be required by the insurer or corporation. Proof may not be required more frequently than annually after the 2-year period following the child's attainment of the limiting age.

(2) Notwithstanding any other exemption or contrary law, the provisions of this section have equal application to hospital or medical expense insurance policies and hospital and medical service plan contracts.

33-22-305. Short title. Sections 33-22-305 through 33-22-311 may be cited as the "Individual Family Disability Insurance Continuity of Coverage Act".

History: En. Sec. 1, Ch. 245, L. 1981.

33-22-306. Purpose. The purpose of 33-22-305 through 33-22-311 is to provide for the right of covered family members under individual family disability insurance policies to continuity of coverage upon the death of the named insured, the divorce, annulment of marriage, or legal separation of the spouse from the named insured, or any other condition specifically stated in such disability insurance policies under which coverage would otherwise terminate as to the covered spouse or covered dependent children of the named insured.

History: En. Sec. 2, Ch. 245, L. 1981.

33-22-307. Continuity of coverage. (1) Subject to the requirements of 33-22-305 through 33-22-311 and on the date specified in the policy under which coverage otherwise terminates because of the death of the named insured or for any other reason specified in 33-22-306, as to covered family members, other than for nonpayment of premium, nonrenewal of the policy, or the expiration of the term for which the policy is issued, a covered person, other than one eligible for medicare or any other similar federal or state disability insurance program, including the spouse and any covered dependent child of the last-named insured or the representative of the child, has the right to continuation of coverage under provisions that, at the option of the carrier, are consistent with:

(a) the continuation of the policy, with the person exercising the right of continuation designated as the named insured;

(b) the issuance of a converted policy with the person exercising the conversion right designated as the named insured; or

(c) both (1)(a) and (1)(b).

(2) When continuation of coverage or conversion is made in the name of the spouse of the named insured, the coverage may, at the option of the spouse, include covered dependent children for whom the spouse has the responsibility for care and support.

History: En. Sec. 3, Ch. 245, L. 1981; amd. Sec. 43, Ch. 472, L. 1999.

33-22-308. Form of coverage — requirements — evidence of insurability — preexisting conditions. (1) Coverage continued through the issuance of a converted policy shall consist of the form of coverage then being offered by the carrier as a conversion policy in the jurisdiction where the person exercising the conversion right resides that most nearly approximates the coverage of the policy from which conversion is exercised. Continued and converted coverages, other than those provided through the exercise of continuation or conversion rights contained in optionally renewable or limited right of renewal contracts, must contain:

(a) provisions allowing the person exercising the continuation or conversion the right to renew the coverage until the attainment of the age of eligibility for medicare or any other similar federal or state disability insurance program, subject to the right of the carrier to nonrenew all such policies in this state as a class; or

(b) other renewal provisions that are not less favorable to the insured than those contained in the policy from which conversion is exercised.

(2) Coverage provided through continuation or conversion may not require additional evidence of insurability except as to overinsurance and may not impose any preexisting condition limitations or other contractual time limitations other than those remaining unexpired under the policy or contract from which continuation or conversion is exercised.

History: En. Sec. 4, Ch. 245, L. 1981.

33-22-309. Notice. The eligible covered family member exercising the continuation or conversion right must notify the carrier and make payment of the applicable premium within 31 days following the date such coverage otherwise terminates as specified in the policy or contract from which continuation or conversion is being exercised.

History: En. Sec. 5, Ch. 245, L. 1981.

33-22-310. Nonduplication. Benefits otherwise payable under a converted policy may be reduced:

(1) so they are not, during the first policy year of the converted policy, in excess of those benefits that would have been payable had the coverage under the policy from which conversion is exercised not terminated; and

(2) by the amount of benefits, if any, payable as to the same loss under the policy from which conversion is exercised.

History: En. Sec. 6, Ch. 245, L. 1981.

33-22-311. Overinsurance. The carrier is not required to issue a converted policy if at the time of application the applicant:

(1) (a) has coverage under other disability insurance policies, health service corporation contracts, or self-insured health benefit plans providing similar benefits;

(b) is eligible for coverage under a group policy or contract providing similar benefits;

(c) is provided with similar benefits required by any statute; or

(d) is covered under any national, state, or governmental plan; and

(2) has coverage under subsection (1) that, together with the converted policy, would result in overinsurance according to the carrier's underwriting standards.

History: En. Sec. 7, Ch. 245, L. 1981.

Part 4
Franchise Disability Insurance

33-22-401. Franchise disability insurance. (1) Disability insurance on a franchise plan is hereby declared to be that form of disability insurance:

(a) issued to:

(i) 5 or more employees of any corporation, partnership, or individual employer or any governmental corporation, agency, or department thereof; or

(ii) 10 or more members, employees, or employees of members of any trade or professional association or of a labor union or of any other association having had an active existence for at least 2 years where such association or union has a constitution or bylaws and is formed in good faith for purposes other than that of obtaining insurance;

(b) where such persons, with or without their dependents, are issued the same form of an individual policy varying only as to amounts and kinds of coverage applied for by such persons under an arrangement whereby the premiums on such policies may be paid to the insurer periodically by the employer, with or without payroll deductions, or by the association for its members or by some designated person acting on behalf of such employer, association, or union.

(2) The term "employees" as used herein may be deemed to include the officers, managers, and employees and retired employees of the employer and the individual proprietor or partners if the employer is an individual proprietor or partnership.

History: En. Sec. 383, Ch. 286, L. 1959; R.C.M. 1947, 40-4033.

Part 5
Group Disability Insurance

33-22-501. Group disability insurance defined — eligible groups. Group disability insurance is that form of disability insurance covering groups of persons as defined in this section, with or without one or more members of their families or one or more of their dependents, or covering one or more members of the families or one or more dependents of the groups of persons and issued upon the following bases:

(1) under a policy issued to an employer or trustees of a fund established by an employer, who must be considered the policyholder, insuring employees of the employer for the benefit of persons other than the employer. The term "employees" as used in this subsection includes the officers, managers, and employees of the employer, the individual proprietor or partner if the employer is an individual proprietor or partnership, the officers, managers, and employees of subsidiary or affiliated corporations, the individual proprietors, partners, and employees of individuals and firms, if the business of the employer and the individual or firm is under common control through stock ownership, contract, or otherwise. The term "employees" as used in this subsection may include retired employees. A policy issued to insure employees of a public body may provide that the term "employees" includes elected or appointed officials. The policy may provide that the term "employees" includes the trustees or their employees, or both, if their duties are principally connected with the trusteeship.

(2) under a policy issued to an association, including a labor union, that has been organized and is maintained in good faith for purposes other than that of obtaining insurance or of insuring members, employees, or employees of members of the association for the benefit of persons other than the association or its officers or trustees. The term "employees" as used in this subsection may include retired employees.

(3) under a policy issued to the trustees of a fund established by two or more employers in the same or related industry or by one or more labor unions or by one or more employers and one or more labor unions or by an association as defined in subsection (2), in which the trustees are considered the policyholder, to insure employees of the employers or members of the unions or of the association or employees of members of the association for the benefit of persons other than the employers or the unions or the association. The term "employees" as used in this subsection may include the officers, managers, and employees of the employer and the individual proprietor or partners if the employer is an individual proprietor or partnership. The term "employees" as used in this subsection may include retired employees. The policy may provide that the term "employees" includes the trustees or their employees, or both, if their duties are principally connected with the trusteeship.

(4) under a policy issued to any person or organization to which a policy of group life insurance may be issued or delivered in this state to insure any class or classes of individuals that could be insured under a group life policy;

(5) under a policy issued to a voluntary purchasing pool or to the member employers of a voluntary purchasing pool that is formed solely for the purpose of obtaining insurance as provided in 33-22-1815;

(6) under a policy issued to cover any other substantially similar group that, in the discretion of the commissioner, may be subject to the issuance of a group disability policy or contract.

History: En. Sec. 385, Ch. 286, L. 1959; amd. Sec. 3, Ch. 74, L. 1973; amd. Sec. 3, Ch. 83, L. 1974; R.C.M. 1947, 40-4101(intro.), (1) thru (5); amd. Sec. 1, Ch. 375, L. 1995.

33-22-502. Required provisions of group policies. Each group disability insurance policy delivered or issued for delivery in this state must contain in substance the following provisions:

(1) a provision that, in the absence of fraud, all statements made by applicants or the policyholder or by an insured person shall be deemed representations and not warranties and that no statement made for the purpose of effecting insurance shall avoid such insurance or reduce benefits unless contained in a written instrument signed by the policyholder or the insured person, a copy of which has been furnished to such policyholder or to such person or his beneficiary;

(2) a provision that the insurer will furnish to the policyholder for delivery to each employee or member of the insured group a statement in summary form of the essential features of the insurance coverage of such employee or member and to whom benefits thereunder are payable. If dependents are included in the coverage, only one certificate need be issued for each family unit.

(3) a provision that to the group originally insured may be added from time to time eligible new employees or members or dependents, as the case may be, in accordance with the terms of the policy;

(4) a provision or the equivalent thereto that reads:

"Conformity with Montana statutes. The provisions of this policy conform to the minimum requirements of Montana law and control over any conflicting statutes of any state in which the insured resides on or after the effective date of this policy."

History: En. Sec. 386, Ch. 286, L. 1959; amd. Sec. 4, Ch. 74, L. 1973; amd. Sec. 4, Ch. 83, L. 1974; R.C.M. 1947, 40-4102(part); amd. Sec. 11, Ch. 798, L. 1991.

33-22-504. Newborn infant coverage. (1) A group disability policy or certificate of insurance delivered or issued for delivery in this state may not be issued or amended in this state if it contains any disclaimer, waiver, preexisting condition exclusion, or other limitation of coverage relative to the accident and sickness coverage or insurability of newborn infants of persons covered under the policy from and after the moment of birth.

(2) A policy or certificate subject to this section, must contain a provision granting immediate accident and sickness coverage, from and after the moment of birth, to each newborn infant of any person covered under the policy.

(3) The coverage for newborn infants must be the same as provided by the policy for other covered persons. However, for newborn infants there may not be waiting or elimination periods. A deductible or reduction in benefits applicable to the coverage for newborn infants is not permissible unless it conforms and is consistent with the deductible or reduction in benefits applicable to all other covered persons.

(4) This section does not apply to medicare supplement policies issued by reason of age.

(5) When a group disability policy or certificate issued under the policy provides for coverage or benefits for a resident of this state, the policy or certificate is considered delivered in this state within the meaning of this section regardless of whether the insurer issuing the policy or certificate is located in this state.

(6) The policy or certificate may require notification of the birth of a child and payment of a required premium or subscription fee to be furnished to the insurer or nonprofit or indemnity corporation within 31 days of the birth in order to have the coverage extend beyond 31 days.

Any group disability policy may on request by the group policyholder provide that all or any portion of any indemnities provided by any such policy on account of hospital, nursing, medical, or surgical services may, at the insurer's option, be paid directly to the hospital or person rendering such services; but the policy may not require that the service be rendered by a particular hospital or person. Payment so made shall discharge the insurer's obligation with respect to the amount of insurance so paid.

33-22-506. Continuation of coverage for persons with disabilities — group contracts. (1) A group hospital or medical expense insurance policy or hospital or medical service plan contract delivered or issued for delivery in this state that provides that coverage of a dependent child of an employee or other member of the covered group terminates upon attainment of the limiting age for dependent children specified in the policy or contract must also provide in substance that attainment of the limiting age may not operate to terminate the coverage of the child while the child is and continues to be both incapable of self-sustaining employment by reason of mental retardation or physical disability and chiefly dependent upon the employee or member for support and maintenance. Proof of retardation or the disability and dependency must be furnished to the insurer or hospital or medical service plan corporation by the employee or member within 31 days of the child's attainment of the limiting age and subsequently as may be required by the insurer or corporation. Proof may not be required more frequently than annually after the 2-year period following the child's attainment of the limiting age.

(2) Notwithstanding any other exemption or contrary law, the provisions of this section have equal application to hospital or medical expense insurance policies and hospital and medical service plan contracts.

33-22-507. Continuing group coverage after reduction of work schedule. A person covered by a group disability insurance policy issued or renewed after October 1, 1981, under 33-22-501(1) may, for a period of 1 year, with the consent of the employer or the trustees, continue coverage under group disability policy during his employment notwithstanding any reduction of his regular work schedule to less than the minimum time required to qualify for membership in the group, and the premium charged him shall be equal to that charged other members of the group of the same risk class.

History: En. Sec. 3, Ch. 579, L. 1981.

33-22-508. Conversion on termination of eligibility. (1) A group disability insurance policy or certificate of insurance delivered or issued for delivery or renewed after October 1, 1981, must contain a provision that if the insurance or any portion of the insurance on a person or the person's dependents or family members covered under the policy ceases because of termination of the person's membership in a group eligible for coverage under the policy, because of termination of the person's employment, as a result of a person's employer discontinuing the employer's business, or as a result of a person's employer discontinuing the group disability insurance policy and not providing for any other group disability insurance or plan and if the person had been insured for a period of 3 months and the person is not insured under another major medical disability insurance policy or plan, the person is entitled to have issued to the person by the insurer, without evidence of insurability, group disability coverage or an individual disability policy or, in the absence of an individual disability policy issued by the insurer, a group disability policy issued by the insurer on the person or on the person's dependents or family members if application for the individual policy is made and the first premium tendered to the insurer within 31 days after the termination of the group coverage.

(2) A group insurer may meet the requirements of this section by contracting with another insurer to issue conversion policies as described in subsections (5) and (6). The conversion carrier must be authorized to act as an insurer in this state, and the commissioner shall approve the conversion policies pursuant to 33-1-501.

(3) The individual policy or group policy, at the option of the insured, may be on any form then customarily issued by the insurer to individual or group policyholders, with the exception of a policy the eligibility for which is determined by affiliation other than by employment with a common entity. In addition, the insurer or conversion carrier shall make available a conversion policy as required by subsection (6).

(4) The premium for the individual policy or group policy must be at no more than 200% of the insurer's customary rate applicable to the group policy being terminated at the time of the conversion. If the person entitled to conversion under this section has been insured for more than 3 years, the premium may not be more than 150% of the customary rate of the policy being terminated at the time of the conversion. The customary rate is that rate that is normally issued for medically underwritten policies without discount for healthy lifestyles.

(5) A conversion carrier shall offer an individual or group conversion policy that provides the same schedule of benefits and covers the same eligible expenses as those being terminated. The premium for the policy must be calculated as described in subsection (4).

(6) The insurer or conversion carrier shall also make available a conversion policy, certificate, or membership contract that provides at least the level of benefits provided by the insurer's lowest cost basic health benefit plan, as defined in 33-22-1803. If the insurer or conversion carrier is not a small employer carrier under part 18, the insurer shall make available a conversion policy, certificate, or membership contract that provides equivalent benefits to a basic health benefit plan as provided in 33-22-1827. The conversion rate may not exceed 150% of the highest rate charged for that plan. This subsection does not apply to disability plans that provide only excepted benefits as defined in 33-22-140.

(7) The effective date and time of the conversion policy must be established to ensure that there is no break in coverage between the termination of the group policy coverage and the inception of the conversion policy.

33-22-510. Insured's family — conversion entitlement. Subject to the conditions set forth in this section, the conversion privilege is also available:

(1) to the surviving spouse, if any, at the death of the employee or member, with respect to the spouse and such children whose coverage under the group policy terminates by reason of such death, otherwise to each surviving child whose coverage under the group policy terminates by reason of such death, or if the group policy provides for continuation of dependent's coverage following the employee's or member's death, at the end of such continuation;

(2) to the spouse of the employee or member upon termination of coverage of the spouse, by reason of ceasing to be a qualified family member under the group policy, while the employee or member remains under the group policy, including such children whose coverage under the group policy terminates at the same time; or

(3) to a child solely with respect to himself upon termination of his coverage by reason of ceasing to be a qualified family member under the group policy, if a conversion privilege is not otherwise provided above with respect to such termination.

33-22-511. Applicability. Notwithstanding any provision of Title 33 or other law to the contrary, it shall be lawful for an insurer and insured to agree to any terms in an insurance contract that provides more favorable terms for the benefit of the insured than authorized in Title 33 or other provisions of law.

History: En. Sec. 9, Ch. 579, L. 1981.

33-22-512. Coverage for well-child care. (1) Each group disability policy or certificate of insurance that is delivered, issued for delivery, renewed, extended, or modified in this state by a disability insurer and that provides coverage for a family member of the insured or subscriber must provide coverage for well-child care for children from the moment of birth through 2 years of age. Benefits provided under this coverage are exempt from any deductible provision that may be in force in the policy or certificate issued under the policy.

(2) Coverage for well-child care under subsection (1) must include:

(a) a history, physical examination, developmental assessment, anticipatory guidance, and laboratory tests, according to the schedule of visits adopted under the early and periodic screening, diagnosis, and treatment services program provided for in 53-6-101; and

(b) routine immunizations according to the schedule for immunizations recommended by the immunization practices advisory committee of the U.S. department of health and human services.

(3) Minimum benefits may be limited to one visit payable to one provider for all of the services provided at each visit cited in this section.

(4) This section does not apply to disability income, specified disease, accident-only, medicare supplement, or hospital indemnity policies or certificates.

(5) For purposes of this section:

(a) "well-child care" means the services described in subsection (2) and delivered by a physician or a health care professional supervised by a physician; and

(b) "developmental assessment" and "anticipatory guidance" mean the services described in the Guidelines for Health Supervision II, published by the American academy of pediatrics.

(6) When a group disability policy or certificate of insurance issued under the policy provides coverage or benefits to a resident of this state, it is considered to be delivered in this state within the meaning of this section, whether the insurer that issued or delivered the policy or certificate is located inside or outside of this state.

History: En. Sec. 2, Ch. 199, L. 1991; amd. Sec. 40, Ch. 380, L. 2003.

33-22-513. Limitation of eligibility on conversion. A person who purchases a policy of insurance under 33-22-508 ceases to be eligible for a conversion policy if the person insured by the policy:

(1) becomes eligible for medicare part A and part B, pursuant to Title XVIII of the federal Social Security Act, 42 U.S.C. 1395;

(2) fails to pay the premium on the policy purchased under 33-22-508;

(3) enrolls under another major medical disability insurance policy or plan, except that the person may maintain the conversion policy during any waiting period established under any new disability insurance policy or plan that the insured person purchases.

History: En. Sec. 3, Ch. 200, L. 1991.

33-22-514. Preexisting conditions relating to group market. (1) A group health plan or a health insurance issuer offering group health insurance coverage may not exclude coverage for a preexisting condition unless:

(a) medical advice, diagnosis, care, or treatment was recommended or received by the participant or beneficiary within the 6-month period ending on the enrollment date;

(b) exclusion of coverage extends for a period of not more than 12 months or 18 months in the case of a late enrollee; and

(c) the period of the preexisting condition exclusion is reduced by the aggregate of the periods of creditable coverage applicable to the participant or beneficiary as of the enrollment date.

(2) Genetic information may not be excluded as a preexisting condition in the absence of a diagnosis of the condition related to the genetic information.

(3) Pregnancy may not be excluded as a preexisting condition.

History: En. Sec. 39, Ch. 416, L. 1997; amd. Sec. 44, Ch. 472, L. 1999.

33-22-521. Disclosure standards — group policy. (1) In order to provide for full and fair disclosure in the sale of disability insurance, a group disability insurance policy may not be delivered or issued for delivery in this state unless an outline of coverage is filed with and approved by the insurance commissioner in accordance with 33-1-501 and is delivered to the applicant at the time the application is made.

(2) The outline of coverage must include:

(a) a general description of the principal benefits and coverages provided by the policy;

(b) a general description of the insured's financial responsibility under the policy, including, if applicable, the amount of the deductible, the amount or percentage of copayment, and the maximum annual out-of-pocket expenses to be paid by the insured;

(c) a statement of the maximum lifetime benefit available under the policy;

(d) a statement of the estimated periodic premium to be paid by the insured;

(e) a general description of the factors or case characteristics that the insurer may consider in establishing or changing the premiums and, if applicable, in determining the insurability of the applicant;

(f) a prominently displayed statement of the insured's responsibility for payment of billed charges beyond those charges reimbursed by the insurer when the insured uses health care services from a health care provider who is outside a network of health care providers used by the insurer; and

(g) a general description of the trend of premium increases or decreases for comparable policies issued by the insurer during the preceding 5 years, if the trend data is available.

(3) If applicable, the outline of coverage must disclose that the policy does not contain coverage for mental illness or chemical dependency.

(4) The outline of coverage may include any other information that the insurer considers relevant to the applicant's selection of an appropriate group disability policy.

(5) An insurer or producer shall provide to an individual, upon request, an outline of coverage for any health benefit product marketed to the general public. The outline of coverage provided under this subsection may exclude the statement of the estimated periodic premium to be paid by the insured.

(6) An outline of coverage must also be sent to an employee when an employee is sent a certificate of insurance.

History: En. Sec. 6, Ch. 527, L. 1995; amd. Sec. 3, Ch. 336, L. 2001.

33-22-522. Uniform health benefit plan — group. (1) Each insurer or health service corporation delivering or issuing for delivery in this state a health benefit plan, as defined in 33-22-243, to a group shall make available a uniform health benefit plan providing the benefits and services required in subsection (2).

(2) The uniform health benefit plan must:

(a) provide coverage for the services and articles required by 33-22-1521(2);

(b) pay 50% of the covered expenses in excess of an annual deductible that may not exceed $1,000 per person or $2,000 per family;

(c) include a limitation of $5,000 per person or $7,500 per family on the total annual out-of-pocket expenses for services covered; and

(d) be subject to a maximum lifetime benefit of $1 million.

(3) Except as provided in this section, a health insurance issuer may exclude any category of licensed health care practitioner and any benefit or coverage for health care services otherwise required by law or rule from a group uniform health benefit plan delivered or issued for delivery in this state.

History: En. Sec. 9, Ch. 527, L. 1995; amd. Sec. 2, Ch. 504, L. 1997.

33-22-523. Special enrollment periods. (1) A group health plan and a health insurance issuer offering group health insurance coverage in connection with a group health plan shall permit an employee or a dependent of an employee who is eligible, but not enrolled, for coverage under the terms of the group health plan to enroll for coverage under the terms of the group health plan if:

(a) the employee or dependent was covered under a group health plan or had health insurance coverage at the time that coverage was previously offered to the employee or dependent;

(b) the employee stated in writing at the time that coverage under a group health plan or health insurance coverage was the reason for declining enrollment, but only if the plan sponsor or health insurance issuer required the statement at the time and provided the employee with notice of the requirement and the consequences of the requirement at the time;

(c) the employee's or dependent's coverage described in subsection (1)(a) was:

(i) under a COBRA continuation provision and was exhausted; or

(ii) not under a COBRA continuation provision and was terminated as a result of loss of eligibility for the coverage or because employer contributions toward the coverage were terminated; and

(d) under the terms of the group health plan, the employee requests the enrollment not later than 30 days after the date of exhaustion of coverage described in subsection (1)(c)(i) or termination of coverage or employer contribution described in subsection (1)(c)(ii).

(2) (a) A group health plan must provide for a dependent special enrollment period described in subsection (2)(b) during which a dependent may be enrolled under the group health plan as a dependent of the individual if the person becomes a dependent of the individual through marriage, birth, adoption, or placement for adoption. In the case of the birth or adoption of a child, the spouse of the individual may be enrolled as a dependent of the individual if the spouse is otherwise eligible for coverage.

(b) A dependent special enrollment period under this subsection (2) is a period of not less than 30 days that begins on the later of:

(i) the date dependent coverage is made available; or

(ii) the date of the marriage, birth, adoption, or placement for adoption.

(3) If an individual seeks to enroll a dependent during the first 30 days of the dependent special enrollment period, the coverage of the dependent becomes effective:

(a) in the case of marriage, not later than the first day of the first month beginning after the date on which the completed request for enrollment is received;

(b) in the case of a dependent's birth, as of the date of birth; or

(c) in the case of a dependent's adoption or placement for adoption, the date of the adoption or placement for adoption.

History: En. Sec. 35, Ch. 416, L. 1997; amd. Sec. 45, Ch. 472, L. 1999.

33-22-524. Guaranteed renewability of coverage for employers in group market. (1) Except as provided in this section, if a health insurance issuer offers health insurance coverage in the small group market or large group market in connection with a group health plan, the health insurance issuer shall renew or continue the coverage in force at the option of the plan sponsor.

(2) A health insurance issuer may nonrenew or discontinue health insurance coverage offered in connection with a group health plan in the small group market or large group market if:

(a) the plan sponsor has failed to pay premiums or contributions in accordance with the terms of the health insurance coverage or if the health insurance issuer has not received timely premium payments;

(b) the plan sponsor has performed an act or practice that constitutes fraud or has made an intentional misrepresentation of material fact under the terms of the coverage;

(c) the plan sponsor has failed to comply with a material plan provision relating to employer contribution or group health plan participation rules;

(d) the health insurance issuer is ceasing to offer coverage in that group market in accordance with this section and applicable state law;

(e) in the case of a health insurance issuer that offers health insurance coverage in the group market through a network plan, there is no longer any enrollee in connection with the group health plan who lives, resides, or works in the service area of the health insurance issuer and, in the case of the small group market, if the health insurance issuer would deny enrollment with respect to the plan under 33-22-1811(4)(a)(i); or

(f) in the case of health insurance coverage that is made available in the small group market or large group market only through one or more bona fide associations, the membership of an employer in the bona fide association ceases, but only if the coverage is terminated under this subsection (2)(f) uniformly without regard to any health status-related factor of a covered individual.

(3) A health insurance issuer may not discontinue offering a particular type of group health insurance coverage offered in the small group market or large group market unless in accordance with applicable state law and unless:

(a) the issuer provides notice to each plan sponsor, participant, and beneficiary provided coverage of this type in that group market of the discontinuation at least 90 days prior to the date of the discontinuation of the coverage;

(b) the issuer offers to each plan sponsor provided coverage of this type in the market the option to purchase any other health insurance coverage currently being offered by the health insurance issuer to a group health plan in the market; and

(c) the health insurance issuer acts uniformly without regard to the claims experience of those sponsors or any health status-related factor of any participants or beneficiaries covered or new participants or beneficiaries who may become eligible for the coverage.

(4) (a) A health insurance issuer may not discontinue offering all health insurance coverage in the small group market, the large group market, or both the small group market and the large group market, unless in accordance with applicable state law and unless:

(i) the issuer provides notice of discontinuation to the commissioner and to each plan sponsor, participant, and beneficiary covered at least 180 days prior to the date of the discontinuation of coverage; and

(ii) all health insurance issued or delivered for issuance in Montana in the group market or markets is discontinued and coverage under the health insurance coverage in the group market or markets is not renewed.

(b) In the case of a discontinuation under this section in a group market, the health insurance issuer may not provide for the issuance of any health insurance coverage in the group market for a period of 5 years beginning on the date of the discontinuation of the last health insurance coverage not renewed.

(5) A health insurance issuer may modify upon renewal health insurance coverage for a product offered to a group health plan in the large group market or in the small group market if, for coverage that is available in the small group market other than only through one or more bona fide associations, modification is consistent with applicable state law and effective on a uniform basis among group health plans with that product.

(6) In the case of health insurance coverage that is made available by a health insurance issuer in the small group market or large group market to employers only through one or more bona fide associations, references to "plan sponsor" under this section include those employers.

A group health plan that is a multiple employer welfare arrangement, as defined by 29 U.S.C. 1002, may not deny an employer whose employees are covered under the group health plan continued access to the same or different coverage under the terms of the group health plan other than:

(1) for nonpayment of contributions;

(2) for fraud or other intentional misrepresentation of material fact by the employer;

(3) for noncompliance with material plan provisions;

(4) because the group health plan is ceasing to offer any coverage in a geographic area;

(5) in the case of a group health plan that offers benefits through a network plan, because there is no longer any individual enrolled through the employer who lives, resides, or works in the service area of the network plan and the group health plan applies to this section uniformly without regard to the claims experience of employers or any health status-related factor of those individuals or their dependents; or

33-22-526. Group health discrimination prohibited. (1) (a) A group health plan or a health insurance issuer offering group health insurance coverage may not establish rules for eligibility, including continued eligibility, of any individual to enroll under the terms of the group health plan based on any of the following health status-related factors of the individual or a dependent of the individual:

(i) health status;

(ii) medical condition, including both physical and mental illnesses;

(iii) claims experience;

(iv) receipt of health care;

(v) medical history;

(vi) genetic information;

(vii) evidence of insurability, including conditions arising out of acts of domestic violence; or (viii) disability.

(b) This subsection does not:

(i) require a group health plan or group health insurance coverage to provide particular benefits other than those provided under the terms of the group health plan or group health insurance coverage; or

(ii) prevent the group health plan or group health insurance coverage from establishing limitations or restrictions on the amount, level, extent, or nature of the benefits or coverage for similarly situated individuals enrolled in the group health plan or group health insurance coverage.

(c) For purposes of subsection (1)(a), rules for eligibility to enroll under a group health plan include rules defining an applicable waiting period for the enrollment.

(2) (a) A group health plan and a health insurance issuer offering health insurance coverage in connection with a group health plan may not require an individual, as a condition of enrollment or continued enrollment under the group health plan, to pay a premium or contribution that is greater than the premium or contribution for a similarly situated individual enrolled in the group health plan on the basis of any health status-related factor of the individual or of an individual enrolled under the plan as a dependent of the individual.

(b) This subsection (2) does not:

(i) restrict the amount that an employer may be charged for coverage under a group health plan; or

(ii) prevent a group health plan and a health insurance issuer offering group health insurance coverage from establishing premium discounts or modifying otherwise applicable copayments or deductibles in return for adherence to programs of health promotion and disease prevention.

33-22-530. Notice required for cancellation for nonpayment of group health insurance. (1) A health insurance issuer shall provide at least 15 days prior notification of cancellation for nonpayment of premium for group health insurance coverage.

(2) The notice must be sent to the policyholder at the policyholder's last-known address and must specify the date of cancellation of coverage. The insurer shall attach a properly executed proof of mailing to this notice and maintain a copy of the proof of mailing in its records.

(3) The health insurance issuer shall hold for processing of payment any claims received during the 15-day notification period for nonpayment of premium for group health insurance coverage. Upon receipt of the premium, claims held for the 15-day notification period must be processed for payment.

(4) The policy continues in full force and effect, subject to the requirements of subsection (3), until the proper 15-day notice has been given, unless the coverage has already been replaced.

(5) The 15-day period begins to run from the date of the proof of mailing.

(6) The issuer may collect premiums for any time period that the coverage remains in effect.

(7) When coverage is actually canceled, notice must also be mailed to all certificate holders at:

(a) their last-known home addresses if available; or

(b) the business address of the group policyholder.

(8) The notice of cancellation to certificate holders must be separate from the certificate of creditable coverage required in 33-22-142, although it may be mailed simultaneously with the certificate.

Part 6
Blanket Disability Insurance

33-22-601. Blanket disability insurance defined. Blanket disability insurance is hereby declared to be that form of disability insurance covering groups of persons as enumerated in one of the following subsections:

(1) under a policy or contract issued to any common carrier or to any operator, owner, or lessee of a means of transportation, who or which shall be deemed the policyholder, covering a group defined as all persons or all persons of a class who may become passengers on such common carrier or such means of transportation;

(2) under a policy or contract issued to an employer, who shall be deemed the policyholder, covering all employees, dependents, or guests, defined by reference to specified hazards incident to the activities or operations of the employer or any class of employees, dependents, or guests similarly defined;

(3) under a policy or contract issued to a school or other institution of learning, camp or sponsor thereof; or to the head or principal thereof, who or which shall be deemed the policyholder, covering students or campers. Supervisors and employees may be included.

(4) under a policy or contract issued in the name of any religious, charitable, recreational, educational, or civic organization, which shall be deemed the policyholder, covering participants in activities sponsored by the organization;

(5) under a policy or contract issued to a sports team or sponsors thereof, which shall be deemed the policyholder, covering members, officials, and supervisors;

(6) under a policy or contract issued in the name of any volunteer fire department, first aid, or other such volunteer group, or agency having jurisdiction thereof, which shall be deemed the policyholder, covering all of the members of such fire department or group;

(7) under a policy or contract issued to cover any other risk or class of risks which in the discretion of the commissioner may be properly eligible for blanket disability insurance. The discretion of the commissioner may be exercised on an individual risk basis or class of risks, or both.

33-22-602. Required provisions of blanket policies. Any insurer authorized to write disability insurance in this state shall have the power to issue blanket disability insurance. No such blanket policy may be issued or delivered in this state unless a copy of the form thereof shall have been filed in accordance with 33-1-501. Every such blanket policy shall contain provisions which in the opinion of the commissioner are at least as favorable to the policyholder and the individual insured as the following, a provision that:

(1) the policy and the application shall constitute the entire contract between the parties and that all statements made by the policyholder shall, in absence of fraud, be deemed representations and not warranties and that no such statements shall be used in defense to a claim under the policy, unless it is contained in a written application;

(2) written notice of sickness or of injury must be given to the insurer within 20 days after the date when such sickness or injury occurred. Failure to give notice within such time shall not invalidate or reduce any claim if it shall be shown not to have been reasonably possible to give such notice and that notice was given as soon as was reasonably possible.

(3) the insurer will furnish to the policyholder such forms as are usually furnished by it for filing proof of loss. If such forms are not furnished before the expiration of 15 days after the giving of such notice, the claimant shall be deemed to have complied with the requirements of the policy as to proof of loss upon submitting, within the time fixed in the policy for filing proof of loss, written proof covering the occurrence, character, and extent of the loss for which claim is made.

(4) in the case of claim for loss of time for disability, written proof of such loss must be furnished to the insurer within 30 days after the commencement of the period for which the insurer is liable and that subsequent written proofs of the continuance of such disability must be furnished to the insurer at such intervals as the insurer may reasonably require and that in the case of claim for any other loss, written proof of such loss must be furnished to the insurer within 90 days after the date of such loss. Failure to furnish such proof within such time shall not invalidate or reduce any claim if it shall be shown not to have been reasonably possible to furnish such proof and that such proof was furnished as soon as was reasonably possible.

(5) all benefits payable under the policy other than benefits for loss of time will be payable immediately upon receipt of due written proof of such loss and that, subject to due proof of loss, all accrued benefits payable under the policy for loss of time will be paid not later than at the expiration of each period of 30 days during the continuance of the period for which the insurer is liable and that any balance remaining unpaid at the termination of such period will be paid immediately upon receipt of such proof;

(6) the insurer at its own expense shall have the right and opportunity to examine the person of the insured when and so often as it may reasonably require during the pendency of claim under the policy and also the right and opportunity to make an autopsy in case of death where it is not prohibited by law;

(7) no action at law or in equity shall be brought to recover under the policy prior to the expiration of 60 days after written proof of loss has been furnished in accordance with the requirements of the policy and that no such action shall be brought after the expiration of 3 years after the time written proof of loss is required to be furnished.

33-22-604. Payment of claims — discharge. (1) All benefits under any blanket disability policy shall be payable to the person insured or to his designated beneficiary or beneficiaries or to his estate; except that if the person insured be a minor or mental incompetent, such benefits may be made payable to his parent, guardian, or other person actually supporting him; or if the entire cost of the insurance has been borne by the employer such benefits may be made payable to the employer. Provided, however, that the policy may provide that all or any portion of any indemnities provided by such policy on account of hospital, nursing, medical, or surgical services may, at the insurer's option, be paid directly to the hospital or person rendering such services; but the policy may not require that the service be rendered by a particular hospital or person.

(2) Payment so made shall discharge the insurer's obligation with respect to the amount of insurance so paid.

33-22-702. Definitions. For purposes of this part, the following definitions apply:

(1) "Chemical dependency treatment center" means a treatment facility that:

(a) provides a program for the treatment of alcoholism or drug addiction pursuant to a written treatment plan approved and monitored by a physician or addiction counselor licensed by the state; and

(b) is licensed or approved as a treatment center by the department of public health and human services under 53-24-208 or is licensed or approved by the state where the facility is located.

(2) "Inpatient benefits" are as set forth in 33-22-705.

(3) "Mental health treatment center" means a treatment facility organized to provide care and treatment for mental illness through multiple modalities or techniques pursuant to a written treatment plan approved and monitored by an interdisciplinary team, including a licensed physician, psychiatric social worker, and psychologist, and a treatment facility that is:

(a) licensed as a mental health treatment center by the state;

(b) funded or eligible for funding under federal or state law; or

(c) affiliated with a hospital under a contractual agreement with an established system for patient referral.

(4) (a) "Mental illness" means a clinically significant behavioral or psychological syndrome or pattern that occurs in a person and that is associated with:

(i) present distress or a painful symptom;

(ii) a disability or impairment in one or more areas of functioning; or

(iii) a significantly increased risk of suffering death, pain, disability, or an important loss of freedom.

(b) Mental illness must be considered as a manifestation of a behavioral, psychological, or biological dysfunction in a person.

(c) Mental illness does not include:

(i) a developmental disorder;

(ii) a speech disorder;

(iii) a psychoactive substance use disorder;

(iv) an eating disorder, except for bulimia and anorexia nervosa;

(v) an impulse control disorder, except for intermittent explosive disorder and trichotillomania; or

(vi) a severe mental illness as provided in 33-22-706.

(5) "Outpatient benefits" are as set forth in 33-22-705.

33-22-703. Coverage for mental illness, alcoholism, and drug addiction. A group health plan or a health insurance issuer that provides group health insurance coverage shall provide for Montana residents covered by the plan at least the following level of benefits for the necessary care and treatment of mental illness, alcoholism, and drug addiction:

(1) under basic inpatient expense policies or contracts, inpatient hospital benefits and outpatient benefits consisting of durational limits, dollar limits, deductibles, and coinsurance factors that are not less favorable than for physical illness generally, except that:

(a) inpatient treatment for mental illness is subject to a maximum yearly benefit of 21 days;

(b) inpatient treatment for mental illness may be traded on a 2-for-1 basis for a benefit for partial hospitalization through a program that complies with the standards for a partial hospitalization program that are published by the American association for partial hospitalization if the program is operated by a hospital;

(c) inpatient and outpatient treatment for alcoholism and drug addiction, excluding costs for medical detoxification, is subject to a maximum benefit of $6,000 for a 12-month period until a lifetime maximum inpatient benefit of $12,000 is met, after which the annual benefit may be reduced to $2,000; and

(d) costs for medical detoxification treatment must be paid the same as any other illness under the terms of the contract and are not subject to the annual and lifetime limits in subsection (1)(c);

(2) under major medical policies or contracts, inpatient benefits and outpatient benefits consisting of durational limits, dollar limits, deductibles, and coinsurance factors that are not less favorable than for physical illness generally, except that:

(a) inpatient treatment for mental illness is subject to a maximum yearly benefit of 21 days;

(b) inpatient treatment for mental illness may be traded on a 2-for-1 basis for a benefit for partial hospitalization through a program that complies with the standards for a partial hospitalization program that are published by the American association for partial hospitalization if the program is operated by a hospital;

(c) inpatient and outpatient treatment for alcoholism and drug addiction, excluding costs for medical detoxification, may be subject to a maximum benefit of $6,000 for a 12-month period until a lifetime maximum inpatient benefit of $12,000 is met, after which the annual benefit may be reduced to $2,000;

(d) costs for medical detoxification treatment must be paid the same as any other illness under the terms of the contract and are not subject to the annual and lifetime benefits in subsection (2)(c); and

(e) outpatient treatment for mental illness may be subject to a maximum yearly benefit of no less than $2,000, but this subsection (2)(e) does not apply to benefits for services furnished before September 30, 2001.

33-22-705. Inpatient and outpatient benefits. (1) "Inpatient benefits" are benefits payable for charges made by a hospital or freestanding inpatient facility for the necessary care and treatment of mental illness, alcoholism, or drug addiction furnished to a covered person while confined as an inpatient and, with respect to major medical policies or contracts, also includes those benefits payable for charges made by a physician for the necessary care and treatment of mental illness, alcoholism, or drug addiction furnished to a covered person while confined as an inpatient. Care and treatment of alcoholism or drug addiction in a freestanding inpatient facility must be in a chemical dependency treatment center that is approved by the department of public health and human services under 53-24-208. Inpatient benefits include payment for medically monitored and medically managed intensive inpatient services and clinically managed high-intensity residential services.

(2) "Outpatient benefits" are benefits payable for:

(a) reasonable charges made by a hospital for the necessary care and treatment of mental illness, alcoholism, or drug addiction furnished to a covered person while not confined as an inpatient;

(b) reasonable charges for services rendered or prescribed by a physician for the necessary care and treatment for mental illness, alcoholism, or drug addiction furnished to a covered person while not confined as an inpatient;

(c) reasonable charges made by a mental health or chemical dependency treatment center for the necessary care and treatment of a covered person provided in the treatment center. The chemical dependency treatment center must be approved by the department of public health and human services under 53-24-208.

(d) reasonable charges for services rendered by a licensed psychiatrist, psychologist, licensed professional counselor, licensed social worker, or addiction counselor licensed by the department of labor and industry under Title 37, chapter 35.

33-22-706. (Temporary) Coverage for severe mental illness — definition. (1) Except as provided in 33-22-262(3) and subject to 33-22-262(4), a policy or certificate of health insurance or disability insurance that is delivered, issued for delivery, renewed, extended, or modified in this state must provide a level of benefits for the necessary care and treatment of severe mental illness, as defined in subsection (6), that is no less favorable than that level provided for other physical illness generally. Benefits for treatment of severe mental illness may be subject to managed care provisions contained in the policy or certificate.

(2) Benefits provided pursuant to subsection (1) include but are not limited to:

(a) inpatient hospital services;

(b) outpatient services;

(c) rehabilitative services;

(d) medication;

(e) services rendered by a licensed physician, licensed advanced practice registered nurse with a specialty in mental health, licensed social worker, licensed psychologist, or licensed professional counselor when those services are part of a treatment plan recommended and authorized by a licensed physician; and

(f) services rendered by a licensed advanced practice registered nurse with prescriptive authority and specializing in mental health.

(3) Benefits provided pursuant to this section must be included when determining maximum lifetime benefits, copayments, and deductibles.

(4) (a) This section applies to health service benefits provided by:

(i) individual and group health and disability insurance;

(ii) individual and group hospital or medical expense insurance;

(iii) medical subscriber contracts;

(iv) membership contracts of a health service corporation;

(v) health maintenance organizations; and

(vi) the comprehensive health association created by 33-22-1503.

(b) This section does not apply to the following coverages:

(i) blanket;

(ii) short-term travel;

(iii) accident only;

(iv) limited or specific disease;

(v) Title XVIII of the Social Security Act (medicare); or

(vi) any other similar coverage under state or federal government plans.

(5) This section does not limit benefits for an illness or condition that does not constitute a severe mental illness, as defined in subsection (6), but that does constitute a mental illness, as defined in 33-22-702.

(6) As used in this section, "severe mental illness" means the following disorders as defined by the American psychiatric association:

(a) schizophrenia;

(b) schizoaffective disorder;

(c) bipolar disorder;

(d) major depression;

(e) panic disorder;

(f) obsessive-compulsive disorder; and

(g) autism. (Terminates June 30, 2009—sec. 14, Ch. 325, L. 2003.)

33-22-706. (Effective July 1, 2009) Coverage for severe mental illness — definition. (1) A policy or certificate of health insurance or disability insurance that is delivered, issued for delivery, renewed, extended, or modified in this state must provide a level of benefits for the necessary care and treatment of severe mental illness, as defined in subsection (6), that is no less favorable than that level provided for other physical illness generally. Benefits for treatment of severe mental illness may be subject to managed care provisions contained in the policy or certificate.

(2) Benefits provided pursuant to subsection (1) include but are not limited to:

(a) inpatient hospital services;

(b) outpatient services;

(c) rehabilitative services;

(d) medication;

(e) services rendered by a licensed physician, licensed advanced practice registered nurse with a specialty in mental health, licensed social worker, licensed psychologist, or licensed professional counselor when those services are part of a treatment plan recommended and authorized by a licensed physician; and

(f) services rendered by a licensed advanced practice registered nurse with prescriptive authority and specializing in mental health.

(3) Benefits provided pursuant to this section must be included when determining maximum lifetime benefits, copayments, and deductibles.

(4) (a) This section applies to health service benefits provided by:

(i) individual and group health and disability insurance;

(ii) individual and group hospital or medical expense insurance;

(iii) medical subscriber contracts;

(iv) membership contracts of a health service corporation;

(v) health maintenance organizations; and

(vi) the comprehensive health association created by 33-22-1503.

(b) This section does not apply to the following coverages:

(i) blanket;

(ii) short-term travel;

(iii) accident only;

(iv) limited or specific disease;

(v) Title XVIII of the Social Security Act (medicare); or

(vi) any other similar coverage under state or federal government plans.

(5) This section does not limit benefits for an illness or condition that does not constitute a severe mental illness, as defined in subsection (6), but that does constitute a mental illness, as defined in 33-22-702.

(6) As used in this section, "severe mental illness" means the following disorders as defined by the American psychiatric association:

(a) schizophrenia;

(b) schizoaffective disorder;

(c) bipolar disorder;

(d) major depression;

(e) panic disorder;

(f) obsessive-compulsive disorder; and

(g) autism.

Part 9
Medicare Supplement Insurance Minimum Standards

33-22-901. Short title. This part may be cited as the "Medicare Supplement Insurance Minimum Standards Act".

History: En. Sec. 1, Ch. 298, L. 1981.

33-22-902. Purpose. The purpose of this part is to establish minimum standards for medicare supplement policies and certificates and to establish a regulatory program that meets the requirements of 42 U.S.C. 1395ss(p)(1)(A).

History: En. Sec. 2, Ch. 298, L. 1981; amd. Sec. 1, Ch. 163, L. 1993.

33-22-903. Definitions. As used in this part, the following definitions apply:

(1) "Applicant" means:

(a) in the case of an individual medicare supplement policy, the person who seeks to contract for insurance benefits; and

(b) in the case of a group medicare supplement policy, the proposed certificate holder.

(2) "Certificate" means a certificate delivered or issued for delivery in this state under a group medicare supplement policy.

(3) "Certificate form" means the form on which the certificate is delivered or issued for delivery by the issuer.

(4) "Entity" means an insurer as defined in 33-1-201, a health service corporation as defined in 33-30-101, and a health maintenance organization as defined in 33-31-102.

(5) "Health care expenses":

(a) means expenses of a health maintenance organization associated with the delivery of health care services that are analogous to incurred losses of an insurer;

(b) does not include home office and overhead costs, advertising costs, commissions and other acquisition costs, taxes, capital costs, administrative costs, or claims processing costs.

(6) "Issuer" includes insurance companies, fraternal benefit societies, health care service plans, health maintenance organizations, and any entity delivering or issuing for delivery in this state medicare supplement policies or certificates.

(7) "Medicare" means Health Insurance for the Aged, Title XVIII of the Social Security Amendments of 1965, as then constituted or later amended.

(8) "Medicare supplement policy" means a group or individual policy of disability insurance or a subscriber contract of a health service corporation, other than a policy issued pursuant to a contract under 42 U.S.C. 1395ss(g)(1), or a policy issued under a demonstration project authorized pursuant to amendments to the federal Social Security Act, that is advertised, marketed, or designed primarily as a supplement to reimbursements under medicare for the hospital, medical, or surgical expenses of persons eligible for medicare. The term does not include:

(a) a policy or contract of one or more employers or labor organizations or of the trustees of a fund established by one or more employers or labor organizations, or a combination of employers, organizations, and trustees, for employees or former employees, or a combination of current and former employees, or for members or former members, or a combination of current and former members, of the labor organizations; or

(b) individual policies or contracts issued pursuant to a conversion privilege under a policy or contract of group or individual insurance when the group or individual policy or contract includes provisions that are inconsistent with the requirements of this part or policies issued to employees or members as additions to franchise plans in existence on April 8, 1981.

(9) "Policy form" means the form on which the policy is delivered or issued for delivery by the issuer.

33-22-904. Standards for policy provisions — rules. (1) A medicare supplement policy or certificate in force in this state may not contain benefits that duplicate benefits provided by medicare.

(2) The commissioner shall adopt reasonable rules to establish specific standards for policy provisions of medicare supplement policies and certificates. A requirement of this code relating to minimum required policy benefits, other than the minimum standards contained in this part, may not apply to medicare supplement policies and certificates. The standards are in addition to and in accordance with applicable laws of this state, including the provisions of Title 33, chapter 22, and may cover but are not limited to:

(a) terms of renewability;

(b) initial and subsequent conditions of eligibility;

(c) nonduplication of coverage;

(d) probationary periods;

(e) benefit limitations, exceptions, and reductions;

(f) elimination periods;

(g) requirements for replacement;

(h) recurrent conditions; and

(i) definitions of terms.

(3) The commissioner may adopt reasonable rules that prohibit policy or certificate provisions not otherwise specifically authorized by statute that, in the opinion of the commissioner, are unjust, unfair, or unfairly discriminatory to any person insured or proposed for coverage under a medicare supplement policy or certificate.

(4) Notwithstanding any other provisions of the law, a medicare supplement policy or certificate may not exclude or limit benefits for losses incurred more than 6 months from the effective date of coverage because it involved a preexisting condition. The policy or certificate may not define a preexisting condition more restrictively than a condition for which medical advice was given or treatment was recommended by or received from a physician within 6 months before the effective date of coverage.

(5) The commissioner may adopt rules necessary to conform medicare supplement policies and certificates to the requirements of federal law and federal regulations, including but not limited to rules:

(a) requiring refunds or credits if the policies or certificates do not meet loss requirements;

(b) establishing a uniform methodology for calculating and reporting loss ratios;

(c) ensuring public access to policies, premiums, and loss ratio information of issuers of medicare supplement insurance;

(d) establishing a process for approving or disapproving policy forms and certificate forms and proposed premium increases; and

(e) establishing a policy for holding public hearings prior to approval of premium increases.

33-22-905. Minimum standards for benefits and payment of claims — rules. The commissioner shall adopt reasonable rules to establish minimum standards for benefits, payment of claims, marketing practices, compensation arrangements, and reporting practices for medicare supplement policies and certificates.

History: En. Sec. 5, Ch. 298, L. 1981; amd. Sec. 4, Ch. 682, L. 1989; amd. Sec. 4, Ch. 163, L. 1993.

Cross-References

33-22-906. Loss ratio standards and filing requirements — limits on compensation. (1) Medicare supplement policies and certificates must return to policyholders or certificate holders benefits that are reasonable in relation to the premium charged. The commissioner shall adopt reasonable rules to establish minimum standards for loss ratios of medicare supplement policies and certificates on the basis of incurred claims experience or incurred health care expenses, where coverage is provided by a health maintenance organization on a service rather than reimbursement basis, and earned premiums for the entire period for which rates are computed to provide coverage and in accordance with accepted actuarial principles and practices. For purposes of rules adopted pursuant to this section, medicare supplement policies and certificates issued as a result of solicitations of individuals through the mail or mass media advertising, including both print and broadcast advertising, must be treated as group policies. Every entity providing medicare supplement insurance benefits to a resident of this state shall make premium adjustments:

(a) necessary to produce an expected loss ratio under the policy or certificate that meets the minimum loss ratio standards for medicare supplement policies and certificates as established by rule; and

(b) expected to result in a loss ratio at least as great as that originally anticipated by the entity when it established current premiums for the medicare supplement policy or certificate.

(2) The commissioner shall by rule establish the timing and manner of the premium adjustments. Every entity providing medicare supplement policies or certificates in this state shall annually file with the commissioner its rates, rating schedule, and supporting documentation demonstrating that it is in compliance with the applicable loss ratio standards of this part. An entity transacting medicare supplement insurance in this state may not adjust its rates more than twice a year and may not adjust its rates for the first year a policy is in force, except to allow for changes in federal laws or regulations relating to medicare. Each filing of rates and rating schedules must demonstrate that the actual and expected losses in relation to premiums complies with the requirements of this part.

(3) An entity may not provide compensation to its insurance producers that is greater than the renewal compensation that would be paid on an existing policy or certificate if:

(a) the existing policy or certificate were replaced by another policy or certificate with the same insurer and the new benefits are substantially similar to the benefits under the old policy or certificate; and

(b) the old policy or certificate was issued by the same insurer or insurance group.

History: En. Sec. 6, Ch. 298, L. 1981; amd. Sec. 5, Ch. 682, L. 1989; amd. Sec. 1, Ch. 713, L. 1989; amd. Sec. 5, Ch. 163, L. 1993.

33-22-907. Disclosure standards — informational brochure — rules. (1) In order to provide for full and fair disclosure in the sale of medicare supplement policies and certificates, a medicare supplement policy may not be delivered or issued for delivery in this state and a certificate may not be delivered pursuant to a group medicare supplement policy delivered or issued for delivery in this state unless an outline of coverage is delivered to the applicant at the time that application is made. The outline of coverage must be filed with the commissioner as required by 33-1-501. The filing must be made at least 60 days in advance of the date that the outline of coverage is delivered to any resident of this state.

(2) (a) The commissioner shall prescribe the format and content of the outline of coverage required by subsection (1).

(b) For purposes of this section, “format” means style, arrangements, and overall appearance, including such items as the size, color, and prominence of type and the arrangement of text and captions.

(c) The outline of coverage must include:

(i) a description of the principal benefits and coverage provided in the policy or certificate;

(ii) a statement of the exceptions, reductions, and limitations contained in the policy or certificate;

(iii) a statement of the renewal provisions, including any reservation by the issuer of a right to change premiums and disclosure of the existence of any automatic renewal premium increases based on the policyholder’s or certificate holder’s age;

(iv) a statement that the outline of coverage is a summary of the policy or certificate issued or applied for and that the policy or certificate should be consulted to determine governing contractual provisions.

(3) The commissioner may prescribe by rule a standard form and the contents of an informational brochure for persons eligible for medicare, which is intended to improve the buyer’s ability to select the most appropriate coverage and to improve the buyer’s understanding of medicare. Except in the case of direct response insurance policies, the commissioner may require by rule that the information brochure be provided to any prospective insureds eligible for medicare at the same time that the outline of coverage is delivered. With respect to direct response insurance policies, the commissioner may require by rule that the prescribed brochure be provided upon request, but not later than the time of policy delivery, to any prospective insureds eligible for medicare.

(4) The commissioner may adopt reasonable rules for captions or notice requirements, determined to be in the public interest and designed to inform prospective insureds that particular insurance coverages are not medicare supplement coverages, for all accident and sickness insurance policies sold to persons eligible for medicare, other than:

(a) medicare supplement policies or certificates; or

(b) disability income policies.

(5) The commissioner may further adopt reasonable rules to govern the full and fair disclosure of the information in connection with the replacement of accident and sickness policies or certificates by persons eligible for medicare.

(6) As soon as practicable, but no later than 30 days before the annual effective date of a medicare benefit change, every entity providing medicare supplement insurance or benefits to a resident of this state shall notify its policyholders and certificate holders, in a format that the commissioner prescribes by rule, of the changes that it has made to the medicare supplement policy or certificate.

History: En. Sec. 7, Ch. 298, L. 1981; amd. Sec. 6, Ch. 682, L. 1989; amd. Sec. 6, Ch. 163, L. 1993; amd. Sec. 32, Ch. 531, L. 1997.

33-22-908. Notice of free examination. Medicare supplement policies and certificates must have a notice prominently printed on the first page of the policy or certificate or attached to the policy or certificate stating in substance that the applicant has the right to return the policy or certificate within 30 days of its delivery and to have the premium refunded if, after examination of the policy or certificate, the applicant is not satisfied for any reason. The issuer shall pay any refund made pursuant to this section directly to the applicant in a timely manner.

33-22-909. Administrative procedures. Rules adopted pursuant to this part are subject to the provisions of 33-1-313 and Title 2, chapter 4.

History: En. Sec. 9, Ch. 298, L. 1981.

33-22-910. Filing requirements for advertising. Every issuer of medicare supplement policies or certificates in this state shall provide to the commissioner for the commissioner's approval a copy of any medicare supplement advertising intended for use in this state, whether through written, radio, or television medium.

History: En. Sec. 8, Ch. 682, L. 1989; amd. Sec. 8, Ch. 163, L. 1993; amd. Sec. 33, Ch. 531, L. 1997.

33-22-911. Penalties. In addition to any other penalties for violations of the insurance code, the commissioner may after hearing require issuers violating any provision of or rule adopted under Title 33, chapter 16, or this part to cease marketing a medicare supplement policy or certificate in this state that is related directly or indirectly to the violation or take action that is necessary to comply with the provisions of Title 33, chapter 16, or this part or the rules adopted under Title 33, chapter 16, or this part, or both.

33-22-921. Discontinuance or nonrenewal — alternate policy or certificate — same insurer. (1) If a disability insurer discontinues or does not renew a medicare supplement policy product or certificate and offers an alternate medicare supplement policy or certificate to its insureds within this state, it may not deny benefits under the replacing policy or certificate to an insured who receives treatment for a condition that was a covered expense under the replaced policy or certificate and is a covered expense under the replacing policy or certificate if the insured enrolls in and pays the premium for the replacing policy or certificate within 31 days after the termination of the replaced policy or certificate.

(2) A disability insurer who discontinues or does not renew a medicare supplement policy product or certificate and offers an alternate medicare supplement policy or certificate shall base its premium for the alternate policy or certificate on the rates currently in place for that policy or certificate.

(3) If the insured has not satisfied the preexisting condition limitation under the replaced medicare supplement policy or certificate, any period of time that was covered by that policy or certificate must be credited toward the preexisting condition limitation period of the replacing policy or certificate.

History: En. Sec. 1, Ch. 125, L. 1987; amd. Sec. 12, Ch. 798, L. 1991.

33-22-922. Discontinuance or nonrenewal — alternate policy — unauthorized bulk reinsurance. (1) Alternate medicare supplement coverage as provided in 33-22-921 must be offered to its insureds by a disability insurer that:

(a) bulk cedes its medicare supplement policy business to an insurer that does not meet the requirements of chapter 2;

(b) authorizes the bulk reinsurer to administer the medicare supplement policies on its behalf; and

(c) discontinues or does not renew a medicare supplement policy product.

(2) The premium for the alternate policy referred to in subsection (1) must be based on actuarially justified rates.

History: En. Sec. 2, Ch. 125, L. 1987.

33-22-923. Replacement policy or certificate — different insurer. (1) If a disability insurer replaces a medicare supplement policy or certificate, it may not deny benefits under the replacing policy or certificate to an insured who receives treatment for a condition that was a covered expense under the replaced policy or certificate and is a covered expense under the replacing policy or certificate if the insured pays the premium for the replacing policy or certificate when due or within 31 days after the termination of the replaced policy or certificate.

(2) An insurer who replaces a medicare supplement policy or certificate shall base its premium for the replacement policy or certificate on the rates currently in place for that policy or certificate.

(3) If the insured has not satisfied the preexisting condition limitation under the replaced medicare supplement policy or certificate, any period of time that was covered by that policy or certificate must be credited toward the preexisting condition limitation period of the replacing policy or certificate.

(4) To receive the benefits of subsections (1) through (3), a person shall submit to the replacing insurer proof of prior coverage, evidence of benefits provided under the previous policy or certificate, and the effective date and the date of termination of coverage under the previous policy or certificate.

History: En. Sec. 3, Ch. 125, L. 1987; amd. Sec. 13, Ch. 798, L. 1991.

33-22-924. Renewal requirement. (1) If a person pays a renewal premium on the date it is due or within 31 days after it is due, an insurer may not refuse to renew a medicare supplement policy or certificate unless the insurer:

(a) refuses to renew all policies or certificates in this state that are of the same form and issued to persons of the same class; and

(b) offers a replacement policy or certificate at actuarially justified rates.

(2) If an insurer refuses to renew all policies or certificates in this state that are of the same form and issued to persons of the same class, the policies or certificates will remain in force during the grace period stated in the replaced policy or certificate. An insurer's refusal to renew a policy or certificate may not affect a claim that arose under the discontinued policy or certificate during the period in which an insured was confined without interruption to a medical care facility for treatment.

History: En. Sec. 4, Ch. 125, L. 1987; amd. Sec. 14, Ch. 798, L. 1991.

Part 10
Home Health Care Coverage

33-22-1001. Definition of home health care. "Home health care" means services provided by a licensed home health agency to an insured in his place of residence that is prescribed by the insured's attending physician as part of a written plan of care. Services provided by home health care include:

(1) nursing;
(2) home health aide services;
(3) physical therapy;
(4) occupational therapy;
(5) speech therapy;

(6) hospice service;

(7) medical supplies and equipment suitable for use in the home; and

(8) medically necessary personal hygiene, grooming, and dietary assistance.

History: En. Sec. 1, Ch. 508, L. 1981.

Cross-References

Hospitals and related facilities — general provisions, Title 50, ch. 5, part 1.

33-22-1002. Availability of coverage for home health care. Insurers and health service corporations transacting health insurance business in this state shall make available, under group insurance policies or certificates and under group hospital and medical service plan contracts, benefits for home health care. Applicants for a group policy, certificate, or contract may select any level of benefits that may be offered by the insurer or service plan corporation.

History: En. Sec. 2, Ch. 508, L. 1981; amd. Sec. 59, Ch. 227, L. 2001.

33-22-1003. Applicability. This part applies to policies, certificates, or contracts delivered or issued for delivery in this state after January 29, 1981, but does not apply to blanket, short-term travel, accident-only, limited or specified disease, or individual conversion policies or contracts, to policies or contracts designed for coverage under Title XVIII of the Social Security Act, known as Medicare, or to any other similar coverage under federal governmental plans.

History: En. Sec. 3, Ch. 508, L. 1981; amd. Sec. 60, Ch. 227, L. 2001.

Part 11
Long-Term Care Insurance Act

33-22-1101. Short title. This part may be cited as the "Long-Term Care Insurance Act".

History: En. Sec. 1, Ch. 355, L. 1989.

33-22-1102. Purpose. The purpose of this part is to:

(1) promote the public interest;

(2) promote the availability of long-term care insurance;

(3) protect applicants for long-term care insurance from unfair or deceptive sales or enrollment practices;

(4) establish standards for long-term care insurance;

(5) facilitate public understanding and comparison of long-term care insurance policies; and

(6) facilitate flexibility and innovation in the development of long-term care insurance coverage.

History: En. Sec. 2, Ch. 355, L. 1989.

33-22-1103. Compliance required. A policy may not be advertised, marketed, or offered in this state as long-term care insurance or nursing home insurance unless it complies with this part.

History: En. Sec. 13, Ch. 355, L. 1989.

33-22-1104 through 33-22-1106 reserved.

33-22-1107. Definitions. As used in this part, the following definitions apply:

(1) "Activities of daily living" means:

(a) eating;

(b) toileting;

(c) transferring;

(d) bathing;

(e) dressing; and

(f) continence.

(2) "Applicant" means:

(a) in the case of an individual long-term care insurance policy, the person who seeks to contract for benefits; and

(b) in the case of a group long-term care insurance policy, the proposed certificate holder.

(3) "Appropriate sale criteria" means the set of conditions that an insurance company is required to address with an applicant that help to determine whether or not a particular insurance policy or contract offered for sale is appropriate to the applicant. These conditions must include but are not limited to any insurance premium involved in the policy, the income of the applicant, and the savings and investments of the applicant.

(4) "Certificate" means a certificate issued under a group long-term care insurance policy that has been delivered or issued for delivery in this state.

(5) "Group long-term care insurance" means a long-term care insurance policy that is delivered or issued for delivery in this state and issued to:

(a) (i) an employer;

(ii) a labor organization;

(iii) a trust established by an employer or labor organization; or

(iv) a trustee of a fund established by an employer or labor organization or a combination of employers and labor organizations for:

(A) employees or former employees or a combination of employees and former employees; or

(B) members or former members of the labor organization or a combination of members and former members;

(b) a professional, trade, or occupational association for its current, former, or retired members or a combination of current, former, and retired members if the association:

(i) is composed of individuals all of whom are or were actively engaged in the same profession, trade, or occupation; and

(ii) has been maintained in good faith for purposes other than obtaining insurance; or

(c) an association, a trust, or the trustee of a fund established, created, or maintained for the benefit of members of one or more associations.

(i) Prior to advertising, marketing, or offering the policy within this state, the association or the insurer of the association shall file evidence with the commissioner that the association has:

(A) a minimum of 100 persons at the outset;

(B) been organized and maintained in good faith for purposes other than obtaining insurance;

(C) been in active existence for at least 1 year; and

(D) a constitution and bylaws requiring that the association hold regular meetings at least annually to further purposes of the membership; except for credit unions, the association collects dues or solicits contributions from members; and the members have voting privileges and representation on the governing board and committees.

(ii) Thirty days after filing, the association is considered as having satisfied the organizational requirements unless the commissioner finds after hearing that the association does not satisfy the organizational requirements.

(d) a group other than as described in subsections (5)(a) through (5)(c) if the commissioner determines that the:

(i) issuance of the group policy is not contrary to the best interests of the public;

(ii) issuance of the group policy would result in economies of acquisition or administration; and

(iii) benefits are reasonable in relation to the premiums charged.

(6) (a) "Long-term care insurance":

(i) means a policy or certificate that is advertised, marketed, offered, or designed to provide coverage for not less than 12 consecutive months for a covered person, on an expense-incurred, indemnity, prepaid, or other basis, for a necessary or medically necessary diagnostic, preventive, therapeutic, rehabilitative, or maintenance or personal-care service provided in a setting other than an acute care unit of a hospital;

(ii) may be issued by an insurer, fraternal benefit society, health service corporation, prepaid health plan, health maintenance organization, or similar organization to the extent that it is otherwise authorized to issue life or health insurance;

(iii) includes group and individual annuities and life insurance policies or riders that provide directly or that supplement long-term care insurance;

(iv) includes any product advertised, marketed, or offered as long-term care insurance regardless of any exceptions to the definition included in this section;

(v) includes a policy or rider that provides for payment of benefits based upon cognitive impairment or the loss of functional capacity; and

(vi) includes qualified long-term care insurance contracts.

(b) Long-term care insurance does not include:

(i) an insurance policy that is offered primarily to provide basic medicare supplement coverage, basic hospital expense coverage, basic medical-surgical expense coverage, hospital confinement indemnity coverage, major medical expense coverage, disability income protection coverage, accident-only coverage, specified disease or specified accident coverage, or limited benefit health coverage; or

(ii) life insurance policies that accelerate the death benefit specifically for one or more of the qualifying events of terminal illness, medical conditions requiring extraordinary medical intervention, or permanent institutional confinement and that provide the option of a lump-sum payment for those benefits and in which neither the benefits nor the eligibility for the benefits is conditioned upon the receipt of long-term care.

(c) An insurance policy that is offered primarily to provide basic medicare supplement coverage, basic hospital expense coverage, basic medical-surgical expense coverage, hospital confinement indemnity coverage, major medical expense coverage, disability income protection coverage, accident-only coverage, specified disease or specified accident coverage, or limited benefit health coverage and that also contains long-term care insurance benefits of a duration of at least 6 months is not required to meet the requirements of this part unless the premium allocable to the long-term care insurance benefits contained in the policy is greater than 25% of the total policy premium.

(7) "Policy" means a policy, contract, membership contract, health care services agreement, rider, or endorsement delivered or issued for delivery in this state by an insurer, fraternal benefit society, health service corporation, prepaid health plan, health maintenance organization, or similar organization.

(8) "Preexisting condition" means a condition for which medical advice or treatment was recommended by or received from a provider of health care services within 6 months preceding the effective date of coverage of an insured person.

(9) "Qualified long-term care insurance contract" means:

(a) an individual or group insurance contract that meets the requirement of section 7702B of the Internal Revenue Code, 26 U.S.C. 7702B, if:

(i) the only insurance protection provided under the contract is coverage of qualified long-term care services;

(ii) the contract does not pay or reimburse expenses incurred for services or items to the extent that the expenses are reimbursable under 42 U.S.C. 1395 or would be reimbursable but for the application of a deductible or coinsurance amount;

(iii) the contract is guaranteed renewable;

(iv) the contract does not provide for a cash surrender value or other money that can be paid, assigned, pledged as collateral for a loan, or borrowed. All refunds of premiums and all policyholder dividends or similar amounts under the contract are to be applied as a reduction in future premiums or to increase future benefits. However, a refund of the aggregate premium paid under the contract may be allowed in the event of death of the insured or a complete surrender or cancellation of the contract.

(v) the contract contains the consumer protection provisions set forth in section 7702B(g) of the Internal Revenue Code, 26 U.S.C. 7702B(g); or

(b) a life insurance contract that provides long-term care coverage by rider or as a part of the contract as long as the contract complies with section 7702B of the Internal Revenue Code, 26 U.S.C. 7702B.

(10) (a) "Qualified long-term care services" means necessary diagnostic, preventive, therapeutic, curing, treating, mitigating, and rehabilitative services and maintenance for personal-care services for which an insured is eligible under a qualified long-term care insurance contract and that are provided pursuant to a plan of care prescribed by a licensed health care practitioner.

(b) For the purposes of this subsection (10), "licensed health care practitioner" means any of the following individuals when licensed in this state:

(i) a physician, as defined in 42 U.S.C. 1395x(r)(1);

(ii) a registered professional nurse;

(iii) a licensed social worker; or

(iv) another individual as determined by rules of the commissioner adopted for purposes of compliance with the Health Insurance Portability and Accountability Act of 1996, Public Law 104-191.

(11) "Transferring" means moving into or out of a bed, chair, or wheelchair.

History: En. Sec. 3, Ch. 355, L. 1989; amd. Sec. 2, Ch. 152, L. 1991; amd. Sec. 1, Ch. 240, L. 1995; amd. Sec. 10, Ch. 416, L. 1997.

33-22-1108. Preexisting condition — definition. (1) A long-term care insurance policy or certificate other than a policy or certificate issued to a group, as specified in 33-22-1107(5)(a)(ii), (5)(a)(iii), or (5)(a)(iv), may not use a definition of preexisting condition that is more restrictive than the definition in 33-22-1107.

(2) A long-term care insurance policy or certificate may not exclude coverage for a loss or confinement that is the result of a preexisting condition unless the loss or confinement begins within 6 months following the effective date of coverage of an insured person.

(3) If a long-term care insurance policy or certificate replaces, with similar benefits, another long-term care insurance policy or certificate, the insurer issuing the replacing long-term care insurance policy or certificate shall waive any time periods applicable to preexisting conditions or probationary periods in the replacing long-term care insurance policy or certificate to the extent that similar time periods have been satisfied under the original policy.

(4) The commissioner may extend the limitation periods in subsections (1) and (2) as to specific age group categories in specific policy forms if extending the limitation periods is in the best interests of the public.

(5) An insurer may use an application form designed to elicit the complete health history of an applicant and on the basis of the answers on that application perform underwriting in accordance with the insurer's established underwriting standards. Unless otherwise provided in the long-term care insurance policy or certificate, a preexisting condition, regardless of whether it is disclosed on the application, need not be covered until the waiting period described in subsection (2) expires. A long-term care insurance policy or certificate may not exclude or use a waiver or rider of any kind to exclude, limit, or reduce coverage or benefits for specifically named or described preexisting diseases or physical conditions beyond the waiting period described in subsection (2).

33-22-1109 and 33-22-1110 reserved.

33-22-1111. Outline of coverage. (1) (a) An insurer shall deliver an outline of coverage as approved by the commissioner to a prospective applicant for long-term care insurance at the time of initial solicitation through means that prominently direct the attention of the recipient to the document and its purpose.

(b) The commissioner shall prescribe a standard format, including style, arrangement, and overall appearance, and the content of the outline of coverage.

(c) In the case of insurance producer solicitations, an insurance producer shall deliver the outline of coverage prior to the presentation of an application or enrollment form.

(d) In the case of direct response solicitations, the insurer shall deliver the outline of coverage upon the earlier of the applicant's request or the delivery of the policy.

(2) The outline of coverage must include:

(a) a description of the principal benefits and coverage provided in the policy;

(b) a statement of the principal exclusions, reductions, and limitations contained in the policy;

(c) a statement of the terms under which the policy or certificate, or both, may be continued in force or discontinued, including any reservation in the policy of a right to change premiums. Continuation or conversion provisions of a group policy must be specifically described.

(d) a statement that the outline of coverage is only a summary of the policy issued or applied for, not a contract of insurance, and that the policy or group master policy contains governing contractual provisions;

(e) a description of the terms under which the policy or certificate may be returned and the premium refunded; and

(f) a brief description of the relationship of cost of care and benefits.

(3) The outline of coverage:

(a) must prominently display the name of the insurer;

(b) must be a freestanding document not dependent for purposes of reader comprehension upon any other document;

(c) must use no smaller than 12-point type; and

(d) may not contain material of an advertising nature.

History: En. Sec. 11, Ch. 355, L. 1989; amd. Sec. 1, Ch. 713, L. 1989; amd. Sec. 12, Ch. 416, L. 1997.

33-22-1112. Required content for certificate. A certificate issued pursuant to a group long-term care insurance policy that is delivered or issued for delivery in this state must include:

(1) a description of the principal benefits and coverage provided in the policy;

(2) a statement of the principal exclusions, reductions, and limitations contained in the policy; and

(3) a statement that the group master policy determines governing contractual provisions.

History: En. Sec. 12, Ch. 355, L. 1989.

33-22-1113. Disclosure and performance standards for long-term care insurance. (1) The commissioner may by rule adopt standards for full and fair disclosure, setting forth the manner, content, and disclosures required to be made in a long-term care insurance policy, including but not limited to:

(a) terms of renewability;

(b) initial and subsequent conditions of eligibility;

(c) nonduplication of coverage provisions;

(d) coverage of dependents;

(e) preexisting conditions;

(f) termination of insurance;

(g) continuation or conversion;

(h) probationary periods;

(i) limitations;

(j) exceptions;

(k) reductions;

(l) elimination periods;

(m) requirements for replacement;

(n) recurrent conditions;

(o) definition of terms;

(p) prohibitions on limitations and exclusions;

(q) extension of benefits;

(r) discontinuance and replacement of policies;

(s) unintentional lapse;

(t) prohibitions against postclaim underwriting;

(u) minimum standards for home health and community care benefits;

(v) inflation protection;

(w) incontestability period; and

(x) tax consequences.

(2) A group long-term care insurance policy must include a provision relating to conversion on termination of eligibility as described in 33-22-508 or include a provision for continuation of coverage that maintains coverage under the existing group policy if the coverage would otherwise terminate.

History: En. Sec. 5, Ch. 355, L. 1989; amd. Sec. 13, Ch. 416, L. 1997.

Cross-References

Conversion on termination of eligibility, 33-22-508.

33-22-1114. Prohibited practices and policy provisions. (1) An insurance company may not issue a refund to a person other than the owner of the policy or certificate.

(2) A long-term care insurance policy may not:

(a) be canceled, nonrenewed, or otherwise terminated on any grounds other than the insured's or certificate holder's failure to pay the premium;

(b) contain a provision establishing a new waiting period if existing coverage is converted to or replaced by a new or other form within the same company, except with respect to an increase in benefits voluntarily selected by the insured individual or group policyholder; or

(c) provide coverage for only skilled nursing care or provide substantially more coverage for skilled nursing care in a facility than coverage for lower levels of care.

History: En. Sec. 6, Ch. 355, L. 1989; amd. Sec. 2, Ch. 240, L. 1995; amd. Sec. 14, Ch. 416, L. 1997.

33-22-1115. Prior hospitalization or institutionalization. (1) A long-term care insurance policy may not be delivered or issued for delivery in Montana if the policy conditions eligibility for a benefit:

(a) on a prior hospitalization requirement;

(b) provided in an institutional care setting on the receipt of a higher level of institutional care; or

(c) other than waiver of premium, postconfinement benefits, postacute care benefits, or recuperative benefits, on a prior institutionalization requirement.

(2) A long-term care insurance policy containing a limitation or condition for eligibility other than those prohibited in subsection (1) must clearly label, in a separate paragraph of the policy or certificate entitled "Limitations or Conditions on Eligibility for Benefits", the limitations or conditions, including the required number of days of confinement.

(3) A long-term care insurance policy that contains a benefit advertised, marketed, or offered as a home health care benefit may not condition receipt of a benefit on a prior institutionalization requirement.

(4) A long-term care insurance policy that conditions eligibility of noninstitutional benefits on the prior receipt of institutional care may not require a prior institutional stay of more than 30 days for which benefits are paid.

(5) A long-term care insurance policy that provides a benefit only following institutionalization may not condition the benefit upon admission to a facility for the same or a related condition within a period of less than 30 days after discharge from the institution.

History: En. Sec. 8, Ch. 355, L. 1989; amd. Sec. 15, Ch. 416, L. 1997.

33-22-1116. Nonforfeiture benefits — availability. An insurance company offering a long-term care insurance policy or certificate shall offer to each prospective purchaser the choice between a policy that includes nonforfeiture benefits to the defaulting or surrendering policyholder or certificate holder and one that does not include nonforfeiture benefits.

History: En. Sec. 4, Ch. 240, L. 1995.

33-22-1117. Appropriate sale criteria. (1) Appropriate sale criteria must be established and communicated to the consumer prior to the insurance company's acceptance of a person's application for long-term care insurance.

(2) This section may not preclude the purchase of a long-term care insurance policy by a consumer.

History: En. Sec. 5, Ch. 240, L. 1995.

33-22-1118 reserved.

33-22-1119. Right to return policy — free look. (1) A person insured under an individual long-term care insurance policy has the right to return the policy within 30 days of its delivery and to have the premium refunded if, after examining the policy, the insured is not satisfied for any reason. An individual long-term care insurance policy must have a notice prominently printed on the first page of the policy or attached to it stating that the insured has the right to return the policy within 30 days of its delivery and to have the premium refunded if, after examining the policy, the insured is not satisfied for any reason.

(2) A person insured under a long-term care insurance policy issued pursuant to a direct response solicitation has the right to return the policy or certificate within 30 days of its delivery and to have the premium refunded if, after examining the policy, the insured is not satisfied for any reason. A long-term care insurance policy or certificate issued pursuant to a direct response solicitation must have a notice prominently printed on the first page or attached to it stating that the insured has the right to return the policy within 30 days of its delivery and to have the premium refunded if, after examining the policy, the insured is not satisfied for any reason.

History: En. Sec. 10, Ch. 355, L. 1989; amd. Sec. 3, Ch. 240, L. 1995.

33-22-1120. Extraterritorial jurisdiction. A group long-term care insurance policy or certificate may not be delivered or issued for delivery to a resident of Montana under a group policy issued in another state unless it is approved by:

(1) the commissioner; and

(2) the insurance regulatory official of a state that has statutory and regulatory long-term care insurance requirements substantially similar to those adopted in Montana.

History: En. Sec. 4, Ch. 355, L. 1989; amd. Sec. 64, Ch. 379, L. 1995.

33-22-1121. Rules. The commissioner may adopt rules necessary to implement this part, including but not limited to rules that:

(1) establish loss ratio standards for long-term care insurance policies;

(2) specify the requirements for offering the sale of a policy with nonforfeiture benefits and the types of appropriate sale criteria to be communicated at the time of application;

(3) establish a requirement for the mandatory triggering of policy benefits based upon the number of activities of daily living that an individual is capable or incapable of performing; and

(4) are necessary to implement a determination made by the secretary of health and human services pursuant to Public Law 104-191 as to who is a licensed health care practitioner.

History: (1)En. Sec. 14, Ch. 355, L. 1989; (2)En. Sec. 9, Ch. 355, L. 1989; amd. Sec. 6, Ch. 240, L. 1995; amd. Sec. 16, Ch. 416, L. 1997.

33-22-1122. Policy waiting periods not cumulative. A waiting or elimination period contained in a long-term care insurance policy under which an insured is required to wait a specified period of time before receiving policy benefits must be concurrent with any 90-day period used to determine whether an individual is a chronically ill individual.

History: En. Sec. 46, Ch. 416, L. 1997.

33-22-1123. Delivery of policy or certificate. If an application for a long-term care insurance policy or a certificate meeting the requirements of Public Law 104-191 is approved, the health insurance issuer of the policy or certificate shall deliver the policy or certificate to the applicant, policyholder, or certificate holder not later than 30 days after the date of issue.

History: En. Sec. 47, Ch. 416, L. 1997.

33-22-1124. Denial of claims. If a claim under a long-term care insurance policy or certificate meeting the requirements of Public Law 104-191 is denied, the health insurance issuer shall, not later than 60 days after the receipt of a written request by the policy holder, certificate holder, or the representative of either of them:

(1) provide a written explanation of the reasons for the denial; and

(2) provide all information possessed by the health insurance issuer relating to the denial.

History: En. Sec. 48, Ch. 416, L. 1997.

33-22-1125. Benefit triggers. (1) A long-term care insurance policy or certificate may not be delivered or issued for delivery in this state unless it complies with the requirements, as established by rules of the commissioner, for the triggering of mandatory provision of benefits.

(2) A qualified long-term care insurance contract must condition the payment of benefits on a determination of the insured's inability to perform activities of daily living for an expectation of at least 90 days because of a loss of level of disability described under regulations adopted by the U.S. secretary of the treasury and because of:

(a) a loss of functional capacity requiring the substantial assistance of another person to perform the prescribed activities of daily living; or

(b) a severe cognitive impairment requiring substantial supervision, including verbal cueing, by another person to protect the insured from harming the insured or others for from threats to the insured's health or safety.

(3) An insured meets a condition of payment if, within the preceding 12-month period, a licensed health care practitioner has certified that the insured has met the requirements and the practitioner has prescribed the qualified long-term care insurance services pursuant to a plan of care. Eligibility for the payment of benefits may not be more restrictive than requiring a deficiency in the ability to perform not more than three of the activities of daily living.

Parts 13 and 14 reserved

Part 15
Comprehensive Health Association and Plan

33-22-1501. Definitions. As used in this part, the following definitions apply:

(1) "Association" means the comprehensive health association created by 33-22-1503.

(2) "Association plan" means a policy of insurance coverage that is offered by the association and that is certified by the association as required by 33-22-1521.

(3) "Association plan premium" means the charge determined pursuant to 33-22-1512 for membership in the association plan based on the benefits provided in 33-22-1521.

(4) "Association portability plan" means a policy of insurance coverage that is offered by the association to a federally defined eligible individual.

(5) "Association portability plan premium" means the charge determined by the association and approved by the commissioner for an association portability plan.

(6) "Block of business" means a separate risk pool grouping of covered individuals, enrollees, and dependents as defined by rules of the commissioner.

(7) (a) "Eligible person" means an individual who:

(i) is a resident of this state and applies for coverage under the association plan;

(ii) is not eligible for any other form of health insurance coverage or health service benefits, except:

(A) for coverage consisting solely of excepted benefits, as defined in 33-22-140; or

(B) subject to eligibility limitations adopted pursuant to 33-22-1502(2), if the individual has coverage comparable to the association plan but is paying a premium or has received a renewal notice to pay a premium that is more than 150% of the average premium rate used to calculate the association plan premium rate pursuant to 33-22-1512(1); and

(iii) meets one or more of the following criteria:

(A) has, within 6 months prior to the date of application, been rejected for disability insurance or health service benefits by at least two insurers, societies, or health service corporations, unless the association waives this requirement; or

(B) has had a restrictive rider or preexisting conditions limitation, which limitation is required by at least two insurers, societies, or health service corporations, that has the effect of substantially reducing coverage from that received by a person considered a standard risk.

(b) The term does not apply to an individual who is certified as eligible for federal trade adjustment assistance or for pension benefit guaranty corporation assistance, as provided by the federal Trade Adjustment Assistance Reform Act of 2002, and is eligible for the association portability plan.

(8) "Federally defined eligible individual" means a person who is an individual enrolling in the association portability plan:

(a) for whom, as of the date on which the individual seeks coverage under the association portability plan, the aggregate of the periods of creditable coverage is 18 months or more and whose most recent prior creditable coverage was under a group health plan, governmental plan, or church plan;

(b) who does not have other health insurance coverage;

(c) who is not eligible for coverage under:

(i) a group health plan;

(ii) Title XVIII, part A or B, of the Social Security Act, 42 U.S.C. 1395c through 1395i-4 or 42 U.S.C. 1395j through 1395w-4; or

(iii) a state plan under Title XIX of the Social Security Act, 42 U.S.C. 1396a through 1396u, or a successor program;

(d) for whom the most recent coverage was not terminated for factors relating to nonpayment of premiums or fraud;

(e) who, if offered the option of continuation coverage under a COBRA continuation provision or under a similar state program, elected that coverage; and

(f) who has exhausted continuation coverage under the COBRA continuation provision or program described in subsection (8)(e) if the individual elected the continuation coverage described in subsection (8)(e).

(9) "Health service corporation" means a corporation operating pursuant to Title 33, chapter 30, and offering or selling contracts of disability insurance.

(10) "Insurance arrangement" means any plan, program, contract, or other arrangement to the extent not exempt from inclusion by virtue of the provisions of the federal Employee Retirement Income Security Act of 1974 under which one or more employers, unions, or other organizations provide to their employees or members, either directly or indirectly through a trust of a third-party administrator, health care services or benefits other than through an insurer.

(11) "Insurer" means a company operating pursuant to Title 33, chapter 2 or 3, and offering or selling policies or contracts of disability insurance, as provided in Title 33, chapter 22.

(12) "Lead carrier" means the licensed administrator or insurer selected by the association to administer the association plan.

(13) "Medicare" means coverage under both parts A and B of Title XVIII of the Social Security Act, 42 U.S.C. 1395, et seq., as amended.

(14) "Preexisting condition" means any condition for which an applicant for coverage under the association plan has received medical attention during the 3 years immediately preceding the filing of an application.

(15) "Qualified TAA-eligible individual" means an individual and any dependent of that individual, in addition to meeting the requirements specified in subsection (18):

(a) who has 3 months of prior creditable coverage;

(b) whose application for association portability plan coverage is made within 63 days following termination of the applicant's most recent prior creditable coverage; and

(c) who, if eligible for COBRA, is not required to elect or exhaust continuation coverage under the COBRA continuation provision or under a similar state program.

(16) "Resident" means an individual who has been legally domiciled in this state for a period of at least 30 days, except that for a federally defined eligible individual there is no 30-day requirement. The criteria for determining residency must be specified in the association's operating rules.

(17) "Society" means a fraternal benefit society operating pursuant to Title 33, chapter 7, and offering or selling certificates of disability insurance.

(18) "TAA-eligible individual" means an individual and any dependent of that individual enrolling in the association portability plan:

(a) who is a resident of this state on the date of application to the pool;

(b) who has been certified as eligible for federal trade adjustment assistance and a health insurance tax credit or for pension benefit guaranty corporation assistance, as provided by the federal Trade Adjustment Assistance Reform Act of 2002;

(c) who does not have other health insurance coverage; and

(d) who is not covered under a group health plan maintained by an employer, including a group health plan available through a spouse, if the employer contributes 50% or more to the total cost of coverage.

2005 Amendment: Chapter 469 in definition of eligible person in (a)(ii)(B) near beginning after "pursuant to" substituted "33-22-1502(2)" for "33-22-1502(1)(b)"; inserted definition of resident; and made minor changes in style. Amendment effective October 1, 2005.

33-22-1502. Duties of commissioner — rules. (1) The commissioner shall:

(a) supervise the creation of the association within the limits described in 33-22-1503;

(b) approve the selection of the lead carrier by the association and approve the association's contract with the lead carrier, including the association plan coverage and premiums to be charged;

(c) conduct periodic audits to ensure the general accuracy of the financial data submitted by the lead carrier and the association;

(d) undertake, directly or through contracts with other persons, studies or demonstration projects to develop awareness of the benefits of this part so that the residents of this state may best avail themselves of the health care benefits provided by this part; and

(e) adopt rules to carry out the provisions and purposes of this part, including rules regarding late payment penalties or rates of interest charged on an unpaid assessment.

(2) The commissioner may adopt rules that limit association plan eligibility under 33-22-1501(7)(a)(ii)(B) according to income level.

History: En. Sec. 2, Ch. 595, L. 1985; amd. Sec. 2, Ch. 367, L. 2001; amd. Sec. 2, Ch. 453, L. 2003; amd. Sec. 30, Ch. 469, L. 2005.

Compiler's Comments

2005 Amendment: Chapter 469 deleted former (1) that read: "(1) adopt rules to carry out the provisions and purposes of this part, including rules:

(a) regarding late payment penalties or rates of interest charged on unpaid assessments; and

(b) that limit association plan eligibility under 33-22-1501(7)(a)(ii)(B) according to income level"; inserted (1)(e) requiring that the commissioner adopt rules to carry out the provisions and purposes of this part, including rules regarding late payment penalties or rates of interest charged on an unpaid assessment; inserted (2) allowing the commissioner to adopt rules that limit association plan eligibility under 33-22-1501(7)(a)(ii)(B) according to income level; and made minor changes in style. Amendment effective October 1, 2005.

33-22-1503. Comprehensive health association — mandatory membership. (1) There is established a nonprofit legal entity, to be known as the Montana comprehensive health association, with participating membership consisting of all insurers, insurance arrangements, societies, health maintenance organizations, and health service corporations licensed or authorized to do business in this state. The association is exempt from taxation under the laws of this state, and all property owned by the association is exempt from taxation.

(2) All participating members shall maintain their membership in the association as a condition for writing health care benefits policies or contracts in this state. The association shall submit its articles, bylaws, and operating rules to the commissioner for approval.

(3) The association may:

(a) exercise the powers granted to insurers under the laws of this state;

(b) sue or be sued;

(c) borrow money;

(d) enter into contracts with insurers, administrators, similar associations in other states, or other persons for the performance of administrative functions;

(e) establish administrative and accounting procedures for the operation of the association;

(f) provide for the reinsuring of risks incurred as a result of issuing the coverages required by members of the association;

(g) provide for the administration by the association of policies that are reinsured pursuant to subsection (3)(f); and

(h) issue additional types of health insurance policies to provide optional coverage, including medicare supplemental health insurance.

33-22-1504. Association board of directors — organization. (1) There is a board of directors of the association, consisting of eight individuals:

(a) one from each of the five participating members of the association with the highest annual premium volume of disability insurance contracts, health maintenance organization health care services agreements, or health service corporation contracts, derived from or on behalf of residents in the previous calendar year, as determined by the commissioner;

(b) two members at large who must be participating members of the association, appointed by the commissioner; and

(c) a member at large, appointed by the commissioner to represent the public interest.

(2) The public interest board member is entitled to one board vote. Each of the seven board members representing the association members is entitled to a weighted average vote, in person or by proxy, based on the association member's annual Montana premium volume. However, a board member may not have more than 50% of the vote.

(3) Members of the board may be reimbursed from the money of the association for expenses incurred by them because of their service as board members but may not otherwise be compensated by the association for their services. The costs of conducting the meetings of the association and its board of directors must be borne by participating members of the association in accordance with 33-22-1513.

(4) The commissioner may replace a board member if the commissioner determines that the board member is not actively participating in the affairs of the board or if the participating member does not appoint a board representative within a reasonable time period. A board member appointed under subsection (1)(a) must be replaced by a participating member of the association with the next highest annual Montana premium volume of disability insurance contracts, health maintenance organization health care service agreements, or health service corporation contracts, derived from or on behalf of residents in the previous calendar year, as determined by the commissioner.

(5) The commissioner shall include the applicable premium volume of all affiliates, as defined in 33-2-1101, in making the determination required by subsection (1)(a) or (4).

History: En. Sec. 4, Ch. 595, L. 1985; amd. Sec. 16, Ch. 798, L. 1991; amd. Sec. 7, Ch. 357, L. 1995; amd. Sec. 3, Ch. 173, L. 1999; amd. Sec. 3, Ch. 528, L. 1999.

33-22-1505. Liability of association membership. No member of the association is liable for the actions of the association or its lead carrier.

History: En. Sec. 13, Ch. 595, L. 1985.

33-22-1506 through 33-22-1510 reserved.

33-22-1511. Minimum benefits of association plan. The association through the association plan shall offer a policy that provides at least the benefits required by 33-22-1521.

History: En. Sec. 5, Ch. 595, L. 1985; amd. Sec. 26, Ch. 798, L. 1991.

33-22-1512. Association plan and association portability plan premium. (1) The association shall establish the schedule of premiums to be charged eligible persons for membership in the association plan. The schedule of association plan premiums for eligible persons may not exceed 200% of the average premium rates charged by the five insurers or health service corporations with the largest premium amount of individual plans of major medical insurance in force in this state. The schedule of association portability plan premiums for federally defined eligible individuals may not at any time exceed 150% of the average premium rates charged by the five insurers or health service corporations with the largest premium amount of individual plans of major medical insurance in force in this state. The premium rates of the five insurers or health service corporations used to establish the premium rates for each type of coverage offered by the association must be determined by the commissioner from information provided annually at the request of the commissioner. The association shall use generally acceptable actuarial principles and structurally compatible rates.

(2) (a) The association, with the approval of the commissioner, may adopt a reduced premium rate schedule that is equitably proportional to the income level for eligible persons who have an income less than or equal to 150% of the federal poverty level. The association may not adopt a reduced premium rate schedule unless it has secured federal, state, or private funding specifically for that purpose and the use of the reduced premium rate schedule is limited to the available federal, state, or private funding.

(b) The association, with the approval of the commissioner, may adopt as many income categories as it finds necessary.

(c) Any person who qualifies for coverage under this section may apply to the association for a reduced premium. However, eligible persons with coverage in the traditional association plan must receive first priority for reduced premiums. By agreement of the association and the commissioner, reduced premiums may be made available to persons eligible for the portability plan.

(d) The association may grant as many reduced premiums as funding sources allow but may not increase overall premium rates to subsidize the reduced premium rate schedule. The association may limit the number of people receiving reduced premiums when funds are not available and may establish a waiting list for reduced premiums, if necessary.

33-22-1513. Operation of association plan and association portability plans. (1) Upon acceptance by the lead carrier under 33-22-1516, an eligible person may enroll in the association plan by payment of the association plan premium to the lead carrier.

(2) Upon application by a federally defined eligible individual or a TAA-eligible individual to the lead carrier for an association portability plan, the association may not:

(a) decline to offer an association portability plan; or

(b) except as provided in subsection (3), impose a preexisting condition exclusion with respect to an individual's association portability plan coverage if application for association portability plan coverage is made within 63 days following termination of the applicant's most recent prior creditable coverage.

(3) The association may impose a preexisting condition exclusion as provided in 33-22-1516 with respect to a TAA-eligible individual's association portability plan coverage if that individual does not meet the requirements defining a qualified TAA-eligible individual.

(4) Not less than 88% of the association plan and the association portability plan premiums paid to the lead carrier may be used to pay claims and not more than 12% may be used for payment of the lead carrier's direct and indirect expenses as specified in 33-22-1514.

(5) Any income in excess of the costs incurred by the association in providing reinsurance or administrative services must be held at interest and used by the association to offset past and future losses because of claims expenses of the association plan and the association portability plan or be allocated to reduce association plan and association portability plan premiums.

(6) (a) Each participating member of the association shall share the losses because of claims expenses of the association plan and the association portability plan for plans issued or approved for issuance by the association and shall share in the operating and administrative expenses incurred or estimated to be incurred by the association incident to the conduct of its affairs in the following manner:

(i) Each participating member of the association must be assessed by the association on an annual basis an amount not to exceed 1% of the association member's total disability insurance premium received from or on behalf of Montana residents as determined by the commissioner. Assessments made under this subsection (6)(a) or funds from any other source must be allocated to the association plan and the association portability plan in proportion to the needs of the two plans. If the needs of the association plan and the association portability plan exceed the funds generated by the 1% assessment, the association is then authorized to spend any funds appropriated by the legislature for the support of the plans. Any appropriation to the association may be expended for the operation of the association plan or the association portability plan.

(ii) (A) Payment of an assessment is due within 30 days of receipt by a member of a written notice of the annual assessment. After 30 days, the association shall charge a member:

(I) a late payment penalty of 1.5% a month or fraction of a month on the unpaid assessment, not to exceed 18% of the assessment due;

(II) interest at the rate of 12% a year on the unpaid assessment, to be accrued at 1% a month or fraction of a month; or

(III) both of the charges in subsections (6)(a)(ii)(A)(I) and (6)(a)(ii)(A)(II).

(B) Failure by a contributing member to tender the association assessment within the 30-day period is grounds for termination of membership. A member terminated for failure to tender the association assessment is ineligible to write health care benefit policies or contracts in this state under 33-22-1503(2).

(iii) An association member that ceases to do disability insurance business within the state remains liable for assessments through the calendar year in which the member ceased doing disability insurance business. The association may decline to levy an assessment against an association member if the assessment, as determined pursuant to this section, would not exceed $50.

(b) For purposes of this subsection (6), "total disability insurance premium" does not include premiums received from disability income insurance, credit disability insurance, disability waiver insurance, life insurance, medicare risk or other similar medicare health maintenance organization payments, or medicaid health maintenance organization payments.

(c) Any income in excess of the incurred or estimated claims expenses of the association plan and the association portability plan and the operating and administrative expenses of the association must be held at interest and used by the association to offset past and future losses because of claims expenses of the association plan and the association portability plan or be allocated to reduce association plan and association portability plan premiums.

(7) The proportion of the annual assessment allocated to the operation and expenses of the association plan, not to include any amount of late payment penalty or interest charged, may be offset by an association member against the premium tax payable by that association member pursuant to 33-2-705 for the year in which the annual assessment is levied. The commissioner shall report to the office of budget and program planning, as a part of the information required by 17-7-111, the total amount of premium tax offset claimed by association members during the preceding biennium. The proportion of the annual assessment allocated to the operation and expenses of the association portability plan and levied against an association member may not be offset against the premium tax payable by that association member.

(8) The association may also accept funding from the federal government, private foundations, and other private funding sources.

2005 Amendment: Chapter 469 in (4) near beginning after "plan" inserted "and the association portability plan"; in (5) near end after "plan" inserted "and association portability plan"; in (6)(a)(iii) at beginning after "An" substituted "association" for "associate"; and in (6)(c) near end after "plan" inserted "and association portability plan". Amendment effective October 1, 2005.

33-22-1514. Administration of association plan — rules. (1) The association shall select one lead carrier to issue the association plan and the association portability plan. The board of directors of the association shall prepare appropriate specifications and bid forms and may solicit bids from licensed administrators and the members of the association for the purpose of selecting the lead carrier. The selection of the lead carrier must be based upon criteria established by the board of directors.

(2) The lead carrier shall perform all administrative and claims payment functions required by this section upon the commissioner's approval of the policy forms and contracts submitted. The lead carrier shall provide these services for a period of at least 3 years, unless a request to terminate is approved by the association and the commissioner. The association and the commissioner shall approve or deny a request to terminate within 90 days of the receipt of the request. A failure to make a final decision on a request to terminate within the specified period is considered an approval. The association shall invite submissions of policy forms from members of the association, including the lead carrier, 6 months prior to the expiration of each 3-year period. The association shall follow the procedure provided in subsection (1) in selecting a lead carrier for the subsequent 3-year period or, if a request to terminate is approved, on or before the end of the 3-year period.

(3) The lead carrier shall provide all eligible persons involved in the association plan and the association portability plan an individual certificate setting forth a statement as to the insurance protection to which the person is entitled, the method and place of filing claims, and to whom benefits are payable. The certificate must indicate that coverage was obtained through the association.

(4) The lead carrier shall submit to the association, the legislative finance committee, and the commissioner on a semiannual basis a report of the operation of the association plan and the association portability plan. The association shall determine the specific information to be contained in the report prior to the effective date of the association plan and the association portability plan.

(5) The lead carrier shall pay all claims pursuant to this part and shall indicate that the claim was paid by the association plan or the association portability plan. Each claim payment must include information specifying the procedure involved if a dispute arises over the amount of payment.

(6) The lead carrier must be reimbursed from the association plan and the association portability plan premiums received for its direct and indirect expenses. Direct and indirect expenses include a prorated reimbursement for the portion of the lead carrier's administrative, printing, claims administration, management, and building overhead expenses, which are assignable to the maintenance and administration of the association plan and the association portability plan. The association shall approve cost accounting methods to substantiate the lead carrier's cost reports consistent with generally accepted accounting principles. Direct and indirect expenses may not include costs directly related to the original submission of policy forms prior to selection as the lead carrier.

(7) The lead carrier is, when carrying out its duties under this part, an independent contractor for the association and is individually liable for the lead carrier's actions, subject to the laws of this state.

33-22-1515. Solicitation of eligible persons. (1) The association, pursuant to a plan approved by the commissioner, shall disseminate appropriate information to the residents of this state regarding the existence of the association plan and the association portability plan and the means of enrollment. Means of communication may include use of the press, radio, and television, as well as publication in appropriate state offices and publications.

(2) The association shall devise and implement means of maintaining public awareness of this part and shall administer this part in a manner that facilitates public participation in the association plan and the association portability plan.

(3) All licensed disability insurance producers may engage in the selling or marketing of the association plan and the association portability plan. The lead carrier shall pay an insurance producer's referral fee of at least $25 to each licensed disability insurance producer who refers an applicant to the association plan and the association portability plan, if the applicant is accepted. The amount of the referral fee must be set by the board of directors of the association and is subject to the approval of the commissioner. The referral fees must be paid by the lead carrier from money received as premiums for the association plan and the association portability plan.

(4) An insurer, society, health maintenance organization, or health service corporation that rejects or applies underwriting restrictions to an applicant for disability insurance shall notify the applicant of the existence of the association plan, requirements for being accepted in the association plan, and the procedure for applying to the association plan.

33-22-1516. Enrollment by eligible person. (1) The association plan must be open for enrollment by eligible persons. An eligible person may enroll in the plan by submission of a certificate of eligibility to the lead carrier. The certificate must provide:

(a) the name, address, and age of the applicant and length of the applicant's residence in this state;

(b) the name, address, and age of spouse and children, if any, for those who are to be insured;

(c) written evidence that the person fulfills all of the elements of an eligible person, as defined in 33-22-1501; and

(d) a designation of coverage desired.

(2) Within 30 days of receipt of the certificate, the lead carrier shall either reject the application for failing to comply with the requirements of subsection (1) or forward the eligible person a notice of acceptance and billing information. Insurance is effective on the first of the month following acceptance.

(3) An eligible person may not purchase more than one policy from the association plan or the association portability plan.

(4) A person who obtains coverage under the association plan may not be covered for any preexisting condition during the first 12 months of coverage under the association plan if the person was diagnosed or treated for that condition during the 3 years immediately preceding the filing of an application. The association may not apply a preexisting condition exclusion to coverage under the association portability plan if application for association portability plan coverage is made by a federally defined eligible individual or a qualified TAA-eligible individual within 63 days following termination of the applicant's most recent prior creditable coverage. The association shall waive any time period applicable to a preexisting condition exclusion for the time that any other eligible individual, including an individual who is eligible pursuant to 33-22-1501(7)(a)(ii)(B), was covered under the following types of coverage if the coverage was continuous to a date not more than 30 days prior to submission of an application for coverage under the association plan:

(a) an individual health insurance policy that includes coverage by an insurance company, a fraternal benefit society, a health service corporation, or a health maintenance organization that provides benefits similar to or exceeding the benefits provided by the association plan; or

(b) an employer-based health insurance benefit arrangement that provides benefits similar to or exceeding the benefits provided by the association plan.

33-22-1517. Limitations on eligibility. An individual who purchases a policy of insurance pursuant to 33-22-1516 is no longer eligible for insurance under an association plan or association portability plan and is subject to cancellation of enrollment if the individual:

(1) fails to pay the premium for the policy of insurance purchased pursuant to 33-22-1516;

(2) changes residence from Montana to another state;

(3) exceeds the lifetime maximum benefit provided in the plan; or

(4) enrolls under another disability insurance policy or plan for health service benefits. However, the individual may maintain enrollment in the association plan or the association portability plan during a waiting period applicable to preexisting conditions under the other policy or plan. If the individual maintains the association plan or the association portability plan during the waiting period, the association plan or the association portability plan may coordinate the benefits with the individual's new policy or plan and the benefits of the association plan or the association portability plan are considered secondary to the benefits available under the individual's new policy or plan.

33-22-1521. Association plan — minimum benefits. A plan of health coverage must be certified as an association plan if it otherwise meets the requirements of Title 33, chapters 15, 22 (excepting 33-22-701 through 33-22-705), and 30, and other laws of this state, whether or not the policy is issued in this state, and meets or exceeds the following minimum standards:

(1) (a) The minimum benefits for an insured must, subject to the other provisions of this section, be equal to at least 50% of the covered expenses required by this section in excess of an annual deductible that does not exceed $1,000 per person. The coverage must include a limitation of $5,000 per person on the total annual out-of-pocket expenses for services covered under this section. Coverage must be subject to a maximum lifetime benefit, but the maximums may not be less than $100,000.

(b) One association plan must be offered with coverage for 80% of the covered expenses provided in this section in excess of an annual deductible that does not exceed $1,000 per person. This association plan must provide a maximum lifetime benefit of at least $500,000.

(c) Covered expenses for plans under subsection (1)(a) and (1)(b) must be paid as specified in provider contracts or, in the absence of a provider contract, at the prevailing charge in the state where the service is provided.

(d) The board may authorize other association plans, including managed care plans as defined in 33-36-103.

(2) Covered expenses for plans offered under subsections (1)(a) and (1)(b) must be for the following medically necessary services and articles when prescribed by a physician or other licensed health care professional and when designated in the contract:

(a) hospital services;

(b) professional services for the diagnosis or treatment of injuries, illness, or conditions, other than dental;

(c) use of radium or other radioactive materials;

(d) oxygen;

(e) anesthetics;

(f) diagnostic x-rays and laboratory tests, except as specifically provided in subsection (3);

(g) services of a physical therapist;

(h) transportation provided by licensed ambulance service to the nearest facility qualified to treat the condition;

(i) oral surgery for the gums and tissues of the mouth when not performed in connection with the extraction or repair of teeth or in connection with TMJ;

(j) rental or purchase of durable medical equipment, which must be reimbursed after the deductible has been met at the rate of 50%, up to a maximum of $1,000;

(k) prosthetics, other than dental;

(l) services of a licensed home health agency, up to a maximum of 180 visits per year;

(m) drugs requiring a physician's prescription that are approved for use in human beings in the manner prescribed by the United States food and drug administration, covered at 50% of the expense, up to an annual maximum of $2,000;

(n) medically necessary, nonexperimental transplants of the kidney, pancreas, heart, heart/lung, lungs, liver, cornea, and high-dose chemotherapy bone marrow transplantation, limited to a lifetime maximum of $150,000, with an additional benefit not to exceed $10,000 for expenses associated with the donor;

(o) pregnancy, including complications of pregnancy;

(p) newborn infant coverage, as required by 33-22-301;

(q) sterilization;

(r) immunizations;

(s) outpatient rehabilitation therapy;

(t) foot care for diabetics;

(u) services of a convalescent home, as an alternative to hospital services, limited to a maximum of 60 days per year;

(v) travel, other than transportation by a licensed ambulance service, to the nearest facility qualified to treat the patients medical condition when approved in advance by the insurer; and

(w) coverage for severe mental illness as required in 33-22-706.

(3) (a) Covered expenses for the services or articles specified in this section do not include:

(i) home and office calls, except as specifically provided in subsection (2);

(ii) rental or purchase of durable medical equipment, except as specifically provided in subsection (2);

(iii) the first $20 of diagnostic x-ray and laboratory charges in each 14-day period;

(iv) oral surgery, except as specifically provided in subsection (2);

(v) that part of a charge for services or articles that exceeds the prevailing charge in the state where the service is provided; or

(vi) care that is primarily for custodial or domiciliary purposes that would not qualify as eligible services under medicare.

(b) Covered expenses for the services or articles specified in this section do not include charges for:

(i) care or for any injury or disease arising out of an injury in the course of employment and subject to a workers' compensation or similar law, for which benefits are payable under another policy of disability insurance or medicare;

(ii) treatment for cosmetic purposes other than surgery for the repair or treatment of an injury or congenital bodily defect to restore normal bodily functions;

(iii) travel other than transportation provided by a licensed ambulance service to the nearest facility qualified to treat the condition, except as provided by subsection (2);

(iv) confinement in a private room to the extent that it is in excess of the institution's charge for its most common semiprivate room, unless the private room is prescribed as medically necessary by a physician;

(v) services or articles the provision of which is not within the scope of authorized practice of the institution or individual rendering the services or articles;

(vi) room and board for a nonemergency admission on Friday or Saturday;

(vii) routine well baby care;

(viii) complications to a newborn, unless no other source of coverage is available;

(ix) reversal of sterilization;

(x) abortion, unless the life of the mother would be endangered if the fetus were carried to term;

(xi) weight modification or modification of the body to improve the mental or emotional well-being of an insured;

(xii) artificial insemination or treatment for infertility; or

(xiii) breast augmentation or reduction.

33-22-1523. Association portability plans. (1) The association shall offer at least two comprehensive health benefit plans designed by the association. The association portability plans may not be delivered or issued for delivery in this state until the policy forms and rates are approved by the commissioner, in accordance with rules adopted by the commissioner. The commissioner may by order extend the date by which the association shall offer the association portability plan until a date not later than January 1, 1998.

(2) The association shall administer the association portability plans as a distinctly separate block of business from the association plan. The claims experience or the expense experience of the association plan may not be combined with the claims experience or expense experience of any association portability plan in the determination of association portability plan premium rates or reserves of any association portability plan.

History: En. Sec. 41, Ch. 416, L. 1997.

33-22-1524. Association authority for borrowing. (1) If the amount of the annual assessment collected under 33-22-1513(6) and other available funds is insufficient to meet incurred or estimated claims expenses of the association plan and the association portability plan and the operating and administrative expenses of the association, the association may borrow from the board of investments for a period not to exceed 2 years any funds necessary for the continued operation of the association plan and the association portability plan. The loaned funds may be used only to pay incurred or estimated claims expenses of the association plan and the association portability plan and the operating and administrative expenses of the association.

(2) Whenever the association accepts a loan from the board of investments pursuant to this section, it shall repay the loan and any interest required under the terms of the loan through assessments and premium income. In accordance with the constitutions of the United States and the state of Montana, the state pledges that it may not in any way impair the obligations of any loan agreement between the association and the board of investments by repealing the assessment imposed by 33-22-1513(6) or by reducing it below the amount necessary to make annual loan payments.

Health service corporations — subrogation — notice, Title 33, ch. 30, part 11.

33-22-1601. Subrogation rights. A disability insurance policy subject to this chapter may contain a provision providing that, to the extent necessary for reimbursement of benefits paid to or on behalf of the insured, the insurer is entitled to subrogation, as provided for in 33-22-1602, against a judgment or recovery received by the insured from a third party found liable for a wrongful act or omission that caused the injury necessitating benefit payments.

History: En. Sec. 1, Ch. 365, L. 1987.

33-22-1602. Notice — shared costs of third-party action — limitation. (1) If an insured intends to institute an action for damages against a third party, the insured shall give the insurer reasonable notice of his intention to institute the action.

(2) The insured may request that the insurer pay a proportionate share of the reasonable costs of the third-party action, including attorney fees.

(3) An insurer may elect not to participate in the cost of the action. If such an election is made, the insurer waives 50% of any subrogation rights granted to it by 33-22-1601.

(4) The insurer's right of subrogation granted in 33-22-1601 may not be enforced until the injured insured has been fully compensated for his injuries.

Part 17
Preferred Provider Agreements

33-22-1701. Short title. This part may be cited as the "Preferred Provider Agreements Act".

History: En. Sec. 1, Ch. 638, L. 1987.

33-22-1702. Purpose. The purpose of this part is to allow a health care insurer providing disability insurance benefits to negotiate and contract with health care providers to:

(1) provide health care services to its insureds or subscribers at a reduction in the fees customarily charged by the provider; or

(2) enter into agreements in which the participating providers accept negotiated fees as payment in full for health care services the health care insurer is obligated to provide or pay for under the health benefit plan.

History: En. Sec. 2, Ch. 638, L. 1987.

33-22-1703. Definitions. As used in this part, the following definitions apply:

(1) "Emergency medical condition" means a condition manifesting itself by symptoms of sufficient severity, including severe pain, that the absence of immediate medical attention could reasonably be expected to result in any of the following:

(a) the covered person's health would be in serious jeopardy;

(b) the covered person's bodily functions would be seriously impaired; or

(c) a bodily organ or part would be seriously damaged.

(2) "Emergency services" means health care items or services furnished or required to evaluate and treat an emergency medical condition.

(3) "Health benefit plan" means the health insurance policy or subscriber arrangement between the insured or subscriber and the health care insurer that defines the covered services and benefit levels available.

(4) "Health care insurer" means:

(a) an insurer that provides disability insurance as defined in 33-1-207;

(b) a health service corporation as defined in 33-30-101;

(c) a fraternal benefit society as described in 33-7-105; or

(d) any other entity regulated by the commissioner that provides health coverage except a health maintenance organization.

(5) "Health care services" means health care services or products rendered or sold by a provider within the scope of the provider's license or legal authorization or services provided under Title 33, chapter 22, part 7.

(6) "Insured" means an individual entitled to reimbursement for expenses of health care services under a policy or subscriber contract issued or administered by an insurer.

(7) "Preferred provider" means a provider or group of providers who have contracted to provide specified health care services.

(8) "Preferred provider agreement" means a contract between or on behalf of a health care insurer and a preferred provider.

(9) "Provider" means an individual or entity licensed or legally authorized to provide health care services or services covered within Title 33, chapter 22, part 7.

(10) "Subscriber" means a certificate holder or other person on whose behalf the health care insurer is providing or paying for health care coverage.

33-22-1704. Preferred provider agreements authorized. (1) Notwithstanding any other provision of law to the contrary, a health care insurer may:

(a) enter into agreements with providers relating to health care services that may be rendered to insureds or subscribers on whose behalf the health care insurer is providing health care coverage, including preferred provider agreements relating to:

(i) the amounts an insured may be charged for services rendered; and

(ii) the amount and manner of payment to the provider; and

(b) issue or administer policies or subscriber contracts in this state that include incentives for the insured to use the services of a provider that has entered into an agreement with the insurer pursuant to subsection (1)(a).

(2) A preferred provider agreement issued or delivered in this state may not unfairly deny health benefits for health care services covered.

(3) A preferred provider agreement entered into or renewed after March 26, 1993, must provide each health care provider with the opportunity to participate on the basis of a competitive bid or offer. For each health care service that an insurer proposes to obtain for its insureds from a preferred provider in the geographic area covered by the proposal, the insurer shall provide all known providers of the health care service in that area with an equal opportunity to submit a competitive bid or offer to become a preferred provider. Except as provided in subsection (5), the insurer shall issue a request for proposals and shall select the lowest cost bid or offer. If only one bid or offer is received, the insurer may enter into a preferred provider agreement with the health care provider.

(4) If a bid or an offer is not received in response to a request for proposals under subsection (3), the insurer may not establish a preferred provider agreement for that service in the geographic area except pursuant to a new request for proposals.

(5) An insurer may reserve the right in its request for proposals to reject bids or offers submitted in response to the request, including the lowest cost bid or offer. A bid or offer must be rejected in the manner established in the request for proposals. An insurer may not enter into a preferred provider agreement for a health care service except pursuant to a request for proposals.

33-22-1705. Incentives in health benefit plans. (1) A health care insurer may issue a policy or a health benefit plan that provides for incentives for covered persons to use the health care services of preferred providers. The policy or health benefit plan must contain at least:

(a) a provision that if a covered person receives emergency care for services specified in the preferred provider agreement and cannot reasonably reach a preferred provider, the care rendered during the course of the emergency will be reimbursed as though the covered person had been treated by a preferred provider; and

(b) a provision that clearly identifies the difference in benefit levels for health care services of a preferred provider and benefit levels for the same health care services of a nonpreferred provider.

(2) A health care insurer may not require hospital staff privileges as criteria for designation as a preferred provider in a preferred provider agreement.

History: En. Sec. 5, Ch. 638, L. 1987.

33-22-1706. Permissible and mandatory provisions in provider agreements, insurance policies, and subscriber contracts. (1) A provider agreement, insurance policy, or subscriber contract issued or delivered in this state may contain certain other components designed to control the cost and improve the quality of health care for insureds and subscribers, including:

(a) a provision setting a payment difference for reimbursement of a nonpreferred provider as compared to a preferred provider. If the health benefit plan contains a payment difference provision, the payment difference may not exceed 25% of the reimbursement level at which a preferred provider would be reimbursed. The commissioner shall review differences between copayments, deductibles, and other cost-sharing arrangements.

(b) conditions, not inconsistent with other provisions of this part, designed to give policyholders or subscribers an incentive to choose a particular provider.

(2) All terms or conditions of an insurance policy or subscriber contract, except those already approved by the commissioner, are subject to the prior approval of the commissioner.

(3) A plan offering prepaid dental services under this part must offer its insureds the right to obtain dental care from any licensed dental care provider of their choice, subject to the same terms and conditions imposed under subsection (1).

Small Employer Health Insurance Availability Act

33-22-1801. Short title. This part may be cited as the "Small Employer Health Insurance Availability Act".

History: En. Sec. 22, Ch. 606, L. 1993.

33-22-1802. Purpose. (1) This part must be interpreted and construed to effectuate the following express legislative purposes:

(a) to promote the availability of health insurance coverage to small employers regardless of health status or claims experience;

(b) to prevent abusive rating practices;

(c) to require disclosure of rating practices to purchasers;

(d) to establish rules regarding renewability of coverage;

(e) to establish limitations on the use of preexisting condition exclusions;

(f) to provide for the development of basic and standard health benefit plans to be offered to all small employers;

(g) to provide for the establishment of a reinsurance program; and

(h) to improve the overall fairness and efficiency of the small employer health insurance market.

(2) This part is not intended to provide a comprehensive solution to the problem of affordability of health care or health insurance.

History: En. Sec. 23, Ch. 606, L. 1993.

33-22-1803. Definitions. As used in this part, the following definitions apply:

(1) "Actuarial certification" means a written statement by a member of the American academy of actuaries or other individual acceptable to the commissioner that a small employer carrier is in compliance with the provisions of 33-22-1809, based upon the person's examination, including a review of the appropriate records and of the actuarial assumptions and methods used by the small employer carrier in establishing premium rates for applicable health benefit plans.

(2) "Affiliate" or "affiliated" means any entity or person who directly or indirectly, through one or more intermediaries, controls, is controlled by, or is under common control with a specified entity or person.

(3) "Assessable carrier" means all carriers of disability insurance, including excess of loss and stop loss disability insurance.

(4) "Base premium rate" means, for each class of business as to a rating period, the lowest premium rate charged or that could have been charged under the rating system for that class of business by the small employer carrier to small employers with similar case characteristics for health benefit plans with the same or similar coverage.

(5) "Basic health benefit plan" means a health benefit plan, except a uniform health benefit plan, developed by a small employer carrier, that has a lower benefit value than the small employer carrier's standard benefit plan and that provides the benefits required by 33-22-1827.

(6) "Benefit value" means a numerical value based on the expected dollar value of benefits payable to an insured under a health benefit plan. The benefit value must be calculated by the small employer carrier using an actuarially based method and must take into account all health care expenses covered by the health benefit plan and all cost-sharing features of the health benefit plan, including deductibles, coinsurance, copayments, and the insured individual's maximum out-of-pocket expenses. The benefit value must apply equally to indemnity-type health benefit plans and to managed care health benefit plans, including health maintenance organization-type plans.

(7) "Bona fide association" means an association that:

(a) has been actively in existence for at least 5 years;

(b) was formed and has been maintained in good faith for purposes other than obtaining insurance;

(c) does not condition membership in the association on a health status-related factor relating to an individual, including an employee of an employer or a dependent of an employee;

(d) makes health insurance coverage offered through the association available to a member regardless of a health status-related factor relating to the member or an individual eligible for coverage through a member; and

(e) does not make health insurance coverage offered through the association available other than in connection with a member of the association.

(8) "Carrier" means any person who provides a health benefit plan in this state subject to state insurance regulation. The term includes but is not limited to an insurance company, a fraternal benefit society, a health service corporation, and a health maintenance organization. For purposes of this part, companies that are affiliated companies or that are eligible to file a consolidated tax return must be treated as one carrier, except that the following may be considered as separate carriers:

(a) an insurance company or health service corporation that is an affiliate of a health maintenance organization located in this state;

(b) a health maintenance organization located in this state that is an affiliate of an insurance company or health service corporation; or

(c) a health maintenance organization that operates only one health maintenance organization in an established geographic service area of this state.

(9) "Case characteristics" means demographic or other objective characteristics of a small employer that are considered by the small employer carrier in the determination of premium rates for the small employer, provided that gender, claims experience, health status, and duration of coverage are not case characteristics for purposes of this part.

(10) "Class of business" means all or a separate grouping of small employers established pursuant to 33-22-1808.

(11) "Dependent" means:

(a) a spouse or an unmarried child under 19 years of age;

(b) an unmarried child, under 23 years of age, who is a full-time student and who is financially dependent on the insured;

(c) a child of any age who is disabled and dependent upon the parent as provided in 33-22-506 and 33-30-1003; or

(d) any other individual defined as a dependent in the health benefit plan covering the employee.

(12) (a) "Eligible employee" means an employee who works on a full-time basis with a normal workweek of 30 hours or more, except that at the sole discretion of the employer, the term may include an employee who works on a full-time basis with a normal workweek of between 20 and 40 hours as long as this eligibility criteria is applied uniformly among all of the employer's employees. The term includes a sole proprietor, a partner of a partnership, and an independent contractor if the sole proprietor, partner, or independent contractor is included as an employee under a health benefit plan of a small employer. The term also includes those persons eligible for coverage under 2-18-704.

(b) The term does not include an employee who works on a part-time, temporary, or substitute basis.

(13) "Established geographic service area" means a geographic area, as approved by the commissioner and based on the carrier's certificate of authority to transact insurance in this state, within which the carrier is authorized to provide coverage.

(14) "Health benefit plan" means any hospital or medical policy or certificate providing for physical and mental health care issued by an insurance company, a fraternal benefit society, or a health service corporation or issued under a health maintenance organization subscriber contract. Health benefit plan does not include coverage of excepted benefits, as defined in 33-22-140, if coverage is provided under a separate policy, certificate, or contract of insurance.

(15) "Index rate" means, for each class of business for a rating period for small employers with similar case characteristics, the average of the applicable base premium rate and the corresponding highest premium rate.

(16) "New business premium rate" means, for each class of business for a rating period, the lowest premium rate charged or offered or that could have been charged or offered by the small employer carrier to small employers with similar case characteristics for newly issued health benefit plans with the same or similar coverage.

(17) "Premium" means all money paid by a small employer and eligible employees as a condition of receiving coverage from a small employer carrier, including any fees or other contributions associated with the health benefit plan.

(18) "Rating period" means the calendar period for which premium rates established by a small employer carrier are assumed to be in effect.

(19) "Restricted network provision" means a provision of a health benefit plan that conditions the payment of benefits, in whole or in part, on the use of health care providers that have entered into a contractual arrangement with the carrier pursuant to Title 33, chapter 22, part 17, or Title 33, chapter 31, to provide health care services to covered individuals.

(20) "Small employer" means a person, firm, corporation, partnership, or bona fide association that is actively engaged in business and that, with respect to a calendar year and a plan year, employed at least two but not more than 50 eligible employees during the preceding calendar year and employed at least two employees on the first day of the plan year. In the case of an employer that was not in existence throughout the preceding calendar year, the determination of whether the employer is a small or large employer must be based on the average number of employees reasonably expected to be employed by the employer in the current calendar year. In determining the number of eligible employees, companies are considered one employer if they:

(a) are affiliated companies;

(b) are eligible to file a combined tax return for purposes of state taxation; or

(c) are members of a bona fide association.

(21) "Small employer carrier" means a carrier that offers health benefit plans that cover eligible employees of one or more small employers in this state.

(22) "Standard health benefit plan" means a health benefit plan that is developed by a small employer carrier and that contains the provisions required pursuant to 33-22-1828.

Compiler's Comments

2005 Amendment: Chapter 469 in definition of health benefit plan near middle of second sentence after "benefits" inserted "as defined in 33-22-140"; and made minor changes in style. Amendment effective October 1, 2005.

33-22-1804. Applicability and scope. (1) This part applies to a health benefit plan marketed through a small employer that provides coverage to the employees of a small employer in this state if any of the following conditions are met:

(a) a portion of the premium or benefits is paid by or on behalf of the small employer;

(b) an eligible employee or dependent is reimbursed, whether through wage adjustments or otherwise, by or on behalf of the small employer for any portion of the premium;

(c) the health benefit plan is treated by the employer or any of the eligible employees or dependents as part of a plan or program for the purposes of section 106, 125, or 162 of the Internal Revenue Code, except a plan or program that is funded entirely by contributions from the employees; or

(d) all of the premium is paid by the employee who obtains coverage through the employer's group health benefit plan.

(2) This part does not apply to an individual health benefit plan for which the entire premium is paid by an employee through payroll deduction or other means.

(3) Unless prohibited by a written opinion from a federal agency, by final regulations implementing Public Law 104-191, or by a ruling by a court of competent jurisdiction, this part does not apply to an individual health benefit plan if the eligible employee or dependent is directly or indirectly reimbursed, whether through wage adjustments or otherwise, by or on behalf of the small employer for any portion of the premium. However, this part does apply to an individual health benefit plan if the employer making the direct or indirect reimbursement for any portion of the premium has had in place an employer-sponsored group health benefit plan in the 12 months preceding the reimbursement.

33-22-1805 through 33-22-1807 reserved.

33-22-1808. Establishment of classes of business. (1) A small employer carrier may establish a separate class of business only to reflect substantial differences in expected claims experience or administrative costs that are related to the following reasons:

(a) The small employer carrier uses more than one type of system for the marketing and sale of health benefit plans to small employers.

(b) The small employer carrier has acquired a class of business from another small employer carrier.

(c) The small employer carrier provides coverage to one or more association groups that meet the requirements of 33-22-501(2).

(2) A small employer carrier may establish up to nine separate classes of business under subsection (1).

(3) The commissioner shall adopt rules to provide for a period of transition in order for a small employer carrier to come into compliance with subsection (2) in the case of acquisition of an additional class of business from another small employer carrier.

(4) The commissioner may approve the establishment of additional classes of business upon application to the commissioner and a finding by the commissioner that the action would enhance the fairness and efficiency of the small employer health insurance market.

History: En. Sec. 26, Ch. 606, L. 1993.

33-22-1809. Restrictions relating to premium rates. (1) Premium rates for health benefit plans under this part are subject to the following provisions:

(a) The index rate for a rating period for any class of business may not exceed the index rate for any other class of business by more than 20%.

(b) For each class of business, the premium rates charged during a rating period to small employers with similar case characteristics for the same or similar coverage or the rates that could be charged to the employer under the rating system for that class of business may not vary from the index rate by more than 25% of the index rate.

(c) The percentage increase in the premium rate charged to a small employer for a new rating period may not exceed the sum of the following:

(i) the percentage change in the new business premium rate measured from the first day of the prior rating period to the first day of the new rating period; in the case of a health benefit plan into which the small employer carrier is no longer enrolling new small employers, the small employer carrier shall use the percentage change in the base premium rate, provided that the change does not exceed, on a percentage basis, the change in the new business premium rate for the most similar health benefit plan into which the small employer carrier is actively enrolling new small employers;

(ii) any adjustment, not to exceed 15% annually and adjusted pro rata for rating periods of less than 1 year, because of the claims experience, health status, or duration of coverage of the employees or dependents of the small employer, as determined from the small employer carrier's rate manual for the class of business; and

(iii) any adjustment because of a change in coverage or a change in the case characteristics of the small employer, as determined from the small employer carrier's rate manual for the class of business.

(d) Adjustments in rates for claims experience, health status, and duration of coverage may not be charged to individual employees or dependents. Any adjustment must be applied uniformly to the rates charged for all employees and dependents of the small employer.

(e) If a small employer carrier uses industry as a case characteristic in establishing premium rates, the rate factor associated with any industry classification may not vary from the average of the rate factors associated with all industry classifications by more than 15% of that coverage.

(f) A small employer carrier shall:

(i) apply rating factors, including case characteristics, consistently with respect to all small employers in a class of business. Rating factors must produce premiums for identical groups that differ only by the amounts attributable to plan design and that do not reflect differences because of the nature of the groups. Differences among base premium rates may not be based in any way on the actual or expected health status or claims experience of the small employer groups that choose or are expected to choose a particular health benefit plan.

(ii) treat all health benefit plans issued or renewed in the same calendar month as having the same rating period.

(g) For the purposes of this subsection (1), a health benefit plan that includes a restricted network provision may not be considered similar coverage to a health benefit plan that does not include a restricted network provision.

(2) A small employer carrier may not transfer a small employer involuntarily into or out of a class of business. A small employer carrier may not offer to transfer a small employer into or out of a class of business unless the offer is made to transfer all small employers in the class of business without regard to case characteristics, claims experience, health status, or duration of coverage since the insurance was issued.

(3) The commissioner may suspend for a specified period the application of subsection (1)(a) for the premium rates applicable to one or more small employers included within a class of business of a small employer carrier for one or more rating periods upon a filing by the small employer carrier and a finding by the commissioner either that the suspension is reasonable in light of the financial condition of the small employer carrier or that the suspension would enhance the fairness and efficiency of the small employer health insurance market.

(4) In connection with the offering for sale of any health benefit plan to a small employer, a small employer carrier shall make a reasonable disclosure, as part of its solicitation and sales materials, of each of the following:

(a) the extent to which premium rates for a specified small employer are established or adjusted based upon the actual or expected variation in claims costs or upon the actual or expected variation in health status of the employees of small employers and the employees' dependents;

(b) the provisions of the health benefit plan concerning the small employer carrier's right to change premium rates and the factors, other than claims experience, that affect changes in premium rates;

(c) the provisions relating to renewability of policies and contracts; and

(d) the provisions relating to any preexisting condition.

(5) (a) Each small employer carrier shall maintain at its principal place of business a complete and detailed description of its rating practices and renewal underwriting practices, including information and documentation that demonstrate that its rating methods and practices are based upon commonly accepted actuarial assumptions and are in accordance with sound actuarial principles.

(b) Each small employer carrier shall file with the commissioner annually, on or before March 15, an actuarial certification certifying that the carrier is in compliance with this part and that the rating methods of the small employer carrier are actuarially sound. The actuarial certification must be in a form and manner and must contain information as specified by the commissioner. A copy of the actuarial certification must be retained by the small employer carrier at its principal place of business.

(c) A small employer carrier shall make the information and documentation described in subsection (5)(a) available to the commissioner upon request. Except in cases of violations of the provisions of this part and except as agreed to by the small employer carrier or as ordered by a court of competent jurisdiction, the information must be considered proprietary and trade secret information and is not subject to disclosure by the commissioner to persons outside of the department.

(6) The commissioner may not require prior approval of the rating methods used by small employer carriers or the premium rates of the health benefit plans offered to small employers.

History: En. Sec. 27, Ch. 606, L. 1993; amd. Sec. 3, Ch. 377, L. 1995; amd. Sec. 9, Ch. 378, L. 1995; amd. Sec. 23, Ch. 416, L. 1997; amd. Sec. 48, Ch. 472, L. 1999.

33-22-1810. Renewability of coverage. (1) A health benefit plan subject to the provisions of this part is renewable with respect to all eligible employees or their dependents, at the option of the small employer, except in any of the following cases:

(a) nonpayment of the required premium;

(b) fraud or misrepresentation of the small employer or with respect to coverage of individual insureds or their representatives;

(c) noncompliance with the carrier's minimum participation requirements;

(d) noncompliance with the carrier's employer contribution requirements;

(e) repeated misuse of a restricted network provision;

(f) election by the small employer carrier to not renew all of its health benefit plans delivered or issued for delivery to small employers in this state, in which case the small employer carrier shall:

(i) provide advance notice of this decision under this subsection (1)(f) to the commissioner in each state in which it is licensed; and

(ii) at least 180 days prior to the nonrenewal of all small employer health benefit plans by the carrier, provide notice of the decision not to renew coverage to all affected small employers and to the commissioner in each state in which an affected insured individual is known to reside. Notice to the commissioner under this subsection (1)(f) must be provided at least 3 working days prior to the notice to the affected small employers.

(g) the commissioner finds that the continuation of the coverage would:

(i) not be in the best interests of the policyholders or certificate holders; or

(ii) impair the carrier's ability to meet its contractual obligations.

(2) If the commissioner makes a finding under subsection (1)(g), the commissioner shall assist affected small employers in finding replacement coverage.

(3) (a) A small employer carrier that elects not to renew all of its health benefit plans under subsection (1)(f) is prohibited from writing new business in the small employer market in this state for a period of 5 years from the date of notice to the commissioner.

(b) The provisions of 33-22-524(3) apply to a small employer carrier that elects to renew only a portion, but not all, of its small employer health benefit plans.

(4) In the case of a small employer carrier doing business in one established geographic service area of the state, the rules set forth in this section apply only to the carrier's operations in that service area.

History: En. Sec. 28, Ch. 606, L. 1993; amd. Sec. 61, Ch. 227, L. 2001.

33-22-1811. Availability of coverage — required plans. (1) (a) As a condition of transacting business in this state with small employers, each small employer carrier must have approved for issuance to small employer groups at least two health benefit plans. One plan must be a basic health benefit plan, and one plan must be a standard health benefit plan.

(b) (i) A small employer carrier shall issue all plans marketed under this part to any eligible small employer that applies for a plan and agrees to make the required premium payments and to satisfy the other reasonable provisions of the health benefit plan not inconsistent with this part.

(ii) In the case of a small employer carrier that establishes more than one class of business pursuant to 33-22-1808, the small employer carrier shall maintain and offer to eligible small employers all plans marketed under this part in each established class of business. A small employer carrier may apply reasonable criteria in determining whether to accept a small employer into a class of business, provided that:

(A) the criteria are not intended to discourage or prevent acceptance of small employers applying for a health benefit plan;

(B) the criteria are not related to the health status or claims experience of the small employers' employees;

(C) the criteria are applied consistently to all small employers that apply for coverage in that class of business; and

(D) the small employer carrier provides for the acceptance of all eligible small employers into one or more classes of business.

(iii) The provisions of subsection (1)(b)(ii) may not be applied to a class of business into which the small employer carrier is no longer enrolling new small businesses.

(c) A small employer carrier that elects not to comply with the requirements of subsections (1)(a) and (1)(b) may continue to provide coverage under health benefit plans previously issued to small employers in this state for a period of no more than 7 years from October 1, 1995, if the carrier:

(i) complies with all other applicable provisions of this part, except 33-22-1810, 33-22-1813, and subsections (2) through (4) of this section;

(ii) does not amend or alter the benefits and coverages of the previously issued health benefit plans unless required to do so by law or rule; and

(iii) complies with all applicable provisions of Public Law 104-91.

(2) (a) A small employer carrier shall, pursuant to 33-1-501, file the basic health benefit plans and the standard health benefit plans to be used by the small employer carrier.

(b) The commissioner may at any time, after providing notice and an opportunity for a hearing to the small employer carrier, disapprove the continued use by a small employer carrier of a basic or standard health benefit plan on the grounds that the plan does not meet the requirements of this part.

(3) Health benefit plans covering small employers must comply with the following provisions:

(a) A health benefit plan may not:

(i) because of a preexisting condition, deny, exclude, or limit benefits for a covered individual for losses incurred more than 12 months following the individual's enrollment date. A health benefit plan may not define a preexisting condition exclusion more restrictively than 33-22-140.

(ii) use a preexisting condition exclusion more restrictive than exclusions allowed under 33-22-514.

(b) A health benefit plan must waive any time period applicable to a preexisting condition exclusion or limitation period with respect to particular services for the period of time that an individual was previously covered by creditable coverage that provided benefits with respect to those services if the creditable coverage was continuous to a date not more than 63 days prior to the submission of an application for new coverage. A health benefit plan may determine waivers of time periods applicable to preexisting condition exclusions or limitations on the basis of prior coverage of benefits within each of several classes or categories as specified in regulations implementing Public Law 104-191, rather than as provided in this subsection (3)(b). This subsection (3)(b) does not preclude application of any waiting period applicable to all new enrollees under the health benefit plan.

(c) A health benefit plan may exclude coverage for late enrollees for 18 months or for an 18-month preexisting condition exclusion, provided that if both a period of exclusion from coverage and a preexisting condition exclusion are applicable to a late enrollee, the combined period may not exceed 18 months from the date on which the individual enrolls for coverage under the health benefit plan.

(d) (i) Requirements used by a small employer carrier in determining whether to provide coverage to a small employer, including requirements for minimum participation of eligible employees and minimum employer contributions, must be applied uniformly among all small employers that have the same number of eligible employees and that apply for coverage or receive coverage from the small employer carrier. For the purpose of meeting minimum participation requirements of groups of four or more, a small employer carrier may not consider employees who, because they are covered under another health plan, waive coverage under the small employer's plan as part of the group of eligible employees. However, a small employer carrier may require at least two eligible employees to participate in a plan.

(ii) A small employer carrier may vary the application of minimum participation requirements and minimum employer contribution requirements only by the size of the small employer group.

(e) (i) If a small employer carrier offers coverage to a small employer, the small employer carrier shall offer coverage to all of the eligible employees of a small employer and their dependents. A small employer carrier may not offer coverage only to certain individuals in a small employer group or only to part of the group, except in the case of late enrollees as provided in subsection (3)(c).

(ii) A small employer carrier may not modify a plan marketed under this part with respect to a small employer or any eligible employee or dependent, through riders, endorsements, or otherwise, to restrict or exclude coverage for certain diseases or medical conditions otherwise covered by the health benefit plan.

(iii) A small employer carrier shall secure a waiver of coverage from each eligible employee who declines, at the sole discretion of the eligible employee, an offer of coverage under a health benefit plan provided by the small employer. The waiver must be signed by the eligible employee and must certify that the employee was informed of the availability of coverage under the health benefit plan and of the penalties for late enrollment. The waiver may not require the eligible employee to disclose the reasons for declining coverage.

(iv) A small employer carrier may not issue coverage to a small employer if the carrier or a producer for the carrier has evidence that the small employer induced or pressured an eligible employee to decline coverage due to the health status or risk characteristics of the eligible employee or of the dependents of the eligible employee.

(4) (a) A small employer carrier may not be required to offer coverage or accept applications pursuant to subsection (1) in the case of the following:

(i) to an employer whose employees do not work or reside within the small employer carrier's established geographic service area for a network plan, as defined in 33-22-140; or

(ii) within an area where the small employer carrier reasonably anticipates and demonstrates to the satisfaction of the commissioner that it will not have the capacity within its established geographic service area to deliver service adequately to the members of a group because of its obligations to existing group policyholders and enrollees. The small employer carrier may not deny coverage under this subsection unless the small employer carrier acts uniformly without regard to claims experience or health status-related factors of employers, employees, or dependents.

(b) A small employer carrier may not be required to provide coverage to small employers pursuant to subsection (1) for which the commissioner determines that the small employer carrier does not have the financial reserves necessary to underwrite additional coverage and that the small employer carrier has denied coverage of small employers uniformly throughout the state and without regard to the claims experience and health status-related factors of the applicant small employer groups. The small employer carrier exempted from providing coverage under this subsection may not offer coverage to small employer groups in this state for 180 days after the date on which coverage is denied or until the small employer carrier has demonstrated to the commissioner that the small employer carrier has sufficient financial reserves to underwrite additional coverage, whichever is later.

33-22-1812. Repealed. Sec. 13, Ch. 377, L. 1995.

History: En. Sec. 31, Ch. 606, L. 1993.

33-22-1813. Standards to ensure fair marketing. (1) Each small employer carrier shall actively market health benefit plan coverage, including the basic and standard health benefit plans, to eligible small employers in the state.

(2) (a) Except as provided in subsection (2)(b), a small employer carrier or producer may not directly or indirectly engage in the following activities:

(i) encouraging or directing small employers to refrain from filing an application for coverage with the small employer carrier because of the health status of the employer's employees or the claims experience, industry, occupation, or geographic location of the small employer;

(ii) encouraging or directing small employers to seek coverage from another carrier because of the health status of the employer's employees or the claims experience, industry, occupation, or geographic location of the small employer.

(b) The provisions of subsection (2)(a) do not apply with respect to information provided by a small employer carrier or producer to a small employer regarding the established geographic service area or a restricted network provision of a small employer carrier.

(3) (a) Except as provided in subsection (3)(b), a small employer carrier may not, directly or indirectly, enter into any contract, agreement, or arrangement with a producer that provides for or results in the compensation paid to a producer for the sale of a health benefit plan to be varied because of the health status of the employer's employees or the claims experience, industry, occupation, or geographic location of the small employer.

(b) Subsection (3)(a) does not apply with respect to a compensation arrangement that provides compensation to a producer on the basis of the percentage of a premium, provided that the percentage may not vary because of the health status of the employer's employees or the claims experience, industry, occupation, or geographic area of the small employer.

(4) A small employer carrier shall provide reasonable compensation, as provided under the plan of operation of the program, to a producer, if any, for the sale of a basic or standard health benefit plan.

(5) A small employer carrier may not terminate, fail to renew, or limit its contract or agreement of representation with a producer for any reason related to the health status of the employer's employees or the claims experience, industry, occupation, or geographic location of the small employers placed by the producer with the small employer carrier.

(6) A small employer carrier or producer may not induce or otherwise encourage a small employer to separate or otherwise exclude an employee from health coverage or benefits provided in connection with the employee's employment.

(7) Denial by a small employer carrier of health insurance coverage for a small employer must be in writing and must state the reason or reasons for the denial.

(8) The commissioner may adopt rules setting forth additional standards to provide for the fair marketing and broad availability of health benefit plans to small employers in this state.

(9) (a) A violation of this section by a small employer carrier or a producer is an unfair trade practice under 33-18-102.

(b) If a small employer carrier enters into a contract, agreement, or other arrangement with an administrator who holds a certificate of registration pursuant to 33-17-603 to provide administrative, marketing, or other services related to the offering of health benefit plans to small employers in this state, the administrator is subject to this section as if the administrator were a small employer carrier.

History: En. Sec. 35, Ch. 606, L. 1993; amd. Sec. 50, Ch. 472, L. 1999.

33-22-1814. Restoration of terminated coverage. The commissioner may promulgate rules to require small employer carriers, as a condition of transacting business with small employers in this state after January 1, 1994, to reissue a health benefit plan to any small employer whose health benefit plan has been terminated or not renewed by the carrier after July 1, 1993. The commissioner may prescribe the terms for the reissuance of coverage that the commissioner finds are reasonable and necessary to provide continuity of coverage to small employers.

History: En. Sec. 36, Ch. 606, L. 1993.

33-22-1815. Qualifications for voluntary purchasing pool. A voluntary purchasing pool of disability insurance purchasers may be formed solely for the purpose of obtaining disability insurance upon compliance with the following provisions:

(1) It contains at least 51 eligible employees.

(2) It establishes requirements for membership. The voluntary purchasing pool shall accept for membership any small employers and may accept for membership any employers with at least 51 eligible employees that otherwise meet the requirements for membership. However, the voluntary purchasing pool may not exclude any small employers that otherwise meet the requirements for membership on the basis of claim experience, occupation, or health status.

(3) It holds an open enrollment period at least once a year during which new members can join the voluntary purchasing pool.

(4) It offers coverage to eligible employees of member employers and to the employees' dependents. Coverage may not be limited to certain employees of member small employers except as provided in 33-22-1811(3)(c).

(5) It does not assume any risk or form self-insurance plans among its members.

(6) (a) Disability insurance policies, certificates, or contracts offered through the voluntary purchasing pool must rate the entire purchasing pool group as a whole and charge each insured person based on a community rate within the common group, adjusted for case characteristics as permitted by the laws governing group disability insurance.

(b) Except for the rates for the small business health insurance pool established in 33-22-2001, rates for voluntary purchasing pool groups must be set pursuant to the provisions of 33-22-1809.

(c) At its discretion, premiums may be paid to the disability insurance policies, certificates, or contracts by the voluntary purchasing pool or by member employers.

(7) A person marketing disability insurance policies, certificates, or contracts for a voluntary purchasing pool must be licensed as an insurance producer.

Compiler's Comments

2005 Amendment: Chapter 595 in (6)(a) near middle after "entire" inserted "purchasing pool"; in (6)(b) at beginning inserted exception clause; in (6)(c) at end after "employers" deleted "or by eligible employees and their dependents"; and made minor changes in style. Amendment effective July 1, 2005.

Applicability: Section 22, Ch. 595, L. 2005, provided: "[This act] applies to tax years beginning after December 31, 2005."

33-22-1816. Commissioner powers and duties — application for registration — reporting insolvency. (1) The commissioner shall develop forms for registration of an organization as a voluntary purchasing pool.

(2) An organization seeking to be registered as a voluntary purchasing pool shall make application to the commissioner. The commissioner shall register an organization as a voluntary purchasing pool upon proof of fulfillment of the qualifications provided in 33-22-1815.

(3) Except as provided in subsection (5), on March 1 of each year, the voluntary purchasing pool shall provide a report and financial statement for the previous calendar year to the commissioner in order that the commissioner may determine:

(a) whether the operation of the voluntary purchasing pool is fiscally sound;

(b) whether the voluntary purchasing pool is bearing any risk; and

(c) the number of individuals covered.

(4) The annual report of the voluntary purchasing pool must disclose its total administrative cost.

(5) A voluntary purchasing pool may choose to operate on a fiscal year other than on the calendar year. A voluntary purchasing pool that establishes a fiscal year that is other than the calendar year shall provide the report required in subsection (3) to the commissioner within 60 days of the voluntary purchasing pool's fiscal yearend.

History: En. Sec. 3, Ch. 375, L. 1995; amd. Sec. 52, Ch. 472, L. 1999.

33-22-1817. Collection of charges and premiums. (1) All insurance or premiums collected by a voluntary purchasing pool on behalf of or for an insurer and all return premiums received from the insurer are held by the voluntary purchasing pool in a fiduciary capacity. These funds must be remitted immediately to the person entitled to them or must be deposited promptly in a fiduciary bank account established and maintained by the administrator of the voluntary purchasing pool. If deposited charges or premiums are collected on behalf of or for more than one insurer, the voluntary purchasing pool shall either keep or require the bank in which the fiduciary account is maintained to keep records clearly recording the deposits to and withdrawals from the account on behalf of each insurer. The voluntary purchasing pool shall promptly obtain and keep copies of all these records and shall, upon request of an insurer, furnish the insurer with copies of the records pertaining to deposits and withdrawals on behalf of or for the insurer.

(2) The voluntary purchasing pool may not pay a claim by withdrawals from the fiduciary account. Withdrawals from the fiduciary account must be made, as provided in the written agreement between the voluntary purchasing pool and the insurer, for:

(a) remittance to an insurer entitled to the remittance;

(b) deposit in an account maintained in the name of the insurer;

(c) payment to a group policyholder for remittance to the insurer entitled to the payment; or

(d) remittance of return premiums to the person entitled to the premium.

33-22-1819. Repealed. Sec. 3, Ch. 103, L. 1999.

33-22-1820. Periodic market evaluation — report. The commissioner may study and report at least every 3 years to the governor or other interested persons on the effectiveness of this part. The report must analyze the effectiveness of this part in promoting rate stability, product availability, and coverage affordability. The report may contain recommendations for actions to improve the overall effectiveness, efficiency, and fairness of the small employer health insurance markets. The report must address whether carriers and producers are fairly and actively marketing or issuing health benefit plans to small employers in fulfillment of the purposes of this part. The report may contain recommendations for market conduct or other regulatory standards or action.

33-22-1821. Waiver of certain laws. Except as provided in 33-22-1827, a small employer carrier may exclude any category of licensed health care practitioner and any benefit or coverage for health care services otherwise required by law or rule from a basic health benefit plan delivered or issued for delivery in this state.

History: En. Sec. 33, Ch. 606, L. 1993; amd. Sec. 10, Ch. 377, L. 1995.

33-22-1822. Administrative procedure. The commissioner shall adopt rules in accordance with the Montana Administrative Procedure Act to implement and administer this part.

History: En. Sec. 34, Ch. 606, L. 1993.

33-22-1823 through 33-22-1826 reserved.

33-22-1827. Benefits required in basic health benefit plan. (1) The basic health benefit plan must provide at least the following benefits:

(a) coverage for the services and articles required by 33-22-1521(2);

(b) coverage for mental health and chemical dependency required by Title 33, chapter 22, part 7;

(c) coverage for conversion of benefits required by 33-22-508 and 33-22-510 or by 33-30-1007; and

(d) coverage for mammography examinations required by 33-22-132.

(2) The small employer carrier may determine varying levels of deductibles, copayments, maximum annual out-of-pocket expenses, maximum lifetime benefits, and other financial cost-sharing arrangements with the insured that give the basic health benefit plan a lower benefit value than the standard health benefit plan.

(3) A basic health benefit plan provided by a health maintenance organization or a basic health benefit plan with a restricted network provision must provide a comparable level of benefits to those required by subsections (1) and (2), as determined by the benefit value.

History: En. Sec. 5, Ch. 377, L. 1995; amd. Sec. 5, Ch. 410, L. 1997; amd. Sec. 26, Ch. 416, L. 1997.

33-22-1828. Benefits required in standard benefit plan. (1) The minimum benefits must be equal to at least 75% of the covered expenses in excess of an annual deductible that does not exceed $500 per person or $1,000 per family. The coverage must include a limitation of $2,000 per person or $4,000 per family on the total annual out-of-pocket expenses for services covered. The coverage may be subject to a maximum lifetime benefit, but a maximum, if any, may not be less than $1 million.

(2) The commissioner may not require coverage in a standard health benefit plan for any benefit unless other provisions of Title 33, chapter 22, 30, or 31, specifically require coverage for the benefit. A small employer carrier may offer coverage for additional services and articles.

(3) A standard health benefit plan provided by a health maintenance organization or a basic health benefit plan with a restricted network provision must provide a comparable level of benefits to those required by subsection (1), as determined by the benefit value.

History: En. Sec. 6, Ch. 377, L. 1995; amd. Sec. 27, Ch. 416, L. 1997; amd. Sec. 37, Ch. 531, L. 1997.

Part 19

Obstetricians and Gynecologists — Primary Care Physicians

33-22-1901. Scope — purpose. The provisions of this part apply to all health benefit plans offered to persons who receive health care services in this state. The purpose of this part is to ensure that obstetricians and gynecologists may be participating primary care physicians under health benefit plans offered to patients who receive health care services in this state and that persons covered by health benefit plans have direct access to the services of a participating obstetrician or gynecologist of their choice.

History: En. Sec. 1, Ch. 198, L. 1997.

33-22-1902. Definitions. As used in this part, the following definitions apply:

(1) "Covered person" means a policyholder, subscriber, certificate holder, enrollee, or other individual who is participating in a health benefit plan.

(2) "Health benefit plan" means any individual or group plan, policy, certificate, subscriber contract, contract of insurance provided by a managed care plan, preferred provider agreement, or health maintenance organization subscriber contract that is issued, delivered, issued for delivery, or renewed in this state by a health carrier that pays for, purchases, or furnishes health care services to covered persons who receive health care services in this state. For the purposes of this part, a health benefit plan located or domiciled outside of the state of Montana is subject to the provisions of this part if it receives, processes, adjudicates, pays, or denies claims for health care services submitted by or on behalf of covered persons who reside or who receive health care services in the state of Montana.

(3) "Health carrier" means a disability insurer, health care insurer, health maintenance organization, accident and sickness insurer, fraternal benefit society, nonprofit hospital service corporation, health service corporation, health care service plan, preferred provider organization or arrangement, multiple employer welfare arrangement, or any other person, firm, corporation, joint venture, or similar business entity.

(4) "Obstetrician or gynecologist" means a physician who is board-eligible or board-certified by the American board of obstetrics and gynecology.

(5) "Participating obstetrician or gynecologist" means an obstetrician or gynecologist who is employed by or under contract with a health benefit plan.

(6) "Primary care physician" means a physician who has the responsibility for providing initial and primary care to patients, for maintaining the continuity of patient care, and for initiating referrals for specialist care.

History: En. Sec. 2, Ch. 198, L. 1997.

33-22-1903. Obstetricians or gynecologists as primary care physicians. (1) Each health benefit plan that provides coverage for primary care or obstetrical or gynecological care must allow obstetricians and gynecologists to participate as primary care physicians. The health carrier that provides the health benefit plan shall contract with a sufficient number of obstetricians and gynecologists to ensure that covered persons have access to the options under this section without unreasonable delay if there are obstetricians or gynecologists practicing in the geographic service areas in which the plan operates who are willing to participate in the plan. An obstetrician or gynecologist may not be required to accept primary care physician status if the obstetrician or gynecologist does not wish to be designated as a primary care physician. A health benefit plan must use the same criteria with regard to credentials and other selection criteria for a participating obstetrician or gynecologist as are applied by the health benefit plan with respect to other physicians who are participating in the health benefit plan. An obstetrician or gynecologist wishing to accept designation as a primary care physician must meet the same criteria with regard to credentials and other selection criteria for a participating primary care physician as other physicians who are participating as primary care physicians in the health benefit plan.

(2) Each health benefit plan must allow a covered person to select any participating obstetrician or gynecologist of the covered person's choice as the covered person's primary care physician.

History: En. Sec. 3, Ch. 198, L. 1997.

33-22-1904. Self-referral for obstetrical or gynecological care permitted. (1) A health benefit plan must permit self-referral to any participating obstetrician or gynecologist by a covered person who has not selected a participating obstetrician or gynecologist as the covered person's primary care physician for services covered under the health benefit plan. This self-referral is for the purpose of receiving any obstetrical or gynecological examination or care and primary and preventative obstetrical and gynecological services required as a result of any obstetrical or gynecological examination or condition. This self-referral must be allowed without prior authorization or precertification from the health benefit plan or covered person's primary care physician, but the health benefit plan may require the covered person to notify the plan prior to self-referral.

(2) The services covered by this section may be limited to those services defined by the most recent published recommendations of the American college of obstetricians and gynecologists. The self-referral permitted by this section may be limited to one participating obstetrician or gynecologist for obstetrical care and one participating obstetrician or gynecologist for gynecological care of the covered person's choice annually.

(3) The participating obstetrician or gynecologist and the covered person shall comply with the health benefit plan's coordination and referral policies. The health benefit plan may require the participating obstetrician or gynecologist to whom the covered person self-refers to discuss with the covered person's primary care physician any services or treatment the participating obstetrician or gynecologist recommends for the covered person.

(4) Self-referral under this section may not affect the covered person's coverage under the health benefit plan. It is the intent of this section that a covered person must at all times have direct access to the covered services of the participating obstetrician or gynecologist of the covered person's choice under any health benefit plan.

History: En. Sec. 4, Ch. 198, L. 1997.

33-22-1905. Surcharges not allowed. A health benefit plan may not impose a surcharge or additional copayments or deductibles upon a covered person who seeks or receives health care services under 33-22-1903 or 33-22-1904 unless similar surcharges or additional copayments or deductibles are imposed for other types of health care services not described in 33-22-1903 and 33-22-1904.

History: En. Sec. 5, Ch. 198, L. 1997.

33-22-1906. Payment of covered services provided by certified advanced practice registered nurses. A health benefit plan may not deny payment for covered services provided to a covered person under 33-22-1903 and 33-22-1904 by a certified advanced practice registered nurse practicing in collaboration with the participating obstetrician or gynecologist. This section may not be construed to expand the definitions of participating obstetrician or gynecologist or primary care physician in 33-22-1902 to include certified advanced practice registered nurses.

History: En. Sec. 6, Ch. 198, L. 1997.

33-22-1907. Disclosure. Each health benefit plan shall disclose in all of its plan literature, in clear, accurate language, the covered person's option to seek the care described in this part without preapproval, preauthorization, or referral.

History: En. Sec. 7, Ch. 198, L. 1997.

33-22-1908. Enforcement. If the commissioner determines that a health benefit plan does not comply with this part or that a health carrier has not complied with a provision of this part, the commissioner may:

(1) recommend a correction plan that must be followed by the health carrier;

(2) institute corrective action that must be followed by the health carrier;

(3) suspend or revoke the certificate of authority or deny the health carrier's application for a certificate of authority; or

(4) use any of the commissioner's enforcement powers to obtain the health carrier's compliance with this part.

History: En. Sec. 8, Ch. 198, L. 1997.

Part 20
Small Business Health Insurance Purchasing Pool

Part Compiler's Comments

Effective Date: Section 21, Ch. 595, L. 2005, provided that this part is effective July 1, 2005.

Applicability: Section 22, Ch. 595, L. 2005, provided: "[This act] applies to tax years beginning after December 31, 2005."

33-22-2001. Establishment of small business health insurance pool — intent. (1) There is established a nonprofit legal entity known as the small business health insurance pool, with participating membership consisting of all employer members of the purchasing pool.

(2) The small business health insurance pool is created as a voluntary purchasing pool pursuant to the provisions of 33-22-1815 through 33-22-1817.

(3) Subject to the conditions in 53-6-1201, the purchasing pool shall make group health plan coverage available effective January 1, 2006.

(4) It is the intent of the legislature that the board:

(a) establish criteria that will allow the greatest number of employees possible to be eligible for premium assistance payments by not permitting eligibility for premium assistance payments under this part to employees who continue [to maintain enrollment in another] comprehensive health insurance coverage through a spouse, parent, or other person; and

(b) allow eligible small employers to determine the length of the waiting period that will apply to their employees as long as the waiting period:

(i) is not more than 12 months; and

(ii) applies to all eligible employees within that small group in the same manner.

(5) The legislative auditor shall conduct or have conducted, at least once each biennium covering the prior 2 fiscal years, a financial compliance audit of the board and the purchasing pool. The cost of the audit must be paid for by the purchasing pool as a direct cost not subject to the cap on administrative expenses.

History: En. Sec. 1, Ch. 595, L. 2005.

Compiler's Comments

Code Commissioner Correction: In (4)(a) the code commissioner has inserted brackets around the phrase "to maintain enrollment in another" to improve comprehension.

33-22-2002. Small business health insurance pool — definitions. As used in this part, the following definitions apply:

(1) "Board" means the board of directors of the small business health insurance pool as provided for in 33-22-2003.

(2) "Dependent" has the meaning provided in 33-22-1803.

(3) "Eligible employee" has the meaning provided in 33-22-1803.

(4) (a) "Eligible small employer" means an employer who is sponsoring or will sponsor a group health plan and who employed at least two but not more than nine employees during the preceding calendar year and who employs at least two but not more than nine employees on the first day of the plan year.

(b) The term includes small employers who obtain group health plan coverage through a qualified association health plan.

(5) "Group health plan" has the meaning provided in 33-22-140.

(6) "Premium" means the amount of money that a health insurance issuer charges to provide coverage under a group health plan.

(7) "Premium assistance payment" means a payment provided for in 33-22-2006 on behalf of eligible employees who qualify to be applied on a monthly basis to premiums paid for group health plan coverage through the purchasing pool or through qualified association health plans.

(8) "Premium incentive payment" means a payment provided for in 33-22-2007(1)(b) to eligible small employers who qualify under 33-22-2007 to be applied to premiums paid on a monthly basis for group health plan coverage obtained through the purchasing pool or through qualified association health plans.

(9) "Purchasing pool" means the small business health insurance pool.

(10) "Qualified association health plan" means a plan established by an association whose members consist of employers who sponsor group health plans for their employees and purchase that coverage through an association that qualifies as a bona fide association, as defined in 33-22-1803, or nonbona fide, as provided for in administrative rule. A qualified association health plan is subject to applicable employer group health insurance law and must receive approval from the commissioner to operate as a qualified association health plan for the purposes of this part.

(11) "Related employers" means persons having a relationship as described in section 267 of the Internal Revenue Code, 26 U.S.C. 267.

(12) "Tax credit" means a refundable tax credit as provided for in 33-22-2008.

(13) "Tax year" means the taxpayer's tax year for federal income tax purposes.

History: En. Sec. 2, Ch. 595, L. 2005.

33-22-2003. Board of directors — composition — appointment — compensation. (1) There is a board of directors of the small business health insurance pool, consisting of seven directors and two nonvoting members serving 3-year staggered terms and appointed in the following manner:

(a) three directors must be appointed by the commissioner, one of whom must be a person who has specialized knowledge regarding health insurance, one of whom must be a consumer representing the small business community, and one of whom must be a consumer representing the public interest;

(b) four directors must be appointed by the governor, one of whom must be a management-level individual with knowledge of state employee health benefit plans, one of whom must be a management-level individual with knowledge of medicaid services, one of whom must be a consumer representing the public interest, and one of whom must be a consumer representing the small business community.

(2) Each director is entitled to one vote on the board.

(3) The commissioner and the governor shall each appoint a representative from their respective staffs to participate in all board meetings as nonvoting members.

(4) The directors must be compensated and receive travel expenses in the same manner as members of the quasi-judicial boards under 2-15-124(7). The costs of conducting the meetings of the purchasing pool and the compensation for its board of directors must be borne by the purchasing pool.

(5) A board director or member must be replaced in the same manner as the original appointment if that board member is not actively participating in the affairs of the board.

History: En. Sec. 3, Ch. 595, L. 2005.

33-22-2004. Powers and duties of board. (1) The board shall:

(a) establish an operating plan that includes but is not limited to administrative and accounting procedures for the operation of the purchasing pool and a schedule for premium incentive and premium assistance payments and that complies with the powers and duties provided for in this section;

(b) require employers and employees to reapply for premium incentive payments or premium assistance payments on an annual basis;

(c) upon reapplication, give priority to employers and their employees who are already receiving the premium incentive payments and premium assistance payments;

(d) upon reapplication, allow employers to retain eligibility to receive premium incentive payments and premium assistance payments on behalf of their eligible employees if the number of their employees goes over the maximum number, not to exceed nine employees, established by the commissioner in administrative rule;

(e) renew purchasing pool group health plan coverage for all employer groups, even if the employer group no longer receives or is eligible for a premium incentive payment;

(f) adopt a premium incentive payment amount that is the same for all registered eligible small employers who join the purchasing pool or obtain qualified association health plan coverage;

(g) adopt premium assistance payment amounts that, in combination with the premium incentive payments, are consistent with the amounts provided for in 33-22-2006 and 33-22-2008 or with the assistance of the department of public health and human services, adopt a premium assistance payment schedule that is equitably proportional to the income or wage level for eligible employees;

(h) establish criteria for determining which employees will be eligible for a premium assistance payment and the amount that the employees will receive from among those eligible small employer groups that have registered with the commissioner pursuant to 33-22-2008 and applied for coverage under the purchasing pool group health plan or qualified association health plan. However, to the extent that federal funds are used to make some premium assistance payments, criteria for those payments must be consistent with any waiver requirements determined by the department of public health and human services pursuant to 53-2-216. Eligibility for employees is not limited to the waiver eligibility groups.

(i) make appropriate changes to eligibility or other elements in the operating plan as needed to reach the goal of expending 90% of the funding dedicated to premium incentive payments and premium assistance payments during the current biennium;

(j) limit the total amount of premium incentive payments and premium assistance payments paid to the amount of available state, federal, and private funding;

(k) approve no more than six fully insured group health plans with different benefit levels that will be offered to employers participating in the purchasing pool;

(l) prepare appropriate specifications and bid forms and solicit bids from health insurance issuers authorized to do business in this state;

(m) contract with no more than three health insurance issuers to underwrite the group health plans that will be offered through the purchasing pool;

(n) request that the department of public health and human services seek a federal waiver for medicaid matching funds for premium assistance payments based on the department's analysis, as provided in 53-2-216, if it is in the best interests of the purchasing pool;

(o) comply with the participation requirements provided for in 33-22-1811;

(p) meet at least four times annually; and

(q) within 2 years after the purchasing pool is established and considered stable by the board, examine the possibility of offering an opportunity for individual sole proprietors without employees to purchase insurance from the purchasing pool without premium incentive payments, premium assistance payments, or tax credits.

(2) The board may:

(a) borrow money;

(b) enter into contracts with insurers, administrators, or other persons;

(c) hire employees to perform the administrative tasks of the purchasing pool;

(d) assess its members for costs associated with administration of the purchasing pool and request that the commissioner transfer funds or request that the department of public health and human services transfer funds from the special revenue account, as provided in 53-6-1201, for that purpose;

(e) set contribution levels for employers;

(f) request that funds be transferred from the funds appropriated for premium incentive payments and premium assistance payments to the general fund to offset tax credits if the number of eligible small employers seeking premium incentive payments and employees receiving premium assistance payments is insufficient to exhaust at least 90% of the appropriated funds for the premium incentive and assistance payments during a biennium;

(g) seek other federal, state, and private funding sources;

(h) accept all small employer groups who apply for coverage under the small business health insurance pool group health plan even if they are not eligible for any tax credit or premium incentive payment and have not been registered by the commissioner pursuant to 33-22-2008;

(i) receive from the commissioner's office or the department of public health and human services premium incentive payments on behalf of eligible small employers and premium assistance payments on behalf of eligible employees, collect the employer or employee premiums from the employer or employees, and make premium payments to insurers on behalf of the eligible small employers and employees;

(j) request the commissioner to direct more than 30% of the available funding for premium incentives and premium assistance payments to qualified association health plan coverage instead of purchasing pool coverage; and

(k) pay appropriate commissions to licensed insurance producers who market purchasing pool coverage.

History: En. Sec. 4, Ch. 595, L. 2005.

33-22-2005. Duties of commissioner — rulemaking authority. Subject to the conditions in 53-6-1201, the commissioner shall:

(1) adopt rules regarding the implementation of this part, including rules regarding the administration of the premium incentive payments, premium assistance payments, and tax credits, the approval of qualified association health plans, and the registration process. The rules regarding tax credits may not relate to the filing of tax returns and claiming the tax credit on the tax returns.

(2) supervise the creation of the purchasing pool within the limits described in this part;

(3) approve or disapprove the operating plan for the purchasing pool;

(4) if the board chooses to hire one, approve or disapprove the selection of a third-party administrator to handle the administration of the purchasing pool;

(5) with the assistance of the department of public health and human services, approve or disapprove the schedule of premium incentive payment or premium assistance payment amounts adopted by the board as provided in 33-22-2004;

(6) approve or disapprove any contracts between a health insurance issuer and the purchasing pool;

(7) approve or disapprove all group health plans being offered by insurers through the purchasing pool;

(8) conduct periodic audits of the financial transactions conducted by the purchasing pool;

(9) allow up to 30%, or more if requested by the board and approved by the commissioner, of the available funding for the premium incentive payments and premium assistance payments to be applied to small group health plan coverage purchased through a qualified association health plan; and

(10) make applicable premium incentive payments or premium assistance payments for qualified association health plan coverage on behalf of eligible small employers and employees or direct the purchasing pool to make the payments; and

(11) approve or disapprove associations as qualified if their members consist of employers who sponsor group health plan coverage for their employees and purchase that coverage through an association that qualifies as a bona fide association, as defined in 33-22-1803, or nonbona fide, as provided for in administrative rule. A qualified association health plan is subject to applicable employer group health insurance law.

History: En. Sec. 5, Ch. 595, L. 2005.

33-22-2006. Premium incentive payments, premium assistance payments, and tax credits for small employer health insurance premiums paid — eligibility for small group coverage — amounts. (1) An employer is eligible to apply for premium incentive payments and premium assistance payments or a tax credit under this part if the employer and any related employers:

(a) did not have more than the number of employees established for eligibility by the commissioner at the time of registering for premium incentive payments or premium assistance payments or a tax credit under 33-22-2008;

(b) provide or will provide a group health plan for the employer's and any related employer's employees;

(c) do not have delinquent state income tax liability owing to the department of revenue from previous years;

(d) have been registered as eligible small employer participants by the commissioner as provided in 33-22-2008; and

(e) do not have any employees, not including an owner, partner, or shareholder of the business, who received more than $75,000 in gross compensation, including bonuses and commissions, from the small employer or related employer in the prior tax year.

(2) The commissioner shall establish, by rule, the maximum number of employees that may be employed to qualify as a small employer under subsection (1). However, the number may not be less than two employees or more than nine employees. The maximum number may be different for employers seeking premium incentive payments and premium assistance payments than for employers seeking a tax credit. The number must be set to maximize the number of employees receiving coverage under this part. The commissioner may not change the maximum employee number more often than every 6 months. If the maximum number of allowable employees is changed, the change does not disqualify registered employers with respect to the tax year for which the employer has registered.

(3) Except as provided in subsection (4), an eligible small employer may claim a tax credit in the following amounts:

(a) (i) not more than $100 each month for each employee and $100 each month for each employee's spouse, if the employer covers the employee's spouse, if the average age of the group is under 45 years of age; or

(ii) not more than $125 each month for each employee and $100 each month for each employee's spouse, if the employer covers the employee's spouse, if the average age of the group is 45 years of age or older; and

(b) not more than $40 each month for each dependent, other than the employee's spouse, if the employer is paying for coverage for the dependents, not to exceed two dependents of an employee in addition to the employee's spouse.

(4) An employer may not claim a tax credit:

(a) in excess of 50% of the total premiums paid by the employer for the qualifying small group;

(b) for premiums paid from a medical care savings account provided for in Title 15, chapter 61; or

(c) for premiums for which a deduction is claimed under 15-30-121 or 15-31-114.

(5) An employer may not claim a premium incentive payment in excess of 50% of the total premiums paid by the employer for the qualifying small group.

History: En. Sec. 6, Ch. 595, L. 2005.

33-22-2007. Filing for tax credit — filing for premium incentive payments and premium assistance payments. (1) An eligible small employer may:

(a) apply the tax credit against taxes due for the current tax year on a return filed pursuant to Title 15, chapter 30 or 31; or

(b) if the eligible small employer did not sponsor a group health plan for employees during the 2 years prior to the first tax year of registration for the premium incentive payments or premium assistance payments or operates a new business that is less than 2 years old and has never sponsored a group health plan, apply to receive monthly premium incentive payments and premium assistance payments to be applied to coverage obtained through the purchasing pool or qualified association health plan coverage approved by the commissioner.

(2) An eligible small employer may not, in the same tax year, apply the tax credit against taxes due for the current tax year as provided for in subsection (1)(a) and receive premium incentive payments as provided for in subsection (1)(b).

(3) The premium incentive payments and premium assistance payments provided for in subsection (1)(b) must be paid pursuant to a plan of operation implemented by the board and any applicable administrative rules.

(4) (a) If an eligible small employer's tax credit as provided in subsection (1)(a) exceeds the employer's liability under 15-30-103 or 15-31-121, the amount of the excess must be refunded to the eligible small employer. The tax credit may be claimed even if the eligible small employer has no tax liability under 15-30-103 or 15-31-121.

(b) A tax credit is not allowed under 15-30-129, 15-31-132, or any other provision of Title 15, chapter 30 or 31, with respect to any amount for which a tax credit is allowed under this part.

(5) The department of revenue or the commissioner may grant a reasonable extension for filing a claim for premium incentive payments or premium assistance payments or a tax credit whenever, in the department's or the commissioner's judgment, good cause exists. The department of revenue and the commissioner shall keep a record of each extension and the reason for granting the extension.

(6) (a) If an employer that would have a claim under this part ceases doing business before filing the claim, the representative of the employer who files the tax return or pays the premium may file the claim.

(b) If a corporation that would have a claim under this part merges with or is acquired by another corporation and the merger or acquisition makes the previously eligible corporation ineligible for the premium incentive payments, premium assistance payments, or tax credit in the future, the surviving or acquired corporation may file for the premium incentive payments, premium assistance payments, or tax credit for any claim period during which the former eligible corporation remained eligible.

(c) If an employer that would have a claim under this part files for bankruptcy protection, the receiver may file for the premium incentive payments, premium assistance payments, or tax credit for any claim period during which the employer was eligible.

History: En. Sec. 7, Ch. 595, L. 2005.

33-22-2008. Registration — funding limitations — transfers — maximum number — waiting list — information transfer for tax credits. (1) (a) Each eligible small employer that proposes to apply for premium incentive payments and premium assistance payments or a tax credit under this part must be registered each year with the commissioner. The commissioner shall begin taking new applications for 2006 on October 1, 2005.

(b) An eligible small employer may submit a new application for the premium incentive payments and premium assistance payments or the tax credit anytime during the year, but in order to maintain the employer's registration for the next year, the registration application must be renewed each year.

(c) The commissioner shall begin accepting renewal applications on October 1 of each year and stop accepting renewal applications on October 31 of each year.

(d) The registration application must include the number of individuals covered, as of the date of the registration application, under the small group health plan for which the employer is seeking premium incentive payments and premium assistance payments or a tax credit. If, after the initial registration, the number of individuals increases, the employer may apply to register the additional individuals, but those additional individuals may be added only at the discretion of the commissioner, who shall limit enrollment based on available funds.

(e) A small employer is not eligible to apply for premium incentive payments and premium assistance payments or a tax credit for a number of employees, or the employees' spouses or dependents, over the number that has been established in 33-22-2006 as the maximum number of employees an employer may have in order to qualify for registration for the time period in question.

(f) An employer's decision to apply for premium incentive payments and premium assistance payments or a tax credit is irrevocable for 12 months or until the purchasing pool group health plan or qualified association health plan renews its registration, whichever time period is less. An employer may choose to discontinue receiving any premium incentive payments and premium assistance payments or tax credits at any time.

(2) The commissioner shall register qualifying eligible small employers in the order in which applications are received and according to whether or not the application is for premium incentive payments and premium assistance payments or a tax credit. Initially, 60% of the available funding must be dedicated to provide and maintain premium incentive payments and premium assistance payments for eligible small employers who have not sponsored group health plans in the previous 2 years and who chose to join the purchasing pool or a qualified association health plan and 40% of the available funding must be dedicated to tax credits for eligible small employers who currently sponsor a small group health plan. Funding may be transferred from the allocated fund for premium incentive payments and premium assistance payments to the general fund for tax credits if the board requests the transfer as provided in 33-22-2004 and the commissioner approves the request.

(3) (a) The maximum number of eligible small employers is reached when the anticipated amount of claims for premium incentive payments and premium assistance payments and tax credits has reached 95% of the amount of money allocated for premium incentive payments and premium assistance payments and tax credits.

(b) The commissioner may establish a waiting list for applicants that are otherwise qualified for registration but cannot be registered because of a lack of money or because the maximum number of eligible small employers has been reached.

(c) The commissioner shall mail to each employer registered under this section a notice of registration containing a unique registration number and indicating eligibility for either premium incentive payments and premium assistance payments or a tax credit. The commissioner shall also issue to each employer that is eligible for premium incentive payments and premium assistance payments or the tax credit a certificate, placard, sticker, or other evidence of participation that may be publicly posted.

(d) The commissioner shall notify all persons who applied for registration and who were not accepted that they were not registered and the reason that they were not registered.

(4) A prospective participant shall apply for registration on a form provided by the commissioner. The prospective participant shall:

(a) provide the number of employees and whether the employer qualifies under 33-22-2006;

(b) provide information that is necessary to estimate the amount of the premium incentive payments and premium assistance payments payable to the applicant or the amount of the tax credit available to the applicant, such as the ages of employees or dependents, relationships of employees' dependents, and information required by the department of public health and human services for determination of eligibility for premium assistance payments matched by federal funds;

(c) indicate whether the prospective employer intends to pursue the claim as a tax credit through the income tax process or through premium incentive payments and premium assistance payments to be applied toward purchasing pool or eligible qualified association health plan coverage;

(d) indicate whether or not the employer previously sponsored a group health plan and, if so, when and for how long; and

(e) provide any additional information determined by the commissioner to be necessary to support an application.

(5) Each year, small employer participants shall reregister with the commissioner in order to determine the participant's continued eligibility.

(6) The commissioner shall transmit to the department of revenue, at least annually, a list of eligible small employers that are taxpayers entitled to the tax credit and shall specify the taxpayer's name and tax identification number, the tax year to which the credit applies, the amount of the credit, and whether the credit is to be applied against taxes due on the taxpayer's return or paid as premium incentive payments or premium assistance payments. Unless there has been a finding of fraud or misrepresentation on the part of the taxpayer regarding issues relating to eligibility for the tax credit, the department of revenue may not redetermine or change the commissioner's determination regarding the taxpayer's entitlement to and amount of the tax credit.

(7) If the department of public health and human services receives approval for a section 1115 waiver as provided in 53-2-216, the commissioner shall work with the department of public health and human services with regard to eligibility determinations as required by federal law or waiver conditions.

History: En. Sec. 8, Ch. 595, L. 2005.

33-22-2009. Penalties. (1) The commissioner may, after providing an opportunity for a hearing pursuant to 33-1-701, impose the penalties provided for in 33-1-317 for a violation of this part. Failure to pay a fine under this section results in a lien upon the assets and property of that person in this state and may be recovered by suit by the commissioner and deposited in the special revenue account described in 53-6-1201.

(2) In addition to any penalty provided for in 33-1-317, the commissioner may require a person violating this part to make full restitution to the state, including interest of 10% a year from the date of loss, if a violation of this part caused a premium incentive payment or premium assistance payment to be paid or a tax credit to be issued to a person who was not entitled to it.

(3) A person who purposely or knowingly violates this part and receives a premium incentive payment or premium assistance payment or tax credit that the person is not entitled to commits the offense of theft, which is punishable as provided in 45-6-301.

(4) A person who purposely or knowingly violates this part and makes false statements, knowing those statements are not true, commits the offense of unsworn falsification to authorities, which is punishable as provided in 45-7-203.

(5) Any fines or restitution collected pursuant to this section must be deposited in the special revenue account in 53-6-1201 and dedicated to the payment of premium incentive payments and premium assistance payments or tax credits or funding new programs to assist eligible small employers with the cost of providing health insurance benefits.

33-23-201. Motor vehicle liability policies to include uninsured motorist coverage — rejection by insured. (1) No motor vehicle liability policy insuring against loss resulting from liability imposed by law for bodily injury or death suffered by any person arising out of the ownership, maintenance, or use of a motor vehicle may be delivered or issued for delivery in this state, with respect to any motor vehicle registered and principally garaged in this state, unless coverage is provided therein or supplemental thereto, in limits for bodily injury or death set forth in 61-6-103, under provisions filed with and approved by the commissioner, for the protection of persons insured thereunder who are legally entitled to recover damages from owners or operators of uninsured motor vehicles because of bodily injury, sickness, or disease, including death, resulting therefrom, caused by an accident arising out of the operation or use of such vehicle. An uninsured motor vehicle is a land motor vehicle, the ownership, the maintenance, or the use of which is not insured or bonded for bodily injury liability at the time of the accident.

(2) The named insured shall have the right to reject such coverage. Unless the named insured requests such coverage in writing, such coverage need not be provided in or supplemental to a renewal policy where the named insured had rejected the coverage in connection with the policy previously issued to him by the same insurer.

History: En. Sec. 1, Ch. 31, L. 1967; amd. Sec. 2, Ch. 526, L. 1975; R.C.M. 1947, 40-4403; amd. Sec. 7, Ch. 139, L. 1987; amd. Sec. 40, Ch. 83, L. 1989.

33-23-202. Reimbursement for total loss of motor vehicle based on actual replacement value. Each motor vehicle insurance policy issued to residents of this state that provides that reimbursement for total loss of a motor vehicle be based on a "book" value rather than on the actual replacement value is void as to that provision, and reimbursement must be made for actual replacement value except as provided in 27-1-306.

History: En. Sec. 1, Ch. 182, L. 1969; R.C.M. 1947, 40-4404; amd. Sec. 8, Ch. 139, L. 1987; amd. Sec. 2, Ch. 71, L. 1997.

33-23-203. Limitation of liability under motor vehicle liability policy. (1) Unless a motor vehicle liability policy specifically provides otherwise, the limits of insurance coverage available under each part of the policy must be determined as follows, regardless of the number of motor vehicles insured under the policy, the number of policies issued by the same company covering the insured, or the number of separate premiums paid:

(a) the limits of insurance coverages available for any one accident are the limits specified for each coverage available under the policy insuring the motor vehicle involved in the accident;

(b) if the motor vehicle involved in the accident is not insured under a policy, the limits of the insurance coverages available for any one accident are the highest limits of the coverages specified under one policy for one motor vehicle insured under that policy; and

(c) the limits of the coverages specified under one policy or under more than one policy issued by the same company may not be added together to determine the limits of insurance coverages available under the policy or policies for any one accident.

(2) A motor vehicle liability policy may also provide for other reasonable limitations, exclusions, reductions of coverage, or subrogation clauses that are designed to prevent duplicate payments for the same element of loss under the motor vehicle liability policy or under another casualty policy that provides coverage for an injury that necessitates damages or benefit payments or to prevent the adding together of insurance coverage limits in one policy or from more than one policy issued by the same company.

(3) An insurer that charges a premium for a specified coverage shall clearly inform or notify the insured in writing of the limits of the coverage with respect to the premium charged and whether the coverage from one policy or motor vehicle may be added to the coverage of another policy or motor vehicle.

(4) Nothing in this section is intended to create coverage for a motor vehicle that would otherwise be uninsured.

History: En. Sec. 1, Ch. 212, L. 1981; amd. Sec. 9, Ch. 139, L. 1987; amd. Sec. 1, Ch. 263, L. 1997; amd. Sec. 1, Ch. 495, L. 1997.

33-23-204. Definitions. As used in this part, the following definitions apply:

(1) (a) "Motor vehicle" means a vehicle propelled by its own power and designed primarily to transport persons or property upon the highways of the state.

(b) The term does not include a bicycle, as defined in 61-8-102, an electric personal assistive mobility device, as defined in 61-1-101, and a motorized nonstandard vehicle, as defined in 61-1-101.

(2) "Motor vehicle liability policy" means a policy of automobile or motor vehicle insurance against liability required under Title 61, chapter 6, parts 1 and 3, and all additional coverages included in or added to the policy by rider, endorsement, or otherwise, whether or not required under Title 61, including, without limitation, uninsured, underinsured, and medical payment coverages.

History: En. Sec. 6, Ch. 139, L. 1987; amd. Sec. 2, Ch. 495, L. 1997; amd. Secs. 5, 11, 12, Ch. 468, L. 2005; amd. Sec. 38, Ch. 542, L. 2005.

Compiler's Comments

2005 Amendments — Composite Section — Coordination: Chapter 468 in (1)(b) inserted "an electric personal assistive mobility device, as defined in 61-1-101, and a motorized nonstandard vehicle, as defined in 61-1-101"; and made minor changes in style. Amendment effective April 28, 2005.

Chapter 542 in (1)(b) after "bicycle, as defined in" substituted "61-8-102" for "61-1-123"; and made minor changes in style. Amendment effective January 1, 2006.

Section 11, Ch. 468, L. 2005, a coordination section, amended this section in (1)(b) by changing "[section 1]" to "61-1-101".

Section 12, Ch. 468, L. 2005, a coordination section, amended this section in (1)(b) by changing "[section 2]" to "61-1-101".

33-23-205 through 33-23-210 reserved.

33-23-211. Limitations on basis for cancellation. (1) A notice of cancellation of a motor vehicle liability policy is effective only if it is based on one or more of the following reasons:

(a) nonpayment of premium; or

(b) the driver's license or motor vehicle registration of the named insured or of any other operator who either resides in the same household or customarily operates a motor vehicle insured under the policy has been under suspension or revocation during the policy period or, if the policy is a renewal, during its policy period or the 180 days immediately preceding its effective date.

(2) This section does not apply to any policy or coverage which has been in effect less than 60 days at the time notice of cancellation is mailed or delivered by the insurer unless it is a renewal policy.

(3) Modification of motor vehicle physical damage coverage by the inclusion of a deductible not exceeding $100 may not be deemed a cancellation of the coverage or of the policy.

(4) This section does not apply to nonrenewal of a motor vehicle liability policy.

History: En. Sec. 3, Ch. 262, L. 1971; R.C.M. 1947, 40-4407; amd. Sec. 10, Ch. 139, L. 1987.

Cross-References

Revocation or suspension of driver's license, Title 61, ch. 5, part 2.

33-23-212. Notice required for cancellation — statement that insurer will specify reason upon request — exception. (1) A cancellation by an insurer of a motor vehicle liability insurance policy is not effective prior to the mailing or delivery to the named insured, at the address shown in the policy, of a written notice of the cancellation stating the date on which, not less than 45 days after the date of the mailing or delivery, the cancellation becomes effective. Other provisions of this code may not be construed as affecting the requirements provided in this subsection (1).

(2) A notice of cancellation of a policy to which 33-23-211 applies is not effective unless mailed or delivered by the insurer to the named insured at least 45 days prior to the effective date of cancellation. However, if cancellation is for nonpayment of premium, at least 10 days' notice of cancellation accompanied by the reason must be given. Unless the reason accompanies or is included in the notice of cancellation, the notice of cancellation must state or be accompanied by a statement that upon written request of the named insured, mailed or delivered to the insurer not less than 21 days prior to the effective date of cancellation, the insurer shall specify the reason for the cancellation.

(3) Subsection (2) does not apply to nonrenewal.

History: En. Secs. 1, 4, 7, Ch. 262, L. 1971; R.C.M. 1947, 40-4405, 40-4408, 40-4411; amd. Sec. 11, Ch. 139, L. 1987; amd. Sec. 41, Ch. 83, L. 1989; amd. Sec. 53, Ch. 472, L. 1999; amd. Sec. 4, Ch. 339, L. 2003; amd. Sec. 43, Ch. 380, L. 2003.

33-23-213. Notice to insured of ground for cancellation — commissioner to ensure compliance. Whenever an insurer gives notice of cancellation of a motor vehicle liability policy, upon request of the insured, the insurer, within 15 days of receipt of the request, shall furnish to the insured a statement setting forth the ground or grounds upon which the notice of cancellation is based. If the insurer fails to comply with the provisions of this section, the insured may apply to the commissioner for a certificate of the facts or information desired. The commissioner shall exercise any power conferred upon him by law as may be necessary to ensure compliance with this section.

History: En. Sec. 2, Ch. 262, L. 1971; R.C.M. 1947, 40-4406; amd. Sec. 12, Ch. 139, L. 1987.

Cross-References

Hearings by Commissioner, 33-1-701.

33-23-214. Advance notice required for nonrenewal — exceptions. (1) An insurer shall renew a motor vehicle liability policy unless it mails or delivers to the named insured, at the address shown in the policy, at least 45 days' advance notice of its intention not to renew. The notice must contain or be accompanied by a statement that upon written request made not later than 1 month following the termination date of the policy of the named insured mailed or delivered to the insurer, the insurer will notify the insured in writing, within 15 days of the insured's request, of the reason or reasons for the nonrenewal.

(2) Notwithstanding the failure of an insurer to comply with this section, the motor vehicle liability policy must terminate on the effective date of any other replacement or succeeding motor vehicle liability policy procured by the insured with respect to any motor vehicle designated in both policies.

(3) This section does not apply where the named insured has failed to discharge when due any of the insured's obligations in connection with the payment of premiums for the policy or the renewal of the policy or any installment payments for the policy, whether payable directly to the insurer or its insurance producer or indirectly under any premium finance plan or extension of credit.

(4) This section does not apply in any of the following cases:

(a) if the insurer has manifested its willingness to renew;

(b) in case of nonpayment of premium. However, notwithstanding the failure of an insurer to comply with this section, the policy must terminate on the effective date of any other insurance policy with respect to any motor vehicle designated in both policies.

(c) if the insured's insurance producer or broker has secured other coverage acceptable to the insured at least 20 days prior to the anniversary date of the policy or termination of the policy period.

(5) Renewal of a motor vehicle liability policy does not constitute a waiver or estoppel with respect to grounds for cancellation which existed before the effective date of the renewal.

(6) A notice of nonrenewal of a motor vehicle liability policy under this section, for a policy that has a term of less than 6 months, is effective only when based on one or more of the reasons listed in 33-23-211.

History: En. Sec. 5, Ch. 262, L. 1971; amd. Sec. 1, Ch. 249, L. 1975; R.C.M. 1947, 40-4409; amd. Sec. 13, Ch. 139, L. 1987; amd. Sec. 1, Ch. 713, L. 1989; amd. Sec. 5, Ch. 339, L. 2003.

33-23-215. No liability for statements in connection with cancellation or nonrenewal. There may be no liability on the part of and no cause of action of any nature may arise against the commissioner or against any insurer, its authorized representative, its insurance producers, its employees, or any firm, person, or corporation furnishing to the insurer information as to reasons for cancellation or nonrenewal for any statement made by any of them in any written notice of cancellation or nonrenewal or for statements made or evidence submitted at any hearings conducted in connection therewith.

History: En. Sec. 8, Ch. 262, L. 1971; R.C.M. 1947, 40-4412; amd. Sec. 14, Ch. 139, L. 1987; amd. Sec. 1, Ch. 713, L. 1989.

33-23-216. Retention and proof of notice. (1) A notice of cancellation or of intention not to renew or of reasons for cancellation of insurance issued under terms of this chapter must be retained for a period of 3 years by the insurer or his insurance producer within this state and must be made available within this state for examination or inspection by the commissioner or his insurance producers at any time within such 3-year period upon reasonable notice.

(2) Proof of mailing of notice of cancellation or of intention not to renew or of reasons for cancellation to the named insured at the address shown in the policy or to the named insured's latest known address is sufficient proof of notice.

33-23-217. Return of unearned premiums. If an insurer cancels a motor vehicle policy covering a commercial or private motor vehicle for nonpayment of a premium, the insurer shall process the cancellation on a pro rata basis. The insurer shall return whatever gross unearned premium is due under the motor vehicle policy to the insured. For purposes of this section, the term "unearned premium" means that part of the original premium, including deposits, not yet earned by the insurer and therefore due the insured if the policy is canceled.

33-23-310. Medical malpractice insurance report by insurer. (1) Each insurer engaged in issuing medical malpractice professional liability insurance in this state shall include the following, by profession and based upon the insurer's experience in this state, in its annual statement to the commissioner of insurance:

(a) the number of medical malpractice insureds as of December 31 of the preceding calendar year;

(b) the amount of direct premiums written and direct premiums paid for medical malpractice insurance during the preceding calendar year;

(c) the number of medical malpractice claims made against its insureds during the preceding calendar year;

(d) the number of medical malpractice claims that were closed and that had a direct loss paid during the preceding calendar year, together with the total amount of direct losses paid for all closed claims for that year;

(e) the number of medical malpractice claims that were still open and had no direct losses paid as of December 31 of the preceding calendar year;

(f) the number of claims filed against its insureds in state and federal courts during the preceding calendar year, including the number of claims that were closed:

(i) without settlement during the preceding calendar year;

(ii) with a settlement during the preceding calendar year and the total amount paid for those claims;

(iii) during the preceding calendar year and that went to trial and the number that resulted in a judgment or verdict for the plaintiff, the number that resulted in a judgment or verdict for the insured, and the number that resulted in some other judgment or verdict;

(g) the total direct losses paid for claims against its medical malpractice insureds that went to trial and were closed during the preceding year; and

(h) other information and statistics that the commissioner of insurance requires.

(2) For purposes of this section:

(a) "insurer" has the meaning provided in 33-1-201; and

(b) "profession" includes the categories of physician, osteopath, podiatrist, dentist, optometrist, registered nurse, licensed practical nurse, or health care facility as defined in 50-5-101.

Part 5
Medical Malpractice Insurance Joint Underwriting Association

Part Compiler's Comments

Effective Date: This part is effective October 1, 2005.

33-23-501. Purpose. The legislature finds that if a crisis exists because of the potential unavailability of medical malpractice insurance caused by carrier withdrawals from the Montana market, carrier insolvency, underwriting practices of existing carriers, high cost, and other reasons not attributable to neglect, oversight, or willfulness of a prospective policyholder, alternative programs should be employed to help ensure that medical malpractice insurance remains available to Montana health care providers and health care facilities. The purpose of this part is to provide a solution to the unavailability of medical malpractice insurance. Although this part will not resolve the underlying causes of unavailability and high cost, which extend beyond the insurance mechanism, it is anticipated that future legislation will deal on a more permanent basis with the root causes of the current crisis.

History: En. Sec. 1, Ch. 475, L. 2005.

33-23-502. Definitions. As used in this part, the following definitions apply:

(1) "Association" means the joint underwriting association established pursuant to the provisions of this part.

(2) "Committee" means a committee designated by the commissioner to coordinate the activities of the market assistance plan and composed of licensed insurance producers, insurers authorized to sell medical malpractice insurance in this state, and eligible surplus lines insurers.

(3) "Health care provider" has the meaning provided in 27-6-103.

(4) "Market assistance plan" means a voluntary mechanism operated by a committee to assist health care providers and health care facilities to buy medical malpractice insurance when medical malpractice insurance is not reasonably available in the voluntary market.

(5) "Medical malpractice insurance" means insurance coverage against the legal liability of the insured and against loss, damage, or expense incident to a claim arising out of the death of or injury to any person as the result of negligence in rendering professional service by a health care provider.

(6) "Net direct premiums" means gross direct premiums on casualty insurance, excluding premiums written by a risk retention group as defined in 33-11-102, written pursuant to the provisions of the insurance laws of Montana, including the liability component of multiple-peril package policies as computed by the commissioner, less return premiums or the unused or unabsorbed portions of premium deposits.

(7) "Voluntary market" means insurers authorized to write medical malpractice insurance in this state, captive insurers authorized to write medical malpractice insurance in this state, and eligible surplus lines insurers, if approved by the commissioner based on financial stability of the surplus lines insurer and the cost and coverage of the medical malpractice policies available from the surplus lines insurers.

History: En. Sec. 2, Ch. 475, L. 2005.

33-23-503. Market review. (1) After providing notice to all insurers eligible to sell medical malpractice insurance in this state, including eligible surplus lines insurers, the commissioner shall perform a market review to determine the availability of medical malpractice insurance before implementing a market assistance plan under 33-23-507 or a joint underwriting association under 33-23-508.

(2) The commissioner shall compile a list of insurers in the voluntary market.

(3) After holding a hearing, the commissioner shall determine whether medical malpractice insurance is reasonably available pursuant to subsection (4) for:

(a) health care providers, other than health care facilities; or

(b) health care facilities.

(4) In determining whether medical malpractice insurance is reasonably available, the commissioner shall consider whether:

(a) there is a significant likelihood of a lack of available health care services to the public because of the cost or unavailability of medical malpractice insurance;

(b) a significant portion of the members of a class of health care providers:

(i) cannot obtain medical malpractice insurance from medical malpractice insurers for reasons not attributable to negligence, neglect, oversight, or willfulness of the health care providers; or

(ii) is uninsured as a result of new underwriting restrictions unrelated to the acts or omissions of the health care providers or because of the insolvency of a medical malpractice insurer.

History: En. Sec. 3, Ch. 475, L. 2005.

33-23-504 through 33-23-506 reserved.

33-23-507. Market assistance plan. (1) If the commissioner determines under 33-23-503 that medical malpractice insurance is not reasonably available, the commissioner shall attempt to form a market assistance plan for medical malpractice insurance before implementing a joint underwriting association under 33-23-508.

(2) The commissioner may establish a market assistance plan only if the commissioner determines that there exists a sufficient number of insurers in the voluntary market willing to underwrite standard risks at adequate coverage limits.

(3) If an insurer in the voluntary market declines to participate in the market assistance plan, the insurer shall state both the business and the financial reasons for not participating in the market assistance plan.

(4) The commissioner, in consultation with the committee, shall develop a plan of operation for the market assistance plan.

(5) The market assistance plan may include a reasonable processing fee to applicants that seek medical malpractice insurance coverage through the market assistance plan.

(6) Licensed insurance producers may receive a reasonable commission for medical malpractice insurance placed in the market assistance plan. The plan of operation may allow a commission to be paid regardless of whether the producer is appointed or otherwise represents the insurer accepting the risk.

History: En. Sec. 4, Ch. 475, L. 2005.

33-23-508. Joint underwriting association. (1) A joint underwriting association is created, consisting of all insurers authorized to write or engaged in writing casualty insurance within this state, including insurers writing multiple-peril package policies but excluding risk retention groups. Each insurer shall remain a member of the association as a condition of the insurer's authority to continue to write casualty insurance in this state. The purpose of the association is to provide medical malpractice insurance on a self-supporting basis.

(2) The association may not commence underwriting operations for health care providers, other than health care facilities, until the commissioner has conducted a market review under 33-23-503, determined that medical malpractice insurance is not reasonably available for health care providers, other than health care facilities, in the voluntary market, and attempted to establish a market assistance plan. Upon the commissioner determining that the market assistance plan has not achieved reasonably available medical malpractice insurance, the commissioner shall notify the association that it may issue policies of medical malpractice insurance to health care providers, other than health care facilities. The association need not be the exclusive agency through which medical malpractice insurance may be written in this state on a primary basis for health care providers, other than health care facilities.

(3) The association may not commence underwriting operations for health care facilities until the commissioner has conducted a market review under 33-23-503, determined that medical malpractice insurance is not reasonably available for those facilities in the voluntary market, and attempted to establish a market assistance plan. Upon the commissioner determining that the market assistance plan has not achieved reasonably available medical malpractice insurance, the commissioner shall notify the association that it may issue policies of medical malpractice insurance to health care facilities. The association need not be the exclusive agency through which medical malpractice insurance may be written in this state on a primary basis.

(4) If the commissioner determines at any time that medical malpractice insurance is reasonably available in the voluntary market for the health care providers referred to in either subsection (2) or (3), the association shall cease its underwriting operations for the medical malpractice insurance that the commissioner has determined is reasonably available in the voluntary market.

(5) The association may operate for a period of 3 years. At the end of the 3-year period, the association must be dissolved unless the commissioner, after notice and a hearing, reauthorizes the operations of the association. If the commissioner determines that adequate medical malpractice insurance is available in the voluntary market, the commissioner shall order the association to end its underwriting operations and shall supervise the dissolution of the association, including settlement of all financial and legal obligations and distribution of any remaining assets.

History: En. Sec. 5, Ch. 475, L. 2005.

33-23-509. Authority to issue policies. The association may:

(1) subject to limits specified in the association's plan of operation, but not to exceed $2 million for each claimant under one policy and $4 million for all claimants under one policy in any 1 year, issue or cause to be issued policies of medical malpractice insurance to applicants, including incidental coverages;

(2) underwrite the medical malpractice insurance and assume reinsurance from its members; and

(3) cede reinsurance.

History: En. Sec. 6, Ch. 475, L. 2005.

33-23-510. Plan of operation — submission — amendment. (1) Within 45 days after the creation of the association, the board of directors of the association shall submit to the commissioner for the commissioner's review a proposed plan of operation consistent with the provisions of this part. The plan is effective upon order of the commissioner.

(2) The plan of operation must provide for economic, fair, and nondiscriminatory administration and for the prompt and efficient provision of medical malpractice insurance. The plan must contain a preliminary assessment against all members for initial expenses necessary to commence operations and establish necessary facilities and an annual assessment against all members for the costs of managing the association, losses and expenses, commission arrangements, reasonable and objective underwriting standards, acceptance and cession of reinsurance, appointment of servicing carriers, and procedures for determining amounts of medical malpractice insurance to be provided by the association.

(3) The plan of operation must provide that the premium for all policyholders of the association, as a group, must be equal to the administrative expenses, loss, loss adjustment expenses, and taxes, plus a reasonable allowance for contingencies and servicing. Policyholders must be given full credit for all association investment income, after deduction of association expenses and a reasonable management fee, on policyholder premiums.

(4) Amendments to the plan of operation may be made by the board of directors of the association, subject to the approval of the commissioner.

History: En. Sec. 7, Ch. 475, L. 2005.

33-23-511. Application for coverage. (1) After a determination of unavailability is made under 33-23-508(2) or (3), a health care provider may apply to the association for coverage. The application may be made on behalf of an applicant by a broker or agent authorized by the applicant.

(2) If the association determines that the applicant meets the underwriting standards of the association as prescribed in the plan of operation and that there is no unpaid, uncontested premium due from the applicant for prior medical malpractice insurance, as shown by the insured having failed to make written objections to the premium charges within 30 days after billing, then the association, upon receipt of the premium or the portion of the premium that is prescribed in the plan of operation, shall issue a policy of medical malpractice insurance for a term of 1 year.

History: En. Sec. 8, Ch. 475, L. 2005.

33-23-512. Rates — approval. (1) The rates, rating plans, rating rules, rating classifications, territories, policy forms applicable to the medical malpractice insurance written by the association, and related statistics pursuant to 33-1-501, 33-1-502, and Title 33, chapter 16, must give consideration to the past and prospective loss and expense experience for medical malpractice insurance of the association, trends in the frequency and severity of losses, the investment income of the association, and other information that the commissioner may require.

(2) Within the time directed by the commissioner, the association shall submit an initial filing of policy forms, classifications, rates, rating plans, and rating rules applicable to medical malpractice insurance to be written by the association pursuant to 33-1-501, 33-1-502, and Title 33, chapter 16.

(3) After the initial year of operation, rates, rating plans, rating rules, and any provision for recoupment through member assessment or a premium rate increase must be based upon the association's loss and expense experience, together with other information based upon that experience that the commissioner considers appropriate. Any resulting member assessment or a premium rate increase must be on an actuarially sound basis and be calculated to make the association self-supporting.

History: En. Sec. 9, Ch. 475, L. 2005.

33-23-513. Recoupment of deficit and member assessments. (1) (a) If the association experiences an underwriting deficit for any year, the deficit must be recouped as provided in the plan of operation and the rating plan must contain the procedures provided for in subsections (1)(b) and (1)(c).

(b) The board of directors shall certify the underwriting deficit to the commissioner. The certification is subject to the review of the commissioner.

(c) After review of the certification, the deficit must be recouped by:

(i) first, reimbursement of the deficit in the following order:

(A) from the stabilization reserve fund, as provided in 33-23-514;

(B) a premium contingency assessment on the association's policyholders, as provided in 33-23-515, if the reimbursement in subsection (1)(c)(i)(A) is insufficient; and

(C) an assessment upon the members, as provided in 33-23-521, if the reimbursement in subsections (1)(c)(i)(A) and (1)(c)(i)(B) is insufficient; and

(ii) second, a premium rate increase on the association's policyholders applicable prospectively, as provided in 33-23-512.

(2) Reimbursements from the stabilization reserve fund and premium contingency assessments imposed under this section and premiums collected under 33-23-512 and 33-23-522 and subsection (1)(c)(ii) of this section must be sufficient to recoup all expenses of the association and to reimburse the members for all assessments imposed on them by the association.

History: En. Sec. 10, Ch. 475, L. 2005.

33-23-514. Stabilization reserve fund. (1) The commissioner shall establish a stabilization reserve fund.

(2) (a) Each policyholder shall pay to the association a stabilization reserve fund charge equal to 15% of each premium payment due for insurance through the association. The stabilization reserve fund charge must be stated separately in the policy and is payable with each premium payment. The association shall cancel the policy of any policyholder who fails to pay the premium stabilization reserve fund charge.

(b) The stabilization reserve fund charge does not constitute a part of the premium and is not subject to premium taxation, servicing fees, acquisition costs, commissions, or any other charges. The stabilization reserve fund charge may not be considered a premium for the purpose of any assessments levied under 33-23-521.

(3) (a) The association shall collect and administer the stabilization reserve fund charge. The stabilization reserve fund charge must be treated as a liability of the association along with and in the same manner as premium and loss reserves.

(b) All money received by the stabilization reserve fund must be held in trust by a corporate trustee selected by the association. The corporate trustee may invest the money held in trust, subject to the approval of the association. All investment income must be credited to the stabilization reserve fund. All expenses of administration of the stabilization reserve fund must be charged against the fund. The money held in trust may be used only for the purpose of recoupment of any deficit sustained by the association, as provided in 33-23-513.

(c) Collections of the stabilization reserve fund charge continue throughout each calendar year for which the fund is established. However, a charge may not be assessed:

(i) during the next succeeding calendar year if the net balance in the stabilization reserve fund after recoupment of any prior year's deficit equals or exceeds the association's estimate of the projected sum of premiums to be written in the calendar year following the valuation date of the fund; or

(ii) in any year in which a premium contingency assessment is collected, as provided in 33-23-515.

(4) The stabilization reserve fund charge is not refundable if the policy is canceled after the 90th day of coverage.

(5) Upon dissolution of the association as provided in 33-23-508(5), the commissioner shall order that any funds remaining in the stabilization reserve fund be reimbursed to the policyholders in proportion to the amounts of the stabilization reserve fund charges paid by the policyholders.

History: En. Sec. 11, Ch. 475, L. 2005.

33-23-515. Premium contingency assessment to cover deficit. (1) If the association suffers an underwriting deficit for any year and recoupment of the underwriting deficit by reimbursement, as provided in 33-23-513(1)(c)(i)(A), is insufficient, each association policyholder shall pay to the association a premium contingency assessment as provided in the plan of operation. The assessment must bear the same ratio to the amount of the deficit as the policyholder's premium for the year for medical malpractice insurance written or reinsured by the association bore to the total premiums paid to the association for the year. The association may cancel any policy of any policyholder who fails to pay the premium contingency assessment and need not defend or pay any future claims against that policyholder. A deficit premium contingency assessment that cannot be collected from a policyholder may not be assessed against any other policyholder.

(2) The association shall amend the amount of its certification of deficit to the commissioner as the value of its incurred losses becomes finalized, and the association may amend its recoupment procedure accordingly.

(3) The board of directors may require all members to contribute on a temporary basis to the financial requirements of the association prior to recoupment of any deficit in the proportion specified in the plan.

(4) The association may not collect stabilization reserve assessments, as provided in 33-23-514, in any year in which premium contingency assessments are collected under this section.

History: En. Sec. 12, Ch. 475, L. 2005.

33-23-516 through 33-23-518 reserved.

33-23-519. Claims-made policies. The association shall offer policies on a claims-made basis. The premiums charged for claims-made policies must be established on an actuarially sound basis and as provided in Title 33, chapter 16.

History: En. Sec. 13, Ch. 475, L. 2005.

33-23-520. Risk management. (1) The association shall establish a risk management program for persons or entities insured by the association.

(2) The risk management program must include:

(a) standards for systematic investigation and reporting of claims and incidents; and

(b) a loss control program. The loss control program must include procedures for:

(i) analysis of claim frequency, severity, and causes of loss;
(ii) identification of situations that may produce large losses;
(iii) development of measures to control losses;
(iv) monitoring of the effectiveness of the loss control measures that are implemented; and
(v) education of insured health care providers and health care facilities on methods to reduce or prevent losses.

(3) The commissioner shall appoint an advisory council consisting of three health care providers and three professional insurance risk managers to provide advice to the association on risk management activities.

History: En. Sec. 14, Ch. 475, L. 2005.

33-23-521. Financial participation by association members. (1) Each member of the association shall participate in the association's medical malpractice insurance policies, expenses, profits, and losses in the proportion that the net direct premiums of the member during the preceding calendar year, after excluding that portion of premiums attributable to the operation of the association, bears to the aggregate net direct premiums of all members of the association.

(2) Each member's participation in the association must be determined annually on the basis of the net direct premiums written during the preceding calendar year as reported in the annual statements and other reports filed by the insurer with the commissioner.

(3) A member is not obligated to reimburse the association for the member's proportionate share in a deficit from operations of the association in any calendar year in an amount greater than 1% of the member's net direct written premium for the preceding calendar year on policies written in this state for casualty insurance. The aggregate amount not reimbursed must be reallocated among the remaining members in accordance with the method of determining participation after excluding from the computation the total net direct premiums of all members not sharing in the excess deficit. If the deficit from operations allocated to all members of the association in any calendar year exceeds 1% of the member's net direct written premium for the preceding calendar year on policies written in this state for casualty insurance, the amount of the deficit must be allocated to each member in accordance with the method of determining participation. A member may not be assessed an amount that would jeopardize that member's solvency.

History: En. Sec. 15, Ch. 475, L. 2005.

33-23-522. Recognition of assessments in rates. The rates and premiums charged for insurance policies to which this part applies must include amounts sufficient to recoup a sum equal to the amounts paid to the association by the member less any amounts returned to the member by the association, and these rates may not be considered excessive because they contain an amount reasonably calculated to recoup assessments paid by the member.

History: En. Sec. 16, Ch. 475, L. 2005.

33-23-523. Directors. The association must be governed by an annually elected board of directors. Eight directors must be elected by cumulative voting of members of the association, whose votes must be weighted in the proportion that a member's net direct premiums during the preceding calendar year bears to the net direct premiums of all the members during the preceding calendar year. Three directors must be appointed by the commissioner as representatives of the medical profession, and the appointments must be made at or before each annual meeting. The eight directors serving on the first board who are to be elected by members of the association must be elected at a meeting of the members held at a time and place designated by the commissioner.

History: En. Sec. 17, Ch. 475, L. 2005.

33-23-524. Appeals and judicial review. For matters that the law or the plan of operation defines as appealable, an applicant for medical malpractice insurance, insured health care provider or health care facility, or association member may appeal to the commissioner within 30 days after a decision by or on behalf of the association. An order of the commissioner is subject to judicial review as provided in Title 33.

History: En. Sec. 18, Ch. 475, L. 2005.

33-23-525. Annual statements. The association shall file in the office of the commissioner on or before March 1 of each year a statement containing information with respect to the association's transactions, condition, operations, and affairs during the preceding calendar year. The statement must contain the matters and information and be in the format prescribed by the commissioner. The commissioner may at that time require the association to furnish additional information that the commissioner believes to be material and of assistance in evaluating the scope, operation, and experience of the association.

History: En. Sec. 19, Ch. 475, L. 2005.

33-23-526. Examination of association's affairs. The commissioner shall examine the affairs of the association at least annually.

History: En. Sec. 20, Ch. 475, L. 2005.

Discrimination prohibited — nongender insurance law, 49-2-309.
Fire losses — information available to state agencies, 50-63-401.
Report of suspicious fires, 50-63-402.

Part 1
General Provisions

33-24-101. Measure of the indemnity — rescission for fraud. If there is no valuation in the policy and unless a basis more favorable to the insured is provided for in the policy, the measure of indemnity in an insurance against fire is the expense, at the time that the loss is payable, of replacing the thing lost or injured, in the condition in which it was at the time of the injury; but a valuation, fraudulent in fact, entitles the insurer to rescind the contract.

Construction of policies, 33-15-316.

33-24-102. Insuring improvements — insurance equal to true value. Whenever any policy of insurance shall be written to insure any improvements upon real property in this state against loss or damage and the property insured is considered to be a total loss, without criminal fault on the part of the insured or his assigns, the amount of insurance written in such policy shall be taken conclusively to be the true value of the property insured and the true amount of loss and measure of damages. The payment of money as a premium for insurance shall be prima facie evidence that the party paying such insurance premium is the owner of the property insured; provided, that any insurance company may set up fraud in obtaining the policy as a defense to a suit thereon.

History: En. Sec. 410, Ch. 286, L. 1959; R.C.M. 1947, 40-4302; amd. Sec. 25, Ch. 303, L. 1981.

Cross-References

Construction of policies, 33-15-316.

33-24-103. Specific valuation — loss equal to insured value. (1) This section applies to policies, except motor vehicle insurance policies, that insure specific listed items of personal property against any loss or damage.

(2) If the insurer places specific valuations upon particular items of covered property and bases the premium charge on these valuations, then the insurer shall compute any total loss or total damage to the property, when covered, at the stated valuation with no deductions or offsets except for the selected deductible in the policy.

History: En. 40-4303 by Sec. 1, Ch. 96, L. 1974; R.C.M. 1947, 40-4303; amd. Sec. 26, Ch. 303, L. 1981; amd. Sec. 37, Ch. 469, L. 2005.

Compiler's Comments

2005 Amendment: Chapter 469 in (2) at end after "offsets" inserted "except for the selected deductible in the policy"; and made minor changes in style. Amendment effective October 1, 2005.

33-24-104. Tax lien on insured property destroyed by fire. If taxes are due and unpaid on property covered by fire insurance and damaged or destroyed by fire, the government entity owed the taxes has a lien on fire insurance proceeds paid in relation to that property in the amount of the unpaid taxes.

History: En. Sec. 2, Ch. 447, L. 1989.

Cross-References

33-24-105. Property insurance policy — conformity with state statutes. A property insurance policy relative to a risk resident, located, or to be performed in this state must contain a provision or the equivalent thereto as follows:

"Conformity with Montana statutes. The provisions of this policy conform to the minimum requirements of Montana law and control over any conflicting statutes of any state in which the insured resides on or after the effective date of this policy."

History: En. Sec. 24, Ch. 798, L. 1991.

33-25-104. Short title. This chapter may be cited as the "Montana Title Insurance Act".
History: En. Sec. 1, Ch. 519, L. 1985.

33-25-105. Definitions. As used in this chapter, the following definitions apply:

(1) "Abstract" means a written representation, provided pursuant to a contract and expected to be relied upon by the person who has contracted for the receipt of that representation, listing all recorded conveyances, instruments, or documents which, under the laws of this state, impart constructive notice regarding the chain of title to real property described in the abstract. Abstract includes "abstract of title".

(2) "Applicant" means a person, whether or not a prospective insured, who applies to a title insurer or title insurance producer for a title insurance policy, but does not include a title insurance producer.

(3) "Approved attorney" means an attorney authorized to practice law in this state, except an agent or employee of a title insurer, whose certification as to the status of the title to real property a title insurer is willing to accept as the basis for issuance of a title insurance policy.

(4) "Associate" means a:

(a) corporation, partnership, or other business entity organized for profit, of which a producer of title business is a director, officer, partner, employee, or owner of 5% or more of its equity or capital;

(b) franchisor or franchisee of a producer of title business;

(c) spouse, parent, or child of a producer of title business;

(d) corporation, partnership, or other business entity that controls, is controlled by, or is under common control with a producer of title business; or

(e) person with whom a producer of title business or an associate has an agreement, arrangement, understanding, or course of conduct having the purpose or substantial effect of evading the provisions of this title.

(5) "Controlled business" means that portion of the business of title insurance in this state of a title insurer or title insurance producer that is referred to it by a producer or associate having a financial interest in the title insurer or title insurance producer.

(6) "Financial interest" means a legal or beneficial interest that entitles the holder, directly or indirectly, to 1% or more of the net profits or net worth of the entity in which the interest is held.

(7) "Preliminary report" means an offer to issue a title insurance policy subject to any exceptions stated in the report or other matters that may be incorporated by reference therein. Preliminary report includes a commitment or binder.

(8) "Producer of title business" or "producer" means a person, corporation, partnership, or other business entity, including an officer, director, or owner of 5% or more of the equity or capital thereof, engaged in this state in the trade, business, occupation, or profession of:

(a) buying or selling interests in real property;

(b) making loans secured by interests in real property; or

(c) acting as broker, insurance producer, or representative of a person described in subsection (8)(a) or (8)(b).

(9) "Rate" means fees for:

(a) issuing a title insurance policy, including any service charge or fee for the issuance;

(b) abstracting, searching, and examining title to real property when prepared or issued in contemplation of or in conjunction with the issuance of a title insurance policy; and

(c) preparing or issuing preliminary reports, commitments, binders, or similar products prepared or issued in contemplation of or in conjunction with the issuance of a title insurance policy.

(10) "Refer" means to direct, cause to be directed, or exercise an influence over the direction of title insurance business, whether or not the consent or approval of another person is sought or obtained with respect to the referral.

(11) "Title insurance business" means:

(a) issuing or offering to issue a title insurance policy as an insurer;

(b) transacting or proposing to transact any of the following as a title insurer or title insurance producer, in contemplation of or in conjunction with the issuance of a title insurance policy:

(i) soliciting or negotiating the issuance of a title insurance policy;

(ii) guaranteeing, warranting, or otherwise insuring the correctness of title searches;

(iii) handling escrows, settlements, or closings;

(iv) executing title insurance policies, reports, commitments, binders, and endorsements;

(v) effecting contracts of reinsurance; or

(vi) abstracting, searching, or examining titles;

(c) transacting, as a title insurer or insurance producer, matters subsequent to the issuance of a title insurance policy and arising out of the policy; or

(d) doing or proposing to do business that, in substance, is equivalent to any of the activities described in subsections (11)(a) through (11)(c) in a manner designed to evade the provisions of this title.

(12) "Title insurance policy" means a contract by which, subject to its stated terms and conditions, a title insurer insures or indemnifies the insured against loss or damage sustained by reason of:

(a) defects in or liens or encumbrances on the title to the stated property;

(b) unmarketability of the title to the stated property; or

(c) invalidity or unenforceability of liens or encumbrances on the stated property.

(13) (a) "Title insurance producer" means a person who holds a valid title insurance producer's license and is authorized in writing by a title insurer to:

(i) solicit title insurance business;

(ii) collect rates;

(iii) determine insurability in accordance with underwriting rules and standards of the insurer; or

(iv) issue policies of the title insurer.

(b) Title insurance producer does not include an approved attorney.

(14) "Title insurer" means an insurer formed and authorized under the laws of this state to transact the business of title insurance in this state or a foreign or alien insurer so authorized.

(15) "Title plant" means a set of privately maintained records in which entries have been made of documents imparting constructive notice, under the law, of matters affecting title to real property, an interest therein, or an encumbrance thereon, that have been filed or recorded in the jurisdiction for which the title plant is maintained and from which the ownership of real property within the jurisdiction can be ascertained and liens, encumbrances, defects, and clouds on title to the real property can be determined.

History: En. Sec. 2, Ch. 519, L. 1985; amd. Secs. 1, 3, Ch. 713, L. 1989.

Cross-References

Title insurance — definition, 33-1-212.

33-25-106. Application. (1) This chapter applies to all title insurers, title insurance rating organizations, title insurance producers, applicants for title insurance, title insurance policyholders, and all other persons engaged in title insurance business in this state.

(2) This chapter does not authorize the practice of law by a person who is not licensed to practice law in this state, and this chapter does not authorize the commissioner to regulate the practice of law.

History: En. Sec. 3, Ch. 519, L. 1985; amd. Sec. 3, Ch. 713, L. 1989.

33-25-107 through 33-25-110 reserved.

33-25-111. Abstracts of title distinguished from title insurance policy and preliminary report. (1) A title insurance policy is not an abstract of title or representation as to the condition of title to the stated property.

(2) A preliminary report is not an abstract of title. The rights, duties, and liabilities applicable to the preparation and issuance of an abstract of title are not applicable to the issuance of a preliminary report. A preliminary report does not constitute a representation as to the condition of title to real property, but constitutes a statement of the terms and conditions upon which the issuer is willing to issue its title insurance policy.

History: En. Sec. 4, Ch. 519, L. 1985.

Part 2
Powers and Duties of Title Insurers

33-25-201. Escrow, closing, or settlement services — title indemnification — maintenance of accounts — maintenance of nominal or short-term accounts — rules. (1) A title insurer or title insurance producer may provide escrow, settlement, or closing services, or any combination of those services and may operate as an escrow, settlement, or closing agent subject to the provisions of subsections (2) through (9).

(2) A title insurer or title insurance producer shall:

(a) deposit funds accepted in connection with an escrow, settlement, closing, or title indemnification in a separate fiduciary trust account in a bank or other financial institution insured by an agency of the federal government and segregate the funds by escrow, settlement, closing, or title indemnification in its records. The funds are the property of the person entitled to the funds under the terms of the escrow, settlement, closing, or title indemnification and are not subject to debts of the title insurer or title insurance producer. A title insurer or title insurance producer may use the funds only in accordance with the terms of the individual escrow, settlement, closing, or title indemnification under which the funds are accepted.

(b) except as provided in subsections (3) through (7), pay any interest received on funds deposited with it in connection with an escrow, settlement, closing, or title indemnification to the depositing person or as otherwise provided by the terms of the escrow, settlement, closing, or title indemnification;

(c) maintain separate records of all receipts and disbursements of escrow, settlement, closing, or title indemnification funds; and

(d) comply with rules adopted by the commissioner pertaining to escrow, settlement, closing, or title indemnification transactions.

(3) In the absence of written instructions to the contrary, a title insurer or title insurance producer may maintain a pooled, interest-bearing, depository account for deposit of trust funds that are nominal in amount or expected to be held for a short period of time. The account must comply with the following provisions:

(a) The account may include only trust funds that are nominal in amount or that are expected to be held for a short period of time.

(b) Interest from the account may not be made available to the title insurer or title insurance producer.

(c) The determination of whether trust funds are nominal in amount or to be held for a short period of time is to be determined by each title insurer or title insurance producer.

(d) Notification to parties whose funds are nominal in amount or to be held for a short period of time is not required.

(4) An interest-bearing account established pursuant to subsection (3) may be established with any financial institution that is authorized by federal or state law to do business in the state in which the title insurer's or title insurance producer's office is situated and that is a member of the federal deposit insurance corporation. Funds deposited in the accounts must be subject to withdrawal upon request and without delay.

(5) (a) The Montana land title association shall establish the Montana land title foundation for the administration of the funds generated by the interest on trust accounts program for the following purposes:

(i) to support Montana nonprofit charitable organizations;

(ii) to provide continuing education programs for licensed title insurance agents; and

(iii) to promote knowledge and awareness of the real estate and title insurance industries.

(b) The foundation shall establish bylaws for the administration of the foundation in accordance with subsections (5)(a)(i) through (5)(a)(iii).

(6) A title insurer or title insurance producer depositing funds in an account created pursuant to subsections (3) and (4) shall direct the depository institution to:

(a) at least quarterly, remit interest and dividends, less any service charges or fees, on the average monthly balance on the account or as otherwise computed in accordance with the institution's standard accounting practice for other depositors to the Montana land title association foundation; and

(b) transmit with each remittance to the foundation a statement showing the name of the title insurer or title insurance producer for whom the remittance is sent and the rate of interest applied.

(7) The Montana land title association foundation shall maintain records of each remittance and statement received from depository institutions for a period of at least 3 years and shall, upon request, promptly make available to a title insurer or title insurance producer the records and statements pertaining to the title insurer's or title insurance producer's account.

(8) All interest transmitted to the Montana land title association foundation must, after deductions for necessary and reasonable administrative expenses of the foundation for operating the interest on trust accounts program, be distributed by the foundation for the purposes set forth in subsections (5)(a)(i) through (5)(a)(iii) in whatever proportion the foundation determines is appropriate.

(9) A title insurance producer shall keep books of account, records, and vouchers pertaining to any escrow, closing, settlement, or title indemnification business transacted, in a manner that allows the commissioner or the commissioner's authorized representative to readily ascertain, under the authority of 33-1-402, whether the title insurance producer has complied with all applicable provisions of this title.

History: En. Sec. 7, Ch. 519, L. 1985; amd. Secs. 1, 3, Ch. 713, L. 1989; amd. Sec. 1, Ch. 250, L. 1995.

Cross-References

Adoption and publication of rules, Title 2, ch. 4, part 3.

33-25-202. Sharing of rate proceeds. Title insurers and insurance producers may share rate proceeds between or among themselves in any combination and may accept commissions as provided in 33-17-1103, unless the sharing of rate proceeds is an unlawful rebate or inducement under this title or is a payment of a forwarding fee or finders fee.

History: En. Sec. 11, Ch. 519, L. 1985; amd. Sec. 61, Ch. 713, L. 1989.

33-25-203 through 33-25-210 reserved.

33-25-211. Guaranty fund — investments. (1) A title insurer shall establish and maintain the guaranty fund required under 33-2-517 and may invest in necessary plant and equipment and in other investments as authorized under this section.

(2) In addition to other investments eligible under this part, a title insurer may invest and have invested an amount not exceeding 50% of its paid-in capital stock in its title plant, in equipment, and with the commissioner's consent, in stock of abstract companies and of title insurance producers.

(3) Investments authorized by this section may not be credited against the insurer's required guaranty fund or unearned premium reserve provided for under 33-2-517.

(4) A title plant and equipment may not be allowed as an asset in any determination of the insurer's financial condition at a value greater than actual cost.

History: En. Sec. 417, Ch. 286, L. 1959; R.C.M. 1947, 40-4603; Sec. 33-25-101, MCA 1983; redes. 33-25-211 by Code Commissioner, 1985; amd. Sec. 47, Ch. 304, L. 1999.

33-25-212. Rates filed with commissioner. (1) Every title insurer shall file with the commissioner a complete schedule of rates to be charged by it for title insurance as to property located in this state. The rates shall be all-inclusive of the total charge for such insurance as specified in the policy and shall be accompanied by supporting data.

(2) No such rate shall be excessive, inadequate, or unreasonably discriminatory.

(3) No title insurer shall charge any rate for such insurance other than the applicable rate previously filed by it with the commissioner.

History: En. Sec. 416, Ch. 286, L. 1959; R.C.M. 1947, 40-4602; amd. Sec. 27, Ch. 303, L. 1981; Sec. 33-25-102, MCA 1983; redes. 33-25-212 by Code Commissioner, 1985.

Cross-References

Hearings by Commissioner, 33-1-701.

33-25-213. Limitations on authority. (1) An insurer that transacts or is licensed to transact a class or kind of insurance other than title insurance is not eligible for the issuance or renewal of a license to transact the business of title insurance in this state and may not transact, underwrite, or issue title insurance. An insurer authorized to transact any combination of kinds of insurance, including title insurance, under an existing certificate of authority may continue to do so until the certificate of authority is renewed effective June 1, 1986.

(2) A title insurer may not engage in the business of guaranteeing payment of the principal or interest of bonds or mortgages.

(3) A title insurer may not engage in the business of guaranteeing the obligations of other persons, except its title insurance producers or approved attorneys in the normal course of its business.

History: En. Sec. 5, Ch. 519, L. 1985; amd. Sec. 3, Ch. 713, L. 1989.

Cross-References

Combinations of insuring powers, 33-2-108.

33-25-214. Underwriting standards — record retention. (1) A title insurer may not issue a title insurance policy unless it, its title insurance producer, or an approved attorney has conducted a reasonable search and examination of the title and made a determination of insurability of title in accordance with sound underwriting practices. The title insurer or title insurance producer shall preserve and retain in its files evidence of the examination of title and determination of insurability. The title insurer or title insurance producer may keep original evidence or may establish in the regular course of business a system of recording, copying, or reproducing evidence by any process that accurately and legibly reproduces, or forms a durable medium for reproducing, the contents of the original.

(2) Subsection (1) does not apply to:

(a) a title insurer assuming liability through a contract of reinsurance; or

(b) a title insurer acting as coinsurer if one of the other coinsuring title insurers has complied with subsection (1).

(3) Except as allowed by rules adopted by the commissioner, a title insurer or title insurance producer may not knowingly issue an owner's title insurance policy or commitment to insure unless all outstanding enforceable recorded liens or other interests against the property title to be insured are shown.

(4) An insurer issuing a policy in violation of this section is estopped, as a matter of law, to deny the validity of the policy as to any claim or demand of the insured arising under the policy.

History: En. Sec. 6, Ch. 519, L. 1985; amd. Sec. 62, Ch. 713, L. 1989.

33-25-215. Report of claims. A title insurance producer must immediately report every loss claim to the title insurer that issued the policy against which the claim is presented.

History: En. Sec. 9, Ch. 519, L. 1985; amd. Sec. 3, Ch. 713, L. 1989.

33-25-216. Notice of issuance of mortgagee policy. (1) A title insurer or title insurance producer that issues a mortgagee's policy of title insurance on a loan made simultaneous to the purchase of all or part of the property securing the loan, when no owner's policy has been ordered, must inform the borrower in writing that the mortgagee's policy is to be issued, that the mortgagee's policy does not protect the borrower, and that the borrower may obtain an owner's title insurance policy for his protection. This notice must be provided, on a form prescribed by the commissioner, before issuance of the mortgagee's policy.

(2) If the borrower elects not to purchase an owner's title insurance policy, the title insurer or title insurance producer must obtain from him a statement in writing that the notice has been received and that the borrower waives the right to purchase an owner's title insurance policy. If the buyer refuses to provide the statement and waiver, the title insurer or title insurance producer must so note in the file. The statement and waiver must be on a form prescribed by the commissioner and must be retained by the title insurer or title insurance producer for at least 5 years after receipt.

History: En. Sec. 15, Ch. 519, L. 1985; amd. Sec. 3, Ch. 713, L. 1989.

Part 3
Regulation by Commissioner of Insurance

33-25-301. Refusal, suspension, or revocation of title insurance producer's license. (1) In addition to the causes provided in 33-17-1001, the commissioner may refuse to license an applicant or renew the license of a person as a title insurance producer or may suspend or revoke a title insurance producer's license or may fine a title insurance producer or applicant, after notice and opportunity for a hearing, if the commissioner finds that the license applicant or licensee has:

(a) made a material misstatement in an application for a title insurance producer license;

(b) commingled funds belonging to applicants, escrow participants, or others;

(c) intentionally misrepresented the terms of a title insurance policy to an applicant or policyholder or has misrepresented material facts to, concealed material facts from, or made false statements to a party to an escrow, settlement, or closing transaction;

(d) in conducting affairs as a title insurance producer, used coercive practices or demonstrated financial irresponsibility;

(e) aided, abetted, or assisted another person in violating the provisions of this title or a rule adopted by the commissioner.

(2) The commissioner may impose any other appropriate penalty provided for in this title.

(3) The commissioner may refuse, suspend, or revoke the license of a person licensed as a title insurance producer for the actions described in subsection (1) committed by any individual designated in the license.

History: En. Sec. 10, Ch. 519, L. 1985; amd. Sec. 63, Ch. 713, L. 1989; amd. Sec. 62, Ch. 227, L. 2001.

33-25-302. Disapproval of agency contracts. (1) The commissioner may disapprove a title agency contract between a title insurance producer and title insurer, upon appropriate notice to the parties to the contract, if he finds that the contract, together with all amendments and related documents:

(a) does not provide for adequate monitoring of the insurance producer's financial transactions; or

(b) provides for inadequate, unreasonable, or excessive amounts to be paid to or retained by the title insurance producer. Factors the commissioner may consider in this determination include but are not limited to the insurance producer's duties under the contract and the general level of amounts paid to or retained by other title insurance producers in the state performing or assuming comparable duties.

(2) A person may not act as a title insurance producer under an agency contract that has been disapproved by the commissioner.

History: En. Sec. 8, Ch. 519, L. 1985; amd. Sec. 64, Ch. 713, L. 1989.

Part 4
Prohibited Practices — Penalties

33-25-401. Prohibited practices — referrals — splitting charges — exemptions. (1) Except as provided in subsection (2), a person may not:

(a) give or accept a fee, rebate, or thing of value pursuant to an agreement or understanding that title insurance business will be referred to a title insurance producer; or

(b) give or accept a portion, split, or percentage of a charge made or received for title insurance business in connection with a transaction involving real property in this state, other than for services actually performed.

(2) (a) A person may pay a return on an investment, based on a percentage of an ownership interest in a title insurance agency, if:

(i) at or prior to the time of a referral, a disclosure of the existence of the arrangement is made to the person being referred and, in connection with the referral, the person is provided a written estimate of the charge or range of charges generally made by the title insurance producer to which the person is referred; and

(ii) the person is not required to use a particular insurance producer.

(b) The following arrangements are not a violation of subsection (2)(a)(ii):

(i) an arrangement that requires a buyer, borrower, or seller to pay for the services of an attorney, credit reporting agency, or real estate appraiser chosen by a lender to represent the lender's interest in a real estate transaction; or

(ii) an arrangement by which an attorney or law firm represents a client in a real estate transaction and issues or arranges for the issuance of a policy of title insurance in the transaction directly as insurance producer or through a separate corporate title insurance agency that may be established by that attorney or law firm and operated as an adjunct to his or its law practice.

(c) Failure to disclose a controlled business relationship is not a violation of subsection (2)(a)(i) if the failure was not intentional and resulted from a bona fide error, proven by a preponderance of the evidence.

(3) This section does not prohibit:

(a) the payment of a fee to an attorney for services actually rendered or by a title insurance producer for services actually performed in the issuance of a title insurance policy; or

(b) payment of a bona fide salary, compensation, or other payment for goods or facilities actually furnished or for services actually performed.

History: En. Sec. 12, Ch. 519, L. 1985; amd. Sec. 65, Ch. 713, L. 1989.

33-25-402. Prohibited practices — penalties — treble damages, court costs, and attorney fees — injunction. (1) A person found to have violated the provisions of 33-25-401 is jointly and severally liable to the person charged for the title insurance business involved in the violation for an amount equal to three times the amount of the charge paid for the business.

(2) In a civil action based on 33-25-401 and this section, the court may award to the prevailing party court costs plus reasonable attorney fees.

(3) The commissioner may bring a civil action to enjoin a violation of 33-25-401.

History: En. Sec. 13, Ch. 519, L. 1985.

Part 1
Surety Insurance

33-26-101. Corporations as sureties. (1) In all cases where an undertaking or bond, with any number of sureties, is authorized or required by any law of this state, any corporation with a paid-up capital of not less than $100,000, incorporated under the laws of this state for the purpose of making, guaranteeing, or becoming a surety upon bonds or undertakings required or authorized by law, may become and shall be accepted as security or as a sole and sufficient security upon such undertaking or bond, and such corporate surety shall be subject to all liabilities and entitled to all the rights of natural persons as such sureties.

(2) Whenever the liabilities of any such corporation shall exceed its assets, the state auditor shall require the deficiency to be paid up in 60 days, and if it is not so paid up, then he shall issue a certificate showing the extent of such deficiency, and he shall publish the same once a week for 3 weeks in a daily paper published in the town or city wherein the principal office of such corporation is, and until such deficiency is paid up such company shall not be accepted as a surety on any undertaking or bond. In estimating the condition of any such company, the state auditor shall allow as assets only such as are allowed under existing laws at the time and shall charge as liabilities, in addition to 80% of the capital stock, all outstanding indebtedness of the company and the premium reserved equal to 50% of the premiums charged by said company on all risks then in force.

33-26-104. Surety insurers as sole surety on official bonds — release. (1) Whenever any bond, undertaking, recognizance, or other obligation is by law or the charter, ordinance, or rules of any municipality, board, body, organization or public officer required or permitted to be made, given, tendered, or filed, with surety or sureties, and whenever the performance of any act, duty, or obligation or the refraining from any act is required or permitted to be guaranteed, such bond, undertaking, obligation, recognizance, or guaranty may be executed by a surety insurer qualified to act as surety or guarantor as in this code provided. Such execution by such insurer of such bond, undertaking, obligation, recognizance, or guaranty shall be in all respects a full and complete compliance with every requirement of the law, charter, ordinance, or rule that such bond, undertaking, obligation, recognizance, or guaranty shall be executed by one surety or by one or more sureties or that such surety shall be a resident or householder or freeholder, or either or both, or possessed of any other qualifications. All courts, judges, heads of departments, boards, bodies, municipalities, and public officers of every character shall accept and treat accordingly such bond, undertaking, obligation, recognizance, or guaranty when so executed by such insurer, as conforming to and fully and completely complying with every such requirement of every such law, charter, ordinance, or rule.

(2) A surety insurer may be released from its liability on a bond referred to in this section upon the same terms and conditions as are by law prescribed for the release of individual sureties.

Part 1
General Provisions

Part Cross-References

Tax liability on termination of independent liability fund, 15-30-107.

Tax deductibility, 15-30-127.

33-27-101. Short title. Sections 15-30-107, 15-30-127, 15-31-117, 15-31-118, and this chapter may be cited as the “Independent Liability Fund Act”.

History: En. Sec. 1, Ch. 564, L. 1987.

33-27-102. Purpose. The purpose of 15-30-107, 15-30-127, 15-31-117, 15-31-118, and this chapter is to create a means by which small businesses operating in Montana may establish independent liability funds to set aside assets or make investments to meet any liability claims that might be made against the small businesses by third parties.

History: En. Sec. 2, Ch. 564, L. 1987.

33-27-103. Definitions. As used in 15-30-107, 15-30-127, 15-31-117, 15-31-118, and this chapter, the following definitions apply:

(1) “Fiscal year” means the 12-month period used by a particular small business in preparing and filing its Montana individual income tax, corporate license tax, or corporate income tax return.

(2) “Independent liability fund” means a collection of money, assets, and investments that has been set aside by a small business to meet the needs of any liability claims, except workers’ compensation claims, brought against it by third parties.

(3) “Liability claim” means any legal or extralegal action by a third party asserting a right to compensation for a wrong done to it by a small business with an independent liability fund.

(4) “Small business” means any commercial or nonprofit enterprise qualified to do business in the state and qualified as a small business under the criteria established by the federal small business administration on April 20, 1987.

(5) “Third party” means a person other than an employee or the management of a small business or of a subsidiary or closely related enterprise of a small business.

History: En. Sec. 3, Ch. 564, L. 1987.

33-27-104. Rules. (1) The commissioner has authority to implement this chapter and to make any rules and regulations required to carry out the purposes of this chapter.

(2) The commissioner shall by rule establish criteria for ascertaining the inviolability and health of each independent liability fund and shall initiate sanctions against funds that are not secure or viable.

History: En. Sec. 19, Ch. 564, L. 1987.

Cross-References

Adoption and publication of rules, Title 2, ch. 4, part 3.

33-27-105 through 33-27-110 reserved.

33-27-111. Right to establish independent liability fund. A small business operating in the state may establish an independent liability fund to provide for defense, settlement, or payment of any liability claims against it by a third party.

History: En. Sec. 4, Ch. 564, L. 1987.

33-27-112. Establishment of independent liability fund. A small business shall notify the commissioner, on a form supplied by the commissioner, of its intention to establish an independent liability fund. The small business shall fully and clearly designate the money, assets, or investments it is setting aside for its independent liability fund.

History: En. Sec. 5, Ch. 564, L. 1987.

33-27-113. Additions to independent liability fund. Within the limits provided in 33-27-114, a small business may make such additions to its independent liability fund as it considers appropriate.

History: En. Sec. 6, Ch. 564, L. 1987.

33-27-114. Limit on the amount of fund. The independent liability fund of any small business may not be greater than the larger of the following:

(1) the total of all legally required liability insurance; or

(2) five times the gross sales of the small business in its most recent fiscal year.

History: En. Sec. 7, Ch. 564, L. 1987.

33-27-115. Composition of independent liability fund. The money, assets, and investments contributed to an independent liability fund must meet the criteria established for investments by an insurance company in chapter 12 and must be valued as those assets and investments would be valued.

History: En. Sec. 8, Ch. 564, L. 1987; amd. Sec. 48, Ch. 304, L. 1999.

33-27-116. Inviolability of fund. Once money, assets, or investments have been contributed to an independent liability fund, they may not be used or removed from the fund except in the manner prescribed by 33-27-117 and 33-27-119.

History: En. Sec. 12, Ch. 564, L. 1987.

33-27-117. Deduction of costs. (1) The actual costs of administering an independent liability fund may be deducted from the fund or from income arising out of the money, assets, and investments in the fund. Such costs include the cost of defending against or negotiating a settlement of any liability claim, as well as the full amount of any claim paid.

(2) A small business may not deduct the cost of any in-house administration of its independent liability fund. The commissioner may review any third-party arrangement for administration of an independent liability fund to ascertain whether such costs are deductible under this section.

History: En. Sec. 13, Ch. 564, L. 1987.

33-27-118. Taxation of independent liability fund contributions. The net value of independent liability fund contributions for any given fiscal year is taxed in accordance with 33-2-705(2).

History: En. Sec. 16, Ch. 564, L. 1987.

33-27-119. Termination of independent liability fund. (1) A small business with an independent liability fund may terminate the independent liability fund by:

(a) providing a trust to administer any principal remaining in its fund and to pay any outstanding claims for whichever is longer:

(i) any legally required period of insurance coverage; or

(ii) 5 years; or

(b) substituting an equivalent liability insurance policy plus five times the amount of the deductible for any legally required period of insurance coverage or 5 years, whichever is longer.

(2) If an equivalent insurance policy as provided for in subsection (1)(b) cannot be procured for the full period required, the small business shall deposit the estimated premium for the required equivalent insurance policy in a suitable trust account. The trust account must be used to purchase liability insurance for the required period of insurance coverage.

(3) The principal of an independent liability fund must remain inviolate, except as it is needed to pay just claims, for the full applicable termination period as provided in subsection (1). However, income from the principal not needed for administrative costs may be paid during the termination period to the person or persons who are designated to ultimately receive the principal of the fund, and the income is taxable to that person or persons.

History: En. Sec. 17, Ch. 564, L. 1987; amd. Sec. 3, Ch. 111, L. 2001.

33-28-306. Conversion to or merger with reciprocal insurer.

Part 1
General Provisions and Licensing

33-28-101. Definitions. As used in this chapter, unless the context requires otherwise, the following definitions apply:

(1) "Affiliated company" means any company in the same corporate system as a parent, an industrial insured, or a member organization by virtue of common ownership, control, operation, or management.

(2) "Association" means any legal association of sole proprietorships, corporations, partnerships, limited liability companies, or associations that has been in continuous existence for at least 1 year unless the 1-year requirement is waived by the commissioner, the member organizations of which collectively, or the association itself:

(a) owns, controls, or holds with power to vote all of the outstanding voting securities of an association captive insurance company incorporated as a stock insurer;

(b) has complete voting control over an association captive insurance company incorporated as a mutual insurer; or

(c) constitutes all of the subscribers of an association captive insurance company formed as a reciprocal insurer.

(3) "Association captive insurance company" means any company that insures risks of the member organizations of an association and their affiliated companies.

(4) "Branch business" means any insurance business transacted by a branch captive insurance company in this state.

(5) "Branch captive insurance company" means any foreign captive insurance company licensed by the commissioner to transact the business of insurance in this state through a business unit with a principal place of business in this state.

(6) "Branch operations" means any business operations of a branch captive insurance company in this state.

(7) "Captive insurance company" means any pure captive insurance company, association captive insurance company, sponsored captive insurance company, or industrial insured captive insurance company formed or licensed under the provisions of this chapter.

(8) "Cash equivalent" means any short-term, highly liquid investment that is:

(a) readily convertible to known amounts of cash; and

(b) so near to its maturity that it presents insignificant risk of changes in value because of changes in interest rates. Only an investment with an original maturity of 3 months or less qualifies as a cash equivalent.

(9) "Excess workers' compensation insurance" means, in the case of an employer that has insured or self-insured its workers' compensation risks in accordance with applicable state or federal law, insurance that is in excess of a specified perincident or aggregate limit established by the commissioner.

(10) "Foreign captive insurance company" means any captive insurance company formed under the laws of any jurisdiction other than this state.

(11) "Industrial insured" means an insured:

(a) who procures the insurance of any risk or risks by use of the services of a full-time employee acting as an insurance manager or buyer;

(b) whose aggregate annual premiums for insurance on all risks total at least $25,000; and

(c) who has at least 25 full-time employees.

(12) "Industrial insured captive insurance company" means any company that insures risks of the industrial insureds that comprise the industrial insured group and their affiliated companies.

(13) "Industrial insured group" means any group of industrial insureds that collectively:

(a) owns, controls, or holds with power to vote all of the outstanding voting securities of an industrial insured captive insurance company incorporated as a stock insurer; or

(b) has complete voting control over an industrial insured captive insurance company incorporated as a mutual insurer.

(14) "Member organization" means a sole proprietorship, corporation, partnership, or association that belongs to an association.

(15) "Parent" means a corporation, partnership, or individual that directly or indirectly owns, controls, or holds with power to vote more than 50% of the outstanding voting securities of a pure captive insurance company.

(16) "Participant" means an entity, as enumerated in 33-28-304, and any affiliates of the entity that are insured by a sponsored captive insurance company in which the losses of the participant are limited through a participant contract to the participant's pro rata share of the assets of one or more protected cells identified in the participant contract.

(17) "Participant contract" means a contract by which a sponsored captive insurance company insures the risks of a participant and limits the losses of each participant in the contract.

(18) "Protected cell" means a separate account established by a sponsored captive insurance company formed or licensed under the provisions of this chapter, in which assets are maintained for one or more participants in accordance with the terms of one or more participant contracts to fund the liability of the sponsored captive insurance company with respect to the participants as set forth in the participant contracts.

(19) "Pure captive insurance company" means any company that insures risks of its parent and affiliated companies.

(20) "Sponsor" means any entity that meets the requirements of 33-28-301 and 33-28-302 and is approved by the commissioner to provide all or part of the capital and surplus required by the applicable law and to organize and operate a sponsored captive insurance company.

(21) "Sponsored captive insurance company" means any captive insurance company:

(a) in which the minimum capital and surplus required by applicable law are provided by one or more sponsors;

(b) that is formed or licensed under the provisions of this chapter;

(c) that insures the risks of separate participants through participant contracts; and

(d) that funds its liability to each participant through one or more protected cells and segregates the assets of each protected cell from the assets of other protected cells and from the assets of the sponsored captive insurance company's general account.

33-28-102. Licensing — authority. (1) A captive insurance company, when permitted by its articles of incorporation, charter, or other organizational document, may apply to the commissioner for a license to provide property insurance, casualty insurance, life insurance, disability income insurance, and health insurance coverage as defined in 33-22-140, except that:

(a) a pure captive insurance company may not insure any risks other than those of its parent and affiliated companies;

(b) an industrial insured captive insurance company may not insure any risks other than those of the industrial insureds that comprise the industrial insured group and their affiliated companies;

(c) an association captive insurance company may not insure any risks other than those of the member organizations of its association or their affiliated companies;

(d) a captive insurance company may not:

(i) provide personal lines of insurance, including but not limited to motor vehicle or homeowner's insurance coverage or any component of those coverages;

(ii) accept or cede reinsurance except as provided in 33-28-203; or

(iii) provide health insurance coverage, unless the captive insurance company is a pure captive insurance company; and

(e) a sponsored captive insurance company may not insure any risks other than those of its participants.

(2) A captive insurance company may not do any insurance business in this state unless:

(a) it first obtains from the commissioner a license authorizing it to do insurance business in this state;

(b) its board of directors or a reciprocal insurer's subscribers' advisory committee holds at least one meeting each year in this state; and

(c) it maintains its principal place of business in this state.

(3) (a) Before receiving a license, a captive insurance company shall:

(i) with respect to a captive insurance company formed as a corporation:

(A) file with the commissioner a certified copy of its charter and bylaws, a statement under oath of its president and secretary showing its financial condition, and any other statements or documents required by the commissioner; and

(B) submit to the commissioner for approval a description of the coverages, deductibles, coverage limits, and rates, together with any additional information that the commissioner may reasonably require;

(ii) with respect to a captive insurance company formed as a reciprocal insurer:

(A) file with the commissioner a certified copy of the power of attorney of its attorney-in-fact, a certified copy of its subscribers' agreement, a statement under oath of its attorney-in-fact showing its financial condition, and any other statements or documents required by the commissioner; and

(B) submit to the commissioner for approval a description of the coverages, deductibles, coverage limits, and rates, together with any additional information that the commissioner may reasonably require.

(b) In the event of any subsequent material change in any of the items in the description provided for in subsection (3)(a), the captive insurance company shall submit to the commissioner for approval an appropriate revision and may not offer any additional kinds of insurance until a revision of the description is approved by the commissioner. The captive insurance company shall inform the commissioner of any change in rates within 30 days of the adoption of the change.

(c) In addition to the information required by subsections (3)(a) and (3)(b), each applicant captive insurance company shall file with the commissioner evidence of the following:

(i) the amount and liquidity of its assets relative to the risks to be assumed;

(ii) the adequacy of the expertise, experience, and character of the person or persons who will manage it;

(iii) the overall soundness of its plan of operation;

(iv) the adequacy of the loss prevention programs of its parent, member organizations, or industrial insureds as applicable; and

(v) any other factors considered relevant by the commissioner in ascertaining whether the proposed captive insurance company will be able to meet its policy obligations.

(d) In addition to the information required by this section, each applicant that is a sponsored captive insurance company shall file with the commissioner the following:

(i) a business plan demonstrating how the applicant will account for the loss and expense experience of each protected cell at a level of detail found to be sufficient by the commissioner and how it will report the experience to the commissioner;

(ii) a statement acknowledging that all financial records of the sponsored captive insurance company, including records pertaining to any protected cells, must be made available for inspection or examination by the commissioner or the commissioner's designated agent;

(iii) all contracts or sample contracts between the sponsored captive insurance company and any participants; and

(iv) evidence that expenses will be allocated to each protected cell in a fair and equitable manner.

(e) Information submitted pursuant to this subsection (3) must remain confidential and may not be made public by the commissioner or an employee or agent of the commissioner without the written consent of the company, except that:

(i) the information may be discoverable by a party in a civil action or contested case to which the captive insurance company that submitted the information is a party, upon a showing by the party seeking to discover the information that the information sought is relevant to and necessary for the furtherance of the action or case, the information sought is unavailable from other nonconfidential sources, and a subpoena issued by a judicial or administrative officer of competent jurisdiction has been submitted to the commissioner;

(ii) the commissioner may, in the commissioner's discretion, disclose the information to a public officer having jurisdiction over the regulation of insurance in another state or to a public official of the federal government, as long as the public official agrees in writing to maintain the confidentiality of the information and the laws of the state in which the public official serves, if applicable, require the information to be and to remain confidential.

(4) (a) Each captive insurance company shall pay to the commissioner a nonrefundable fee of $200 for the examining, investigating, and processing of its application for license, and the commissioner is authorized to retain legal, financial, and examination services from outside the department, the reasonable cost of which may be charged to the applicant.

(b) The provisions of Title 33, chapter 1, part 4, apply to examinations, investigations, and processing conducted under the authority of this section. In addition, each captive insurance company shall pay a license fee for the year of registration and a renewal fee for each subsequent year of $300.

(5) If the commissioner is satisfied that the documents and statements that the applicant captive insurance company has filed comply with the provisions of this chapter and applicable provisions of Title 33, the commissioner may grant a license authorizing the company to do insurance business in this state. The license is effective until March 1 of each year and may be renewed upon proper compliance with this chapter.

History: En. Sec. 2, Ch. 298, L. 2001; amd. Sec. 9, Ch. 383, L. 2003.

33-28-103. Names of captive insurance companies. A captive insurance company may not adopt a name that is the same, deceptively similar, or likely to be confused with or mistaken for any other existing business name registered in the state of Montana.

History: En. Sec. 3, Ch. 298, L. 2001.

33-28-104. Minimum capital surplus — letter of credit. (1) A captive insurance company may not be issued a license unless it possesses and maintains unimpaired paid-in capital and surplus of:

(a) in the case of a pure captive insurance company, not less than $250,000;

(b) in the case of an industrial insured captive insurance company, not less than $500,000;

(c) in the case of an association captive insurance company, not less than $750,000;

(d) in the case of a sponsored captive insurance company, not less than $1 million; or

(e) in the case of a branch captive insurance company, not less than the applicable amount of capital and surplus required in subsections (1)(a) through (1)(d), as determined based upon the organizational form of the foreign captive insurance company.

(2) The commissioner may require additional capital and surplus based upon the type, volume, and nature of insurance business transacted.

(3) Capital and surplus may be in the form of cash, cash equivalent, or an irrevocable letter of credit issued by a bank chartered by the state of Montana or a member bank of the federal reserve system and approved by the commissioner.

(4) Despite the requirements of subsection (1), a captive insurance company organized as a reciprocal insurer under this chapter may not be issued a license unless it possesses and maintains unimpaired paid-in capital and surplus of $1 million.

(5) In the case of a branch captive insurance company, security in an amount not less than the minimum capital and surplus required in this section must be jointly held by the commissioner and the branch captive insurance company in a bank of the federal reserve system approved by the commissioner.

History: En. Sec. 4, Ch. 298, L. 2001; amd. Sec. 10, Ch. 383, L. 2003.

33-28-105. Formation of captive insurance companies. (1) A pure captive insurance company or a sponsored captive insurance company must be incorporated as a stock insurer with its capital divided into shares and held by the stockholders.

(2) An association captive insurance company or an industrial insured captive insurance company may be:

(a) incorporated as a stock insurer with its capital divided into shares and held by the stockholders;

(b) incorporated as a mutual insurer without capital stock, the governing body of which is elected by the member organizations of its association or associations; or

(c) organized as a reciprocal insurer under Title 33, chapter 5.

(3) A captive insurance company incorporated or organized in this state may not have less than three incorporators, at least one of whom must be a resident of this state.

(4) (a) In the case of a captive insurance company formed as a corporation and before the articles of incorporation are transmitted to the secretary of state, the incorporators shall file a copy of the proposed articles of incorporation and a petition with the commissioner requesting the commissioner to issue a certificate that finds that the establishment and maintenance of the proposed corporation will promote the general good of the state. In reviewing the petition, the commissioner shall consider:

(i) the character, reputation, financial standing, and purposes of the incorporators;

(ii) the character, reputation, financial responsibility, insurance experience, and business qualifications of the officers and directors; and

(iii) any other factors that the commissioner considers appropriate.

(b) If the commissioner does not issue a certificate or finds that the proposed articles of incorporation of the captive insurance company do not meet the requirements of the applicable laws, including but not limited to 33-2-112, the commissioner shall refuse to approve the draft of the articles of incorporation and shall return the draft to the proposed incorporators, together with a written statement explaining the refusal.

(c) If the commissioner issues a certificate and approves the draft articles of incorporation, the commissioner shall forward the certificate and an approved draft of articles of incorporation to the proposed incorporators. The incorporators shall prepare two sets of the approved articles of incorporation and shall file one set of articles of incorporation with the secretary of state as required by the applicable law and one set with the commissioner.

(5) The capital stock of a captive insurance company incorporated as a stock insurer may be authorized with no par value.

(6) At least one of the members of the board of directors of a captive insurance company must be a resident of this state.

(7) (a) A captive insurance company formed as a corporation has the privileges and is subject to the provisions of general corporation law, as well as the applicable provisions contained in this chapter.

(b) In the event of conflict between the provisions of general corporation law and this chapter, the provisions of this chapter control.

(8) (a) With respect to a captive insurance company formed as a reciprocal insurer, the organizers shall petition and request that the commissioner issue a certificate that finds that the establishment and maintenance of the proposed association will promote the general good of the state. In reviewing the petition, the commissioner shall consider:

(i) the character, reputation, financial standing, and purposes of the organizers;

(ii) the character, reputation, financial responsibility, insurance experience, and business qualifications of the attorney-in-fact; and

(iii) any other factors that the commissioner considers appropriate.

(b) The commissioner may either approve the petition and issue the certificate or reject the petition in a written statement of the reasons for the rejection.

(c) A captive insurance company formed as a reciprocal insurer has the privileges and is subject to the provisions of Title 33, chapter 5, in addition to the applicable provisions of this chapter. If there is a conflict between Title 33, chapter 5, and this chapter, the provisions of this chapter control.

(d) The subscribers' agreement or other organizing document of a captive insurance company formed as a reciprocal insurer may authorize a quorum of a subscribers' advisory committee to consist of at least one-third of the number of its members.

(9) Except as provided in 33-28-306, the provisions of Title 33 pertaining to mergers, consolidations, conversions, mutualizations, voluntary dissolutions, and redomestications apply in determining the procedures to be followed by captive insurance companies in carrying out any of those transactions.

(10) With respect to a branch captive insurance company, the foreign captive insurance company shall petition and request that the commissioner issue a certificate that finds that, after considering the character, reputation, financial responsibility, insurance experience, and business qualifications of the officers and directors of the foreign captive insurance company, the licensing and maintenance of the branch operation will promote the general good of the state. The foreign captive insurance company may apply to the secretary of state for a certificate of authority to transact business in this state after the commissioner's certificate is issued.

Compiler's Comments

2005 Amendments — Composite Section: Chapter 205 in (9) near middle inserted "voluntary dissolutions". Amendment effective October 1, 2005.

Chapter 469 in (8)(c) deleted former third sentence that read: "If a reciprocal insurer is determined to be subject to other provisions of Title 33, chapter 5, the other provisions of chapter 5 are not applicable to a reciprocal captive insurance company formed under this chapter unless those provisions of chapter 5 are expressly made applicable to captive insurance companies." Amendment effective October 1, 2005.

33-28-106. Dividends. (1) A captive insurance company may not pay a dividend out of, or other distribution with respect to, capital or surplus in excess of the limitations set forth in 33-2-1114 without the prior approval of the commissioner.

(2) Approval of an ongoing plan for the payment of dividends or other distributions must be conditioned upon retention, at the time of each payment, of capital surplus in excess of the amounts specified by or determined in accordance with formulas approved by the commissioner.

History: En. Sec. 6, Ch. 298, L. 2001.

33-28-107. Reports and statements. (1) A captive insurance company is not required to make an annual report except as provided in this section.

(2) (a) On or before March 1 of each year, each captive insurance company shall submit to the commissioner a report of its financial condition in a form and manner as required by the commissioner, verified by oath of two of its executive officers.

(b) Each captive insurance company shall report using generally accepted accounting principles, unless the commissioner requires the use of statutory accounting principles, with any necessary or useful modifications or additions required by the commissioner. The commissioner may also require the report to be supplemented by additional information.

(c) On or before March 1 of each year, each branch captive insurance company shall submit to the commissioner a copy of all reports and statements required to be filed under the laws in which the foreign captive insurance company is formed, verified by oath of two of its executive officers. If the commissioner is satisfied that the annual report filed by the foreign captive insurance company in its domiciliary jurisdiction provides adequate information concerning the financial condition of the foreign captive insurance company, the commissioner may waive the requirement for completion of the captive annual statement for business written in the foreign jurisdiction.

History: En. Sec. 7, Ch. 298, L. 2001; amd. Sec. 12, Ch. 383, L. 2003.

33-28-108. Examinations and investigations. (1) (a) At least once in 3 years, or more frequently if the commissioner considers it prudent, the commissioner or some competent person appointed by the commissioner shall visit each captive insurance company and thoroughly inspect and examine its affairs to ascertain its financial condition, its ability to fulfill its obligations, and whether it has complied with the provisions of this chapter.

(b) The commissioner, upon application and in the commissioner's discretion, may enlarge the 3-year period to 5 years if the captive insurance company is:

(i) subject to a comprehensive annual audit during the 5-year period of a scope satisfactory to the commissioner; and

(ii) the audit is conducted by independent auditors approved by the commissioner.

(c) The expenses and charges of the examination must be paid to the commissioner by the company or companies examined.

(2) The provisions of Title 33, chapter 1, part 4, apply to examinations conducted under this section.

(3) Except as provided in subsection (4), all examination reports, preliminary examination reports or results, working papers, recorded information, documents, and their copies produced by, obtained by, or disclosed to the commissioner or any other person in the course of an examination made under this section are confidential, are not subject to subpoena, and may not be made public by the commissioner or an employee or agent of the commissioner without the written consent of the company or upon court order.

(4) Subsection (3) does not prevent the commissioner from using information obtained pursuant to this section in furtherance of the commissioner's regulatory authority under Title 33. The commissioner may, in the commissioner's discretion, grant access to information obtained pursuant to this section to public officers having jurisdiction over the regulation of insurance in any other state or country or to law enforcement officers of this state or any other state or agency of the federal government at any time, as long as the officers receiving the information agree in writing to hold it in a manner consistent with this section.

(5) (a) Except as provided in subsection (5)(b), the provisions of this section apply to all business written by a captive insurance company.

(b) The examination for a branch captive insurance company may only be of branch business and branch operations if the branch captive insurance company has satisfied the requirements of 33-28-107(2)(c) to the satisfaction of the commissioner.

History: En. Sec. 8, Ch. 298, L. 2001; amd. Sec. 13, Ch. 383, L. 2003.

33-28-109. Suspension or revocation of license. (1) The license of a captive insurance company doing insurance business in this state may be suspended by the commissioner for any of the following reasons:

(a) insolvency or impairment of capital or surplus;

(b) failure to meet and maintain the requirements of 33-28-104;

(c) refusal or failure to submit an annual report, as required by 33-28-107, or any other report or statement required by law or by lawful order of the commissioner;

(d) failure to comply with the provisions of its own charter, bylaws, or other organizational document;

(e) failure to submit to examination or to perform any legal obligation as required by 33-28-108;

(f) use of methods that, although not otherwise specifically prohibited by law, nevertheless render its operation detrimental or its condition unsound with respect to the public or to its policyholders;

(g) failure to pay the tax provided for in 33-28-201; or

(h) failure otherwise to comply with the laws of this state.

(2) If the commissioner finds, upon examination, hearing, or other evidence, that any captive insurance company has committed any of the acts specified in subsection (1), the commissioner may suspend or revoke the company's license if the commissioner considers it in the best interest of the public or the policyholders of the captive insurance company.

History: En. Sec. 9, Ch. 298, L. 2001.

Part 2
Operations

33-28-201. Tax on premiums collected. (1) (a) Each captive insurance company shall pay to the commissioner, on or before March 1 of each year, a tax on the direct premiums collected or contracted for on policies or contracts of insurance written by the captive insurance company during the year ending December 31, after deducting from the direct premiums subject to the tax the amounts paid to policyholders as return premiums, including dividends on unabsorbed premiums or premium deposits returned or credited to policyholders.

(b) The tax on direct premiums collected in this state must be calculated as follows:

(i) 0.4% on the first $20 million;

(ii) 0.3% on the next $20 million;

(iii) 0.2% on the next $20 million; and

(iv) 0.075% on each subsequent dollar collected.

(2) (a) Each captive insurance company shall pay to the commissioner on or before March 1 of each year a tax on assumed reinsurance premiums.

(b) A reinsurance tax does not apply to premiums for risks or portions of risks that are subject to taxation on a direct basis pursuant to subsection (1).

(c) A reinsurance premium tax is not payable in connection with the receipt of assets in exchange for the assumption of loss reserves and other liabilities of another insurer under common ownership and control if the transaction is part of a plan to discontinue the operations of the other insurer and if the intent of the parties to the transaction is to renew or maintain the business with the captive insurance company.

(d) The amount of the reinsurance tax must be calculated as follows:

(i) 0.225% on the first $20 million of assumed reinsurance premiums;

(ii) 0.150% on the next $20 million of assumed reinsurance premiums; and

(iii) 0.050% on each subsequent dollar of assumed reinsurance premiums.

(3) (a) If the aggregate taxes to be paid by a captive insurance company calculated under subsections (1) and (2) amount to less than $5,000 in any year, the captive insurance company shall pay a tax of $5,000 for that year.

(b) Aggregate taxes to be paid by a captive insurance company under this section may not exceed $100,000 in any year.

(4) Two or more captive insurance companies under common ownership and control must be taxed as though they were a single captive insurance company.

(5) For the purposes of this section, "common ownership and control" means:

(a) in the case of stock corporations, the direct or indirect ownership of 80% or more of the outstanding voting stock of two or more corporations by the same shareholder or shareholders; and

(b) in the case of mutual corporations, the direct or indirect ownership of 80% or more of the surplus and the voting power of two or more corporations by the same member or members.

(6) Only the branch business of a branch captive insurance company is subject to taxation under the provisions of this section.

History: En. Sec. 10, Ch. 298, L. 2001; amd. Sec. 14, Ch. 383, L. 2003; amd. Sec. 2, Ch. 205, L. 2005.

Compiler's Comments

2005 Amendment: Chapter 205 inserted (3)(b) relating to maximum aggregate taxes paid by a captive insurance company; and made minor changes in style. Amendment effective October 1, 2005.

33-28-202. Legal investments. (1) An industrial insured captive insurance company and an association captive insurance company shall comply with the investment requirements contained in Title 33, chapter 12, and the rules promulgated in accordance with these provisions. Notwithstanding any other provision of this title, the commissioner may approve the use of alternative reliable methods of valuation and rating.

(2) A pure captive insurance company is not subject to any restrictions on allowable investments, except that the commissioner may prohibit or limit any investment that threatens the solvency or liquidity of the company.

(3) Only a pure captive insurance company may make loans to its parent company or affiliates. Loans to a parent company or any affiliate may not be made without prior written approval of the commissioner and must be evidenced by a note in a form approved by the commissioner. Loans of minimum capital and surplus funds required by 33-28-104 are prohibited.

History: En. Sec. 11, Ch. 298, L. 2001; amd. Sec. 39, Ch. 469, L. 2005.

2005 Amendment: Chapter 469 in (1) in first sentence after "contained in" deleted "33-2-532, 33-2-533"; and made minor changes in style. Amendment effective October 1, 2005.

33-28-203. Reinsurance. (1) Subject to the prior approval of the commissioner, a captive insurance company may provide reinsurance on risks ceded by any other insurer.

(2) (a) Any captive insurance company may take credit for reserves on risks or portions of risks ceded to reinsurers complying with the provisions of 33-2-1216 and 33-2-1217.

(b) Prior approval of the commissioner is required for ceding or taking credit for reserves on risks or portions of risks ceded to reinsurers not complying with 33-2-1216 and 33-2-1217.

(3) (a) In addition to the credit allowed to reinsurers in 33-2-1216 and 33-2-1217, a captive insurance company may, if approved by the commissioner, take credit for reserves on risks or portions of risks ceded to a pool, exchange, or association acting as a reinsurer that has been authorized by the commissioner.

(b) The commissioner may require any documents, financial information, or other evidence that a pool, exchange, or association will be able to provide adequate security for its financial obligations.

(c) The commissioner may deny authorization or impose any limitations on the activities of a reinsurance pool, exchange, or association that, in the commissioner's judgment, are necessary and proper to provide adequate security for the ceding captive insurance company and for the protection and consequent benefit of the public at large.

History: En. Sec. 12, Ch. 298, L. 2001.

33-28-204. Rating organizations. A captive insurance company is not required to join a rating organization.

History: En. Sec. 13, Ch. 298, L. 2001.

33-28-205. Exemption from compulsory organizations. A captive insurance company may not join or contribute financially to any plan, pool, association, or guaranty or insolvency fund in this state, and a captive insurance company, its insureds, its parent, any affiliated company, or any member organization of an association may not receive any benefit from the plan, pool, association, or guaranty or insolvency fund for claims arising out of the operations of the captive insurance company.

History: En. Sec. 14, Ch. 298, L. 2001.

33-28-206. Rules. The commissioner may adopt rules necessary to implement the provisions of this chapter. The rules may include but are not limited to rules relating to forms, payment of fees, licensing, capital and surplus, formation of companies, reports, examinations, investigations, and suspension and revocation of licenses.

History: En. Sec. 15, Ch. 298, L. 2001.

33-28-207. Applicable laws. (1) The following apply to captive insurance companies:

(a) definitions of property insurance provided in 33-1-210, casualty insurance provided in 33-1-206, life insurance provided in 33-1-208, health insurance coverage provided in 33-22-140, and disability income insurance provided in 33-1-235;

(b) the limitation provided in 33-2-705 on the imposition of other taxes;

(c) the provisions relating to supervision, rehabilitation, and liquidation of insurance companies as provided for in Title 33, chapter 2, part 13; and

(d) the provisions of 33-18-201, 33-18-203, 33-18-205, and 33-18-242.

(2) This chapter may not be construed as exempting:

(a) a captive insurance company, its parent, or affiliated companies from compliance with the laws governing workers' compensation insurance; or

(b) a captive insurance company that is a risk retention group from complying with the provisions of Title 33, chapter 11.

(3) Except as expressly provided in this chapter, the provisions of Title 33 do not apply to captive insurance companies.

History: En. Sec. 16, Ch. 298, L. 2001; amd. Secs. 15, 17, Ch. 383, L. 2003; amd. Sec. 3, Ch. 205, L. 2005.

2005 Amendment: Chapter 205 in introductory clause inserted "following apply to captive insurance companies"; inserted (1)(b) relating to the limitation in 33-2-705; inserted (2)(b) regarding a captive insurance company complying with Title 33, chapter 11; and made minor changes in style. Amendment effective October 1, 2005.

Part 3
Sponsored Captive Insurance Companies

33-28-301. Sponsored captive insurance company. (1) One or more sponsors may form a sponsored captive insurance company.

(2) A sponsored captive insurance company formed or licensed under the provisions of this chapter may establish and maintain one or more protected cells to insure risks of one or more participants, subject to the following conditions:

(a) The shareholders of the sponsored captive insurance company must be limited to its participants and sponsors.

(b) Each protected cell must be accounted for separately on the books and records of the sponsored captive insurance company to reflect the financial condition and result of operations of the protected cell, including but not limited to the net income or loss, dividends or other distributions to participants, and any other factor provided in the participant contract or required by the commissioner.

(c) The assets of a protected cell may not be chargeable with liabilities arising from any other insurance business of the sponsored captive insurance company.

(d) A sale, exchange, or other transfer of assets may not be made by a sponsored captive insurance company among any of its protected cells without the consent of the participants of each affected protected cell.

(e) A sale, exchange, transfer of assets, dividend, or distribution may not be made from a protected cell to a sponsor or a participant without the commissioner's prior written approval, which may not be given if the sale, exchange, transfer, dividend, or distribution would result in insolvency or impairment with respect to the protected cell.

(f) Each sponsored captive insurance company shall file annually with the commissioner any financial reports required by the commissioner and shall include, without limitation, accounting statements detailing the financial experience of each protected cell.

(g) Each sponsored captive insurance company shall notify the commissioner in writing within 20 business days from the time that a protected cell has become impaired or insolvent or is otherwise unable to meets its claim or expense obligations.

(h) A participant contract may not take effect without the commissioner's prior written approval.

(i) An addition of each new protected cell or the withdrawal of any participant of an existing protected cell constitutes a change in the business plan of the sponsored captive insurance company and may not be effective without the commissioner's prior written approval.

(j) The business written by a sponsored captive insurance company, with respect to each cell, must be:

(i) fronted by an insurance company licensed under the laws of any state;

(ii) reinsured by a reinsurer authorized or approved by the commissioner; or

(iii) secured by a trust fund in the United States for the benefit of policyholders and claimants, which must be funded by an irrevocable letter of credit or other asset that is acceptable to the commissioner, and with the following requirements:

(A) the amount of the security provided by the trust fund may not be less than the reserves associated with the liabilities that are not fronted or reinsured, including but not limited to reserves for losses that are allocated for loss adjustment expenses, incurred but not reported losses, and unearned premiums for business written through the participant's protected cell;

(B) the commissioner may require the sponsored captive insurance company to increase the funding of any trust;

(C) if the form of security in the trust is a letter of credit, the letter of credit must be established, issued, or confirmed by a bank chartered in this state, a member of the federal reserve system, or a bank chartered by another state if that state-chartered bank is acceptable to the commissioner; and

(D) the trust and trust instrument must be in a form and with terms approved by the commissioner.

History: En. Sec. 1, Ch. 383, L. 2003.

33-28-302. Qualification of sponsors. A sponsor of a sponsored captive insurance company must be an insurer licensed under the laws of any state, a reinsurer licensed under the laws of any state, a captive insurance company formed or licensed under this chapter, or an insurance producer licensed under chapter 17 of this title and approved by the commissioner.

History: En. Sec. 2, Ch. 383, L. 2003.

33-28-303. Delinquency of sponsored captive insurance company. If delinquency proceedings have been taken against a sponsored captive insurance company:

(1) the assets of a protected cell may not be used to pay any expenses other than those attributable to the protected cell; and

(2) the capital and surplus of the sponsored captive insurance company must be available at all times to pay expenses of or claims against the sponsored captive insurance company.

History: En. Sec. 3, Ch. 383, L. 2003.

33-28-304. Participants in sponsored captive insurance companies. (1) An association, corporation, limited liability company, partnership, trust, or other business entity may be a participant in a sponsored captive insurance company.

(2) A sponsor may be a participant in a sponsored captive insurance company.

(3) A participant is not required to be a shareholder of a sponsored captive insurance company or its affiliate.

(4) A participant shall insure only its own risks through a sponsored captive insurance company.

History: En. Sec. 4, Ch. 383, L. 2003.

33-28-305. Excess workers' compensation insurance — reinsurance of self-insured plans. (1) A captive insurance company may provide excess workers' compensation insurance to its parent and affiliated companies, unless the laws of the state having jurisdiction over the transaction prohibit providing the insurance.

(2) A captive insurance company may reinsure workers' compensation of a qualified self-insured plan of its parent and affiliated companies.

History: En. Sec. 5, Ch. 383, L. 2003.

33-28-306. Conversion to or merger with reciprocal insurer. (1) An association captive insurance company or industrial insured group formed as a stock or mutual corporation may be converted to or merged with a reciprocal insurer in accordance with the provisions of this section.

(2) A plan for conversion or merger must:

(a) be fair and equitable to the shareholders, in the case of a stock insurer, or the policyholders, in the case of a mutual insurer; and

(b) provide for the purchase of the shares of any nonconsenting shareholder of a stock insurer or the policyholder interest of any nonconsenting policyholder of a mutual insurer.

(3) In order to convert to a reciprocal insurer, the conversion must be accomplished under a reasonable plan and procedure approved by the commissioner. The commissioner may not approve the plan unless it:

(a) provides for a hearing upon notice to the insurer, directors, officers, and stockholders or policyholders who have the right to appear at the hearing, unless the commissioner waives or modifies the requirements for the hearing;

(b) provides for the conversion of the existing stockholder or policyholder interests into subscriber interests in the resulting reciprocal insurer proportionate to stockholder or policyholder interests;

(c) (i) in the case of a stock insurer, is approved, by a majority of the shareholders who are entitled to vote and who are represented at a regular or special meeting at which a quorum is present either in person or by proxy; or

(ii) in the case of a mutual insurer, by a majority of the voting interests of the policyholders who are represented at a regular or special meeting at which a quorum is present either in person or by proxy; and

(d) meets the requirements of 33-28-105.

(4) If the commissioner approves a plan of conversion, the certificate of authority for the converting insurer must be amended to state that it is a reciprocal insurer. The conversion is effective and the corporate existence of the converting entity ceases to exist upon the date on which the amended certificate is issued to the attorney-in-fact of the reciprocal insurer. The resulting reciprocal insurer shall notify the secretary of state of the conversion.

(5) The commissioner may not approve a plan for a merger unless it:

(a) meets the requirements of:

(i) 33-3-217, with respect to the merger with a captive stock insurer; or

(ii) 33-3-218, with respect to the merger with a captive mutual insurer; and

(b) meets the requirements of 33-28-105.

Part 1
General Provisions

33-30-101. Definitions. As used in this chapter, the following definitions apply:

(1) "Health service corporation" means a nonprofit corporation organized or operating for the purposes of establishing and operating a nonprofit plan or plans under which prepaid hospital care, medical-surgical care, and other health care and services, or reimbursement therefor, may be furnished to a member or beneficiary.

(2) "Health services" means the health care and services provided by hospitals or other health care institutions, organizations, associations, or groups and by doctors of medicine, osteopathy, dentistry, chiropractic, optometry, and podiatry; nursing services; licensed acupuncturist services; licensed social worker, licensed professional counselor, or psychologist; medical appliances, equipment, and supplies; drugs, medicines, ambulance services, and other therapeutic services and supplies.

(3) "Membership contract" means any agreement, contract, or certificate by which a health service corporation describes the health services or benefits provided to its members or beneficiaries.

History: En. 40-5901 by Sec. 1, Ch. 319, L. 1975; R.C.M. 1947, 40-5901(1) thru (3); amd. Sec. 14, Ch. 544, L. 1983; amd. Sec. 3, Ch. 606, L. 1987; amd. Sec. 2, Ch. 362, L. 1991.

33-30-105. Examination of a health service corporation. (1) If the commissioner believes a health service corporation is unable or potentially unable to fulfill its contractual obligations to its members, the commissioner may conduct an examination of that corporation.

(2) In addition to the examination authorized in subsection (1), at least once every 4 years, the commissioner shall conduct an examination of each health service corporation to determine if the corporation is fulfilling its contractual obligations by prompt satisfaction of claims at the highest monetary level consistent with reasonable dues or fees, and that the corporation's management exercises appropriate fiscal controls, operations, and personnel policies to assure that efficient and economic administration restrains overhead costs for the benefit of its members.

(3) Each health service corporation examined, its officers, employees, and insurance producers, shall produce and make available to the commissioner or his examiners the accounts, records, documents, files, information, assets, and matters in its possession or control relating to the subject of the examination.

(4) The commissioner or his examiner shall make a verified report of the examination.

(5) The report shall comprise only facts appearing from the books, papers, records, or documents of the corporation examined or ascertained from the testimony, under oath, of individuals concerning its affairs and conclusions and recommendations as warranted by those facts.

(6) The commissioner shall furnish a copy of the proposed report to the corporation examined not less than 20 days prior to its filing in his office. If the corporation requests a hearing, in writing, within the 20-day period, the commissioner shall grant one with respect to the report and shall not file the report until after the hearing and after modifications, if any, the commissioner deems proper.

(7) The health service corporation shall pay for each examination conducted pursuant to subsections (1) and (2) in accordance with 33-1-413.

33-30-107. Annual statement. (1) On or before March 1 of each year, each health service corporation shall file an annual statement for the preceding year on the national association of insurance commissioners' health blank form with the commissioner of insurance. This annual statement must be completed in accordance with the annual statement instructions and the Accounting Practices and Procedures Manual of the national association of insurance commissioners. The statement must be accompanied by an actuarial opinion attesting to the insurer's reserves.

(2) The health service corporation shall file a statement containing any other information concerning its financial affairs that may be reasonably requested by the commissioner.

(3) (a) Each health service corporation shall file electronic versions of its annual and quarterly financial statements with the national association of insurance commissioners. The date for submission of the annual statement electronic filing is March 1. The dates for submission of the quarterly statement electronic filing are as follows:

(i) the first quarter filing is due May 15;
(ii) the second quarter filing is due August 15; and
(iii) the third quarter filing is due November 15.

(b) The commissioner may exempt health service corporations operating only in Montana from these filing requirements.

(c) The health service corporation shall pay all fees and costs associated with preparing the annual statement and other filings and submitting them to the national association of insurance commissioners.

(4) The commissioner may, after notice and hearing, suspend or revoke a health service corporation's license or impose a fine not to exceed $100 a day and not to exceed $1,000 upon a health service corporation that fails to file an annual statement as required by this part.

33-30-108. License required. (1) A person may not act as a health service corporation and a health service corporation may not conduct business in this state except as authorized by a license issued by the commissioner.

(2) The commissioner may issue a license after the person has complied with the applicable provisions of this title and has submitted an application on a form prescribed by the commissioner.

(3) A health service corporation is entitled to a continuation of its license upon payment of the annual continuation fee specified in 33-30-204 on or before March 1 of each year and upon continued compliance with the provisions of this title.

(4) The commissioner may revoke or suspend any license issued under this section for violations of this title.

History: En. Sec. 10, Ch. 558, L. 1987; amd. Sec. 69, Ch. 379, L. 1995; amd. Sec. 65, Ch. 227, L. 2001.

Part 2
Finance

33-30-201. Reserves — requirements suspended. (1) The corporation shall maintain at all times unobligated funds adequate to:

(a) provide the hospital, medical-surgical, and other health services made available to its members and beneficiaries; and

(b) meet all costs and expenses.

(2) In addition, reserves of a health service corporation in cash, certificates of deposit, obligations issued or guaranteed by the government of the United States, or other assets approved by the commissioner must be maintained in an amount not less than:

(a) $500,000 or, if licensed under this chapter after October 1, 1999, $750,000; or

(b) an amount equal to 1 month's average income from dues or fees paid to the corporation by its members or beneficiaries, based on an average of the preceding 12 months, whichever is less.

(3) The determination of minimum reserves is subject, as to amounts payable to participating providers of the health services, to any right of the corporation to prorate the amounts under the terms of its health service contracts with providers.

(4) The commissioner may decrease or suspend the requirements of this section if the commissioner finds that the action is in the best interest of the members of the corporation.

History: En. 40-5905 by Sec. 5, Ch. 319, L. 1975; R.C.M. 1947, 40-5905; amd. Sec. 55, Ch. 472, L. 1999.

33-30-202. Annual report by certified public accountant. (1) All corporations subject to the provisions of this chapter shall file annually with the commissioner, on or before June 1, a financial statement audited by a certified public accountant pursuant to rules promulgated by the commissioner.

(2) (a) The commissioner may establish rules governing the content and preparation of the report required by subsection (1).

(b) The report must include:

(i) the corporation's financial statements for the most recent calendar year;

(ii) an opinion by the certified public accountant concerning the accuracy and fairness of the corporation's representation of its financial statements; and

(iii) other information that the commissioner specifies by rule.

33-30-305. Prohibited trade practices. In order to regulate trade practices of health service corporations the following practices are prohibited:

(1) No person may make, issue, circulate, or cause to be made, issued, or circulated any estimate, circular, or statement misrepresenting:

(a) the terms of any health service corporation membership contract issued or to be issued; or

(b) the benefits or advantages promised thereby.

(2) No person may make any misleading representation or any misrepresentation as to the financial condition of any health service corporation.

(3) No person may make, publish, disseminate, circulate, or place before the public or cause, directly or indirectly, to be made, published, disseminated, circulated, or placed before the public in a newspaper, magazine, or other publication or in the form of a notice, circular, pamphlet, letter, or poster or over any radio or television station or in any other way an advertisement, announcement, or statement containing any assertion, representation, or statement with respect to the business of a health service corporation which is untrue, deceptive, or misleading.

(4) No person may make or issue or cause to be made or issued any written or oral statement misrepresenting or making incomplete comparisons as to the terms, conditions, or benefits contained in any health service corporation membership contract for the purpose of inducing or attempting or tending to induce a member to cancel or convert any membership contract.

(5) No person may file with any public official or make, publish, disseminate, circulate, or deliver to any person or place before the public or cause directly or indirectly to be made, published, disseminated, circulated, delivered to any person, or placed before the public any false statement of financial condition of a health service corporation with intent to deceive.

(6) No person may make any false entry in any book, report, or statement of any health service corporation with intent to deceive any agent or examiner lawfully appointed to examine into its condition or into any of its affairs or any public official to whom that health service corporation is required by law to report or who has authority by law to examine into its condition or into any of its affairs or, with like intent, willfully omit to make a true entry of any material fact pertaining to the business of that health service corporation in any book, report, or statement of the health service corporation.

(7) No person may make, publish, disseminate, or circulate, directly or indirectly, or aid, abet, or encourage the making, publishing, disseminating, or circulating of any oral or written statement or any pamphlet, circular, article, or literature which is false or maliciously critical of or derogatory to the financial condition of a health service corporation or of an organization proposing to become a health service corporation and which is calculated to injure any person engaged or proposing to engage in the business of operating a health service corporation.

(8) No person may enter into agreement to commit or by any concerted action commit any act of boycott, coercion, or intimidation resulting in or tending to result in unreasonable restraint of the operation of health service corporations.

33-30-306. Discrimination between individuals — restrictions — ratesetting by commissioner prohibited. (1) No person may knowingly make or permit any unreasonable discrimination between individuals in any classification which may be established by a health service corporation and of essentially the same condition of health in the amount of dues or rates charged for any membership contract or in the benefits payable thereunder or in any of the terms and conditions of such contract or in any manner whatever.

(2) Nothing herein contained shall, however, restrict the right of a health service corporation within the discretion of its board of directors to limit or define the classes of persons who shall be eligible to become members, to limit and to define the benefits which it will furnish, and define such benefits as it undertakes to furnish into classes or kinds. A health service corporation may make available to its members health services, or reimbursement therefor, as the board of directors of that corporation may approve.

(3) Nothing contained in subsection (1) includes within the definition of discrimination any of the following practices:

(a) readjustment of the rate of payment for membership in a health service corporation under a group contract based on the loss or expense experience thereunder at the end of the first or any subsequent contract year thereunder which may be made retroactive only for that contract year;

(b) in the case of membership contracts issued on the preauthorized bank draft or similar plans, making allowance to members in an amount which fairly represents the saving in collection expense;

(c) reduction of the rate of payment for group contracts covering a large number of members, but not exceeding savings in administrative expenses reasonably attributable to these contracts as compared with contracts offering similar benefits to smaller numbers of members;

(d) issuing individual membership contracts on a "salary savings" or payroll deduction plan reasonably commensurate with the savings made by use of such plan.

(4) Nothing in this chapter gives the commissioner power to fix and determine a rate level by classification or otherwise.

33-30-1002. Disability coverage of services received in state institutions — coverage of persons eligible for public medical assistance. (1) From and after February 14, 1973, it shall be unlawful for any health service corporation issuing membership contracts in Montana to exclude from coverage in a membership contract services rendered the insured while a resident in a Montana state institution, provided the services to the insured would be covered by the membership contract if rendered to him outside a Montana state institution.

(2) A membership contract is considered issued in Montana if the insured purchasing the membership contract is, at the time of such purchase, residing in the state of Montana.

(3) If the exclusion prohibited by this section should appear in a membership contract issued in Montana after February 14, 1973, the provision is void and the membership contract will be considered to cover services rendered the insured in a Montana state institution if the services would have been covered if rendered to an insured outside of a Montana state institution.

(4) Payment for services rendered in a Montana state institution shall be to the same extent and at the same rates, according to the provisions of the membership contract, which would be paid for the services if rendered outside a Montana state institution.

(5) No membership contract issued by a health service corporation on or after July 1, 1979, may deny or reduce benefits to any member on the ground that the person insured is eligible for or receiving public medical assistance provided under Title 53, chapter 2.

33-30-1003. Continuation of coverage for persons with disabilities — individual contracts. (1) An individual hospital or medical service plan contract delivered or issued for delivery in this state that provides that coverage of a dependent child terminates upon attainment of the limiting age for dependent children specified in the contract must also provide in substance that attainment of the limiting age may not operate to terminate the coverage of the child while the child is and continues to be both incapable of self-sustaining employment by reason of mental retardation or physical disability and chiefly dependent upon the subscriber for support and maintenance. Proof of retardation or the disability and dependency must be furnished to the hospital or medical service plan corporation by the subscriber within 31 days of the child's attainment of the limiting age and subsequently as may be required by the corporation. Proof may not be required more frequently than annually after the 2-year period following the child's attainment of the limiting age.

(2) Notwithstanding any other exemption or contrary law, the provisions of this section have equal application to hospital or medical expense insurance policies and hospital and medical service plan contracts.

33-30-1004. Continuation of coverage for persons with disabilities — group contracts. (1) A group hospital or medical service plan contract delivered or issued for delivery in this state that provides that coverage of a dependent child of an employee or other member of the covered group terminates upon attainment of the limiting age for dependent children specified in the contract must also provide in substance that attainment of the limiting age may not operate to terminate the coverage of the child while the child is and continues to be both incapable of self-sustaining employment by reason of mental retardation or physical disability and chiefly dependent upon the employee or member for support and maintenance. Proof of the retardation or disability and dependency must be furnished to the hospital or medical service plan corporation by the employee or member within 31 days of the child's attainment of the limiting age and subsequently as may be required by the corporation. Proof may not be required more frequently than annually after the 2-year period following the child's attainment of the limiting age.

33-30-1005. Right of rescission. Each membership contract, other than a group contract, issued for delivery in this state on or after January 1, 1980, shall contain a notice stating in substance that if the person to whom the contract is issued is not satisfied for any reason, he is permitted to return the contract within 10 days of its delivery, or such longer period as the contract may provide, and to have refunded the amount of the premium paid. A contract returned pursuant to this section is void from the beginning.

33-30-1006. Continuing group coverage after termination. A person covered by a group hospital or medical service plan contract, issued or renewed by a health service corporation after October 1, 1981, may, for a period of 1 year with the consent of the employer or the trustees, continue coverage under the group contract during his employment notwithstanding any reduction of his regular work schedule to less than the minimum time required to qualify for membership in the group, and the premium charged him shall be equal to that charged the members of the group.

History: En. Sec. 5, Ch. 579, L. 1981.

33-30-1007. Conversion on termination of eligibility. (1) The group hospital or medical service plan contract issued or renewed by a health service corporation after October 1, 1981, must contain a provision that if the insurance or any portion of it on a person or a person's dependents or family members covered under the policy ceases because of termination of the person's employment or of a person's membership in the class or classes eligible for coverage under the policy as a result of an employer discontinuing the employer's business or as a result of an employer discontinuing the policy issued by the health service corporation and not providing for any other group disability insurance or plan, a person must, if the person has been insured for a period of 3 months and if the person is not insured under another major medical disability insurance policy or plan, be entitled to have issued to the person by the insurer, without evidence of insurability, an individual policy of hospital or medical service insurance on the person or the person's dependents or family members. Application for the individual policy must be made and the first premium tendered to the insurer within 31 days after the termination of group coverage.

(2) The individual policy must, at the option of the insured, be on any of the forms then customarily issued by the insurer to individual policyholders with the exception of those whose eligibility is determined by their affiliation other than by employment with a particular entity. In addition, the health service corporation shall make available a conversion policy as required by subsection (4).

(3) The premium on the individual policy may not be more than 200% of the insurer's then customary rate applicable to the coverage of the individual policy. If the person entitled to conversion under this section has been insured for more than 3 years, the premium may not be more than 150% of the customary rate. The customary rate is that rate that is normally issued for medically underwritten policies without discount for healthy lifestyles.

(4) The health service corporation shall make available an individual conversion policy that provides the level of benefits provided by its lowest cost basic health benefit plan, as defined in 33-22-1803. If the insurer is not a small employer carrier under chapter 22, part 18, the insurer shall make available an individual conversion policy that provides equivalent benefits to a basic health benefit plan. The conversion rate may not exceed 150% of the highest rate charged for that plan.

(5) The premium rate for an individual policy converted from a group plan in accordance with the provisions of subsection (3) may not be increased during the first 6 months of coverage of the individual policy.

33-30-1009. Insured's family — conversion entitlement. Subject to the conditions set forth in this section, the conversion privilege is also available:

(1) to the surviving spouse, if any, at the death of the employee or member, with respect to the spouse and such children whose coverage under the group policy terminates by reason of such death, otherwise to each surviving child whose coverage under the group policy terminates by reason of such death, or if the group policy provides for continuation of dependent's coverage following the employee's or member's death, at the end of such continuation;

(2) to the spouse of the employee or member upon termination of coverage of the spouse, by reason of ceasing to be a qualified family member under the group policy, while the employee or member remains under the group policy, including such children whose coverage under the group policy terminates at the same time; or

(3) to a child solely with respect to himself upon termination of his coverage by reason of ceasing to be a qualified family member under the group policy, if a conversion privilege is not otherwise provided above with respect to such termination.

33-30-1013. Coverage required for services provided by nurse specialists. A health service corporation shall provide, in group and individual insurance contracts, coverage for health services provided by a nurse specialist, as specifically listed in 37-8-202, if health care services that nurse specialists are licensed to perform are covered by the contract.

History: En. Sec. 2, Ch. 329, L. 1987; amd. Sec. 5, Ch. 467, L. 2005.

Compiler's Comments

2005 Amendment: Chapter 467 near middle after "37-8-202" deleted "(5)". Amendment effective July 1, 2005.

33-30-1014. Coverage for well-child care. (1) Each disability insurance plan or group disability insurance plan that is delivered, issued for delivery, renewed, extended, or modified in this state by a health service corporation and that provides coverage for a family member of the insured or subscriber must provide coverage for well-child care for children from the moment of birth through 2 years of age. Benefits provided under this coverage are exempt from any deductible provision that may be in force in the plan.

(2) Coverage for well-child care under subsection (1) must include:

(a) a history, physical examination, developmental assessment, anticipatory guidance, and laboratory tests, according to the schedule of visits adopted under the early and periodic screening, diagnosis, and treatment services program provided for in 53-6-101; and

(b) routine immunizations according to the schedule for immunizations recommended by the immunization practices advisory committee of the U.S. department of health and human services.

(3) Minimum benefits may be limited to one visit payable to one provider for all of the services provided at each visit cited in this section.

(4) This section does not apply to disability income, specified disease, medicare supplement, or hospital indemnity policies.

(5) For purposes of this section:

(a) "well-child care" means the services described in subsection (2) and delivered at the intervals required in that subsection by a physician or a health care professional supervised by a physician; and

(b) "developmental assessment" and "anticipatory guidance" mean the services described in the Guidelines for Health Supervision II, published by the American academy of pediatrics.

(6) When a disability insurance plan or group disability insurance plan issued by a health service corporation provides coverage or benefits to a resident of this state, it is considered to be delivered in this state within the meaning of this section, whether the health service corporation that issued or delivered the policy or certificate is located inside or outside of this state.

History: En. Sec. 3, Ch. 199, L. 1991.

33-30-1015. Limitation of eligibility on conversion. A person who purchases a policy of insurance under 33-30-1007 ceases to be eligible for a conversion policy if the person insured by the policy:

(1) becomes eligible for medicare part A and part B, pursuant to Title XVIII of the federal Social Security Act, 42 U.S.C. 1395;

(2) fails to pay the premium on the policy purchased under 33-30-1007;

(3) enrolls under another major medical disability insurance policy or plan, except that the person may maintain the conversion policy during any waiting period established under any new disability insurance policy or plan that the insured person purchases.

History: En. Sec. 4, Ch. 200, L. 1991.

33-30-1016. Coverage for adopted children from time of placement — preexisting conditions. (1) Each individual or group membership contract issued or amended by a health service corporation in this state that provides coverage of dependent children of a member must provide coverage for an adopted child of the member to the same extent as for natural children of the member.

(2) The coverage required by this section must be effective from the date of placement for the purpose of adoption and must continue unless the placement is disrupted prior to legal adoption and the child is removed from placement. Coverage at the time of placement must include the necessary care and treatment of medical conditions existing prior to the date of placement.

(3) As used in this section, "placement" has the meaning as defined in 33-22-130.

History: En. Sec. 2, Ch. 387, L. 1991; amd. Sec. 162, Ch. 480, L. 1997.

33-30-1017. Coverage required for services provided by naturopathic physicians. A health service corporation shall provide, in group and individual insurance contracts or certificates, coverage for health services provided by a naturopathic physician licensed pursuant to Title 37, chapter 26, if the health care services that naturopathic physicians are licensed to perform are covered by the contract or certificate.

History: En. Sec. 2, Ch. 459, L. 1999.

33-30-1018. Coverage required for services provided by physical therapist. A health service corporation shall provide, in group and individual insurance contracts or certificates, coverage for health services provided by a physical therapist licensed pursuant to Title 37, chapter 11, if the health care services that physical therapists are licensed to perform are covered by the contracts or certificates.

History: En. Sec. 2, Ch. 235, L. 2001.

33-30-1019 and 33-30-1020 reserved.

33-30-1021. Applicability. Notwithstanding any provision of Title 33 or other law to the contrary, it shall be lawful for an insurer and insured to agree to any terms in an insurance contract that provides more favorable terms for the benefit of the insured than authorized in Title 33 or other provisions of law.

History: En. Sec. 9, Ch. 579, L. 1981; MCA 1981, 33-30-1010; redes. 33-30-1021 by Code Commissioner, 1983.

Disability insurance — subrogation — notice, Title 33, ch. 22, part 16.

33-30-1101. Subrogation rights. A hospital or medical service plan contract issued by a health service corporation may contain a provision providing that, to the extent necessary for reimbursement of benefits paid to or on behalf of the insured, the health service corporation is entitled to subrogation, as provided for in 33-30-1102, against a judgment or recovery received by the insured from a third party found liable for a wrongful act or omission that caused the injury necessitating benefit payments.

History: En. Sec. 2, Ch. 365, L. 1987.

33-30-1102. Notice — shared costs of third-party action — limitation. (1) If an insured intends to institute an action for damages against a third party, the insured shall give the health service corporation reasonable notice of his intention to institute the action.

(2) The insured may request that the health service corporation pay a proportionate share of the reasonable costs of the third-party action, including attorney fees.

(3) A health service corporation may elect not to participate in the cost of the action. If such an election is made, the health service corporation waives 50% of any subrogation rights granted to it by 33-30-1101.

(4) The health service corporation's right of subrogation granted in 33-30-1101 may not be enforced until the injured insured has been fully compensated for his injuries.

33-31-102. Definitions. As used in this chapter, unless the context requires otherwise, the following definitions apply:

(1) "Affiliation period" means a period that, under the terms of the health insurance coverage offered by a health maintenance organization, must expire before the health insurance coverage becomes effective.

(2) "Basic health care services" means:

(a) consultative, diagnostic, therapeutic, and referral services by a provider;

(b) inpatient hospital and provider care;

(c) outpatient medical services;

(d) medical treatment and referral services;

(e) accident and sickness services by a provider to each newborn infant of an enrollee pursuant to 33-31-301(3)(e);

(f) care and treatment of mental illness, alcoholism, and drug addiction;

(g) diagnostic laboratory and diagnostic and therapeutic radiologic services;

(h) preventive health services, including:

(i) immunizations;

(ii) well-child care from birth;

(iii) periodic health evaluations for adults;

(iv) voluntary family planning services;

(v) infertility services; and

(vi) children's eye and ear examinations conducted to determine the need for vision and hearing correction;

(i) minimum mammography examination, as defined in 33-22-132;

(j) outpatient self-management training and education for the treatment of diabetes along with certain diabetic equipment and supplies as provided in 33-22-129; and

(k) treatment and medical foods for inborn errors of metabolism. "Medical foods" and "treatment" have the meanings provided for in 33-22-131.

(3) "Commissioner" means the commissioner of insurance of the state of Montana.

(4) "Enrollee" means a person:

(a) who enrolls in or contracts with a health maintenance organization;

(b) on whose behalf a contract is made with a health maintenance organization to receive health care services; or

(c) on whose behalf the health maintenance organization contracts to receive health care services.

(5) "Evidence of coverage" means a certificate, agreement, policy, or contract issued to an enrollee setting forth the coverage to which the enrollee is entitled.

(6) "Health care services" means:

(a) the services included in furnishing medical or dental care to a person;

(b) the services included in hospitalizing a person;

(c) the services incident to furnishing medical or dental care or hospitalization; or

(d) the services included in furnishing to a person other services for the purpose of preventing, alleviating, curing, or healing illness, injury, or physical disability.

(7) "Health care services agreement" means an agreement for health care services between a health maintenance organization and an enrollee.

(8) "Health maintenance organization" means a person who provides or arranges for basic health care services to enrollees on a prepaid basis, either directly through provider employees or through contractual or other arrangements with a provider or a group of providers. This subsection does not limit methods of provider payments made by health maintenance organizations.

(9) "Insurance producer" means an individual, partnership, or corporation appointed or authorized by a health maintenance organization to solicit applications for health care services agreements on its behalf.

(10) "Person" means:

(a) an individual;

(b) a group of individuals;

(c) an insurer, as defined in 33-1-201;

(d) a health service corporation, as defined in 33-30-101;

(e) a corporation, partnership, facility, association, or trust; or

(f) an institution of a governmental unit of any state licensed by that state to provide health care, including but not limited to a physician, hospital, hospital-related facility, or long-term care facility.

(11) "Plan" means a health maintenance organization operated by an insurer or health service corporation as an integral part of the corporation and not as a subsidiary.

(12) "Point-of-service option" means a delivery system that permits an enrollee of a health maintenance organization to receive health care services from a provider who is, under the terms of the enrollee's contract for health care services with the health maintenance organization, not on the provider panel of the health maintenance organization.

(13) "Provider" means a physician, hospital, hospital-related facility, long-term care facility, dentist, osteopath, chiropractor, optometrist, podiatrist, psychologist, licensed social worker, registered pharmacist, or advanced practice registered nurse, as specifically listed in 37-8-202, who treats any illness or injury within the scope and limitations of the provider's practice or any other person who is licensed or otherwise authorized in this state to furnish health care services.

(14) "Provider panel" means those providers with whom a health maintenance organization contracts to provide health care services to the health maintenance organization's enrollees.

(15) "Purchaser" means the individual, employer, or other entity, but not the individual certificate holder in the case of group insurance, that enters into a health care services agreement.

(16) "Uncovered expenditures" mean the costs of health care services that are covered by a health maintenance organization and for which an enrollee is liable if the health maintenance organization becomes insolvent.

33-31-111. (Temporary) Statutory construction and relationship to other laws. (1) Except as otherwise provided in this chapter, the insurance or health service corporation laws do not apply to a health maintenance organization authorized to transact business under this chapter. This provision does not apply to an insurer or health service corporation licensed and regulated pursuant to the insurance or health service corporation laws of this state except with respect to its health maintenance organization activities authorized and regulated pursuant to this chapter.

(2) Solicitation of enrollees by a health maintenance organization granted a certificate of authority or its representatives is not a violation of any law relating to solicitation or advertising by health professionals.

(3) A health maintenance organization authorized under this chapter is not practicing medicine and is exempt from Title 37, chapter 3, relating to the practice of medicine.

(4) This chapter does not exempt a health maintenance organization from the applicable certificate of need requirements under Title 50, chapter 5, parts 1 and 3.

(5) This section does not exempt a health maintenance organization from the prohibition of pecuniary interest under 33-3-308 or the material transaction disclosure requirements under 33-3-701 through 33-3-704. A health maintenance organization must be considered an insurer for the purposes of 33-3-308 and 33-3-701 through 33-3-704.

(6) This section does not exempt a health maintenance organization from:

(a) prohibitions against interference with certain communications as provided under chapter 1, part 8;

(b) the provisions of Title 33, chapter 22, part 19;

(c) the requirements of 33-22-134 and 33-22-135;

(d) network adequacy and quality assurance requirements provided under chapter 36, except as provided in 33-22-262; or

(e) the requirements of Title 33, chapter 18, part 9.

33-31-111. (Effective July 1, 2009) Statutory construction and relationship to other laws. (1) Except as otherwise provided in this chapter, the insurance or health service corporation laws do not apply to a health maintenance organization authorized to transact business under this chapter. This provision does not apply to an insurer or health service corporation licensed and regulated pursuant to the insurance or health service corporation laws of this state except with respect to its health maintenance organization activities authorized and regulated pursuant to this chapter.

(2) Solicitation of enrollees by a health maintenance organization granted a certificate of authority or its representatives is not a violation of any law relating to solicitation or advertising by health professionals.

(3) A health maintenance organization authorized under this chapter is not practicing medicine and is exempt from Title 37, chapter 3, relating to the practice of medicine.

(4) This chapter does not exempt a health maintenance organization from the applicable certificate of need requirements under Title 50, chapter 5, parts 1 and 3.

(5) This section does not exempt a health maintenance organization from the prohibition of pecuniary interest under 33-3-308 or the material transaction disclosure requirements under 33-3-701 through 33-3-704. A health maintenance organization must be considered an insurer for the purposes of 33-3-308 and 33-3-701 through 33-3-704.

(6) This section does not exempt a health maintenance organization from:

(a) prohibitions against interference with certain communications as provided under chapter 1, part 8;

(b) the provisions of Title 33, chapter 22, part 19;

(c) the requirements of 33-22-134 and 33-22-135;

(d) network adequacy and quality assurance requirements provided under chapter 36; or

(e) the requirements of Title 33, chapter 18, part 9.

(7) Title 33, chapter 1, parts 12 and 13, Title 33, chapter 2, part 19, 33-2-1114, 33-2-1211, 33-2-1212, 33-3-422, 33-3-431, 33-15-308, Title 33, chapter 19, 33-22-107, 33-22-129, 33-22-131, 33-22-136, 33-22-141, 33-22-142, 33-22-244, 33-22-246, 33-22-247, 33-22-514, 33-22-521, 33-22-523, 33-22-524, 33-22-526, and 33-22-706 apply to health maintenance organizations.

History: En. Sec. 24, Ch. 457, L. 1987; amd. Sec. 74, Ch. 379, L. 1995; amd. Sec. 10, Ch. 198, L. 1997; amd. Sec. 6, Ch. 410, L. 1997; amd. Sec. 4, Ch. 413, L. 1997; amd. 33-31-112. Filings and reports as public documents. All applications, filings, and reports required under this chapter, except those that contain trade secrets or privileged or confidential commercial or financial information (other than an annual financial statement that the commissioner may require under 33-31-211), are public documents.

History: En. Sec. 25, Ch. 457, L. 1987.

33-31-113. Confidentiality of medical information. (1) Any data or information pertaining to the diagnosis, treatment, or health of an enrollee or applicant obtained from the enrollee, applicant, or a provider by a health maintenance organization must be held in confidence and may not be disclosed to any person except:

(a) to the extent that it may be necessary to carry out the purposes of this chapter;

(b) upon the express consent of the enrollee or applicant;

(c) pursuant to statute or court order for the production of evidence or the discovery thereof; or

(d) in the event of claim or litigation between the enrollee or applicant and the health maintenance organization wherein the data or information is pertinent.

(2) A health maintenance organization is entitled to claim the same statutory privileges against disclosure that the provider who furnished the information to the health maintenance organization is entitled to claim.

History: En. Sec. 26, Ch. 457, L. 1987.

33-31-114. Coverage for adopted children from time of placement — preexisting conditions. (1) Each health maintenance contract regulated under this chapter must provide coverage for an adopted child of the enrollee to the same extent as for natural children of the enrollee.

(2) The coverage required by this section must be effective from the date of placement for the purpose of adoption and must continue unless the placement is disrupted prior to legal adoption and the child is removed from placement. Coverage at the time of placement must include the necessary care and treatment of medical conditions existing prior to the date of placement.

(3) As used in this section, "placement" has the meaning as defined in 33-22-130.

History: En. Sec. 3, Ch. 387, L. 1991; amd. Sec. 163, Ch. 480, L. 1997.

33-31-115. Applicability to managed health care entity. (1) A managed health care entity, as defined in 53-6-702, is governed by the provisions of Title 53, chapter 6, part 7.

(2) The department of public health and human services may limit the amount, scope, and duration of services provided by a managed health care entity under contract for programs established under Title 53. These services may be less than services required by this title.

History: En. Sec. 10, Ch. 502, L. 1995; amd. Sec. 2, Ch. 577, L. 1999; amd. Sec. 1, Ch. 466, L. 2001.

Part 2
Authorization of Health Maintenance Organizations

33-31-201. Establishment of health maintenance organizations. (1) Notwithstanding any law of this state to the contrary, a person may apply to the commissioner for and obtain a certificate of authority to establish and operate a health maintenance organization in compliance with this chapter. A person may not establish or operate a health maintenance organization in this state except as authorized by a subsisting certificate of authority issued to it by the commissioner. A foreign person may qualify for a certificate of authority if it first obtains from the secretary of state a certificate of authority to transact business in this state as a foreign corporation under 35-1-1028.

(2) Each health maintenance organization operating in this state as of October 1, 1987, shall submit an application for a certificate of authority under subsection (3) within 30 days after the effective date of rules adopted by the commissioner as provided in 33-31-103. Each such applicant may continue to operate in this state until the commissioner acts upon the application.

If an application is denied under 33-31-202, the applicant must be treated as a health maintenance organization whose certificate of authority has been revoked.

(3) Each application of a health maintenance organization, whether separately licensed or not, for a certificate of authority must:

(a) be verified by an officer or authorized representative of the applicant;

(b) be in a form prescribed by the commissioner;

(c) contain:

(i) the applicant's name;

(ii) the location of the applicant's home office or principal office in the United States (if a foreign person);

(iii) the date of organization or incorporation;

(iv) the form of organization (including whether the providers affiliated with the health maintenance organization will be salaried employees or group or individual contractors);

(v) the state or country of domicile; and

(vi) any additional information the commissioner may reasonably require; and

(d) set forth the following information or be accompanied by the following documents, as applicable:

(i) a copy of the applicant's organizational documents, such as its corporate charters or articles of incorporation, articles of association, partnership agreement, trust agreement, or other applicable documents, and all amendments thereto, certified by the public officer with whom the originals were filed in the state or country of domicile;

(ii) a copy of the bylaws, rules, and regulations, or similar document, if any, regulating the conduct of the applicant's internal affairs, certified by its secretary or other officer having custody thereof;

(iii) a list of the names, addresses, and official positions of the persons responsible for the conduct of the applicant's affairs, including all members of the board of directors, board of trustees, executive committee, or other governing board or committee; the principal officers in the case of a corporation; and the partners or members in the case of a partnership or association;

(iv) a copy of any contract made or to be made between:

(A) any provider and the applicant; or

(B) any person listed in subsection (3)(d)(iii) and the applicant. The applicant may file a list of providers executing a standard contract and a copy of the contract instead of copies of each executed contract.

(v) the extent to which any of the following will be included in provider contracts and the form of any provisions that:

(A) limit a provider's ability to seek reimbursement for basic health care services or health care services from an enrollee;

(B) permit or require a provider to assume a financial risk in the health maintenance organization, including any provisions for assessing the provider, adjusting capitation or fee-for-service rates, or sharing in the earnings or losses; and

(C) govern amending or terminating an agreement with a provider;

(vi) a financial statement showing the applicant's assets, liabilities, and sources of financial support. If the applicant's financial affairs are audited by independent certified public accountants, a copy of the applicant's most recent certified financial statement satisfies this requirement unless the commissioner directs that additional or more recent financial information is required for the proper administration of this chapter.

(vii) a description of the proposed method of marketing, a financial plan that includes a projection of operating results anticipated until the organization has had net income for at least 1 year, and a statement as to the sources of working capital as well as any other source of funding;

(viii) a power of attorney executed by the applicant, on a form prescribed by the commissioner, appointing the commissioner, his successors in office, and his authorized deputies as the applicant's attorney to receive service of legal process issued against it in this state;

(ix) a statement reasonably describing the geographic service area or areas to be served, by county, including:

(A) a chart showing the number of primary and specialty care providers, with locations and service areas by county;

(B) the method of handling emergency care, with the location of each emergency care facility; and

(C) the method of handling out-of-area services;

(x) a description of the way in which the health maintenance organization provides services to enrollees in each geographic service area, including the extent to which a provider under contract with the health maintenance organization provides primary care to those enrollees;

(xi) a description of the complaint procedures to be used as required under 33-31-303;

(xii) a description of the mechanism by which enrollees will be afforded an opportunity to participate in matters of policy and operation under 33-31-222;

(xiii) a summary of the way in which administrative services will be provided, including the size and qualifications of the administrative staff and the projected cost of administration in relation to premium income. If the health maintenance organization delegates management authority for a major corporate function to a person outside the organization, the health maintenance organization shall include a copy of the contract in its application for a certificate of authority. Contracts for delegated management authority must be filed with the commissioner in accordance with the filing provisions of 33-31-301(2); however, nothing in this subsection deprives the health maintenance organization of its right to confidentiality of any proprietary information, and the commissioner may not disclose that proprietary information to any other person. All contracts must include:

(A) the services to be provided;

(B) the standards of performance for the manager;

(C) the method of payment, including any provisions for the administrator to participate in the profits or losses of the plan;

(D) the duration of the contract; and

(E) any provisions for modifying, terminating, or renewing the contract.

(xiv) a summary of all financial guaranties by providers, sponsors, affiliates, or parents within a holding company system or any other guaranties that are intended to ensure the financial success of the plan, including hold harmless agreements by providers, insolvency insurance, reinsurance, or other guaranties;

(xv) a summary of benefits to be offered enrollees, including any limitations and exclusions and the renewability of all contracts to be written;

(xvi) evidence that it can meet the requirement of 33-31-216(10); and

(xvii) any other information that the commissioner may reasonably require to make the determinations required in 33-31-202.

(4) Each health maintenance organization shall file each substantial change, alteration, or amendment to the information submitted under subsection (3) with the commissioner at least 30 days prior to its effective date, including changes in articles of incorporation and bylaws, organization type, geographic service area, provider contracts, provider availability, plan administration, financial projections and guaranties, and any other change that might affect the financial solvency of the plan. The commissioner may, after notice and hearing, disapprove any proposed change, alteration, or amendment to the business plan. The commissioner may make reasonable rules exempting from the filing requirements of this subsection those items he considers unnecessary.

(5) An applicant or a health maintenance organization holding a certificate of authority shall file with the commissioner all contracts of reinsurance and any modifications thereto. An agreement between a health maintenance organization and an insurer is subject to Title 33, chapter 2, part 12. A reinsurance agreement must remain in full force and effect for at least 90 days following written notice of cancellation by either party by certified mail to the commissioner.

(6) Each health maintenance organization shall maintain, at its administrative office, and make available to the commissioner upon request executed copies of all provider contracts.

(7) The commissioner may make reasonable rules exempting an insurer or health service corporation operating a health maintenance organization as a plan from the filing requirements of this section if information requested in the application has been submitted to the commissioner under other laws and rules administered by the commissioner.

History: En. Sec. 3, Ch. 457, L. 1987; amd. Sec. 192, Ch. 368, L. 1991; amd. Sec. 3, Ch. 437, L. 1991.

33-31-202. (Temporary) Issuance of certificate of authority. (1) The commissioner shall issue or deny a certificate of authority to any person filing an application pursuant to 33-31-201 within 180 days after receipt of the application. The commissioner shall grant a certificate of authority upon payment of the application fee prescribed in 33-31-212 if the commissioner is satisfied that each of the following conditions is met:

(a) The persons responsible for the conduct of the applicant's affairs are competent and trustworthy.

(b) The health maintenance organization will effectively provide or arrange for the provision of basic health care services, except as provided in 33-22-262, on a prepaid basis, through insurance or otherwise, except to the extent of reasonable requirements for copayments. This requirement does not apply to the physical or mental health care services provided by a health maintenance organization to a person receiving medicaid services under the Montana medicaid program as established in Title 53, chapter 6.

(c) The health maintenance organization is financially responsible and can reasonably be expected to meet its obligations to enrollees and prospective enrollees. In making this determination, the commissioner may consider:

(i) the financial soundness of the arrangements for health care services and the schedule of charges used in connection with the services;

(ii) the adequacy of working capital;

(iii) any agreement with an insurer, a health service corporation, a government, or any other organization for ensuring the payment of the cost of health care services or the provision for automatic applicability of an alternative coverage in the event of discontinuance of the health maintenance organization;

(iv) any agreement with providers for the provision of health care services;

(v) any deposit of cash or securities submitted in accordance with 33-31-216; and

(vi) any additional information that the commissioner may reasonably require.

(d) The enrollees must be afforded an opportunity to participate in matters of policy and operation pursuant to 33-31-222.

(e) Nothing in the proposed method of operation, as shown by the information submitted pursuant to 33-31-201 or by independent investigation, violates any provision of this chapter or rules adopted by the commissioner.

(2) The commissioner may deny a certificate of authority only if the requirements of 33-31-404 are complied with.

(3) The commissioner shall examine each health maintenance organization applying for an initial certificate of authority to do business in this state. In lieu of making an examination under this part of any health maintenance organization domiciled in another state, the commissioner may accept an examination report on the organization prepared by the insurance department of the organization's state of domicile. (Terminates June 30, 2009—sec. 14, Ch. 325, L. 2003.)

33-31-202. (Effective July 1, 2009) Issuance of certificate of authority. (1) The commissioner shall issue or deny a certificate of authority to any person filing an application pursuant to 33-31-201 within 180 days after receipt of the application. The commissioner shall grant a certificate of authority upon payment of the application fee prescribed in 33-31-212 if the commissioner is satisfied that each of the following conditions is met:

(a) The persons responsible for the conduct of the applicant's affairs are competent and trustworthy.

(b) The health maintenance organization will effectively provide or arrange for the provision of basic health care services on a prepaid basis, through insurance or otherwise, except to the extent of reasonable requirements for copayments. This requirement does not apply to the physical or mental health care services provided by a health maintenance organization to a person receiving medicaid services under the Montana medicaid program as established in Title 53, chapter 6.

(c) The health maintenance organization is financially responsible and can reasonably be expected to meet its obligations to enrollees and prospective enrollees. In making this determination, the commissioner may consider:

(i) the financial soundness of the arrangements for health care services and the schedule of charges used in connection with the services;

(ii) the adequacy of working capital;

(iii) any agreement with an insurer, a health service corporation, a government, or any other organization for ensuring the payment of the cost of health care services or the provision for automatic applicability of an alternative coverage in the event of discontinuance of the health maintenance organization;

(iv) any agreement with providers for the provision of health care services;

(v) any deposit of cash or securities submitted in accordance with 33-31-216; and

(vi) any additional information that the commissioner may reasonably require.

(d) The enrollees must be afforded an opportunity to participate in matters of policy and operation pursuant to 33-31-222.

(e) Nothing in the proposed method of operation, as shown by the information submitted pursuant to 33-31-201 or by independent investigation, violates any provision of this chapter or rules adopted by the commissioner.

(2) The commissioner may deny a certificate of authority only if the requirements of 33-31-404 are complied with.

(3) The commissioner shall examine each health maintenance organization applying for an initial certificate of authority to do business in this state. In lieu of making an examination under this part of any health maintenance organization domiciled in another state, the commissioner may accept an examination report on the organization prepared by the insurance department of the organization's state of domicile.

History: En. Sec. 4, Ch. 457, L. 1987; amd. Sec. 4, Ch. 437, L. 1991; amd. Sec. 2, Ch. 590, L. 1995; amd. Sec. 57, Ch. 472, L. 1999; amd. Sec. 3, Ch. 577, L. 1999; amd. Sec. 8, Ch. 325, L. 2003.

33-31-203. Powers of insurers and health service corporations. (1) An insurer authorized to transact insurance in this state or a health service corporation authorized to do business in this state may, either directly or through a subsidiary or affiliate, organize and operate a health maintenance organization under the provisions of this chapter. Notwithstanding any other law which may be inconsistent with this section, two or more insurers, health service corporations, or subsidiaries or affiliates thereof may jointly organize and operate a health maintenance organization. The business of insurance is considered to include the provision of health care services by a health maintenance organization owned or operated by an insurer or a subsidiary thereof.

(2) Notwithstanding any insurance or health service corporation laws, an insurer or a health service corporation may contract with a health maintenance organization to provide insurance or similar protection against the cost of care provided through a health maintenance organization and to provide coverage if the health maintenance organization fails to meet its obligations.

(3) The enrollees of a health maintenance organization constitute a permissible group under this title. The insurer or health service corporation may make benefit payments to health maintenance organizations for health care services rendered by providers under the contracts described in subsection (2).

(4) Nothing in this section exempts a health maintenance organization that provides health care services from complying with the applicable certificate of need requirements under Title 50, chapter 5, parts 1 and 3.

History: En. Sec. 16, Ch. 457, L. 1987.

33-31-204. Acquisition, control, or merger of a health maintenance organization. (1) Except as provided in 33-2-1106 and subsection (2), no person may tender for, request, or invite tenders of, or enter into an agreement to exchange securities for or acquire in the open market or otherwise, any voting security of a health maintenance organization or enter into any other agreement if, after the consummation thereof, that person would, directly or indirectly, or by conversion or by exercise of any right to acquire, be in control of the health maintenance organization.

(2) No person may enter into an agreement to merge or consolidate with or otherwise to acquire control of a health maintenance organization, unless, at the time any offer, request, or invitation is made or any agreement is entered into, or prior to the acquisition of the securities if no offer or agreement is involved, the acquiring person has filed with the commissioner and has sent to the health maintenance organization information required by 33-2-1104(2) and the commissioner has approved the offer, request, invitation, agreement, or acquisition pursuant to 33-2-1105.

History: En. Sec. 28, Ch. 457, L. 1987.

33-31-205 through 33-31-210 reserved.

33-31-211. Annual statements — revocation for failure to file — penalty for false swearing. (1) Unless it is operated by an insurer or a health service corporation as a plan, each authorized health maintenance organization shall annually on or before March 1 file with the commissioner a full and true statement of its financial condition, transactions, and affairs as of the preceding December 31. The statement must be in the general form and content required by the commissioner. The statement must be completed in accordance with the national association of insurance commissioners' annual statement instructions and the Accounting Practices and Procedures Manual of the national association of insurance commissioners. The statement must be verified by the oath of at least two principal officers of the health maintenance organization. The commissioner may waive any verification under oath. In addition, a health maintenance organization shall, unless it is operated by an insurer or a health service corporation as a plan, annually file on or before June 1 an audited financial statement. A health maintenance organization's audited financial statement must comply with rules adopted by the commissioner concerning audited financial statements.

(2) At the time of filing the annual statement required by March 1, the health maintenance organization shall pay the commissioner the fee for filing the statement as prescribed in 33-31-212. The commissioner may refuse to accept the fee for continuance of the insurer's certificate of authority, as provided in 33-31-212, may impose a penalty of $100, or may suspend or revoke the certificate of authority of a health maintenance organization that fails to file an annual statement when due. Each day that the insurer fails to file its annual statement constitutes a separate violation. The total penalty may not exceed $1,000.

(3) The commissioner may, after notice and hearing, impose a fine not to exceed $5,000 for each violation upon a director, officer, partner, member, insurance producer, or employee of a health maintenance organization who knowingly subscribes to or concurs in making or publishing an annual statement required by law that contains a material statement that is false.

(4) The commissioner may require reports considered reasonably necessary and appropriate to enable the commissioner to carry out the duties required of the commissioner under this chapter, including but not limited to a statement of operations, transactions, and affairs of a health maintenance organization operated by an insurer or a health service corporation as a plan.

33-31-212. Fees. (1) Each health maintenance organization shall pay to the commissioner the following fees:

(a) for filing an application for a certificate of authority or amendment to a certificate of authority, $300;

(b) for filing an amendment to the organization documents that requires approval, $25;

(c) for filing each annual statement, $25;

(d) for annual continuation of certificate of authority, $300.

(2) All fees, miscellaneous charges, fines, penalties, and those amounts received pursuant to 33-31-211(3) and 33-31-405 collected by the commissioner pursuant to this chapter and the rules adopted under this chapter must be deposited in the state special revenue fund to the credit of the state auditor's office.

History: En. Sec. 22, Ch. 457, L. 1987; amd. Sec. 8, Ch. 351, L. 1989; amd. Sec. 6, Ch. 628, L. 1989; amd. Sec. 5, Ch. 437, L. 1991; amd. Sec. 48, Ch. 380, L. 2003.

33-31-213 and 33-31-214 reserved.

33-31-215. Investment regulations. Except for a health maintenance organization operated as a plan by a health service corporation, a domestic health maintenance organization may invest its funds only as prescribed in chapter 12.
History: En. Sec. 12, Ch. 457, L. 1987; amd. Sec. 49, Ch. 304, L. 1999.

33-31-216. Protection against insolvency. (1) Except as provided in subsections (4) through (7), each authorized health maintenance organization shall deposit with the commissioner cash, securities, or any combination of cash or securities acceptable to the commissioner in the amount set forth in this section.

(2) The amount of the deposit for a health maintenance organization during the first year of its operation is $200,000.

(3) At the beginning of each succeeding year, unless not applicable, the health maintenance organization shall deposit with the commissioner cash, securities, or any combination of cash or securities acceptable to the commissioner, in an amount equal to 4% of its estimated annual uncovered expenditures for that year.

(4) Unless not applicable, a health maintenance organization that is in operation on October 1, 1987, shall make a deposit equal to the greater of:

(a) 1% of the preceding 12 months' uncovered expenditures; or

(b) 4% of its estimated annual uncovered expenditures for each year.

(5) The commissioner may waive any of the deposit requirements set forth in subsections (1) through (4) whenever the commissioner is satisfied that:

(a) the health maintenance organization has sufficient net worth and an adequate history of generating net income to ensure its financial viability for the next year;

(b) the health maintenance organization's performance and obligations are guaranteed by an organization with sufficient net worth and an adequate history of generating net income; or

(c) the health maintenance organization's assets or its contracts with insurers, health service corporations, governments, or other organizations are reasonably sufficient to ensure the performance of its obligations.

(6) When a health maintenance organization achieves a net worth not including land, buildings, and equipment of at least $1 million or achieves a net worth including organization-related land, buildings, and equipment of at least $5 million, the annual deposit requirement under subsection (3) does not apply. The annual deposit requirement under subsection (3) does not apply to a health maintenance organization if the total amount of the accumulated deposit is greater than the capital requirement for the formation or admittance of a disability insurer in this state. If the health maintenance organization has a guaranteeing organization that has been in operation for at least 5 years and has a net worth not including land, buildings, and equipment of at least $1 million or that has been in operation for at least 10 years and has a net worth including organization-related land, buildings, and equipment of at least $5 million, the annual deposit requirement under subsection (3) does not apply. If the guaranteeing organization is sponsoring more than one health maintenance organization, however, the net worth requirement is increased by a multiple equal to the number of those health maintenance organizations. This requirement to maintain a deposit in excess of the deposit required of a disability insurer does not apply during any time that the guaranteeing organization maintains for each health maintenance organization it sponsors a net worth at least equal to the capital and surplus requirements for a disability insurer.

(7) All income from deposits belongs to the depositing health maintenance organization and must be paid to it as it becomes available. A health maintenance organization that has made a securities deposit may withdraw the deposit or any part of it after making a substitute deposit of cash, securities, or any combination of cash or securities of equal amount and value. A health maintenance organization may not substitute securities without prior approval by the commissioner.

(8) In any year in which an annual deposit is not required of a health maintenance organization, at the health maintenance organization's request, the commissioner shall reduce the previously accumulated deposit by $100,000 for each $250,000 of net worth in excess of the amount that allows the health maintenance organization to be exempt from the annual deposit requirement. If the amount of net worth no longer supports a reduction of its required deposit, the health maintenance organization shall immediately redeposit $100,000 for each $250,000 of reduction in net worth. However, the health maintenance organization's total deposit may not be required to exceed the maximum required under this section.

(9) (a) Subject to subsection (9)(b) and unless it is operated by an insurer or a health service corporation as a plan, each health maintenance organization must have a minimum capital of at least $200,000 in addition to any deposit requirements under this section. The capital account must be in excess of any accrued liabilities and be in the form of cash, securities, or any combination of cash or securities acceptable to the commissioner.

(b) A health maintenance organization licensed under this chapter after October 1, 1999, must have a minimum capital of at least $750,000. The amount required to be deposited with the commissioner under subsection (2) must be included in the calculation of the capital needed to meet the $750,000 minimum.

(10) Each health maintenance organization shall demonstrate that if it becomes insolvent:

(a) enrollees hospitalized on the date of insolvency will be covered until discharged; and

(b) enrollees will be entitled to similar alternate insurance coverage that does not contain any medical underwriting or preexisting limitation requirements.

History: En. Sec. 13, Ch. 457, L. 1987; amd. Sec. 6, Ch. 413, L. 1997; amd. Sec. 59, Ch. 472, L. 1999.

33-31-217 through 33-31-220 reserved.

33-31-221. Powers of health maintenance organizations. (1) The powers of a health maintenance organization include but are not limited to the following:

(a) the purchase, lease, construction, renovation, operation, or maintenance of a hospital, a medical facility, or both, its ancillary equipment, and such property as may reasonably be required for its principal office or for such purposes as may be necessary in the transaction of the business of the organization;

(b) the making of loans to a medical group under contract with it in furtherance of its program or the making of loans to a corporation under its control for the purpose of acquiring or constructing a medical facility or hospital or in furtherance of a program providing health care services to enrollees;

(c) the furnishing of health care services through a provider who is under contract with or employed by the health maintenance organization;

(d) the contracting with a person for the performance on its behalf of certain functions, such as marketing, enrollment, and administration;

(e) the contracting with an insurer authorized to transact insurance in this state, or with a health service corporation authorized to do business in this state, for the provision of insurance, indemnity, or reimbursement against the cost of health care services provided by the health maintenance organization; and

(f) the offering of other health care services in addition to basic health care services.

(2) A health maintenance organization shall file notice, with adequate supporting information, with the commissioner before exercising a power granted in subsection (1)(a), (1)(b), or (1)(d). The commissioner may, after notice and hearing, within 60 days disapprove the exercise of a power under subsection (1)(a), (1)(b), or (1)(d) only if, in his opinion, it would substantially and adversely affect the financial soundness of the health maintenance organization and endanger its ability to meet its obligations. The commissioner may make reasonable rules exempting from the filing requirement of this subsection those activities having a de minimis effect. The commissioner may exempt certain contracts from the filing requirement whenever exercise of the authority granted in this section would have little or no effect on the health maintenance organization's financial condition and ability to meet obligations.

(3) Nothing in this section exempts the activities of a health maintenance organization from any applicable certificate of need requirements under Title 50, chapter 5, parts 1 and 3.

History: En. Sec. 5, Ch. 457, L. 1987.

33-31-222. Governing body. (1) The governing body of a health maintenance organization may include providers or other individuals, or both.

(2) The governing body shall establish a mechanism to give the enrollees an opportunity to participate in matters of policy and operation through the establishment of advisory panels, by the use of advisory referenda on major policy decisions, or through the use of other mechanisms.

History: En. Sec. 6, Ch. 457, L. 1987.

33-31-223. Fiduciary responsibilities. (1) Any director, officer, employee, or partner of a health maintenance organization who receives, collects, disburses, or invests funds in connection with the activities of the health maintenance organization is responsible for the funds in the manner of a fiduciary to the health maintenance organization.

(2) A health maintenance organization shall maintain in force a fidelity bond on employees and officers in an amount not less than $100,000 or such other sum as may be prescribed by the commissioner. Each bond must be written with at least a 1-year discovery period and, if written with less than a 3-year discovery period, must contain a provision that a cancellation or termination of the bond, whether by or at the request of the insured or by the underwriter, may not take effect prior to the expiration of 90 days after written notice of the cancellation or termination has been filed with the commissioner unless the commissioner approves an earlier cancellation or termination date.

History: En. Sec. 7, Ch. 457, L. 1987.

Operations

33-31-301. (Temporary) Evidence of coverage — schedule of charges for health care services. (1) Each enrollee residing in this state is entitled to an evidence of coverage. The health maintenance organization shall issue the evidence of coverage, except that if the enrollee obtains coverage through an insurance policy issued by an insurer or a contract issued by a health service corporation, whether by option or otherwise, the insurer or the health service corporation shall issue the evidence of coverage.

(2) A health maintenance organization may not issue or deliver an enrollment form, an evidence of coverage, or an amendment to an approved enrollment form or evidence of coverage to a person in this state before a copy of the enrollment form, the evidence of coverage, or the amendment to the approved enrollment form or evidence of coverage is filed with and approved by the commissioner in accordance with 33-1-501.

(3) An evidence of coverage issued or delivered to a person residing in this state may not contain a provision or statement that is untrue, misleading, or deceptive as defined in 33-31-312(1). The evidence of coverage must contain:

(a) a clear and concise statement, if a contract, or a reasonably complete summary, if a certificate, of:

(i) the health care services and the insurance or other benefits, if any, to which the enrollee is entitled;

(ii) any limitations on the services, kinds of services, or benefits to be provided, including any deductible or copayment feature;

(iii) the location at which and the manner in which information is available as to how services may be obtained;

(iv) the total amount of payment for health care services and the indemnity or service benefits, if any, that the enrollee is obligated to pay with respect to individual contracts; and

(v) a clear and understandable description of the health maintenance organization's method for resolving enrollee complaints;

(b) definitions of geographical service area, emergency care, urgent care, out-of-area services, dependent, and primary provider if these terms or terms of similar meaning are used in the evidence of coverage and have an effect on the benefits covered by the plan. The definition of geographical service area need not be stated in the text of the evidence of coverage if the definition is adequately described in an attachment that is given to each enrollee along with the evidence of coverage.

(c) clear disclosure of each provision that limits benefits or access to service in the exclusions, limitations, and exceptions sections of the evidence of coverage. The exclusions, limitations, and exceptions that must be disclosed include but are not limited to:

(i) emergency and urgent care;

(ii) restrictions on the selection of primary or referral providers;

(iii) restrictions on changing providers during the contract period;

(iv) out-of-pocket costs, including copayments and deductibles;

(v) charges for missed appointments or other administrative sanctions;

(vi) restrictions on access to care if copayments or other charges are not paid; and

(vii) any restrictions on coverage for dependents who do not reside in the service area.

(d) clear disclosure of any benefits for home health care, skilled nursing care, kidney disease treatment, diabetes, maternity benefits for dependent children, alcoholism and other drug abuse, and nervous and mental disorders;

(e) except as provided in 33-22-262, a provision requiring immediate accident and sickness coverage, from and after the moment of birth, to each newborn infant of an enrollee or the enrollee's dependents;

(f) a provision providing coverage as required in 33-22-133;

(g) except as provided in 33-22-262, a provision requiring medical treatment and referral services to appropriate ancillary services for mental illness and for the abuse of or addiction to alcohol or drugs in accordance with the limits and coverage provided in Title 33, chapter 22, part 7; however:

(i) after the primary care physician refers an enrollee for treatment of and appropriate ancillary services for mental illness, alcoholism, or drug addiction, the health maintenance organization may not limit the enrollee to a health maintenance organization provider for the treatment of and appropriate ancillary services for mental illness, alcoholism, or drug addiction;

(ii) if an enrollee chooses a provider other than the health maintenance organization provider for treatment and referral services, the enrollee's designated provider shall limit treatment and services to the scope of the referral in order to receive payment from the health maintenance organization;

(iii) the amount paid by the health maintenance organization to the enrollee's designated provider may not exceed the amount paid by the health maintenance organization to one of its providers for equivalent treatment or services;

(iv) the provisions of this subsection (3)(g) do not apply to services for mental illness provided under the Montana medicaid program as established in Title 53, chapter 6;

(h) a provision as follows:

"Conformity With State Statutes: Any provision of this evidence of coverage that on its effective date is in conflict with the statutes of the state in which the insured resides on that date is amended to conform to the minimum requirements of those statutes."

(i) a provision that the health maintenance organization shall issue, without evidence of insurability, to the enrollee, dependents, or family members continuing coverage on the enrollee, dependents, or family members:

(i) if the evidence of coverage or any portion of it on an enrollee, dependents, or family members covered under the evidence of coverage ceases because of termination of employment or termination of membership in the class or classes eligible for coverage under the policy or because the employer discontinues the business or the coverage;

(ii) if the enrollee had been enrolled in the health maintenance organization for a period of 3 months preceding the termination of group coverage; and

(iii) if the enrollee applied for continuing coverage within 31 days after the termination of group coverage. The conversion contract may not exclude, as a preexisting condition, any condition covered by the group contract from which the enrollee converts.

(j) a provision that clearly describes the amount of money an enrollee shall pay to the health maintenance organization to be covered for basic health care services.

(4) A health maintenance organization may amend an enrollment form or an evidence of coverage in a separate document if the separate document is filed with and approved by the commissioner in accordance with 33-1-501 and issued to the enrollee.

(5) (a) Except as provided in 33-22-262, a health maintenance organization shall provide the same coverage for newborn infants, required by subsection (3)(e), as it provides for enrollees, except that for newborn infants, there may be no waiting or elimination periods. A health maintenance organization may not assess a deductible or reduce benefits applicable to the coverage for newborn infants unless the deductible or reduction in benefits is consistent with the deductible or reduction in benefits applicable to all covered persons.

(b) Except as provided in 33-22-262, a health maintenance organization may not issue or amend an evidence of coverage in this state if it contains any disclaimer, waiver, or other limitation of coverage relative to the accident and sickness coverage or insurability of newborn infants of an enrollee or dependents from and after the moment of birth.

(c) If a health maintenance organization requires payment of a specific fee to provide coverage of a newborn infant beyond 31 days of the date of birth of the infant, the evidence of coverage may contain a provision that requires notification to the health maintenance organization, within 31 days after the date of birth, of the birth of an infant and payment of the required fee.

(6) The provisions of 33-1-501 govern the filing and approval of health maintenance organization forms.

(7) The commissioner may require a health maintenance organization to submit any relevant information considered necessary in determining whether to approve or disapprove a filing made pursuant to this section. (Terminates June 30, 2009—sec. 14, Ch. 325, L. 2003.)

33-31-301. (Effective July 1, 2009) Evidence of coverage — schedule of charges for health care services. (1) Each enrollee residing in this state is entitled to an evidence of coverage. The health maintenance organization shall issue the evidence of coverage, except that if the enrollee obtains coverage through an insurance policy issued by an insurer or a contract issued by a health service corporation, whether by option or otherwise, the insurer or the health service corporation shall issue the evidence of coverage.

(2) A health maintenance organization may not issue or deliver an enrollment form, an evidence of coverage, or an amendment to an approved enrollment form or evidence of coverage to a person in this state before a copy of the enrollment form, the evidence of coverage, or the amendment to the approved enrollment form or evidence of coverage is filed with and approved by the commissioner in accordance with 33-1-501.

(3) An evidence of coverage issued or delivered to a person resident in this state may not contain a provision or statement that is untrue, misleading, or deceptive as defined in 33-31-312(1). The evidence of coverage must contain:

(a) a clear and concise statement, if a contract, or a reasonably complete summary, if a certificate, of:

(i) the health care services and the insurance or other benefits, if any, to which the enrollee is entitled;

(ii) any limitations on the services, kinds of services, or benefits to be provided, including any deductible or copayment feature;

(iii) the location at which and the manner in which information is available as to how services may be obtained;

(iv) the total amount of payment for health care services and the indemnity or service benefits, if any, that the enrollee is obligated to pay with respect to individual contracts; and

(v) a clear and understandable description of the health maintenance organization's method for resolving enrollee complaints;

(b) definitions of geographical service area, emergency care, urgent care, out-of-area services, dependent, and primary provider if these terms or terms of similar meaning are used in the evidence of coverage and have an effect on the benefits covered by the plan. The definition of geographical service area need not be stated in the text of the evidence of coverage if the definition is adequately described in an attachment that is given to each enrollee along with the evidence of coverage.

(c) clear disclosure of each provision that limits benefits or access to service in the exclusions, limitations, and exceptions sections of the evidence of coverage. The exclusions, limitations, and exceptions that must be disclosed include but are not limited to:

(i) emergency and urgent care;

(ii) restrictions on the selection of primary or referral providers;

(iii) restrictions on changing providers during the contract period;

(iv) out-of-pocket costs, including copayments and deductibles;

(v) charges for missed appointments or other administrative sanctions;

(vi) restrictions on access to care if copayments or other charges are not paid; and

(vii) any restrictions on coverage for dependents who do not reside in the service area.

(d) clear disclosure of any benefits for home health care, skilled nursing care, kidney disease treatment, diabetes, maternity benefits for dependent children, alcoholism and other drug abuse, and nervous and mental disorders;

(e) a provision requiring immediate accident and sickness coverage, from and after the moment of birth, to each newborn infant of an enrollee or the enrollee's dependents;

(f) a provision providing coverage as required in 33-22-133;

(g) a provision requiring medical treatment and referral services to appropriate ancillary services for mental illness and for the abuse of or addiction to alcohol or drugs in accordance with the limits and coverage provided in Title 33, chapter 22, part 7; however:

(i) after the primary care physician refers an enrollee for treatment of and appropriate ancillary services for mental illness, alcoholism, or drug addiction, the health maintenance organization may not limit the enrollee to a health maintenance organization provider for the treatment of and appropriate ancillary services for mental illness, alcoholism, or drug addiction;

(ii) if an enrollee chooses a provider other than the health maintenance organization provider for treatment and referral services, the enrollee's designated provider shall limit treatment and services to the scope of the referral in order to receive payment from the health maintenance organization;

(iii) the amount paid by the health maintenance organization to the enrollee's designated provider may not exceed the amount paid by the health maintenance organization to one of its providers for equivalent treatment or services;

(iv) the provisions of this subsection (3)(g) do not apply to services for mental illness provided under the Montana medicaid program as established in Title 53, chapter 6;

(h) a provision as follows:

"Conformity With State Statutes: Any provision of this evidence of coverage that on its effective date is in conflict with the statutes of the state in which the insured resides on that date is amended to conform to the minimum requirements of those statutes."

(i) a provision that the health maintenance organization shall issue, without evidence of insurability, to the enrollee, dependents, or family members continuing coverage on the enrollee, dependents, or family members:

(i) if the evidence of coverage or any portion of it on an enrollee, dependents, or family members covered under the evidence of coverage ceases because of termination of employment or termination of membership in the class or classes eligible for coverage under the policy or because the employer discontinues the business or the coverage;

(ii) if the enrollee had been enrolled in the health maintenance organization for a period of 3 months preceding the termination of group coverage; and

(iii) if the enrollee applied for continuing coverage within 31 days after the termination of group coverage. The conversion contract may not exclude, as a preexisting condition, any condition covered by the group contract from which the enrollee converts.

(j) a provision that clearly describes the amount of money an enrollee shall pay to the health maintenance organization to be covered for basic health care services.

(4) A health maintenance organization may amend an enrollment form or an evidence of coverage in a separate document if the separate document is filed with and approved by the commissioner in accordance with 33-1-501 and issued to the enrollee.

(5) (a) A health maintenance organization shall provide the same coverage for newborn infants, required by subsection (3)(e), as it provides for enrollees, except that for newborn infants, there may be no waiting or elimination periods. A health maintenance organization may not assess a deductible or reduce benefits applicable to the coverage for newborn infants unless the deductible or reduction in benefits is consistent with the deductible or reduction in benefits applicable to all covered persons.

(b) A health maintenance organization may not issue or amend an evidence of coverage in this state if it contains any disclaimer, waiver, or other limitation of coverage relative to the accident and sickness coverage or insurability of newborn infants of an enrollee or dependents from and after the moment of birth.

(c) If a health maintenance organization requires payment of a specific fee to provide coverage of a newborn infant beyond 31 days of the date of birth of the infant, the evidence of coverage may contain a provision that requires notification to the health maintenance organization, within 31 days after the date of birth, of the birth of an infant and payment of the required fee.

(6) The provisions of 33-1-501 govern the filing and approval of health maintenance organization forms.

(7) The commissioner may require a health maintenance organization to submit any relevant information considered necessary in determining whether to approve or disapprove a filing made pursuant to this section.

Compiler's Comments

2005 Amendment: Chapter 409 in (2) at end and in (4) near end after "commissioner" inserted "in accordance with 33-1-501"; substituted (6) providing that the provisions of 33-1-501 govern the filing and approval of health maintenance organization forms for former (6) that read: "(6) The commissioner shall, within 60 days, approve a form if the requirements of subsections (1) through (5) are met. A health maintenance organization may not issue a form before the commissioner approves the form. If the commissioner disapproves the filing, the commissioner shall notify the filer. In the notice, the commissioner shall specify the reasons for the disapproval. The commissioner shall grant a hearing within 30 days after receipt of a written request by the filer"; and made minor changes in style. Amendment effective January 1, 2006.

Applicability: Section 4, Ch. 409, L. 2005, provided: "[This act] applies to all policies, forms, and certificates filed with the commissioner of insurance on or after [the effective date of this act]." Effective January 1, 2006.

33-31-302. Information to enrollees. Each authorized health maintenance organization shall provide to its enrollees 30 days' advance notice in writing of any material change in the operation of the health maintenance organization that will affect them directly.

History: En. Sec. 10, Ch. 457, L. 1987.

33-31-303. Complaint system. (1) (a) Each authorized health maintenance organization shall establish and maintain a complaint system to provide reasonable procedures to resolve written complaints initiated by enrollees. A health maintenance organization may not use a complaint system:

(i) before the commissioner approves it; and

(ii) unless the health maintenance organization describes it in each evidence of coverage issued or delivered to an enrollee in this state.

(b) Each time the health maintenance organization denies a claim or initiates disenrollment, cancellation, or nonrenewal, it shall notify the affected enrollee of the right to file a complaint and the procedure for filing a complaint.

(c) Each health maintenance organization shall acknowledge a complaint within 10 days of receiving it.

(d) Each health maintenance organization shall retain records of all complaints for 3 years and shall develop a summary for each year that must include:

(i) a description of the procedures of the complaint system;

(ii) the total number of complaints handled through the complaint system, a compilation of causes underlying the complaints filed, the date on which each complaint was filed, the date on which each complaint was resolved, the disposition of each complaint filed, the time it took to process each complaint, and a summary of each administrative change made because of a complaint; and

(iii) the number, amount, and disposition of malpractice claims made by enrollees of the health maintenance organization that were settled during the year by the health maintenance organization.

(e) The health maintenance organization shall annually on or before March 1 file with the commissioner the summary described in subsection (1)(d) for the preceding year.

(2) The commissioner shall hold in confidence the information provided by the health maintenance organization pursuant to subsection (1)(d)(iii).

(3) The commissioner may examine a complaint system.

33-31-304. Dual choice. An employer in this state that offers its employees the option to enroll in a health maintenance organization and an employee benefit fund in this state that offers its members the option to enroll in a health maintenance organization may not be required to pay more for health benefits provided by the health maintenance organization than it would otherwise be required to provide by any prevailing collective bargaining agreement or other contract for the provision of health benefits to its employees, if the employer or benefits fund pays to the health maintenance organization chosen by each employee or member an amount equal to the lesser of:

(1) the amount paid on behalf of its other employees or members of health benefits; or

(2) the health maintenance organization's charge for coverage approved by the commissioner pursuant to 33-31-301.

History: En. Sec. 29, Ch. 457, L. 1987.

33-31-305. Dentist participation as provider. A contract for dental care services through a health maintenance organization that is offered, delivered, or renewed under this chapter must allow a dentist to request participation as a provider on the same terms and conditions as those by which other dentists participate. This opportunity for participation must be offered for each contract or plan. Each contract or plan must provide at least one annual period during which a dentist may exercise this right.

History: En. Sec. 2, Ch. 265, L. 1989.

33-31-306. Point-of-service option. (1) (a) A health maintenance organization that has at least 10,000 enrollees shall offer a point-of-service option benefit plan to each purchaser of a health care services agreement. The purchaser may accept or reject the addition of a point-of-service option to the health care services agreement.

(b) For the purposes of subsection (1)(a), an enrollee does not include an individual receiving medicaid services under the Montana medicaid program provided for in Title 53, chapter 6, or an individual participating in an approved medicare risk contract administered by a licensed health maintenance organization.

(2) Any difference in premium charged for the point-of-service option benefit plan compared to the premium for a standard health care services agreement may not exceed the expected cost to the insurer of benefits and expenses based on sound actuarial principles.

(3) This section may not be construed to permit a health maintenance organization to offer stand-alone indemnity insurance coverage.

History: En. Sec. 2, Ch. 165, L. 1997.

33-31-307. Affiliation periods. (1) A health maintenance organization that offers health insurance coverage in connection with a group health plan and that does not impose a preexisting condition exclusion allowed by 33-22-246 or 33-22-514 with respect to any particular coverage option may impose an affiliation period for that coverage option if:

(a) the affiliation period is applied uniformly without regard to any health status-related factors; and

(b) the affiliation period does not exceed 2 months, or 3 months in the case of a late enrollee, as defined in 33-22-140.

(2) A health maintenance organization is not required to provide health care services or benefits during the affiliation period, and a premium may not be charged to the participant or beneficiary for any coverage during the affiliation period. An affiliation period begins on the enrollment date and runs concurrently with any waiting period under the plan.

(3) A health maintenance organization may use a method other than an affiliation period to address adverse selection if the method is approved by the commissioner.

(4) The definitions in 33-22-140 apply to this section.

History: En. Sec. 43, Ch. 416, L. 1997.

33-31-308 through 33-31-310 reserved.

33-31-311. Insurance producer license required — application, issuance, renewal, fees — penalty. (1) An individual, partnership, or corporation may not act as or represent to the public that the individual, partnership, or corporation is an insurance producer of a health maintenance organization unless the individual, partnership, or corporation is:

(a) licensed as a disability insurance producer by the commissioner pursuant to chapter 17, parts 1, 2, and 4 of this title or licensed as an insurance producer as provided in 33-30-311; and

(b) appointed or authorized by the health maintenance organization to solicit health care service agreements on its behalf.

(2) Application, appointment, and qualification for a health maintenance organization insurance producer license, fees applicable to and the issuance of a health maintenance organization insurance producer license, and renewal of a health maintenance organization insurance producer license must be in accordance with the provisions of chapter 17 that apply to a disability insurance producer.

(3) An individual, partnership, or corporation that holds a disability insurance producer license on October 1, 1987, need not requalify by an examination to be licensed as a health maintenance organization insurance producer.

(4) The commissioner may, in accordance with 33-1-317, 33-17-411, and chapter 17, part 10, suspend, revoke, refuse to issue or renew a health maintenance organization insurance producer license or impose a fine upon the licensee.

33-31-312. Prohibited practices. (1) A health maintenance organization, or representative thereof, may not cause or knowingly permit the use of advertising that is untrue or misleading, solicitation that is untrue or misleading, or any form of evidence of coverage that is deceptive. For purposes of this chapter:

(a) a statement or item of information is considered to be misleading, whether or not it may be literally untrue, if, in the total context in which the statement is made or the item of information is communicated, a reasonable person not possessing special knowledge regarding health care coverage may reasonably understand the statement or item of information as indicating a benefit or advantage or the absence of an exclusion, limitation, or disadvantage of possible significance to an enrollee of or person considering enrollment in a health maintenance organization if the benefit or advantage or absence of limitation, exclusion, or disadvantage does not in fact exist; and

(b) an evidence of coverage is considered to be deceptive if, when taken as a whole and with consideration given to typography, format, and language, it can cause a reasonable person not possessing special knowledge regarding health maintenance organizations to expect benefits, services, charges, or other advantages that the evidence of coverage does not provide or which the health maintenance organization issuing the evidence of coverage does not regularly make available to enrollees covered under the evidence of coverage.

(2) Title 33, chapter 18, applies to health maintenance organizations and evidences of coverage issued by a health maintenance organization, except to the extent that the commissioner determines that the nature of health maintenance organizations and evidences of coverage render the chapter clearly inappropriate.

(3) A health maintenance organization shall clearly disclose in the evidence of coverage the circumstances under which it may disenroll, cancel, or refuse to renew an enrollee. A health maintenance organization may disenroll, cancel, or refuse to renew an enrollee only if the enrollee:

(a) has failed to pay required premiums by the end of the grace period;

(b) has committed acts of physical or verbal abuse that pose a threat to providers or other enrollees of the health maintenance organization;

(c) has allowed a nonenrollee to use the health maintenance organization's certification card to obtain services or has knowingly provided fraudulent information in applying for coverage;

(d) has moved outside of the geographical service area of the health maintenance organization;

(e) has violated rules of the health maintenance organization stated in the evidence of coverage;

(f) has violated rules adopted by the commissioner for enrollment in a health maintenance organization; or

(g) is unable to establish or maintain a satisfactory physician-patient relationship with the physician responsible for the enrollee's care. Disenrollment of an enrollee for this reason must be permitted only if the health maintenance organization can demonstrate that it provided the enrollee with the opportunity to select an alternate primary care physician, made a reasonable effort to assist the enrollee in establishing a satisfactory physician-patient relationship, and informed the enrollee that he may file a grievance on this matter.

(4) A health maintenance organization may not disenroll an enrollee under subsection (3) for reasons related to the physical or mental condition of the enrollee or for any of the following reasons:

(a) failure of the enrollee to follow a prescribed course of treatment; or

(b) administrative actions, such as failure to keep an appointment.

(5) (a) A health maintenance organization that disenrolls a group certificate holder for any reason not listed in subsection (3) or provided in rules adopted by the commissioner shall make arrangements to provide similar alternate insurance coverage to enrollees. The insurance coverage must be continued until the disenrolled group certificate holder finds its own coverage or a period of 12 months elapses, whichever comes first. The premium on the individual coverage must be at the then-customary rate applicable to the individual coverage offered by the insurer, health service corporation, or health maintenance organization that provides the alternate insurance coverage.

(b) If a health maintenance organization disenrolls an enrollee covered on an individual basis for any reason not listed in subsection (3) or provided in rules adopted by the commissioner, coverage must be continued until the anniversary date of the policy or for 1 year, whichever is earlier. A health maintenance organization that disenrolls an individual enrollee for failure to pay a required premium or for fraudulent statements on the enrollment form need not provide alternate insurance coverage to that enrollee.

(6) A health maintenance organization may not refer to itself as an insurer unless licensed as an insurer or use a name deceptively similar to the name or description of an insurer authorized to transact insurance in this state.

(7) A person may not refer to itself as a health maintenance organization or HMO unless it holds a valid certificate of authority issued by the commissioner.

History: En. Sec. 14, Ch. 457, L. 1987.

33-31-313. Premium increase restriction — exception. (1) A health maintenance organization may not increase a premium for an individual's or an individual's group health care services agreement more frequently than once during a 12-month period unless failure to increase the premium more frequently than once during the 12-month period would:

(a) place the health maintenance organization in violation of the laws of this state; or

(b) cause the financial impairment of the health maintenance organization to the extent that further transaction of insurance by the health maintenance organization would injure or be hazardous to its enrollees or to the public.

(2) Subsection (1) does not apply to a premium increase necessitated by a state or federal law, by a court decision, by a state rule, or by a federal regulation.

History: En. Sec. 7, Ch. 413, L. 1997.

33-31-314 through 33-31-320 reserved.

33-31-321. Disclosure standards — health maintenance organizations. (1) In order to provide for full and fair disclosure in the sale of disability insurance, an enrollment form or evidence of coverage may not be delivered or issued for delivery in this state by a health maintenance organization unless an outline of coverage is delivered to the applicant at the time the application is made. The outline of coverage must be filed with the commissioner as required by 33-1-501.

(2) The outline of coverage must include:

(a) a general description of the principal benefits and coverages provided by the policy;

(b) a general description of the insureds financial responsibility under the policy, including, if applicable, the amount of the deductible, the amount or percentage of copayment, and the maximum annual out-of-pocket expenses to be paid by the insured;

(c) a statement of the maximum lifetime benefit available under the policy;

(d) a statement of the estimated periodic premium to be paid by the insured;

(e) a general description of the factors or case characteristics that the insurer may consider in establishing or changing the premiums and, if applicable, in determining the insurability of the applicant; and

(f) a general description of the trend of premium increases or decreases for comparable policies issued by the insurer during the preceding 5 years, if the trend data is available.

(3) The outline of coverage may include any other information that the insurer considers relevant to the applicant's selection of an appropriate health benefit plan.

(4) An insurer or producer shall provide to an individual, upon request, an outline of coverage for any health benefit product marketed to the general public. The outline of coverage provided under this subsection may exclude the statement of the estimated periodic premium to be paid by the insured.

History: En. Sec. 7, Ch. 527, L. 1995.

33-31-322. Uniform health benefit plan — health maintenance organization. Each health maintenance organization delivering or issuing for delivery in this state an enrollment form or evidence of coverage shall make available a uniform health benefit plan providing benefit value, as defined in 33-22-1803, comparable to the uniform health benefit plan required in 33-22-245(2).

History: En. Sec. 10, Ch. 527, L. 1995; amd. Sec. 31, Ch. 416, L. 1997.

Part 4
Supervision, Rehabilitation, and Liquidation

33-31-401. Examination. (1) The commissioner may examine the affairs of a health maintenance organization as often as is reasonably necessary to protect the interests of the people of this state. The commissioner shall make an examination at least once every 3 years. The commissioner shall examine a health maintenance organization operated by an insurer or health service corporation as a plan at least once every 5 years. The provisions of 33-1-408 and 33-1-409 apply to examinations under this section.

(2) Each authorized health maintenance organization and provider shall submit its relevant books and records for the examinations and in every way facilitate the examinations. For the purpose of examination, the commissioner may administer oaths to and examine the officers and insurance producers of the health maintenance organization and the principals of the providers concerning their business.

(3) (a) Upon presentation of a detailed account of the charges and expenses of examinations by the commissioner, the health maintenance organization being examined shall pay to the examiner as necessarily incurred on account of the examination the actual travel expenses, a reasonable living-expense allowance, and a per diem, all at reasonable rates customary therefor and as established or adopted by the commissioner. The commissioner may present an account periodically during the course of the examination or at the termination of the examination as the commissioner considers proper. A person may not pay and an examiner may not accept any additional emolument on account of any examination.

(b) If a health maintenance organization fails to pay the charges and expenses as referred to in subsection (3)(a), the commissioner shall pay them out of the funds of the commissioner in the same manner as other disbursements of funds. The amount paid is a lien upon all of the person's assets and property in this state and may be recovered by suit by the attorney general on behalf of the state and restored to the appropriate fund.

(4) In lieu of an examination, the commissioner may accept the report of an examination made by the commissioner of another state.

33-31-402. Suspension or revocation of certificate of authority. (1) The commissioner may in his discretion suspend or revoke any certificate of authority issued to a health maintenance organization under this chapter if he finds that any of the following conditions exist:

(a) The health maintenance organization is operating in contravention of its basic organizational document or in a manner contrary to that described in any other information submitted under 33-31-201 and provided that such operation adversely affects the health maintenance organization's ability to provide benefits and operate under the application approved by the commissioner, unless amendments to such submissions have been filed with and approved by the commissioner.

(b) The health maintenance organization issues evidences of coverage or uses a schedule of charges for health care services that do not comply with the requirements of 33-31-301.

(c) The health maintenance organization does not provide or arrange for basic health care services.

(d) The health maintenance organization is no longer financially responsible and may reasonably be expected to be unable to meet its obligations to enrollees or prospective enrollees.

(e) The health maintenance organization has failed to implement a mechanism affording the enrollees an opportunity to participate in matters of policy and operation under 33-31-222.

(f) The health maintenance organization has failed to implement the complaint system required by 33-31-303 to resolve valid complaints in a reasonable manner.

(g) The health maintenance organization, or any person on its behalf, has advertised or merchandised its services in an untrue, misrepresentative, misleading, deceptive, or unfair manner.

(h) The continued operation of the health maintenance organization would be hazardous to its enrollees.

(i) The health maintenance organization has otherwise failed to substantially comply with this chapter.

(2) The commissioner may in his discretion suspend or revoke a certificate of authority only if he complies with the requirements of 33-31-404.

(3) When the certificate of authority of a health maintenance organization is suspended, the health maintenance organization may not, during the period of such suspension, enroll any additional enrollees except newborn infants or other newly acquired dependents of existing enrollees and may not engage in any advertising or solicitation.

(4) If the commissioner revokes the certificate of authority of a health maintenance organization, the health maintenance organization shall proceed, immediately following the effective date of the order of revocation, to wind up its affairs and may not transact further business except as may be essential to the orderly conclusion of its affairs. It may not engage in further advertising or solicitation following the effective date of the order of revocation. The commissioner may by written order permit further operation of the health maintenance organization if he finds further operation to be in the best interest of enrollees to the extent that enrollees will be afforded the greatest practical opportunity to obtain continuing health care coverage.

History: En. Sec. 18, Ch. 457, L. 1987; amd. Sec. 7, Ch. 437, L. 1991.

33-31-403. Supervision, rehabilitation, or liquidation of a health maintenance organization. (1) The supervision, rehabilitation, or liquidation of a health maintenance organization is considered to be the supervision, rehabilitation, or liquidation of an insurer and must be conducted under the supervision of the commissioner pursuant to chapter 2, part 13. The commissioner may apply for an order directing him to supervise, rehabilitate, or liquidate a health maintenance organization upon any one or more grounds set out in 33-2-1321, 33-2-1331, or 33-2-1341 or when in his opinion the continued operation of the health maintenance organization would be hazardous either to the enrollees or to the people of this state. Enrollees shall have the same priority in the event of liquidation or rehabilitation as the law provides to policyholders of an insurer.

(2) A claim by a health care provider for an uncovered expenditure has the same priority as a claim by an enrollee if the provider of services agrees not to assert the claim against any enrollee of the health maintenance organization.

History: En. Sec. 19, Ch. 457, L. 1987.

33-31-404. Administrative procedures. (1) When the commissioner has cause to believe that grounds for the denial of an application for a certificate of authority exist or that grounds for the suspension or revocation of a certificate of authority exist, he shall give written notice to the health maintenance organization specifically stating the grounds for denial, suspension, or revocation and fixing a time of at least 30 days after the notice for a hearing on the matter.

(2) After the hearing, or upon the failure of the health maintenance organization to appear at the hearing, the commissioner shall make written findings and act as he considers advisable. The commissioner shall mail the written findings to the health maintenance organization. The action of the commissioner is subject to review by the district court having jurisdiction. The court may, in disposing of the issue before it, modify, affirm, or reverse the order of the commissioner in whole or in part.

(3) Where notice and hearing are required with regard to actions taken by the commissioner under this chapter, the requirements of 33-1-314 through 33-1-316 and Title 33, chapter 1, part 7, apply, except that the formal rules of pleading and evidence must be observed. To the extent that 33-1-314 through 33-1-316 and Title 33, chapter 1, part 7, do not address the notice and hearing requirements of this chapter, the provisions of Title 2, chapter 4, parts 6 and 7, apply.

History: En. Sec. 21, Ch. 457, L. 1987; amd. Sec. 8, Ch. 437, L. 1991.

33-31-405. Penalties and enforcement. (1) The commissioner may, in addition to suspension or revocation of a certificate of authority under 33-31-402, after notice and hearing, impose an administrative penalty in an amount not less than $500 or more than $10,000 if he gives reasonable notice in writing of the intent to levy the penalty and the health maintenance organization has a reasonable time within which to remedy the defect in its operations that gave rise to the penalty citation.

(2) If the commissioner has cause to believe that a violation of this chapter has occurred or is threatened, the commissioner may:

(a) give notice to the health maintenance organization and to the representatives or other persons who appear to be involved in the suspected violation;

(b) arrange a conference with the alleged violators or their authorized representatives to attempt to ascertain the facts relating to the suspected violation; and

(c) if it appears that a violation has occurred or is threatened, arrive at an adequate and effective means of correcting or preventing the violation.

(3) (a) The commissioner may issue an order directing a health maintenance organization or its representative to cease and desist from engaging in an act or practice in violation of this chapter.

(b) Within 15 days after service of the cease and desist order, the respondent may request a hearing to determine whether acts or practices in violation of this chapter have occurred. The hearing must be conducted pursuant to Title 2, chapter 4, part 6, and judicial review must be available as provided by Title 2, chapter 4, part 7.

(4) If a health maintenance organization violates a provision of this chapter and the commissioner elects not to issue a cease and desist order or if the respondent does not comply with a cease and desist order issued pursuant to subsection (3), the commissioner may institute a proceeding to obtain injunctive or other appropriate relief in the district court of Lewis and Clark County.

CHAPTER 32
HEALTH UTILIZATION REVIEW

Part 1 — General Provisions

33-32-101. Purpose.
33-32-102. Definitions.
33-32-103. Utilization review plan.
33-32-104. Preemption by federal law.
33-32-105. Application — exemptions.

Part 2 — Utilization Review—Conduct

33-32-201. Conduct of utilization review.
33-32-202. Commissioner not to approve or disapprove plans.
33-32-203. Appeal and assignment of claim.
33-32-204. Commissioner to adopt rules.

Part 1
General Provisions

33-32-101. Purpose. The legislature finds and declares that it is the purpose of this chapter to:

(1) promote the delivery of quality health care in a cost-effective manner;

(2) foster greater coordination between health care providers, third-party payors, and others who conduct utilization review activities;

(3) ensure access to health care services; and

(4) protect patients, employers, and health care providers by ensuring that utilization review activities result in informed decisions on the appropriateness of medical care made by those best qualified to be involved in the utilization review process.

History: En. Sec. 1, Ch. 665, L. 1991.

33-32-102. Definitions. As used in this chapter, the following definitions apply:

(1) "Commissioner" means the commissioner of insurance provided for in 2-15-1903.

(2) "Health care provider" means a person, corporation, facility, or institution licensed by the state to provide or otherwise lawfully providing health care services, including but not limited to:

(a) a physician, health care facility as defined in 50-5-101, osteopath, dentist, nurse, optometrist, chiropractor, podiatrist, physical therapist, psychologist, licensed social worker, speech pathologist, audiologist, licensed addiction counselor, or licensed professional counselor; and

(b) an officer, employee, or agent of a person described in subsection (2)(a) acting in the course and scope of employment.

(3) "Health care services" means the health care and services provided by health care providers, including drugs, medicines, ambulance services, and other therapeutic and rehabilitative services and supplies.

(4) (a) "Utilization review" means a system for review of health care services for a patient to determine the necessity or appropriateness of services, whether that review is prospective, concurrent, or retrospective, when the review will be used directly or indirectly in order to determine whether the health care services will be paid, covered, or provided.

(b) Utilization review does not include routine claim administration or determination that does not include determinations of medical necessity or appropriateness.

History: En. Sec. 2, Ch. 665, L. 1991; amd. Sec. 3, Ch. 23, L. 2001.

33-32-103. Utilization review plan. A person may not conduct a utilization review of health care services provided or to be provided to a patient covered under a contract or plan for health care services issued in this state unless that person, at all times, maintains with the commissioner a current utilization review plan that includes:

(1) a description of review criteria, standards, and procedures to be used in evaluating proposed or delivered health care services that, to the extent possible, must:

(a) be based on nationally recognized criteria, standards, and procedures;

(b) reflect community standards of care, except that a utilization review plan for health care services under the medicaid program provided for in Title 53 need not reflect community standards of care;

(c) ensure quality of care; and

(d) ensure access to needed health care services;

(2) the provisions by which patients or providers may seek reconsideration or appeal of adverse decisions by the person conducting the utilization review;

(3) the type and qualifications of the personnel either employed or under contract to perform the utilization review;

(4) policies and procedures to ensure that a representative of the person conducting the utilization review is reasonably accessible to patients and health care providers at all times;

(5) policies and procedures to ensure compliance with all applicable state and federal laws to protect the confidentiality of individual medical records;

(6) a copy of the materials designed to inform applicable patients and health care providers of the requirements of the utilization review plan; and

(7) any other information as may be required by the commissioner that is necessary to implement this chapter.

History: En. Sec. 3, Ch. 665, L. 1991; amd. Sec. 5, Ch. 561, L. 1993.

33-32-104. Preemption by federal law. If any provision of this chapter is preempted or duplicated by federal law or regulations as applied to any specific health care service, then the provision of this chapter that is preempted or duplicated by federal law or regulations does not apply to that health care service but only to the extent of the preemption or duplication.

History: En. Sec. 8, Ch. 665, L. 1991.

33-32-105. Application — exemptions. (1) The provisions of this chapter apply to a person or entity performing utilization reviews who is, or is affiliated with, under contract with, or acting on behalf of:

(a) a Montana business entity; or

(b) a third party that provides or administers health care benefits to citizens of this state, including:

(i) a health insurer, nonprofit health service plan, health service corporation, employees' health and welfare fund, or preferred provider organization authorized to offer health insurance policies or contracts;

(ii) a health maintenance organization issued a certificate of authority in accordance with Title 33, chapter 31; or

(iii) a state agency.

(2) A general in-house utilization review for a health care provider, including an in-house utilization review that is conducted by or for a long-term care facility and that is required by medicare or medicaid regulations, is exempt from the provisions of this chapter as long as the review does not directly result in the approval or denial of payment for health care services for a particular case.

(3) A peer review procedure conducted by a professional society or association of providers is exempt from the provisions of this chapter.

History: En. Sec. 9, Ch. 665, L. 1991.

Part 2
Utilization Review — Conduct

33-32-201. Conduct of utilization review. A program of utilization review with regard to health care services provided or to be provided in this state must comply with the following:

(1) The insurer, health maintenance organization, or their agents conducting the utilization review of outpatient mental health treatment may request only information that is relevant to the payment of the claim.

(2) When a utilization review requires disclosure of personal information regarding the patient or client, including personal and family history or current and past symptoms of a mental disorder, then the identity of that individual must be concealed from anyone having access to that information in order that the patient or client may remain anonymous.

(3) A determination that is made on appeal or reconsideration as provided in 33-32-203 and that is adverse to a patient or to an affected health care provider may not be made on a question relating to the necessity or appropriateness of a health care service without prior written findings, evaluation, and concurrence in the adverse determination by a health care professional trained in the relevant area of health care. Copies of the written findings, evaluation, and concurrence must be provided to the patient on request as provided in Title 33, chapter 19.

(4) A determination made on appeal or reconsideration, as provided in 33-32-203, that health care services rendered or to be rendered are medically inappropriate may not be made unless the health care professional performing the utilization review has made a reasonable attempt to consult with the patient's attending health care provider concerning the necessity or appropriateness of the health care service.

(5) The following provisions must govern the conduct of a utilization review of health care services rendered to a patient by a health care provider who is a licensed social worker, licensed professional counselor, licensed psychiatric nurse, licensed psychiatrist, or a licensed psychologist:

(a) If a review of the patient's or the health care provider's records is required by the insurer in the course of an appeal or a redetermination of an adverse determination of medical necessity or appropriateness made pursuant to an insurer's review, the review must be conducted by a person trained in the field of the provider.

(b) During an appeal or redetermination, the patient may, at the patient's expense, request an independent review of the patient's or the provider's records by a health care provider licensed in the field of the provider that rendered the health care service and may require that review to be considered by the insurer in reaching its decision. If the initial adverse determination of medical necessity or appropriateness is reversed, the insurer shall bear the expense of the independent review.

History: En. Sec. 4, Ch. 665, L. 1991; amd. Sec. 1, Ch. 378, L. 1993.

33-32-202. Commissioner not to approve or disapprove plans. Nothing in this chapter may be construed as authorizing the commissioner to approve or disapprove a utilization review plan required in 33-32-103.

History: En. Sec. 5, Ch. 665, L. 1991.

33-32-203. Appeal and assignment of claim. (1) A patient or provider affected by an adverse decision has at least 30 days in which to appeal or seek reconsideration of the adverse decision by the person conducting the utilization review.

(2) A final decision on appeal or reconsideration must be made within 60 days of receipt of all relevant medical records by the person conducting the utilization review.

History: En. Sec. 6, Ch. 665, L. 1991.

33-32-204. Commissioner to adopt rules. The commissioner may adopt rules for the implementation of this chapter, including but not limited to rules providing for:

(1) information to be included in the utilization review plan required in 33-32-103;

(2) utilization review criteria, standards, and procedures; and

(3) the protection of the confidentiality of medical records used in the course of utilization reviews.

History: En. Sec. 7, Ch. 665, L. 1991.

PROPERTY AND CASUALTY UTILIZATION REVIEW

Part 1 — General Provisions

33-33-101. Purpose.
33-33-102. Scope — rulemaking.
33-33-103. Definitions.

Part 2 — Standards

33-33-201. Standards for utilization review organizations.
33-33-202. Standards for property and casualty insurers.

Part 1
General Provisions

33-33-101. Purpose. The legislature recognizes that property and casualty insurers providing coverage for medical expenses or liability coverage for bodily injury may need, with respect to some claims, to seek medical reviews from qualified utilization review organizations so that an insurer may use the reviews to determine its contractual obligations. This chapter establishes standards for organizations providing utilization reviews and for property and casualty insurers seeking reviews.

History: En. Sec. 1, Ch. 335, L. 2001.

33-33-102. Scope — rulemaking. (1) This chapter applies to property and casualty insurers seeking utilization review opinions and to utilization review organizations that provide opinions with respect to property and casualty insurance contracts issued in this state.

(2) The commissioner may adopt rules to implement the provisions of this chapter, including but not limited to registration procedures and medical privacy requirements.

History: En. Sec. 2, Ch. 335, L. 2001.

33-33-103. Definitions. As used in this chapter, the following definitions apply:

(1) "Utilization review" means the same as provided in 33-32-102(4).

(2) "Utilization review organization" means an entity that provides utilization review services.

History: En. Sec. 3, Ch. 335, L. 2001.

Part 2
Standards

33-33-201. Standards for utilization review organizations. (1) A utilization review organization that conducts utilization reviews in this state for property and casualty insurers shall register with the commissioner prior to performing utilization reviews. The commissioner shall place a utilization review organization on the register when the utilization review organization provides information that establishes that the utilization review organization meets the standards set forth in this section. The commissioner shall remove from the register a utilization review organization that fails to meet the standards set forth in this section.

(2) Utilization review organizations may use only licensed or certified health care professionals to conduct utilization reviews.

(3) Utilization reviews must be conducted by health care professionals who are licensed or certified in the same specialty as the provider whose treatment is being received by the insured or by a health care professional who is qualified to render the treatment being reviewed.

(4) Utilization review organizations shall comply with all applicable state or federal medical privacy laws.

(5) Utilization review evaluations must use generally accepted standards for treatment of the illness, injury, or condition that is being reviewed.

(6) Utilization review opinions must be signed by the health care professional performing the review.

(7) A utilization review organization may not base its fees or charges on any recommendation for a reduction in payment under an insurance contract or on a percentage of claim savings.

History: En. Sec. 4, Ch. 335, L. 2001.

33-33-202. Standards for property and casualty insurers. (1) Property or casualty insurers seeking utilization reviews with respect to insurance contracts issued in this state may use only utilization review organizations that are registered under 33-33-201.

(2) A property or casualty insurer that denies, in whole or in part, a policyholder's claim after consideration of a utilization review shall provide the policyholder an opportunity to request reconsideration by the insurer and the opportunity to submit additional information relating to the claim.

History: En. Sec. 5, Ch. 335, L. 2001.

Guaranteed renewability in multiple employer welfare arrangements, 33-22-525.

Part 1
General Provisions

33-35-101. Short title. This chapter may be cited as the "Self-Funded Multiple Employer Welfare Arrangement Regulation Act".

History: En. Sec. 1, Ch. 420, L. 1995.

33-35-102. Purpose. The purposes of this chapter are to:

(1) provide for the authorization and registration of self-funded multiple employer welfare arrangements;

(2) regulate self-funded multiple employer welfare arrangements in order to ensure the financial integrity of the arrangements;

(3) provide reporting requirements for self-funded multiple employer welfare arrangements; and

(4) provide for sanctions against self-funded multiple employer welfare arrangements organized and maintained in Montana that do not comply with this chapter.

History: En. Sec. 2, Ch. 420, L. 1995.

33-35-103. Definitions. As used in this chapter, unless a contrary intent appears, the following definitions apply:

(1) "Allowable benefit" means a benefit relating to medical, surgical, or hospital care in the event of sickness, accident, disability, or any combination of sickness, accident, or disability.

(2) (a) "Bona fide association" means an association of employers that has been in existence for a period of not less than 5 years prior to sponsoring a self-funded multiple employer welfare arrangement, during which time the association has engaged in substantial activities relating to the common interests of member employers, and that continues to engage in substantial activities in addition to sponsoring an arrangement.

(b) Notwithstanding subsection (2)(a), an association that was formed and began sponsoring an arrangement prior to October 1, 1995, is not subject to the requirement that the association be in existence for 5 years prior to sponsoring an arrangement.

(3) "Claims liability" means the total of all incurred and unpaid claims for allowable benefits under a self-funded multiple employer welfare arrangement that are not reimbursed or reimbursable by excess of loss insurance, subrogation, or other sources.

(4) "Multiple employer welfare arrangement" means a multiple employer welfare arrangement as defined by 29 U.S.C. 1002. The term does not include an arrangement, plan, program, or interlocal agreement of or between political subdivisions of this state, including school districts, as provided in 33-1-102.

(5) "Reserves" means the excess of the assets of a self-funded multiple employer welfare arrangement minus the liabilities of the arrangement. The liabilities of a self-funded multiple employer welfare arrangement include the claims liability of the arrangement.

(6) "Self-funded multiple employer welfare arrangement" or "arrangement" means a multiple employer welfare arrangement that does not provide for payment of benefits under the arrangement solely through a policy or policies of insurance issued by one or more insurance companies licensed under this title.

History: En. Sec. 3, Ch. 420, L. 1995.

Part 2
Certificate of Authority

33-35-201. Certificate of authority. (1) Except as provided in subsection (3), a person may not establish or maintain a self-funded multiple employer welfare arrangement in Montana unless the arrangement first obtains a certificate of authority from the commissioner.

(2) A self-funded multiple employer welfare arrangement is considered to be established or maintained in Montana if one or more of the employer members participating in the arrangement is either domiciled in or maintains its principal place of business in Montana.

(3) A self-funded multiple employer welfare arrangement established and maintained in Montana prior to January 1, 1995, has until April 1, 1996, to file an application for a certificate of authority. An arrangement that files an application for a certificate of authority by that date is considered to have been issued a certificate of authority unless the commissioner finally denies the arrangement's application for a certificate of authority.

History: En. Sec. 4, Ch. 420, L. 1995.

33-35-202. Eligibility for certificate of authority. The commissioner may not issue a certificate of authority to a self-funded multiple employer welfare arrangement unless the arrangement establishes to the reasonable satisfaction of the commissioner that the following requirements have been satisfied by the arrangement:

(1) the employers participating in the self-funded multiple employer welfare arrangement are either engaged in the same trade, profession, or industry or the employers participating in the arrangement are members of a bona fide association;

(2) the employers participating in the arrangement exercise control over the arrangement, as follows:

(a) Subject to subsection (2)(b), control exists if the employers participating in the arrangement have the right to elect at least 75% of the individuals designated in the arrangement's organizational documents as having control over the operations of the arrangement and the individuals designated in the arrangement's organizational documents in fact exercise control over the operation of the arrangement.

(b) The use of a third-party administrator to process claims and to assist in the administration of the arrangement is not evidence of the lack of exercise of control over the operation of the arrangement.

(3) the arrangement provides only allowable benefits. However, an arrangement may provide life insurance coverage to its participants if the coverage is provided pursuant to contracts of insurance that comply with Title 33, chapter 20, parts 10 through 12.

(4) the arrangement provides allowable benefits to not less than 2 employers and not less than 75 employees;

(5) the arrangement may not solicit participation in the arrangement from the general public. However, the arrangement may employ or independently contract with a licensed insurance producer who may be paid a commission or other remuneration to enroll employers in the arrangement, and employees of the arrangement, employees of the association sponsoring the arrangement, or employees of affiliates of the association, other than licensed insurance producers, may enroll employers in the arrangement if the employees do not receive a commission or other remuneration in addition to their customary compensation for enrolling employers.

(6) the arrangement is not organized or maintained solely as a conduit for the collection of premiums and the forwarding of premiums to an insurance company. However, it is permissible for a self-funded multiple employer welfare arrangement to act as a conduit for the collection and forwarding of premiums for life insurance coverage pursuant to subsection (3).

History: En. Sec. 5, Ch. 420, L. 1995.

33-35-203. Requirements applicable only to arrangements organized after October 1, 1995. (1) In addition to the requirements of 33-35-202, self-funded multiple employer welfare arrangements formed after October 1, 1995, are subject to the following requirements:

(a) arrangements shall maintain a calendar year for operations and reporting purposes unless the commissioner consents to a fiscal year;

(b) arrangements shall satisfy one of the following requirements:

(i) (A) the arrangement shall deposit $200,000 with the commissioner pursuant to Title 33, chapter 2, part 6, to be used for the payment of claims in the event that the arrangement becomes insolvent; and

(B) the arrangement shall submit to the commissioner a written plan of operation that, in the reasonable discretion of the commissioner, ensures the financial integrity of the arrangement; or

(ii) the arrangement demonstrates to the reasonable satisfaction of the commissioner the ability of the arrangement to remain financially solvent, for which purpose the commissioner may consider:

(A) the pro forma financial statements of the self-funded multiple employer welfare arrangement;

(B) the types and levels of excess of loss insurance coverage, including the attachment points of the coverage and whether the points are reflected as annual or monthly levels;

(C) whether a deposit is required for each employee covered under the arrangement equal to at least one month's cost of providing benefits under the arrangement;

(D) the experience of the individuals who will be involved in the management of the arrangement, including employees, independent contractors, and consultants; and

(E) other factors as reasonably determined by the commissioner to be relevant to a determination of whether the arrangement is able to operate in a financially solvent manner.

(2) Financial information relating to the employers is subject to the confidentiality provisions of 33-1-409(6).

(3) The commissioner may require that the articles, bylaws, agreements, trusts, or other documents or instruments describing the rights and obligations of the employers, employees, and beneficiaries of the arrangement provide that employers participating in the arrangement are subject to pro rata assessment for all liabilities of the arrangement.

(4) Arrangements shall maintain excess of loss insurance coverage covering 100% of claims in excess of the designated attachment point. The commissioner may waive the requirement of excess of loss insurance coverage.

(5) An arrangement shall submit its base contribution rates for participation under the arrangement for its initial year of operations for review and approval by the commissioner.

(6) The commissioner may require continued compliance with respect to the conditions set forth in this section as a condition of granting a certificate of authority to an arrangement. The commissioner may waive continued compliance with respect to the conditions in this section at any time after the commissioner has granted a certificate of authority to an arrangement.

History: En. Sec. 6, Ch. 420, L. 1995.

33-35-204 reserved.

33-35-205. Application for certificate of authority. A self-funded multiple employer welfare arrangement shall apply for a certificate of authority on a form prescribed by the commissioner and shall submit the application, together with the following documents, to the commissioner:

(1) a copy of all articles, bylaws, agreements, trusts, or other documents or instruments describing the rights and obligations of the employers, employees, and beneficiaries of the arrangement;

(2) a copy of the summary plan description or summary plan descriptions of the arrangement filed or required to be filed with the United States department of labor, together with any amendments to the description;

(3) evidence of coverage of or letters of intent to participate executed by at least 2 employers providing allowable benefits to at least 75 employees;

(4) a copy of the arrangement's most recent year's financial statements or, if the arrangement has been in existence for less than 1 year, pro forma financial statements that must include, at a minimum, a balance sheet, an income statement, a statement of changes in financial position, and an actuarial opinion that the unpaid claim liability of the arrangement satisfies the standards of 33-2-514. The commissioner may, in the commissioner's discretion, waive the requirement of an actuarial opinion and require a report by an actuarial firm.

(5) proof that the arrangement maintains or will maintain fidelity bonds required by the United States department of labor pursuant to the Employee Retirement Income Security Act of 1974, 29 U.S.C. 1001, et seq.;

(6) a copy of any excess of loss insurance coverage policies maintained or proposed to be maintained by the arrangement;

(7) biographical reports on forms prescribed by the national association of insurance commissioners evidencing the general trustworthiness and competence of each individual who is serving or who will serve as an employee or fiduciary of the arrangement; and

(8) a statement executed by a representative of the arrangement certifying, to the best knowledge and belief of the representative, that:

(a) the arrangement is in compliance with requirements of 33-35-202;

(b) the arrangement is in compliance with the requirements of the Employee Retirement Income Security Act of 1974, 29 U.S.C. 1001, et seq., or a statement of any requirements with which the arrangement is not in compliance and a statement of proposed corrective actions; and

(c) the arrangement is in compliance with requirements of 33-35-209 and 33-35-210.

History: En. Sec. 7, Ch. 420, L. 1995.

33-35-206 through 33-35-208 reserved.

33-35-209. Minimum reserve requirements. Self-funded multiple employer welfare arrangements shall establish by the end of the first year of operations of the arrangement and shall maintain as of the end of each year of operations reserves equal to at least 30% of the unpaid claims liability of the arrangement. The commissioner may adopt rules regarding the supervision, rehabilitation, and liquidation of self-funded multiple employer welfare arrangements that fail to maintain the level of reserves required by this section.

History: En. Sec. 8, Ch. 420, L. 1995.

33-35-210. Minimum funding levels. A self-funded multiple employer welfare arrangement shall establish and maintain contribution rates for participation under the arrangement that satisfy either of the following requirements:

(1) contribution rates must equal or exceed the sum of projected claims liability for the year, plus all projected costs of operation of the arrangement for the year, plus an amount equal to any deficiency in the reserves of the arrangement for the prior year, minus an amount equal to the reserves of the arrangement in excess of the minimum required level of reserves; or

(2) contribution rates must equal or exceed a funding level established by a report prepared by an actuarial firm.

History: En. Sec. 9, Ch. 420, L. 1995.

33-35-211. Issuance of certificate of authority. (1) The commissioner shall grant or deny an application for a certificate of authority within 180 days of the date that a completed application, together with the items designated in 33-35-205, is submitted to the commissioner.

(2) The commissioner shall grant the application of an arrangement that satisfies the applicable requirements of 33-35-202, 33-35-203, 33-35-205, 33-35-209, and 33-35-210.

(3) The commissioner shall deny the application of an arrangement that does not satisfy the applicable requirements of 33-35-202, 33-35-203, 33-35-205, 33-35-209, and 33-35-210. Denial of an application for a certificate of authority is considered a contested case under the Montana Administrative Procedure Act.

(4) A certificate of authority granted to an arrangement is effective unless revoked by the commissioner under 33-35-302.

History: En. Sec. 10, Ch. 420, L. 1995.

Part 3
Enforcement

33-35-301. Reporting. (1) A self-funded multiple employer welfare arrangement shall comply with the reporting requirements of this section.

(2) Within 3 months following the close of the arrangement's year of operations, the arrangement shall file with the commissioner, on forms prescribed by the commissioner:

(a) a statement of financial condition;

(b) a statement of change in financial conditions accompanied by an actuarial opinion that the unpaid claim liability of the arrangement satisfies the standards of 33-2-514. The commissioner may, in the commissioner's discretion, waive the requirement of an actuarial opinion and require a report prepared by an actuarial firm and, upon a showing of good cause, may extend by 30 days the filing date for the report.

(c) a statement of its contribution rates for the ensuing year;

(d) a statement of operations for the previous year;

(e) if the total payments to the arrangement for participation during the prior year of operations exceeded the sum of $2 million, an audit satisfying the requirements of the commissioner's rules governing annual audited reports, certified by an independent certified public accountant. The filing date for the audit must be extended by the commissioner upon a showing of good cause.

(f) additional information as the commissioner reasonably determines to be necessary to determine the financial integrity of the management.

(3) An arrangement shall file with the commissioner a copy of the arrangement's Internal Revenue Service form 5500 together with all attachments to the form, at the time required for filing the form.

History: En. Sec. 11, Ch. 420, L. 1995.

33-35-302. Failure to comply. (1) Pursuant to 33-1-317 and 33-1-318, the commissioner may impose sanctions against a self-funded multiple employer welfare arrangement that fails to comply with the provisions of this chapter. The maximum fine may not exceed $5,000 for each violation.

(2) The commissioner may issue a notice of intent to revoke the certificate of authority of a self-funded multiple employer welfare arrangement that fails to comply with the provisions of 33-35-209, 33-35-210, or 33-35-301. If, within 60 days of receiving notice under this subsection, the arrangement fails to file with the commissioner a plan to bring the arrangement into compliance with 33-35-209, 33-35-210, or 33-35-301, the commissioner may revoke the arrangement's certificate of authority. A revocation of a certificate of authority is a contested case under the Montana Administrative Procedure Act.

(3) The commissioner shall adopt rules to provide sanctions for an arrangement that fails to maintain the level of reserves required by 33-35-209. The rules must be consistent with the provisions of Title 33, chapter 2, part 13.

History: En. Sec. 12, Ch. 420, L. 1995.

33-35-303. Violation by arrangement failing to obtain or maintain certificate of authority. A self-funded multiple employer welfare arrangement organized or maintained in Montana without a certificate of authority is in violation of 33-2-101.

History: En. Sec. 13, Ch. 420, L. 1995.

33-35-304 and 33-35-305 reserved.

33-35-306. Application of insurance code to arrangements. (1) In addition to this chapter, self-funded multiple employer welfare arrangements are subject to the following provisions:

(a) Title 33, chapter 1, part 4, but the examination of a self-funded multiple employer welfare arrangement is limited to those matters to which the arrangement is subject to regulation under this chapter;

(b) Title 33, chapter 1, part 7;

(c) 33-3-308;

(d) Title 33, chapter 18, except 33-18-242;

(e) Title 33, chapter 19;

(f) 33-22-107, 33-22-131, 33-22-134, and 33-22-135; and

(g) 33-22-525 and 33-22-526.

(2) Except as provided in this chapter, other provisions of Title 33 do not apply to a self-funded multiple employer welfare arrangement that has been issued a certificate of authority that has not been revoked.

33-35-307. Disclosure. Each policy issued by a self-funded multiple employer welfare arrangement must contain, in 10-point type on the front page and the declaration page, the following notice:

"NOTICE

This policy is issued by a self-funded multiple employer welfare arrangement. A self-funded multiple employer welfare arrangement may not be subject to all of the insurance laws and regulations of your state. State insurance insolvency guaranty funds are not available for a self-funded multiple employer welfare arrangement."

Part 1
General Provisions

33-36-101. Short title. This chapter may be cited as the "Managed Care Plan Network Adequacy and Quality Assurance Act".

History: En. Sec. 8, Ch. 413, L. 1997.

33-36-102. Purpose. The purpose and intent of this chapter are to:

(1) establish standards for the creation and maintenance of networks by health carriers offering managed care plans and to ensure the adequacy, accessibility, and quality of health care services offered under a managed care plan by establishing requirements for written agreements between health carriers offering managed care plans and participating providers regarding the standards, terms, and provisions under which the participating provider will provide services to covered persons;

(2) provide for the implementation of state network adequacy and quality assurance standards in administrative rules, provide for monitoring compliance with those standards, and provide a mechanism for detecting and reporting violations of those standards to the commissioner;

(3) establish minimum criteria for the quality assessment activities of a health carrier issuing a closed plan or a combination plan and to require that minimum state quality assessment criteria be adopted by rule;

(4) enable health carriers to evaluate, maintain, and improve the quality of health care services provided to covered persons; and

(5) provide a streamlined and simplified process by which managed care network adequacy and quality assurance programs may be monitored for compliance through coordinated efforts of the commissioner and the department. It is not the purpose or intent of this chapter to apply quality assurance standards applicable to medicaid or medicare to managed care plans regulated pursuant to this chapter or to create or require the creation of quality assurance programs that are as comprehensive as quality assurance programs applicable to medicaid or medicare.

History: En. Sec. 9, Ch. 413, L. 1997.

33-36-103. Definitions. As used in this chapter, the following definitions apply:

(1) "Closed plan" means a managed care plan that requires covered persons to use only participating providers under the terms of the managed care plan.

(2) "Combination plan" means an open plan with a closed component.

(3) "Covered benefits" means those health care services to which a covered person is entitled under the terms of a health benefit plan.

(4) "Covered person" means a policyholder, subscriber, or enrollee or other individual participating in a health benefit plan.

(5) "Department" means the department of public health and human services established in 2-15-2201.

(6) "Emergency medical condition" means a condition manifesting itself by symptoms of sufficient severity, including severe pain, that the absence of immediate medical attention could reasonably be expected to result in any of the following:

(a) the covered person's health would be in serious jeopardy;

(b) the covered person's bodily functions would be seriously impaired; or

(c) a bodily organ or part would be seriously damaged.

(7) "Emergency services" means health care items and services furnished or required to evaluate and treat an emergency medical condition.

(8) "Facility" means an institution providing health care services or a health care setting, including but not limited to a hospital, medical assistance facility, or critical access hospital, as defined in 50-5-101, or other licensed inpatient center, an ambulatory surgical or treatment center, a skilled nursing center, a residential treatment center, a diagnostic, laboratory, an imaging center, or a rehabilitation or other therapeutic health setting.

(9) "Health benefit plan" means a policy, contract, certificate, or agreement entered into, offered, or issued by a health carrier to provide, deliver, arrange for, pay for, or reimburse any of the costs of health care services.

(10) "Health care professional" means a physician or other health care practitioner licensed, accredited, or certified pursuant to the laws of this state to perform specified health care services consistent with state law.

(11) "Health care provider" or "provider" means a health care professional or a facility.

(12) "Health care services" means services for the diagnosis, prevention, treatment, cure, or relief of a health condition, illness, injury, or disease.

(13) "Health carrier" means an entity subject to the insurance laws and rules of this state that contracts, offers to contract, or enters into an agreement to provide, deliver, arrange for, pay for, or reimburse any of the costs of health care services, including a disability insurer, health maintenance organization, or health service corporation or another entity providing a health benefit plan.

(14) "Intermediary" means a person authorized to negotiate, execute, and be a party to a contract between a health carrier and a provider or between a health carrier and a network.

(15) "Managed care plan" means a health benefit plan that either requires or creates incentives, including financial incentives, for a covered person to use health care providers managed, owned, under contract with, or employed by a health carrier, but not preferred provider organizations or other provider networks operated in a fee-for-service indemnity environment.

(16) "Medically necessary" means services, medicines, or supplies that are necessary and appropriate for the diagnosis or treatment of a covered person's illness, injury, or medical condition according to accepted standards of medical practice and that are not provided only as a convenience.

(17) "Network" means the group of participating providers that provides health care services to a managed care plan.

(18) "Open plan" means a managed care plan other than a closed plan that provides incentives, including financial incentives, for covered persons to use participating providers under the terms of the managed care plan.

(19) "Participating provider" means a provider who, under a contract with a health carrier or with the health carrier's contractor, subcontractor, or intermediary, has agreed to provide health care services to covered persons with an expectation of receiving payment, other than coinsurance, copayments, or deductibles, directly or indirectly from the health carrier.

(20) "Primary care professional" means a participating health care professional designated by the health carrier to supervise, coordinate, or provide initial care or continuing care to a covered person and who may be required by the health carrier to initiate a referral for specialty care and to maintain supervision of health care services rendered to the covered person.

(21) "Quality assessment" means the measurement and evaluation of the quality and outcomes of medical care provided to individuals, groups, or populations.

(22) "Quality assurance" means quality assessment and quality improvement.

(23) "Quality improvement" means an effort to improve the processes and outcomes related to the provision of health care services within a health plan.

History: En. Sec. 10, Ch. 413, L. 1997; amd. Sec. 2, Ch. 192, L. 2001.

33-36-104. Applicability and scope. This chapter applies to all health carriers that offer managed care plans. This chapter does not exempt a health carrier from the applicable requirements of federal law when providing a managed care plan to medicare recipients or from the applicable requirements of federal law or Title 53, chapter 6, when providing a managed care plan to medicaid recipients.

History: En. Sec. 11, Ch. 413, L. 1997.

33-36-105. Department — general powers and duties — rulemaking. (1) The department shall:

(a) adopt rules pursuant to the Montana Administrative Procedure Act establishing minimum state standards for network adequacy and quality assurance and procedures for ensuring compliance with those standards; and

(b) recommend action to the commissioner against a health carrier whose managed care plan does not comply with standards for network adequacy and quality assurance adopted by the department.

(2) Quality assurance standards adopted by the department must consist of some but not all of the health plan employer data and information standards. The department shall select and adopt only standards appropriate for quality assurance in Montana.

(3) The state may contract, through a competitive bidding process, for the development of network adequacy and quality assurance standards.

History: En. Sec. 12, Ch. 413, L. 1997.

Part 2
Network Adequacy

33-36-201. (Temporary) Network adequacy — standards — access plan required. (1) A health carrier offering a managed care plan in this state shall maintain a network that is sufficient in numbers and types of providers to ensure that all services to covered persons are accessible without unreasonable delay. Sufficiency in number and type of provider is determined in accordance with the requirements of this section. Except as provided in 33-22-262, covered persons must have access to emergency care 24 hours a day, 7 days a week. A health carrier providing a managed care plan shall use reasonable criteria to determine sufficiency. The criteria may include but are not limited to:

(a) a ratio of specialty care providers to covered persons;

(b) a ratio of primary care providers to covered persons;

(c) geographic accessibility;

(d) waiting times for appointments with participating providers;

(e) hours of operation; or

(f) the volume of technological and specialty services available to serve the needs of covered persons requiring technologically advanced or specialty care.

(2) Whenever a health carrier has an insufficient number or type of participating providers to provide a covered benefit, the health carrier shall ensure that the covered person obtains the covered benefit at no greater cost to the covered person than if the covered benefit were obtained from participating providers or shall make other arrangements acceptable to the department.

(3) The health carrier shall establish and maintain adequate provider networks to ensure reasonable proximity of participating providers to the businesses or personal residences of covered persons. In determining whether a health carrier has complied with this requirement, consideration must be given to the relative availability of health care providers in the service area under consideration.

(4) A health carrier offering a managed care plan in this state shall file with the department an access plan meeting the requirements of subsection (6) and the rules of the department before offering the managed care plan. A plan must be filed with the department in a manner and form complying with the rules of the department. A health carrier shall file any subsequent material changes in its access plan with the department within 30 days of implementation of the change.

(5) A health carrier may request the department to designate parts of its access plan as proprietary or competitive information, and when designated, that part may not be made public. For the purposes of this section, information is proprietary or competitive if revealing the information would cause the health carrier's competitors to obtain valuable business information. A health carrier shall make the access plans, absent proprietary information, available on its business premises and shall provide a copy of the plan upon request.

(6) An access plan for each managed care plan offered in this state must describe or contain at least the following:

(a) a listing of the names and specialties of the health carrier's participating providers;

(b) the health carrier's procedures for making referrals within and outside its network;

(c) the health carrier's process for monitoring and ensuring on an ongoing basis the sufficiency of the network to meet the health care needs of populations that enroll in the managed care plan;

(d) the health carrier's efforts to address the needs of covered persons with limited English proficiency and illiteracy, with diverse cultural and ethnic backgrounds, and with physical and mental disabilities;

(e) the health carrier's methods for assessing the health care needs of covered persons and their satisfaction with services;

(f) the health carrier's method of informing covered persons of the plan's services and features, including but not limited to the plan's grievance procedures, its process for choosing and changing providers, and its procedures for providing and approving emergency and specialty care;

(g) the health carrier's system for ensuring the coordination and continuity of care for covered persons referred to specialty physicians and for covered persons using ancillary services, including social services and other community resources, and for ensuring appropriate discharge planning;

(h) the health carrier's process for enabling covered persons to change primary care professionals;

(i) the health carrier's proposed plan for providing continuity of care in the event of contract termination between the health carrier and a participating provider or in the event of the health carrier's insolvency or other inability to continue operations. The description must explain how covered persons will be notified of the contract termination or the health carrier's insolvency or other cessation of operations and be transferred to other providers in a timely manner.

(j) any other information required by the department to determine compliance with this part and the rules implementing this part.

(7) The department shall ensure timely and expedited review and approval of the access plan and other requirements in this section. (Terminates June 30, 2009—sec. 14, Ch. 325, L. 2003.)

33-36-201. (Effective July 1, 2009) Network adequacy — standards — access plan required. (1) A health carrier offering a managed care plan in this state shall maintain a network that is sufficient in numbers and types of providers to ensure that all services to covered persons are accessible without unreasonable delay. Sufficiency in number and type of provider is determined in accordance with the requirements of this section. Covered persons must have access to emergency care 24 hours a day, 7 days a week. A health carrier providing a managed care plan shall use reasonable criteria to determine sufficiency. The criteria may include but are not limited to:

(a) a ratio of specialty care providers to covered persons;

(b) a ratio of primary care providers to covered persons;

(c) geographic accessibility;

(d) waiting times for appointments with participating providers;

(e) hours of operation; or

(f) the volume of technological and specialty services available to serve the needs of covered persons requiring technologically advanced or specialty care.

(2) Whenever a health carrier has an insufficient number or type of participating providers to provide a covered benefit, the health carrier shall ensure that the covered person obtains the covered benefit at no greater cost to the covered person than if the covered benefit were obtained from participating providers or shall make other arrangements acceptable to the department.

(3) The health carrier shall establish and maintain adequate provider networks to ensure reasonable proximity of participating providers to the businesses or personal residences of covered persons. In determining whether a health carrier has complied with this requirement, consideration must be given to the relative availability of health care providers in the service area under consideration.

(4) A health carrier offering a managed care plan in this state on October 1, 1999, shall file with the department on October 1, 1999, an access plan complying with subsection (6) and the rules of the department. A health carrier offering a managed care plan in this state for the first time after October 1, 1999, shall file with the department an access plan meeting the requirements of subsection (6) and the rules of the department before offering the managed care plan. A plan must be filed with the department in a manner and form complying with the rules of the department. A health carrier shall file any subsequent material changes in its access plan with the department within 30 days of implementation of the change.

(5) A health carrier may request the department to designate parts of its access plan as proprietary or competitive information, and when designated, that part may not be made public. For the purposes of this section, information is proprietary or competitive if revealing the information would cause the health carrier's competitors to obtain valuable business information. A health carrier shall make the access plans, absent proprietary information, available on its business premises and shall provide a copy of the plan upon request.

(6) An access plan for each managed care plan offered in this state must describe or contain at least the following:

(a) a listing of the names and specialties of the health carrier's participating providers;

(b) the health carrier's procedures for making referrals within and outside its network;

(c) the health carrier's process for monitoring and ensuring on an ongoing basis the sufficiency of the network to meet the health care needs of populations that enroll in the managed care plan;

(d) the health carrier's efforts to address the needs of covered persons with limited English proficiency and illiteracy, with diverse cultural and ethnic backgrounds, and with physical and mental disabilities;

(e) the health carrier's methods for assessing the health care needs of covered persons and their satisfaction with services;

(f) the health carrier's method of informing covered persons of the plan's services and features, including but not limited to the plan's grievance procedures, its process for choosing and changing providers, and its procedures for providing and approving emergency and specialty care;

(g) the health carrier's system for ensuring the coordination and continuity of care for covered persons referred to specialty physicians and for covered persons using ancillary services, including social services and other community resources, and for ensuring appropriate discharge planning;

(h) the health carrier's process for enabling covered persons to change primary care professionals;

(i) the health carrier's proposed plan for providing continuity of care in the event of contract termination between the health carrier and a participating provider or in the event of the health carrier's insolvency or other inability to continue operations. The description must explain how covered persons will be notified of the contract termination or the health carrier's insolvency or other cessation of operations and be transferred to other providers in a timely manner.

(j) any other information required by the department to determine compliance with this part and the rules implementing this part.

(7) The department shall ensure timely and expedited review and approval of the access plan and other requirements in this section.

History: En. Sec. 13, Ch. 413, L. 1997; amd. Sec. 10, Ch. 325, L. 2003.

33-36-202. Provider responsibility for care — contracts — prohibited collection practices. (1) A contract between a health carrier and a participating provider must set forth a hold harmless provision specifying protection for covered persons. This requirement is met by including in a contract a provision substantially the same as the following:

"The provider agrees that the provider may not for any reason, including but not limited to nonpayment by the health carrier or intermediary, insolvency of the health carrier or intermediary, or breach of this agreement, bill, charge, collect a deposit, seek compensation, remuneration, or reimbursement, or have any recourse from or against a covered person or a person other than the health carrier or intermediary acting on behalf of the covered person for services provided pursuant to this agreement. This agreement does not prohibit the provider from collecting coinsurance, copayments, or deductibles, as specifically provided in the evidence of coverage, or fees for uncovered services delivered on a fee-for-service basis to a covered person. This agreement does not prohibit a provider, except a health care professional who is employed full-time on the staff of a health carrier and who has agreed to provide services exclusively to that health carrier's covered persons and no others, and a covered person from agreeing to continue services solely at the expense of the covered person if the provider has clearly informed the covered person that the health carrier may not cover or continue to cover a specific service or services. Except as provided in this agreement, this agreement does not prohibit the provider from pursuing any legal remedy available for obtaining payment for services from the health carrier."

(2) A contract between a health carrier and a participating provider must state that if a health carrier or intermediary becomes insolvent or otherwise ceases operations, covered benefits to covered persons will continue through the end of the period for which a premium has been paid to the health carrier on behalf of the covered person, but not to exceed 30 days, or until the covered person's discharge from an acute care inpatient facility, whichever occurs last. Covered benefits to a covered person confined in an acute care inpatient facility on the date of insolvency or other cessation of operations must be continued by a provider until the confinement in an inpatient facility is no longer medically necessary.

(3) The contract provisions that satisfy the requirements of subsections (1) and (2) must be construed in favor of the covered person, survive the termination of the contract regardless of the reason for termination, including the insolvency of the health carrier, and supersede an oral or written contrary agreement between a participating provider and a covered person or the representative of a covered person if the contrary agreement is inconsistent with the hold harmless and continuation of covered benefits provisions required by subsections (1) and (2).

(4) A participating provider may not collect or attempt to collect from a covered person money owed to the provider by the health carrier.

History: En. Sec. 14, Ch. 413, L. 1997.

33-36-203. Selection of providers — professional credentials standards. (1) A health carrier shall adopt standards for selecting participating providers who are primary care professionals and for each health care professional specialty within the health carrier's network. The health carrier shall use the standards to select health care professionals, the health carrier's intermediaries, and any provider network with which the health carrier contracts. A health carrier may not adopt selection criteria that allow the health carrier to:

(a) avoid high-risk populations by excluding a provider because the provider is located in a geographic area that contains populations or providers presenting a risk of higher than average claims, losses, or use of health care services; or

(b) exclude a provider because the provider treats or specializes in treating populations presenting a risk of higher than average claims, losses, or use of health care services.

(2) Subsection (1) does not prohibit a health carrier from declining to select a provider who fails to meet the other legitimate selection criteria of the health carrier adopted in compliance with this part and the rules implementing this part.

(3) This part does not require a health carrier, its intermediary, or a provider network with which the health carrier or its intermediary contract to employ specific providers or types of providers who may meet their selection criteria or to contract with or retain more providers or types of providers than are necessary to maintain an adequate network.

(4) A health carrier may use criteria established in accordance with the provisions of this section to select health care professionals allowed to participate in the health carrier's managed care plan. A health carrier shall make its selection standards for participating providers available for review by the department and by each health care professional who is subject to the selection standards.

History: En. Sec. 15, Ch. 413, L. 1997.

33-36-204. Health carriers — general responsibilities. (1) A health carrier offering a managed care plan shall notify, in writing, prospective participating providers of the participating providers' responsibilities concerning the health carrier's administrative policies and programs, including but not limited to payment terms, utilization reviews, the quality assurance program, credentialing, grievance procedures, data reporting requirements, confidentiality requirements, and applicable federal or state requirements.

(2) A health carrier may not offer an inducement under a managed care plan to a participating provider to provide less than medically necessary services to a covered person.

(3) A health carrier may not prohibit a participating provider from discussing a treatment option with a covered person or from advocating on behalf of a covered person within the utilization review or grievance processes established by the health carrier or a person contracting with the health carrier.

(4) A health carrier shall require a participating provider to make health records available to appropriate state and federal authorities, in accordance with the applicable state and federal laws related to the confidentiality of medical or health records, when the authorities are involved in assessing the quality of care or investigating a grievance or complaint of a covered person.

(5) A health carrier and participating provider shall provide at least 60 days' written notice to each other before terminating the contract between them without cause. The health carrier shall make a good faith effort to provide written notice of a termination, within 15 working days of receipt or issuance of a notice of termination from or to a participating provider, to all covered persons who are patients seen on a regular basis by the participating provider whose contract is terminating, irrespective of whether the termination is for cause or without cause. If a contract termination involves a primary care professional, all covered persons who are patients of that primary care professional must be notified.

(6) A health carrier shall ensure that a participating provider furnishes covered benefits to all covered persons without regard to the covered person's enrollment in the plan as a private purchaser or as a participant in a publicly financed program of health care services. This requirement does not apply to circumstances in which the participating provider should not render services because of the participating provider's lack of training, experience, or skill or because of a restriction on the participating provider's license.

(7) A health carrier shall notify the participating providers of their obligation, if any, to collect applicable coinsurance, copayments, or deductibles from covered persons pursuant to the evidence of coverage or of the participating providers' obligations, if any, to notify covered persons of the covered persons' personal financial obligations for noncovered benefits.

(8) A health carrier may not penalize a participating provider because the participating provider, in good faith, reports to state or federal authorities an act or practice by the health carrier that may adversely affect patient health or welfare.

(9) A health carrier shall establish a mechanism by which a participating provider may determine in a timely manner whether or not a person is covered by the health carrier.

(10) A health carrier shall establish procedures for resolution of administrative, payment, or other disputes between the health carrier and participating providers.

(11) A contract between a health carrier and a participating provider may not contain definitions or other provisions that conflict with the definitions or provisions contained in the managed care plan or this chapter.

(12) A contract between a health carrier and a participating provider shall set forth all of the responsibilities and obligations of the provider either in the contract or documents referenced in the contract. A health carrier shall make its best effort to furnish copies of any reference documents, if requested by a participating provider, prior to execution of the contract.

History: En. Sec. 16, Ch. 413, L. 1997.

33-36-205. (Temporary) Emergency services — exception. (1) A health carrier offering a managed care plan shall provide or pay for emergency services screening and emergency services and may not require prior authorization for either of those services. If an emergency services screening determines that emergency services or emergency services of a particular type are unnecessary for a covered person, emergency services or emergency services of the type determined unnecessary by the screening need not be covered by the health carrier unless otherwise covered under the health benefit plan. However, if screening determines that emergency services or emergency services of a particular type are necessary, those services must be covered by the health carrier. A health carrier shall cover emergency services if the health carrier, acting through a participating provider or other authorized representative, has authorized the provision of emergency services.

(2) A health carrier shall provide or pay for emergency services obtained from a nonnetwork provider within the service area of a managed care plan and may not require prior authorization of those services if use of a participating provider would result in a delay that would worsen the medical condition of the covered person or if a provision of federal, state, or local law requires the use of a specific provider.

(3) If a participating provider or other authorized representative of a health carrier authorizes emergency services, the health carrier may not subsequently retract its authorization after the emergency services have been provided or reduce payment for an item or health care services furnished in reliance on approval unless the approval was based on a material misrepresentation about the covered person's medical condition made by the provider of emergency services.

(4) Coverage of emergency services is subject to applicable coinsurance, copayments, and deductibles.

(5) For postevaluation or poststabilization services required immediately after receipt of emergency services, a health carrier shall provide access to an authorized representative 24 hours a day, 7 days a week, to facilitate review.

(6) The provisions of this section do not apply to a limited coverage individual managed care plan as provided in 33-22-261 through 33-22-263. (Terminates June 30, 2009—sec. 14, Ch. 325, L. 2003.)

33-36-205. (Effective July 1, 2009) Emergency services. (1) A health carrier offering a managed care plan shall provide or pay for emergency services screening and emergency services and may not require prior authorization for either of those services. If an emergency services screening determines that emergency services or emergency services of a particular type are unnecessary for a covered person, emergency services or emergency services of the type determined unnecessary by the screening need not be covered by the health carrier unless otherwise covered under the health benefit plan. However, if screening determines that emergency services or emergency services of a particular type are necessary, those services must be covered by the health carrier. A health carrier shall cover emergency services if the health carrier, acting through a participating provider or other authorized representative, has authorized the provision of emergency services.

(2) A health carrier shall provide or pay for emergency services obtained from a nonnetwork provider within the service area of a managed care plan and may not require prior authorization of those services if use of a participating provider would result in a delay that would worsen the medical condition of the covered person or if a provision of federal, state, or local law requires the use of a specific provider.

(3) If a participating provider or other authorized representative of a health carrier authorizes emergency services, the health carrier may not subsequently retract its authorization after the emergency services have been provided or reduce payment for an item or health care services furnished in reliance on approval unless the approval was based on a material misrepresentation about the covered person's medical condition made by the provider of emergency services.

(4) Coverage of emergency services is subject to applicable coinsurance, copayments, and deductibles.

(5) For postevaluation or poststabilization services required immediately after receipt of emergency services, a health carrier shall provide access to an authorized representative 24 hours a day, 7 days a week, to facilitate review.

History: En. Sec. 17, Ch. 413, L. 1997; amd. Sec. 11, Ch. 325, L. 2003.

33-36-206 through 33-36-208 reserved.

33-36-209. Use of intermediaries — responsibilities of health carriers, intermediaries, and providers. (1) A health carrier is responsible for complying with applicable provisions of this chapter, and contracting with an intermediary for all or some of the services for which a health carrier is responsible does not relieve the health carrier of responsibility for compliance.

(2) A health carrier may determine whether a subcontracted provider participates in the provider's own network or a contracted network for the purpose of providing covered benefits to the health carrier's covered persons.

(3) A health carrier shall maintain copies of all intermediary health care subcontracts at the health carrier's principal place of business in this state or ensure that the health carrier has access to all intermediary subcontracts, including the right to make copies of the contracts, upon 20 days' prior written notice from the health carrier.

(4) If required in a contract or otherwise by a health carrier, an intermediary shall transmit utilization documentation and claims-paid documentation to the health carrier. The health carrier shall monitor the timeliness and appropriateness of payments made to providers and health care services received by covered persons. This duty may not be delegated to an intermediary by a health carrier.

(5) If required in a contract or otherwise by a health carrier, an intermediary shall maintain the books, records, financial information, and documentation of services provided to covered persons at its principal place of business in the state and preserve them for 5 years in a manner that facilitates regulatory review.

(6) An intermediary shall allow the commissioner and the department access to the intermediary's books, records, claim information, billing information, and other documentation of services provided to covered persons that are required by any of those entities to determine compliance with this part and the rules implementing this part.

(7) A health carrier may, in the event of the intermediary's insolvency, require the assignment to the health carrier of the provisions of a participating provider's contract addressing the participating provider's obligation to furnish covered benefits.

History: En. Sec. 18, Ch. 413, L. 1997.

33-36-210. Contract filing requirements — material changes — state access to contracts. (1) On October 1, 1999, a health carrier offering a managed care plan shall file with the department sample contract forms proposed for use with its participating providers and intermediaries.

(2) A health carrier shall file with the department a material change to a contract. The change must be filed with the department at least 60 days before use of the proposed change. A change in a participating provider payment rate, coinsurance, copayment, or deductible or other plan benefit is not considered a material change for the purpose of this subsection.

(3) A health carrier shall maintain participating provider and intermediary contracts at its principal place of business in this state, or the health carrier must have access to all contracts and provide copies to the department upon 20 days' prior written notice from the department.

History: En. Sec. 19, Ch. 413, L. 1997.

33-36-211. General contracting requirements. (1) The execution of a contract for health care services with an intermediary by a health carrier does not relieve the health carrier of its duty to provide health care services to a person with whom the health carrier has contracted and does not relieve the health carrier of its responsibility for compliance with this chapter or the rules implementing this chapter.

(2) All contracts by a health carrier for the provision of health care services by a managed care plan must be in writing and are subject to review by the department and the commissioner.

History: En. Sec. 20, Ch. 413, L. 1997.

33-36-212. Contract compliance dates. (1) A contract between a health carrier and a participating provider or intermediary in effect on October 1, 1999, must comply with this part and the rules implementing this part by October 1, 1999. The department may extend the October 1 date for an additional period of up to 6 months if the health carrier demonstrates good cause for an extension.

(2) A contract between a health carrier and a participating provider or intermediary issued or put into effect on or after October 1, 1999, must comply with this part and the rules implementing this part on the day that it is issued or put into effect.

(3) A contract between a health carrier and a participating provider or intermediary not described in subsection (1) or (2) must comply with this part and the rules implementing this part by October 1, 1999.

History: En. Sec. 21, Ch. 413, L. 1997.

33-36-213. Department rules. The department may adopt rules to implement this part.

History: En. Sec. 22, Ch. 413, L. 1997.

Part 3
Quality Assurance

33-36-301. Quality assurance — national accreditation. (1) A health carrier whose managed care plan has been accredited by a nationally recognized accrediting organization shall annually provide a copy of the accreditation and the accrediting standards used by the accrediting organization to the department.

(2) If the department finds that the standards of a nationally recognized accrediting organization meet or exceed state standards and that the health carrier has been accredited by the nationally recognized accrediting organization, the department shall approve the quality assurance standards of the health carrier.

(3) The department shall maintain a list of accrediting organizations whose standards have been determined by the department to meet or exceed state quality assurance standards.

(4) Section 33-36-302 does not apply to a health carrier's managed care plan if the health carrier maintains current accreditation by a nationally recognized accrediting organization whose standards meet or exceed state quality assurance standards adopted pursuant to this part.

(5) This section does not prevent the department from monitoring a health carrier's compliance with this part.

History: En. Sec. 23, Ch. 413, L. 1997.

33-36-302. Standards for health carrier quality assessment programs. A health carrier that issues a closed plan or a combination plan shall adopt and use infrastructure and disclosure systems sufficient to accurately measure the quality of health care services provided to covered persons on a regular basis and appropriate to the types of plans offered by the health carrier. To comply with this requirement, a health carrier shall:

(1) establish and use a system designed to assess the quality of health care provided to covered persons and appropriate to the types of plans offered by the health carrier. The system must include systematic collection, analysis, and reporting of relevant data.

(2) communicate in a timely fashion its findings concerning the quality of health care to regulatory agencies, providers, and consumers as provided in 33-36-304;

(3) report to the appropriate professional or occupational licensing board provided in Title 37 any persistent pattern of problematic care provided by a participating provider that is sufficient to cause the health carrier to terminate or suspend a contractual arrangement with the participating provider; and

(4) file a written description of the quality assessment program and any subsequent material changes with the department in a format that must be prescribed by rules of the department. The description must include a signed certification by a corporate officer of the health carrier that the health carrier's quality assessment program meets the requirements of this part.

History: En. Sec. 24, Ch. 413, L. 1997.

33-36-303. Standards for health carrier quality improvement programs. A health carrier that issues a closed plan or a combination plan shall, in addition to complying with 33-36-302, adopt and use systems and methods necessary to improve the quality of health care provided in the health carrier's managed care plan as indicated by the health carrier's quality assessment program and as required by this section. To comply with this requirement, a health carrier subject to this section shall:

(1) establish an internal system capable of identifying opportunities to improve care;

(2) use the findings generated by the system required by subsection (1) to work on a continuing basis with participating providers and other staff within the closed plan or closed component to improve the health care delivered to covered persons;

(3) adopt and use a program for measuring, assessing and improving the outcomes of health care as identified in the health carrier's quality improvement program plan. This quality improvement program plan must be filed with the department by October 1, 2000, and must be consistent with this part. A health carrier shall file any subsequent material changes to its quality improvement program plan within 30 days of implementation of the change. The quality improvement program plan must:

(a) implement improvement strategies in response to quality assessment findings that indicate improvement is needed; and

(b) evaluate, not less than annually, the effectiveness of the strategies implemented pursuant to subsection (3)(a).

History: En. Sec. 25, Ch. 413, L. 1997.

33-36-304. Reporting and disclosure requirements. (1) A health carrier offering a closed plan or a combination plan shall document and communicate information, as required in this section, about its quality assurance program. The health carrier shall:

(a) include a summary of its quality assurance program in marketing materials;

(b) include a description of its quality assurance program and a statement of patient rights and responsibilities with respect to that program in the certificate of coverage or handbook provided to newly enrolled covered persons; and

(c) make available annually to providers and covered persons a report containing findings from its quality assurance program and information about its progress in meeting internal goals and external standards, when available.

(2) A health carrier shall certify to the department annually that its quality assurance program and the materials provided to providers and consumers in accordance with subsection (1) meet the requirements of this part.

(3) A health carrier shall make available, upon request and payment of a reasonable fee, the materials certified pursuant to subsection (2), except for the materials subject to the confidentiality requirements of 33-36-305 and materials that are proprietary to the managed care plan. A health carrier shall retain all certified materials for at least 3 years from the date that the material was certified or until the material has been examined as part of a market conduct examination, whichever is later.

History: En. Sec. 26, Ch. 413, L. 1997.

33-36-305. Confidentiality of health care and quality assurance records — disclosure. (1) Except as provided in subsection (2), the following information held by a health carrier offering a closed plan or a combination plan is confidential and may not be disclosed by the carrier to a person:

(a) information pertaining to the diagnosis, treatment, or health of a covered person, regardless of whether the information is in the form of paper, is preserved on microfilm, or is stored in computer-retrievable form;

(b) information considered by a quality assurance program and the records of its actions, including testimony of a member of a quality committee, of an officer, director, or other member of a health carrier or its staff engaged in assisting the quality committee or engaged in the health carrier's quality assessment, quality improvement, or quality assurance activities, or of any person assisting or furnishing information to the quality committee.

(2) The information specified in subsection (1) may be disclosed:

(a) as allowed by Title 33, chapter 19;

(b) as required in proceedings before the commissioner, a professional or occupational licensing board provided in Title 37, or the department pursuant to Title 50, chapter 5, part 2;

(c) in an appeal, if an appeal is permitted, from a quality committee's findings or recommendations; or

(d) as otherwise required by law or court order, including a judicial or administrative subpoena.

(3) Information specified in subsection (1) identifying:

(a) the provider may also be disclosed upon a written, dated, and signed approval of the provider if the information does not identify the covered person;

(b) the covered person may also be disclosed upon a written, dated, and signed approval of the covered person or of the parent or guardian of a covered person if the covered person is a minor and if the information does not identify the provider;

(c) neither the provider nor the covered person may also be disclosed upon request for use for statistical purposes only.

Enforcement

33-36-401. Enforcement. (1) If the department determines that a health carrier has not complied with this chapter or the rules implementing this chapter, the department may recommend corrective action to the health carrier.

(2) At the recommendation of the department the commissioner may take an enforcement action provided in subsection (3) if:

(a) a health carrier fails to implement corrective action recommended by the department;

(b) corrective action taken by a health carrier does not result in bringing a health carrier into compliance with this chapter and the rules implementing this chapter within a reasonable period of time;

(c) the department demonstrates to the commissioner that a health carrier does not comply with this chapter or the rules implementing this chapter; or

(d) the commissioner determines that a health carrier has violated or is violating this chapter or the rules implementing this chapter.

(3) The commissioner may take any of the following enforcement actions to require a health carrier to comply with this chapter or the rules implementing this chapter:

(a) suspend or revoke the health carrier's certificate of authority or deny the health carrier's application for a certificate of authority; or

(b) use any of the commissioner's other enforcement powers provided in Title 33, chapter 1, part 3.

History: En. Sec. 28, Ch. 413, L. 1997.

33-36-402. Jurisdiction over contract actions. The district courts have jurisdiction over actions for the enforcement of contracts authorized or regulated by this chapter.

CHAPTER 37
REGULATION OF HEALTH CARRIERS AND MANAGED CARE ENTITIES

Part 1 — General Provisions

33-37-101. Definitions.
33-37-102. Independent review of adverse determinations.
33-37-103. Peer review.
33-37-104. Contract provisions — contract termination.
33-37-105. Rulemaking authority.
33-37-106. Application to certain entities.

33-37-107 through 33-37-109 reserved.
33-37-110. Administration of managed care organization.

Part 1
General Provisions

33-37-101. Definitions. For the purposes of this chapter, the following definitions apply:

(1) "Adverse determination" means a determination by a health carrier, a managed care entity, or an agent of a health carrier or managed care entity that the health care services furnished or proposed to be furnished to an enrollee are not appropriate and medically necessary.

(2) "Appropriate and medically necessary" means the standard for health care services as determined by health care providers in accordance with the prevailing practices and standards of the health care profession and community.

(3) "Department" means the department of public health and human services provided for in 2-15-2201.

(4) "Enrollee" has the meaning provided for a covered person as defined in 33-36-103.

(5) "Health benefit plan" has the meaning provided in 33-36-103.

(6) "Health care provider" has the meaning provided in 33-36-103.

(7) "Health care treatment decision" means a determination made when medical services are actually provided by a health carrier or other managed care entity and that affects the quality of the diagnosis, care, or treatment provided to the insureds or enrollees of a health benefit plan. The term does not include a decision by a health carrier or managed care entity to deny payment or coverage for services based on the provisions of a policy, contract, certificate, or agreement.

(8) "Health carrier" has the meaning provided for in 33-36-103.

(9) (a) "Managed care entity" means a health carrier or any entity that delivers, administers, or assumes risk for health care services with systems or techniques to control or influence the quality, accessibility, utilization, or costs and prices of health care services to a defined enrollee population.

(b) The term does not include an employer purchasing coverage or acting on behalf of its employees or the employees of one or more subsidiaries or affiliated corporations of the employer.

(10) "Peer" means a health care provider actively practicing a health care profession in this state who has substantially the same education and training, who provides substantially the same range of health care services, and who has the same license or certification to practice as the health care provider whose practice, professional services, or activities on behalf of the enrollee are being considered, reviewed, evaluated, or judged.

History: En. Sec. 1, Ch. 482, L. 1999.

33-37-102. Independent review of adverse determinations. A health carrier or managed care entity or an agent of a health carrier or managed care entity, other than a health carrier or other managed care entity providing medicaid-funded services or any other publicly funded health care-related services authorized under Title 50, 52, or 53, shall:

(1) permit any party whose appeal of an adverse determination is denied by the health carrier, the managed care entity, or the agent of the health carrier or managed care entity to seek independent review of that determination by a peer or, if the health carrier or managed care entity does not maintain an appeals process, permit any party receiving an adverse determination to seek independent review of that determination;

(2) provide to the appropriate peer no later than the third business day after the date that the health carrier, the managed care entity, or the agent of the health carrier or managed care entity receives a request for review a copy of:

(a) any medical records of the enrollee that are relevant to the review. Confidential information in the custody of the health carrier, the managed care entity, or the agent of the health carrier or managed care entity may be provided to a peer.

(b) any documents used by the health carrier, the managed care entity, or the agent of the health carrier or managed care entity in making the determination to be reviewed by the peer;

(c) any documentation and written information submitted to the health carrier, the managed care entity, or the agent of the health carrier or managed care entity in support of the appeal; and

(d) a list of each health care provider who has provided care to the enrollee and who may have medical records relevant to the appeal;

(3) accept and comply with the findings made by a peer conducting the independent review concerning an adverse determination, a determination as to whether the services were appropriate and medically necessary, or a health care treatment decision; and

(4) pay for the reasonable costs of the independent review.

History: En. Sec. 2, Ch. 482, L. 1999.

33-37-103. Peer review. If independent review is requested pursuant to 33-37-102, the party seeking the review and the health carrier or managed care entity may agree on a peer to conduct the independent review. In the absence of an agreement, a peer must be selected in accordance with a process established by the department.

History: En. Sec. 3, Ch. 482, L. 1999.

33-37-104. Contract provisions — contract termination. (1) This chapter does not create any liability on the part of an employer or an employer group purchasing organization that purchases coverage or assumes risks on behalf of its employees.

(2) A health carrier or other managed care entity may not enter into a contract with a health care provider that includes an indemnification or hold harmless clause for the acts or conduct of the health carrier or other managed care entity. Any indemnification or hold harmless clause in a contract entered into, amended, or renewed on or after October 1, 1999, is void.

(3) A health care provider, a health carrier, or other managed care entity may not terminate a contract with a participating provider prior to the expiration of its term except for just cause. For purposes of this subsection, "just cause" means reasonable grounds for termination based on a failure to satisfactorily perform contract obligations or other legitimate business reason.

(4) The provisions of this section are not applicable to any contracts for health care services entered into by the state.

History: En. Sec. 4, Ch. 482, L. 1999.

33-37-105. Rulemaking authority. The department shall adopt rules to provide a process for selecting peers, ensuring the confidentiality of health care information, and implementing the provisions of this chapter.

History: En. Sec. 5, Ch. 482, L. 1999.

33-37-106. Application to certain entities. (1) This chapter applies to contracts between a health carrier, managed care entity, or the health carrier's or managed care entity's agent and an insured or enrollee and contracts between a health carrier, managed care entity, or the health carrier's or managed care entity's agent and a health care provider entered into on or after October 1, 1999.

(2) This chapter does not apply to the Montana medicaid program, the children's health insurance program, or other state-funded health care-related programs. Unless specifically provided otherwise, this chapter does apply to a managed care entity that contracts with the state to provide these programs and that makes health care treatment decisions concerning the beneficiaries of the programs.

(3) This chapter does not apply to a health carrier, managed care entity, or preferred provider organization that provides services under Title 39, chapter 71.

History: En. Sec. 8, Ch. 482, L. 1999.

33-37-107 through 33-37-109 reserved.

33-37-110. Administration of managed care organization. Each managed care organization shall employ or contract with a physician who must be licensed in the state pursuant to Title 37, chapter 3, to serve as medical director.

History: En. Sec. 1, Ch. 107, L. 2001.

33-38-108. Pharmacy discount card supplier requirements.

Part 1
General Provisions

Part Compiler's Comments

Effective Date: This part is effective October 1, 2005.

Applicability: Section 14, Ch. 456, L. 2005, provided: "[Sections 4 through 11] [Title 33, ch. 38, part 1] apply to a person acting or intending to act as a medical care discount card supplier or enroller, a person acting or intending to act as a pharmacy discount card supplier, a medical care discount card issued, or a pharmacy discount card issued on and after October 1, 2005."

33-38-101. Short title — purpose. (1) This part may be cited as the "Montana Medical Care Discount Card and Pharmacy Discount Card Act".

(2) The purposes of this part are to regulate the promotion, offer, sale, and use of medical care discount cards and pharmacy discount cards and to facilitate the detection of and reduce the occurrence of medical care discount card and pharmacy discount card fraud.

History: En. Sec. 4, Ch. 456, L. 2005.

33-38-102. Definitions. As used in this part, unless the context indicates otherwise, the following definitions apply:

(1) "Administrator" has the meaning provided for in 33-17-102(3).

(2) "Enroller" means a person who:

(a) solicits the purchase or renewal of a medical care discount card through that person;

(b) transmits, for consideration, from a supplier to another person or from another person to a supplier a contract or application for a medical care discount card or the renewal of a medical care discount card; or

(c) acts or aids in another manner in the delivery or negotiation of a medical care discount card or the renewal or continuance of a medical care discount card.

(3) "Health care provider" means:

(a) an individual licensed by the department of labor and industry to practice or who holds a temporary permit to practice a branch of the healing arts;

(b) a professional corporation organized pursuant to Title 35, chapter 4, by one or more individuals described in subsection (3)(a);

(c) a Montana limited liability company organized pursuant to Title 35, chapter 8, for the purpose of rendering professional services by individuals described in subsection (3)(a);

(d) a partnership of individuals described in subsection (3)(a);

(e) a Montana nonprofit corporation organized pursuant to Title 35, chapter 2, for the purpose of rendering professional health care services by one or more individuals described in subsection (3)(a); or

(f) a health care facility as defined in 50-5-101.

(4) "Health insurance issuer" means a health insurance issuer, as defined in 33-22-140, that is authorized to do business in this state and its affiliates, as defined in 33-2-1101.

(5) (a) "Medical care discount card" means a paper or plastic device or other mechanism, arrangement, account, or other device that does not constitute insurance, as defined in 33-1-201, that purports to grant, for consideration, a discount or access to a discount in a medical care-related purchase from a health care provider.

(b) The term does not include a pharmacy discount card unless a pharmacy discount benefit is combined with another type of medical care discount.

(6) "Medical care discount card supplier" means a person engaged in selling or furnishing, either as principal or agent, for consideration, one or more medical care discount cards to another person or persons.

(7) "Network of health care providers" means two or more health care providers who are contractually obligated to provide services in accordance with the terms and conditions applicable to a medical care discount card.

(8) "Pharmacy discount card" means a paper or plastic device or other mechanism, arrangement, account, or other device that does not constitute insurance, as defined in 33-1-201, that purports to grant, for consideration, a discount or access to a discount on one or more prescription drugs, and that is not combined with another type of medical care discount.

(9) "Pharmacy discount card supplier" means a person engaged in selling or furnishing, either as a principal or agent, for consideration, one or more pharmacy discount cards to another person or persons.

(10) "Preferred provider organization company" means a company that contracts with health care providers for lower fees than those customarily charged by the health care provider for services and contracts with health insurance issuers, administrators, or self-insured employers to provide access to those lower fees to a particular group of insureds, subscribers, participants, beneficiaries, members, or claimants.

(11) "Prescription drug provider" means a pharmacy or other business that is contractually bound to provide a discount on one or more prescription drugs in conjunction with the use of a pharmacy discount card.

(12) "Service area" means the area within a 60-mile radius of the home or place of business of a medical care discount card user or pharmacy discount card user.

History: En. Sec. 5, Ch. 456, L. 2005.

33-38-103. Unlawful acts by medical care discount card suppliers or enrollers. (1) A medical care discount card supplier or an enroller that markets, promotes, advertises, or distributes a medical care discount card in Montana:

(a) may not make misleading, deceptive, or fraudulent representations regarding:

(i) the discount or range of discounts offered by a medical care discount card;

(ii) the access to any range of discounts offered by a medical care discount card; or

(iii) another medical care service provided in connection with a medical care discount card;

(b) may not use terms or phrases commonly associated with insurance products that could lead a prospective purchaser or user of a medical care discount card to believe that the card being offered is composed of one or more insurance products or is a substitute for insurance, despite disclaimers to the contrary by the medical care discount card supplier or enroller;

(c) shall provide to a prospective purchaser or user, before purchase, access to a list of health care providers, including the name, city, state, and provider type and, optionally, the address and telephone number of each health care provider in the prospective purchaser's or user's service area; and

(d) shall make continuously available to each medical care discount card user, through a toll-free telephone number, the internet, and in writing upon request, the name, address, telephone number, and provider type of all health care providers in the user's service area who are bound by contract to provide services in accordance with the terms and conditions applicable to the card.

(2) A medical care discount card supplier that markets, promotes, advertises, or distributes a medical care discount card in Montana shall:

(a) state, on all advertisements for medical care discount cards, in bold and prominent type of at least 14 points in size, and on all cards themselves in clear and conspicuous type, that the card is not insurance;

(b) designate and provide the commissioner with the name, address, and telephone number of a medical care discount card compliance officer responsible for ensuring compliance with the provisions of this part applicable to medical care discount cards and medical care discount card suppliers and enrollers; and

(c) ensure that if the medical care discount card supplier claims that a specific health care provider offers a discount in conjunction with the medical care discount card, that specific health care provider is contractually bound to provide that discount to the purchaser or user.

History: En. Sec. 6, Ch. 456, L. 2005.

33-38-104. Right to return or cancel medical care discount card or pharmacy discount card — notice — prohibited acts. (1) A medical care discount card or pharmacy discount card issued for delivery in this state is returnable or cancelable, within 30 days of the date of delivery of the card or a longer period if provided in the purchase agreement, by the purchaser or user for any reason, and the user must receive a full refund of all fees, except nominal fees associated with enrollment costs, that were part of the cost of the card.

(2) A medical care discount card supplier or pharmacy discount card supplier may not charge or collect a fee, including a cancellation fee, after a purchaser or user has returned a card to the supplier or given the supplier notice of the person's intention to return or cancel the card.

(3) A medical care discount card supplier or pharmacy discount card supplier shall ensure that each purchaser or user receives with the card a notice stating the terms under which the medical care discount card or pharmacy discount card may be returned or canceled as provided in subsections (1) and (2). A medical care discount card or pharmacy discount card returned or cancelled in accordance with this section is void from the date of purchase.

History: En. Sec. 7, Ch. 456, L. 2005.

33-38-105. Sale of medical care discount card by unregistered supplier prohibited — requirements for registration — list of authorized enrollers required — exceptions. (1) A medical care discount card supplier may not market, promote, sell, or distribute a medical care discount card in this state unless the supplier holds a certificate of registration as a supplier issued by the commissioner.

(2) An application to the commissioner for a certificate of registration must be accompanied by a nonrefundable application fee of $100. The commissioner shall issue the certificate unless the commissioner determines that the medical care discount card supplier or an officer or manager is not financially responsible, does not have adequate expertise or experience to operate a medical care discount card business, or is not of good character or that the supplier or its affiliates or a business formerly owned or managed by the supplier or an officer or manager of the supplier has had a previous application for a certificate of registration denied, revoked, suspended, or terminated for cause or is under investigation for or has been found in violation of a statute or regulation in another jurisdiction within the previous 5 years.

(3) A medical care discount card supplier shall renew its certificate of registration annually. The certificate is renewed upon payment by the supplier of a nonrefundable renewal fee of $100 and expires on the anniversary of its issuance if the renewal fee is not paid before that date. Once issued or renewed, the certificate continues in effect for 1 year unless suspended, revoked, or terminated. The commissioner shall deposit the fees required by this section with the state treasurer, to be credited to the general fund.

(4) A certificate of registration may be suspended or revoked if, after notice and hearing, the commissioner finds that the medical care discount card supplier has violated a provision of this part, that the supplier is not financially responsible or competent, or that the supplier or an affiliate or business formerly owned or managed by the supplier has had a certificate of registration denied or suspended for cause or has been found in violation of a statute or regulation in another jurisdiction.

(5) A medical care discount card supplier that violates the provisions of subsection (1) is subject to a civil penalty of not less than $5,000 or more than $25,000 for each violation. Each day of violation is considered to be a separate violation.

(6) A medical care discount card supplier that is a health insurance issuer is not required to obtain a certificate of registration in accordance with this section, except that affiliates, as defined in 33-2-1101, that are selling medical care discount cards in Montana shall obtain a certificate of registration.

(7) An administrator that is authorized to do business in this state and that provides medical care discount cards to Montana residents who are members of self-funded group health plans administered by that administrator is not required to obtain a certificate of registration pursuant to this section.

(8) A person acting as a medical care discount card supplier on October 1, 2005, shall file a certificate of registration and a list of its authorized enrollers with the commissioner by that date. A person commencing business as a supplier after October 1, 2005, shall file a certificate of registration and its list of authorized enrollers with the commissioner at least 30 days before commencing business as a supplier. After the initial filing of a list of its enrollers with the commissioner, a supplier shall file an updated list annually.

(9) This section does not excuse a medical care discount card supplier that is also an insurer from full compliance with the Montana Insurance Code.

History: En. Sec. 8, Ch. 456, L. 2005.

33-38-106. Medical care discount card supplier financial responsibility requirements — claims against bonds or accounts — exemptions. (1) A person intending to act as a medical care discount card supplier may not market, promote, advertise, or distribute a medical care discount card in this state until the person has purchased a bond or established a surety account and filed with the commissioner a copy of a bond or a statement identifying a surety account depository as provided in this section.

(2) A person intending to act as a medical care discount card supplier shall:

(a) purchase and maintain a surety bond in the amount of $50,000 issued by a surety company authorized to do business in this state; or

(b) establish and maintain a surety account in the amount of $50,000 at a federally insured bank, savings and loan association, or federal savings bank located in this state.

(3) A person intending to act as a medical care discount card supplier shall provide the depository, trustee, and account number of the surety account to the commissioner and shall annually provide to the commissioner proof of renewal of the bond or maintenance of the surety account. The person shall pay a nonrefundable filing fee of $250 with the initial filing and with each subsequent filing.

(4) A medical care discount card supplier shall maintain the surety account or bond until 2 years after the date that the supplier ceases operations in the state. Money from a surety account may not be released to the supplier without the written consent of the commissioner.

(5) A surety on a medical care discount card company bond may not cancel a bond required by this section without giving at least 21 days' written notice of cancellation to the medical care discount card supplier and the commissioner. If the commissioner receives notice of a surety's intention to cancel a supplier's bond, the commissioner shall notify the affected supplier that, unless the supplier files another $50,000 surety bond with the commissioner or establishes a $50,000 surety account on or before the date the bond is to be canceled, the supplier may no longer do business as a supplier in this state.

(6) A bond surety shall write a bond required by this section and a person intending to act as a medical care discount card supplier shall establish an account in favor of a person, and the commissioner for the benefit of a person, injured by a violation of this part. The bond surety shall also write the bond to cover any fines levied against the supplier, a supplier's enroller, or both, for a violation of this part occurring during the time the supplier's bond is in effect.

(7) A person with a claim against a medical care discount card supplier's bond or surety account for a violation of a provision of this part may maintain an action against the supplier and against either the bond surety or the trustee of the surety account, as appropriate. The aggregate liability of the surety or trustee to a person injured by a violation of this part may not exceed the amount of the surety bond or account.

(8) A person acting as a medical care discount card supplier on October 1, 2005, shall file with the commissioner a copy of a surety bond or statement identifying a surety account depository on that date. A person commencing business as a supplier after October 1, 2005, shall file a copy of a bond or statement with the commissioner at least 30 days before commencing business as a supplier.

(9) A health insurance issuer that is also a medical care discount card supplier is exempt from the requirements of this section.

(10) An administrator that is authorized to do business in this state and that provides medical care discount cards to Montana residents who are members of self-funded group health plans administered by that administrator is exempt from the requirements of this section.

History: En. Sec. 9, Ch. 456, L. 2005.

33-38-107. Waiver of registration and bonding requirements. The commissioner may waive the requirements of 33-38-105 and 33-38-106 for any preferred provider organization company. The factors taken into account in granting a waiver include but are not limited to whether the company:

(1) has contracts in place with health care providers residing in this state;

(2) has contracts in place with users and purchasers of health care services residing in this state who use the medical care discount card in conjunction with a self-funded or fully insured health plan;

(3) is primarily in the preferred provider organization business or primarily in the medical care discount card supplier business; and

(4) was in business in this state prior to October 1, 2005.

History: En. Sec. 10, Ch. 456, L. 2005.

33-38-108. Pharmacy discount card supplier requirements. (1) A pharmacy discount card supplier that sells, markets, promotes, or distributes, for a consideration, a pharmacy discount card in Montana:

(a) shall clearly and conspicuously disclose on all advertising, marketing materials, and enrollment materials that discounts offered through the use of a pharmacy discount card are not insurance and are not intended as a substitute for insurance;

(b) shall clearly and conspicuously disclose on all pharmacy discount cards that discounts offered through the use of the pharmacy discount card are not insurance;

(c) shall disclose, when a pharmacy discount card is sold in combination with a group limited supplemental insurance policy, that discounts offered through the use of the pharmacy discount card are not insurance;

(d) may not, in the advertising or offering of the pharmacy discount card, use terms or phrases commonly associated only with insurance products that could lead a prospective purchaser or user of the card to believe that the pharmacy discount card is composed of insurance products or is a substitute for insurance, despite disclaimers to the contrary by the pharmacy discount card supplier;

(e) shall ensure that each prescription drug provider claimed by the pharmacy discount card supplier to offer a discount in conjunction with the pharmacy discount card is contractually bound to provide that discount to the purchaser or user;

(f) may not make misleading, deceptive, or fraudulent representations regarding a discount or range of discounts available through the use of a pharmacy discount card;

(g) shall provide to each prospective purchaser or user prior to purchase reasonable access to a list of the benefits and services provided through the use of a pharmacy discount card;

(h) shall provide a prospective purchaser or user prior to purchase access to a list of any prescription drug providers in the prospective purchaser's or user's service area;

(i) shall disclose in all enrollment materials that a pharmacy discount card purchaser or user has 30 days to cancel a pharmacy discount card as provided in 33-38-104;

(j) shall make available to each pharmacy discount card user continuously after purchase of a pharmacy discount card, through a toll-free telephone number, the internet, and in writing upon request, the name, address, and telephone number of each prescription drug provider in the user's service area, including mail order prescription drug providers, that are bound by contract to offer prescription drugs in accordance with the terms and conditions of the pharmacy discount card; and

(k) shall designate and provide the commissioner with the name, address, and telephone number of a pharmacy discount card compliance officer responsible for ensuring compliance with the provisions of this part applicable to pharmacy discount cards and pharmacy discount card suppliers.

(2) A person violating the provisions of subsection (1) is subject to the fine provided for in 33-1-317.

History: En. Sec. 11, Ch. 456, L. 2005.
